THE FOLLOWING LEVITSKY-POWELL HAS BEEN SENT TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

- MEMORANDUM FOR COLIN L. POWELL
- THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: IRAN AIR INCIDENT -- U.S. STRATEGY FOR ICAO

AT IRAN'S REQUEST, THE ICAO COUNCIL WILL MEET IN EXTRAORDINARY SESSION ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, TO DISCUSS "THE DESTRUCTION OF IRAN AIR FLIGHT 655." THIS PAPER DISCUSSES U.S. OBJECTIVES AT THIS SESSION AND RECOMMENDED TACTICS AND STRATEGY.

U.S. OBJECTIVES

-- TO EXPRESS PROFOUND REGRET OVER THE INCIDENT;

-- TO STATE OUR LEGITIMATE REASONS FOR BEING IN THE GULF AND DESCRIBE THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THE INCIDENT OCCURRED;

-- TO REAFFIRM OUR COMMITMENT TO THE SAFETY OF

INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION AND TO PROMOTE ANY FURTHER IMPROVEMENTS THAT MAY BE NEEDED TOWARD THIS END IN RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF THE CHICAGO CONVENTION ANNEXES AND OTHER DOCUMENTS AND IN INTERNATIONAL OPERATING PRACTICES, CONSISTENT WITH OUR NATIONAL SECURITY REQUIREMENTS;

-- TO CONFIRM OUR INTENTION TO PROVIDE EX GRATIA PAYENTS TO THE FAMILIES OF THE VICTIMS AND COOPERATE IN ALL APPROPRIATE RESPECTS WITH AN ICAO INVESTIGATION;

-- TO DEFLECT ANY EFFORTS BY IRAN TO "CONDEMN" US OR OUR POLICIES AND TO ENSURE THAT ANY RESOLUTION OR INVESTIGATION INCLUDES IRAN'S ROLE IN THIS INCIDENT; AND

-- TO DEFLECT EXCESSIVELY INTRUSIVE INQUIRIES INTO MILITARY PROCEDURES AND POLICIES.

U.S. TACTICS AND STRATEGY

MOST OF THE COUNCIL'S 33 MEMBERS (TAB 1) HAVE EXPRESSED THEIR INTENTION TO ATTEND THE EXTRAORDINARY COUNCIL MEETING ON JULY 13. THE MEETING WILL PROBABLY LAST TWO DAYS AND RESULT IN AN ICAO INVESTIGATION.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WE SHOULD SEEK TO ASSURE THAT ANY ICAO INVESTIGATION IS SEEN AS A FACT-FINDING EXERCISE WITH THE GOAL OF IMPROVING THE SAFETY OF INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION. WE SHOULD PLAY A LEADING ROLE IN ANY RESULTING TECHNICAL REVIEWS AND CONSIDERATION OF IMPOVEMENTS AS NOTED IN THE OBJECTIVES.

WE WILL HAVE TO BE PREPARED TO PROVIDE THE FACTS AS EXTENSIVELY AS POSSBLE. ANY INVESTIGATION MUST BE STRUCTURED SO THAT ICAO WILL BE ABLE TO CARRY OUT ITS MANDATE IN A MANNER THAT SAFEGUARDS OUR OWN NATIONAL SECURITY REQUIREMENTS. ASSAD KOTAITE OF LEBANON, THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT, WOULD PREFER TO LAUNCH THE INVESTIGATION THROUGH HIS OWN CONSENSUS STATEMENT RATHER THAN THROUGH A RESOLUTION WHICH COULD HAVE THE RISK OF INCLUDING ANTI-U.S. LANGUAGE. WE SHOULD CONTINUE TO EXPLORE AND ENCOURAGE THIS APPROACH WHILE HOLDING IN RESERVE A U.S. DRAFT RESOLUTION (TAB 2).

SINCE THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL WILL BE ADDRESSING THE POLITICAL ASPECTS OF THE INCIDENT, WE SHOULD ATTEMPT TO KEEP THE COUNCIL FOCUSSED ON THE TECHNICAL ASPECTS. NEVERTHELESS, IRAN CAN BE EXPECTED TO PRESS FOR CONDEMNATION OF THE UNITED STATES. WE BELIEVE THE TENOR AND OUTCOME OF THE MEETING WILL DEPEND, IN LARGE MEASURE, UPON OUR ABILITY TO DEMONSTRATE OUR

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

SERIOUS INTENTION TO COOPERATE WITH ICAO IN ITS INVESTIGATION, TO ACTIVELY PARTICIPATE IN ANY TECHNICAL REVIEWS AND TO PROVIDE COMPENSATION TO THE VICTIMS' FAMILIES.

IN ADVANCE OF THE MEETING WE SHOULD:

-- CONSULT WITH PRESIDENT KOTAITE AND COUNCIL MEMBERS TO DETERMINE, INTER ALIA, WHETHER THE INVESTIGATION CAN BE INITIATED BY PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT;

-- IF NECESSARY, CIRCULATE TO SELECTED MEMBERS THE RESOLUTION AT TAB 2 FOR U.S. OR OTHER APPROPRIATE SPONSORSHIP;

-- INSTRUCT EMBASSIES IN CAPITALS OF COUNCIL MEMBER COUNRIES TO EXPLAIN OUR POSITION AND, AS APPROPRIATE, SEEK SUPPORT.

AT THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL, WE SHOULD:

-- MAKE A STRONG STATEMENT REFLECTING U.S. OBJECTIVES NOTED ABOVE;

-- SUPPORT A CALL FROM PRESIDENT KOTAITE FOR AN INVESTIGATION;

-- TABLE OR SUPPORT A RESOLUTION ALONG THE LINES OF TAB 2, IF NEEDED;

-- DEMONSTRATE OUR SUPPORT FOR ICAO BY ANNOUNCING OUR INTENTION TO SUBMIT TO THE SENATE FOR ADVICE AND CONSENT TO RATIFICATION OF ARTICLE 3 BIS OF THE CHICAGO CONVENTION, WHICH WE HELPED NEGOTIATE AFTER THE 1983 KAL INCIDENT AND SIGNED AT THAT TIME. THIS PROVISION CODIFIES CUSTOMARY INTERNATIONAL LAW THAT "EVERY STATE MUST REFRAIN FROM RESORTING TO THE USE OF WEAPONS AGAINST CIVIL ACRAFT IN FLIGHT," WHILE SPECIFICALLY PRESERVING THE RIGHTS OF STATE (I.E., SELF-DEFENSE) UNDER THE U.N. CHARTER.

Congressman Mel Levine
5250 West Century Boulevard
Suite 447
Los Angeles, CA 90045

Dear Congressman Levine,

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 2, 1988, concerning your constituent [redacted] who had requested information on three Chilean citizens.

The three Chileans, Alejandro Rodriguez Urzua, Cecilia Bueno Cifuentes, and Jorge Hernan Muller Silver, are among the 663 Chileans who disappeared between September 11, 1973 and March of 1978. The Catholic Church's human rights organizations in Chile, the Vicariate of Solidarity, lists these three as still missing.

Attempts to ascertain the welfare and whereabouts of all of these persons have failed to produce any solid information. In 1986 a judge who was investigating the cases of 10 of these persons, attempted to indict a number of military and government officials for involvement in these disappearances. He was overruled by the Supreme Court which instructed him to apply the provisions of the 1987 Amnesty law, a decision which he refused to accept. This judge was then reprimanded with a two month suspension and was relieved of this case.

The decision to apply the Amnesty law has been controversial in Chile, with a number of legal experts arguing that the provisions of amnesty cannot be applied until the fate of the victims has been clarified, and the participation of others in the disappearances has been established. Regardless of these arguments, there are no current judicial investigations underway into any of the disappearances.

I regret that I am not able to provide you, and your constituent, any positive information on the fate of the three Chilean citizens. I have made clear to the Government of Chile the concerns of the United States Government over these cases, as well as our continuing concerns over human rights in general in Chile. I will continue to keep these issues before the Chilean Government.

Sincerely,

Harry G. Barnes, Jr.

SUBJECT: EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT REPORT ON CHILE

REF: (A) BRUSSELS 8692 (B) BRUSSELS 8550

1. SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION: AS EXPECTED, THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT (EP) VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY JULY 5 IN FAVOR OF THE REPORT/RESOLUTION ON CHILE WHICH WAS DEBATED DURING THE JUNE PLENARY SESSION (REF B). THE RESOLUTION PUTS THE EP ON RECORD CALLING FOR THE LIFTING OF THE STATE OF EMERGENCY IN CHILE, FOR FREEDOM TO HOLD MEETINGS, AND FOR THE OPPOSITION TO HAVE FREE ACCESS TO THE MEDIA. IT ALSO CALLS FOR THE EP TO SEND AN OBSERVER DELEGATION TO THE PLEBESCITE (WHICH ONE SPANISH SOCIALIST MEP SAYS HE HAS HEARD WILL BE SOMETIME BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 11 AND OCTOBER 11.) A FEW MEMBERS FROM THE CENTER-RIGHT EXPRESSED UNHAPPINESS WITH SOME OF THE LANGUAGE IN THE RESOLUTION BY FRENCH SOCIALIST MEP HENRI SABY, BUT VOTED

IN FAVOR IN ORDER TO "SEND A STRONG SIGNAL" TO CHILE. THE RESOLUTION REFERS TO THE UNITED STATES IN SEVERAL OF ITS RECOMMENDATIONS. (SEE PARA 3 BELOW.) END SUMMARY.

2. THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT GO INTO HOW THE COMMISSION SHOULD SPEND THE 3 MILLION ECU (1 ECU IS NOW WORTH ABOUT $1.13) IN THE 1988 EC BUDGET FOR NGO PROJECTS IN CHILE. THIS WAS, HOWEVER, DISCUSSED ON THE MARGINS OF THE JULY PLENARY BY THE EP'S INFORMAL WORKING GROUP ON CHILE, IN THE PRESENCE OF CHILEAN CHAIRMAN OF THE CAMPAIGN FOR A NO VOTE, GENARO ARRIAGADA, AND PARTI HUMANISTA LEADERS TOMAS SAENZ AND TOMAS HIRSCH. THE MEPS WHO HAD MET WITH COMMISSION OFFICIALS INDICATED THAT THEIR TALKS ABOUT SPENDING THE 3 MILLION ECU HAD BEEN IN A "POSITIVE SPIRIT", BUT THAT THERE WERE STILL A COUPLE OF "PROBLEMS" WHICH WOULD BE DISCUSSED INFORMALLY AGAIN WITH COMMISSION OFFICIALS THE WEEK OF JULY 11-15. AN EP STAFFER TOLD US PRIVATELY THAT THE "PROBLEMS" ARE RELATED TO THE EC COMMISSION'S CONCERN ABOUT FUNDING PROJECTS WHICH COULD BE CONSTRUED AS POLITICAL IN NATURE. (SEE REF A FOR BACKGROUND ON THE COMMISSION'S THINKING.) BELOW ARE (A) BRIEF HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE EP RESOLUTION--FULL TEXT BEING DATAFAXED TO EUR/RPE, AND (B) DETAILS OF PLANS FOR THE EP'S OBSERVER DELEGATION.

THE LONGEST DEMOCRATIC TRADITION ON THE LATIN AMERICAN CONTINENT AS WELL AS A PROSPEROUS ECONOMY.

-- WHEREAS THE PERPETRATION OF ACTS OF TERRORISM BY MINORITY SECTORS HAS BEEN USED BY THE GOVERNMENT AS A MEANS OF LEGITIMIZING ITS REPRESSIVE ACTIVITIES AND JUSTIFYING ITS CONTINUING OCCUPATION OF POWER.

-- WHEREAS NEITHER EUROPE NOR THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONS WITH INFLUENCE IN THE REGION, PARTICULARLY THE UNITED STATES, CAN DISREGARD THE SITUATION.

-- CONSIDERS THAT THE MINIMUM GUARANTEES FOR A CORRECT ELECTORAL PROCESS INCLUDE THE LIFTING OF THE STATE OF EMERGENCY AND OF ALL OTHER EXCEPTIONAL MEASURES, THE FULL RECOGNITION OF FREEDOM TO HOLD MEETINGS, ALLOWING THE OPPOSITION EQUAL ACCESS TO ALL MEANS OF COMMUNICATION, INCLUDING TELEVISION, AND THE RETURN OF ALL POLITICAL EXILES.

-- WELCOMES AND SUPPORTS THE NEW AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE 13 POLITICAL PARTIES OF 2 FEBRUARY 1988, ON 'COMBINING TO SAY NO.'

-- WELCOMES THE ADOPTION, ON 10 MAY 1988, OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROGRAM OF THE PARTIES OF THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION UNITED IN THEIR 'VOTE NO' CAMPAIGN AND CONSIDERS THAT THIS AGREEMENT MARKS AN ESSENTIAL STEP IN THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

3. DCM AND VISITING CHILE DESK OFFICER DESHAZO LUNCHED JULY 7 WITH UNDER SECRETARY OF INTERIOR ALBERTO CARDEMIL. CARDEMIL IS NOT ONE OF THE TOP STRATEFISTS OF THE PINOCHET ELECTION CAMPAIGN, BUT HE IS CERTAINLY ONE OF THE KEY IMPLEMENTERS OF THE STRATEGIES SET BY PINOCHET AND INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ. HE ACCOMPANIED PINOCHET ON A CAMPAIGN TRIP TO CONCEPCION JULY 8-9.

4. CARDEMIL SAID THERE ARE FOUR MAIN "POLITICAL" LAWS STILL ON THE GOVERNMENT'S AGENDA: THE LAW TO FIX CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION DISTRICTS, THE LAW REGULATING INTERNAL OPERATING PROCEDURES OF THE NEW CONGRESS, A NEW BASIC LAW GOVERNING RADIO AND TELEVISION, AND A LAW TO CARRY OUT A DECISION HANDED DOWN BY THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL WITH RESPECT TO (A) INDEPENDENT GROUPS WISHING TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PLEBISCITE, AND (B) POLITICAL PROPAGANDA IN THE MEDIA DURING THE FORMAL PLEBISCITE CAMPAIGN. THE LATTER, HE SAID, WAS ABOUT TO BE SENT TO THE LEGISLATIVE JUNTA FOR ITS CONSIDERATION AND APPROVAL. HE SAID NOTHING ABOUT THE TIMING OF THE REMAINING THREE LAWS.

CARDEMIL PROMISED TO SEND THE EMBASSY MORE DETAILS. THE FOLLOWING DAY HE SENT THE EMBASSY A MEMO SUMMARIZING SOME (BUT NOT ALL) PROVISIONS OF THE BILL; SIMULTANEOUSLY THE GOC ANNOUNCED THAT PINOCHET HAD TRANSMITTED THE BILL TO THE JUNTA. ACCORDING TO CARDEMIL'S MEMO, "POLITICAL PROPAGANDA CAN BE PUBLISHED OR BROADCAST ONLY FROM THE 30TH UNTIL THE 3RD DAY PRIOR TO THE PLEBISCITE."

(IF, FOR EXAMPLE, THE PLEBISCITE IS HELD OCTOBER
5, PROPAGANDA WOULD BE PERMITTED FROM SEPTEMBER
5 TO OCTOBER 2, INCLUSIVE.) RADIO STATIONS AND THE WRITTEN PRESS CAN CARRY AS MANY POLITICAL ADS AND SPEECHES AS THEY WISH, BUT WILL NOT BE REQUIRED TO CARRY ANY, AND MAY NOT DISCRIMINATE IN THE RATES CHARGED.

6. COMMENT: THE MEMO CONTAINS NO DEFINITION OF "PROPAGANDA," AND IT IS CURRENTLY BEING INTERPRETED DIFFERENTLY BETWEEN RADIO, PRESS
AND TV. IN THE PRESS AND RADIO, POLITICAL ADS ARE BEING PERMITTED WHICH SEEM INDISTINGUISHABLE FROM WHAT WOULD BE PERMITTED DURING THE FORMAL CAMPAIGN. BUT PRO-GOVERNMENT PAPERS ARE REJECTING
SOME PAID ADS, AND THERE ARE RUMORS THAT RATE DISCRIMINATION IN FAVOR OF THE GOVERNMENT DOES OCCUR. ON TV, ON THE OTHER HAND, NO OPPOSITION
ADS ARE PERMITTED, AND ONLY THE SMALLEST CHANNEL IS RUNNING EVEN INNOCUOUS "REGISTER TO VOTE" PUBLIC SERVICE ADS. END COMMENT.

CHILE, AND THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITIES OF SANTIAGO AND VALPARAISO - WILL BE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE 30 MINUTES OF FREE TIME DAILY DURING THE 27-DAY PERIOD SPECIFIED. THE TIME IS TO BE DIVIDED EQUALLY BETWEEN THE CANDIDATE NOMINATED BY THE COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF AND THOSE PARTIES AND INDEPENDENT GROUPS THAT OPPOSE HIM. (IF FULLY UTILIZED, THAT WOULD GIVE THE SOMEWHAT INCREDIBLE FIGURE OF 27 HOURS OF FREE TV TIME TO THE OPPOSITION, AND ANOTHER 27 HOURS, DIVIDED AMONG THE FOUR CHANNELS, TO THE GOVERNMENT.) THE MEMO SAYS THAT THE "DISTRIBUTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF TIME WILL BE MADE BY THE NATIONAL RADIO AND TELEVISION COUNCIL." IT GIVES NO INDICATION OF HOW THE COUNCIL WILL DECIDE WHAT HOUR OR HOURS OF THE DAY WILL BE ASSIGNED, NOR HOW TIME WILL BE ALLOCATED AMONG THE MANY OPPOSITION PARTIES AND GROUPS. IT MAKES CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT THE 15 MINUTES DAILY OF PRO-PINOCHET TIME WILL BE CONTROLLED BY THE CANDIDATE, AND

8. ANOTHER IMPORTANT ASPECT OF THE BILL IS NOT COVERED AT ALL BY CARDEMIL'S MEMO - NAMELY, THE PROVISIONS GOVERNING PARTICIPATION IN THE PLEBISCITE BY INDEPENDENTS. HE TOLD US OVER LUNCH, HOWEVER, THAT THE BILL PROPOSED TO GRANT TO COMMITTEES OF INDEPENDENTS THE SAME RIGHTS AS POLITICAL PARTIES - THAT IS, ANY COMMITTEE THAT GATHERED THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF SIGNATURES IN A GIVEN REGION WOULD BE GIVEN LEGAL RECOGNITION IN THAT REGION, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO HAVE POLLWATCHERS AT VOTING PLACES IN THAT REGION. THIS PROVISION IS EXPECTED TO BENEFIT PRIMARILY UDI, THE PRO-PINOCHET GROUP THAT SPLIT OFF FROM RENOVACION NACIONAL.

9. ASKED ABOUT FOREIGN OBSERVERS, CARDEMIL REPEATED THE GOC POSITION ANNOUNCED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY: VISAS WILL BE ISSUED TO EVERYONE, ANYONE WHO WISHES WILL BE ALLOWED TO WATCH THE VOTING AND VOTE COUNTING PROCESS, BUT NO ONE WILL BE GIVEN ANY OFFICIAL RECOGNITION, STATUS, OR IDENTIFYING CREDENTIALS.

10. ASKED ABOUT THE STATES OF EXCEPTION AND WHEN THEY WILL BE LIFTED, CARDEMIL SAID, "THE SOONER THE BETTER, BUT THE DECISION ISN'T MINE." HE SAID THE ONLY PURPOSE THEY SERVE IS TO (A) LIMIT - "THEORETICALLY," HE SAID - FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, AND (B) REQUIRE ORGANIZERS OF PUBLIC MEETINGS TO OBTAIN PERMITS. NEITHER

IS OF ANY IMPORTANCE - IN FACT, THE STATES OF EXCEPTION HAVE BECOME "MORE IMPORTANT TO YOU THAN TO US." BUT HE DECLINED TO BE PINNED DOWN AS TO WHEN THEY MIGHT BE LIFTED.

11. REMINDED THAT HE HAD TOLD CODEL LAGOMARSINO A YEAR AGO THAT THE PLEBISCITE WOULD BE HELD IN SEPTEMBER, CARDEMIL LAUGHED AND SAID "I WASN'T FAR OFF." BUT HE THEN INSISTED HE DIDN'T KNOW THE DATE, AND SAID BOTH OCTOBER

AND DECEMBER HAD BEEN TALKED ABOUT. (IN A SPEECH THE FOLLOWING DAY IN CONCEPCION, PINOCHET SAID THE PLEBISCITE WAS LESS THAN 90 DAYS OFF. IF HE WAS BEING PRECISE, IT WOULD HAVE TO BE HELD NO LATER THAN OCTOBER 5.)

12. CARDEMIL EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE "YES" WILL WIN. THE LARGE NUMBER OF UNDECIDED SHOWN IN EVERY POLL IS DUE SIMPLY TO THE FACT THAT THERE HAVE BEEN SO MANY POLLS PEOPLE ARE TIRED OF BEING ASKED. THE UNDECIDED REALLY MASK A LARGE "YES" VOTE. (THIS IS THE MIRROR IMAGE OF THE ARGUMENT CURRENT AMONG SOME IN THE OPPOSITION WHO INSIST THAT THE UNDECIDED ARE REALLY CONVINCED "NO" VOTES WHO ARE UNWILLING TO SAY SO.) IF SOMEHOW THE "NO" DOES WIN, THE SUBSEQUENT COMPETITIVE ELECTION WILL BE WON BY A COALITION OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT AND RADICAL PARTIES, AND FOREIGN INVESTMENT WILL PULL OUT IN DROVES. DCM SAID HE FOUND IT INCONCEIVABLE THAT UTAH MINING, FOR EXAMPLE, WOULD POUR A BILLION DOLLARS INTO ESCONDIDA

13. THE MESSAGE THE UNDER SECRETARY SEEMED MOST CONCERNED TO CONVEY TO HIS LISTENERS WAS THAT THE USG OUGHT TO ENDORSE THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. WHEN REMINDED THAT WE HAD NEVER OPPOSED IT, HE ASSERTED THAT WE HAD BACKED THE NATIONAL ACCORD (HE CAME CLOSE TO SAYING WE HAD ORIGINATED AND SPONSORED IT) BECAUSE IT CALLED FOR CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION. BUT THE NATIONAL ACCORD FAILED, AND THE GOC HAS SUCCEEDED IN CARRYING OUT EVERY PROVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION, AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO. IF THE "NO" WINS, THE ARMED FORCES WILL SEE TO IT THAT THE PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THAT SITUATION ARE CARRIED OUT, NOTHING MORE, NOTHING LESS. IT WAS IMPORTANT WE REALIZE THAT, AND THAT U.S. POLICY ADAPT ITSELF

TO THAT REALITY. CARDEMIL SAID EVEN FRIENDS OF HIS FIND IT HARD TO BELIEVE THAT PINOCHET CAN "GO TO SLEEP AN AUTOCRAT AND WAKE UP THE NEXT MORNING A DEMOCRAT" - IN OTHER WORDS, THAT THE DICTATOR OF 15 YEARS CAN BECOME A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT THE MORNING AFTER WINNING THE PLEBISCITE.

BUT HE INSISTED THAT THE INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK THAT WILL COME INTO BEING IN 1989-90, SUCH AS A (PARTIALLY) ELECTED CONGRESS, WILL REQUIRE MUCH DIFFERENT BEHAVIOR ON THE PART OF THE NEWLY ELECTED PRESIDENT.

14. IN ANSWER TO A COMMENT ABOUT THE EXTREME AND DIVISIVE LANGUAGE THAT HAS CHARACTERIZED MOST OF PINOCHET'S CAMPAIGN SPEECHES, CARDEMIL ASSERTED THAT A DECISION HAD BEEN MADE TO MODERATE THE TONE. THE WORD "CHAOS" TO DESCRIBE THE CONSEQUENCES OF A "NO" VOTE WAS NO LONGER BEING USED, BUT THE GOC WOULD CONTINUE TO ARGUE THAT AN OPPOSITION VICTORY WOULD MEAN A RETURN TO THE INSTABILITY OF THE ALLENDE ERA, BECAUSE IT WAS CONVINCED THAT WAS TRUE. (COMMENT: PINOCHET'S SPEECH IN CONCEPCION THE NEXT DAY COULD BEST BE DESCRIBED AS MIXED - CONTAINING BOTH EXTREME AND MORE MODERATE LANGUAGE. IT WOULD APPEAR THAT PINOCHET'S ADVISERS DO IN FACT BELIEVE THAT HIS VIOLENT ATTACKS ON THE OPPOSITION ARE POLITICALLY COUNTERPRODUCTIVE, BUT ARE NOT ABLE TO CONTROL HIM ON THE STUMP.) BARNES

Letelier Matter

Former Chilean Ambassador Letelier and Ms. Ronnie Moffit, an American citizen, were killed by a car bomb in Washington, D.C. in September 1976.

In 1976, Congressional concern over the Letelier matter led to approval of the Kennedy Amendment to the Foreign Assistance Act which prohibited security assistance to Chile.

In 1978, a Grand Jury investigating the deaths indicted three Chilean military officers working for DINA (the Chilean intelligence service), alleged to have directed the bombing, a number of Cuban exiles located in the US alleged to have carried out the bombing, and an American citizen, Michael Townley, alleged to have assisted in the assassination.

The USG issued a strong statement condemning the assassination, and the complicity of Chilean officials in that assassination.

The USG arrested several of the Cuban exiles and sought the return of Townley and the extradition of the three Chilean military officers from Chile.

Townley was returned to the US but, based upon a 1978 decision of the Chilean Supreme Court, the Chilean Government refused to extradite the three Chileans.

The USG strongly criticized the Chilean Government for, in effect, aiding and abetting terrorism by failing to cooperate in the prosecution of the three Chileans implicated in the assassination. While the Carter Administration rhetoric went further than the present Administration in criticizing Chile, neither Administration has gone so far as to expressly accuse the Government of Chile explicitly of state sponsored terrorism.

In 1979, in response to Chile's refusal to extradite the three Chileans, the Carter Administration took the following actions:

- invoked the Chafee Amendment under EXIM Bank legislation;
- suspended delivery of equipment in the Military FMS pipeline already paid for and approved;
- eliminated our military assistance group mission;
- ended OPIC investment guarantees; and
- cancelled Chilean participation in the annual UNITAS hemispheric naval exercises.

In 1981, in an effort to revive strained relations with Chile conducive to movement on the Letelier matter and other pressing bilateral issues, the present Adminstration took the following steps:

- reversed restrictions on Chilean participation under EXIM Bank legislation;

- reinstated Chilean participation in annual UNITAS exercises; and

- resumed Chilean participation in OPIC.

Also in 1981, the 1976 Kennedy Amendment was revised to permit authorization of security assistance if the President certifies that Chile is meeting three criteria, including that Chile is using all legal means in the US and Chile to bring the individuals responsible for the assassination to justice. The Administration has not made such a certification.

Bottom Line - The Letelier/Moffit matter remains a principal concern for the USG. We continue to raise the matter with Chilean officials and emphasize the impediment that it poses for US/Chilean relations.

CHILE: STATUS OF LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE

Q. Has there been any cooperation in the Letelier/Moffitt case? Has the Chilean Government agreed to extradite those requested by our government in order to stand trial for this crime? What are the implications of the second military court's November 13 decision to issue a definitive stay of proceedings in the court case pending against General Contreras?

A. -- The Chilean Government returned to U.S. custody American citizen Michael Townley and absolved Townley of his oath of secrecy, thereby permitting him to turn state's evidence and cooperate with the federal investigation of this crime.

-- On October 1, 1978, the Chilean Supreme Court rejected the U.S. request for the extradition of Manuel Contreras, Pedro Espinoza and Armando Fernandez, who were indicted by a U.S. grand jury for the Letelier/Moffitt assassinations. In doing so, the Court ruled that most of the U.S. presented evidence was inadmissable on various grounds, including state's evidence (from Townley) that was not admissable under the Chilean system of jurisprudence. The Court stated that only new evidence can be used in prosecuting the three officers in the military court in Santiago.

-- On September 17, 1981, a review panel made up of two civilian and two military judges ruled 3-1 to uphold an earlier decision by the military court (where the case had been referred by the Supreme Court) that there were not adequate grounds to try the accused officers in Chile and to close the investigation. The Government, however, did not accept the panel's recommendation to close the case and, instead, left it pending submission of new evidence.

-- On November 13, 1985, the second military court in Santiago issued a definitive stay of proceedings in favor of General Contreras, concerning his involvement in the forgery of passports for those involved in the death of former Foreign Minister Letelier. The court held that a temporary stay of proceedings dating back several years could be made permanent because no new evidence had been presented.

-- The Letelier family has appealed the second military court's decision to issue the definitive stay. The military court of appeals must now make a ruling. In the event that this court should uphold the decision of the second military court, the decision of the appeals court can be appealed to the civilian appeals court.

MEXICO CITY (AP) Opposition presidential candidate Manuel J. Clouthier and about 150 supporters scuffled with presidential guards on Tuesday in the heart of Mexico City, then staged a sit-in to protest alleged electoral fraud.

As President Miguel de la Madrid arrived at the Fine Arts Palace for a speech to about 2,500 lawyers, Clouthier stood up, carrying a sign that read, ''Mr. President, keep your word.'' The sit-in went on while de la Madrid spoke inside.

Results from last Wednesday's elections released by the governing Institutional Revolutionary Party showed its lowest proportion of the vote since its founding 59 years ago. The party, known by its Spanish initials PRI, generally wins the presidency with at least 70 percent of the vote.

The figures indicated, however, that this time the PRI will take the presidency by only slightly more than 50 percent of the vote and will pay little heed to opposition protests of election fraud.

The white-bearded, heavy-set Clouthier, a businessman and rancher, is the candidate of the conservative National Action Party. He was running third in unofficial, partial returns from last Wednesday's elections.

Clouthier and the other top opposition candidate, Cuauhtemoc Cardenas of the leftist National Democratic Front, claim the government is rigging the vote count in favor of the PRI's Carlos Salinas de Gortari.

De la Madrid had pledged clean elections. Government and party officials are calling the vote the cleanest ever in Mexico.

Clouthier vowed to lead sit-ins at every event where de la Madrid or Salinas is scheduled to appear, as part of a national civil disobedience campaign to protest the alleged fraud. He said earlier he would file criminal charges against the head of the National Electoral Registry.

Carrying signs reading ''Punishment for electoral criminals'' and ''Total repudiation of the electoral fraud,'' the group pushed past a line of about 50 plainclothes presidential guards who tried to stop them.

After a scuffle, the group sat down at the entrance to the ornate, landmark building in downtown Mexico City.

The Federal Election Commission, the only source of official results, adjourned early Tuesday and said it would not meet again until Wednesday night. Seven days after the elections, it was releasing official results only on balloting for the Chamber of Deputies, the lower house of Congress.

With the vote count lagging, the PRI again released data it said came from the federal commission.

Those results showed Salinas de Gortari had 53.59 percent of the votes counted. Cardenas was second with 26.08 percent and Clouthier had 16.04 percent.

Two candidates for small parties and null ballots accounted for the remainder.

Those results showed a turnout of 51.7 percent in the 235 of the 300 districts tallied, the government newspaper El Nacional said. But original reports claimed an exceptionally high turnout. Earlier, the government and the governing party had blamed the high turnout for the slowness of the vote count.

Turnout was officially placed at 75 percent in the last presidential rce in 1982. But strong candidates and active campaigns on the left and right spurred voter interest in the July 6 race.

Cardenas charged on Monday that the election officials were not counting many of the votes that had been cast for opposition candidates. Cardenas claims he won, based on figures he says came from unidentified PRI officials.

Cardenas, a former PRI senator and Michoacan state governor, led a dissident movement within the governing party before breaking away last year to accept the candidacy of other parties.

Ballots are counted at polling places immediately after the election, but according to law those for the Chamber of Deputies and for the Senate must be processed before those for president in an official count.

The only returns released officially by the commission so far gave 241 of the 500 seats in the chamber to the PRI, 32 to the National Action Party and 10 to parties that support Cardenas. The results were from 283 of the 300 electoral districts.

Victories by parties supporting Cardenas were in the state of Mexico, which surrounds Mexico City, and Michoacan. Victories for the National Action Party were in the western state of Jalisco, the Federal District, which is the core of the Mexico City metropolitan area, and the northern border state of Chihuahua.

The governing party has not lost a presidential, senate or gubernatorial race since it was founded in 1929.

2. I AM WRITING TO YOU ON BEHALF OF [redacted] TO OBTAIN FOR HIM THE MOST EXPEDITIOUS TREATMENT POSSIBLE. I AM PERSONALLY VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THIS YOUNG MAN'S CASE.

3. ON JULY 11, I SENT THE CONSUL GENERAL AND ANOTHER CONSULAR OFFICER TO INTERVIEW MR. [redacted] WHAT THEY LEARNED FROM HIM AND OTHER SOURCES HAS LEFT ME NO DOUBT THAT MR. [redacted] IS IN REAL AND IMMINENT DANGER OF HIS LIFE FROM MEMBERS OF THE GUERRILLA FACTION KNOWN AS THE PEOPLE'S REVOLUTIONARY ARMY (ERP).

4. THE COURSE OF EVENTS THAT LEAD ME TO THIS CONCLUSION IS AS FOLLOWS: ON JUNE 30, AT 3:00 PM MR. [redacted] WAS ATTENDING HIS REGULAR ENGLISH CLASS WITH ELEVEN OTHER STUDENTS AT THE SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF EL SALVADOR. WHILE THE CLASS WAS IN PROGRESS NINE HOODED INDIVIDUALS ENTERED THE CLASSROOM BRANDISHING METAL RODS. THIS MOB IMMEDIATELY BEGAN TO STRIKE ALL THE STUDENTS WITH THE RODS BUT QUICKLY SINGLED OUT MR. [redacted] AND CONCENTRATED ON BEATING HIM. HIS ATTACKERS THEN LEFT WITHOUT MAKING ANY STATEMENTS, LEAVING MR. [redacted] SEVERELY INJURED.

5. ACCORDING TO MR. [redacted] HE WAS INITIALLY TREATED AT THE UNIVERSITY CLINIC AND SUBSEQUENTLY MOVED TO THE SOCIAL SECURITY HOSPITAL IN SAN SALVADOR. HE ALLOWED THE CONSUL GENERAL AND OTHER CONSULAR OFFICER TO EXAMINE HIM. MULTIPLE BRUISES WERE STILL VERY EVIDENT ON HIS ARMS AND CHEST. HIS INJURIES, HOWEVER, DID NOT STOP THERE. BOTH LEGS WERE FRACTURED, REQUIRING CASTS TO HIS HIPS. AT PRESENT, MR. IS CONFINED TO BED, UNABLE TO USE CRUTCHES FOR THREE WEEKS.

5. WHEN ASKED WHY HE WAS SINGLED OUT FOR AN ESPECIALLY VICIOUS BEATING, MR. REPLIED THAT HE STUDIES AND SPEAKS ENGLISH AND ATTENDS AN ENGLISH SPEAKING CHURCH. ALSO, HE REFUSED TO JOIN ANY OF THE RADICAL STUDENT GROUPS ON THE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS INCLUDING AGEUS. HE SAID THAT HE WAS PROBABLY TARGETED AS A SUSPECT INDIVIDUAL BY THOSE RADICAL GROUPS.

7. MR. PAIN AND SUFFERING ARE NOT LIMITED TO HIS PHYSICAL INJURIES. ONE OF HIS BEST FRIENDS, JOSE ABRAHAM RIVERA MENDOZA, WAS A RECENT GRADUATE FROM THE SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES WITH A DEGREE IN ENGLISH. THIS INDIVIDUAL WAS KIDNAPPED AND ASSASSINATED ON MAY 26TH OF THIS YEAR. MR. FEARS THAT THE SAME GROUP THAT ATTACKED HIM MAY HAVE BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS FRIEND'S MURDER.

CC

9. WHAT IS NOW NEEDED IN THIS CASE IS AN EXPEDITED DETERMINATION OF MR. REFUGEE STATUS FROM THE IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE. HUMANITARIAN PAROLE WOULD NOT SUFFICE. THE FAMILY WOULD REQUIRE THE ASSISTANCE AFFORDED BY THE SUPPORT PROGRAMS THAT ACCOMPANY REFUGEE STATUS. WE HAVE ALWAYS HAD THE WHOLEHEARTED SUPPORT OF INS MEXICO IN MATTERS SUCH AS THIS. A RECENT CASE CONCERNING THE FAMILY OF A JUDGE ASSASINATED BECAUSE OF HIS EXPRESSED OPPOSITION TO TERRORISM AND KIDNAPPING WAS QUICKLY CONCLUDED DUE TO SWIFT INS ACTION. I UNDERSTAND THAT THE RESOURCES OF INS MEXICO ARE NOW STRECHED TO THE LIMIT. WE IN THE EMBASSY, HOWEVER, ARE CONCERNED THAT UNLESS MR. [redacted] IS MOVED AND MOVED QUICKLY, THAT YET ANOTHER ASSASSINATION MAY OCCUR -- ONE THAT MAY HAVE BEEN AVOIDABLE.

10. I REQUEST THAT YOU CONSIDER THIS MATTER AND RENDER WHATEVER ASSISTANCE IS NECESSARY TO RESOLVE MR. [redacted] CASE AS EXPEDITIOUSLY AS POSSIBLE. I BELIEVE THIS TO BE IN THE INTEREST OF OUR POLICY. A COMPASSIONATE AND HUMANE RESPONSE IS CLEARLY THE BEST POSSIBLE. SPECIFICALLY, IF INS IS UNABLE TO SEND AN OFFICER TO INTERVIEW MR. [redacted] CAN AUTHORITY BE DELEGATED TO OUR CONSULAR OFFICER? IN TRULY EXCEPTIONAL CASES SUCH AS THIS, THE REFUGEE PROGRAM IS THE ONLY APPROPRIATE APPROACH BECAUSE OF THE PERSONAL SITUATIONS OF THE APPLICANTS INVOLVED.

RESULTS OF THE MEXICAN FEDERAL ELECTIONS, 1988

On Wednesday July 13th, Mexico's Federal Electoral Commission, whose sessions were public and open to the press, released the official results of the elections held on July 6th, 1988. These elections were for President of the Republic, Senators and Deputies. Such results are still subject of qualification by the Electoral College, which is integrated by all 500 congressmen that received a majority certificate after these elections. The Electoral College will also declare Mexico's President-elect for a single six-year term to start on December 1st, 1988, until November 30th, 1994.

In regard to the election for President of the Republic, the results provided by the Federal Electoral Commission were as follows:

PARTY[1]	CANDIDATE	NUMBER OF VOTES	%
PRI	Mr. Carlos Salinas de Gortari	9 641 329	50.36
PFCRN & Coalition	Mr. Cuauhtémoc Cárdenas	5 956 988	31.12
PAN	Mr. Manuel J. Clouthier	3 267 159	17.07
PDM	Mr. Gumersindo Magaña	199 484	1.04
PRT	Ms. Rosario Ibarra	80 052	0.42
TOTAL		19 145 012	100.00

[1] PRI. Partido Revolucionario Institucional. (Institutional Revolutionary Party)
PFCRN. Partido del Frente Cardenista de Reconstrucción Nacional y coaliciones (Party of the Cardenista Front for National Reconstruction and coalitions).
PAN. Partido Acción Nacional. (National Action Party).
PDM. Partido Demócrata Mexicano. (Mexican Democratic Party.)
PRT. Partido Revolucionario de los Trabajadores. (Workers' Revolutionary Party).

In regard to the elections for Senators and Deputies (300 elected through relative majority) the Federal Electoral Commission released the following results:

PARTY	NUMBER OF SENATORS	NUMBER OF DEPUTIES
PRI	60	249
PFCRN & Coalition	4	20
PAN	0	31

The official results for the remaining 200 deputy seats, distributed in accordance to the principle of proportional representation will be released as of July 18th. However, preliminary results indicate that the Chamber of Deputies will house in total, around 260 PRI deputies and 240 from the opposition parties combined.

The National Action Party (PAN) received its highest percentages of votes in Mexico City, Guadalajara, Ciudad Juárez and León. Likewise, the best showing of the coalition of parties supporting the candidacy of Mr. Cárdenas took place in Mexico City and the states of México, Michoacán and Morelos.

ELECTORAL GUARANTIES

What follows is a description of some of Mexico's electoral laws, as stated in the Federal Electoral Code, which are aimed to insure the process's transparency and rightfulness, as well as the voters' and parties' participation upon basis of equality:

1. In order to prevent a single party to manipulate in any fashion the electoral results, representatives of all parties, opposition and official alike, are requested to be present at each and everyone of the polling stations. Before the election takes place, party representatives to the District Committees can sign in the back of the ballots if they choose to do so. The different parties and candidates' representatives at the polling stations can also do so before handling the ballots to the voters. At the end of the day, they open up the boxes and cancel whatever ballot that does not bear their signatures. (Art. 246 of the Federal Electoral Code and FEC's agreement of June 30th, 1988).

2. All of the voters must carry their personal identifications with a picture, as well as their elector's I.D, which are punched in the proper space --in this case where its said "1988"-- and, upon casting their ballots, their right thumb is painted with indelible ink, so as to prevent anybody from voting twice or more times. Their names are checked in the electoral rolls as they show up, so as to make sure they are voting in the appropiate booth and district. (Articles 247 and 261 of the Federal Electoral Code) If they do not have the elector's I.D. card, but are in the list, they can vote as long as they prove they are the person enlisted in the roll to the satisfaction of all the parties' representatives and electoral officials. If they have the I.D. card but are not in the roll, they can vote as long as no more than 10% of a booth's voters are in the same situation as he or she.

3. To avoid the possibility of ballot stuffing, before the elections, all party representatives must make sure the ballot boxes are empty and so state it in that booth's records. Those empty boxes are also shown to the voters that are already present at the balloting station before the election starts. (Article 252 of the Federal Electoral Code).

4. Refering to the allegation that some people could not vote because the corresponding booth did not open in time or was closed too early, its should be noticed that no polling station can be closed before 6:00 P.M. and they must remain open as late as needed, until the last person in line has cast his or her ballots. (Art. 266 of the Federal Electoral Code).

5. At the end of the electoral day, the boxes are opened up before the eyes of all of the party representatives and they start counting one vote at a time, making sure all of them get the very same results. The booth's president shows each ballot to all of the representatives, for them to know the voter's choice of party and candidate and count them. After the counting, the ballots are returned to the boxes, which are sealed and signed by all of the party representatives and electoral authorities in that booth. (Art. 275 of the Federal Electoral Code). The number of votes cast must match to the actual number of persons voting in each balloting booth.

6. All representatives of all parties and candidates receive a copy, bearing the signatures of all, of the documents that give account of the booth's activities, such as vote-counting, complaints, opening and closing times, number of ballots cast and so on. All representatives keep those copies for their parties' records and as a way to check figures and results against those released by the electoral authorities. Ever since all of the parties as well as the electoral authorities have the very same information in their hands, all of their conclusions must match at the district and national level. In case any dispute may arise on such figures, all they need to do is showing the documentation of the booth or district where the controversy is at stake. (Art. 183, 265, 267, 270, 273, 274, and 276 of the Federal Electoral Code).

7. The sealed and signed ballot boxes are taken to the District Committee by the electoral authorities and by any party or candidate representative that so desires, where they are received by the district's officials, other party and candidates representatives and electoral authorities. (Art. 277)

8. To avoid that the exactly number of votes a party received may be altered, at the end of the scrutiny the polling station's records must have written down the order in which each candidate finished; on top the one that won the most votes, at the bottom the one than garnered the least ammount. It must also show the total number of unused and annulled ballots.

9. At the end of the scrutiny, a poster in which the electoral results are shown is displayed outside the booths for everyone to see the outcome. It also bears the signatures of all of the representatives and officials that took care of that particular balloting station. (Art. 292) The same procedure is done at the District Committee's office, once the additions of the results are duly made.

10. In regard to complaints about changing the location of polling stations, such adress can be changed by the electoral officials, in order to insure the voters' right to secrecy and to provide the best possible facilities. Nevertheless, if such a change of address is to take place, the authorities and party and candidates' representatives must display a notice in the door of the previously announced location, giving directions on where the new booth is to be found. (Art. 255)

11. Elections can be annulled in a particular district when irregularities are substantiated in 20 per cent of the balloting booths that comprise such a district. (Art 337).

12. In order to prevent that inexistent or dead people may be registered as a voter in the Electoral Roll, all of the parties receive a copy of such Roll several months before the elections to enable them to correct and up-date it. Every party and all political organizations are co-responsible and obliged to help in this task. Likewise, offices in charge of foreigners who have naturalized as Mexicans and of receiving notice of people older than 18 years of age who have died, must inform to the National Electoral Roll offices, to up-date its lists. (Art. 132 to 157).

Additionally, any complaint that is duly substantiated with evidence by the various parties can be presented before the Federal Electoral Tribunal --integrated by 9 persons proposed and approved by all parties, who have never been candidates to electoral posts from any party and who are nationaly known for their honesty and deep knowledge of Mexico's laws.

Representatives of all of the contending parties were present in 98% of the 54 461 balloting booths throughout the country in the election day. In each of those balloting stations there was a president, a secretary, two vote- counters, plus party and candidate representatives as poll-watchers taking care of the legality of the whole process. Overall, including the people involved in the District Committees and Federal Electoral Commission, roughly two million people participated in the surveillance and rightfulness of the elections.

Even though it is understandable that in such hotly contested elections people would like to know the results as quickly as possible, the Federal Electoral Commission may take up to one week to render its conclussions and results. In compliance with this provision, the FEC released partial results the days following the elections and the final ones as of Wednesday July 13th, that is to say, exactly one week after the ballots were cast. (Art. 295, 303 and 305).

NOTE: If, upon reading this press release, you need additional information or have further questions about Mexico's political elections, write to the Embassy of Mexico's Press and Public Affairs Office in Washington, D.C.

MEXICO CITY (UPI) _ LEADERS OF MEXICO'S POLITICAL OPPOSITION, WHICH MADE IMPRESSIVE GAINS IN THE NATIONAL ELECTIONS, EXPRESSED OUTRAGE THURSDAY AFTER THE RULING PARTY PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE WAS OFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED THE WINNER.

OPPOSITION LEADERS TO THE LEFT AND RIGHT OF THE RULING INSTITUTIONAL REVOLUTIONARY PARTY, OR PRI, CHARGED THAT THE PARTY'S CANDIDATE, CARLOS SALINAS DE GORTARI, WON THE JULY 6 ELECTION ONLY THROUGH WIDESPREAD FRAUD.

SALINAS WAS OFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED THE WINNER WEDNESDAY IN A LATE-NIGHT MEETING OF THE PRI-DOMINATED FEDERAL ELECTORAL COMMISSION. THE COMMISSION DELAYED RELEASING FINAL RETURNS, CITING COMMUNICATION AND COMPUTER PROBLEMS.

BUT THE OPPOSITION CHARGES THAT ELECTION OFFICIALS CREATED THE DELAY IN ORDER TO MANUFACTURE A FRAUDULENT PRI VICTORY.

THE PRI, WHICH HAS RULED WITHOUT INTERRUPTION SINCE 1929, DENIES ANY WRONGDOING BY PARTY OR GOVERNMENT WORKERS, EITHER ON ELECTION DAY OR DURING THE FOLLOWING WEEK.

WITH 100 PERCENT OF OF THE VOTE COUNTED, SALINAS WON WITH 50.36 PERCENT, A MARGIN THAT MANY HOPE WILL USHER IN A TRUE MULTI-PARTY SYSTEM.

HE WAS FOLLOWED BY LEFT-CENTER COALITION CANDIDATE CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS, WITH 31.1 PERCENT, AND CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL ACTION PARTY, OR PAN CANDIDATE MANUEL CLOUTHIER, WITH 17.07 PERCENT.

IN WASHINGTON, STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESWOMAN PHYLLIS OAKLEY SAID, @@WE HAVE NOTED THE RESULTS HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCED. PRESIDENT REAGAN WILL BE SENDING A MESSAGE OF CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. SALINAS. WE LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH HIS GOVERNMENT.''

CARDENAS IS THE SON OF A BELOVED FORMER PRESIDENT, LAZARO CARDENAS. HE LED A A RENEGADE FACTION THAT BROKE AWAY FROM THE PRI LAST YEAR, SCORING IMPRESSIVE GAINS FOR MEXICO'S HISTORICALLY FRACTURED LEFT, HAVING SURPASSED THE PAN IN LAST WEEK'S VOTING AS THE SECOND FORCE IN MEXICAN POLITICS.

CARDENAS, INSISTING HE WON THE RACE, WAS NOT SATISFIED WITH THE OFFICIAL TABULATION OF VOTES.

@@I AM THE PRESIDENT-ELECT OF MEXICO,'' HE TOLD UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL IN A TELEPHONE INTERVIEW.

THE CANDIDATE AND HIS SUPPORTERS ARE NOW CALLING FOR A @@NATIONAL MOBILIZATION'' OF LEFTIST MILITANTS TO DEMAND RECOGNITION OF CARDENAS' CLAIM TO VICTORY.

@@IN ALL MEXICO WE ARE ON OUR FEET, FIGHTING. THIS COULD LAST DAYS, WEEKS, OR MONTHS, BUT THE PEOPLE WILL NOT ALLOW ELECTORAL FRAUD TO IMPOSE A GOVERNMENT THAT USURPED POWER,'' HE SAID.

SOME 100,000 PEOPLE ARE EXPECTED TO MARCH THROUGH DOWNTOWN MEXICO CITY ON SATURDAY, DEMANDING THAT THE OFFICIAL RESULTS BE ANNULLED AND CARDENAS DECLARED THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF MEXICO.

ANGRY WORDS ALSO CAME FROM THE RIGHT OF THE PRI. PAN CANDIDATE MANUEL CLOUTHIER, WHILE NOT CLAIMING VICTORY FOR HIMSELF, SAID EXTENSIVE FRAUD RENDERED THE ELECTION MEANINGLESS, AND NEITHER CARDENAS NOR SALINAS CAN RIGHTLY CLAIM VICTORY.

ON THE POLITICAL FRONT, HE WILL SPEND MUCH OF HIS FIRST YEAR DEALING WITH CONTINUED RECRIMINATIONS FROM LAST WEEK'S ELECTIONS. THE OPPOSITION, ESPECIALLY THE NEWLY EMBOLDENED LEFT, WILL SURELY TRY TO PRESSURE THE PRI ON ISSUES SUCH AS HOUSING, WAGES AND MEXICO'S $103 BILLION DEBT.

-- NEWSDAY, USA TODAY, PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER, WALL STREET JOURNAL AND BALTIMORE SUN REPORT SECRETARY SHULTZ MET WITH CHINESE LEADERS IN BEIJING.

THE SUN AND NEWSDAY SAY, "IN A SIGNIFICANT SHIFT IN US POLICY TOWARD CHINA," SHULTZ TOLD CHINESE OFFICIALS THURSDAY THAT THE US IS IMPROVING ITS RELATIONS WITH THE USSR AND SUGGESTED STRONGLY THAT CHINA ALSO DO SO. CITING A BANQUET TOAST ON THE OPENING DAY OF TALKS WITH THE CHINESE OFFICIALS, THEY REPORT, THE SECRETARY FOCUSED

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

ON "THE PARALLEL EFFORTS OF OUR 2 COUNTRIES TO REDUCE TENSIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION" AND STATED THAT IF THE PRC AND USSR NORMALIZE THEIR RELATIONS IT WOULD BE "A PROSPECT THAT CAN BE WELCOMED." ACCORDING TO THE SUN AND NEWSDAY, THIS MARKED A "DRAMATIC TURNABOUT" FROM THE LATE 1970'S AND EARLY 1980, WHEN US AND CHINESE OFFICIALS WOULD JOIN TOGETHER IN DENOUNCING THE SOVIET UNION AND STRESS THE IMPORTANCE OF "STRATEGIC COOPERATION" AGAINST SOVIET "HEGEMONY."

THE JOURNAL SAYS CHINESE LEADERS TOLD SHULTZ THEY WOULD CONSIDER A US PROPOSAL TO HOLD TALKS ON LIMITING THE SPREAD OF BALLISTIC MISSILES.

USA TODAY REPORTS FOREIGN MINISTER QIAN QICHEN TOLD SHULTZ THAT SENIOR KHMER ROUGE LEADERS MAY RETIRE, ACCORDING TO A US OFFICIAL.

-- THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR'S TYSON (BEIJING) SAYS THAT INTERNATIONAL EFFORTS TO BRING PEACE TO CAMBODIA WAS THE FOCAL POINT OF SHULTZ'S TALKS WTIH CHINESE LEADERS IN BEIJING. HE NOTES THE SECRETARY WAS EXPECTED TO QUESTION CHINESE LEADERS ON THEIR RECENT PROPOSAL FOR FREEZING ALL UNCLASSIFIED

MILITARY FORCES IN CAMBODIA AS VIETNAMESE TROOPS WITHDRAW AND A NEW COALITION GOVERNMENT IS FORMED. THE PLAN, HE REPORTS, WAS PUT FORWARD BY THE CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTRY. HE NOTES THAT THE SECRETARY IS ALSO EXPECTED TO RAISE MIDDLE EAST ARMS SALES.

-- REUTER'S GIACOMO (BEIJING) SAYS THAT DENG XIAOPING SAID ON FRIDAY THAT CHINESE-AMERICAN RELATIONS HAD IMPROVED STEADILY DURING THE TENURE OF PRESIDENT REAGAN AND SECRETARY SHULTZ. AT THE BEGINNING OF HIS MEETING WITH SHULTZ, DENG NOTED THAT PROBLEMS STILL EXIST AND SAID BOTH SIDES MUST CONTINUE TO WORK AT BUILDING THE TIES, SHE REPORTS.

GIACOMO QUOTES DENG AS STATING: "I AGREE WITH WHAT YOU SAID. THAT IS, DURING THE TERM OF OFFICE OF PRESIDENT REAGAN AND DURING YOUR TENURE AS SECRETARY OF STATE, SINO-US RELATIONS HAVE DEVELOPED QUITE STEADILY... THERE IS A NEED FOR THE (CONTINUED) DEVELOPMENT OF SINO-US RELATIONS... I THINK THAT WE SHOULD BOTH PLACE THESE DEVELOPMENTS ON A HIGHER PLANE."

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

GIACOMO ALSO NOTES THAT, IN A LETTER SENT ON THURSDAY, 111 CONGRESSMAN TOLD SHULTZ TO WARN CHINA THAT "INDISCRIMINATE" ARMS SALES IN THE MIDDLE EAST WOULD JEOPARDIZE US COOPERATION IN TECHNOLOGICAL AND MILITARY MATTERS. SHE ADDS THAT A SENIOR US OFFICIAL SAID THE CHINESE HAD TOLD SHULTZ ON THURSDAY THEY WOULD CONSIDER AN AMERICAN PROPOSAL TO HOLD TALKS ON CURBING THE SPREAD OF BALLISTIC MISSILES.

-- NY TIMES' SCIOLINO (BEIJING) REPORTS CHINA'S FOREIGN MINISTER, QIAN QICHEN, TOLD SHULTZ THURSDAY THAT SOME UNCLASSIFIED

SENIOR MEMBERS OF THE KHMER ROUGE HAD INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD "RETIRE," A SENIOR DOS OFFICIAL SAID. SHE SAYS THE REMARKS WERE THE CLEAREST INDICATION TO DATE THAT CHINA IS GRADUALLY SHIFTING ITS POSITION IN A WAY THAT ENHANCES PROSPECTS FOR AN EVENTUAL SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR IN CAMBODIA.

SCIOLINO ADDS THAT, IN A 3-HOUR MEETING, QIAN DID NOT SPECIFY WHETHER POL POT WAS AMONG THOSE CONSIDERING RETIREMENT. BUT, SHE SAYS, "THAT WAS THE IMPLICATION," ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIAL, WHO ADDED THAT QIAN DID NOT INDICATE WHEN THEY WOULD LEAVE OR WHERE THEY WOULD GO. SHE NOTES THE OFFICIAL SAID QIAN ALSO PROPOSED THAT ONE WAY TO ENSURE THAT OBJECTIONABLE KR MEMBERS DO NOT SHARE POWER IS TO REQUIRE THAT ONLY PEOPLE ACCEPTABLE TO THE 3 CAMBODIAN OPPOSITION GROUPS AND THE PHNOM PENH REGIME BE ALLOWED TO TAKE PART; QIAN SAID SUCH A MECHANISM "WAS ONE WAY OF GETTING RID OF PARTICULARLY UNDESIRABLE MEMBERS OF THE KHMER ROUGE," ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIAL.

SCIOLINO COMMENTS THAT QIAN'S REMARKS AMPLIFY A CRUCIAL 4-POINT POLICY STATEMENT ISSUED FROM BEIJING 7/1 ON CAMBODIA. SHE NOTES THAT THE SENIOR AMERICAN OFFICIAL SAID QIAN TOLD THE SECRETARY ON THURSDAY THAT "THIS MIGHT BE A GOOD TIME FOR A SETTLEMENT OF THE CAMBODIAN ISSUE," IN PART BECAUSE OF MOSCOW'S APPARENT DESIRE TO FIND A WAY OUT OF CONTINUING TO FINANCE THE VIETNAMESE OCCUPATION. SHE SAYS THE US IS PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN FINDING A WAY TO GET CHINA INVOLVED IN THE CAMBODIA ISSUE, AND IN

ABSENCE OF ANY CHINESE STATEMENT ON THURSDAY'S MEETING, IT WAS UNCLEAR WHETHER ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS HAVE PORTRAYED CHINA'S POSITION IN TOO POSITIVE A LIGHT, SHE OBSERVES. WHAT IS CLEAR, SHE STATES, IS THAT BOTH THE US

ON ANOTHER MATTER, SCIOLINO REPORTS, SHULTZ EXPRESSED GENERAL AMERICAN CONCERN OVER THE PROLIFERATION OF BALLISTIC MISSILES IN THE MIDDLE EAST, THE SENIOR OFFICIAL SAID. SHE SAYS SHULTZ PROPOSED THAT AN INTERNATIONAL GROUP THAT WOULD INCLUDE CHINA BE FORMED TO DISCUSS THE SPREAD OF MISSILE TECHNOLOGY BUT APPARENTLY RECEIVED NO COMMITMENT FROM THE CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTER.

-- WASHINGTON POST'S OBERDORFER (BEIJING) REPORTS THAT SECRETARY SHULTZ ASKED CHINA THURSDAY TO BEGIN FULL-SCALE CONSULTATIONS TO HEAD OFF THE DANGEROUS SPREAD OF BALLISTIC MISSILES. THE REQUEST, HE SAYS, WHICH CAME IN A MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTER QIAN, WAS A HIGHLIGHT OF AN UNUSUALLY LONG AND FRANK DISCUSSION OF SINO-AMERICAN RELATIONS AND WORLD TROUBLE SPOTS. A SENIOR AIDE TO SHULTZ SAID QIAN AGREED TO STUDY THE REQUEST FOR IN-DEPTH DISCUSSIONS OF PROLIFERATION, HE REPORTS.

IN A PUBLIC STATEMENT AT A BANQUET THURSDAY IN HONOR OF SHULTZ, THE SECRETARY WAS POLITE BUT POINTED IN HIS REFERENCE TO THE MISSILE PROLIFERATION ISSUE, SAYS OBERDORFER. HE ADDS THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT "HIGHLY DESTRUCTIVE ARMAMENTS" ARE BECOMING AVAILABLE TO PERSIAN GULF COUNTRIES AND OTHERS WHO ARE "FIGHTING AGE-OLD BATTLES ON RELIGIOUS, ETHNIC OR POLITICAL GROUNDS" AND ADDED THAT IT IS "IRONIC THAT JUST AS THE MAJOR POWERS ARE MAKING PROGRESS IN GETTING THEIR ARMS COMPETITION UNDER SOME CONTROL, THE DEVELOPING WORLD IS INCREASINGLY BURDENED BY THIS FLOW OF ADVANCED WEAPONRY. THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE MUST FIND WAYS TO STANCH THIS ARMS TRAFFIC."

SAUDI ARABIA. HOWEVER, HE ADDS, THERE WAS NO REPORT THAT CHINA MADE ANY COMMITMENT TO THE US ABOUT FUTURE SALES. BOTH IN PUBLIC STATEMENTS AND IN THEIR DIPLOMATIC DIALOGUE, SHULTZ AND QIAN EMPHASIZED THE GAINS IN THE SINO-US RELATIONSHIP AND HELD OUT THE PROMISE OF EVEN CLOSER RELATIONS TO COME, HE SAYS. HE QUOTES SHULTZ AS

SAYING IN HIS TOAST THAT THE US AND CHINA HAVE BUILT "A TRULY NORMAL AND PRODUCTION RELATIONSHIP" THAT IS A LEGACY TO THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERS. HE ADDS XINHUA REPORTED THAT IN THE PRIVATE SHULTZ-QIAN MEETING, THE SECRETARY SAID US POLICY TOWARD CHINA HAS STRONG BIPARTISAN SUPPORT AND THEREFORE SHOULD NOT BE AFFECTED BY THE UPCOMING US ELECTION. SHULTZ, HE NOTES, ALSO TALKED OF THE PARALLEL EFFORTS OF THE "TWO COUNTRIES TO REDUCE TENSIONS WITH THE USSR" AND SAID NORMALIZATION OF RELATIONS BETWEEN MOSCOW AND BEIJING WOULD BE "A PROSPECT THAT CAN BE WELCOMED."

OBERDORFER SAYS THAT QIAN, DURING A DISCUSSION OF THE EMERGING POSSIBILITY OF A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT OF THE CAMBODIA CONFLICT, GAVE NEW HINTS THAT CHINESE-BACKED KR GUERRILLAS WILL BE NEUTRALIZED AS A MAJOR PROBLEM. HE REPORTS QIAN EMPHASIZED STRONGLY TO SHULTZ THAT CHINA DOES NOT SUPPORT THE RETURN OF THE KR AS A DOMINANT POWER IN A FUTURE CAMBODIA. ACCORDING TO AUS ACCOUNT. HE ADDS AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID QIAN WENT TO SAY THERE HAD BEEN SOME INDICATIONS SOME SENIOR KR LEADERS PLAN TO "RETIRE," THOUGH NO TIMETABLE OR NAMES WERE GIVEN. HE ALSO REPORTS THAT QIAN WAS QUOTED AS TELLING SHULTZ CHINA IS WILLING TO CONTEMPLATE A POSSIBLE FUTURE ROLE IN AN INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM OF SUPERVISING A PEACE ARRANGEMENT BUT THAT IT IS UNCLASSIFIED

TOO EARLY TO SAY WHAT FORM THIS MIGHT TAKE.

OBERDORFER REPORTS SHULTZ ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUTA RECENT INCREASE IN SOPHISTICATED WEAPONRY SUPPLIED TO NORTH KOREA BY THE USSR, INCLUDING SA-5 ANTI-AIRCRAFT MISSILES AND MIG-29 FIGHTERS.

-- REUTER'S KAZER (BEIJING) REPORTS CHINA HAS ASSURED THE US THAT IT HAS NOT SOLD BALLISTIC MISSILES EXCEPT TO SAUDI ARABIA, SHULTZ SAID ON FRIDAY. HE NOTES THE SECRETARY TOLD REPORTERS THAT NO AGREEMENT HAD BEEN REACHED, BUT THE ISSUE OF MISSILE SALES WAS RAISED IN HIS TALKS WITH DENG, LI PENG AND ZHAO ZIYANG. KAZER QUOTES

THE SECRETARY AS SAYING: "THE CHINESE TOLD ME THEY HAVE NOT MADE ANY SALES OF BALLISTIC MISSILES TO A COUNTRY OTHER THAN SAUDI ARABIA." HE NOTES THE LA TIMES, QUOTING WESTERN EXPERTS FAMILIAR WITH CHINA'S MISSILE PROGRAM, REPORTED FROM HONG KONG THAT A SYRIAN MISSILE SALE HAS BEEN COMPLETED (SEE THE JULY 14 EAP PRESS SUMMARY)..

KAZER QUOTES THE SECRETARY AS SAYING: "I FEEL MYSELF THAT IT IS VERY UNDESIRABLE TO HAVE BALLISTIC MISSILE TECHNOLOGY OR BALLISTIC MISSILES THEMSELVES SPREADING AROUND. THIS IS A SUBJECT I BROUGHT FORWARD TO THE CHINESE, AND WE DISCUSSED IT AT SOME LENGTH." ALTHOUGH THE SECRETARY DIDN'T COMMENT ON CHINESE ASSURANCES, HE NOTES SHULTZ DID ADD: "THIS IS A SUBJECT THAT WILL CONTINUE TO BE ON OUR AGENDA." KAZER POINTS OUT THAT THE SECRETARY ALSO DISCUSSED SECURITY ON THE KOREAN PENINSULA. HE SAID THE SECRETARY COMMENTED THAT DID NOT BRING UP HUMAN RIGHTS IN TIBET.

-- AP'S GRAY (BEIJING) SAYS A US OFFICIAL NOTED THAT QIAN TOLD THE SECRETARY THAT SENIOR KHMER ROUGE LEADERS MAY RETIRE. HE NOTES QIAN URGED THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO KEEP UP PRESSURE ON VIETNAM TO WITHDRAW ITS FORCES FROM CAMBODIA AND SAID THAT BEIJING RECOGNIZED AS A "GENERAL PRINCIPLE" THE POTENTIAL ROLE OF AN INTERNATIONAL PEACEKEEPING FORCE THERE. HE NOTES SHULTZ RAISED US CONCERNS OVER CHINA'S MIDDLE EAST MISSILE SALES.

SHULTZ REPEATED HIS CRITICISM OF CHINA'S WEAPONS SALES AT THE THURSDAY BANQUET FOLLOWING HIS TALKS QIAN, GRAY NOTES. HE ADDS THAT A US OFFICIAL SAID SHULTZ TOLD QIAN THE US WAS CONCERNED ABOUT THE APPEARANCE OF TECHNOLOGICALLY ADVANCED WEAPONRY IN NK AND WAS DISAPPOINTED THAT THE NORTH SEEMS TO HAVE "BRUSHED OFF" RECENT SOUTH KOREAN OVERTURES AT RECONCILIATION. "NOW IS AN APPROPRIATE TIME TO MOVE TO CREATE A BETTER ATMOSPHERE AS WE MOVE TOWARD THE OLYMPICS WE HOPE THAT THE RECENT COURAGEOUS AND FAR-SIGHTED PROPOSALS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE FOR CREATING A NEW CLIMATE ON THE KOREAN PENINSULA AND FOR EXPANDING NORTH-SOUTH CONTACTS WILL LEAD TO POSITIVE STEPS TOWARD NATIONAL RECONCILIATION." HE QUOTES SHULTZ AS SAYING IN HIS BANQUET TOAST.

-- LA TIMES' MANN (BEIJING -- ALSO IN THE BOSTON GLOBE)

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

SAYS THAT IN A SIGNIFICANT SHIFT IN US POLICY TOWARD CHINA, SHULTZ TOLD CHINESE OFFICIALS ON THURSDAY THAT THE US IS IMPROVING ITS RELATIONS WITH MOSCOW AND SUGGESTED STRONGLY THAT CHINA SHOULD DO SO TOO. THE SECRETARY'S SPEECH, HE SUGGESTS, POINTED TO A CHANGE IN THE 3-WAY RELATIONSHIP. HE SAYS SHULTZ APPEARED TO HOLD OUT FOR CHINA AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN WORKING TOGETHER WITH THE US AND THE USSR TO HELP KEEP PEACE IN ASIA AND TO HELP SOLVE REGIONAL PROBLEMS SUCH AS THE FUTURE OF CAMBODIA. SHULTZ AND QIAN, ACCORDING TO MANN, ALSO TALKED ABOUT CHINA'S MISSILE SALES TO THE MIDDLE EAST. BUT, HE STATES, AN UNCLASSIFIED

AMERICAN OFFICIAL WHO ATTENDED THE SESSION SAID THE SECRETARY DIDN'T MAKE ANY DIRECT PROTEST TO QIAN ABOUT THE SAUDI MISSILE SALE OR ITS REPORTED DEAL TO SELL NEW SHORT-RANGE MISSILES TO SYRIA.

ACCORDING TO MANN, IN ENCOURAGING CHINA TO IMPROVE ITS TIES WITH MOSCOW, THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION WAS INDICATING ITS ACCEPTANCE OF A PROCESS THAT IS ALREADY UNDER WAY. HE ADDS THAT A SENIOR US OFFICIAL SAID SHULTZ AND QIAN DISCUSSED SINO-SOVIET RELATIONS DURING THEIR 3-HOUR MEETING THURSDAY, ALTHOUGH THE OFFICIAL WOULD NOT GIVE ANY DETAILS OF WHAT WAS SAID. HE NOTES AN AMERICAN PARTICIPANT IN THE TALKS SAID, REGARDING CAMBODIA, THAT CHINA VOICED SUPPORT FOR THE US POSITION THAT THE KHMER ROUGE LEADERSHIP OF CAMBODIA FROM 1975-78 SHOULD NOT BECOME THE "DOMINANT POWER" IN CAMBODIA AFTER THE VIETNAMESE LEAVE.

-- WASHINGTON TIMES' NEILAN (BEIJING) SAYS THAT CHINESE LEADERS TOLD THE SECRETARY THURSDAY THEY WOULD CONSIDER A US PROPOSAL TO HOLD TALKS ON CURBING THE SPREAD OF BALLISTIC MISSILES. A SENIOR US OFFICIAL SAID THE CHINESE ASSURED SHULTZ "THEY HAVE SOLD MISSILES ONLY TO SAUDI ARABIA AND THAT THEY WOULD THINK ABOUT OUR PROPOSAL TO GO INTO THIS IN GREATER DEPTH." HE SAYS.

NEILAN POINTS OUT THAT, PUBLICLY, SHULTZ BEGAN HIS VISIT WITH A CALL FOR HELP IN MAKING SURE THE SUMMER OLYMPICS IN SEOUL ARE A QUIET SUCCESS. HE SAYS QIAN, REPLYING OBLIQUELY THURSDAY TO THE SECRETARY ON US KOREA CONCERNS, SAID CHINA WOULD DISPATCH CHINESE PRESIDENT YANG SHANGKUN AT THE HEAD OF A LARGE DELEGATION ON A STATE VISIT TO PYONGYANG THE DAY THE OLYMPICS BEGIN.

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

DURING THE THURSDAY MEETINGS, NEILAN STATES, QIAN AND SHULTZ TALKED ABOUT US CONCERNS OVER CHINESE SALES TO THE MIDDLE EAST. HE NOTES THAT THE MIDDLE EAST IS RIFE WITH UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT BEIJING IS MARKETING SHORTER-RANGE BALLISTIC MISSILES THAT COULD HIT ALL CAPITALS IN THE REGION AS WELL AS SOME EUROPEAN CITIES.

ACCORDING TO NEILAN, IN A LETTER TO THE SECRETARY, 111 MEMBERS OF CONGRESS CITED SUCH REPORTS AND SAID THEY "BELIEVE IT IS NECESSARY TO INFORM CHINA THAT FUTURE US COOPERATION IN TECHNOLOGICAL AND MILITARY MATTERS WILL BE JEOPARDIZED UNLESS THE INDISCRIMINATE ARMS SALES POLICY COMES TO A HALT."

NEILAN SAYS: "THE CHINESE HAVE ALWAYS LIKED DEALING WITH SHULTZ, WHO TALKS STRAIGHT AND TOUGH ON SENSITIIVE ISSUES AND THEN BELTS BACK A MODEST MAO TAI LIQUOR SHOT AND TOASTS FRIENDSHIP."

2. CAMBODIA/INDONESIA/ASEAN/VIETNAM

-- UPI (JAKARTA 7/14) REPORTS INDONESIAN FOREIGN MINISTER ALI ALATAS SAID THURSDAY THAT THE SURPRISE RESIGNATION OF PRINCE SIHANOUK AS HEAD OF THE CAMBODIAN RESISTANCE COALITION WOULD NOT SABOTAGE UPCOMING INFORMAL PEACE TALKS IN INDONESIA. MEANWHILE, IT ADDS, A THAI FOREIGN MINISTRY SOURCE SAID THE PRINCE'S RESIGNATION POSSIBLY WAS CAUSED BY THE REFUSAL BY ASEAN TO INCREASE ARMS SUPPLIES TO HIS GUERRILLAS.

UPI REPORTS ALATAS TOLD NEWSMEN THAT SIHANOUK IS "STILL THE KEY TO MANY ASPECTS OF A POSSIBLE SETTLEMENT IN CAMBODIA," DESPITE HIS DECISION TO STEP DOWN AS LEADER OF THE UN-RECOGNIZED COALITION. THOUGH THE PRINCE'S MOVE WOULD NOT STOP INFORMAL PEACE TALKS TO BEGIN JULY 25 AT

BOGOR, A MOUNTAIN RESORT EAST OF JAKARTA. "ALL OF THOSE INVITED HAVE ACCEPTED, AND AS FAR AS WE ARE CONCERNED, THE MEETING WILL GO ON," IT QUOTES ALATAS AS SAYING. IT REPORTS HE ALSO SUGGESTED THAT SIHANOUK MIGHT YET APPEAR

FOR THE TALKS.

UPI ALSO NOTES THAT, IN BANGKOK, A THAI FOREIGN MINISTRY SOURCE SAID SIHANOUK "TOLD ASEAN HIS TROOPS ARE GETTING STRONGER AND SHOULD HAVE MORE WEAPONS SUPPORT. THE PRINCE WANTED FRIENDLY COUNTRIES TO HELP BUILD HIS TROOP STRENGTH UP TO 50,000 MEN. BUT ASEAN TURNED DOWN THE REQUEST AND PROPOSED AN INTERNATIONAL PEACEKEEPING FORCE INSTEAD," IT QUOTES THE SOURCE AS SAYING. IT REPORTS HE ADDED THAT SIHANOUK "ESPECIALLY STRESSED" THAT MANY CAMBODIAN TROOPS HAVE RECENTLY DEFECTED TO HIS FORCES.

UPI ADDS THAT A SPOKESMAN FOR THE PRINCE IN BANGKOK DECLINED TO COMMENT ON ASEAN'S ALLEGED REFUSAL TO INCREASE ARMS SUPPLIES. IT SAYS THAT WHEN HE RESIGNED HE FIRST BLAMED A BANGKOK NEWSPAPER ACCOUNT OF A 1967 PEASANT UPRISING AGAINST HIS GOVERNMENT, WHILE ON HIS ARRIVAL IN PARIS HE LASHED OUT AT THE KHMER ROUGE FOR ATTACKING HIS FORCES IN CAMBODIA.

-- REUTER (BANGKOK) REPORTS VIETNAM FRIDAY CONFIRMED IT WILL TAKE PART IN THE CAMBODIA PEACE TALKS IN INDONESIA ON JULY 25. EARLIER, IT NOTES, HANOI THREATENED NOT TO TAKE PART UNLESS IT RECEIVED ASSURANCES THAT AN ORIGINAL FORMAT FOR THE TALKS AGREED WITH ASEAN STATES LAST YEAR WOULD BE FOLLOWED.

REUTER SAYS RADIO HANOI REPORTED THAT INDONESIAN FOREIGN MINISTER ALI ALATAS GAVE THIS ASSURANCE TO THE VIETNAMESE

FUEL, THAT NAVIGATIONAL AIDS HAD FAILED, AND THAT THEY WERE DITCHING IT AT SEA. IT SAYS THE PLANE, ON A FLIGHT FROM SINGAPORE TO A US NAVAL AIR STATION IN THE PHILIPPINES, FAILED TO MAKE A SCHEDULED REFUELING STOP IN KOTA KINABALU, MALAYSIA.

-- UPI AND REUTER (BOTH MANILA) REPORT A NAVY SPOKESMAN INDICATED FRIDAY THAT THE 3 CREWMEN HAD BEEN RESCUED BY A VIETNAMESE NAVAL VESSEL. UPI QUOTES VAN SICKLE AS SAYING WORD OF THE RESCUE CAME FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON AND THAT ONLY SKETCHY INFORMATION WAS AVAILABLE; HE DID NOT KNOW THE CONDITION OF THE FLIERS OR WHAT WOULD HAPPEN WHEN THEY REACHED THE VIETNAMESE MAINLAND, IT ADDS. IT QUOTES A US GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN MANILA AS SAYING: "OUR PRESUMPTION IS THAT THEY WILL BE RETURNED.

UPI REPORTS THE NAVY SAID AN INTENSIVE SEARCH FOR THE 3 CREWMEN WERE CONCENTRATED IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE SOUTH CHINA SEA NEAR THE DISPUTED SPRATLY ISLANDS. IT UNCLASSIFIED

NOTES THE NAVY SAID THE FLIERS WERE PICKED UP BY THE VIETNAMESE VESSEL SHORTLY AFTER THEY WENT INTO THE SEA. IT SAYS THE THREE WERE IDENTIFIED AS PILOT LT RICHARD MAURER OF PENNSYLVANIA, CO-PILOT LT JG ELIZABETH STEINMECKER OF TEXAS, AND CAPT AD1 MICHAEL NEEL OF NEW MEXICO. IT REPORTS ALL 3 ARE ASSIGNED TO FLEET LOGISTICS SUPPORT SQUADRON 50 AT CUBI POINT, THE NAVAL AIR STATION ADJOINING THE SUBIC BAY NAVAL BASE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

-- REUTER ADDS THAT US MILITARY PLANES HAD BEEN SCOURING THE AREA FOR 3 DAYS WHEN WASHINGTON RECEIVED WORD THAT THE 3 HAD BEEN RESCUED IT QUOTES VAN SICKLE AS SAYING HANOI TOLD THE STATE DEPARTMENT THE CREW MEMBERS WERE BEING TAKEN TO VIETNAM.

-- THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR (BANGKOK) AND THE LA TIMES REPORT VIETNAM HAS INDICATED IT IS WILLING TO CONSIDER TAKING BACK BOAT PEOPLE TURNED DOWN BY RESETTLEMENT COUNTRIES ACCORDING TO THE LA TIMES, A WESTERN REFUGEE OFFICIAL SAID VIETNAMESE FOREIGN MINISTER THACH REVEALED HANOI'S NEW POSITION TO THAI FOREIGN MINISTER SIDDHI DURING TALKS IN BANGKOK ON JUNE 20. PREVIOUSLY, IT SAYS, VIETNAM HAD SAID IT WOULD CONSIDER TAKING BACK REFUGEES ON A "CASE-BY-CASE" BASIS, WHICH THE OFFICIAL SAID WAS HANOI'S "WAY OF SAYING NO. (BUT) NOW

-- UPI (BANGKOK 7/14) QUOTES A US EMBASSY BANGKOK OFFICIAL AS SAYING THAT SENIOR US AND VIETNAMESE OFFICIALS THURSDAY SOUGHT AGREEMENT ON THE RESETTLEMENT OF THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAD BEEN IMPRISONED IN "RE-EDUCATION CAMPS" FOR THEIR TIES TO THE US DURING THE UNCLASSIFIED

VIETNAM WAR. IT SAYS A US DELEGATION LED BY RP SENIOR DAS ROBERT FUNSETH WAS IN HANOI FOR TALKS MEANT TO WORK OUT AN AGREEMENT FOR THE RESETTLEMENT IN THE US OF CURRENT OR FORMER "RE-EDUCATION CAMP" INMATES AND THEIR RELATIVES. EMBASSY OFFICIAL WILLIAM SCHAUER SAID. "THE GREAT MAJORITY OF THESE WERE INCARCERATED BECAUSE OF THEIR CLOSE ASSOCIATION WITH THE US AND ITS ALLIES DURING THE WAR," IT REPORTS SCHAUER SAID.

UPI REPORTS REFUGEE OFFICIALS IN VIETNAM SAID THE AGREEMENT BEING SOUGHT BY THE US IS EXPECTED TO COVER 40,000-50,000 FORMER INMATES AND THEIR RELATIVES BUT THAT NO SURVEY HAS BEEN MADE.

UPI QUOTES SCHAUER AS SAYING THE FUNSETH DELEGATION INCLUDES EAP/VLC ACTING DIRECTOR MILLINGTON; BRUCE BEARDSLEY, DIRECTOR OF THE ORDERLY DEPARTURE PROGRAM AND THE REFUGEE SECTION AT THE US EMBASSY IN BANGKOK; AND OTHER OFFICIALS. IT SAYS THE DELEGATION ARRIVED IN HANOI WEDNESDAY AND IS EXPECTED TO LEAVE NEXT WEEK. IT NOTES THE MEETING WAS ARRANGED DURING TALKS LAST MONTH IN NEW YORK BETWEEN VIETNAMESE FOREIGN MINISTER THACH AND PRESIDENTIAL ENVOY GEN (RET) JOHN VESSEY.

-- AFP (HANOI) REPORTS RP DAS FUNSETH SAID FRIDAY THAT VIETNAM AND THE US HAVE REACHED AN AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE FOR FORMER POLITICAL PRISONERS TO EMIGRATE TO THE US. THE VOLUNTARY EMIGRATION PROGRAM WOULD BEGIN "WITHIN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS," ALTHOUGH "ADDITIONAL EXCHANGES OF VIEW WILL BE REQUIRED," IT QUOTES FUNSETH AS SAYING. IT ADDS FUNSETH SAID VIETNAMESE AUTHORITIES PROPOSED A LIST OF 11,000 PEOPLE WHO WORKED WITH THE FORMER SOUTH VIETNAMESE GOVERNMENT PLUS 40,000 FAMILY MEMBERS WHO WISHED TO EMIGRATE TO THE US.

4. CHINA

-- AP (BEIJING) REPORTS CHINA HAS SENT A 10-MEMBER DELEGATION TO THE US TO MONITOR THE AMERICAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION AND STUDY DEMOCRACY IN ACTION, THE OFFICIAL "LEGAL DAILY" PAPER SAID FRIDAY. THE GROUP, AP NOTES, WAS INVITED TO THE US BY THE WASHINGTON-BASED "CENTER FOR DEMOCRACY."

5. KOREA

-- REUTER (SEOUL) REPORTS THE ROK'S OPPOSITION SAID ON FRIDAY IT WOULD TRY TO GET PRESIDENT ROH'S CABINET DISMISSED AND ORGANIZE A NATIONAL PROTEST OVER ROH'S VETO OF OPPOSITION BILLS AIMED AT INVESTIGATING CHUN DOO HWAN. IT SAYS THE PPD, IN A STATEMENT, CALLED THE VETO "OUTRAGEOUS VIOLENCE BY THE RULING POWER..." REUTER ALSO REPORTS KIM DAE JUNG SAID HE WOULD WORK WITH THE PPD TO GET OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES TO PRESS ROH TO REVOKE HIS VETO OF THE BILLS.

-- REUTER (SEOUL) NOTES THAT THE ROK FRIDAY PROPOSED HIGH-LEVEL TALKS WITH NORTH KOREA TO ARRANGE TOURS BY STUDENTS AND ATHLETES ON EACH SIDE. EDUCATION MINISTER KIM YOUNG SHIK SAID IN A TELEVISED STATEMENT, IT ADDS, THAT HE HOPED THE TALKS AT THE VICE-MINISTER LEVEL WOULD BE HELD AT PANMUNJOM BEFORE JULY 30. REUTER SAYS THAT THE PROPOSALS, CALLING FOR 1,000 STUDENTS FROM EACH SIDE TO VISIT THE OTHER COUNTRY AND SIMILAR EXCHANGES OF 200 YOUNG ATHLETES FROM EACH SIDE, WERE CONTAINED IN A LETTER KIM SENT TO HIS NORTHERN COUNTERPART, PARK YONG RIP, ON FRIDAY.

-- REUTER (SEOUL) SAYS THAT A NEW SEOUL-BASED PEACE MOVEMENT CALLED ON FRIDAY FOR A MORATORIUM ON WAR AND TERRORISM DURING THE SUMMER OLYMPICS. THE "SEOUL ASSEMBLY OF OLYMPEACE," IT NOTES, WAS FORMED THIS WEEK BY PRIESTS, BUSINESSMEN, ACADEMICS AND RED CROSS OFFICIALS. THE GROUP IS SENDING A PETITION URGING THE WORLD TO "DECLARE A MORATORIUM ON ALL FORMS OF STRIFE, VIOLENCE

SURRENDERED UNDER A MONTH-LONG AMNESTY DECLARED AFTER DISCOVERY OF AN ILLEGAL ARMS SHIPMENT. IT NOTES A MILITARY SPOKESMAN DID NOT SAY WHO SURRENDERED THE WEAPONS OR THE NUMBER OF ARMS, BUT STATE-OWNED RADIO FIJI REPORTED THAT THEY INCLUDED 19 AK-47 RIFLES.

REUTER SAYS THIS WAS THE FIRST PUBLIC RESPONSE TO THE AMNESTY ANNOUNCED JUNE 24 BY ARMY COMMANDER SITIVENI RABUKA. UNDER THE TERMS OF THE AMNESTY, IT REPORTS, PEOPLE MAY SURRENDER WEAPONS WITHOUT FEAR OF PROSECUTION, AND THEIR NAMES WILL BE KEPT SECRET.

11. JAPAN

-- REUTER'S MAEKAWA (TOKYO) REPORTS JAPAN ANNOUNCED ITS BIGGEST INCREASE IN GOVERNMENT SPENDING IN 6 YEARS ON FRIDAY TO MEET INTERNATIONAL DEMANDS THAT IT GIVE MORE TO POORER NATIONS AND TO STRENGTHEN ITS ARMED FORCES. BUDGET GUIDELINES ANNOUNCED FRIDAY BY FINANCE MINISTER MIYAZAWA AND APPROVED AT A CABINET MEETING SHOWED THERE WOULD BE A 9.4 PERCENT INCREASE IN OVERSEAS DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE STARTING NEXT APRIL, HE SAYS.

MAEKAWA NOTES THAT POLITICAL ANALYSTS HAVE LINKED JAPAN'S NEW CONFIDENCE IN ITS ABILITY TO SET INTERNATIONAL POLICY TO ITS REALIZATION THAT IT CANNOT SHELTER FOREVER UNDER THE WING OF THE US ARMED FORCES. HE REPORTS FINANCE MINISTER MIYAZAWA ANNOUNCED DEFENSE SPENDING WOULD GROW UP TO 6.1 PERCENT, AS JAPAN CONTINUES EFFORTS TO INCREASE ITS DEFENSE CAPABILITY.

MAEKAWA SAYS THAT AID AND DEFENSE ARE AMONG ONLY 6 SPECIAL CATEGORIES TO ESCAPE RULES UNDER WHICH UNCLASSIFIED

COMMENT AND ANALYSES

12. KOREA

-- CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR'S HUGHES (SEOUL) SAYS THAT AFTER ONLY A FEW MONTHS IN OFFICE, PRESIDENT ROH IS PROVING ONE OF THE MOST INTRIGUING LEADERS IN ASIA. AS A MAN BRED IN THE CONSERVATIVE POLITICAL TRADITION, HE COMMENTS, ROH IS PRESIDING OVER REMARKABLY SPEEDY CHANGES THAT HAVE PROPELLED THE ROK FAR DOWN THE ROAD TO DEMOCRATIC REFORM AND LIBERALIZATION.

HUGHES COMMENTS THAT WITH NORTH-SOUTH RELATIONS SO POOR AT PRESENT, ROH HAS RECOMMENDED A NEW APPROACH TO PYONGYANG THAT MAY ALSO BE GOOD POLITICS AT HOME. WASHINGTON'S OPINION, HE SAYS, IS THAT IT IS BETTER FOR 2 HOSTILE COUNTRIES TO BE TALKING RATHER THAN SIMPLY CONFRONTING EACH OTHER WITH FORCE. HUGHES POINTS OUT THAT WHATEVER THE ROK CAN DO TO LESSEN CHINA AND THE

USSR'S TIES WITH THE NORTH AND TO INCREASE CONTACTS WITH THE SOUTH IS CLEARLY IN ITS FAVOR. WHETHER OR NOT THE NORTH GRASPS THE HAND BEING EXTENDED TO IT, HUGHES CONCLUDES, ROH IS NOTCHING UP A RECORD AS A LEADER WILLING TO EXPERIMENT AND INNOVATE. WHITEHEAD

1. SUMMARY. AS ELECTION DAY DREW NEAR (JULY 6) OPPOSITION TO THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT REACHED A CRESCENDO AND IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE ELECTIONS SEEMS TO HAVE SUFFERED A DRAMATIC DECLINE. PRIOR TO THE ELECTION, THOUSANDS OF DEMONSTRATORS REPRESENTING LOCAL INHABITANTS AS WELL AS ECOLOGY AND ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS BLOCKED HIGHWAYS IN THE STATE OF VERACRUZ FOR FOUR DAYS LAST MONTH. THIS CONFRONTATION RECEIVED DAILY, FULL PRESS COVERAGE. ECOLOGY GROUPS ANNOUNCED PLANS TO BE OUT IN FORCE AT POLLING PLACES ON JULY 6 TO DISCOURAGE VOTING FOR THE LEADING INSTITUTIONAL REVOLUTIONARY PARTY (PRI). PRESS COVERAGE OF THE ELECTIONS DID NOT MENTION DISCERNIBLE ANTI-NUCLEAR PRESENCE NOR DID EMBASSY OFFICERS OBSERVING THE VOTING NOTE THEIR PRESENCE. IT IS STILL A VERY CLOSE CALL, BUT, ON BALANCE, WE BELIEVE THAT THE ANTI-NUCLEAR MOVEMENT HAS PEAKED AND, IN THE ABSENCE OF SOME UNTOWARD NUCLEAR EVENT, THE DE LA MADRID ADMINISTRATION WILL LOAD THE FUEL AND START UP THE PLANT

THE DEMONSTRATIONS

2. ON JUNE 19 SOME 500 DEMONSTRATORS BEGAN BLOCKING THREE HIGHWAYS IN THE STATE OF VERACRUZ. MOST CONCENTRATED AT PALMA SOLA ON THE "GULF HIGHWAY" WHICH CONNECTS THE PORTS OF VERACRUZ AND TAMPICO. PARTICIPANTS WERE LOCAL CATTLE RANCHERS, HOUSEWIVES, UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS. ESTIMATES VARY FROM 15,000 REPORTED BY ONE NEWSPAPER, TO 5,000 REPORTED BY THE MEXICAN ECOLOGY MOVEMENT, TO 200 REPORTED BY THE FEDERAL COMMISSION OF ELECTRICITY (CFE) --THE CFE LATER ADMITTED TO SCIOFF ASSISTANT THAT 500 WAS A GOOD COMPROMISE NUMBER. THE RESULTING STOPPAGE OF TRAFFIC ON THE BLOCKED HIGHWAYS LED TO CONSIDERABLE INCONVENIENCE AND HUGE LOSSES OF REVENUE (ESTIMATED BY ONE NEWSPAPER AT 250 MILLION DOLLARS) FOR TRUCKERS, BUS DRIVERS, AND BUSINESSMEN INVOLVED IN THE TRANSIT OF SUPPLIES AND GOODS. THE DEMONSTRATION CONTINUED UNTIL THE MORNING OF JUNE 23, WHEN MEXICAN MARINES ARRIVED REPORTEDLY TO REMOVE THE DEMONSTRATORS. AT ABOUT 5:30 AM ON THE 23RD, THE PARTICIPANTS DECIDED TO CEASE THE BLOCKADE RATHER THAN FACE POSSIBLE PHYSICAL EXPULSION.

3. THE DEMONSTRATORS DID NOT LEAVE EMPTY-HANDED. THEY HAD MANAGED TO GET AN AUDIENCE ON JUNE 22 FOR FIVE OF THEIR MEMBERS WITH THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ, FERNANDO GUTIERREZ BARRIOS, AT WHICH TIME THEY DEMANDED AN INTERVIEW WITH PRESIDENT MIGUEL DE LA MADRID.

GOVERNOR GUTIERREZ ASKED THE GROUP TO LIFT THE BLOCKADE AND PROMISED TO RESPOND TO THEIR DEMANDS IN THE NEAR FUTURE. ALTHOUGH THE GROUP HAD VOTED NOT TO LEAVE THE HIGHWAY UNTIL THEY GOT MORE CONCRETE RESULTS, THE ARRIVAL OF THE MARINES INSPIRED THEM TO RECONSIDER THEIR EARLIER DECISION AND THEY MOVED OFF THE HIGHWAY.

THE STATUS OF THE PLANT

4. RUMORS ABOUT THE IMMINENT START-UP OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT HAVE ABOUNDED FOR SEVERAL YEARS. OUR

CURRENT BEST GUESS IS THAT THE PLANT WILL BE LOADED BEFORE THE NEW PRESIDENT TAKES POWER (I.E., BEFORE DECEMBER 1). GOVERNMENT EXPERTS SAY THAT TECHNICALLY ALL IS READY AND THEY ARE AWAITING THE POLITICAL DECISION AS TO WHEN TO START OPERATIONS. RECENT NRC AND IAEA VISITORS HAVE EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE IN THE PLANT AND ITS STATE OF PREPARATION FOR START-UP. DR. MARCOS ROSENBAUM, DIRECTOR OF THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF NUCLEAR RESEARCH AT THE NATIONAL AUTONOMOUS UNIVERSITY (UNAM), OPINED THAT NOT STARTING THE PLANT WOULD BE ABSOLUTELY FOOLISH. (HE ALSO AVOIDED GOING OUT ON A LIMB BY SAYING THAT IN HIS OPINION THE REACTOR DESIGN CHOSEN--A GE MARK II BOILING WATER REACTOR--WAS PROBABLY NOT THE BEST THEY COULD HAVE BOUGHT.)

5. THE HISTORY OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR REACTOR IS LONG AND HAS BEEN FRAUGHT WITH FINANCIAL AND TECHNICAL PROBLEMS. THE DECISION TO BUILD THE REACTOR WAS TAKEN 20

YEARS AGO (IN 1968), TECHNICAL STUDIES WERE CONDUCTED FROM 1970-76, THE LOCATION WAS DECIDED AND CONSTRUCTION STARTED IN 1976, AND CONSTRUCTION WAS ESSENTIALLY COMPLETED IN AUGUST 1987. CRITICS WHO STATE THAT THE TECHNOLOGY OF THE PLANT IS NEARLY 20 YEARS OLD BASE THEIR ARGUMENT ON THE FACT THAT THE DECISION THAT MEXICO SHOULD EMPLOY NUCLEAR POWER WAS TAKEN IN 1968, BUT FAIL TO NOTE THAT THE REACTOR DESIGN WAS NOT ACTUALLY SELECTED UNTIL 1976. THE CFE STATES THAT THE ORIGINAL REACTOR DESIGN WAS A GE BWR-3, BUT THAT THEY HAVE ADAPTED IT TO THE MOST MODERN TECHNOLOGY AND IT NOW CORRESPONDS TO THE BWR-5 MODEL. REPORTED INVESTMENT TO DATE IS 2,127,660,000 DOLLARS. AUTHORITIES ESTIMATE THAT THE CFE IS LOSING APPROXIMATELY 650,000 DOLLARS PER DAY BECAUSE THE PLANT IS NOT OPERATIONAL (I.E., ALTERNATE ENERGY BEING GENERATED, MAINTENANCE AND SALARIES, ETC.).

6. THE "PACT OF ECOLOGY GROUPS" IS AN UMBRELLA ORGANIZATION, AS THE NAME WOULD IMPLY, FOR SEVERAL ECOLOGY GROUPS. COMMENT: SEE MEXICO 3340 FOR A IN-DEPTH LOOK AT THE MEXICAN ECOLOGY MOVEMENT. END COMMENT. THE COORDINATOR FOR THE ENERGY COMMITTEE IS ENGINEER JOSE ARIAS CHAVEZ, WHO ALSO HEADS THE ASSOCIATION FOR APPROPRIATE TECHNOLOGY. ARIAS HAS BEEN WORKING IN THE VERACRUZ AREA WITH 74 DIFFERENT, HOMEGROWN ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS. THE ONE-EYED ARIAS, NICKNAMED "THE NUCLEAR PIRATE", HAS PUBLISHED CONSIDERABLE INFORMATION ABOUT THE PURPORTED TECHNICAL PROBLEMS OF LAGUNA VERDE AND RECEIVED MUCH PRESS ATTENTION.

7. THE PACT PUBLISHED A BULLETIN ENTITLED "QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT" IN AUGUST 1986, IN WHICH THEY EXPLAINED THE DANGERS OF RADIATION. THEY HAVE ALSO BEEN ACTIVE IN SPREADING INFORMATION ABOUT NUCLEAR POWER PLANT ACCIDENTS, AND HAVE ASKED PEOPLE TO COMMUNICATE THEIR OPPOSITION TO LAGUNA VERDE BY WRITING "NO TO LAGUNA VERDE" ON THEIR ELECTRIC BILLS.

8. THE "GROUP OF ONE HUNDRED" IS COMPRISED OF FAMOUS MEXICAN ARTISTS AND INTELLECTUALS AND IS HEADED BY THE NOTED MEXICAN AUTHOR AND FORMER GOM AMBASSADOR TO THE NETHERLANDS HOMER ARIDJIS. THE GROUP SENT A LETTER TO PRESIDENT MIGUEL DE LA MADRID IN 1986 ASKING HIM TO STOP THE LAGUNA VERDE PROJECT. THEY HAVE ORGANIZED DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE PLANT AND HAVE INVITED THE PARTICIPATION OF THE PUBLIC AT LARGE BY ASKING THEM TO TURN OFF THEIR LIGHTS FOR THIRTY MINUTES TO PROTEST THE STARTING OF THE REACTOR. ON THE SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF THE CHERNOBYL ACCIDENT THEY SENT A STRONGER PLEA TO THE UNCLASSIFIED

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT TO RECONSIDER THE IMPRUDENCE OF STARTING UP THE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT AT LAGUNA VERDE.

9. AS A VOICE FOR MODERATION, THE GROUP CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN INSTRUMENTAL IN DEFUSING THE SITUATION IN VERACRUZ DURING THE MOST RECENT HIGHWAY BLOCKADES. ACCORDING TO REPORTS, PAINTER FELICIANO BEJAR INTERVENED BY SPEAKING WITH THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR MANUEL BARTLETT, WHO IN TURN SPOKE TO THE GOVERNOR OF VERACRUZ. THE GOVERNOR LATER AGREED TO RECEIVE A DELEGATION OF FIVE MEMBERS REPRESENTING THE DEMONSTRATORS.

10. THE MEXICAN ECOLOGY MOVEMENT (MEM) IS THE BIGGEST OF THE MEXICAN ECOLOGY GROUPS. THEY SENT A PETITION WITH ONE MILLION SIGNATURES TO PRESIDENT MIGUEL DE LA MADRID DEMANDING THAT THE NUCLEAR PLANT BE CLOSED. ON APRIL 21, 1988, THE PRESIDENT OF MEM, ALFONSO CIPRES VILLAREAL, ANNOUNCED A SERIES OF PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS AND A MARCH ON JUNE 19 TO CLOSE ALL ACCESS TO LAGUNA VERDE--THIS WAS THE BEGINNING OF THE RECENT ROAD BLOCKS (REFTEL A). THE DEMONSTRATORS WERE ALLOWED TO APPROACH THE PLANT AND POST A NUMBER OF SI GNS IN SYMBOLIC CLOSING OF THE REACTOR.
COMMENT: CIPRES VILLAREAL TOLD US THAT THE PLANT WILL START UP BEFORE SEPTEMBER SO THAT PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID

CAN PRESENT IT AS A MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENT OF HIS ADMINISTRATION IN HIS FINAL STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS (INFORME) ON SEPTEMBER 1. END COMMENT.

12. CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES: THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES HAS HAD TO DEAL WITH THE QUESTIONS ABOUT LAGUNA VERDE PRESENTED BY THE OPPOSITION PARTIES, ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS AND OTHER INTERESTED ORGANIZATIONS. THREE HEARINGS, INCLUDING A PRESENTATION BY THE EX-DIRECTOR OF THE CFE AND CURRENT MINISTER OF ENERGY, ENGINEER FERNANDO HIRIART BALDERRAMA. THE ENERGY COMMISSION REFUSED TO APPOINT AN INVESTIGATIVE COMMITTEE ON LAGUNA VERDE. THEY BELIEVE THAT THIS WOULD IMPLY THAT THEY HAVE DOUBTS ABOUT THE TECHNICAL RELIABILITY OF THE PROJECT.

13. THE FEDERAL ELECTRIC COMMISSION (CFE): THE CFE HAS ANNOUNCED ITSELF TO BE OUTSIDE THE POLITICAL ASPECTS OF THIS CONFRONTATION AND INSISTS THAT ITS SOLE OBJECTIVE IS TO PRODUCE ELECTRICAL ENERGY. DEPUTY DIRECTOR JUAN EIBENSCHUTZ, ASSOCIATED WITH LAGUNA VERDE SINCE THE BEGINNING TWENTY YEARS AGO, OPENLY SUPPORTS MEXICO'S NUCLEAR PROJECT. HE INSISTS THAT THE ECOLOGISTS' ACTIONS ARE IRRATIONAL AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT PAY ANY ATTENTION TO THEM. THE COMMISSION READILY ADMITS, HOWEVER, THAT IT IS THE ENVIRONMENTALISTS' OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT THAT HAS DELAYED ITS OPENING. THE CFE AIRED AN INTENSIVE PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN CALLED "THE IDEA IS TO MAKE LIGHT IN LAGUNA VERDE" IN AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER 1987. THE CAMPAIGN FOCUSED ON THE APPLICATIONS OF NUCLEAR ENERGY AND THE CAPABILITY OF MEXICANS TO OPERATE A NUCLEAR PLANT. THEY HAVE NO FURTHER PLANS FOR PUBLICITY CAMPAIGNS OR PUBLIC EDUCATION, BUT HAVE INDICATED THAT THE SECRETARIAT OF PUBLIC EDUCATION (SEP) IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ WILL BE IN CHARGE OF DESIGNING AND IMPLEMENTING A PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAM ONCE THE PLANT BEGINS OPERATIONS.

THOSE WHO FAVOR NUCLEAR POWER ARE NOT ORGANIZED INTO ANY GROUPS AND DO NOT SEEK PUBLICITY. THE FLAMES OF POST-CHERNOBYL FIRES HAVE BEEN FANNED CONSISTENTLY BY VARIOUS PROFESSIONAL ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS. THE NEWS OF REACTOR CLOSINGS IN THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER COUNTRIES HAS ADDED FUEL TO THE FIRE. SOME MEXICANS ARE ASKING WHY THEY SHOULD OPEN THEIR FIRST NUCLEAR PLANT WHEN THE REST OF THE WORLD SEEMS TO BE REALIZING THAT NUCLEAR MAY NOT HAVE BEEN THE WAY TO GO.

THOSE WHO BELIEVE THAT THE ENVIRONMENTALISTS' INFLUENCE PEAKED AT THE VERACRUZ BLOCKADES POINT OUT THE LACK OF ANY PUBLIC OUTCRY AT THE PUBLIC POLLING BOOTHS. THEY ALSO CITE EXPERT OPINION THAT THE PLANT IS TECHNICALLY SOUND AND READY TO START. WE BELIEVE THIS ABRUPT REVERSAL IN THE ANTI-NUCLEAR CAMPAIGN WILL PROVIDE THE CLIMATE FOR A DECISION TO START UP LAGUNA VERDE IN THE NEXT FOUR MONTHS, BEFORE THE NEW ADMINISTRATION TAKES OVER. SHOULD THE DE LA MADRID ADMINISTRATION LEAVE THE DECISION FOR THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION, IT WOULD BE A STRONG VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE IN THE LAGUNA VERDE PROJECT. WHILE WE (AND

PRESS OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT OF MEXICO

FINAL RESULTS OF THE MEXICAN ELECTIONS

MEXICO CITY, July 18, 1988--Following completion of the most complex and contested elections in the past 40 years, the government of Mexico has released final results of the vote count, which show a decisive, if close, victory by the Institutional Revolutionary Party, the political force which has governed Mexico peacefully for almost six decades. The PRI candidate for President of the Republic, Carlos Salinas de Gortari, won the Presidency with 50.4 percent of the total popular vote of approximately nineteen million, followed by Cuauhtemoc Cardenas of the National Democratic Front with 31.2 percent, and Manuel Clouthier of the National Action Party with 17.1 percent.

In elections for the Senate, the PAN and the National Front won four of 64 seats, with the PRI capturing the remainder. It was the first time in the history of Mexico that the PRI had lost any Senate seats to the opposition. In the Chamber of Deputies, final results revealed that the opposition on both the left and the right had won a total of 51 of the 300 seats chosen by direct election. When added to the 150 proportional representation seats reserved in the Chamber for minority parties, opposition victories lifted them to the highest total in the Chamber since the Mexican revolution. A presidential spokesman called this a "watershed" in the political modernization of Mexico, noting that it was bound to make debate in the Chamber "more lively."

In 1986 and 1987, President Miguel de la Madrid promoted constitutional reforms intended to renovate and modernize Mexico's political system, which alone among the nations of Latin America had produced sixty years of political stability and peaceful change. The result of this reform effort was the 1987 Federal Electoral Code, based upon the principle of joint responsibility among citizens, political parties, and the government in the organization, conduct, and review of elections.

The spokesman indicated that the results of the current election vindicated President de la Madrid's strategy of gradual but steady political modernization. Calling opposition charges of irregularities "grossly exaggerated" and basically a "political tactic rather than a claim with true substance," the official cited the very closeness of the electoral results as evidence that the government had kept its promise to deliver free, clean, and fair elections. According to the spokesman, the initial delays experienced in tallying and reporting the votes did not represent an effort by the government to "engineer" the results of the election, but were rather the direct consequence of the fact that votes in Mexico must be counted by hand, as well as of the electoral reforms enacted under de la Madrid which significantly enhanced the rights of minority parties and their poll watchers to review and challenge electoral results at each stage of the process -- from the polling stations themselves to the state and national electoral commissions, on which sit representatives of all the political parties.

"What would the press be saying now about the fairness of the elections if we had short-circuited these protections in an effort to report the results early on," he asked. Answering his own question, he replied that "You know they'd be charging us with ignoring the rights of the opposition to raise their challenges." "Sometimes you just can't win with the press regardless of how fair you try to be," he added.

In support of the government's position that the elections were the fairest in modern Mexico's history, the spokesman cited the following factors:

* Statistics indicated that one or more opposition poll watchers were present at more than 99 percent of the 54,500 polling stations throughout the country. Those poll watchers participated in the vote count itself and were asked to sign the report of the polling station before results were transmitted to the district electoral commissions.

* For the first time in Mexican history, the results of the vote at each polling station were required to be publicly displayed at that polling station, thereby greatly complicating the efforts of those who might attempt to alter the actual vote count.

* The ballot boxes themselves were transluscent, as requested in the past by members of the opposition. In addition, the ballot boxes were actually assembled at the polling station by representatives of all of the parties, making ballot box stuffing virtually impossible to hide.

* Opposition parties were represented not only at the polling stations, but at all levels of the electoral process where vote counting and authentication took place. Under the political reforms of President de la Madrid, the opposition participants could challenge vote counts at each of those levels.

* Deliberations of the electoral commissions at the district and federal level were open to the press and the public. Despite opposition claims of irregularities, the challenges to the electoral process registered with these bodies have not been substantiated. These challenges are now being aired before the commissions in full view of the press, not decided in smoke-filled back rooms. While some challenges may be sustained, there is no evidence to indicate either that the majority of these challenges are correct or that they would in any way have altered the outcome of the elections as reported.

* Again for the first time in Mexican history, every opposition party was given the same amount of free television and radio time on every public and private station in Mexico, without regard to the relevant party's size or past electoral success. Thus, even the smallest party received more than 51 hours of free air time over the past five months.

In concluding, the government spokesman noted that "Democracy is seldom perfect, but anyone that tries to be objective and is willing to look at the facts rather than the rhetoric has to admit that this election in Mexico has moved political modernization in this country along substantially. Much of the credit for that reform effort has to go to President de la Madrid and his administration."

Dear Secretary Fox:

I am writing to you on behalf of one of my constituents regarding allegations that the U.S. government is providing financial assistance to Chilean leader Augusto Pinochet. According to these reports, this aid is being provided to assist Pinochet in the elections in Chile scheduled for September 11. I have enclosed a copy of the correspondence for your reference.

I would be grateful for any information your office could provide regarding this matter. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

2. ON JUNE 6-7, 1988, THE SIXTH MEETING OF THE MIXED

COMMISSION ON SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO TOOK PLACE. AT THE FIRST MEETING OF THE COMMISSION SINCE 1983, THE U.S. AND MEXICAN DELEGATIONS WORKED IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF CORDIALITY AND COOPERATION TO GIVE NEW VIGOR TO THE AGREEMENT ON COOPERATION IN SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY. THE MIXED COMMISSION FORMALIZED THE DECISION OF THE OCTOBER PREPCON TO MAKE THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE (OES) AND THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS (SRE) THE EXECUTIVE AGENCIES OF THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM. THE U.S. STRESSED THE CROSS-CUTTING ISSUES OF PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, SCIENTIFIC ACCESS, FINANCING OF TRAVEL AND SCIENTIFIC COMMUNICATION. THE SIX SECTORAL GROUPS (AGRICULTURE, ENERGY AND MINING, URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND ECOLOGY, HEALTH, MARINE FISHERIES RESEARCH AND ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES, AND BASIC SCIENCES) DISCUSSED ONGOING PROJECTS AND, WITH A KEEN AWARENESS OF BUDGETARY RESTRICTIONS, NEW AREAS FOR COOPERATION. WE AGREED TO SEARCH OUT INNOVATIVE SOURCES AND METHODS OF PRIVATE FUNDING. BOTH SIDES CAME AWAY FROM THE MEETING WITH RENEWED ENTHUSIASM AND COMMITMENT FOR THIS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT PROGRAM.

3. ON JUNE 14-17, 1988, IN SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, U.S. AND MEXICAN GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES HELD THE FOURTH MEETING OF THE NATIONAL COORDINATORS TO PURSUE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 1983 BORDER ENVIRONMENT AGREEMENT. THE FOUR ANNEXES TO THE AGREEMENT ARE ALL FUNCTIONING VERY WELL. DURING THE MEETING, THE U.S. SIDE TABLED DRAFT ANNEX V ON URBAN AIR POLLUTION IN BORDER CITIES. COOPERATIVE PROJECTS IN MEXICO INCLUDING ASSISTING IN PRESERVING MIGRATORY BIRD HABITATS AND SITES FOR ENDANGERED MARINE TURTLES. THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THE FORMATION OF SEVERAL TURTLE EGG LAYING PRESERVES. MEXICO IS IN THE PROCESS OF JOINING THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION FOR ENDANGERED SPECIES (CITES) IN ORDER TO STEM THE FLOW OF ILLEGAL TRADE IN ENDANGERED SPECIES. THE USG IS TRYING IN A LOW-KEY FASHION TO PERSUADE MEXICO TO SPEED THE PROCESS. A NORTH AMERICAN WATERFOWL MANAGEMENT PLAN MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING WAS SIGNED BY MEXICO COMMEMORATING A TRI-PARTY AGREEMENT BETWEEN CANADA, THE U.S. AND MEXICO TO JOINTLY MANAGE NORTH AMERICAN WATERFOWL.

6. COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS AND DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN GOM AND USG OFFICIALS TO PROMOTE FISHERIES RESEARCH AND TRADE HAVE RESULTED IN SEVERAL MORE US/MEX JOINT VENTURE START-UPS. ON JUNE 24, 1988, A NEW INFORMATION EXCHANGE AGREEMENT WAS SIGNED BY MEXICAN AND U.S. OFFICIALS, IN ADDITION TO THE OTHER TWO MARINE RESEARCH AGREEMENTS CURRENTLY UNDER OPERATION (MEX-US GULF AND MEX-US PACIFIC). 8. THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT IS TECHNICALLY COMPLETE AND AWAITING A POLITICAL DECISION FOR FUEL LOADING AND STARTUP. THIS IS MEXICO'S FIRST NUCLEAR POWER PLANT AND WAS BUILT WITH GENERAL ELECTRIC BWR TECHNOLOGY. REACTOR NO. 2, ALSO BUILT BY GE, IS APPROXIMATELY 50 PER CENT COMPLETE.

9. NOTEWORTHY AGREEMENTS REACHED IN 1988 INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

- JOINT PLAN FOR ACCIDENTAL RELEASES OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES ALONG THE BORDER (EPA/SEDUE), JANUARY 1988;

- MOU BETWEEN GOM MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND U.S. FDA REGARDING COOPERATION IN THE SCIENTIFIC AND REGULATORY FIELDS OF HEALTH (FDA/MOH), FEBRUARY 1988;

- AGREEMENT ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF JOINT BORDER SISTER-CITY COMMITTEES OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (HUD/SEDUE), MARCH 1988; AND

- AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE USG AND GOM ON COOPERATION IN CASE OF OF NATURAL DISASTERS (FEMA/GOBERNACION), MARCH 1988.

10. COMMENT: SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY IS AN IMPORTANT AGREEMENT IN THE U.S./MEXICAN RELATIONSHIP. A GREAT MAJORITY OF VALUABLE S AND T ACTIVITY TAKES PLACE BETWEEN MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES THROUGH THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND NOT UNDER THE FORMAL UMBRELLA OF AGENCY-TO-AGENCY AGREEMENTS. THERE ARE NUMEROUS CONTACTS BETWEEN UNIVERSITY RESEARCHERS AND THE SCIENTIFIC ACADEMIES LEADING TO STRONG LINKS BETWEEN THE TWO SCIENTIFIC

SUBJECT: LAGUNA VERDE - REVISION 1

REF: MEXICO 17775

1. [redacted] SUMMARY. THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ON JULY 26 ITS INTENTION TO POSTPONE, FOR THE MOMENT, THE START-UP OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT UNTIL THE SAFETY OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ CAN BE ASSURED. ECOLOGISTS WERE EXUBERANT WHILE OFFICIALS OF AGENCIES DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE OPERATION OF THE REACTOR FUMED AT THE IMPLICATION THAT THE PLANT WAS NOT ALREADY COMPLETELY SAFE. UNDERLYING REASON FOR THE POSTPONEMENT IS PURPORTED TO BE THE UPCOMING LOCAL ELECTIONS IN THE STATE OF VERACRUZ. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ECOLOGISTS WERE EXULTANT ON JULY 26 WHEN THEN SECRETARY OF ECOLOGY AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SEDUE) MANUEL CAMACHO SOLIS ANNOUNCED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD INDEFINITELY POSTPONED THE START-UP OF THE LAGUNA

VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT. THE MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID STATED THAT THE FUEL WOULD NOT BE LOADED IN THE REACTOR FOR THE MOMENT, IN ORDER TO BE ABLE TO GUARANTEE THE MAXIMUM SECURITY FOR THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF VERACRUZ. ECOLOGISTS INSISTED THAT THEY WANTED THE CANCELLATION OF THE PROJECT RATHER THAN ITS POSTPONEMENT, BUT WERE JUBILANT NONETHELESS AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT. ALFONSO CIPRES VILLAREAL, PRESIDENT OF THE MEXICAN ECOLOGICAL MOVEMENT (MEM), NOTED THAT THE MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT WAS THE FIRST FORMAL RESPONSE THE ADMINISTRATION HAS GIVEN TO THE ECOLOGICAL AND ANTINUCLEAR MOVEMENT IN SIX YEARS OF OPPOSITION TO THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT. LEFTIST NEWSPAPER LA JORNADA WAXED ELOQUENT IN AN EDITORIAL ON JULY 27 PRAISING THE OPEN ATTITUDE AND RECEPTIVENESS OF THE GOVERNMENT IN RESPONDING TO THE PREOCCUPATION OF THE COMMUNITY AT LARGE.

3. (U) ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE PACT OF ECOLOGY GROUPS, JOSE ARIAS CHAVES, NOTED THAT IN HIS OPINION THE ANNOUNCED POSTPONEMENT IS DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE UPCOMING LOCAL ELECTIONS IN THE STATE OF VERACRUZ. COMMENT: MAYORAL RACES ARE SCHEDULED IN VERACRUZ FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF OCTOBER. THE STATE IS TRADITIONALLY A PRI-BASTION, THOUGH NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC FRONT STANDARD-BEARER CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS, WHO HAS COME OUT AGAINST LAGUNA VERDE, DID VERY WELL THERE. THE FEAR MIGHT BE ONE OF GIVING A MAJOR ISSUE TO THE FDN. END COMMENT. CHAVEZ ARIAS ALSO STATED - THAT HE BELIEVES THE LOADING OF THE FUEL WILL NOT TAKE PLACE DURING THE CURRENT ADMINISTRATION. HE BELIEVES THAT THIS WILL WORK TO THE ADVANTAGE OF THE [redacted]

ANTINUCLEAR GROUPS, BECAUSE HE CLAIMS THAT WITH EACH PASSING DAY THE OPPOSITION TO LAGUNA VERDE BECOMES STRONGER, AND HE INDICATED THAT OPPOSITION GROUPS WILL NOT DIMINISH THEIR EFFORTS TO MOBILIZE THE COMMUNITY AGAINST THE NUCLEAR REACTOR.

4. (U) FERNANDO CESARMAN, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE GROUP OF ONE HUNDRED, BELIEVES THAT THE DECISION AS TO WHEN TO START-UP THE REACTOR WILL BE MADE IN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE MONTHS. FROM A POLITICAL POINT OF VIEW, HE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT WOULD PROBABLY BE TO THE GOVERNMENT'S ADVANTAGE TO SHOULDER RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE START-UP NOW AND NOT LET IT FALL ON THE SHOULDERS OF THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION.

5. (C) SCIENCE OFFICE SENIOR LEVEL CONTACT AT SEDUE AGREES THAT POSTPONING THE START-UP UNTIL THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION WOULD MAKE A VERY DIFFICULT BEGINNING FOR THE NEW PRESIDENT. WHEN ASKED WHY CAMACHO SOLIS WAS SELECTED TO SPEAK TO THE ECOLOGY GROUPS, HE RESPONDED THAT UNTIL ONE YEAR AGO, WHEN THE SECRETARIAT OF ENERGY, MINES AND PARASTATAL INDUSTRY (SEMIP), TOOK OVER ACTION ON THESE ISSUES, SEDUE HAD BEEN THE SECRETARIAT PRIMARILY RESPONSIBLE FOR DEALING WITH THE OPPOSITION TO LAGUNA VERDE. HE BELIEVES THAT IS WHY CAMACHO WAS CHOSEN AS THE PRESIDENT'S SPOKESPERSON.

6. (C) EMBASSY SOURCE AT SEMIP INDICATED THAT AN AGREEMENT HAD BEEN REACHED AMONG ALL INTERESTED GOVERNMENT AGENCIES FOR THE ANNOUNCEMENT TO SAY THAT THE START-UP OF LAGUNA VERDE HAD BEEN POSTPONED FOR THE MOMENT, AND THAT CAMACHO SOLIS HAD SPONTANEOUSLY EXCEEDED HIS BRIEF WHEN HE ADDED THE REMARK ABOUT THE SAFETY OF THE PEOPLE OF VERACRUZ. HE ALSO CONFIRMED THE SUSPICION THAT THE UNDERLYING REASON FOR THE SUSPENSION IS THE UPCOMING ELECTIONS IN VERACRUZ. THE PLANT IS TECHNICALLY COMPLETED AND READY FOR START-UP, AND SEMIP SOURCE WAS VISIBLY DISTURBED ABOUT THE IMPLICATION THAT THERE IS A SAFETY PROBLEM AT THE PLANT.

7. (U) EMBASSY SOURCE AT THE NATIONAL COMMISSION OF NUCLEAR SECURITY AND SAFETY (CNSNS) STATED THAT WORK AT THE REACTOR IS CONTINUING, AND THAT SAFETY TESTS ARE BEING CONDUCTED. HE SAID HE HAD NOT TALKED TO CAMACHO SOLIS AND REITERATED THAT THE CNSNS CONCERNS ITSELF WITH TECHNICAL ISSUES OF THE SAFETY OF THE REACTOR AND DOES NOT GET INVOLVED IN POLITICS.

INDICATING THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS NOW READY TO BEGIN TO BATTLE FOR FAVORABLE PUBLIC OPINION IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE ELECTIONS. ONE LENGTHY ARTICLE PUBLISHED ON JULY 31 IS FROM AN INTERVIEW WITH A HIGH, BUT UNNAMED, OFFICIAL (PROBABLY JUAN EIBENSCHUTZ, CFE NO. 2) OF THE FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE). THE ARTICLE GOES INTO GREAT DETAIL EXPLAINING THE TECHNOLOGY OF THE REACTOR, THE HISTORY OF NUCLEAR ENERGY IN MEXICO AND THE WORLD, AND A CLARIFICATION OF NUCLEAR SECURITY SYSTEMS AND HOW THEY WORK. THE FINAL PARAGRAPH STATES THAT "THE MOMENT THE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT AT LAGUNA VERDE ENTERS INTO OPERATION...SEEMS NEARER THAN ITS CONTINUED POSTPONEMENT OR CANCELLATION." WE CONTINUE TO AGREE WITH THIS ANALYSIS OF THE SITUATION. END COMMENT.

Estimado Sr. Cartagena:

Me llamo Annette Lantos y soy la esposa del diputado Tom Lantos. Hacen tres años viajé a Chile con me esposo y un grupo de diputados hispánicos del Congreso de los E.E.U.U. Durante ese viaje notamos los muchos casos de opresión, persecución e injusticia que ocurren en Chile.

Los diputados Bill Richardson de New Mexico, Esteban Torres de California, Robert Garcia de Nueva York, y mi esposo, que es el co-dirigente de la Junta de Derechos Humanos del Congreso de los E.E.U.U., tuvieron un encuentro con el Presidente Pinochet para pedir amnestía para prisioneros políticos y también la restauración de la democracia en Chile.

La Doctora Michelle Ritterman llamó mi atencion a su caso por la manera en que su coraje y su abilidad de perdonar a los que lo hacen sufrir tanto la inspiro a ella. Yo quede muy impresionada al reconocer la inteligencia que Ud. despliega en sus relatos acerca de los eventos en Chile, tal como su sacrificio personal a bien de la libertad y la democracia. Tambien lei su carta al Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores de la República Federal Alemana, el Sr. Hans Dietrich Genscher, pidiendo asilo politico para aquellos 14 prisioneros que están enfrentando la pena de muerte por sus convicciones políticas.

Hacen algunos años, cuando la persecución de disidentes soviéticos ocurría sin tregua, un grupo de esposas de diputados norteamericanos formaron un comité para adoptar a 21 disidentes conocidos a traves del mundo entero. Lo llamamos el "Comité de 21." Hoy en día los 21 estan disfrutando de libertad, y algunas de nosotras tuvimos el sumo placer de poder dar la bienvenida personalmente a unos cuantos.

Yo decidí adoptarlo a Ud. como nuestro protegido especial, y no descansaré hasta que su cruel e injusto castigo haya terminado. Le escribiré regularmente y mandaré copias de mis cartas al

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. SUMMARY: EPS COMMANDER ORTEGA, WHO HAS LATELY BEEN TALKING IN PUBLIC ABOUT THE NEED FOR THE FSLN TO LEAVE BEHIND ITS OLD WAYS, GAVE ME A LENGTHY LECTURE ON THE HISTORY OF THE MOVEMENT AND ON HIS OWN EVOLUTION FROM DOGMATIC REVOLUTIONARY TO PURPORTED PRAGMATIC MODERATE. LITTLE IN THIS ACCOUNT WAS NEW. AMONG THE MORE INTERESTING STATEMENTS HE MADE WERE THE FOLLOWING:

-- A VISIT TO CHILE JUST BEFORE ALLENDE'S FALL EXPOSED ORTEGA FOR THE FIRST TIME TO MORE SOPHISTICATED REVOLUTIONARY THEORY AND BEGAN HIS EVOLUTION TOWARD TERCERISMO.

-- THE EUPHORIA OCCASIONED BY FINDING THEMSELVES SUDDENLY IN TOTAL CONTROL OF THE COUNTRY SWEPT THE FSLN INTO ADOPTING A MORE RADICAL PROGRAM THAN HAD ORIGINALLY BEEN ENVISAGED.

-- THE SANDINISTA NATIONAL DIRECTORATE DECIDED TO MOVE UP THE ELECTIONS AND TAKE AN ACTIVE ROLE IN THE PEACE PROCESS AFTER CALCULATING THAT THERE WAS BOUND TO BE A CHANGE IN U.S. CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY UNDER PRESIDENT BUSH.

-- PERMITTING THE FMLN TO SEND THE TWO PLANELOADS OF ARMS TO EL SALVADOR IN NOVEMBER OF 1989 WAS AN INDIRECT MESSAGE TO THE USG IN RESPONSE TO THE HEAVY REINFILTRATION OF THE FMLN.

I EVADED ORTEGA'S ONLY EFFORT TO ENTER INTO A SUBSTANTIVE DISCUSSION WHEN HE RAISED THE ICJ CASE. END SUMMARY.

3. THE DATT AND I SPENT A LITTLE OVER AN HOUR WITH HUMBERTO ORTEGA AUGUST 15 AT THE DATT'S HOME. THE GET-TOGETHER WAS THE GENERAL'S IDEA. VIRTUALLY ALL OF THE SESSION WAS TAKEN UP BY ORTEGA'S LENGTHY DISSERTATION ON THE HISTORY OF THE FSLN AND HIS ROLE IN IT. EVIDENTALY THE PURPOSE WAS TO SUPPORT HIS CLAIM TO MODERATE CREDENTIALS AND AN OPEN ATTITUDE TOWARD FUTURE RELATIONS WITH THE U.S. EXCEPT FOR THE ICJ CASE, WHICH HE RAISED, THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF CURRENT ISSUES. ORTEGA ASKED NOTHING OF ME AND I ASKED NOTHING OF HIM.

4. MUCH OF THE HISTORICAL MATERIAL WAS FAMILIAR. HE

DWELT PARTICULARLY ON HOW THE SANDINO HERITAGE, THE CUBAN MODEL, THE SOMOZA DICTATORSHIP, AND THE GENERAL ATMOSPHERE OF THE 60'S SHAPED THE INTENSE ANTI-YANKEE AND MARXIST-LENINIST POSITIONS OF THE YOUNG REVOLUTIONARIES WHO MADE UP THE FSLN. PURPORTEDLY, THE EVOLUTION AWAY FROM STRICT CASTROISM BEGAN WHEN HE, HUMBERTO, WENT TO CHILE IN 1973 AND HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO READ AND DISCUSS BROADER REVOLUTIONARY THEORY THAN THE NARROW, ORTHODOX SOVIET CONCEPTS HE HAD ENCOUNTERED IN CUBA. ORTEGA SAID HE LEFT CHILE TWO WEEKS BEFORE ALLENDE'S DEMISE. FROM THAT EXPERIENCE EMERGED TERCERISMO, THE "REACHING OUT" TO MANY SECTORS OF SOCIETY, ALONG WITH AN EMPHASIS ON MAO'S DOCTRINE OF BRINGING THE WAR FROM THE COUNTRY TO THE CITY.

5. THE GENERAL ACCOMPANIED THIS ACCOUNT WITH A NUMBER OF REFERENCES TO DIFFERENCES IN THE FSLN DIRECTORATE, WHICH HE NOTED AS AN ASIDE STILL EXIST, TO THE BANKRUPTCY OF CHE GUEVARA'S NOTION OF THE REVOLUTION WITHIN THE REVOLUTION AND TO UNNAMED "RADICALS" WHO CONTINUE TO REJECT THE BROADER VISION. AS AN EXAMPLE HE CITED DISPARAGINGLY THE VIEW THAT "IMPERIALISM NEVER CHANGES"; THAT THE U.S. IS "ALWAYS BAD NO MATTER WHO IS THE PRESIDENT" -- (AN OBVIOUS DIG AT BORGE). HE SAID HE WAS PREACHING TO HIS FRIENDS THE NEED TO TURN AWAY FROM THE PAST DOGMA AND LOOK TO THE FUTURE IN A WORLD THAT HAS CHANGED.

6. ACCORDING TO THE GENERAL, IT WAS NEVER THE INTENTION TO ESTABLISH THE CUBAN MODEL HERE. BUT IN THE EUPHORIA OF VICTORY THE RADICALS CAME TO THE FORE. THE SANDINISTA LEADERS WERE YOUNG, INEXPERIENCED AND SIMPLY CARRIED AWAY BY FINDING THEMSELVES WITH TOTAL POWER. RADICAL MEASURES CAME NATURALLY. ORTEGA CONCEDED THAT HE HIMSELF FELL UNDER THIS SPELL. BUT THE IDEA OF CREATING A FREER, MORE OPEN SYSTEM PERSISTED AS EVIDENCED BY THE ELECTIONS OF 1984. THESE LACKED THE PARTICIPATION OF "THE PRINCIPAL OPPOSITION" BUT WERE RECOGNIZED AS AN ADVANCE BY THE EUROPEANS AND "EVERYONE EXCEPT THE UNITED STATES". THAT THE SANDINISTAS PUT INTO PLACE A CONSTITUTION FURTHER TESTIFIES TO THEIR BETTER INTENTIONS, ACCORDING TO ORTEGA.

7. IN JANUARY OF 1989 THE DIRECTORATE REACHED THE CONCLUSION THAT THERE WAS BOUND TO BE A CHANGE IN U.S. CENTRAL AMERICAN POLICY UNDER PRESIDENT BUSH. TO BETTER POSITION THEMSELVES FOR THAT CHANGE ORTEGA AND COMPANY DECIDED TO ADVANCE THE DATE OF THE ELECTIONS AND REVIVE WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS A MORIBUND ESQUIPULAS PROCESS. WITH THE MILITARY DRAFT IN EFFECT AND A STRICT STABILIZATION PROGRAM IN FORCE THE SANDINISTAS WERE AWARE OF THE RISKS THEY WOULD RUN IN GOING TO ELECTIONS. OSCAR ARIAS TOLD THEM THEY WOULD LOSE. BUT THERE HAD TO BE AN END TO THE WAR, ORTEGA SAID. AS PART OF THE NEW TACK, HE WENT ON, THE DIRECTORATE ALSO "FROZE" FMLN OPERATIONS IN NICARAGUA IN EARLY 1989. BUT THEN IN SEPTEMBER "TWO THOUSAND CONTRAS" CAME ACROSS THE BORDERS. THE LEADERSHIP FEARED THAT IN FACT NO CHANGE HAD TAKEN PLACE AND THAT "BUSH DID NOT INTEND TO DEMOBILIZE THE CONTRAS."

8. THAT, ACCORDING TO THE GENERAL, WAS WHAT LED THE FSLN TO END THE CEASEFIRE AND ALLOW TWO PLANES TO CARRY ARMS AND MUNITIONS, INCLUDING A "REDEYE WE CAPTURED" TO EL SALVADOR. THIS, HE SAID, WAS AN INDIRECT MESSAGE, A KIND OF "NON-PAPER" OR "AIDE-MEMOIR" TO THE U.S. ORTEGA INSISTED THAT WAS THE ONLY ARMS SHIPMENT REMITTED. I BROKE INTO THIS MONOLOGUE TO REMARK THAT THE RESISTANCE MADE ITS OWN DECISIONS. I REMIDED ORTEGA THAT EVEN HIS BROTHER HAD ACKNOWLEDGED THAT IT WAS A GENUINE MOVEMENT WITH REAL ROOTS IN THE SOCIETY. THE RN WAS DETERMINED TO RETURN TO NICARAGUA WHERE IN FACT DEMOBILIZATION TOOK PLACE. I ALSO MADE THE POINT THAT FROM THE VERY BEGINNING THE

CONNECTION WITH THE FMLN HAS BEEN AT THE CENTER OF THE SANDINISTAS' PROBLEM WITH US. ORTEGA DID NOT DISPUTE EITHER STATEMENT.

9. A CONSISTENT THEME IN THIS VERBAL ESSAY WAS THE BACKWARDNESS OF NICARAGUA, THE NEED TO MODERNIZE AND ESTABLISH SOCIAL JUSTICE. AS ORTEGA WOULD HAVE IT, THE COUNTRY'S PRE-REVOLUTIONARY PRODUCTIVE SYSTEM WITH ITS LARGE, INEFFICIENT CATTLE SPREADS AND BIG LAND HOLDINGS GENERALLY WAS RETROGRESSIVE. ONE HAD NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT THE DISASTEROUS SYSTEM THE SANDINISTAS PUT IN ITS PLACE.) THOSE AT THE TOP OF THIS SYSTEM WERE TOTALLY "UNCULTURED", INTERESTED ONLY IN MONEY AND THEIR PLEASURES. THIS CAME HOME TO HIM WHEN SHORTLY AFTER THE SANDINISTA TRIUMPH HE WENT LOOKING FOR A PRIVATE CLINIC IN MANAGUA WHERE HIS WIFE COULD GIVE BIRTH TO THEIR FOURTH CHILD IN THE BEST POSSIBLE CONDITIONS. THE CLINIC HE WAS DIRECTED TO, PURPORTEDLY USED BY THE CITY'S BEST FAMILIES, WAS A CONVERTED HOUSE, DIRTY, UNEQUIPPED AND "FULL OF COCKROACHES" -- A TELLING EXAMPLE HE THOUGHT OF HOW BACKWARD THOSE PEOPLE WERE.

10. BECAUSE OF A PREVIOUS ENGAGEMENT I COULD NOT WAIT FOR ORTEGA TO-FINISH HIS LECTURE. BEFORE I COULD LEAVE, HOWEVER, HE SUDDENLY SWITCHED FROM HISTORY AND SOCIOLOGY TO THE ICJ CASE. HE SAID WE SHOULD FIND A SOLUTION THAT TAKES INTO ACCOUNT THE STRONG FEELINGS ON BOTH SIDES. SOMETHING ALONG THE LINES OF A LONG-TERM AGREEMENT WHICH WOULD PROVIDE PREFERENTIAL ACCESS TO THE U.S. MARKET FOR NICARAGUAN PRODUCTS MIGHT BE AN ANSWER IN HIS VIEW. I SIMPLY SAID THAT THE U.S. HAD NEVER ACCEPTED THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT AND TOOK MYSELF OFF.

11. COMMENT: THE ICJ CASE NOW UNFORTUNATELY OVERSHADOWS ALL ELSE IN THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP AND THE LAST THING WE WANT TO DO IS TO GET OURSELVES INVOLVED WITH HUMBERTO ORTEGA IN DEALING WITH IT. IT IS APPARENT, HOWEVER, THAT HE HAS TALKED TO LACAYO ABOUT THE MATTER. PRESUMABLY THE LATTER HOPES TO USE HUMBERTO TO STRIKE AN EVENTUAL DEAL WITH THE SANDINISTAS ON DROPPING THE CASE.

12. WHAT IMPRESSED ME MOST ABOUT THIS ENCOUNTER WAS HOW LOQUACIOUS ORTEGA WAS. HE WENT ON AND ON LEAVING ME WITH VIRTUALLY NO CHANCE TO GET A WORD IN EDGEWISE. OVERALL HIS PRESENTATION, ALTHOUGH TENDENTIOUS AT TIMES, PARTICULARLY WITH RESPECT TO THE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE FMLN, WAS CLEVERLY DONE. HE AVOIDED GOING TOO FAR IN PAINTING HIMSELF AS A PRAGMATIC MODERATE OR REFORMED REVOLUTIONARY. AND THERE WAS ENOUGH CREDIBLE DETAIL IN HIS HISTORY LESSON TO LEND CREDENCE TO THE ARGUMENT THAT HIS THINKING HAS EVOLVED IN A POSITIVE DIRECTION. BUT, AS CENTRAL BANK PRESIDENT MAYORGA SAYS, "THE TERM MODERATE SANDINISTA IS AN OXYMORON".

13. ON A PERSONAL LEVEL HUMBERTO STRUCK ME AS LIVELIER, MORE INTELLIGENT AND MORE INTERESTING THAN HIS DULL, DOGGED BROTHER. BUT HE DOES TALK A LOT, OF LATE QUITE FREQUENTLY IN PUBLIC WHERE UNHAPPILY HE TENDS TO STEAL THE LIMELIGHT FROM THE ESSENTIALLY INARTICULATE CHAMORRO ADMINISTRATION. END COMMENT. SHLAUDEMAN

Chile. A single-candidate presidential plebiscite will probably be held in October, with Pinochet seeking to prolong his fifteen-year reign for another eight years. The opposition currently holds a narrow edge but cannot afford complacency, given the government's resource advantage. If Pinochet loses, the military-sponsored constitution grants him one more year in office during which competitive elections would be organized. The opposition might seek an acceleration of this timetable, with unpredictable consequences. A Pinochet victory would leave open the question of a democratic transition.

THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Preambular paragraphs

1) Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur,

2) Noting the duty of the government of Chile to respect and protect human rights in accordance with the international instruments to which Chile is a party,

3) Recalling its pertinent resolutions, in particular its resolutions 11 (XXV) of March 6, 1979 by which it appointed a Special Rapporteur and 1987/60 of 122 March 1987, whereby it decided, among other things, to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year and to consider this question, as a matter of high priority, in view of the continued serious violations of human rights in Chile,

4) Bearing in mind that the concern of the international community at the situation of human rights in Chile has been expressed by the General Assembly in numerous resolutions, and in particular resolution 42/147 of 7 December, 1987.

5) Deeply concerned that the repeated appeals of the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and other international organs for the reestablishment of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms have not been taken into account by the Chilean government.

6) Considering also certain reports prepared by various non-government organizations which have brought to public attention the serious violations of human rights in Chile,

7) Noting that, during 1987, laws have been put into effect which seriously flout freedom of thought and expression and signify the proscription and interdiction of persons as regards their civil and professional rights and activities, on the grounds of their political opinions; the practices of murder in alleged confrontations, abductions, disappearances that are not clarified up and forced exile have persisted, murders, deaths in alleged confrontations, abductions, disappearances, torture and ill-treatment by the security forces, the climate of insecurity and extreme violence, the maintenance of exile and the denial of fundamental rights and freedoms during the prolonged periods in which states of emergency have been in force,

6) Also expresses its deep concern at the failure of the competent judicial authorities to take the necessary steps to conduct full investigations and prosecute independently those responsible for the numerous unresolved cases of murder, abduction, disappearance and torture, and for serious injuries through the use of further repressive methods of inhuman cruelty,

7) Expresses its concern at the systematic and continuing restrictions imposed by the Chilean government on the exercise of the rights to freedom of expression, assembly and association, through the use of repressive methods and violent responses to social and political opposition demonstrations, in particular, military searches and acts of intimidation against religious and lay human rights bodies,

8) Emphasizes the need for the government of Chile to restore and respect human rights and fundamental freedoms in conformity with the principles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in compliance within the obligations it has assumed under various international instruments and, in particular:

a. To put an immediate end to the application of all laws contrary to the full exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

b. To put an immediate end to all forms of torture and effectively to respect the right to life and to physical and moral integrity, and furthermore to desist from intimidation and persecution, abductions, arbitrary arrests, and ill-treatment of political prisoners, including long periods of incommunications,

c. To put an end to and punish the activities of gangs and groups, whether private or connected with the security forces, which are responsible for rapes, abductions resulting in deaths, searches, interrogations, and intimidation,

d. To ensure the effectiveness of investigations of human rights violations and the effectiveness of judicial remedies, particularly amparo or habeas corpus, to prevent the intimidation of witnesses and defense lawyers, and to re-establish the jurisdiction of the civilian courts in matters within their competence which have over the past years been delegated to the military courts,

e. to guarantee that anti-terrorist legislation shall not be used against persons who have not committed terrorist acts, that persons accused of acts of violence or terrorism shall be accorded due process of law and respect for their rights, and that the accusation of terrorism shall not be adduced as a justification for any abuse of authority, torture or inhuman treatment or for the creation of special courts, which do not provide objective guarantees of independent justice,

f. To respect the right of Chileans to live in and freely enter and leave their country without arbitrary restrictions or conditions and to put an end to the practice of forced exile,

g. To restore the full enjoyment and exercise of labour rights and to put an end to the repression of trade union activities,

9) Takes note of the cooperation of the government of Chile with the United Nations, requests that it continue and increase its cooperation with the Special Rapporteur and that it fully implement the resolutions and recommendations of the international community and of the Special Rapporteur on this matter,

10) Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one year and to request him to report on the situation of human rights in Chile to the General Assembly at its forty-third session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-fifth session,

11) Recommends to the Economic and Social Council that it make appropriate arrangements to ensure that the necessary financial resources and sufficient staff are provided to implement the present resolution,

12) Decides to consider at its forty-fifth session, as a matter of high priority, the human rights situation in Chile.

The October 5 presidential plebiscite was a key event in Chile's recent history and an important step in putting Chile on the road to democracy. In that plebiscite, Chileans were asked to vote on whether President Augusto Pinochet, the candidate selected by the ruling military junta, should continue to rule until 1997. With 92 percent of the adult population registered and voting, Pinochet's continuation as President was rejected by a margin of 55 to 43 percent (the remainder of votes were blank or nullified). Under the terms of the 1980 Constitution, this result means that President Pinochet will remain in office until March 1990, at which time he will be replaced by a successor chosen in direct presidential elections to take place on December 14, 1989. Those elections will also select the first Congress to be permitted since the 1973 coup which brought Pinochet to power. Both the new Congress and the President will assume office on March 11, 1990.

There was vigorous political debate during the campaign leading up to the plebiscite, although the political opposition was denied balanced media coverage and had only limited funding. The vote itself was an impressive affirmation of the Chilean people's desire to return to democracy. The large number of international observers who witnessed the voting reported that it was conducted in a peaceful, orderly, and free manner. However, there were various forms of intimidation and pressure applied to government employees.

The current Government includes both military and civilian officials and operates under the 1980 Constitution, which was adopted by plebiscite. The military Junta exercises the legislative function, and there is a separate judicial branch, but primary authority resides with the Commanding General of the Army and President Augusto Pinochet.

The uniformed national police, the 28,000-man Carabineros, is Chile's largest police force and is under the control of the Minister of Defense. The Carabineros have primary responsibility for public security and safety, crime control, and border security. The 5,000-man Investigations Police, also under the jurisdiction of the Minister of Defense, are responsible for controlling and investigating serious crime. The National Information Center (CNI), responsible for lnternal and external intelligence-gathering, is part of the Ministry of Interior, but the presidency exercises significant de facto control. The majority of this 2,500-man force is composed of military personnel. The 85,000-man armed forces is the ultimate guarantor of constitutional order. During the October plebiscite, the armed forces were responsible for the security of the voting places.

Chile's export-oriented economy is largely based on free market principles. After a major recession in 1982-83, during which real incomes and employment dropped sharply, the economy has grown steadily and rapidly. The year 1988 marked the fifth consecutive year of positive real growth and the third consecutive year of annual growth in excess of 5 percent. As a result, real wages have increased and unemployment, on the whole, has decreased. However, unemployment remains high in urban areas and, while per capita income has risen, income distribution problems remain. Chile has made substantial progress in overcoming its debt problem.

CHILE

Many fundamental human rights remain restricted in Chile. Freedom from arbitrary arrest is undermined by extensive use of vaguely defined and far-reaching state security laws. In 1988, as in the past, there were reliable and in some cases documented reports of torture and mistreatment of persons detained by security forces or by unidentified groups that appeared to be linked to security forces. In addition, there were also cases of kidnapings, beating, torture and, in a few cases, murders in which no suspects have been identified or apprehended. Although the number of such incidents decreased compared to 1987, the absence of any resolution to longstanding cases of serious human rights abuses continues to concern both Chilean and international organizations.

Freedom of the press is also curbed, and the media continue to be subjected to informal government pressures and self-censorship, although access to the media by democratic parties improved significantly during 1988. However, new judicial measures were taken against journalists for publishing news and opinion which military courts found objectionable, and a number of cases initiated in 1987 and earlier remain pending. (At year's end, the Government took action which may result in charges being dropped against 6 of these journalists). The growing number of other cases handled by the military courts, including the unresolved 1976 murder in Washington of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, is one of the most serious human rights issues.

However, there were some steps taken during 1988 which represent significant progress in the human rights situation. On August 24 the last states of exception in effect, the State of Emergency and the State of Danger to the Internal Peace, were lifted. (The Government still maintains significant discretionary authority to limit freedoms by use of one or more of the five states of exception provided for in the Constitution or its Transitory Articles.) On September 1, orders for administrative exile were lifted, and several hundred political exiles were permitted to return to Chile.

The Government continued to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur of the United Nations Human Rights Commission (UNHRC). Delegations from other human rights organizations, such as Amnesty International (AI), Americas Watch, and the International Human Rights Law Group, visited Chile during the year and in some instances were given permission to visit prisons and individual prisoners. The 1987-88 Annual Report of the Organization Of American States (OAS) Inter-American Commission on Human Rights noted continued shortcomings in Chile on torture and ill-treatment, personal liberty, judicial procedures, and freedom of expression.

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Section 1 Respect for the Integrity of the Person, Including Freedom from:

a. Political Killing

Deaths and injuries resulting from political violence continued during 1988. According to the Vicariate of Solidarity, the human rights organization of the Catholic Church, 27 persons had died in acts of political violence as of October 31. The independent Chilean Human Rights Commission (CHRC) indicates that 25 deaths had occurred due to political violence during the same period. (For a discussion of the bases of the statistics provided by these two groups, see Section 4.) The deaths resulted from both deliberate or random actions by persons still unidentified. Of the 27 deaths listed by the Vicariate as politically motivated, 9 of the victims were members of the military and security forces. An ad hoc Carabinero prosecutor was appointed in May to investigate the cases of five police officials who were assassinated by unknown persons. One police officer was killed by what appeared to be a command-detonated bomb while responding to a bomb-threat call; another was killed while attempting to arrest a suspected member of the Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front (FPMR), a leftist group that advocates violence.

Of the civilian deaths, three persons died when a bomb in their possession exploded, and one woman died in an explosion at a medical clinic. Others listed as victims of politically motivated violence by the Vicariate included three persons killed during an attack on an armored car, a young man shot by a retired Carabinero official during a political demonstration, and a young man struck by police and left unattended during a demonstration. During the night of August 30, following President Pinochet's nomination as the Government's candidate for the plebiscite, three persons in poor neighborhoods were shot by unidentified assailants; two of the victims were in their early teens. Several people were also killed during demonstrations before and after the plebiscite. On October 21, a Carabinero official was killed in an attack on a small rural police station. A self-described spokesman for the FPMR, in a call to a newspaper, termed that attack and another on a similar police post as the start of a campaign to destablize the Government in the postplebiscite period.

According to government reports, terrorist groups in 1988 caused 16 deaths and 97 personal injuries in attacks which included 368 bombings. Rightwing terrorist groups such as the Chilean Anti-Communist Association (ACHA), the September 11 Command, and the National Combat Front (FNC) continued to operate, but there were no deaths attributed to them in 1988.

In January a Carabinero official was found guilty of killing a student in April 1985 and was given a 3-year suspended sentence. Despite the leniency of the sentence, the Vicariate noted this was the first instance in 15 years in which a security official was convicted for a human rights violation. In December an army officer was found guilty by a military prosecutor of manslaughter in the 1986 death by burning of Rodrigo Rojas, a young Chilean who had lived in the United States. A sentence of 541 days in jail was recommended. The verdict and sentence must be confirmed by the military court, which had not acted by year's end.

b. Disappearance

Human rights organizations report that politically motivated kidnapings and threats by private or paramilitary groups continued in 1988. Some reports assert that the method of operation, type of equipment used, and intelligence apparently available to the groups strongly suggest some had government support. Kidnapings continue--CHRC data show 49 kidnapings as of October 31, while Vicariate figures show 11 kidnapings in Santiago as of August 31. As in past years, there were no known arrests or prosecutions in any of these kidnaping cases. Rightwing terrorist groups may have been involved in kidnapings as well as in numerous threats against persons associated with political opposition organizations, including actors, student leaders, and human rights activists. Charges continued to surface that members of the security and military forces were involved in some of these terrorist organizations. An AI report issued in May claims that Chilean courts still refuse to process investigations of hundreds of disappearances dating to the mid-1970's. During 1988 there were no reports of persons disappearing following detention by security forces or by persons suspected of being official security agents. Investigations into the last reported case of disappearance, of five men in September 1987, are inactive and appear to have been suspended.

UNCLASSIFIED

c. Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman, or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

Torture remains one of the most serious, persistent human rights problems in Chile. The Vicariate reported 51 cases through October 31; the CHRC reported 98 as of October 31. Many undocumented cases periodically surface in the international media. Agreements concluded in 1987 by the Investigations Police, the CNI, and the Carabineros with the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), however, appear to have reduced the incidence of torture and lesser forms of police brutality. The agreements, which have generally been honored, allow the ICRC to visit anyone detained by those three organizations for violations of state security laws. They stipulate that the ICRC be provided a daily list of detainees, and be allowed to visit the detainees after the first 5 days of detention and before the detainees are released or brought before the courts. However, the ICRC and the Interior Ministry's Advisory Commission on Human Rights are not allowed to visit detainees if the prosecutor in the case orders them held for 10-day periods of isolation under the antiterrorist law. The CNI continued to abide by the provision in the 1987 agreement with the ICRC to turn over persons it arrested to the Carabineros or the Investigations Police. The U.N. and the O.A.S. Conventions on Torture, signed by Chile in 1987, were ratified in September and entered into force in November. However, the Government attached reservations which have the effect of denying any international involvement in ensuring compliance.

Government officials deny that torture is used or authorized, and assert that members of the security forces are always investigated in cases of alleged mistreatment. In April two Investigations Police members were found guilty of "illegal and arbitrary detention" of two persons in 1980 and given a sentence of 541 days in jail, which was suspended; the two were also ordered to pay compensation of approximately $3,570. The judge found the two not guilty of the more serious charge of torture. In October a judge in Santiago charged six members of the Investigations Police with torturing a person arrested in 1986 for involvement in the attempted assassination of President Pinochet. The charges were overruled by the Santiago Court of Appeals, leaving the policemen free. An appeal is pending with the Supreme Court.

Judicial investigations of torture are seldom concluded, due in large part to the refusal of some state security organizations to comply with court orders to make security agents available to the courts for questioning. Moreover, in one case, three Investigations Police detectives found guilty in 1986 of the torture death of a young man and sentenced to serve 5 years in prison and pay a fine have never done so, despite a Supreme Court order confirming the sentence. Last year's Country Reports on Human Rights Practices noted that a judge publicly denounced the repeated failure of CNI officials to cooperate with his investigations into 35 separate torture incidents and that the jurisdiction of some of these investigations had been transferred to military prosecutors. In February a military judge demanded that the civilian judge in the case declare himself incompetent to investigate some 20 cases of alleged torture by the CNI. In responding to the request, the civilian judge opined, as he had in the past, that torture cases investigated by military judges implied impunity for those charged. In May the Supreme Court "admonished" the judge for using inappropriate language in his reply. Moreover, in October the Supreme Court suspended the judge for 15 days with half pay for violating the principle "that judges should abstain from expressing or even privately indicating their opinion regarding cases they are called upon to judge."

UNCLASSIFIED

In October the Catholic bishop of Copiapo denounced the use of electric shocks by Investigations Police in the days following the plebiscite. On October 17 an appeals court in Copiapo dismissed charges against nine persons accused of violating the antiterrorist law, on the grounds that there was clear evidence that their confessions had been obtained by torture.

Human rights leaders agree that Carabinero efforts to conduct themselves professionally and to avoid the use of unnecessary force continued in 1988. Opposition political figures generally agree that Carabinero conduct during legally held political demonstrations of both electoral camps was generally evenhanded; detentions during rallies were relatively low, given the number of participants, and most of those held were released within 24 hours. The Carabineros were praised by both Chilean and foreign observers of the October 5 plebiscite. Activities of some persons in the police force, however, detracted from the improving record of the Carabineros. During celebratory demonstrations held by opposition forces after the plebiscite, excessive force was used in some areas. Two officers have been charged with attempted murder for beating a youth in demonstrations in Santiago. A Carabinero special force unit attacked and beat about 20 Chilean and foreign journalists filming political demonstrations on October 6 and 7. An internal investigation was under way at year's end.

d. Arbitrary Arrest, Detention, or Exile

Under Transitory Article 24 of the Constitution, the Government may order detention for 5 days without affording a detainee the right to a judicial hearing, or for as many as 20 days in cases where terrorist acts are alleged to be involved. In some cases involving the special military prosecutor, the detainees have had their access to lawyers limited even after the prosecutor formally charged them. The ad hoc military prosecutor continued to order arrests of persons suspected of being linked to the four cases under his purview: the discovery of an arms cache in 1986, the attempted assassination of President Pinochet in 1986, the kidnaping of an army colonel in 1987, and the 1986 assault on a bakery in which a Carabinero official was killed. None of those arrested in these cases have been brought to trial. On December 27, the military prosecutor was promoted to the top position in the military justice system. On December 28, the Supreme Court overturned a decision by the military court that the special prosecutor had exceeded his authority in seeking data from the Vicariate of Solidarity.

The Vicariate of Solidarity reported 752 individual arrests and 2,883 group arrests in demonstrations through October 31. The Vicariate reported 669 individual and 2,596 collective arrests in all of 1987, and 637 individual and 3,969 collective arrests in all of 1986. The CHRC reported 636 individual arrests and 3,713 collective arrests as of October 31. Only a small number of those arrested were arraigned before the courts; the vast majority of those detained were released without charges, or charged with minor violations.

Many of those detained under Transitory Article 24 are never charged and are released after several days. The state security laws often appear to be used to harass opponents of the Government. Persons are detained for prolonged periods of time while their cases are investigated or released on bail without any formal charge against which they can defend themselves. Four persons associated with the Vicariate are in this position. Moreover, charges are often levied well after the event, heightening the impression of arbitrariness and harassment. For example, labor leader Manuel Bustos was taken from his home at 6 a.m. on January 29 to answer questions regarding an alleged attempt to encourage disorder in the Armed Forces because of a statement of his which had been published in the magazine Analisis the year before. Father Jose Aldunate of the Sebastian Acevedo Movement Against Torture was similarly detained on October 17 to give a statement regarding offenses against the Armed Forces stemming from comments in a bulletin published by his organization in June 1987.

Once formally charged with or convicted of violations of state security laws, the accused are generally imprisoned separately from common criminals and have rights of visitation and communication with their families, friends, legal counsel, and representatives of the ICRC. The ICRC has access to most of those detained under the state security laws after a 5-day period of incommunicado detention.

On September 1, the Government terminated administrative exile orders, paving the way for about 300 people, primarily political figures and their families, to return to Chile. Some who accepted a term of exile as an alternative to a prison sentence handed down by a court are eligible to return, but if the term of the original sentence has not expired they could be subject to imprisonment. Several prominent political figures who had been exiled for 15 years returned to Chile. Among them were the widow and daughter of former President Allende, several of his cabinet officials, and leaders of the banned Communist Party. Clodomiro Almeyda, the Foreign Minister in the Allende Government who was sentenced to 541 days in prison for violations of the antiterrorist law and for illegally entering the country from exile, was released on October 18. The Supreme Court, acting on a petition from his lawyers, reduced the sentence to the time he had already served in jail.

On August 17, the Supreme Court sentenced president Manuel Bustos and vice president Arturo Martinez of the Unified Workers' Central (CUT) to 541 days' internal exile. The action stemmed from a petition by the Ministry of Interior to overturn an appeals court verdict exonerating the two from charges relating to the deaths of persons in the wake of a general strike.

With regard to forced or compulsory labor, see Section 6.c.

e. Denial of Fair Public Trial

The right to a fair trial remains limited by Transitory Article 24. First instance jurisdiction for the prosecution of proscribed political activities remains with the regular civilian courts, but broad interpretation of state security laws has greatly expanded military court jurisdiction. As in most civil law systems, trial is not by jury, reliance is on the written record rather than oral testimony, and the judge renders his verdict after directing the investigation. The investigation phase is considered secret, with limited access to evidence or testimony which has been developed by the judge. Secrecy makes it extremely difficult to ascertain if justice is being done. There is a well-developed, multistage appeal process leading ultimately to the Supreme Court. Weapons violations (often the basis of charges against suspected terrorists) and charges of "offenses against the Armed Forces," including slandering the Commander-in-Chief of the Army (President Pinochet), are tried before a military court. Appeals may be made to a military court consisting of two civilian judges and three military judges and, in the last resort, to the Supreme Court.

Investigation by the courts of present and past human rights violations made little progress during 1988. Human rights organizations continued to report that judges failed to investigate vigorously charges of government abuses of human rights. In May the Supreme Court charged a military prosecutor with serious and grave delays in the four cases of illegal arrest and brutality under his direction and ordered the military courts of the Army, Air Force, and Carabineros to adopt appropriate means to oversee timely processing of cases by military prosecutors. There has been no progress in the investigation by a military tribunal into the deaths of 12 members of the FPMR in June 1987.

The investigation by a military judge into the July 1986 burning of Rodrigo Rojas (who died) and Carmen Gloria Quintana (who was severely injured) during an antigovernment protest was concluded on December 25, with the judge recommending a commuted sentence of 541 days in jail for the commander of the military patrol involved. The sentence must be confirmed by the military court, and both sides may appeal the judgment.

The Social Aid Foundation of the Christian Churches (FASIC) reported that, as of September 30, there were 433 persons in prison and 597 persons facing judicial proceedings related to state security laws. Forty-five of these people have been in prison since before 1983, but the majority (197) were detained in 1986 and 1987. Ninety-five were detained in the first 9 months of 1988. Of the 597 judicial proceedings, 477 are before military courts. Another 108 persons were released on bail during 1988, and 6 were released after completing their prison terms. Of a total prison population of 433 involved in violations of state security laws, 71 have been convicted and are serving their sentences, while 362 remain in detention with their cases still under investigation. In at least one case, the investigation phase has lasted 7 years.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

CHILE

International attention continued to focus during 1988 on nine prisoners who face possible death sentences because of charges of involvement in assassinations of senior military officers, bank robberies, and killings of Carabineros. Defense lawyers charged that all were tortured, and their confessions obtained under physical and psychological duress. Human rights organizations have assisted 12 prisoners, including the 9 facing a possible death sentence, to obtain visas to other countries. This was done in the belief that possession of such visas might either allow these prisoners to seek remission of their prison terms for exile or protect them from the death sentence. While the Government permitted many Chileans serving prison sentences related to politically motivated acts to seek exile in the mid-1970's, this practice has been severely restricted in recent years. One reason given has been that some of those who sought exile later returned to Chile illegally and became involved in terrorist activities. In August a petition by the military prosecutor for the death penalty for three persons found guilty of killing an army general in 1983 was denied. The penalty can only be imposed by unanimous decision of a military court and one judge voted against the death penalty. The military prosecutor appealed the decision to the Supreme Court in September on the grounds that the dissenting judge applied personal, not judicial, criteria to the case.

f. Arbitrary Interference with Privacy, Family, Home, or Correspondence

Searches of the home and interception of private communications are permitted by the Constitution, provided search warrants are issued by either a civilian or military court for specific locations. The 1984 antiterrorist law provides for surveillance of those promoting political views contrary to the Constitution or those suspected of terrorist crimes, and for intercepting, opening, or recording private communications and documents in these cases. The requirement to obtain proper court documents for searches and surveillance, however, was not always complied with during the year. A significant number of searches were carried out by security forces or by armed groups who failed or refused to show identification, or without the necessary court orders. Many searches were conducted in the early hours of the morning, often with force and violence. However, the Vicariate of Solidarity noted that during 1988 there were no reported instances of security forces closing off an entire neighborhood in order to conduct searches as had been done in the past.

Section 2 Respect for Civil Liberties, Including:

a. Freedom of Speech and Press

The Constitution recognizes freedom of speech and press, but these freedoms are severely restricted. Article 8 provides for sanctions against "persons or groups propagating doctrines undermining the family, espousing violence or a concept of the society, the state, or legal order of a totalitarian character or contrary to the institutional order of the country...." Violations of this Article may include media coverage, commentary, or publicity about such groups or doctrines. The military code provides for sanctions against persons charged with "offenses against the Armed Forces." Critical editorials, satirical reports, and articles on issues deemed sensitive by the Armed Forces have been cited under this provision. Laws also exist specifically dealing with security violations and terrorism. On December 30, the Government dropped charges against the six journalists named in the two media cased before civil courts. Earlier in the year, several civil and military court cases were dismissed or terminated. However, at year's end military court cases on charges for "offenses against the armed forces" continued against approximatey 26 Chilean citizens, including 18 journalists, involved in publishing, or writing for publication, news stories or commentaries. In 1988 new charges were brought in military courts against 17 persons, 6 of whom faced earlier charges. All of those with charges remaining were connected with five publications: the opposition weekly magazines Analisis, Apsi, and Cauce, the daily newspaper Fortin Diario, and the Jesuit monthly Mensaje. Analisis magazine editor Juan Pablo Cardenas served 541 days of nightly imprisonment for "offenses against the President of the Republic" in editorials published in 1986. Cardenas also is cited in four additional cases, two of them filed in 1988, before the military courts. Apsi editor Marcelo Contreras is named in two cases before a military court. Cauce editor Francisco Javier Herreros also is named in five cases, all before military courts. Fortin Diario editor Alberto Gamboa faces two charges, one for publishing a book on his experiences in a concentration camp following the 1973 coup. Cases are also pending against personnel of the weekly magazine Hoy, the daily newspaper La Epoca, and other publications. One civil court case, against the daily newspaper La Prensa Austral of Punta Arenas for publishing a story about exiles, was dismissed.

UNCLASSIFIED

The media continue to be the target of political violence and threats, including extralegal pressure from extremist groups. Radio stations in the smaller towns have been subject to harassment, through means ranging from strict and selective application of technical regulations to anonymous threats against advertisers. One station, in the northern town of Iquique, was forced off the air for 7 months for alleged technical violations. After receiving permission to resume broadcasting, the station's transmission tower fell over, reportedly because the mounting bolts had been removed. Advertisers on a station in the south received threatening letters, and the business premises of one advertiser were bombed. In February police deactivated a bomb found in the offices of the conservative newspaper El Mercurio of Valparaiso, but in March a bomb exploded in the newspaper's offices. In May a firebomb was thrown into El Mercurio offices in the town of La Calera. In April a photographer of the opposition daily Fortin Mapocho was beaten, and in August the offices of the publication were stoned. In September leftwing extremists assaulted a radio station in order to broadcast propaganda. On the nights of October 6 and 7, groups of journalists, most of them foreign, were attacked by a Carabinero special forces unit in downtown Santiago following the breakup of victory celebrations by opponents of the Government. The journalists charged that some 20 to 25 of them were deliberately pursued and clubbed by the police.

With the lifting of the states of exception on August 24, it is no longer necessary to obtain government permission to begin publishing a newspaper or magazine. The Government continues to exercise control over the media through legal actions, economic pressures (several major media enterprises are seriously in debt to government financial institutions), and pressure on personnel and editorial decisions. However, the level of censorship decreased in the period leading up to the October plebiscite, and this improvement continued through the last months of 1988.

UNCLASSIFIED

The Government itself directly operates the country's largest television network. The other television stations are monitored, and program planning remains strongly influenced by self-censorship. In 1988, however, there was a gradual change in the practice of giving coverage only to the government viewpoint, which had been the case for many years. By the end of the year, all channels were giving substantial coverage to a wide range of political viewpoints. In January Channel 11, operated by the University of Chile, became the first to offer a regularly scheduled public affairs discussion program which included political leaders critical of the Government. In March Catholic University Television began a series of weekly panel shows which included personalities from a wide range of the political spectrum. As the plebiscite approached, the news coverage given to opposition leaders by the nongovernment channels increased, although the overall time given to government views remained vastly greater. From September 5 to October 1, all television stations carried, by law, a 30-minute block of free political advertising each day, divided equally between supporters of the Government and the opposition. This block immediately received high viewer ratings, and many Chilean commentators believe this television access by the opposition was a significant factor in its plebiscite victory on October 5. Although political advertising ended on October 1, coverage of opposition political leaders by the nongovernment media in the postplebiscite period remained relatively frequent; during the last months of 1988, government-owned national television and radio systems began to give substantial news coverage to a variety of political events and views.

The Government announced that a new radio and television law designed, among other things, to "privatize" television, is being prepared for submission to the military junta, but its provisions remain unknown.

b. Freedom of Peaceful Assembly and Association

Restrictions on peaceful demonstrations and association, already reduced in 1987 with the legalization of political parties, were further relaxed in August with the lifting of the states of exception. Although official permission to hold rallies was no longer technically required, authorities had to be notified in writing of planned public events; on several occasions, police authorities cited public safety concerns as justification for changing the venue of opposition rallies to more distant locales. There were credible reports that Carabinero forces were quicker to employ tear gas and water cannon to disperse rowdy elements of opposition rallies than of progovernment rallies. Those who held demonstrations or protests without notifying officials in writing and in advance were subject to arrest and prosecution.

On August 29, a group of protesters, most of them women, conducted a peaceful march while holding cutouts of human figures painted with the names of victims of human rights abuse and the question, "Have you forgotten me?" The group was dispersed with water cannon and tear gas. On September 22, a progovernment demonstration held without prior notice at the presidential palace was also dispersed with tear gas. Similar excessive force was employed on September 15 against those, many of them foreign members of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, accompanying labor leaders Manuel Bustos and Arturo Martinez when they surrendered to the court to begin their internal exile.

On October 23 the United Left (a nonregistered party made up primarily of Socialists and Communists) held a rally; Clodomiro Almeyda, head of one of the Socialist Party factions who had been released from jail a few days before, was one of the principal speakers, despite a court order denying him the right to speak in public. Organizers of the rally subsequently claimed that police injured two demonstrators. Subsequent public meetings by the United Left were held without reports of incidents.

For a discussion of freedom of association as it applies to labor unions, see Section 6.a.

c. Freedom of Religion

The Constitution provides for freedom of religion. Although Chile is predominantly Roman Catholic, there are no restrictions on religious practices and no official discrimination against any religious group. A number of Protestant denominations and other groups are active and report full freedom and tolerance, as does the local Jewish community. Religious belief and adherence appear to have no effect on acceptability for government positions. The Mormon Church continued to be a target of leftwing terrorist groups.

d. Freedom of Movement Within the Country, Foreign Travel, Emigration, and Repatriation

Chileans are promised full constitutional freedom to move within and to enter and leave their country. However, as noted, two Chilean labor leaders were sentenced to internal exile in August. About 350 Chileans were denied the right to return to Chile until September 1, when orders for their exile were lifted by President Pinochet. International organizations dealing with political refugees believe that the number who returned to Chile in 1988 was approximately 650, a number far exceeded by those who left for political reasons. Many exiles presumably choose to remain in their adopted countries for economic and family reasons. Some human rights groups assert that former exiles associated with the political left face excessive scrutiny of any degrees or licenses they may have earned abroad.

Section 3 Respect for Political Rights: The Right of Citizens to Change Their Government

In keeping with the terms of the 1980 Constitution, on August 30, the Commanders-in-Chief of the Armed Forces and national police selected a single candidate for a plebiscite which was held October 5. That candidate, President Pinochet, was defeated; he will continue as President until March 11, 1990. Before that date, competitive elections for a president and the Congress must be held; they have been scheduled for December 1989.

Foreign and Chilean observers of the plebiscite unanimously agreed that it was conducted in a free and fair way, and praised the election procedures for safeguarding privacy and accountability. The Chilean Armed Forces and Carabineros were also praised for their exemplary conduct on election day.

Women are active in Chilean political life and have served in such important government positions as mayors, agency heads, and ministers, although none is currently in the cabinet.

Section 4 Governmental Attitude Regarding International and Nongovernmental Investigation of Alleged Violations of Human Rights

During 1988 the Government continued to cooperate with the UNHRC Special Rapporteur and provided another detailed reply to the Special Rapporteur's report on the human rights situation in Chile. The Special Rapporteur visited Chile in October, during the plebiscite.

The Government also continued its cooperation with the ICRC, which provided confidential reports to key government ministries on the results of its visits to prisons, as provided for in the agreements signed late in 1986 and early in 1987 with the CNI, the Investigations Police, and the Carabineros.

The Government permits visits and investigations by private international human rights groups, but a number of visitors as well as diplomatic personnel assigned to Chile were denied permission to visit specific prisoners even after seeking permission in writing. In past years such permission had been given more readily. The Government made no effort to impede the many international observers of the plebiscite and vote-counting on October 5.

The Catholic Church continues to take the lead in defending human rights. It supplies legal counsel to those accused of politically related crimes and to victims of human rights abuses. Its Vicariate of Solidarity monitors the human rights situation throughout Chile, issues factual monthly reports, and protects and defends significant numbers of people. The statistics provided by the Vicariate generally cover cases actually handled by it. The Chilean Commission for Human Rights (CHRC), a private organization directed by opposition political figures, also continued to publicize abuses. Statistics provided by the CHRC cover violations brought to their attention throughout the country. Since some persons involved in human rights violations may not go to the Vicariate for assistance, the CHRC statistics provide a wider but less first-hand picture of human rights violations.

Section 5 Discrimination Based on Race, Sex, Religion, Language, or Social Status

Minority groups do not suffer from any specific legal discrimination. The only significant racial minority, the Mapuche Indians in southern Chile, remains separated from the rest of society because of historical, cultural, educational, and geographical factors rather than official policy. Some Mapuche leaders charge that government policies throughout the years have failed to take into account the different cultural values of the Mapuche, particularly in the areas of land ownership and education. They have continued in some instances to refuse to participate in government attempts to assign land to individual families, preferring to retain the land as tribal property.

Legal distinctions between the sexes still exist. The legal retirement age for women is 5 years lower than that for men. Married women may not conduct major commercial transactions unless a separation of goods contract is established at the time of marriage, or through a subsequent special one-time authorization. Inheritance laws provide strong protection for wives and favor female over male heirs. Proposed legislation to modify portions of the laws relating to women is under consideration but no action was taken by year's end. The changes would affect such matters as allowing women to take children out of the country without the father's permission and relaxing restrictions on women engaging in business transactions.

UNCLASSIFIED

Average salaries paid to women for similar work are lower than those paid to men. In 1983 females made up 48.8 percent of the primary school enrollment, 50.5 percent of secondary school pupils, and 40 percent of university students. Women enjoy good access to low-level and midlevel professional jobs but do not hold a proportional number of high-level positions.

Section 6 Worker Rights

a. The Right of Association

Most aspects of labor rights are codified in 12 laws passed in 1987. The law regarding political parties discriminates against trade union (and professional association) leaders, prohibiting them from being officers of political parties. Legal challenges to this provision were rejected in 1987. Officials of those union organizations which lack legal standing continue to be active in political parties.

Legally recognized unions do not need permission to hold union meetings or conferences. Under the law, unions cannot elect as an officer a person who is under indictment. The labor code also prohibits the development of national union confederations. Labor unions can and do maintain relations with international labor bodies in their fields. The Government selects Chilean worker delegates participating in the conference of the International Labor Organization (ILO), and in 1988, as in the past, the Government sought to avoid challenges to the credentials of these delegates by consulting with representative trade unions in Chile. However, in selecting delegates to represent the Chilean workers in the ILO, the Government ignores the major de facto umbrella labor organizations, such as the National Workers' Command (CNT), which the Government does not recognize. The Government's refusal to select delegates for the ILO from these de facto umbrella organizations has been the major issue in the challenges to credentials in the ILO. These challenges have not had sufficient support in the ILO to be successful.

Under the labor code there are severe restrictions on the right to strike. Strikes are prohibited in designated strategic enterprises, primarily public utilities, the largest government copper mine, and the petroleum industry. In 1988 the Government confirmed the 1987 designation of 25 enterprises as strategic. There is no indication that blacklisting of trade union leaders and members who participated in illegal strike actions in past years has ended; however, there was no instance of massive dismissal of workers for striking in 1988.

Harassment of trade union leaders continued. On January 26, leaders of the National Workers' Command, which was subsequently subsumed into the Unified Workers' Central (CUT), were sentenced to 541 days' imprisonment for calling a general strike on October 7, 1987, in the aftermath of which several people died. In handing down the sentence, the judge recalled previous arrests of the union leaders, Manuel Bustos and Arturo Martinez, for activities "characterized by their violence, sowing of hatred, stench of resentment, series of vulgarities and dangerous demonstrations." An appeals court overturned the conviction. Subsequently, the Minister of Interior appealed to the Supreme Court to restore the original sentence; on August 17 the high court imposed a sentence of 541 days of internal exile, a sentence rarely handed down by Chilean courts. Bustos and Martinez are currently the only persons subject to this type of punishment. They are confined to small towns in the interior of Chile.

Organized labor continued to press for a full investigation of the 1982 murder of labor leader Tucapel Jimenez. Efforts to have the Government appoint another judge to investigate this murder were not successful, and the case remains officially closed. While the Government dropped indictments against a political leader and a trade union officer for having slandered the Government in this case, interest remains high within Chilean and international trade union circles that this case be reopened.

For a number of years, complaints have been filed in the ILO against the Government, alleging repressive measures against demonstrations; arrest and ill-treatment of union leaders; violent suppression of May Day demonstrations; and dismissal of strike leaders. In 1988 additional allegations were filed, to which the Government provided an extensive response. On December 24, 1987, after failing to make promised changes in its labor code to enhance workers' rights, Chile was formally suspended from the list of countries eligible to participate in the U.S. Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) program, and it remained off the list in 1988.

b. The Right to Organize and Bargain Collectively

Workers in Chile have the right to form and join unions. While the rules governing union organizing in firms employing between 25 and 50 workers were eased in 1988, there are generally severe restrictions on collective bargaining. Collective bargaining is strictly regulated, and the entire collective bargaining procedure can be nullified if one legally constituted deadline is missed by either the union or management. Further, any decision by a union to delay the bargaining process in anticipation of a more propitious future bargaining atmosphere automatically extends the current contract for a minimum 2-year period.

There are no export processing zones or other special districts where different laws apply.

c. Prohibition of Forced or Compulsory Labor

Forced or compulsory labor is implicitly prohibited in Chile's Constitution and labor code, and there have been no complaints on this issue since the mid-1970's.

d. Minimum Age for Employment of Children

Child labor is regulated by law. Young people between the ages of 14 and 15 may be employed only with the permission of their parents or guardians and if they have completed their schooling, and then only in restricted types of labor. Those between the ages of 15 and 18 can be employed in a larger variety of labor and at expanded hours, but only with their parents' or guardians' permission. Economic factors have forced many children to seek part-time and full-time employment in areas of the economy which are generally difficult to regulate.

e. Acceptable Conditions of Work

Minimum wages, hours of work, and occupational safety and health standards are regulated by law. The law permits the hiring of apprentices, but pay may not be less than the minimum wage. Laws covering wages and hours of work are difficult to enforce, and there are complaints that occupational health and safety laws are not adequately enforced. Workers have the right to denounce employees who pay less than the minimum wage, and employers can be forced to pay back wages, but an employee who brings such a complaint risks losing his job for having done so.

The normal workweek is 48 hours long. The minimum wage is approximately $50 per month. It is not considered sufficient for a decent standard of living, but many households have two full-time income earners.

STATED CATEGORICALLY THAT LAGUNA VERDE WOULD NOT ENTER INTO OPERATION UNTIL 1989. THEY CLAIMED THAT JUAN CARRION HERNANDEZ, THE DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL ELECTRIC COMMISSION, HAD ANNOUNCED THE DECISION TO POSTPONE THE DECISION FOR START-UP IN HIS 87-88 WORK REPORT. CFE NUMBER 2 JUAN EIBENSCHUTZ ABSOLUTELY DENIED THE VERACITY OF THE REPORT TO SCIATT AND STATED "NEWSPAPERS ARE NOT A RELIABLE SOURCE OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ELECTRICAL SECTOR." HE WENT ON TO RECONFIRM THAT TECHNICALLY THE REACTOR IS READY AND THEY ARE AWAITING THE POLITICAL DECISION ON WHEN TO LOAD THE FUEL.

4. ON AUGUST 20 THE LEFTIST NEWSPAPER JORNADA AND THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER EL NACIONAL BOTH PRINTED ARTICLES SAYING THAT JOSE LUIS ALCUDIA, THE UNDERSECRETARY OF ENERGY FOR THE SECRETARIAT OF ENERGY, MINES AND PARASTATAL INDUSTRIES (SEMIP) HAD STATED IN AN INTERVIEW THAT THE PLANT COULD NOT BEGIN OPERATION UNTIL IT IS "INSPECTED" AGAIN BY THE INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY AGENCY (IAEA). COMMENT: EMBASSY BELIEVES ALCUDIA WAS REFERRING TO ANOTHER POSSIBLE REVIEW BY THE IAEA OPERATIONAL AND SAFETY REVIEW TEAM (OSART) ALTHOUGH WE HAVE NOT HEARD THAT SUCH A REVIEW IS PLANNED. END COMMENT. ACCORDING TO BOTH ARTICLES ALCUDIA EXPLAINED THAT THE MOST RECENT VISIT BY THE IAEA, IN JANUARY 1987, TOOK PLACE BEFORE THE PLANT WAS ACTUALLY FINISHED AND NOW THAT IT IS COMPLETED THE PLANT PRESENTS A DIFFERENT APPEARANCE. FOR THIS REASON, HE REPORTEDLY SAID, THE PLANT MUST BE "INSPECTED" AGAIN. SOURCES AT BOTH SEMIP AND CFE DENIED THESE REPORTS AND SEMIP SOURCE DEFENDED THE UNDERSECRETARY SAYING THAT THE [redacted]AL

JOURNALISTS MUST HAVE MISINTERPRETED HIS REMARKS. ANOTHER CFE SOURCE SAID, IN REFERENCE TO ALCUDIA'S ALLEGED REMARKS, "HE'S CRAZY".

5. THE MEXICO CITY NEWS, THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAILY, HAD A FRONT PAGE HEADLINE ON AUGUST 22 DECLARING THAT THE "CFE SAYS LAGUNA VERDE SET POWER UP IN OCTOBER". THE STORY REPEATED CLAIMS THAT THE POSTPONEMENT WAS DUE TO ELECTIONS AS REPORTED REFTEL B AND QUOTED AN UNNAMED CFE OFFICIAL (PROBABLY EIBENSCHUTZ) AS SAYING THAT "EVERYTHING IS SET AND WE ARE READY TO LOAD THE URANIUM IN OUR FIRST REACTOR". THE NEWSPAPER QUOTED THE OFFICIAL AS SAYING "THE GOVERNMENT IS FIRM ON OPENING THE LAGUNA VERDE (NUCLEAR POWER

6. EL FINANCIERO REPORTED ON AUGUST 23 THAT ECOLOGISTS AGAINST LAGUNA VERDE FEAR THAT IT MIGHT BE LOADED VERY SOON. ON THE SAME DAY THE JORNADA PUBLISHED A CONVINCING PROPOSAL WRITTEN BY JAVIER GONZALEZ RUBIO IRIBARREN SUGGESTING THAT LAGUNA VERDE SHOULD BE GIVEN A CHANCE.

7. THE AUGUST 24 EDITION OF THE LEFTIST-NATIONALISTIC NEWSPAPER EXCELSIOR CARRIED A REPORT FROM THE CITY OF SAN LUIS POTOSI COVERING THE VISIT OF THE SECRETARY OF ECOLOGY AND URGAN DEVELOPMENT (SEDUE) GABINO FRAGA MOURET (REF C) TO OBSERVE THE CONSERVATION EFFORTS ON THE SANTIAGO RIVER IN THE STATE OF SAN LUIS POTOSI. ACCORDING TO PRESS ACCOUNTS, FRAGA TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY TO STATE UNEQUIVOCALLY THAT LAGUNA VERDE WILL BE PUT INTO OPERATION. IT WAS FRAGA'S PREDECESSOR AS SECRETARY OF SEDUE, MANUEL CAMACHO SOLIS, WHO REPORTED THAT LAGUNA VERDE WOULD BE INDEFINITELY POSTPONED. SOURCES AT BOTH

RESPONSES OF AMBASSADOR CHARLES A. GILLESPIE, JR., TO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS OF SENATOR JESSE HELMS

1. Q: How many political parties have formed under the new political parties law?

A: Five political parties are recognized as legally constituted at the national level and seven other parties are legally constituted only in certain Regions of Chile. Therefore, a total of twelve parties are legally established either regionally or nationally.

Q: How many of those are consider opposition parties?

A: Three-national and three regional parties are considered to be in opposition to the Chilean Government. One regional party, the Partido Nacional, has two factions, one of which is pro-Government, the other oppositionist.

Q: Are there any parties boycotting the plebiscite?

A: One party, the small Partido Socialista Chileno, has announced that it will boycott the plebiscite.

2. Q: What efforts were made to register eligible voters?

A: Many different groups called for and promoted the registration of voters. The Chilean Government allocated funds to promoting voter registration and conducted a publicity campaign to urge citizens to register. As a public service, the Catholic University of Chile TV station (channel 13) presented a series of civic education programs entitled "Remember This" ("Tengase Presente") which urged citizens to vote, while University of Chile TV (Channel 11) and Catholic University of Valparaiso TV (Channel 4) did the same. Government-owned National TV (Channel 7) did not run such programs. Another stimulus to voter education came from the non-partisan "Cruzada Civica," which carried out a large-scale, national campaign to register voters. The political parties of the opposition also made vigorous efforts to register voters.

3. Q: Is it true that both the opposition and the government are given a half hour equally divided free television time every day?

A: For the period September 5 to October 2, the opposition and the government have each been allocated 15 minutes of free television time daily.

Q: What time of day do they go on the air?

A: These broadcasts take place weekdays from 10:45 p.m. to 11:15 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon hour.

UNCLASSIFIED

Q: What is the normal dinner time in Chile?

A: The dinner time varies according to region and economic activity. People in provincial cities and rural areas tend to eat earlier, at about 7:30 p.m. The dinner hour in larger cities is later, often between 8:00 and 9:00 p.m.

Q: Then 10:45 p.m. would be considered prime television time, would it not?

A: Apparently not. I understand Chilean television charges prime time rates for the period between 8:30 and 10:30 p.m.

Q: Do both opposition and government get coverage on the evening news?

A: Between September 11, 1973 and late 1987, no opposition political figures appeared on Chilean television. Since late 1987, some coverage has been given the opposition in news programs, but the government has received a preponderance of coverage. For example, Channel 13 of the Catholic University of Chile, the station with highest coverage of the opposition in its news programs, gave the government four times more coverage than the opposition during broadcasts in August 1988.

Q: Is it not true that the opposition is able to express their views over radio?

A: It is true that opposition access to the radio is good and opposition views have been expressed frequently in that medium.

4. (Staff confirmed on September 20, 1988 that there is no question 4.)

5. Q: Are the opposition parties allowed to hold street rallies?

A: Rallies or public acts in the streets may be held with the permission of the Governor (Intendente) of each Region, solicited 48 hours in advance of any rally or act. In the case of Santiago, the Intendente has recently ruled that the opposition may not hold rallies near the center of town, but he has approved them for outlying areas.

UNCLASSIFIED

Q: When the police have used tear gas, is it not a fact that they have done so after the rallies were finished, and the crowds began to riot?

A: Chilean police have reacted in various ways to demonstrations, protest marches, and public gatherings. Peaceful rallies have been held without incident of any kind, but on other occasions the police and demonstrators have clashed after rallies concluded. On occasion police have moved to break up peaceful demonstrations without provocation. A recent case was the use of force by Chilean police in Santiago on September 15 to break up a peaceful march of trade unionists which included a number of prominent labor leaders from abroad, among them the Executive Director of the AFL-CIO's American Institute for Free Labor Development and the President of the U.S. Bricklayers Union.

Q: Would it not be beneficial for the United States to provide training to the Chilean police in crowd control tactics?

A: The Chilean National Police (Carabineros de Chile) is a highly trained, disciplined institution. As a rule, I understand it deals with crowd control on the basis of conscious decisions, not ad-hoc reactions. Training in crowd control tactics is currently barred by United States law. It is not clear that such training, if permitted, would be beneficial to either country at this time.

6. Q: Is there a state of siege or "exception" in Chile.

A: No. The Government terminated all "states of exception," which limited basic human and civil rights in Chile, on August 24, 1988. Chile had been under "state of siege" from September 11, 1973 to March 11, 1978 and then for a brief period in 1984-85. The "state of emergency," which also had far-reaching implications for basic liberties, was in effect continuously from September 11, 1973 to August 24, 1988 except for a brief lapse in 1983. The third "state of exception," termed the "state of danger to internal peace," had been in effect from March 11, 1981 to August 24, 1988.

7. Q: Since the beginning of the campaign, have any journalists been arbitrarily arrested and detained?

A: Since the "official" start of the plebiscite campaign on September 5, 1988 two journalists have been arrested on charges stemming from articles written before that date. In the same period, one other journalist formerly jailed has been released.

8. Q: Is it not true that on the day of the election, a member of EACH registered party will be permitted to stand at each polling place and observe the voting process?

A: A member of each party legally registered in a Region may be present at each polling place to observe the voting process.

Q: Is it not also true that a member of each party will participate in the counting of the ballots, and will certify that the vote count is accurate?

A: Each party legally constituted in a given Region has the right to have its representative participate in the counting of ballots and to certify to the accuracy of the vote count at that polling place.

Q: That means, doesn't it, that at each ballot-box, all seven of the opposition parties have to attest that the count is correct?

A: Not precisely. First, opposition parties are not obliged to place a representative at every polling place. Also, a party may have a representative ("apoderado") present at the polling place only if that party is legally constituted in a given Region. There are Regions in Chile where not all parties of the opposition are legally established and therefore the potential number of "apoderados" could be less than seven.

9. Q: Is it not true that all exiles have been permitted to return to Chile to participate in the electoral process?

A: On August 31 the Chilean Government announced that all exiles would be allowed to return to Chile.

10. Q: Is it not true that any foreigner will be permitted to observe the voting process in accordance with Chilean law?

A: The Chilean Foreign Ministry has announced that foreigners may freely visit the country during the plebiscite and may observe the polling places from the legally established distance of a 20 meter radius. The Chilean Government will not grant official status to visitors from abroad who wish to be present for the plebiscite and will not allow them any special access to voting places or to the vote count.

Q: I would like to ask you for the record if the United States has assisted anyone, any party, or any organization, either directly or indirectly, for the purpose of influencing the Chilean plebiscite?

A: To my knowledge, the United States has not assisted any group either directly or indirectly for the purpose of influencing the result of the Chilean plebiscite. Congress has authorized funds for the National Endowment for Democracy to assist groups engaged in the registration of voters and civic education campaigns, as well as efforts to aid in the free and equitable flow of information within Chile.

Q: Will you assure this Committee that you will inform us immediately if you determine that any thing like this took place?

A: The activities of the National Endowment for Democracy in Chile are well-known to Congress, which appropriated funding for its projects and oversees them. It is United States policy to support a free and fair plebiscite while refusing to take sides and, as I note below, not to interfere in the internal affairs of Chile. I assure the Committee that I support that policy and will take all appropriate measures to make sure it is followed.

Q: If confirmed, will you as U.S. Ambassador be committed to a policy of non-interference in the internal affairs of Chile?

A: It is the policy of the United States not to interfere in the internal affairs of Chile. I support and am committed to that policy and, as Ambassador, I would seek to advance and protect United States interests in conformity with it.

11. Q: Where does Chile rank with other countries in Latin America in voting with the United States at the United Nations? Where does Chile rank on this issue among all South American countries?

A: The best figures available to me show that the hemispheric average (including Canada) of votes in the United Nations which correspond to the United States position is 18.1 per cent. In 1987, Chile voted with the United States 23.8 per cent of the time. As for rank in Latin America, Chile is third in supporting the United States, behind Belize and Honduras. Since Belize and Honduras are not in South America, I interpret the figures to show that Chile ranks first among all South American countries in voting with the United States.

Additional Questions
Received at 3:00 p.m., September 20, 1988

1. Q: Is it true that Chile enjoys the best economic situation and development possibilities in Latin America and is the only country from the region that is paying on time its international financial obligations and is even reducing its foreign debt?

A: Looking at the mix of economic policies, strong entrepreneurial base, recent economic growth rates, inflation rate, and relationship with the international financial community, Chile indeed currently enjoys one of the most favorable economic situations in Latin America. Looking at other indicators such as size and diversity of economy (relative lack of dependence on one or a small number of vulnerable commodity exports), other countries in the region such as Brazil and Mexico obviously are blessed with greater development potential. Political stability needed to attract long-term investments is a vital factor which cannot be overlooked in evaluating whether a country's economic development is sustainable.

Chile has led the region in development of an active and carefully drawn debt/equity swap program, which has resulted since mid-1985 in a reduction of Chile's total debt by almost $4 billion, or roughly 25% of its medium and long-term debt. Chile's record on overall debt management, including timely repayment or rescheduling, is likewise excellent. I would add that Colombia, the country I have just left, has also maintained an excellent record on repayment of external obligations.

2. Q: Is it true that a recent World Bank report stated that Chile has the best social policies toward poverty in Latin America?

A: I understand that a recent World Bank report on poverty issues did explore the effects of different policy combinations on the poor, particularly when adjustment programs include reductions in budget deficits. With respect to Chile, the report specificially noted that "improved targeting of social expenditures contributed to a continued decline in infant and child mortality rates during a period of recession and adjustment despite a 5 percent fall in government expenditures." The same report noted that the IBRD "supports continued Chilean government efforts at reform in the allocations of social expenditures."

3. Q. In December 1987, the U.S. government announced that it had terminated Chile's eligibility for OPIC insurance, based on alleged violations by Chile of internationally recognized workers' rights. Should Chile now be eligible for OPIC insurance? If not, why?

A. In December 1987, the President announced the suspension of Chile's benefits under the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) because, after two and a half years of review and dialogue with the Government of Chile, it was determined that Chile had not taken steps to afford its workers certain internationally recognized human rights. OPIC has a statutory requirement, based in its 1985 authorization bill (Section 231A) to "not give support to countries not showing demonstrated progress toward internationally recognized human rights." To fulfill this requirement for countries which are eligible for both OPIC and GSP benefits, OPIC made a commmitment to Congress it would follow the actions taken with regards to GSP for that country. Thus, the December 1987 suspension of GSP benefits for Chile triggered suspension of OPIC benefits as well. Eligibility for resumption of OPIC benefits for Chile, then, depends on resumption of GSP benefits, which is covered in Question 6, below.

4. Q. Countries that are eligible for OPIC insurance include: Benin, Burundi, Cameroon, Central African Republic, Communist China, Djibouti, Egypt, Equatorial Guinea, Jordan, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Nepal, Niger, Somalia, Tanzania, Yemen Arab Republic, Zaire.

Do you believe that these countries do not violate internationally recognized workers rights?

Do you believe that these countries have a better record than Chile.?

A. I am not in any position to comment on the countries named. Given Chile's level of development and its traditions, the United States expects a better record on protection of workers rights than has been evidenced. Most important, however, in November 1986 the Government of Chile formally committed itself to take three specific steps in response to workers rights concerns. By December 1987 it had not taken these steps, and so the President acted.

5. Q. Are you familiar with the following assessment, and I quote:

"Legally recognized unions do not need permission to hold union meetings or conferences and collective bargaining, strikes, and internal union elections are carried out freely and openly...labor unions maintain relations with international labor bodies in their field."

This quote is from the State Department's own 1986 Human Rights Report on Chile. The same report contains information on the countries which I mentioned earlier and the information indicates that Chile has a superior record in terms of labor relations and workers rights.

How do you justify the U.S. Government denying Chile access to OPIC insurance programs?

A. The suspension of GSP benefits for Chile, which triggered suspension of OPIC programs, occurred because the President determined that Chile had not met the requirements of United States law requiring beneficiary developing countries to "have taken or be taking steps" to afford internationally recognized rights to their workers. I understand that this was not an action taken hastily or without careful study. Rather, the dialogue with the Chileans on GSP matters lasted two and a half years, during which they committed to take three steps which they then did not take. When it was clear, more than a year after the Chileans made their commitment, that they were not prepared to follow through, the President acted.

6. Q. Should Chile now be eligible for GSP--General System of Preferences--benefits? If not, why not?

A. Since the President's announcement in December, the United States has made clear to the Government of Chile that it is willing to engage in a dialogue on GSP matters when the Chileans have specific, concrete information to present about actions they have taken or will take related to workers rights practices and their express commitment in that regard. So far, Chile has not come forward with such concrete proposals.

7. Q: Does Chile have a problem with narcotics? What has been Chile's record on anti-drug enforcement?

A: Coming from Colombia, it is clear that by comparison with many other countries, Chile does not now appear to have a major narcotics problem. Given the nature of this terrible trade, however, that situation could change. I understand that the Drug Enforcement Administration is represented in the Embassy in Santiago and is in close touch with Chilean authorities regarding narcotics interdiction. I have heard that there is close cooperation between the DEA and the Chilean National Police (Carabineros). You can count on me to support ongoing efforts in this area to the best of my ability.

The International Drug Problem and U.S. Foreign Policy

Scope of the Problem

The production, trafficking, and consumption of illicit narcotics increasingly threaten American society as well as this nation's relations with other countries. Crime, corruption, and violence have become the tools of the international narcotics trade, a multibillion-dollar business that touches every part of the United States and many foreign countries. Domestically, the use of marijuana, heroin, cocaine, the cocaine derivative "crack," and other harmful drugs has reached unprecedented and unacceptable levels.

With the White House, Congress, and other executive branch agencies, the Department of State has developed a foreign policy strategy to reduce the production and trafficking of illicit drugs in order to destroy the international drug cartels whose profits come at society's expense. This pamphlet explains the State Department's efforts to confront the global dimensions of the drug problem.

UNCLASSIFIED

A Worldwide Menace

Narcotics trafficking and abuse affect developing and industrialized nations alike. Just as drug addiction wears down an individual's resources and health, on a larger, national scale it erodes the fragile economies and democratic institutions of the drug-producing countries. The profits made from the drug trade are consolidated in the hands of powerful drug lords who operate apart from the local economy. Drug profits deprive developing nations of real economic growth while drug producers and traffickers grow rich on the work of their impoverished fellow citizens.

Implementing drug control and eradication programs is difficult for many producing countries. The pressures exerted by drug producers and traffickers upon local governments can be potentially destabilizing. Furthermore, in some areas guerrilla groups have joined with drug producers in a "narco-guerrilla" alliance. The terrorists provide armed protection for the producers who pay them with drug profits. The money made by the guerrillas then is used to buy weapons and finance political insurgencies and destabilization campaigns against the democratic government. Notably, Colombia has withstood the killing of ministers, judges, police officers, journalists, and its Attorney General. The political and financial links between guerrillas and traffickers, long evident in Colombia, are now becoming clear in Peru as well.

The widescale corruption, violence, and human destruction associated with th drug problem suggest how deeply it affec all nations. Families are weakened, lives are threatened, and precious resources ar wasted on illicit narcotics. In parts of Latin America and the Middle East, hashish and cocaine abuse is becoming increasingly alarming. In Mexico, the single largest exporter of marijuana to the United States, marijuana use is growing, especially among young people. Heroin abuse is a problem in many parts of Asia, including Burma, Hong Kong, Thailand, and Pakistan.

In the United States and other industrialized nations, the drug problem is equally devastating. Americans have the sad distinction of being the major consumers of illegal drugs. Billions of dollars are spent on illicit narcotics in this country, making it necessary for the government t divert resources from other programs to combat the drug problem and the crimina

Ultimately, self-government in th political sense depends on self-government in the personal and moral sense. There can be no com promises here. A person must say "no" to drug abuse or eventually he will say "no" to life. A nation must say "no" to narcotics or eventually it will say "no" to democracy.

activity it spawns. In the long run, the United States is affected domestically by the lowered industrial output caused by drug use in the workplace.

The demand for illicit narcotics in the United States and the production and trafficking of drugs are two sides of the same coin. Current policies aim to reduce the demand for and supply of drugs. In addition, the United States accepts responsibility for its part of this international problem by pursuing policies which also focus on the treatment and prevention of drug abuse.

Drug Production, Trafficking, and Consumption Abroad

Virtually all of the cocaine, most of the marijuana, and nearly one-third of the heroin consumed in the United States are produced in the Western Hemisphere. Peru and Bolivia are the primary cultivators of coca, the plant from which cocaine and its deadly derivative "crack" are made. Colombia is the major producer of refined cocaine. The raw coca is smuggled across the Andes from Peru and Bolivia into Colombia where it is processed in clandestine laboratories, often hidden deep in the jungle. Once refined and prepared for shipment, the cocaine is sent to the United States through Mexico, Panama, Jamaica, and The Bahamas, as well as other Central American and Caribbean countries.

Opium, from which heroin is made, is grown mainly in Laos, Burma, Thailand, Pakistan, Iran, and Afghanistan as well as Mexico. Diplomatic efforts to reduce these countries' production of opium have led to a reduction in total output. Most notably, the Burmese Government's ambitious aerial spraying campaign and Pakistan's cutback in cultivation combined to reduce total Asian opium production in 1988. Malaysia, although not a drug-producing country, considers drug trafficking its major national security concern and works closely with U.S. agencies and multilateral organizations in its efforts to end opium trafficking.

A farmer harvests illicit opium poppies that drug lords will refine into opium, morphine, and heroin.

Marijuana is produced in Mexico, Jamaica, Colombia, Belize, and the United States. Colombia has undertaken an extremely successful marijuana eradication program in traditional growing areas, although cultivation in new areas has continued to increase total production. Jamaica reduced its net marijuana produc tion to 455 metric tons in 1987, down from an estimated 1,755 metric tons in 1986. Belize expanded its eradication strategy to counter new growing patterns, resulting in the destruction of an estimated 80% of the marijuana crop.

Hashish, derived from the cannabis plant, is produced mainly in Lebanon, Pakistan, Afghanistan, and Morocco. Less bulky than marijuana, hashish and hashish oil are more easily transported and, therefore, easier for traffickers to conceal in illegal shipments to the United States and Europe. With UN assistance, Morocco began a limited crop eradication and substitution program in 1987. Although a positive step, the program initially is not expected to cause a major decrease in production figures.

In the past, many countries with large illicit drug exports were thought to be relatively free of drug abuse. However, many of these producer countries have become user nations themselves. In Bolivia, where many of the workers in the cocaine trade are paid in coca paste rather than in cash, coca addiction is growing rapidly. Colombia and Peru estimate that they have nearly 600,000 and 138,000 users of cocaine, respectively. Dozens of other producing nations report an increase in drug abuse. The growth of addiction further burdens developing countries struggling to improve their economies.

Role of the State Department

With other federal agencies, the Department of State confronts the illicit drug trade. Through multilateral and country-to-country negotiations, the State Department coordinates efforts to combat drug production and trafficking. Strict enforcement of customs laws and international trade restrictions has led to the apprehension and conviction of hundreds of known drug traffickers. Additionally, through a process called "certification," the United States is able to offer an economic incentive to drug-trafficking nations that receive U.S. assistance. Such countries can be denied up to half of their annual assistance if they do not take action against drug production and trafficking. Additionally, since 1981, the United States has tripled its drug enforcement budget, and a 13% increase has been requested for fiscal year 1989 for a total of $3.8 billion.

As part of the narcotics control program of the Government of Belize, young people learn about peer pressure and how to "say no" to drugs.

The United States has four major goals in its campaign against international narcotics:

- Stop the flow of illegal narcotics into this country;
- Decrease tolerance of drug use at home and stimulate support for effective narcotics control abroad;
- Eliminate major trafficking networks; and
- Secure increased international cooperation.

The Department of State's Bureau of International Narcotics Matters works with U.S. law enforcement agencies as well as with foreign countries to tackle the drug problem. Its main antidrug activities are in the form of:

- Support for crop eradication of opium, coca, and marijuana;
- Helping other nations strengthen their law enforcement and judicial systems;
- Working with foreign governments to develop alternative sources of income for farmers who abandon narcotics cultivation in countries where narcotics cultivation is traditional; and
- Providing information and assistance for help in drug abuse prevention and treatment.

The United States works directly with the governments of drug-producing and -trafficking countries as well as through international organizations, such as the United Nations and the Organization of

The Certification Process

The Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 established the "certification" process that applies to drug-producing or -transit countries that receive U.S. foreign assistance. Under this law, the President must certify to Congress that countries involved in the drug trade have cooperated fully with U.S. efforts or have taken adequate steps on their own to combat illicit narcotics production, drug trafficking, and money laundering. Certain kinds of U.S. foreign assistance are withheld at the beginning of each fiscal year until the President submits his certification report on March 1 of the following calendar year. At the same time, the United States opposes any loans to decertified countries by multilateral banks or development organizations. The statute requires positive performance on drug control issues in order to receive foreign aid. If granted certification, the countries then are able to receive aid and loans.

In 1988, President Reagan certified that 17 countries were cooperating fully with U.S. efforts and would be able to receive foreign assistance funds and that 3 countries should be certified for U.S. national security interests. Four countries—Afghanistan, Iran, Panama, and Syria—were not certified.

To evaluate efforts to combat the drug problem, the Department of State considers the following:

- Capability to carry out eradication programs;
- Different political and legal systems and efforts to strengthen trial and prosecution procedures; and
- Cultural, social, geographic, and resource situations.

Some nations have fought against the spreading cultivation of narcotics despite overwhelming disadvantages; others still have much to do. Virtually every country can do more to eliminate illicit drug trafficking. Cooperation with the United States in extradition and local conviction are measures of determination to combat the drug problem.

American States. At the June 1987 UN International Conference on Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, world leaders pledged immediate action to deal with the problem. The multimillion-dollar UN Fund for Drug Abuse Control supports and assists drug control and demand reduction programs in Latin America, Asia, and Africa.

With other nations, the United States promotes the eradication and interdiction of illegal drugs in other ways. Twenty-three countries have joined the United States in carrying out drug eradication programs. Fifteen of them have American narcotic assistance units where narcotic coordinators at U.S. embassies work with local authorities to reduce illicit drug supply and alert local citizens to the dangers of drug abuse. Mutual legal assistance treaties between the United States and other countries help apprehend and convict traffickers and money launderers. The United States and Latin American governments are working together to identify a safe and effective herbicide to help cut coca production in South America. Additionally, in June 1988, the leaders of the seven major Western industrialized countries at the Toronto economic summit approved U.S. proposals for "increased international cooperation" to fight the drug problem and jointly to support an international convention against illicit trafficking.

Other efforts include interdiction aimed at stopping the flow of drugs into the United States, such as cargo inspections, border searches, and seizures on the high seas. Customs officials and Coast Guard officers work closely with the State Department and the Drug Enforcement Administration to coordinate such activities.

U.S. Army pilots and Drug Enforcement Administration agents confer with Bolivian police during a raid on illicit drug laboratories in Bolivia. ("Soldiers" Magazine/Dave Schad)

The Task Ahead

Federal, state, and local health and education officials are making Americans aware of the adverse effects of drugs on our lives and on our society. At the international level, the Department of State is helping drug-producing countries eliminate the cultivation, processing, and trafficking of illegal narcotics. American relations with foreign countries are based on a delicate balance of political, economic, and social factors. The illicit narcotics trade, with its accompanying black market economies and official corruption, hampers the development of healthy and constructive relationships based on mutual interests.

To be totally effective, the eradication of drug crops must be accompanied by a decrease in demand for illicit narcotics. At tempts to bring the domestic demand under control have been increasingly effective in the United States and, combined with interdiction and eradication programs, present the only possibility for elimination of the drug menace.

Solving the drug problem presents enormous difficulties. No modern society ever has witnessed a more debilitating force of such human and moral dimensions as drug abuse. It is the ultimate "equalizer," paying no heed to social strata or race. It destroys the user and ultimately the producer, but only after it has destroyed many in between.

Still progress has been made: domestic antidrug campaigns and programs are beginning to discourage consumption, reduce demand, and punish users and suppliers; friends and allies are working to eliminate illicit crops; laboratories, aircraft, and landing fields are being destroyed; traffickers are being arrested, tried, and convicted and their assets seized. As free countries consult together and struggle against powerful enemies to assert the supremacy of law and education, the world may be seeing a turning point in the war against narcotics. But much remains to be done. Governments increasingly are cooperating to reduce and eliminate production and trafficking, but all citizens share in the responsibility. ■

PERU:

Q. CAN YOU CONFIRM THAT TWO AMERICANS WERE KILLED IN A SMALL PLANE CRASH IN THE VICINITY OF NAZCA, PERU?

A. YES, ON AUGUST 29, TWO AMERICAN CITIZENS, VICKY MILLER AND JAYNE CHAMBERLIN, WERE KILLED IN A SMALL AIRCRAFT THAT WENT DOWN NEAR NAZCA LINES, PERU.

-- WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE REMAINS OF THE TWO WOMEN WERE MOVED TO LIMA AND WILL BE RETURNED TO THE U.S. SHORTLY.

-- THE CAUSE OF THE CRASH IS UNKNOWN AND IS BEING INVESTIGATED BY PERUVIAN AIRLINE AUTHORITIES.

Q. TODAY'S CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR INDICATES THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF PERU HAS DELAYED A DECISION TO USE THE HERBICIDE, SPIKE, TO DESTROY THEIR COCA CROP. CAN YOU UPDATE US ON THE SITUATION?

A. AS RECENTLY AS LAST MONTH, THE GOVERNMENT OF PERU REAFFIRMED ITS COMMITMENT TO CARRY OUT THE AERIAL PHASE OF ITS COCA ERADICATION TESTS. SPIKE IS ONE OF THE CHEMICALS THAT WILL BE APPLIED FROM THE AIR AS PART OF THESE TESTS. THERE CONTINUES TO BE MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT THE SCOPE OF THE ERADICATION PROGRAM; DURING THE PAST YEAR, THE PERUVIAN GOVERNMENT HAS WORKED WITH THE U.S. ON TESTS, ONLY. THESE TESTS INCLUDED EVALUATION AND ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENTS TO DETERMINE THE EFFECTS OF THE HERBICIDE; THESE SAME ASSESSMENTS WILL BE MADE FOLLOWING THE AERIAL TESTS.

-- THE GOVERNMENT OF PERU WILL BE SELECTING A HERBICIDE FOR USE IN THEIR COCA ERADICATION CAMPAIGN; THEY INTEND TO DO SO ONLY AFTER ALL THE TESTS ARE COMPLETED.

Q. HAS THERE BEEN ANY CHANGE IN THE SITUATION WITH ELI LILLY?

A. THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE.

BRAZIL:

Q. DO YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION ON THE ARREST OF U.S. ANTHROPOLOGIST DARRELL POSEY IN BRAZIL?

A. WE ARE CAREFULLY MONITORING THE CASE OF DARRELL POSEY, AN AMERICAN ANTHROPOLOGIST RESIDING IN BRAZIL, TO ENSURE HE IS ACCORDED ALL RIGHTS DUE TO HIM UNDER BRAZILIAN LAW.

-- UNDER BRAZILIAN LAW, MR. POSEY WAS ARRESTED ON JULY 12 AND CHARGED WITH BECOMING INVOLVED IN INTERNAL BRAZILIAN POLITICS. CONVICTION UNDER THIS LAW CARRIES A POSSIBLE PRISON SENTENCE OF UP TO 3 YEARS AND/OR EXPULSION FROM THE COUNTRY.

-- MR. POSEY WAS ARRAIGNED ON AUGUST 26 AND HAS BEEN GIVEN 15 DAYS TO PREPARE HIS DEFENSE.

CHILE:

Q. DO YOU HAVE ANY REACTION TO THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE'S ACTION LIFTING OF THE BAN ON EXILES?

A. WHILE WE WISH THAT THIS AND OTHER ACTION BEEN TAKEN MUCH SOONER, THEY ARE POSITIVE STEPS. EARLIER STEPS HAVE INCLUDED THE ENDING OF THE STATES OF EMERGENCY AND THE PARTIAL EASING OF RESTRICTIONS ON TELEVISION ACCESS.

Q. WHY DID PINOCHET TAKE THIS ACTION AT THIS TIME?

A. I CAN'T SPECULATE ON HIS MOTIVES IN DOING IT NOW; WE REGRET IT WASN'T DONE SOONER.

Q. DOES THIS ORDER COVER ALL POLITICAL EXILES?

A. OUR INFORMATION IS THAT THE ORDER ENDS "ADMINISTRATIVE EXILE." IT DOES NOT COVER SOME 115-120 INDIVIDUALS SENTENCED TO EXILE UNDER COURT ORDER, BUT WE UNDERSTAND THAT THESE PERSONS MIGHT BE ABLE TO PETITION THE COURT FOR PERMISSION TO RETURN.

OVER 9 MILLION DOLLARS. THIS BRINGS OUR TOTAL ECONOMIC AND SECURITY ASSISTANCE IN THIS PERIOD FOR THE CIVILIAN DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT VINICIO CEREZO TO OVER 140 MILLION DOLLARS.

Q. WHAT IS THE REASON FOR THIS INCREASE IN MILITARY AID?

A. IN JUNE, PRESIDENT CEREZO OF GUATEMALA WROTE TO PRESIDENT REAGAN REQUESTING ADDITIONAL MILITARY AID FOR THE GUATEMALAN ARMED FORCES, EMPHASIZING THEIR IMPORTANT ROLE IN CONSOLIDATING DEMOCRACY IN GUATEMALA.

Q. IS OUR AID INCREASE IN RESPONSE TO THE ABORTIVE COUP ATTEMPT IN MAY AND CONTINUING RUMORS OF COUPS IN GUATEMALA? ARE WE ATTEMPTING TO APPEASE THE GUATEMALAN MILITARY?

A. IN THIS LETTER, PRESIDENT REAGAN SAID THAT WE WANT TO

MISION PERMANENTE DE CHILE
ANTE LAS NACIONES UNIDAS

New York, Sept.1,1988

Excelentísimo Señor,

I have continuously kept Your Excellency aware of the decisions adopted by my Government towards the democratic institutionalization in Chile, in accordance with the provisions of the 1980 Constitution.

On this occasion I wish to inform Your Excellency that a recent announcement was made by the appropriate Chilean authorities, setting the 5th. of October as the formal date for the Plebiscite foreseen in the process to elect President of the Republic.

Furthermore, in addition to the measures already announced to guarantee the transparency of this process, two other decisions of special importance have been adopted.

MISION PERMANENTE DE CHILE
ANTE LAS NACIONES UNIDAS

Firstly, on August 27, all restrictive measures of an exceptional character were derogated. Secondly, today an announcement was made indicating that all persons (about 300) whose return to the country had been prohibited by virtue of a Ministerial decree, will be allowed to enter national territory at their convenience. This means that the problem of exile has been definitely solved.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

1. (C) THE DEPARTMENT ISSUED A GOOD STATEMENT AUGUST 31 ON THE BEGINNING OF THE FORMAL CAMPAIGN. CERTAINLY, IT WAS MUCH IMPROVED BY YOUR SHORTENING OF IT. I DO REGRET, HOWEVER, THE DELETION OF ONE SENTENCE WE HAD PARTICULARLY WANTED IN - THE ONE URGING ACCESS TO TELEVISION "AT REASONABLE HOURS AND ON AN EQUITABLE BASIS." I GATHER THAT ONE REASON FOR DROPPING IT IS OUR OWN FAILURE TO MAKE CLEAR THE DEGREE TO WHICH THE GOC HAS DOMINATED TELEVISION AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO.

2. (U) PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISING ON TELEVISION IS ILLEGAL IN CHILE - HAS BEEN, IS NOW, AND WILL REMAIN SO THROUGHOUT THE PLEBISCITE. IT'S OKAY ON RADIO AND IN THE PRESS, AND BOTH SIDES HAVE USED THOSE MEDIA MORE OR LESS SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE POLITICAL APERTURA LAST YEAR. MOST OF THE TIME THE PRO-GOC PRESS AND RADIO REFUSE TO ACCEPT

OPPOSITION ADS, BUT LET'S LEAVE THAT ASIDE FOR THE . MOMENT. SINCE ABOUT THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR, ALL FIVE TV CHANNELS HAVE RUN WHAT ARE PURPORTEDLY INSTITUTIONAL OR PUBLIC SERVICE ADS, TOUTING THE GOOD WORKS OF THE GOVERNMENT, DESCRIBING THE SPLENDID FEATURES OF THE CONSTITUTION, ETC. ONE AD THAT RAN FOR A WHILE HAD A FLEETING PHOTO OF PINOCHET, BUT NONE EVER MENTION HIS NAME OR (UNTIL JUST RECENTLY) THE PLEBISCITE.

3. (U) HAS THE OPPOSITION TRIED GETTING PUBLIC SERVICE ADS ON THE AIR? YES. THE CIVIC CRUSADE SUBMITTED ABSOLUTELY NON-PARTISAN, REGISTER TO VOTE ADS. THE TWO CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY STATIONS, 5 AND 13, ACCEPTED THEM; THE GOC CHANNEL, 7, TURNED THEM DOWN. CHANNEL 13 CENSURED ONE ASPECT OF THE ADS BUT DID RUN THEM THROUGH APRIL, THEN REFUSED TO TAKE ANY MORE. AFTER PROTESTS THAT THEY WERE BEING DISCRIMINATORY, 13 ON JUNE 6 DROPPED ALL THE GOC ADS AS WELL. ON AUGUST 22 IT SUDDENLY STARTED RUNNING THEM AGAIN. THE CRUSADE IS STUDYING WHETHER TO HAVE ANOTHER TRY AT GETTING NON-PARTISAN "BE SURE AND VOTE" TYPE ADS ON THE AIR.

4. (U) IN THE MEANTIME, THE GOC ADS HAVE BEEN GETTING WORSE. LAST WEEKEND, CHANNEL 7 STARTED A NEW SERIES THAT INCLUDES THE WORD "PLEBISCITE" FOR THE FIRST TIME: "IN THE PLEBISCITE, YOU ARE GOING TO CHOOSE WHETHER YOU PREFER TO GO BACK TO (ANY OF SEVERAL AWFUL CONDITIONS) OR TO LIVE IN THIS NEW COUNTRY. YES, YOU DECIDE -- WE GO FORWARD OR WE RETURN TO (ALLENDE'S) UP."

5. (U) THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT CORRECTLY PRAISED THE GOC FOR A NEW LAW AUTHORIZING 30 MINUTES A DAY OF FREE TV TIME, HALF FOR PINOCHET AND HALF FOR THE OPPOSITION, STARTING SEPTEMBER 5. BUT THIS IS ALL IN ONE BLOCK -- 10:45 TO 11:15 -- SIMULTANEOUSLY ON ALL CHANNELS. NO POLITICAL ADS CAN BE PURCHASED BY EITHER SIDE AT ANY TIME. BUT, THE GOVERNMENT

TV COUNCIL HAS TOLD US, ADS PROMOTING AN INSTITUTION CAN BE PURCHASED, PROVIDED THEY DON'T TELL YOU HOW TO VOTE. APPARENTLY THE "SI, UD. DECIDE" ADS DESCRIBED ABOVE ARE INSTITUTIONAL.

6. (C) USIS IS CURRENTLY ENGAGED INCOUNTING THE NUMBER OF GOC ADS PER EVENING THIS WEEK, AND ON TUESDAY WE'LL SEND YOU AN EXACT COUNT. I EXPECT THIS TO CONTINUE THROUGHOUT THE CAMPAIGN: THE OPPOSITION LIMITED TO ONE 15-MINUTE BLOCK OF TIME, THE GOC SPREADING ITS ADS THROUGHOUT THE DAY IN 30-SECOND BURSTS. THE GOC WILL ALSO, OF COURSE, CONTINUE TO DOMINATE THE NEWSCASTS OVERWHELMINGLY. CHANNEL 7 ALMOST NEVER SHOWS AN OPPOSITION FIGURE; 13 IS SLIGHTLY BETTER. AND, AS PETER HART TOLD THE COMANDO DEL NO, TELEVISION IS ABSOLUTELY CRUCIAL IN PERSUADING THE UNDECIDED. BUYING RADIO TIME ON OPPOSITION RADIO STATIONS, HE SAID, IS PREACHING TO THE CHOIR.

SUBJECT: Status of Death Sentence Cases in Chile

There are currently four people sentenced to death in Chile, all apparently members of the Cuban-oriented Marxist-Leninist terrorist organization "MIR" (Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionaria-Revolutionary Left Movement). The four were convicted by a military court of murdering Army General Carol Urzua, then Governor of Santiago, in 1983. In addition, 11 other people, all but one members of the MIR, the other a member of the Communist terrorist group called the "Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front" (FPMR), have been convicted of violent acts involving murder and are eligible to be sentenced to death.

According to Chilean law, convictions involving death sentences can be appealed to a military appeals court martial, which is made up of 3 military and 2 civilian judges. A unanimous decision of these judges to ratify the death sentence is necessary for sentence to be carried out. If one contends that the crime does not merit death, the sentence is commuted to time in prison. Should the military appeals court ratify the death sentence decision of the lower court, the defendants may appeal to the Supreme Court of Chile, which must also hand down a unanimous decision for execution. The last execution which took place in Chile involved two former policemen who were shot in February, 1985 for a series of murders having no relation to politics.

According to our Embassy, it is likely that torture was applied by the Chilean military in questioning many of the 15 people referred to above. Some have admitted to carrying out the acts for which they were charged, claiming to be "freedom fighters."

Our position on this matter has been to avoid public comment. The people charged are indeed members of far-left terrorist organizations and are probably guilty. On the other hand, they were most likely tortured and received secret, military trials. With many innocent Chileans falsely charged with subversion by the GOC, we do not wish to confuse cases like these with genuine human rights abuses except to deplore the use of torture and call for fair trials Furthermore, we have repeatedly condemned the use of violence for political ends in Chile regardless of who employs it.

According to our Embassy, all 15 of the people above have received visas from different European countries, pending any move by the Chilean Government to send them into exile. This is, however, unlikely.

SUBJECT: Status of Weisfeiler Case

Boris Weisfeiler disappeared while hiking in the Nuble Valley and reportedly was last seen on 4 January 1985 near the confluence of the Nuble and Los Sauces Rivers. His remains have never been recovered, and the only evidence ever recovered was his backpack ten days later. There have been several investigations conducted by Chilean authorities, but none has been able to explain conclusively what happened to Mr. Weisfeiler. The official court inquest concluded "Probable death by drowning." This is a distinct possibility, as the country in which Mr. Weisfeiler was hiking is pretty wild and the rivers are reportedly treacherous.

Nevertheless, The Embassy still considers the case open because of the absence of a satisfactory explanation of what happened in this case where no remains have been recovered. Embassy consular officers have visited the area to investigate and conduct enquiries on several occasions. Numerous people who were in the area of his disappearance have been queried. We have followed up on official and unofficial leads that might have some bearing on the case, all to no avail. We remain alert, however, to anything that might lead us to conclude with a reasonable degree of certainty what happened in the disappearance of Mr. Weisfeiler.

THE LETELIER CASE: BACKGROUND AND FACTUAL SUMMARY

On September 21, 1976 at approximately 9:30 A.M., a bomb exploded underneath Orlando Letelier's automobile as he was driving to work in Washington, D.C. Letelier and his assistant, Ronni Moffitt, were killed by the force of the explosion. Letelier was a former Chilean Ambassador to the United States for the government of Salvador Allende. He had returned to the United States after a year of imprisonment at the hands of the Pinochet junta which had come to power after ousting Allende in a military coup in 1973. Since that time, Letelier had become a respected spokesman for the opposition to the Pinochet government which had been ruthlessly silenced inside Chile, but which was becoming increasingly active on the international scene.

The assassination created an international uproar and triggered an exhaustive investigation by law enforcement authorities in the United States. The investigation revealed the participation of high level Chilean government officials in the planning and execution of the Letelier assassination, and their hindrance of the investigation by acts of evasion and even deception. The following is an account of what the investigation uncovered and the legal and political activity that has taken place since the assassination. It shows that the United States has vigorously attempted to bring those who participated in this act of political terrorism to justice, but has been thwarted by a lack of cooperation by the Chilean government.

I. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Orlando Letelier first came to Washington, D.C. in 1970, having been appointed Chilean Ambassador to the United States by Salvador Allende, the newly elected President of Chile. He served as Ambassador until May 1973. He returned to Santiago at that time to assume a cabinet position in the Allende government in the face of destabilizing threats by the Chilean military. On September 11, 1973, Allende was killed during a military coup, and Letelier was arrested without charge. He spent a year in solitary confinement before he was released and expelled by the new Pinochet government.

Letelier returned to the United States late in 1974 to take a position with the Institute of Policy Studies in Washington. There, he met Ronni Karpen and her future husband Michael Moffitt, who became Letelier's assistants. Letelier became increasingly involved in politics during his time at the Institute and was recognized as a leader of the opposition to the Pinochet government in Chile. One day before he was to deliver an address to a crowd of 5,000 at Madison Square Garden in New York on the third anniversary of the coup in Chile (September 1976), the Chilean government issued a decree revoking Letelier's Chilean citizenship for his antigovernment activism.

As Letelier was gaining international prominence, operatives in the Chilean secret police, the Department of National Intelligence (DINA), were laying the groundwork for his assassination. In mid-1974, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, then director of operations for DINA and a Lieutenant Colonel in the Chilean army, recruited electronics expert Michael Vernon Townley, an expatriate American citizen living in Chile, to join DINA. Townley's first mission for DINA was the purchase of some electronic equipment at Audio Intelligence Devices in Miami, Florida under the assumed name of Kenneth Enyart in December 1974. After successfully completing that mission, Townley met with then-Colonel Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, the director of DINA, who ordered Townley to travel to Mexico in order to assassinate some Chilean opposition leaders who were scheduled to meet in Mexico City in early 1975.1/

In the United States before travelling to Mexico, Townley contacted members of the Cuban Nationalist Movement (CNM), a group of Cuban exiles dedicated to the overthrow of Fidel Castro's communist government in Cuba, in order to seek their assistance in the Mexican mission. Townley first met with Felipe Rivero in Miami, and then later with Guillermo Novo Sampol and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel in New Jersey. As a result of these meetings, the leadership of CNM decided to assist DINA in the Mexico City mission, sending Virgilio Paz Romero with Townley to Mexico. The mission was a failure.2/

Townley and Paz continued to work together after the Mexico City failure. They spent the last part of 1975 conducting DINA intelligence missions in Europe. Early in 1976, Paz travelled to Chile with Townley to get intelligence training from DINA and to have some medical work done on his shoulder. While in Chile, Paz stayed with Townley and his wife, Mariana Callejas (also a DINA agent) until the middle of June 1976.3/ It was this time spent together which cemented the ties between DINA and CNM; it was these two organizations working in tandem, under the direction of DINA orders, who would assassinate Letelier.

II. THE ASSASSINATION: PREPARATIONS AND EXECUTION

In late June or early July 1976, Colonel Espinoza solicited Townley and Chilean Army Lieutenant Armando Fernandez Larios for the Letelier assassination mission. The three met outside of Santiago to discuss the mission. As Fernandez remained in an automobile, Espinoza told Townley the purpose of his mission, that he was to enlist the aid of the CNM, and that he was to make the death of Letelier appear to be an accident or suicide. Espinoza also informed Townley that he and Fernandez would soon travel to Paraguay to acquire Paraguayan passports, under false names, with visas to enter the United States in order to execute the assassination.4/

Espinoza told Fernandez that he was to accompany Townley to Paraguay. His mission was go to the United States to surveil Letelier, to "see what he was up to." Fernandez was not privy to the meeting between Espinoza and Townley; although he suspected that his mission would result in more than simple intelligence gathering because of the involvement of important DINA operatives like Townley and Espinoza, he did not find out the true purpose of the mission until he later heard about Letelier's assassination on the radio.5/

On July 17, 1976, Colonel Benito Guanes Serrano, head of the Paraguayan intelligence service, J-2, received a telegram from Contreras informing him that two DINA officers would be arriving in Asuncion, Paraguay soon in the hopes of acquiring Paraguayan passports in order to conduct an intelligence mission in the United States. At the time, Paraguay and Chile were both members of Operation Condor, a consortium of South American intelligence agencies who cooperated in anticommunist and antiterrorist activities, so the request for false documentation did not strike Guanes as strange.6/

In late July 1976, Townley and Fernandez travelled to Paraguay under the false names Juan Andres Wilson Silva and Alejandro Rivadeneira respectively. They explained to Paraguayan officials that they needed the false passports to perform a security check on the operations of the Chilean copper company CODELCO. (Fernandez would later tell a different cover story, that he and Townley had been sent to Paraguay to obtain passports to travel to the United States to meet with General Vernon Walters of the CIA in order to acquire a list of U.S. politicians sympathetic to the Chilean government.) Townley and Fernandez applied for, and received after about a week in Paraguay, Paraguayan passports under another set of assumed names, Townley as Juan Williams Rose and Fernandez as Alejandro Romeral Jara. They also applied for visas for entry to the United States with the new Paraguayan passports. The visas were issued routinely by the U.S. Consul on July 27, 1976. Before the two departed for the United States to complete their mission against Letelier, however, they were ordered to return to Santiago and to discontinue the operation. Fernandez and Townley believed that the mission had been wisely terminated, since they suspected that American authorities had been informed that the visas were for Chileans rather than for Paraguayans.7/

On the same day that the U.S. Consul approved the visa applications in Paraguay, George Landau, the U.S. Ambassador to Paraguay at the time, became suspicious of the visa applications and had them and the accompanying Paraguayan passports fully photographed. [NOTE TO KOZAK: CAN WE EXPLAIN THE REASON FOR LANDAU'S SUSPICION MORE FULLY IN THIS UNCLASSIFIED DOCUMENT?] After some investigation, he decided to revoke the visas. He contacted Guanes, who in turn requested that DINA return the passports unused. The passports were cancelled and given to Landau. When Landau received the passports, the photographs of the two Chilean agents had been removed.8/

How did Landau know to contact Guanes?

In early August 1976, Espinoza again contacted Fernandez and ordered him to go to the United States right away to perform surveillance on Letelier. He was to travel with a female companion, known as Liliana Walker Martinez, under the cover story that they were from the Chilean Department of Public Works on official business. Both Fernandez and Walker were given false Chilean official passports; Fernandez travelled as Armando Faundez Lyon. They entered the United States on August 26, 1976.9/

During the middle of August 1976, Espinoza also contacted Townley, telling him the mission to assassinate Letelier was "still on." Espinoza ordered Townley to contact the leadership of the CNM and secure their assistance. Townley was to meet Fernandez for a briefing on the intelligence gathered by Fernandez. He was to coordinate the assassination attempt, but to make sure the Cubans actually did the killing after he was safely out of the United States. Espinoza again emphasized to Townley that he was to make the murder look like accidental death or suicide. However, Espinoza remarked that the "bottom line" was that Letelier should be killed, and specifically approved the use of a bomb to kill Letelier if it became impossible to make the death appear accidental.10/

Before the commencement of the mission to assassinate Letelier, DINA officials began to concoct a proper cover story for the Paraguayan passport incident. Having removed the pictures from the Paraguayan passports, and unaware that Ambassador Landau had previously photographed them, Espinoza ordered two DINA agents, Army Captains Rene Riveros Valderrama and Rolando Mosqueira Jarpa to go to the United States under false official Chilean passports, Riveros under the name Juan Williams Rose, and Mosqueira under the name Alejandro Romeral Jara. They travelled to Washington, D.C. on August 22, 1976. They returned to Chile in early September 1976, but their entry into the United States under the same name as the Paraguayan visa applicants (who were actually Townley and Fernandez)

caused great confusion to investigators of the Letelier assassination for well over a year after the crime was committed.11/

Meanwhile, Fernandez was also in the United States. He called the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington, D.C. to get Letelier's home address under the pretext of having to make a delivery to him. He was told at that time that Letelier would be out of town for the next three weeks. Fernandez then went to Letelier's home address in Bethesda, Maryland and ascertained the location, confirming his information by observing a car parked in front with a Chilean insignia on the back. This, he assumed, was Letelier's automobile. After completing this task, Fernandez called Espinoza and told him that Letelier was out of town; Espinoza agreed with Fernandez that he could do nothing more in Washington, and told him he could return to Chile after taking some vacation in the U.S. Fernandez thereupon travelled to New York City with his sister on September 6, 1976, where he stayed a few days. Upon learning that his father was critically ill in Chile, Fernandez called Espinoza and requested permission to return immediately. Espinoza agreed, but informed Fernandez that Townley would be arriving in New York City that day, September 9, 1976. Espinoza ordered Fernandez to meet Townley at Kennedy International Airport that day to brief him on the information Fernandez had collected about Letelier.12/

Townley, travelling with a false Chilean official passport under the name Hans Petersen Silva, arrived at Kennedy Airport as scheduled on September 9, 1976. He carried with him some of the materials for constructing the bomb which would ultimately be used for assassinating Letelier. He met Fernandez at Kennedy Airport, and Fernandez supplied Townley with the information he had acquired regarding Letelier. Fernandez flew back to Chile with Liliana Walker that evening, and briefed Espinoza at DINA headquarters upon his arrival in Santiago. Back in the United States, Townley rented a car and headed for New Jersey.13/

In New Jersey that evening, Townley met with his old CNM associate Virgilio Paz at the Bottom of the Barrel Restaurant in Union City, N.J. He told Paz that he wished to speak with Guillermo Novo. The next day, Townley met with Novo and Suarez in the Estrella Restaurant in Union City, where Townley formally asked Novo and Suarez for assistance in the Letelier murder. The two CNM leaders responded that they would have to take the request under consideration. A few days later, they agreed to participate in the assassination. Townley called a DINA official in Chile to pass along the news of the successful recruitment of the Cubans, and to receive confirmation of his orders.

Late in the evening of September 15, 1976, Townley and Paz drove to Washington, D.C., their automobile loaded with explosives. They arrived at about 4:00 A.M. on the following day. They spent that day and the next watching Letelier, his home, and his daily movements. On September 17, they followed Letelier to work and watched the activity around his office from a restaurant across the street. That evening, Townley and Paz purchased some of the materials needed to construct the bomb at a Sears store near Letelier's home in Bethesda, Maryland. Suarez joined Paz and Townley in Washington, D.C. on September 18. The three of them purchased more materials necessary for the bomb at a Radio Shack store that evening.

They then returned to Townley's motel room where they proceeded to construct the bomb out of plastic explosives and TNT. On the night of September 18, 1976, Townley, Suarez, and Paz drove to Letelier's house to install the bomb beneath Letelier's automobile. Townley himself affixed the bomb, which was to be detonated by a remote control device, an electronic paging device which Townley had modified earlier. After returning to his motel room, Townley called his wife in Chile, informing her that the bomb had been placed, and asking her to relay that information to DINA headquarters.

Early the next morning, Townley flew to Newark using the identity Kenneth Enyart. Alvin Ross Diaz met him at the airport, then drove him to Guillermo Novo's apartment, where he recounted the events of the past few days in Washington. After visiting his sister in Westchester County, Townley went to Kennedy Airport to submit a false United States Immigration and Naturalization Service Form I-94 to show that Hans Petersen Silva, the holder of the official Chilean passport, had flown to Madrid, Spain. He then flew from Newark to Miami, Florida, still using the Kenneth Enyart identity. Townley purchased a new return ticket to Santiago with some help by LAN Chile (Chilean national airline) employees since he was short of funds. On September 20, Townley met with Felipe Rivero; the two discussed the DINA/CNM relationship generally, but not the assassination of Letelier specifically. Townley then spent the rest of the day shopping and spent the evening and night at his parents' home in Boca Raton, Florida.[14]/

On September 21, 1976, Townley called Ignacio Novo to arrange a meeting. Novo suggested to Townley that he should listen to the news on his car radio, as something important had happened in Washington. That "something" was that the bomb planted below Letelier's car had been detonated, killing Letelier and his assistant, Ronni Moffitt. Michael Moffitt, husband to Ronni Moffitt and also an assistant to Letelier, was in the back of the car and escaped with only minor injuries. Townley met with Ignacio Novo that day and explained to him the details of the assassination. Townley then returned to Chile on September 22, travelling under the identity of Kenneth Enyart with a fraudulently obtained U.S. passport.15/

III. THE U.S. INVESTIGATION AND THE CHILEAN COVER-UP

Upon his return to Chile, Townley informed Espinoza of the details of the mission. Espinoza seemed satisfied with the results of Townley's efforts. He destroyed the false Chilean official passport in the name of Hans Petersen Silva which Townley had used to enter the United States. Soon thereafter, Espinoza called Fernandez into his office at DINA headquarters and told Fernandez not to worry, that the assassination had been carried out by the "opposition" to the Pinochet government to discredit the regime before the Chilean Foreign Minister was scheduled to speak at the U.N. that week. Espinoza told Fernandez, "That is what you will say." Although Espinoza never told Fernandez that he had participated on a mission to assassinate Letelier, the implications of Espinoza's comments made it clear to Fernandez that that was exactly what he had done.16/

The United States government initiated its investigation under the auspices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Department of Justice immediately after the explosion in Washington on September 21, 1976. The investigation first led to the Cuban exiles. Through informers, the investigators ascertained that Guillermo Novo, Virgilio Paz, Dionisio Suarez and Alvin Ross had all participated in the crime. Further informer contact with the Cubans revealed that DINA had also been involved.17/

On June 28, 1977, Assistant United States Attorney Eugene Propper, one of the lead investigators on the Letelier case, requested the assistance of the Chilean government in the investigation of the extent of DINA contact with the Cubans during a meeting with the Chilean Ambassador to the United States, Jorge Cauas. Propper was subsequently advised that the Chilean government was initiating an investigation to provide him with the answers he sought. Special Agent Robert Scherrer of the FBI repeated Propper's request for information at a meeting with General Ernesto Baeza Michaelsen, the director of Investigaciones de Chile on July 15, 1977. Baeza told Scherrer that he would speak personally with President Pinochet to expedite the investigation. That same evening, Scherrer met Colonel Contreras, who denied having any information regarding the Cubans and their contact with his organization, DINA. After a period of delay, the Chilean government submitted a written answer to these requests to the Department of Justice which contained much obviously false information. The Chilean government's response stated that any further requests for information by the United States would have to go through the proper judicial channels in accordance with international law.18/

The only leads which the American investigators had regarding the identity of the Chilean officials involved in the Letelier assassination was that two persons travelling under official Chilean passports had entered the United States using the same names as the Chileans who had applied for visas in Paraguay in July 1976. Realizing that the Chilean government was not cooperating in the investigation, the investigators sent formal Letters Rogatory to the Chilean Supreme Court through the District Court for the District of Columbia on February 17, 1978. This was the appropriate step under international legal procedures as the Chileans had demanded. The Letters Rogatory requested that the Chilean government produce for questioning "Juan Williams Rose" and "Alejandro Romeral Jara," the names of the Chileans who had entered the United States and had applied for U.S. visas with Paraguayan passports; the investigators did not know that they were two different sets of people.19/

After the Chilean Supreme Court received the Letters Rogatory, Contreras summoned Townley to his office. Contreras was no longer the director of DINA, the name of which had by now been changed to the National Information Center (CNI). He had been promoted to General and installed as the director of the Chilean Army Engineers. He had been replaced at CNI by retired Chilean Army General Odlanier Mena. At first, Contreras suggested to Townley that he flee Chile to avoid questioning. When Townley refused, Contreras suggested a cover story that Townley had planned to travel to the United States only to obtain a list of U.S. politicians favorable to the Pinochet regime in Chile, but that the trip had never taken place.20/

Around the same time, Contreras also met with Fernandez and instructed him to deny ever having been to the United States. The new head of CNI, General Mena, refused to believe Fernandez repeated denials of his trip to the United States, and continued to press Fernandez. Fernandez returned to Contreras, who finally advised Fernandez to admit that he had travelled to the United States on official business for CODELCO, the Chilean national copper company. Later, with the help of Espinoza, Contreras and Fernandez developed the CODELCO cover story more fully: Fernandez was to explain to curious investigators that he had gone to the United States to investigate manipulation of funds by CODELCO employees.21/

The investigation began to pick up momentum when pictures of Townley and Fernandez appeared in the international press in

March, 1978, identifying them as the Chilean agents who had entered Paraguay seeking a visa for entry into the United States under false Paraguayan passports. The American investigators had attached to the Letters Rogatory the photographs of Townley and Fernandez that Ambassador Landau had copied from the false Paraguayan passports in July, 1976. The publication of the photographs swiftly led to the identification of Townley and Fernandez as the individuals that had visited both Paraguay and the United States, rather than Mosqueira and Riveros (the other "Williams" and "Romeral" who had entered the United States as part of the cover up, and who were identified by the Chilean passport numbers given in the Letters Rogatory).22/

On March 22, 1978, the Chilean government produced Riveros and Mosqueira in a Chilean court in response to the Letters Rogatory. The United States protested, in that they were not the individuals whose photographs had been included with the Letters Rogatory. The Chilean court refused to recognize the appearance of Riveros and Mosqueira as compliance with the Letters Rogatory. After continued pressure on the Chilean government, the American investigators interviewed Fernandez on March 30, 1978 before he appeared before a Chilean magistrate pursuant to the Letters Rogatory.23/

In that interview, Fernandez told the American investigators the cover story that had been arrived at with Espinoza and Contreras regarding his trip to the United States in 1976, that he and Liliana Walker had travelled to the United States to investigate irregularities at CODELCO. He also stated that he had coincidentally bumped into Townley at Kennedy Airport, and that they exchanged pleasantries before Fernandez returned to Chile. The next day, Fernandez and Townley both appeared in Chilean court in response to the Letters Rogatory. Fernandez reiterated the false cover story. Townley refused to testify; as an American citizen, he was entitled to invoke the fifth amendment privilege against self-incrimination.24/

Shortly after his refusal to testify before the Chilean judge, the United States formally requested the expulsion of Townley from Chile. On April 7, 1978, Earl Silbert, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and Enrique Montero, Chilean Undersecretary of the Interior, reached an agreement whereby Townley would be returned to the United States and Chile would henceforth cooperate in the investigation of the Letelier assassination. The next day, the Chilean government complied with the agreement and Townley was turned over to FBI agents in Chile who took him back to the United States in custody. Townley refused to make a statement until he could see General Hector Orozco Sepulveda, the special military prosecutor appointed to investigate the Letelier assassination. Upon Orozco's order to Townley to tell the truth, Townley first made a statement to Orozco, and then a statement to the American investigators after reaching a plea bargaining agreement with them.[25]

Townley's statement confirmed the gravest suspicions of the American investigators. The conspiracy to assassinate Letelier reached to the highest level of the Chilean government. After the assassination, the Chilean government had actively attempted to deflect the progress of the investigation. Much of Townley's statement was later corroborated by documentary evidence, from a vivid reconstruction of the explosion that killed Letelier to Townley's travel receipts. Statements by other individuals, such as Jack Holcomb, the owner of Audio Intelligence Devices, Fernando Cruchaga, a LAN-Chile employee in New York, and Townley's wife, Mariana Callejas, also corroborated Townley's statement.[26]

As Townley was finally truthfully testifying on the Letelier assassination in the United States, the attempt by the guilty parties in the Chilean government to avoid justice continued. Orozco returned to Chile with Townley's statement, and confronted Fernandez with the true account of the events in the United States in August and September of 1976. Fernandez then gave a true statement to Orozco, who in response ordered Contreras, who had resigned from the Chilean military in March 1978, to make a statement. Contreras did, after being confronted with true statements by Fernandez, Espinoza and Townley. He admitted to Orozco that he had ordered Espinoza to have Letelier assassinated. He claimed that he was acting under the authority of "the Chief," President Pinochet. After hearing Contreras' statement, Orozco told Fernandez not to worry, that everything would be taken care of.[27]

III. THE CRIMINAL TRIALS AND EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS

On August 1, 1978, a grand jury in Washington, D.C. handed down indictments based on the results of the investigation by American law enforcement authorities. The indictment charged Contreras, Espinoza, Fernandez, Guillermo Novo, Alvin Ross, Virgilio Paz, and Dionisio Suarez with murder and conspiracy to murder in violation of the United States Code and the District of Columbia Code. It also charged Guillermo and Ignacio Novo with making false statements to a grand jury about their involvement with DINA. Only the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross were in custody in the United States; Paz and Suarez were still fugitives. Around the same time in Chile, Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras were detained in a military hospital pursuant to a provisional arrest request from the United States.[28]

The United States made that formal extradition request for the three Chileans on September 21, 1978. The attorney for the United States in Chile, Alfredo Etcheberry, submitted an exhaustive argument in favor of the extradition, supported by elaborate documentation collected during the course of the investigation of the assassination. Etcheberry argued that the evidence presented was more than sufficient to meet the standards of the 1902 Extradition Treaty between Chile and the United States, which requires only enough evidence to bring the accused to trial for the offense under the laws of the nation where the fugitive is found.29/

Before the proceedings in the Chilean Supreme Court began on the extradition request, Orozco summoned Espinoza and Fernandez from their detention. Orozco then ordered them to lie in their declarations before the Supreme Court. Upon their protests that they had already provided him with truthful written declarations, Orozco returned the declarations to Fernandez and Espinoza, who promptly tore them up. Fernandez also met before the Supreme Court proceedings with President Pinochet, who told Fernandez, "Be a good soldier, tough it out and this problem will have a happy end."30/

On October 17, 1978, Contreras, Espinoza, and Fernandez lied under orders from Orozco to the Chilean Supreme Court during the extradition proceedings. Fernandez first told the court that his trip to Paraguay with Townley to obtain false passports was intended to result in a trip to the United States to meet with General Vernon Walters of the CIA to obtain a list of American politicians favorable to Chile. He then told the familiar cover story about his trip to the United States with Liliana Walker, that they were checking on irregularities in the finances of CODELCO. Contreras and Espinoza also used these cover stories in their testimony to the Supreme Court.31/

Before the Chilean courts issued a decision on the extradition request, the criminal proceedings against the defendants in custody in the United States began. On February 14, 1979, after a six week trial, a jury in the District Court for the District of Columbia found Guillermo Novo and Alvin Ross guilty on the murder and conspiracy charges, while both of the Novo brothers were convicted of lying to a grand jury about their involvement with DINA. Ross and Guillermo Novo received two consecutive sentences of life in prison for their roles in the murder, while Ignacio Novo was sentenced to eight years in prison for lying to the grand jury. Each of the defendants filed an appeal.32/

extradition request by the United States. He stated that, under Chilean law, the prosecution needed to show a "well-founded presumption" of the guilt of the accused before going forward with a criminal indictment. Thus, according to Borquez, the same standard was to be applied in the extradition proceedings, since the Extradition Treaty stated that the law of the nation in which the accused were located was to be determinative of the sufficiency of evidence for extradition. He held that Townley's plea bargained statement to the American investigators, which Chilean law views as a "compensated accusation" since the witness receives a reduced sentence in return for his testimony, could not be viewed as impartial under Chilean law. As such, neither Townley's testimony, nor the evidence compiled with the aid of information provided by Townley, could be afforded the weight necessary to reach the "well-founded presumption" needed to extradite Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez.

The only evidence which remained in favor of the United States' request, Borquez stated, was certain "absurd or contradictory" testimony made by Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras. Borquez ordered that these contradictions be made part of the record of the ongoing Chilean military investigation, and that they be considered in the possibility of initiating criminal action.[33/]

The United States appealed Borquez' decision to the full Chilean Supreme Court, which upheld Borquez' denial of the extradition request on October 1, 1979. The U.S. had argued that Borquez' decision had erred by not granting Townley's testimony the weight of a "well-founded presumption" against Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras because a number of Chilean statutes recognized the evidentiary value of plea bargained testimony. The Supreme Court ignored this contention, and went beyond Borquez' decision to invalidate evidence gathered by American investigators in Chile, because such action violated Chilean sovereignty. The Court reversed Borquez' call that the military investigation pursue the contradictions in the testimony of Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras because criminal charges could not be based on the "suspicions" these contradictions produced. Until the United States produced new evidence beyond that which it produced for the extradition request, the Supreme Court ruled that there could be no further Chilean action on the Letelier assassination.[34/]

Almost a year later, on September 15, 1980, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed the criminal convictions of the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross. The murder and conspiracy convictions of Guillermo Novo and Ross were held invalid because of the admission into evidence of testimony of two informants based on unsolicited admissions of guilt made by the defendants to the informants while they were in prison with the defendants. The court based this ruling on a United States Supreme Court case decided well after the trial, and even after oral argument on the appeal was completed. The court also reversed Ignacio Novo's conviction for lying to the grand jury; the court ruled that jointly trying Ignacio Novo with the murder defendants was likely to confuse the jurors because of the complexity of the evidence and the disparity between the charges against him and the murder defendants.35/

The United States retried Guillermo Novo and Alvin Ross in early 1981. On May 30, a jury acquitted both defendants of the murder charges, and convicted Guillermo Novo of lying to a grand jury about his involvement with DINA. Ignacio Novo later pleaded guilty to the charges of lying to a grand jury. Without further access to the other indicted individuals, the criminal case could go no further in the United States. Official Chilean action on the case ended in the middle of 1982, when the Supreme Court issued an order staying the investigation in the "Passport Cases" (the Chilean government's euphemism for the Letelier assassination) pending the discovery of new evidence.36/

Because many of the crucial participants in the plot to assassinate Letelier were not before the court, the United States was hampered in its attempts to bring the conspirators in an act of international terrorism to justice. The intransigence of the Chilean Supreme Court on the extradition request and the Chilean government's refusal to conduct a full investigation into the assassination were thus instrumental in shielding the guilty parties from the consequences of their brutal actions.

IV. THE CIVIL CASE AGAINST CHILE

After the issuance of the criminal indictment in August, 1978, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt filed a civil suit in District Court for the District of Columbia. The complaint alleged that Townley, Ross, Paz, Suarez, and Ignacio and Guillermo Novo acted in concert with DINA, a governmental organ of the Republic of Chile, and its operatives Espinoza, Fernandez, and Contreras, to bring about the death of Letelier and Moffitt. This, the plaintiffs asserted, violated Letelier's and Moffitt's rights under the first amendment of the U.S. Constitution, international law, the common law, and U.S. statutory law.

The court entered a default judgment against the individual plaintiffs when they failed to respond to service of process. The government of Chile did not respond to service of process through normal channels either. Instead, Chile protested through a diplomatic note and an attached memorandum of law that it was protected from the jurisdiction of United States courts by the doctrine of sovereign immunity, more specifically, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA).

On March 11, 1980, after the first criminal conviction of the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross, the court ruled against Chile, holding that the FSIA did not protect the government of Chile from the civil jurisdiction of United States courts. The court stated that Section 1605(a)(5) of the FSIA specifically confers jurisdiction over foreign states for official non-commercial conduct which results in personal injury or death in the United States. That section exempts "discretionary" acts from its sweep, but the court held that no governmental official had "discretion" to commit political assassination. The court also held that Chile could not use the act of state doctrine as a defense in that the act in question, the assassination (rather than the planning of the assassination) took place in the United States, thus outside the jurisdiction of Chile.37/

The government of Chile did not appeal that ruling and did not participate in a trial on the merits. On November 5, 1980, the District Court for the District of Columbia entered a judgment in favor of the families of Letelier and Moffitt. The court awarded compensatory and punitive damages of approximately $5 million to the plaintiffs, making the individual defendants and the Government of Chile jointly and severally liable. Neither Chile nor the individual defendants appealed.38/

The families of Letelier and Moffitt thus became judgment creditors of the government of Chile. They sued in the District Court for the Southern District of New York in an attempt to execute the judgment against LAN-Chile, the wholly governmentally owned Chilean national airline. The government of Chile again did not participate in the proceedings; LAN-Chile, however, did appear to defend its assets against attachment.

LAN-Chile claimed that it was a "separate juridical entity" from the government of Chile and therefore not liable for the government's debts. The airline also argued that the FSIA protected a government's commercial assets from execution if those assets were unrelated to the commission of the tort. For their part, the judgment creditors asserted that the court should "pierce the corporate veil" of LAN-Chile because of LAN-Chile's participation and assistance of the assassination plot. They argued that the FSIA offered no protection to LAN-Chile because its assets were used in the commission of the

The District Court agreed with the judgment creditors. It held that "internationally recognized equitable principles" required that LAN-Chile's separate juridical existence not be recognized. The court further held that the FSIA did not prevent execution against a foreign government's commercial assets if the assets were used in the "commercial activity upon which the claim is based." Even though this section of the FSIA related to the execution of judgments based on commercial claims and not to personal injury or death caused by the actions of a foreign government official, the court held that execution was proper, because Congress would not have created "a right without a remedy" in Section 1605(a)(5) of the FSIA.39/

The Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit disagreed with the District Court's analysis and reversed its judgment. It held that LAN-Chile's separate juridical existence had to be recognized even though it was a wholly owned entity of the Republic of Chile. According to the court, the limited participation of the LAN-Chile employees in the assassination was not an "abuse" of the corporate form meriting the "piercing of the corporate veil." The court also stated that while this may leave the judgment creditors with a "right without a remedy" under American domestic law, they may be able to obtain relief by pressing their claim in an international tribunal, or if the government of Chile decided to honor the judgment as an act of goodwill. The Supreme Court denied certiorari on the judgment creditors' appeal.40/

Thus, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt exhausted their domestic legal remedies in trying to obtain compensation from the government of Chile for its egregious act of state sponsored terrorism against their loved ones. The fact remains, however, that the families had a legally cognizable claim to damages which the government of Chile refused, and continues to refuse, to acknowledge. Despite this refusal, the families of Letelier and Moffitt have continued to pursue their claim, just as the United States continues to seek justice for both the victims and the perpetrators of the Letelier assassination.

V. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The government of Chile continued its efforts to avoid conducting a full and fair investigation when, in 1985, a military court granted Contreras' request to dismiss entirely the suspended investigation into the "Passport Cases." This decision was based on the Chilean statute of limitations for passport fraud, which is five years. The statute of limitations for murder in Chile is fifteen years, indicating the extent to which the military court continued to deny the Chilean government's role in the Letelier assassination. The Letelier family, a civil party to the suit under Chilean law, appealed the ruling. The appeal was still pending in early 1987, when a major break occurred in the Letelier case.41/

On February 4, 1987, Armando Fernandez Larios voluntarily entered the United States following discussions with several U.S. governmental officials, in which he offered to testify truthfully after pleading guilty to the charge of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of an internationally protected person. Fernandez' statement to the United States government corroborated almost entirely Michael Townley's earlier statements, reconfirming and adding to the solid body of evidence linking highly placed Chilean officials to the Letelier assassination.42/

As dramatic new evidence which the Chileans had been demanding to continue their investigation, Fernandez' voluntary decision to come forward with the truth rekindled the efforts of the Letelier and Moffitt families, in tandem with the United States government, to force the Chileans to bring the responsible parties in the Letelier assassination to justice. On May 11, 1987, the United States again formally requested by diplomatic note the expulsion from Chile of Contreras and Espinoza, the two former DINA leaders who had played a crucial role in the planning, execution and cover up of the Letelier assassination.43/

On May 22, a military court of appeal in Santiago suddenly reversed the decree of a lower court which had permanently closed the "Passport Cases." This appeal by the Letelier family had lain dormant for almost two years when the appeals court finally acted on it. The result of the reversal, however, was hardly a triumph for the Letelier family; all the court dictated was that the investigation be returned to "suspended" status, which meant that the investigation would not be reopened without new evidence.44/

On May 27, the Chilean Foreign Ministry divulged publicly the U.S. request for the expulsion of Contreras and Espinoza, and indicated to the Chilean press that it would reject the request. The Foreign Ministry took this action without responding in any formal manner to the United States. On June 17, more than a month after receipt of the diplomatic note requesting expulsion, the government of Chile rejected the United States request by its own diplomatic note, again making the content of the note public. In response, Assistant Secretary of State Elliot Abrams called Chilean Ambassador to the United States Errazuriz into his office in Washington on

June 24 to convey the deep dissatisfaction of the United States over the Chilean government's intransigence.45/

On July 17, the United States continued its diplomatic pressure on Chile to cooperate in the Letelier case by issuing a diplomatic note demanding that the Chilean government prosecute Contreras and Espinoza domestically if it would not expel them to the United States. On July 28, Assistant Secretary Abrams presented Ambassador Errazuriz with another diplomatic note, this one requesting that the government of Chile pay ex gratia compensation to the families of the victims of the Letelier assassination. According to the note, ex gratia compensation would absolve Chile of its moral responsibility to the victim's families without admitting guilt in the assassination.46/

Taking advantage of the favorable appeals court ruling in May, the Letelier family petitioned the lower military court to reopen the "Passport Cases" on August 20, 1987. The petition argued that the new evidence presented by Fernandez' testimony was more than sufficient to require a new investigation. On August 21, the United States sent another diplomatic note to the Chilean government, urging that the government of Chile grant the Letelier petition and finally cooperate in resolving the case, now over ten years old.47/

On August 28, 1987, the Chilean government delivered two diplomatic notes to the United States government. The first vigorously defended the Chilean government's decision not to expel or prosecute Contreras and Espinoza, implying that it basically considered the criminal proceedings in the Letelier case settled. The second note refused the United States request for compensation to the victim's families, denying any responsibility for the assassination and questioning the exercise by the United States courts of jurisdiction in the civil suit against Chile. Far from indicating any willingness to cooperate in bringing the case to an end, the Chilean government offered only to take the question of the jurisdiction of American courts to an international tribunal.48/

On October 13, 1987, a Chilean military court refused to reopen the "Passport Cases," ruling that the new evidence submitted, Fernandez' statement about his involvement in the Letelier assassination, lacked any "probative value." The United States issued a strongly worded statement decrying Chile's continued lack of cooperation, and even obstruction of justice, on October 16. On October 20, the Foreign Ministry of Chile publicly responded to the United States' statement by disingenuously claiming that it had cooperated with the investigation all along. The same day, the Letelier family

filed an appeal of the October 13 refusal to reopen the "Passport Cases" in a military appeals court.[49]

In an attempt to push the investigation further, the United States served General Orozco, the investigator assigned to the Letelier case at the time of Townley's expulsion, with a Letter Rogatory, requesting information about his knowledge of many aspects of the affair. The Chilean courts stalled for several months before finally requiring a response from Orozco. On April 14, 1988, the Chilean Supreme Court refused to require Orozco to answer all but twelve of the some 250 questions put to him by the United States. When Orozco's responses were received, they were in general evasive or obviously false.[50]

On May 4, 1988, the Chilean military appeals court upheld the refusal of the lower court to reopen the "Passport Cases." The Letelier family appealed this decision to the Chilean Supreme Court. This last hope of forcing some form of cooperation from the Chilean government was extinguished on July 14, 1988, when the Supreme Court affirmed the decision to keep the "Passport Cases" in suspension on the grounds that Fernandez' confession added nothing new to the evidence already available.[51]

VI. THE CURRENT POSTURE OF THE CASE

Because of the refusal of diplomatic and legal requests for assistance by the United States, and the exhaustion of domestic legal proceedings, both criminal and civil in the United States and Chile by the United States government and the families of the victims of the Letelier and Moffitt murders, the United States has chosen to espouse the claims of the United States citizens involved in the case. The Department of State has formally requested through diplomatic channels that the government of Chile pay the United States and the claimants it represents $12 million in compensation for the personal and national injury the Chilean government's participation and cover up of the Letelier assassination has caused. The government of Chile has formally denied this request as well. The United States demands that Chile cooperate in seeing justice done for both the families of the victims and the participants in this act of political terrorism, the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. It will not rest until a satisfactory resolution has been reached.[52]

4. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 2-5.

5. Fernandez Proffer to District Court, D.S. #2, pp. 2-3, 7. There are some points in Townley's statement which contradict Fernandez' claims about how little he knew about the purpose of the mission. In this case, however, Townley's statement corroborates that Fernandez stayed in the car during Townley's initial meeting with Espinoza.

6. Guanes Statement, E.R. #114; Cable from DINA, E.R. #115; Scherrer Statement, E.R. #116.

7. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 4-13; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 3-4; Photographs of Townley's and Fernandez' False Paraguayan Passports and U.S. Visa Applications, E.R. #49-52 and 128-130.

8. Scherrer Statement, E.R. #51; Guanes Statement, E.R. #114.

As indicated in the text, there is more information available regarding how Landau became suspicious. Since this information about the Paraguayan Passport incident is important to the ultimate solution of the case, we should determine whether this information can be used in this unclassified document, or whether it should be declassified.

9. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 4-5; "Faundez" and "Walker" Travel Documents; E.R. #131-34. The true identity of Liliana Walker remains unknown.

10. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 14-15.

11. Riveros and Mosqueira Statements and Travel Documents, E.R. #141-49. There appears to be some contradiction in the explanations of the purpose of Riveros' and Mosqueira's trip to the U.S. They claimed they were making a delivery to a Chilean Army General Floody in the U.S, for Espinoza. Floody asserts that they told him they were in the U.S. to make contact with CIA operative General Vernon Walters. See Floody's Statement, E.R. #150. General Walters, for his part, claims he had no contact with DINA after his retirement in June 1976, and that therefore Floody's version of events is absurd. See Walter's Statement, E.R. #151. In fact, Mosqueira used the "General Walters" cover story later in his testimony before the Chilean Supreme Court in the extradition proceedings. See Borquez Extradition Decision, D.S. #7. It is most likely that the "Walters" cover story was actually used by Riveros and Mosqueira, since Fernandez later used the same story to explain his and Townley's mission to Paraguay before the Chilean Supreme Court during the extradition proceedings in 1978. The use of the same story to cover for the missions to Paraguay and the U.S. by the different "Williams'" and "Romerals" would have neatly completed the open circle created by the failed mission to Paraguay, that is if Landau hadn't copied the photographs on the false Paraguayan passports, thereby exposing the Chilean cover up of the Paraguay mission.

12. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 4-6; Etcheberry Submission for Extradition Request, D.S. #6, p. 61. For documents confirming the dates of Fernandez' presence in the U.S. under the name of Faundez Lyon, see E.R. #133-38.

13. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 15-16; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 6. It is here, in the explanation of what Fernandez told Townley, that the contradictions between the testimony of Townley and Fernandez are most acute. Townley indicates that Fernandez told him, in some detail, about Letelier's automobile, his place of work, and his "daily movements." [TRANSLATION OF SPANISH VERSION OF TOWNLEY STATEMENT CORRESPONDING TO MISSING PAGES 17-18 OF THE ENGLISH

VERSION IS NEEDED AS THE PAGES ARE MISSING FROM U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.] If this is true, it contradicts Fernandez statement that Letelier was out of town at the time of his visit, and that he only observed Letelier's house and car in Letelier's absence. It is unclear whether Letelier was in Washington while Fernandez was there, which could be a crucial fact in verifying Fernandez' testimony. Both the Schedule of Letelier's Activities, D.S. #32, and Etcheberry's Submission for the Extradition Request, D.S. #6, pp. 60-61, indicate that Letelier was present in Washington for 3-4 days while Fernandez was there.

14. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 19-39. This description of events is entirely Townley's, although some of it is corroborated by his wife, Mariana Callejas' Grand Jury Testimony, E.R. #96. Furthermore, there is a good deal of documentary evidence which supports Townley's story. See E.R. #55-73.

15. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, p. 39; Townley's Passport and Passport Application under the name Kenneth Enyart, E.R. #42-43.

16. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 39-40; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 7. Again, the extent of Fernandez' knowledge about the purpose of his mission to the U.S. may be greater than he admits.

17. Cornick and Scherrer Affidavit Summarizing Canete's Testimony, D.S. #3; Propper Statement, E.R. #155.

19. Propper Statement, E.R. #155; Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157.

20. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 41-42. Note that this is the same cover story used to explain the Paraguayan passport trip and the trip by Riveros and Mosqueira to the U.S.

21. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 7-9. Townley's statement mentions that that Townley, Fernandez and Contreras met at this time to plan the cover up. Fernandez does not mention any such meeting, so my text does not include it.

22. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, p. 41; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 9-10; Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157. Fernandez statement sems a bit confused about the sequence of events that led to his identification as "Romeral." This may be attributable to the fact that he made his statement nearly ten years after these occurrences. Townley's version seems closer to the other historical accounts I have read about the timing of these events. See also E.R. #139-41, documents identifying Townley and Fernandez as the DINA agents who were in Paraguay and later the United States.

23. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 10. We need unclassified information which documents the presentation of Riveros and Mosqueira in response to the Letters Rogatory. The Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157, may provide this information if some of the material after the actual questions are translated into English (this may be useful anyway). We also may benefit if we can locate the official answers provided by Fernandez to the Letters Rogatory.

24. Etcheberry Submission for Extradition Request, D.S. #6, p. 49. Again, Fernandez' official answer to the Letters Rogatory, or some other unclassified information regarding his testimony would be useful here.

25. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 11; Silbert/Montero Agreement, D.S. #4. It is unclear why the Chilean government decided to expel Townley. Possibly, Townley's expulsion was a result of intergovernmental rivalries, especially that between Contreras and Mena. The desire on Mena's part to discredit his rival and predecessor, Contreras, briefly dominated the Chilean response to the American investigation. However, when it was discovered that Contreras was willing to implicate even Pinochet in the assasination, the Chilean government again started stonewalling. See infra note 28. This rivalry between Mena and Contreras is detailed in historical accounts (specifically Labyrinth). It should probably be discussed in the text here or at an earlier point (text accompanying notes 21 or 22) if reliable unclassified or declassified information can be found.

27. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 11-13.

28. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 13; Criminal Indictment, D.S. #5. The provisional arrest request is mentioned in the Supreme Court Decision on the Extradition Request, D.S. #9, p. 13.

35. U.S. v. Sampol, 636 F.2d 621 (D.C. Cir. 1980), D.S. #8. The two Supreme Court cases which form the basis for the Sampol court's evidentiary ruling are Massiah v. U.S., 377 U.S. 201 (1964) and U.S. v. Henry, 447 U.S. 264 (1980).

36. Etcheberry Memo on Status of "Passport Cases," D.S. #11. Dear Ms. Lantos:

Thank you for sending copies of your recent correspondence in regard to Dr. Ritterman's assistance on behalf of Mr. Cartagena, which I have shared with my Embassy colleagues. I appreciate being made aware of your involvement in this case.

I met with Michele regarding this case when she was in Santiago and have been back in touch with her recently by letter. The Embassy has been doing everything it can to be of assistance.

We appreciate your interest and support very much.

Sincerely,

PRESIDENTIAL EVENING READING

Chile Junta Picks Pinochet: The Chilean junta's naming of President Pinochet as the candidate for the yes-or-no presidential plebiscite October 5th surprised no one. Police used tear gas and water cannon to break up confrontations between demonstrators the day of the announcement; three persons were killed, 10 wounded and 800 detained in incidents around the country. The plebiscite outcome remains too close to call -- at least 20 per cent of those polled still say they are "undecided." Yesterday, Pinochet lifted long-standing forced exile orders, permitting the return of some 300 people, including Allende's family and former political associates. The move is purportedly designed to soften Pinochet's image, but he may also be counting on the presence of former exiles, many of them Communists, scaring the electorate into believing their choice in the plebiscite is Pinochet or chaos.

CARLOS SALINAS DE GORTARI WAS DECLARED PRESIDENT-ELECT BY MEXICO'S CONGRESS

Carlos Salinas de Gortari, candidate of the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI) was declared President-Elect for the term 1988-1994 by Mexico's House of Representatives, functioning as Electoral College, in a session that finished on Saturday, September 10, 1988.

The formal declaration was issued by the House of Representatives' President, once the majority of its members approved the assesment submitted by the Commission on Government and Constitutional Affairs. Such assesment was endorsed by 263 votes for and 85 against. In the debate, that lasted for more than 20 hours, a total of 68 congressmen representing all political parties, were registered as speakers.

The total of votes cast in favor of the now President-Elect, was of 9 million 687 thousand 926, which gave him 50.74 percent of all the votes cast.

Cuauhtémoc Cárdenas-Solórzano, candidate of a coalition of parties called National Democratic Front (FDN), received 5 million 929 thousand 585 votes, or 31.06 percent.

Manuel J. Clouthier, candidate of the National Action Party (PAN), got 3 million 208 thousand 584 sufrages, with a percentaje of 16.81.

Gumersindo Magaña-Negrete, standard-beerer of the Mexican Democratic Party (PDM) drew 190 thousand 891 votes, equivalent to 1 percent.

The candidate of the Workers' Revolutionary Party, . Rosario Ibarra de Piedra, received 74 thousand 857 votes, which gave her 0.39 percent of the votes.

The small differences between these totals and those preliminarily released by the Federal Electoral Commission on July 13, stem from those votes that were contested and submitted to the Federal Electoral Tribunal.

Mexico's President-Elect, Carlos Salinas de Gortari, will be sworn in on December 1st, 1988, to serve a single six-year term.

TO: The Secretary

FROM: ARA - Michael G. Kozak, Acting

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Chilean Foreign Minister Ricardo Garcia in New York on September 27, 1988, 4:00-4:30 p.m.

You last met with Garcia in Quito at the Borja inauguration on August 10, 1988. This meeting comes eight days before the Chilean plebiscite of October 5. It will almost certainly be our final opportunity to convey our concerns about the plebiscite to the Chileans at a very high level. Garcia will seek to assure you that all is going well and that the "yes" will win.

I. THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE

- Recent Steps by the GOC

  --Since your last meeting, the Chilean Government lifted the two "states of exception" which limited civil rights, terminated forced exile, and passed legislation allowing the opposition 15 minutes of free television time nightly on all TV networks.

  --These steps, however belated, have had a positive effect on the plebiscite environment.

- Still a Close Call

  --Polls show a close plebiscite vote, with many still undecided.

  --Reports of pressure from local authorities on voters persist and the GOC still does not ensure fair and equitable access to television.

  --Most analysts predict that the GOC will not use fraud, although the possibility cannot be ruled out.

CONFIDENTIAL
DECL: OADR

o International Observers

--Many international observers, including groups from the U.S., will visit Chile for the plebiscite.

--The GOC is not granting official status or special privileges to any of these visitors, but has done nothing to hinder them.

o Prospects for Violence

--The far left will probably ease off on violence until October 5, but has threatened to unleash a wave of terrorist acts afterward.

II. FUTURE OF BILATERAL RELATIONS

o Plebiscite Process is Key

--We have repeatedly told the GOC that our future bilateral relations will have much to do with whether the plebiscite produces a result that is widely perceived as a free and fair expression of the will of the Chilean people.

--The excessive force used recently against U.S. labor leaders, including AIFLD director Bill Doherty, by Chilean police in Santiago indicates that civil rights violations remain a problem in Chile.

--The GOC is hoping that the U.S. will recognize a victory by the "yes" faction as legitimate and look more favorably on a new regime headed by Pinochet.

o Letelier Case Remains an Issue

--We will move ahead after the plebiscite with further steps to resolve the Letelier-Moffitt terrorist case.

FECHA	INFORMACION
	El Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionario (MIR) protestó por la violencia ejercida en contra de los manifestantes de la Comuna de Cerro Navia el domingo durante una visita del General Pinochet. En una declaración pública entregada por el voce ro Jecar Neghme, el MIR señala que la mayoria del país "está por la democracia y r pudia al Si a Pinochet y su Constitución y que la prescencia del Jefe del Estado en Pudahuel " fue una provocación".
ARICA	Cerca de 500 mujeres vestidas de negro permanecieron duramte una hora en silencio absoluto en el frontis de la Catedral de Arica y frente a la Gobernación provincial enarbolando un lienzo que rezaba "Las mujeres de luto decimos NO." El grupo realiza cada 11 de Septiembre en recuerdo de las victimas del Golpe de Estado. No se registraron incidentes.
SANTIAGO	Un llamado a "sumarse a la lucha por el triunfo del Si en el, proximo plebiscito y un saludo a las Fuerzas Armadas al cumplirse 15 años del golpe militar, hizo efectivo la dirección general de la Fuerza NAcionalista de Combate, FNC. En un comunicado público señalaron que el 11 de Septiembre significa libertad. POr eso y por todo lo que significa hoy estamos luchando." Agregan¡no importa que corra sangre camaradas¡ nuestra sangre no serán en vano, porque, como señalaron los jóvenes nacionalistas que lucharon contra una dictadura sionista un 5 de Septiembre ¡ más vale luchar por nobles ideales que morir en una cama¡

--Many international observers, including groups from the U.S., will visit Chile for the plebiscite.

--The GOC is not granting official status or special privileges to any of these visitors, but has done nothing to hinder them. ✓

o Prospects for Violence

--The far left will probably ease off on violence until October 5, but has threatened to unleash a wave of terrorist acts afterward. ✓

II. FUTURE OF BILATERAL RELATIONS

o Plebiscite ~~Result~~ Process is Key

--We have repeatedly told the GOC that our future bilateral relations will have much to do with ~~the~~ whether ~~nature of~~ the plebiscite produces a result that is widely perceived as a free and fair expression of the will of the Chilean people.

--The excessive force used recently against U.S. labor leaders, including AIFLD director Bill Doherty, by Chilean police in Santiago indicates that civil rights violations remain a problem in Chile.

--The GOC is hoping that the U.S. will recognize a victory by the "yes" faction as legitimate and look more favorably on a new regime headed by Pinochet.

o Letelier Case Remains an Issue

--We will move ahead after the plebiscite with further steps to resolve the Letelier-Moffitt terrorist case.

o THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE

-- We welcome the recent steps by your government to lift the "states of exception," end exile, and allow the opposition limited access to TV.

-- We ~~expect~~ hope that these moves indicate an irreversible trend towards greater respect for human and civil rights after the plebiscite.

-- However, reports of pressure from local authorities on voters persist, and the Government side still enjoys a large advantage in access to television. ✓

-- Regardless of the outcome, it is crucial that the Chilean people judge the plebiscite to have been clean, fair, and free of coercion.

-- The presence of "international visitors" to witness the plebiscite can serve a very useful purpose.

-- We hope that the GOC will facilitate the work and security of these "international visitors," many of whom will come from the U.S.

-- GOA CONSIDERS PLEBISCITE RESULT FAR FROM CERTAIN. IT BELIEVES BOTH "YES" AND "NO" HAVE FLOORS OF 40 PERCENT. OUTCOME IS LIKELY TO BE CLOSE EITHER WAY. THE PINOCHET REGIME UNDOUBTEDLY HAS ADDITIONAL MOVES UP ITS COLLECTIVE SLEEVE, ALTHOUGH LIKELIHOOD OF OUTRIGHT FRAUD IS LIMITED DUE TO OPPOSITION ACCESS TO POLLING PLACES AND VOTE COUNT. KEY PROBLEM FOR OPPOSITION WILL BE TO OVERCOME FEAR, INTRODUCED IN ALMOST SUBLIMINAL FASHION BY REGIME, THAT BALLOT MAY NOT REALLY BE SECRET.

-- ARGENTINA CONSIDERS IT EXTREMELY IMPORTANT THE "NO'S" PREVAIL. GOA WORKED EARLIER ON TO PERSUADE CHILEANS TO POSTPONE PLEBISCITE TO LATE IN 1988 TO PERMIT GREATER VOTER REGISTRATION, WHICH FAVORS "NO'S." IT HAS ALSO COACHED DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION ABOUT POTENTIAL ELECTORAL DANGER OF POPULAR PERCEPTION THAT BALLOT MIGHT NOT BE SECRET. EVEN WITH A "NO" VICTORY, [redacted] STATED, CHILE WILL GO THROUGH AN EXTRAORDINARILY COMPLEX AND DIFFICULT TRANSITIONAL PERIOD. THE PROBLEMS, THOUGH, WOULD PROBABLY BE SURMOUNTABLE. SHOULD THE "YES'" PREVAIL, THE COUNTRY WILL BE IN SERIOUS DIFFICULTY. [redacted] ANTICIPATED NEGATIVE REACTIONS FROM BOTH WESTERN EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES. INTERNALLY, NOTION OF PINOCHET IN POWER UNTIL NEAR END OF CENTURY WOULD ESSENTIALLY BE UNACCEPTABLE TO MANY IN DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION WHO WOULD BE UNABLE TO HOLD THEIR PARTIES TOGETHER. THERE MIGHT BE A BRIEF PERIOD OF RELATIVE TRANQUILITY, BUT IT WILL NOT LAST. [redacted] MENTIONED IRAN (UNDER SHAH) AND NICARAGUA (UNDER SOMOZA) AS SOMEWHAT ANALOGOUS EXAMPLES OF REGIMES WHICH DELIVERED A MEASURE OF

ECONOMIC GROWTH, BUT CUT OFF POLITICAL EXPRESSION AND ESSENTIALLY PROVOKED REVOLUTIONARY OUTCOMES. [redacted] ADMITTED PINOCHET HAD A HIGHLY ASTUTE AND ABLE TEAM, WHICH MADE CHILE DIFFERENT FROM THESE OTHER COUNTRIES, BUT HE EXPRESSED VIEW THAT IT WAS UNPRECEDENTED IN A WORLD FOR AN AUTHORITARIAN RULER TO TAKE INITIATIVE IN LIBERALIZING FUNDAMENTAL ASPECTS

)F HIS REGIME. RESULT OF A "YES" VOTE WILL ALMOST :NEVITABLY BE SHARP POLARIZATION LEADING TO A HIGHLY :XPLOSIVE SITUATION. ARGENTINA IS SERIOUSLY CONCERNED \BOUT THIS POSSIBILITY, PARTICULARLY GIVEN 5306 :ILOMETER BORDER THE TWO COUNTRIES SHARE.

-- PRESIDENT ALFONSIN RAISED GOA CONCERNS ABOUT :UBAN-SUPPORTED VIOLENCE IN CHILE WITH CUBAN 'RIME MINISTER CASTRO BOTH IN HAVANA LAST YEAR AND)URING BILATERAL MEETING IN QUITO LAST MONTH. :ASTRO'S RESPONSE WAS THAT A) CUBA RECOGNIZED THE :HILEAN PEOPLE HAD COME TO REGARD THE PLEBISCITE AS A .EGITIMATE POLITICAL MECHANISM TO DETERMINE FUTURE)IRECTION OF COUNTRY; B) ARGENTINA HAD A LEGITIMATE :IGHT TO BE CONCERNED ABOUT IMPLICATIONS FOR ITS)WN SECURITY; BUT C) FAR LEFT IN CHILE WAS HIGHLY .UTONOMOUS AND NOT SUBJECT TO RATIONAL CONTROL. HE, :ASTRO, DID NOT KNOW IF CUBA COULD RESTRAIN THEM. (SEE :EFS B AND C).

-- CONCERNING CHILEANS ARRESTED IN BUENOS AIRES IN JULY .ND SUBJECT TO POSSIBLE EXTRADITION (REF A), GOA VIEW S THAT THESE INDIVIDUALS WILL SERVE AT BEST FOUR YEARS N PRISON HERE BEFORE QUESTION OF EXTRADITION ARISES.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PGOV, PREL, ELAB, PINS, CI
SUBJ: THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE: SITREP SIX
(SEPTEMBER 4 - SEPTEMBER 10)

1. (U) THIS IS THE SIXTH IN A SERIES OF WEEKLY SITREPS REPORTING DEVELOPMENTS RELEVANT TO THE UPCOMING CHILEAN PLEBISCITE WHICH WILL APPROVE OR DISAPPROVE AN EIGHT YEAR TERM FOR CURRENT PRESIDENT AUGUSTO PINOCHET. THE PLEBISCITE WILL BE HELD ON OCTOBER 5.

2. (C) SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS: THE PLEBISCITE'S WAR OF TELEVISION BEGAN IN EARNEST THIS WEEK WITH THE INITIATION OF THE 30 MINUTES OF FREE AIR TIME FOR THE "SI" AND "NO" CAMPAIGNS. COMPARING THE MERITS OF THE TWO SIDES' SPOTS HAS TAKEN ON THE AIR OF A SPORTS COMPETITION WITH AVID VIEWERS HOTLY DEBATING WHO CAME OUT ON TOP EACH NIGHT. THE CLEAR CONSENSUS IS THAT THE

"NO" CAMPAIGN IS PUTTING OUT BETTER TELEVISION. BOTH CAMPS ARE USING MODERN ADVERTISING TECHNIQUES AND PROJECTING "FEEL GOOD" IMAGES WHICH PROMPTED ONE U.S. REPORTER TO SAY, "I HAVE SEEN THE FUTURE OF CHILE, AND IT IS A MCDONALD'S AD." PINOCHET ADHERENTS ARE REPORTEDLY TRYING TO IMPROVE THEIR SPOTS WHICH ARE COMING ACROSS AS LESS COHERENT AND TOO HEAVY-HANDED. ASSOCIATING POLITICAL VIOLENCE WITH THE NO CAMPAIGN HAS EMERGED AS A CENTRAL THEME OF GOVERNMENT PROPAGANDA,
ALTHOUGH THERE HAS BEEN LITTLE GRIST FOR THAT MILL. A "UNITED LEFT" RALLY SEPTEMBER 10, WITH PROMINENT COMMUNIST PARTICIPATION, WAS ENTIRELY PEACEFUL. THE HIGHER PROFILE OF COMMUNISTS AND SOCIALISTS, HOWEVER, FOLLOWING THE RETURN OF MANY OF THEIR LEADERS FROM EXILE, HAS GIVEN THE "SI" CAMPAIGN AN OPENING TO LINK THE OPPOSITION TO THE BAD OLD DAYS OF ALLENDE.

3. (C) MEANWHILE, EFFORTS TO BOOST THE NEW, MODERATE, DEMOCRATIC PINOCHET INCLUDED MORE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF GOVERNMENT LARGESSE FOR WOMEN AND LOWER-INCOME FAMILIES. HOWEVER, THE CANDIDATE WILL REPORTEDLY AVOID CALLING MASS DEMONSTRATIONS GIVEN THE "SI" CAMPAIGN'S INABILITY TO TURN OUT CROWDS COMPARABLE TO THOSE PRODUCED BY THE "NO." FOLLOWING THEIR MASSIVE SHOWING AT THE RALLY IN SANTIAGO LAST WEEK, THE NO CAMPAIGN CONTINUES ON A ROLL WITH GOOD CROWDS IN THE PROVINCES. ONE MEMBER OF THE NO COALITION, THE CONTROVERSIAL HUMANIST PARTY, IS IN TROUBLE WITH THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE

WHICH QUESTIONS THE PARTY'S LEGALITY AFTER IT ABRUPTLY REPLACED ITS PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY GENERAL LAST WEEK IN PROCEEDINGS WHICH DID NOT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ELECTORAL LAW.

4. (C) ALTHOUGH ALL GOVERNMENT POLITICAL ADS WERE NOT REMOVED FROM TELEVISION AS PROMISED,

THERE HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC DROP IN THEIR NUMBER, AND OPPOSITION LEADERS ARE GETTING MORE COVERAGE ON NEWS PROGRAMS. LESS ENCOURAGING ARE REPORTS OF CONTINUED GOVERNMENT PRESSURE ON RURAL RESIDENTS TO SUPPORT THE PINOCHET CANDIDACY. NOTABLY, THE BISHOP OF CONCEPCION DENOUNCED LOCAL OFFICIALS' INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS. THE CHURCH IS EXPECTED TO CLOSELY MONITOR THE PROGRESS OF VOTING ON PLEBISCITE DAY. INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WILL BE DOING THE SAME, AND DELEGATIONS FROM SEVERAL WERE IN CHILE THIS WEEK TO UPDATE THEIR INFORMATION IN ANTICIPATION OF THAT EFFORT. END SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS.

FURTHERMORE, ANY VOTER MAY ASK THE PRESIDENT OF THE VOTING TABLE TO CLEAR THE POLLING AREA IF THAT INDIVIDUAL FEELS HIS RIGHT OF FREE VOTING ACCESS IS BEING COMPROMISED.

HAVE ALWAYS BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR GUARANTEEING PUBLIC ORDER IN CHILEAN ELECTIONS. WE NOTE WITH INTEREST THAT THE LATEST REGULATIONS OMIT ANY MENTION OF THE TRADITIONAL PROHIBITION ON ARMED FORCES' PRESENCE WITHIN 20 METERS OF THE POLLS, WHICH IS REITERATED IN ARTICLE 114 OF THE RECENTLY PASSED VOTING LAW. END COMMENT.

7. (U) THE REGULATIONS ALSO INCLUDE SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TREATMENT OF FOREIGN VISITORS OBSERVING THE POLLING PROCESS. FOREIGN VISITORS WILL BE EXTENDED THE SAME RIGHTS OF VIEWING THE POLLING PROCESS AS RESIDENT JOURNALISTS OR CITIZENS, PROVIDED THEIR PRESENCE DOES NOT OBSTRUCT THE VOTING PROCESS. (AN INSTRUCTION THAT FOREIGN VISITORS MUST REFRAIN FROM INTERFERING IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS WAS REITERATED IN A RECENT DIPLOMATIC NOTE RECEIVED BY FOREIGN EMBASSIES IN CHILE.) THE CONCERN REMAINS THAT THOSE VOTING TABLE PRESIDENTS WHO ARE PRO-GOVERNMENT, OR SIMPLY ANTI-FOREIGN, COULD AT ANY TIME ASK THE MILITARY TO CLEAR THE AREA OF ALL BYSTANDERS AND OBSERVERS. WHETHER THIS WILL IN FACT HAPPEN WE WILL SEE ON OCTOBER 5.

. (U) AS EXPECTED, PINOCHET IS MAKING FULL USE OF OVERNMENT POWERS AND PREROGATIVES TO BOOST HIS

THE PROPOSED BILL, WHICH HAS BEEN UNDER STUDY E PAST YEAR BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH, WOULD GIVE OMEN EQUAL RIGHTS IN CHILD-REARING DECISIONS AND THE OMINISTRATION OF FAMILY FINANCES. AT THE SAME TIME, E LEGISLATIVE JUNTA PASSED A LAW GIVING UNICIPALITIES A TOTAL OF 70,000 NEW HOUSING

SUBSIDIES FOR LOW-INCOME FAMILIES. PRESIDENT PINOCHET ALSO PERSONALLY ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK THAT THE GOC WAS FORGIVING 90 PERCENT OF POST-DUE DEBTS OF OVER 200,000 WATER SERVICE CUSTOMERS. THIS MEASURE WILL PRIMARILY FAVOR THOSE IN THE LOWEST FOURTH OF THE INCOME STRATA. THE COST TO THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE ABOUT 500 MILLION PESOS (2 MILLION DOLLARS).

9. (U) PINOCHET HAS CONTINUED POLISHING HIS MODERATE, POPULIST IMAGE. SPEAKING TO A GROUP OF SUPPORTERS IN LAS CONDES, HE SAID THAT HIS POLITICAL ADVERSARIES WILL HAVE A PLACE IN THE "NEW DEMOCRACY" HE PLANS TO INAUGURATE. REFERRING TO THE "RENOVATED SOCIALISTS," HE CONCEDED THAT IT WOULD INDEED BE HEALTHY FOR CHILE IF THE SOCIALISTS WERE TO TURN, AS MANY HAVE SUGGESTED, INTO "CHAMPIONS OF PRIVATE PROPERTY."

RETURNED IT TO HIM.

1. (U) THE SI CAMPAIGN WAS GIVEN MORE AMMUNITION

FORCES OF CHAOS AND VIOLENCE WHEN FINANCE MINISTER

BY A ROWDY GROUP OF ABOUT 100 STUDENTS. HE WAS CUT
IN THE NECK BY A ROCK, AND NARROWLY ESCAPED FURTHER INJURY AS A HAIL OF ROCKS BROKE THE REAR WINDOW OF

THE CAR IN WHICH HE FLED THE SCENE. HOWEVER, SI CAMPAIGN PARTISANS WERE NOT THE ONLY VICTIMS OF PERSONAL VIOLENCE THIS WEEK. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICE PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR WAS SUCCESSFUL IN GETTING COURT ORDERED POLICE PROTECTION FOR HIS HOME AFTER ARSONISTS ATTACKED IT AND BURNED A VEHICLE. THERE HAD BEEN A SERIES OF ATTACKS ON ZALDIVAR'S HOUSE.

12. (S) FURTHER ON POLITICAL VIOLENCE, THAT PCCH LEADERS HAVE EXPRESSED EXTREME SATISFACTION WITH THE HIGH LEVEL OF ACTIVE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR SCHEDULED AND SPONTANEOUS DEMONSTRATIONS WHICH HAVE OCCURRED SINCE PINOCHET WAS NAMED THE CANDIDATE. FOR THE FUTURE, THE FPMR WITH ASSISTANCE FROM THE PCCH IS CREATING NEW OPERATIVE GROUPS AND FORMULATING PLANS FOR VIOLENCE TO BE PUT INTO EFFECT BEGINNING PLEBISCITE DAY. THIS CONFIRMS OTHER INDICATIONS WE HAVE RECEIVED THAT THE COMMUNISTS ARE PLANNING TO AVOID VIOLENCE DURING THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD. [redacted] B1

13. (C) SOURCES IN THE SI CAMPAIGN INFORM US THAT PINOCHET DOES NOT WISH TO ORGANIZE ANY MORE "MASSIVE" DEMONSTRATIONS BETWEEN NOW AND OCTOBER 2, WHEN POLITICAL HEADQUARTERS

14. (U) NO CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES HAVE QUICKENED THEIR PACE, FUELED BY HOPES AND NEW EXPECTATIONS OVER THE LIFTING OF MANY RESTRICTIONS ON POLITICAL MEETINGS AND THE POWERFUL BOOST GIVEN BY THE FREE TV ADVERTISING. WHEREVER THEY APPEAR, SI CAMPAIGNERS ARE BEING CHALLENGED BY YOUTHS FROM THE NO CAMP WHO APPEAR WITH BALLOONS AND THE FESTIVE CAMPAIGN SONG. OVER 100 STUDENTS WERE DETAINED IN COUNTERDEMONSTRATIONS WHEN THE PRESIDENT MADE A BRIEF APPEARANCE THIS WEEK IN VALPARAISO. ON SEPTEMBER 9, A GATHERING ORGANIZED TO PROTEST THE GOVERNMENT'S ADMINISTRATION OF LAND IN EASTER ISLAND WAS TURNED INTO A NO CAMPAIGN DEMONSTRATION, A FIRST FOR THE REMOTE ISLAND RESIDENTS. A TOTAL OF 1,113 VOTERS ARE REGISTERED ON THE ENTIRE ISLAND.

IN 1980, HORMAZABAL HAD TO HOLD CLANDESTINE POLITICAL MEETINGS TO GET THE OPPOSITION'S MESSAGE ACROSS IN AGRICULTURAL TOWNS SUCH AS SAN VINCENTE, A CITY WHICH HAS 17,000 PEOPLE NEAR RANCAGUA. LAST WEEK HE OPENED PDC HEADQUARTERS THERE AND 2000 CAMPESINOS TURNED OUT.

16. (C) ONE KEY TO THE STRONG GRASSROOTS RESPONSE IS THAT THE CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN LEGITIMIZED AND BROADENED ITS BASE. HORMAZABAL SAID THAT THE SEPTEMBER 4 ACUSO RALLY DREW

PEOPLE FROM POOR TO WELL-TO-DO, AND ITS APPEAL HAS STRENGTHENED SINCE IT CAME FROM UNION AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, NOT THE POLITICIANS. THE LARGEST GROUP THAT TURNS OUT AT PROVINCIAL MEETINGS ARE THOSE WHO LACK PARTY AFFILIATION. THEY FEEL PROTECTED, HE SAID, BECAUSE THE MEETINGS ARE NOW OFFICIALLY AUTHORIZED. TO REINFORCE THIS OPENING, NO PARTY LEADERS ARE NOW TRAVELING NON-STOP TO SMALL CITIES (15,000 TO 50,000)

AND PLAN TO CONCENTRATE ON SMALL TOWNS (15,000 AND UNDER) ON SEPTEMBER 21-26. SINCE THE CAMPAIGN BEGAN, FINDING AN OPPOSITION LEADER WHO IS NOT ON A WHISTLESTOP TOUR HAS BEEN EXTREMELY CHANCEY.

17. (U) THE RETURN OF FAMOUS LEFTIST EXILES WILL BE FRONT-PAGE NEWS THROUGHOUT THE REST OF THE CAMPAIGN, HELPING PINOCHET TO IDENTIFY THE POPULAR UNITY (UP) GOVERNMENT WITH THE NO CAMPAIGN. PCCH GENERAL SECRETARY LUIS CORVALAN IS EXPECTED TO GET A MASSIVE WELCOME WHEN HE RETURNS. SO IS ALLENDE'S WIDOW HORTENSIA BUSSI, WHO WILL ARRIVE FROM MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER 16. UP MINISTERS JAIME SUAREZ (SOCIALIST) AND JOSE CADEMARTORI (COMMUNIST) HAVE COME BACK TO MUCH FANFARE. VOLODIO TEITELBOIM'S STATEMENT FROM MOSCOW THAT HE WOULD RETURN TO WORK FOR THE NO CAMPAIGN GOT A FRONT-PAGE HEADLINE IN EL MERCURIO. SO DID EX-ECONOMY MINISTER JOSE CADEMARTORI'S STATEMENT THAT MANY PEOPLE HAVE "GOOD MEMORIES" OF THE UP. ONE PLEASANT SURPRISE CAME FROM FORMER MIR SPOKESMAN JUAN PARRA, WHO ON RETURNING TO CHILE CRITICIZED THE ATTACKS SPONSORED BY THE MIR AS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

18. (C) A DISCORDANT NOTE WAS STRUCK IN THE NO CAMPAIGN BY THE HUMANIST PARTY. AFTER PRESSING FOR THEIR RIGHTS TO HAVE SEPARATE TV SPOTS WITHIN THE 15 MINUTES ALLOCATED TO THE NO, PH PRESIDENT JOSE TOMAS SAENZ AND GENERAL SECRETARY FRANSCISCO GRANELLA SUDDENLY ANNOUNCED THEIR RESIGNATION ON SEPTEMBER 2 TO MAKE WAY FOR YOUNGER LEADERSHIP. SOON STORIES HIT THE PRESS THAT ARGENTINE HUMANIST LEADER MARIO RODRIGUEZ COBO ("SILO"), WHO HAD FOUNDED THE MOVEMENT IN CHILE, INSISTED ON THE TOP LEADERS' REMOVAL FOR OPPOSING HIS INSTRUCTIONS. ON SEPTEMBER 6 SAENZ AND GRANELLA CONFIDED TO US THAT THEY HAD COME UNDER INTENSE PRESSURE FROM SILO AND THE PARTY'S GROWING LEFT WING TO

TAKE A MORE RADICAL POSITION ON THE PLEBISCITE, REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE THE LEGITIMACY OF A SI VICTORY, AND TO USE THE FREE TIME TO PROMOTE THE PARTY'S IDEAS.

19. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 9, THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE DECLARED THE PH ILLEGAL, DUE TO THEIR HAVING FAILED TO HAVE A NOTARY PRESENT AT THE ELECTION OF NEW PARTY LEADERS AS REQUIRED BY THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. THE PH HAS LEGAL APPEALS TO PURSUE BEFORE THIS RULING BECOMES FINAL, BUT THE PARTY FACES THE REAL POSSIBILITY OF LOSING ITS LEGAL STATUS.

20. (C) THE HUMANISTS' DISSOLUTION MAY HURT THE NO CAMPAIGN EFFORT TO HAVE PARTY REPRESENTATIVES (APODERADOS) IN EVERY POLLING PLACE. GENARO ARRIAGADA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE CAMPAIGN HAS NOT REACHED ITS TARGET OF 66,000 APODERADOS, ASSURING COVERAGE FOR ALL OF THE 22,000 VOTING TABLES THROUGHOUT CHILE. THE PDC HAS TRAINED 15,000 AND WILL RECRUIT ANOTHER 4,000 WITH MINIMAL PREPARATION. THE PPD HAS ANOTHER 14,000. THE HUMANISTS HAD 5,000 APODERADOS, BUT ARE NOT PROHIBITED FROM HAVING OTHER PARTIES USE THEIR POLLING REPRESENTATIVES. PPD LEADERS HAVE TOLD US THAT THE ALMEYDISTA SOCIALISTS WILL FILL OUT THEIR APODERADO SLOTS, AND IN SOME AREAS HAVE PLACED THEIR LEADERS AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE NO

CAMPAIGN. THE AREAS OF LEAST COVERAGE REMAIN THE POOR SETTLEMENTS AROUND SANTIAGO. PSD PRESIDENT EUGENIO VELASCO TOLD DCM SEPT. 12 THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT THAT THE APPEALS PROCESS WOULD NOT BE COMPLETED UNTIL AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, AND THEREFORE THE HUMANIST APODERADOS WOULD STILL BE ABLE TO FUNCTION ON OCTOBER 5.

21. (U) BISHOPS BERNARDINO PINERA AND FRANCISCO COX OF LA SERENA AND THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE OF THE SANTIAGO ARCHDIOCESE HAVE SENT OUT PASTORAL INSTRUCTIONS COUNSELING CATHOLICS TO VOTE THEIR CONSCIENCE, FREE FROM ANY OUTSIDE PRESSURE IN THE PLEBISCITE. THEY URGE PARISHIONERS TO STUDY THE ISSUES AND NOT BE SWAYED BY EMOTIONAL ISSUES, AND TO KEEP IN MIND ABOVE ALL THAT THEIR VOTE IS SECRET.

22. (U) IN A PRESS CONFERENCE ON SEPTEMBER 8, BISHOP GOIC OF CONCEPCION SAID THAT ALTHOUGH SOME OF THE CONDITIONS FOR A LEGITIMATE PLEBISCITE WERE BEING MET, POORER CITIZENS WERE BEING FACED WITH GROWING ARRAY OF PRESSURES WHICH VIOLATED THEIR DIGNITY AND THEIR RIGHT TO DECIDE THEIR CHOICE IN PRIVATE. HE DENOUNCED THAT THE PEOPLE WERE BEING FORCED TO PARTICIPATE IN PUBLIC MEETINGS OR SIGN DECLARATIONS OF SUPPORT FOR THE GOC CANDIDATE UNDER THE THREAT OF BEING FIRED OR FAVORS BEING WITHHELD. EXAMPLES OF GOC INTIMIDATION TACTICS BY MSR. GOIC ARE DETAILED IN

(C) JAVIER LUIS EGANA, DIRECTOR OF PROJECT BELEN, INFORMED POLOFF THAT THREE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BISHOPS' PERMANENT COMMITTEE WILL BE IN SANTIAGO DURING THE PLEBISCITE -- EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE PRESIDENT CARLOS GONZALES OF TALCA, SECRETARY SERGIO CONTRERAS OF TEMUCO, AND CARDINAL JUAN FRANCISCO FRESNO. THEY WILL EVALUATE POLLING RESULTS FROM THE NO CAMPAIGN, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, AND THE COMMITTEE IN FREE ELECTIONS, AS WELL AS REPORTS OF VOTING CONDITIONS AND ANY IRREGULARITIES TO BE PHONED OR TELEXED IN FROM MONITORING TEAMS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. THE TEAMS, WHICH HAVE BEEN SET UP THROUGH THE BELEN PROJECT IN NEARLY EVERY DIOCESE, ARE WORKING DIRECTLY WITH EACH DIOCESE. BUT CHIEF AMONG THEM ARE THAT SMALL FIRMS HAVE BEEN TAKEN FOR GRANTED BOTH BY THE GOVERNMENT AND BY LARGER BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS. SMALL RETAILERS ARE STILL STRUGGLING WITH DEBT INCURRED IN THE 1978-1982 PERIOD AND HAVE NOT BENEFITED AS FULLY FROM THE SUBSEQUENT RECOVERY AS OTHER SECTORS OF THE ECONOMY. ALSO, MANY SMALL RETAILERS HAVE BEEN TOUCHED IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER BY THE GOVERNMENT'S REPRESSION. WE WERE TOLD THAT WHILE SUCH FIRMS WOULD BENEFIT FROM AN ADJUSTMENT OF THE UNIDAD DE FOMENTO (UF) (THE UNIT OF ACCOUNT FOR DEBT INSTRUMENTS), OTHER SECTORS OF THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY WOULD BE HURT. SMALL RETAILERS ARE NOT COUNTING ON A CHANGE. EMBOFFS WERE TOLD THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS COUNTING ON MOST OF THE 300,000 - 1,000,000 MILLION VOTES

5. (U) IN HIS INTERVIEW FOR EL MERCURIO MAGAGINE THIS WEEK, A SMILING, RELAXED PINOCHET DECLINED TO SAY WHEN HE WOULD STEP DOWN AS ARMY COMMANDER IN CHIEF. INDICATING THAT HE TOOK EACH DECISION WHEN THE RIGHT MOMENT CAME, HE COQUETTISHLY MENTIONED THAT SOONER RATHER THAN LATER HE WOULD HAVE TO NAME A NEW ARMY COMMANDER. HE SAID UNEQUIVOCALLY HE WOULD

RESPECT THE RESULTS IF THE NO WON THE PLEBISCITE, BUT DOUBTED THE OPPOSITION WOULD RETURN THE FAVOR. ASKED HOW HE WOULD GET ALONG WITH A CONGRESS AND REDUCED POWERS, HE RESPONDED EMOTIONALLY THAT HE KNEW AND HAD WORKED UNDER A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, AND LIVED TO SEE THE DESTRUCTION OF THAT DEMOCRACY. "I AM A DEMOCRAT AND WILL FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY," HE ADDED.

26. (S) PINOCHET'S RELAXED MANNER IS PARTIALLY BASED ON CONFIDENCE THAT HE HAS THE ARMED FORCES UNITED BEHIND HIM. A CHILEAN GENERAL OFFICER COMMENTED THAT THE PLEBISCITE CANDIDATE NOMINATING MEETING ON 30 AUGUST WAS NEITHER ACRIMONIOUS NOR DIVISIVE IN SPITE OF HESITATION ON THE PART OF CARABINERO DIRECTOR GENERAL STANGE TO NOMINATE PINOCHET AND CONDITIONS LEVIED ON PINOCHET PRIOR TO THE MEETING BY THE OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS IN EXCHANGE FOR THEIR SUPPORT

OF HIS NOMINATION. HOWEVER, ELEMENTS OF THE MILITARY MAY ENTERTAIN DOUBTS ABOUT HIS EFFECTIVENESS AS A CAMPAIGNER. CHILEAN ARMY OFFICERS AND CIVILIAN POLITICAL ANALYSTS FOUND PINOCHET'S SPEECHES ON 30 AUGUST TO BE OVERLY BLAND AND LACKING IN ANY SORT OF PRE-CAMPAIGN STIMULATION.

B1

27. (S) SEVERAL FIELD GRADE ARMY OFFICERS BELIEVE THE LOW LEVEL OF CIVIL DISTURBANCES AFTER THE NOMINATION ON 30 AUGUST IS AN INDICATION THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS MORE POPULAR SUPPORT THAN IT DID IN 1983. ANOTHER ARMY OFFICER COMMENTED THAT THE VIOLENT ACTIVITIES OF THE NIGHT WERE CARRIED OUT BY EXTREMISTS IN THE FPMR, MIR AND LAURTARO FACTION OF MAPU. SINCE THESE GROUPS ARE BEING SUBMERGED IN GENERAL CIVIL DISTURBANCES AND PRODUCING NO DRAMATIC NEW TERRORISM MATERIAL, THE GOVERNMENT HAS RESORTED TO RETROSPECTIVES TO RECALL SPECTACULAR TERRORIST INCIDENTS OF THE PAST TO FUEL ITS CAMPAIGN ON

POLITICAL VIOLENCE. THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET IN 1986 WAS GIVEN WIDE PUBLICITY WITH THE PRESIDENT PRAYING WITH THE FAMILY OF A GUARD KILLED IN THAT INCIDENT. SIMILARLY, THE 1987 KIDNAPPING BY THE FPMR OF LT. COLONEL CARLOS CARRENO WAS REENACTED FOR THE TELEVISION CAMERAS WITH THE COLONEL PLAYING HIMSELF.

THE MEDIA

28. (U) THE BIGGEST CAMPAIGN STORY THIS WEEK IS TELEVISION. THE 15 MINUTES FOR BOTH THE "NO" AND THE "SI" APPARENTLY HAVE A MUCH LARGER AUDIENCE THAN HAD BEEN PREDICTED. CHANNEL 13 SAYS THAT DURING THE HALF HOUR PROGRAM, ITS RATINGS FELL ONLY FIVE PERCENT. ALL OF CHILE IS TALKING ABOUT THE QUALITY OF THE ADS, AND EXCEPT FOR SOME FERVENT PINOCHET SUPPORTERS, THE CONSENSUS IS CLEARLY THAT THE "NO" ADS ARE SUPERIOR, MORE INTERESTING, AND "BETTER TELEVISION." PINOCHET HAS BEEN ADVISED BY SOFOFA REPRESENTATIVES, AMONG OTHERS, THAT THE "SI" ADS ARE COMING OFF SECOND BEST, AND REPORTEDLY HAS ANGRILY ORDERED DINACOS, THE

GOVERNMENT PRESS ASSOCIATION, WHO PRODUCES THE ADS, BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARDS.

29. (U) BESIDES THE NOVELTY OF SEEING THE "NO" ADVERTISED ON GOVERNMENT CHANNEL 7, OTHER NEW AND POWERFUL IMAGES HAVE BEEN THE APPEARANCE OF BAR ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT ALEJANDRO HALES ON TELEVISION FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS, NOT-SO-GENTLE CHIDING OF PINOCHET AND MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA FOR NOT RELINQUISHING POWER, AS THEY HAVE EACH SAID IN THE PAST THEY WOULD AND A MINI-DOCUMENTARY ABOUT THE 7-YEAR OLD SON OF AN EXILED FAMILY RETURNING TO CHILE FROM SWEDEN. STILL TO COME IS AN INTERVIEW WITH CARMEN GLORIA QUINTANA, THE BURNING VICTIM. THE OPPOSITION THEME SONG AND IMAGES ARE LIVELIER, LIGHTER, AND MORE MEMORABLE. THE "SI" FEATURES ESTABLISHMENT SINGERS IN A FORMAL SETTING SINGING TO EACH OTHER IN OPERA STYLE.

30. (C) NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA TOLD POLOFF THAT THE SI PUBLICITY IS "VERY BAD" AND POORLY FOCUSED. "WHILE THE OPPOSITION IS TALKING ABOUT A NEW LIGHT-HEARTED CHILE, THE "SI" IS LOOKING AT THE PAST AND USING HEAVY-HANDED HORROR FOOTAGE." (HE WAS REFERRING TO THE MUCH-CRITICIZED SHOTS OF TERRORISTS ATTACKING A WOMAN AND CHILD IN A CAR OUTSIDE LA MONEDA (SEE SITREP ONE). UDI FOR THE SI JAIME GUZMAN TOLD BRAZILIAN DIPLOMATS THAT ON A SCALE OF 7 TO 1, THE NO ADS GET A 7 AND THE SI A 4. WHILE THE RN AND UDI SEGMENTS FOR THE SI CAMPAIGN ARE FAIRLY UPBEAT, THEY ARE STILL

STULTIFIED IN COMPARISON WITH THE EASY, NATURAL FLOW OF THE NO ADVERTISING. THE PRESENTATIONS BY ARTURO VENEGAS (DISSIDENT SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC), SERGIO MIRANDA AND BY TWO SEPTOGENARIANS FROM RADICAL DEMOCRACY WERE, AS EXPECTED, A LIABILITY.

31. (U) ALTHOUGH ALL GOVERNMENT POLITICAL ADS WERE NOT REMOVED FROM TELEVISION ON SEPTEMBER 5, AS PROMISED BY THE DIRECTOR OF THE TELEVISION AND RADIO COUNCIL, THERE HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC DROP IN THE NUMBER OF ADS. ALL ADS ASKING VOTERS DIRECTLY TO VOTE "SI" HAVE BEEN TAKEN OFF THE AIR, AND SOME, SUCH AS THE DO YOU WANT TO RETURN TO THE UP? YOU DECIDE. SI." CHANNEL 7 SUFFERED A BRIEF LAPSE ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, WHEN IT RAN FOUR "SOMOS MILLIONES, SI" ADS BUT SINCE THEN THERE HAVE BEEN NO ADS CONTAINING THE WORD "SI" OR DIRECTLY ADVISING PEOPLE HOW TO VOTE. CHANNEL 11 HAS DROPPED ALL POLITICAL ADVERTISING, INCLUDING THE SOFT SELL PRO-GOVERNMENT ADS "LA LIBRE EMPRESA CREA" PRODUCED BY SOFOFA. CHANNEL 13 HAS AIRED "SOMOS MILLIONES" WITHOUT THE ":," AND THE SOFOFA ADS MUCH LESS FREQUENTLY THAN BEFORE.

32. (U) THE COURT HAS GIVEN THE TELEVISION CHANNELS FIVE DAYS TO PRESENT EVIDENCE FOR CONSIDERATION IN THE NO CAMPAIGN'S SUIT FOR EQUAL TIME TO REPLY TO PINOCHET'S FIRESIDE CHAT OF AUGUST 31. "SI" ADVOCATES MAY HAVE SIDESTEPPED THE LAW OF EQUAL TIME ON SEPTEMBER 4 WHEN PINOCHET HAD A 25-MINUTE INTERVIEW ON CHANNEL 7. PRESENTED AS A PRESS ITEM,

THE INTERVIEW WAS CONDUCTED BY NOELIA MIRANDA, PRESS ATTACHE, CHILEAN MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS. OPENINGS FOR THE OPPOSITION ON THE NEWS HAVE IMPROVED LATELY, BOTH IN QUALITY AND QUANTITY. OPINION POLLS

33. (U) THE ONLY NEW OPINION POLL PUBLISHED THIS WEEK CAME FROM LEFTIST THINK-TANK CIS. CONDUCTED IN GREATER SANTIAGO, IT CONFIRMED THAT THE METROPOLITAN REGION IS FIRMLY IN THE "NO" CAMP, SHOWING A SI/NO

SPLIT OF 20/43. IN A SEPARATE QUESTION, 67 PERCENT AGREED THAT "THERE MUST BE A CHANGE OF PRESIDENT" WHILE ONLY 21 PERCENT FELT THAT "PINOCHET SHOULD CONTINUE." AS REPORTED PREVIOUSLY BY OTHER POLLSTERS, SANTIAGUINOS INCREASINGLY RECOGNIZE THE ECONOMIC PROGRESS BEING EXPERIENCED BY THE COUNTRY. CIS NOTED THAT 53 PERCENT SAID THERE HAD BEEN ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT UNDER THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT (34 PERCENT DISAGREED), UP FROM 48 PERCENT IN MAY. COMMENT: THE OBVIOUS CONCLUSION IS THAT A CONTINUATION OF PINOCHET'S PRESIDENCY IS NOT SEEN BY MOST VOTERS AS NECESSARY FOR CONTINUED ECONOMIC PROGRESS. EFFORTS BY THE SI CAMPAIGN TO LINK A SI VOTE TO THE ECONOMY, RATHER THAN TO THE CANDIDATE HIMSELF, COMPRISE A TACIT ADMISSION THAT PINOCHET'S IMAGE IS A NEGATIVE FACTOR IN THE CAMPAIGN, AND ONE TO BE DOWNPLAYED OR AVOIDED. END COMMENT.

34. (U) IN AN MFA BRIEFING FOR AMBASSADORS, SKOPUS, GOVERNMENT SPONSORED POLLING FIRM, RELEASED A REPORT OF ITS LATEST NATIONAL POLL (PREVIOUSLY REPORTED) GIVING THE SI A 39/33 EDGE, AND PREDICTING A 59/41 VICTORY FOR THE SI. THE REPORT IS THE FIRST TO BE RELEASED PUBLICLY BY SKOPUS, REVEALS VIRTUALLY NO DATA EXCEPT THE SI/NO RATIO, AND DESIGNED PRIMARILY TO DEFLECT CRITICISM OF OPERATING IN SECRECY AND NOT DIVULGING ITS METHODOLOGY.

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PGOV, PREL, ELAB, PINS, CI
SUBJ: THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE: SITREP SIX
(SEPTEMBER 4 - SEPTEMBER 10)

1. (U) THIS IS THE SIXTH IN A SERIES OF WEEKLY SITREPS REPORTING DEVELOPMENTS RELEVANT TO THE UPCOMING CHILEAN PLEBISCITE WHICH WILL APPROVE OR DISAPPROVE AN EIGHT YEAR TERM FOR CURRENT PRESIDENT AUGUSTO PINOCHET. THE PLEBISCITE WILL BE HELD ON OCTOBER 5.

2. (C) SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS: THE PLEBISCITE'S WAR OF TELEVISION BEGAN IN EARNEST THIS WEEK WITH THE INITIATION OF THE 30 MINUTES OF FREE AIR TIME FOR THE "SI" AND "NO" CAMPAIGNS. COMPARING THE MERITS OF THE TWO SIDES' SPOTS HAS TAKEN ON THE AIR OF A SPORTS COMPETITION WITH AVID VIEWERS HOTLY DEBATING WHO CAME OUT ON TOP EACH NIGHT. THE CLEAR CONSENSUS IS THAT THE

"NO" CAMPAIGN IS PUTTING OUT BETTER TELEVISION. BOTH CAMPS ARE USING MODERN ADVERTISING TECHNIQUES AND PROJECTING "FEEL GOOD" IMAGES WHICH PROMPTED ONE U.S. REPORTER TO SAY, "I HAVE SEEN THE FUTURE OF CHILE, AND IT IS A MCDONALD'S AD." PINOCHET ADHERENTS ARE REPORTEDLY TRYING TO IMPROVE THEIR SPOTS WHICH ARE COMING ACROSS AS LESS COHERENT AND TOO HEAVY-HANDED. ASSOCIATING POLITICAL VIOLENCE WITH THE NO CAMPAIGN HAS EMERGED AS A CENTRAL THEME OF GOVERNMENT PROPAGANDA,
ALTHOUGH THERE HAS BEEN LITTLE GRIST FOR THAT MILL. A "UNITED LEFT" RALLY SEPTEMBER 10, WITH PROMINENT COMMUNIST PARTICIPATION, WAS ENTIRELY PEACEFUL. THE HIGHER PROFILE OF COMMUNISTS AND SOCIALISTS, HOWEVER, FOLLOWING THE RETURN OF MANY OF THEIR LEADERS FROM EXILE, HAS GIVEN THE "SI" CAMPAIGN AN OPENING TO LINK THE OPPOSITION TO THE BAD OLD DAYS OF ALLENDE.

3. (C) MEANWHILE, EFFORTS TO BOOST THE NEW, MODERATE, DEMOCRATIC PINOCHET INCLUDED MORE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF GOVERNMENT LARGESSE FOR WOMEN AND LOWER-INCOME FAMILIES. HOWEVER, THE CANDIDATE WILL REPORTEDLY AVOID CALLING MASS DEMONSTRATIONS GIVEN THE "SI" CAMPAIGN'S INABILITY TO TURN OUT CROWDS COMPARABLE TO THOSE PRODUCED BY THE "NO." FOLLOWING THEIR MASSIVE SHOWING AT THE RALLY IN SANTIAGO LAST WEEK, THE NO CAMPAIGN CONTINUES ON A ROLL WITH GOOD CROWDS IN THE PROVINCES. ONE MEMBER OF THE NO COALITION, THE CONTROVERSIAL HUMANIST PARTY, IS IN TROUBLE WITH THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE

WHICH QUESTIONS THE PARTY'S LEGALITY AFTER IT ABRUPTLY REPLACED ITS PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY GENERAL LAST WEEK IN PROCEEDINGS WHICH DID NOT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ELECTORAL LAW.

4. (C) ALTHOUGH ALL GOVERNMENT POLITICAL ADS WERE NOT REMOVED FROM TELEVISION AS PROMISED,

THERE HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC DROP IN THEIR NUMBER, AND OPPOSITION LEADERS ARE GETTING MORE COVERAGE ON NEWS PROGRAMS. LESS ENCOURAGING ARE REPORTS OF CONTINUED GOVERNMENT PRESSURE ON RURAL RESIDENTS TO SUPPORT THE PINOCHET CANDIDACY. NOTABLY, THE BISHOP OF CONCEPCION DENOUNCED LOCAL OFFICIALS' INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS. THE CHURCH IS EXPECTED TO CLOSELY MONITOR THE PROGRESS OF VOTING ON PLEBISCITE DAY. INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WILL BE DOING THE SAME, AND DELEGATIONS FROM SEVERAL WERE IN CHILE THIS WEEK TO UPDATE THEIR INFORMATION IN ANTICIPATION OF THAT EFFORT. END SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS.

RULES OF THE GAME

FURTHERMORE, ANY VOTER MAY ASK THE PRESIDENT OF THE VOTING TABLE TO CLEAR THE POLLING AREA IF THAT INDIVIDUAL FEELS HIS RIGHT OF FREE VOTING ACCESS IS BEING COMPROMISED.

HAVE ALWAYS BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR GUARANTEEING PUBLIC ORDER IN CHILEAN ELECTIONS. WE NOTE WITH INTEREST THAT THE LATEST REGULATIONS OMIT ANY MENTION OF THE TRADITIONAL PROHIBITION ON ARMED FORCES' PRESENCE WITHIN 20 METERS OF THE POLLS, WHICH IS REITERATED IN ARTICLE 114 OF THE RECENTLY PASSED VOTING LAW. END COMMENT.

7. (U) THE REGULATIONS ALSO INCLUDE SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TREATMENT OF FOREIGN VISITORS OBSERVING THE POLLING PROCESS. FOREIGN VISITORS WILL BE EXTENDED THE SAME RIGHTS OF VIEWING THE POLLING PROCESS AS RESIDENT JOURNALISTS OR CITIZENS, PROVIDED THEIR PRESENCE DOES NOT OBSTRUCT THE VOTING PROCESS. (AN INSTRUCTION THAT FOREIGN VISITORS MUST REFRAIN FROM INTERFERING IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS WAS REITERATED IN A RECENT DIPLOMATIC NOTE RECEIVED BY FOREIGN EMBASSIES IN CHILE.) THE CONCERN REMAINS THAT THOSE VOTING TABLE PRESIDENTS WHO ARE PRO-GOVERNMENT, OR SIMPLY ANTI-FOREIGN, COULD AT ANY TIME ASK THE MILITARY TO CLEAR THE AREA OF ALL BYSTANDERS AND OBSERVERS. WHETHER THIS WILL IN FACT HAPPEN WE WILL SEE ON OCTOBER 5.

CANDIDACY. BEFORE AN ENTHUSIASTIC THRONG OF THOUSANDS OF WOMEN IN VALPARAISO, PRESIDENT PINOCHET ANNOUNCED ON SEPTEMBER 8 THAT HE WAS SPONSORING LEGISLATION TO IMPROVE THE LEGAL STATUS OF MARRIED WOMEN. THE PROPOSED BILL, WHICH HAS BEEN UNDER STUDY THE PAST YEAR BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH, WOULD GIVE WOMEN EQUAL RIGHTS IN CHILD-REARING DECISIONS AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF FAMILY FINANCES. AT THE SAME TIME, THE LEGISLATIVE JUNTA PASSED A LAW GIVING MUNICIPALITIES A TOTAL OF 70,000 NEW HOUSING

SUBSIDIES FOR LOW-INCOME FAMILIES. PRESIDENT PINOCHET ALSO PERSONALLY ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK THAT THE GOC WAS FORGIVING 90 PERCENT OF POST-DUE DEBTS OF OVER 200,000 WATER SERVICE CUSTOMERS. THIS MEASURE WILL PRIMARILY FAVOR THOSE IN THE LOWEST FOURTH OF THE INCOME STRATA. THE COST TO THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE ABOUT 500 MILLION PESOS (2 MILLION DOLLARS).

9. (U) PINOCHET HAS CONTINUED POLISHING HIS MODERATE, POPULIST IMAGE. SPEAKING TO A GROUP OF SUPPORTERS IN LAS CONDES, HE SAID THAT HIS POLITICAL ADVERSARIES WILL HAVE A PLACE IN THE "NEW DEMOCRACY" HE PLANS TO INAUGURATE. REFERRING TO THE "RENOVATED SOCIALISTS," HE CONCEDED THAT IT WOULD INDEED BE HEALTHY FOR CHILE IF THE SOCIALISTS WERE TO TURN, AS MANY HAVE SUGGESTED, INTO "CHAMPIONS OF PRIVATE PROPERTY."

10. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 7, RN PRESIDENT SERGIO ARPA AND OTHER PARTY MEMBERS WERE ATTACKED AND KICKED WHILE LEAVING A

MIR. SPEAKING IN OSORNO, JARPA ACCUSED THE NO
CAMPAIGN OF PERPETRATING "FRAUD" IN ITS PROPAGANDA
BY IMPLYING THAT HAPPINESS, PEACE AND SOCIAL ACCORD WILL RESULT FROM AN OPPOSITION VICTORY.
"THE TRUE FACE OF THE NO IS AGGRESSION AND INJURY," HE CHARGED. HE LATER ADMITTED,
HOWEVER, THAT THE ONLY THING THAT HAD HAPPENED WAS THAT HIS HAT HAD BEEN KNOCKED OFF, AND ONE OF THE CROWD HAD PICKED IT UP AND RETURNED IT TO HIM.

1. (U) THE SI CAMPAIGN WAS GIVEN MORE AMMUNITION
FOR ITS CAMPAIGN TO PORTRAY THE OPPOSITION AS THE FORCES OF CHAOS AND VIOLENCE WHEN FINANCE MINISTER

HERNAN BUCHI WAS ATTACKED BY STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CONCEPCION ON SEPTEMBER 9. WHILE AT THE UNIVERSITY TO GIVE A SPEECH, BUCHI WAS CONFRONTED
BY A ROWDY GROUP OF ABOUT 100 STUDENTS. HE WAS CUT
ON THE NECK BY A ROCK, AND NARROWLY ESCAPED FURTHER INJURY AS A HAIL OF ROCKS BROKE THE REAR WINDOW OF

THE CAR IN WHICH HE FLED THE SCENE. HOWEVER, SI CAMPAIGN PARTISANS WERE NOT THE ONLY VICTIMS OF PERSONAL VIOLENCE THIS WEEK. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICE PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR WAS SUCCESSFUL IN GETTING COURT ORDERED POLICE PROTECTION FOR HIS HOME AFTER ARSONISTS ATTACKED IT AND BURNED A VEHICLE. THERE HAD BEEN A SERIES OF ATTACKS ON ZALDIVAR'S HOUSE.

12. (S) FURTHER ON POLITICAL VIOLENCE, THAT PCCH LEADERS HAVE EXPRESSED EXTREME SATISFACTION WITH THE HIGH LEVEL OF ACTIVE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR SCHEDULED AND SPONTANEOUS DEMONSTRATIONS WHICH HAVE OCCURRED SINCE PINOCHET WAS NAMED THE CANDIDATE. FOR THE FUTURE, THE FPMR WITH ASSISTANCE FROM THE PCCH IS CREATING NEW OPERATIVE GROUPS AND FORMULATING PLANS FOR VIOLENCE TO BE PUT INTO EFFECT BEGINNING PLEBISCITE DAY. THIS CONFIRMS OTHER INDICATIONS WE HAVE RECEIVED THAT THE COMMUNISTS ARE PLANNING TO AVOID VIOLENCE DURING THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD. [redacted] B1 B1

13. (C) SOURCES IN THE SI CAMPAIGN INFORM US THAT PINOCHET DOES NOT WISH TO ORGANIZE ANY MORE "MASSIVE" DEMONSTRATIONS BETWEEN NOW AND OCTOBER 2, WHEN POLITICAL HEADQUARTERS

AND ELECTORAL ACTIVITIES SHUT DOWN. THE PRIMARY REASONS ARE TO AVOID NEGATIVE COMPARISONS WITH THE NO CAMPAIGN, WHICH HAS ALREADY SHOWN IT CAN MOBILIZE PEOPLE IN FAR SUPERIOR NUMBERS. PINOCHET STRATEGISTS ALSO WANT TO AVOID ADVERSE PUBLICITY GIVEN THE PRESENCE OF NO CAMPAIGN CAMERA CREWS EAGER TO FILM INCIDENTS SHOWING MAYORS AND INDENDENTS TRUCKING PEOPLE TO "OBLIGATORY" RALLIES.

14. (U) NO CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES HAVE QUICKENED THEIR PACE, FUELED BY HOPES AND NEW EXPECTATIONS OVER THE LIFTING OF MANY RESTRICTIONS ON POLITICAL MEETINGS AND THE POWERFUL BOOST GIVEN BY THE FREE TV ADVERTISING. WHEREVER THEY APPEAR, SI CAMPAIGNERS ARE BEING CHALLENGED BY YOUTHS FROM THE NO CAMP WHO APPEAR WITH BALLOONS AND THE FESTIVE CAMPAIGN SONG. OVER 100 STUDENTS WERE DETAINED IN COUNTERDEMONSTRATIONS WHEN THE PRESIDENT MADE A BRIEF APPEARANCE THIS WEEK IN VALPARAISO. ON SEPTEMBER 9, A GATHERING ORGANIZED TO PROTEST THE GOVERNMENT'S ADMINISTRATION OF LAND IN EASTER ISLAND WAS TURNED INTO A NO CAMPAIGN DEMONSTRATION, A FIRST FOR THE REMOTE ISLAND RESIDENTS. A TOTAL OF 1,113 VOTERS ARE REGISTERED ON THE ENTIRE ISLAND.

OPENED, THEY NOTED AN "EXPLOSION OF PARTICIPATION" IN THE PROVINCES. THE CONSERVATIVE SOUTHERN CITY OF OSORNO HAS HAD THREE GATHERINGS ATTRACTING TWO TO THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE IN THE PAST 20 DAYS. IN 1980, HORMAZABAL HAD TO HOLD CLANDESTINE POLITICAL MEETINGS TO GET THE OPPOSITION'S MESSAGE ACROSS IN AGRICULTURAL TOWNS SUCH AS SAN VINCENTE, A CITY WHICH HAS 17,000 PEOPLE NEAR RANCAGUA. LAST WEEK HE OPENED PDC HEADQUARTERS THERE AND 2000 CAMPESINOS TURNED OUT.

16. (C) ONE KEY TO THE STRONG GRASSROOTS RESPONSE IS THAT THE CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN LEGITIMIZED AND BROADENED ITS BASE. HORMAZABAL SAID THAT THE SEPTEMBER 4 ACUSO RALLY DREW

PEOPLE FROM POOR TO WELL-TO-DO, AND ITS APPEAL HAS STRENGTHENED SINCE IT CAME FROM UNION AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, NOT THE POLITICIANS. THE LARGEST GROUP THAT TURNS OUT AT PROVINCIAL MEETINGS ARE THOSE WHO LACK PARTY AFFILIATION. THEY FEEL PROTECTED, HE SAID, BECAUSE THE MEETINGS ARE NOW OFFICIALLY AUTHORIZED. TO REINFORCE THIS OPENING, NO PARTY LEADERS ARE NOW TRAVELING NON-STOP TO SMALL CITIES (15,000 TO 50,000)

AND PLAN TO CONCENTRATE ON SMALL TOWNS (15,000 AND UNDER) ON SEPTEMBER 21-26. SINCE THE CAMPAIGN BEGAN, FINDING AN OPPOSITION LEADER WHO IS NOT ON A WHISTLESTOP TOUR HAS BEEN EXTREMELY CHANCEY.

17. (U) THE RETURN OF FAMOUS LEFTIST EXILES WILL BE FRONT-PAGE NEWS THROUGHOUT THE REST OF THE CAMPAIGN, HELPING PINOCHET TO IDENTIFY THE POPULAR UNITY (UP) GOVERNMENT WITH THE NO CAMPAIGN. PCCH GENERAL SECRETARY LUIS CORVALAN IS EXPECTED TO GET A MASSIVE WELCOME WHEN HE RETURNS. SO IS ALLENDE'S WIDOW HORTENSIA BUSSI, WHO WILL ARRIVE FROM MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER 16. UP MINISTERS JAIME SUAREZ (SOCIALIST) AND JOSE CADEMARTORI (COMMUNIST) HAVE COME BACK TO MUCH FANFARE. VOLODIO TEITELBOIM'S STATEMENT FROM MOSCOW THAT HE WOULD RETURN TO WORK FOR THE NO CAMPAIGN GOT A FRONT-PAGE HEADLINE IN EL MERCURIO. SO DID EX-ECONOMY MINISTER JOSE CADEMARTORI'S STATEMENT THAT MANY PEOPLE HAVE "GOOD MEMORIES" OF THE UP. ONE PLEASANT SURPRISE CAME FROM FORMER MIR SPOKESMAN JUAN PARRA, WHO ON RETURNING TO CHILE CRITICIZED THE ATTACKS SPONSORED BY THE MIR AS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

SECRET

18. (C) A DISCORDANT NOTE WAS STRUCK IN THE NO CAMPAIGN BY THE HUMANIST PARTY. AFTER PRESSING FOR THEIR RIGHTS TO HAVE SEPARATE TV SPOTS WITHIN THE 15 MINUTES ALLOCATED TO THE NO, PH PRESIDENT JOSE TOMAS SAENZ AND GENERAL SECRETARY FRANSCISCO GRANELLA SUDDENLY ANNOUNCED THEIR RESIGNATION ON SEPTEMBER 2 TO MAKE WAY FOR YOUNGER LEADERSHIP. SOON STORIES HIT THE PRESS THAT ARGENTINE HUMANIST LEADER MARIO RODRIGUEZ COBO ("SILO"), WHO HAD FOUNDED THE MOVEMENT IN CHILE, INSISTED ON THE TOP LEADERS' REMOVAL FOR OPPOSING HIS INSTRUCTIONS. ON SEPTEMBER 6 SAENZ AND GRANELLA CONFIDED TO US THAT THEY HAD COME UNDER INTENSE PRESSURE FROM SILO AND THE PARTY'S GROWING LEFT WING TO

TAKE A MORE RADICAL POSITION ON THE PLEBISCITE, REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE THE LEGITIMACY OF A SI VICTORY, AND TO USE THE FREE TIME TO PROMOTE THE PARTY'S IDEAS.

19. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 9, THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE DECLARED THE PH ILLEGAL, DUE TO THEIR HAVING FAILED TO HAVE A NOTARY PRESENT AT THE ELECTION OF NEW PARTY LEADERS AS REQUIRED BY THE POLITICAL PARTIES LAW. THE PH HAS LEGAL APPEALS TO PURSUE BEFORE THIS RULING BECOMES FINAL, BUT THE PARTY FACES THE REAL POSSIBILITY OF LOSING ITS LEGAL STATUS.

GENARO ARRIAGADA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE CAMPAIGN HAS NOT REACHED ITS TARGET OF 66,000 APODERADOS, ASSURING COVERAGE FOR ALL OF THE 22,000 VOTING TABLES THROUGHOUT CHILE. BUT CHIEF AMONG THEM ARE THAT SMALL FIRMS HAVE BEEN TAKEN FOR GRANTED BOTH BY THE GOVERNMENT AND BY LARGER BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS. ALSO, MANY SMALL RETAILERS HAVE BEEN TOUCHED IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER BY THE GOVERNMENT'S REPRESSION. WE WERE TOLD THAT WHILE SUCH FIRMS WOULD BENEFIT FROM AN ADJUSTMENT OF THE UNIDAD DE FOMENTO (UF) (THE UNIT OF ACCOUNT FOR DEBT INSTRUMENTS), OTHER SECTORS OF THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY WOULD BE HURT. 5. (U) IN HIS INTERVIEW FOR EL MERCURIO MAGAGINE THIS WEEK, A SMILING, RELAXED PINOCHET DECLINED TO SAY WHEN HE WOULD STEP DOWN AS ARMY COMMANDER IN CHIEF. INDICATING THAT HE TOOK EACH DECISION WHEN THE RIGHT MOMENT CAME, HE COQUETTISHLY MENTIONED THAT SOONER RATHER THAN LATER HE WOULD HAVE TO NAME A NEW ARMY COMMANDER. HE SAID UNEQUIVOCALLY HE WOULD

RESPECT THE RESULTS IF THE NO WON THE PLEBISCITE, BUT DOUBTED THE OPPOSITION WOULD RETURN THE FAVOR. ASKED HOW HE WOULD GET ALONG WITH A CONGRESS AND REDUCED POWERS, HE RESPONDED EMOTIONALLY THAT HE KNEW AND HAD WORKED UNDER A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, AND LIVED TO SEE THE DESTRUCTION OF THAT DEMOCRACY. "I AM A DEMOCRAT AND WILL FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY," HE ADDED.

26. (S) PINOCHET'S RELAXED MANNER IS PARTIALLY BASED ON CONFIDENCE THAT HE HAS THE ARMED FORCES UNITED BEHIND HIM. A CHILEAN GENERAL OFFICER COMMENTED THAT THE PLEBISCITE CANDIDATE NOMINATING MEETING ON 30 AUGUST WAS NEITHER ACRIMONIOUS NOR DIVISIVE IN SPITE OF HESITATION ON THE PART OF CARABINERO DIRECTOR GENERAL STANGE TO NOMINATE PINOCHET AND CONDITIONS LEVIED ON PINOCHET PRIOR TO THE MEETING BY THE OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS IN EXCHANGE FOR THEIR SUPPORT

27. (S) SEVERAL FIELD GRADE ARMY OFFICERS BELIEVE THE LOW LEVEL OF CIVIL DISTURBANCES AFTER THE NOMINATION ON 30 AUGUST IS AN INDICATION THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS MORE POPULAR SUPPORT THAN IT DID IN 1983. ANOTHER ARMY OFFICER COMMENTED THAT THE VIOLENT ACTIVITIES OF THE NIGHT WERE CARRIED OUT BY EXTREMISTS IN THE FPMR, MIR AND LAURTARO FACTION OF MAPU. SINCE THESE GROUPS ARE BEING SUBMERGED IN GENERAL CIVIL DISTURBANCES AND PRODUCING NO DRAMATIC NEW TERRORISM MATERIAL, THE GOVERNMENT HAS RESORTED TO RETROSPECTIVES TO RECALL SPECTACULAR TERRORIST INCIDENTS OF THE PAST TO FUEL ITS CAMPAIGN ON

POLITICAL VIOLENCE. THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT PINOCHET IN 1986 WAS GIVEN WIDE PUBLICITY WITH THE PRESIDENT PRAYING WITH THE FAMILY OF A GUARD KILLED IN THAT INCIDENT. 28. (U) THE BIGGEST CAMPAIGN STORY THIS WEEK IS TELEVISION. THE 15 MINUTES FOR BOTH THE "NO" AND THE "SI" APPARENTLY HAVE A MUCH LARGER AUDIENCE THAN HAD BEEN PREDICTED. CHANNEL 13 SAYS THAT DURING THE HALF HOUR PROGRAM, ITS RATINGS FELL ONLY FIVE PERCENT. ALL OF CHILE IS TALKING ABOUT THE QUALITY OF THE ADS, AND EXCEPT FOR SOME FERVENT PINOCHET SUPPORTERS, THE CONSENSUS IS CLEARLY THAT THE "NO" ADS ARE SUPERIOR, MORE INTERESTING, AND "BETTER TELEVISION." PINOCHET HAS BEEN ADVISED BY SOFOFA REPRESENTATIVES, AMONG OTHERS, THAT THE "SI" ADS ARE COMING OFF SECOND BEST, AND REPORTEDLY HAS ANGRILY ORDERED DINACOS, THE

GOVERNMENT PRESS ASSOCIATION, WHO PRODUCES THE ADS, BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARDS.

29. (U) BESIDES THE NOVELTY OF SEEING THE "NO" ADVERTISED ON GOVERNMENT CHANNEL 7, OTHER NEW AND POWERFUL IMAGES HAVE BEEN THE APPEARANCE OF BAR ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT ALEJANDRO HALES ON TELEVISION FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS, NOT-SO-GENTLE CHIDING OF PINOCHET AND MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA FOR NOT RELINQUISHING POWER, AS THEY HAVE EACH SAID IN THE PAST THEY WOULD AND A MINI-DOCUMENTARY ABOUT THE 7-YEAR OLD SON OF AN EXILED FAMILY RETURNING TO CHILE FROM SWEDEN. STILL TO COME IS AN INTERVIEW WITH CARMEN GLORIA QUINTANA, THE BURNING VICTIM. THE OPPOSITION THEME SONG AND IMAGES ARE LIVELIER, LIGHTER, AND MORE MEMORABLE. THE "SI" FEATURES ESTABLISHMENT SINGERS IN A FORMAL SETTING SINGING TO EACH OTHER IN OPERA STYLE.

30. (C) NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA TOLD POLOFF THAT THE SI PUBLICITY IS "VERY BAD" AND POORLY FOCUSED. "WHILE THE OPPOSITION IS TALKING ABOUT A NEW LIGHT-HEARTED CHILE, THE "SI" IS LOOKING AT THE PAST AND USING HEAVY-HANDED HORROR FOOTAGE." (HE WAS REFERRING TO THE MUCH-CRITICIZED SHOTS OF TERRORISTS ATTACKING A WOMAN AND CHILD IN A CAR OUTSIDE LA MONEDA (SEE SITREP ONE). UDI FOR THE SI JAIME GUZMAN TOLD BRAZILIAN DIPLOMATS THAT ON A SCALE OF 7 TO 1, THE NO ADS GET A 7 AND THE SI A 4. WHILE THE RN AND UDI SEGMENTS FOR THE SI CAMPAIGN ARE FAIRLY UPBEAT, THEY ARE STILL

STULTIFIED IN COMPARISON WITH THE EASY, NATURAL FLOW OF THE NO ADVERTISING. THE PRESENTATIONS BY ARTURO VENEGAS (DISSIDENT SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC), SERGIO MIRANDA AND BY TWO SEPTOGENARIANS FROM RADICAL DEMOCRACY WERE, AS EXPECTED, A LIABILITY.

1. (U) ALTHOUGH ALL GOVERNMENT POLITICAL ADS WERE NOT REMOVED FROM TELEVISION ON SEPTEMBER 5, AS PROMISED BY THE DIRECTOR OF THE TELEVISION AND RADIO COUNCIL, THERE HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC DROP IN THE NUMBER OF ADS. ALL ADS ASKING VOTERS DIRECTLY TO VOTE "SI" HAVE BEEN TAKEN OFF THE AIR, AND SOME, SUCH AS THE DO YOU WANT TO RETURN TO THE UP? YOU DECIDE. SI." CHANNEL 7 SUFFERED A BRIEF LAPSE ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, WHEN IT RAN FOUR "SOMOS MILLIONES, SI" ADS BUT SINCE THEN THERE HAVE BEEN NO ADS CONTAINING THE WORD "SI" OR DIRECTLY ADVISING PEOPLE HOW TO VOTE. CHANNEL 11 HAS DROPPED ALL POLITICAL ADVERTISING, INCLUDING THE SOFT SELL PRO-GOVERNMENT ADS "LA LIBRE EMPRESA CREA" PRODUCED BY SOFOFA. CHANNEL 13 HAS AIRED "SOMOS MILLIONES" WITHOUT THE ", " AND THE SOFOFA ADS MUCH LESS FREQUENTLY THAN BEFORE.

RICARDO LAGOS THIS WEEK ON CHANNEL 13 CRITICIZED THE GOVERNMENT FOR "ACTS AGAINST THE DEMONSTRATORS OF THE 'NO'" DURING THE RALLY ON SUNDAY.

OPINION POLLS

33. (U) THE ONLY NEW OPINION POLL PUBLISHED THIS WEEK CAME FROM LEFTIST THINK-TANK CIS. CONDUCTED IN GREATER SANTIAGO, IT CONFIRMED THAT THE METROPOLITAN REGION IS FIRMLY IN THE "NO" CAMP, SHOWING A SI/NO

SPLIT OF 20/43. IN A SEPARATE QUESTION, 67 PERCENT AGREED THAT "THERE MUST BE A CHANGE OF PRESIDENT" WHILE ONLY 21 PERCENT FELT THAT "PINOCHET SHOULD CONTINUE." AS REPORTED PREVIOUSLY BY OTHER POLLSTERS, SANTIAGUINOS INCREASINGLY RECOGNIZE THE ECONOMIC PROGRESS BEING EXPERIENCED BY THE COUNTRY. CIS NOTED THAT 53 PERCENT SAID THERE HAD BEEN ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT UNDER THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT (34 PERCENT DISAGREED), UP FROM 48 PERCENT IN MAY. COMMENT: THE OBVIOUS CONCLUSION IS THAT A CONTINUATION OF PINOCHET'S PRESIDENCY IS NOT SEEN BY MOST VOTERS AS NECESSARY FOR CONTINUED ECONOMIC PROGRESS. EFFORTS BY THE SI CAMPAIGN TO LINK A SI VOTE TO THE ECONOMY, RATHER THAN TO THE CANDIDATE HIMSELF, COMPRISE A TACIT ADMISSION THAT PINOCHET'S IMAGE IS A NEGATIVE FACTOR IN THE CAMPAIGN, AND ONE TO BE DOWNPLAYED OR AVOIDED. END COMMENT.

4. (U) IN AN MFA BRIEFING FOR AMBASSADORS, SKOPUS, GOVERNMENT SPONSORED POLLING FIRM, RELEASED A REPORT OF ITS LATEST NATIONAL POLL (PREVIOUSLY REPORTED) GIVING THE SI A 39/33 EDGE, AND PREDICTING A 59/41 VICTORY FOR THE SI. THE REPORT IS THE FIRST TO BE RELEASED PUBLICLY BY SKOPUS, REVEALS VIRTUALLY NO DATA EXCEPT THE SI/NO RATIO, AND DESIGNED PRIMARILY TO DEFLECT CRITICISM OF OPERATING IN SECRECY AND NOT DIVULGING ITS METHODOLOGY.

Senator John Danforth
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Danforth:

I am writing about a matter that I feel should be brought to your attention. I have received news that a St. Louis woman, Lind McCluskey, who is a Maryknoll Lay Missioner working in Chile, was recently beaten by members of the police in that country. She and her companion, a priest, were outside their houses in their own neighborhood and were doing nothing to provoke police attention, let alone a brutal attack. The priest was so severely beaten that he required medical attention. The date of these attacks was August 30, the day that Augusto Pinochet announced his candidacy for the Chilean plebiscite.

As you know, this kind of repression and brutality is common in Chile under Pinochet. While it is no less intolerable when it occurs to Chileans, the fact that the police feel able to attack North American religious workers indicates that there is little being done to control the activities and violence of the police in Chile. Clearly, the United States government must seek such control if the Chilean government will not.

In the United States we proclaim that human rights abuses will not be tolerated in the countries we support. I urge you to investigate this incident and consider opening up the issue of continued support for this repressive and violent regime.

Sincerely,

2. AMBASSADOR AND DCM MET SEPTEMBER 13 WITH MSGR. CARLOS GONZALES, BISHOP OF TALCA AND PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE, FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE BISHOPS HAD ISSUED THEIR STATEMENT CALLING FOR A CONSENSUS CANDIDATE AND THE SUBSEQUENT NOMINATION BY THE MILITARY COMMANDERS OF PINOCHET.

3. GONZALES MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE WAS SATISFIED AND PROUD OF THE BISHOPS' STATEMENT, EVEN THOUGH, HE SAID SMILINGLY, IT HAD BEEN CALLED NAIVE WHEN IT WAS ISSUED AND EVEN THOUGH IT FAILED TO BLOCK PINOCHET'S

NOMINATION. HE ALSO MADE CLEAR THAT THE BISHOPS HAD NOT REGARDED IT AS NIAVE AT THE TIME; UP UNTIL AUGUST 25, WHEN HE LEFT SANTIAGO FOR TALCA, THE IDEA OF A [redacted]AL

[redacted]AL

CONSENSUS CANDIDATE WAS PROSPERING. HE WAS TAKEN ABACK BY THE EASE WITH WHICH PINOCHET WAS NOMINATED ON AUGUST 30. ACCORDING TO ONE REPORT HE HAD HEARD, PINOCHET WALKED INTO THE MEETING WITH THE OTHER THREE . COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF AND SAID, "I AM THE CANDIDATE" -- DEFYING ANY OF THEM TO DISAGREE (AND TRASHING THE ELABORATE PROCEDURES THAT HAD BEEN AGREED TO AND PUBLISHED). HE ASKED IF WE HAD ANY INFORMATION ON WHAT HAD HAPPENED. THE AMBASSADOR TOLD HIM OF HIS CONVERSATION WITH GEN. STANGE ON AUGUST , IN WHICH STANGE HAD SAID THE ISSUE WAS NOT SETTLED, AND HIS CONVERSATION WITH MATTHEI SIX DAYS LATER
IN WHICH MATTHEI SAID THE DIE WAS CAST AND PINOCHET WAS THE NOMINEE. ONE COULD ONLY CONJECTURE THAT SOMETHING HAD HAPPENED IN THE INTERIM.

4. GONZALES SAID "A COUP TOOK PLACE ON AUGUST 30" -- THAT IS, PINOCHET IN EFFECT SEIZED TOTAL CONTROL. AND HE WON'T GIVE IT UP -- NO DICTATOR IN HISTORY EVER HAS, VOLUNTARILY. THAT'S WHY HE, GONZALES, IS WORRIED ABOUT THE PERIOD JUST BEFORE AND AFTER THE PLEBISCITE. HE DOESN'T KNOW WHAT PINOCHET WILL DO TO NULLIFY WHAT GONZALES SAID UNHESITATINGLY WILL BE THE VICTORY OF THE "NO" AT THE POLLS, BUT PINOCHET WILL DO SOMETHING. AMBASSADOR ASKED WHAT THE CHURCH COULD DO. GONZALES SAID THE BISHOPS WOULD ISSUE A STATEMENT AFTER THE RESULTS ARE ANNOUNCED, A STATEMENT THAT WILL OBVIOUSLY BE VERY IMPORTANT IN INFLUENCING PUBLIC REACTIONS. HE SAID HE WOULD WELCOME ANY SUGGESTIONS THE AMBASSADOR MIGHT HAVE AND ASKED THAT WE STAY IN TOUCH.
MEANWHILE, GONZALES SAID HE WAS DISTURBED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S CENSURE OF THE OPPOSITION'S TV SLOTS AND BY REPORTS OF VOTERS IN POOR AREAS BEING DEPRIVED OF THEIR ID CARDS WHICH THEY NEED TO VOTE.

5. GONZALES SAID THAT IF THE "NO" IS PERMITTED TO WIN, THEN IN HIS VIEW THE OPPOSITION WILL INITIATE NEGOTIATIONS ON THE TRANSITION WITH THE JUNTA. HE BELIEVES THE OPPOSITION PARTIES CAN AGREE ON A SINGLE OR PRINCIPAL NEGOTIATOR, AND THEN OBSERVED THAT OF COURS

IF THAT PERSON IS SUCCESSFUL, HE WOULD INEVITABLY BECOME A CANDIDATE IN THE DECEMBER 1989 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS WHICH ARE SUPPOSED TO FOLLOW A "NO" VICTORY.

6. GONZALES MENTIONED IN PASSING THAT HE AND THE CONFERENCE HAD ISSUED NO STATEMENT, AS THE U.S. HAD, WELCOMING PINOCHET'S DECISION TO PERMIT THE RETURN OF ALL EXILES. THE REASON WAS THAT IT WAS SO CLEARLY MOTIVATED NOT BY HUMANITARIANISM, BUT BY A DESIRE TO COMPLICATE MATTERS FOR THE OPPOSITION. WE, HE SAID, WERE MORE GENEROUS. WE ASKED WHETHER HE REALLY MEANT TO CALL US NAIVE.

7. COMMENT: THE BISHOPS, AS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED, HAD RECEIVED MESSAGES FROM AT LEAST STANGE AND PERHAPS ALSO MATTHEI, LEADING THEM TO BELIEVE THAT THE CONSENSUS CANDIDATE HAD A CHANCE AND THAT A STATEMENT BY THE BISHOPS CALLING FOR ONE WOULD HELP. GONZALES WAS DEEPLY DISAPPOINTED BY THE COMMANDERS' FAILURE TO DELIVER AFTER THE BISHOPS GAVE THEM WHAT THEY ASKED -- ALTHOUGH HE BELIEVES (CORRECTLY, IN OUR VIEW) THAT THE

R

New York, September 14,1988

Excellency,

On 1 September 1988 I informed Your Excellency regarding the plebiscite to be held in Chile on 5 October 1988, and about the measures adopted by the Government in compliance with the schedule set in the Political Constitution of my country, for the purpose of fully reestablishing democratic institutionality.

To supplement the above, I believe it may prove useful to Your Excellency to have additional information confirming that the plebiscite will be free, clear and informative, representing a genuine expression of the will of the Chilean people.

The total number of citizens enrolled in the Electoral Register who will have the right to vote, now approximates 7.348.437 out of a potential total 8.073.158 voters, or about 91 per cent of the Chilean voting public, a new record in the country's political history.

In addition to the ample and total freedom of the press that permits the different political parties and trends to daily express their opinions, there is the legal provision granting the candidate to the Presidency of the Republic and the opposition equal daily time periods, free of charge, on Chilean television, so they can explain their ideas and carry on political propaganda.

In accordance with the Constitutional Organic Law on popular vote and scrutiny thereof, I believe it is also necessary to emphasize the public character which the electoral act will have and the broad control measures granted to all the legally constituted political parties to name representatives at each of the voting booths, in the Electoral Offices, in the precincts, in the Electoral Boards, and in the Electoral Colleges.

Likewise, I wish to call attention to the fact that there are no restrictions of any kind on travel to Chile during the plebiscite, with foreign visitors merely complying with the normal provisions for such trips. The visits of numerous personalities and journalists from all parts of the world have already been announced.

The Chilean Government, reaffirming its cooperation with the United Nations system, has again given its consent to having Mr. Fernando Volio Jimenez, Special Rapporteur of that Organization, visit the country during the plebiscite, with the complete freedom of action which he has always been granted.

With regard to the coming visit of the Special Rapporteur Mr. Volio, it is interesting to stress that in recent statements to the press in Costa Rica, he said that the Chilean termination of the exile provision "is a sign of the opening and transition towards representative democracy". He also added that with the recent measures adopted by the Chilean Government, "the basic and fundamental guarantees for holding the plebiscite have been given".

I avail myself of this opportunity to reiterate to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

1. SUMMARY: THE ATTENTION OF ALL SEGMENTS OF CHILE'S ACADEMIC COMMUNITY IS FIXED ON THE PLEBISCITE. STUDENTS, PROFESSORS, DEANS, ADMINISTRATORS AND STAFF HAVE TEMPORARILY PUT ASIDE OTHER ISSUES TO FOCUS ON THE PLEBISCITE AND CAMPAIGNING. ALL SIDES SEEM INTERESTED IN KEEPING CAMPUSES CALM BETWEEN NOW AND THE PLEBISCITE. STUDENT FEDERATION LEADERS, ALL IDENTIFIED WITH THE OPPOSITION, ARE CALLING FOR NON-VIOLENCE IN PRE-PLEBISCITE ACTIVITIES. IN AUGUST GOVERNMENT-APPOINTED UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATORS WON STUDENT TRANQUILITY BY ACCEDING TO DEMANDS FOR LIBERALIZED POLICIES ON FINANCIAL AID AND ARE CURRENTLY KEEPING A LOW PROFILE BY NOT PUSHING ANY NEW UNIVERSITY REFORM MEASURES. HOWEVER, TENSION ON CAMPUSES OVER THE PLEBISCITE IS PALPABLE AND GROWING AND A NUMBER OF UNRESOLVED ISSUES ARE SURE TO RESURFACE AFTER OCTOBER 5. CREDIBLE RUMORS ARE UNCLASSIFIED CIRCULATING THAT UNIVERSITIES WILL REMAIN CLOSED THROUGH OCTOBER 5 AFTER THE SEPTEMBER 17-19 NATIONAL HOLIDAYS. EXPECTATIONS ARE THAT CONFLICT OVER UNIVERSITY ISSUES NOW ON HOLD WILL RETURN TO THE CAMPUSES AFTER OCT. 5. A "SI" WIN, ESPECIALLY A NARROW ONE, WILL SEND STUDENTS TO THE STREETS ALONG WITH OTHER GROUPS TO DEFEND THE "NO." END SUMMARY.

2. ALL SIDES SEEM GENUINELY INTERESTED IN KEEPING UNIVERSITIES CALM IN THE LAST WEEKS BEFORE THE PLEBISCITE. THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE (UCH) DEMONSTRATED THIS MOST CLEARLY WHEN THEY GAVE IN TO STUDENT DEMANDS THAT POLICIES ON FINANCIAL AID TO STUDENTS BE RELAXED. AFTER A 17 DAY STRIKE BY STUDENTS AT UCH IN LATE JULY AND EARLY AUGUST, DURING WHICH STUDENT S OCCUPIED 9 OF THE UNIVERSITY'S 13 FACULTIES, UCH ADMINISTRATORS AGREED TO ACCEPT ALL OF THE STUDENT'S DEMANDS. THESE INCLUDE: 1) THE SUSPENSION OF FINES FOR LATE PAYMENT OF TUITION; 2) AN INCREASE IN THE AMOUNT OF FINANCIAL AID AVAILABLE ROUGHLY EQUIVALENT TO THIS YEAR'S INCREASE IN TUITION COSTS; 3) THE EXTENSION OF THE REPAYMENT PERIOD FOR STUDENT LOANS; 4) THE REOPENING OF THE APPLICATION PERIOD FOR NEW STUDENT LOANS AND THE RESCHEDULING OF OLD LOANS. THESE MEASURES, PROPOSED BY THE RECTOR (AND AN EXACT REFLECTION OF THE STUDENTS' MAIN DEMANDS) ARE NOW IN EFFECT, BUT PERMANENT ADOPTION OF THE MEASURES DEPENDS ON THE APPROVAL OF A COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE RECTOR. ESSENTIALLY, THE ADMINISTRATION GAVE THE STUDENTS WHAT THEY WANTED BUT RETAINS THE POWER TO CHANGE OR NEGATE THE REFORMS IF THE COMMITTEE DOES NOT FIND THEM SUITABLE. THE COMMITTEE IS NOT EXPECTED TO REPORT BEFORE OCT. 5.

SOME STUDENT LEADERS BELIEVE THAT THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT MAY BE INFLUENCED BY THE OUTCOME OF THE PLEBISCITE.

3. MOST STUDENTS ARE NOW CONCENTRATING ON MAKING THE MAXIMUM USE OF CLASSTIME REMAINING BEFORE CHILE'S TRADITIONAL NATIONAL HOLIDAYS ON SEPT. 17-19.

ALTHOUGH SCHEDULED TO REOPEN AFTER THE HOLIDAYS, MANY BELIEVE THAT THE UNIVERSITIES WILL REMAIN CLOSED UNTIL AFTER OCT. 5. STUDENT LEADERS SAY THAT THE REAL REASON FOR THIS IS THE GOVERNMENT'S FEAR THAT THE CAMPUSES COULD "BOIL OVER" IN THE TENSE LAST FEW DAYS BEFORE THE PLEBISICITE. UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATORS ADMIT THAT THE UNIVERSITIES MAY CLOSE FOR TWO WEEKS, BUT MAINTAIN THAT IT WOULD BE TO FACILITATE THE VOTING PROCESS FOR STUDENTS WHO LIVE AND ARE REGISTERED TO VOTE IN TOWNS FAR FROM THEIR UNIVERSITIES.

4. THE LEADERS OF CHILEAN UNIVERSITIES' STUDENT FEDERATIONS ARE ALL MEMBERS OF OPPOSITION PARTIES AND ARE USING THEIR POSITION TO ORGANIZE AND DIRECT "NO" CAMPAIGNING ON CAMPUS. MOST POPULAR ARE "NO CARNIVALS," EITHER ON CAMPUSES OR IN PUBLIC AREAS NEAR CAMPUSES. THESE DECIDEDLY FESTIVE EVENTS FEATURE MUSIC, BALLOON RELEASES, COSTUMES AND TEND TO AVOID PONDEROUS POLITICAL SPEECHES. STUDENTS HAVE, ON THE WHOLE, ADOPTED THE NATIONAL "NO" CAMPAIGN'S AIR OF POSITIVE FESTIVITY AND THE MOST FREQUENTLY HEARD CHANT IS "CHILE, HAPPINESS IS ON THE WAY," THE

THEME SONG OF THE "NO" CAMPAIGN. THE GENERAL TENOR OF THESE EVENTS IS MORE LIKE A PEP RALLY THAN A POLITICAL RALLY. SOME VANDALISM, MOSTLY SPRAY PAINTING OF "NO" SLOGANS, IS ASSOCIATED WITH THESE EVENTS BUT VIOLENCE HAS BEEN MINOR AND LIMITED TO CLASHES BETWEEN "SI" ADHERENTS AND "NO" SUPPORTERS. STUDENT FEDERATION LEADERS ARE, LIKE UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATORS, MAINTAINING RELATIVELY LOW PROFILES, AND TAKING PAINS TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT THEY ADVOCATE NON-VIOLENT POLITICAL ACTIVITY. UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AT THE "NO" COMMAND, HOWEVER, MAKE IT CLEAR THAT THE POST-PLEBISCITE DAYS COULD BE DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT. THEY ARE PLANNING SOCIAL MOBILIZATION EFFORTS TOGETHER WITH OTHER GROUPS ("ACUSO" - THE SOCIAL ACCORD FOR THE "NO," AND "CUT" - THE CENTRAL WORKERS' UNION) TO DEFEND THE "NO" VOTE OR TO CELEBRATE ITS TRIUMPH.

5. THE NORMAL DEMAND AND COUNTERDEMAND ATMOSPHERE BETWEEN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AND ADMINSTRATORS, HAS BEEN PLACED TEMPORARILY ON HOLD. A NUMBER OF OLD ISSUES ARE CERTAIN TO REAPPEAR AFTER THE PLEBISCITE. THE ISSUE OF FINANCIAL AID TO STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE WILL NOT BE FULLY RESOLVED UNTIL THE REPORT IS IN ON THE MEASURES ADOPTED IN AUGUST. THE UNIVERSITY OF CONCEPCION FACES SERIOUS CHALLENGES IN NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF OVER SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES IN ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF VALPARAISO WILL HAVE TO PICK UP AGAIN ON THE DEBATE OVER THE UNIVERSITY'S AND RECTOR'S DEGREE OF AUTONOMY, AS WELL AS THE ISSUE OF FINANCIAL AID FOR STUDENTS. ABOVE ALL, THE GENERAL ISSUE OF OF UNIVERSITY REFORM, AT THE ROOT OF EACH OF THE FOREGOING PROBLEMS, IS SURE TO RETURN AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, AND IN DIFFERENT DIMENSIONS DEPENDING ON A "SI" OR "NO" WIN.

6. HOW THESE PROBLEMS ARE ADDRESSED WILL IN LARGE MEASURE BE DETERMINED BY THE OUTCOME OF THE OCT. 5 VOTE. IN THE EVENT OF A "NO" VICTORY STUDENTS ARE SURE TO BE AMONG THE MOST VOCAL IN DEMANDING AN ACCELERATED TIMETABLE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AND A ROLL-BACK OF WHAT THEY PERCEIVE AS ANTI-UNIVERSITY GOVERNMENT POLICIES. IN THE EVENT OF A "SI" VICTORY MANY STUDENTS WILL JOIN THE "FRAUD CHORUS" AND MODERATE STUDENT LEADERS MAY HAVE DIFFICULTY IN KEEPING THEIR FOLLOWERS AWAY FROM THE MORE RADICAL AND VIOLENT FACTIONS ON CAMPUSES. THE CURRENT STATE OF SUSPENDED ANIMATION ON CAMPUSES WILL PROBABLY LAST

THROUGH OCT. 5, BUT THE NORMAL STATE OF CONFLICT WILL RETURN IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, AND MAY RETURN WITH A VENGEANCE. POST WILL REPORT ON UNIVERSITY DEVELOPMENTS AS NEEDED. (USIS PREPARED.)

HORTENSIA BUSSI DE ALLENDE, THE WIDOW OF FORMER CHILEAN PRESIDENT, SALVADOR ALLENDE, WAS THE FEATURE SPEAKER. ALSO ON THE AGENDA WERE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT AND UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS, A NUMBER OF CHILEAN EXILES, AND REPRESENTATIVES -- MOSTLY LEFTISTS OR COMMUNISTS -- FROM A NUMBER OF LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES AS WELL AS FROM THE USSR, VIET NAM, EAST GERMANY, YUGOSLAVIA, POLAND, GREECE AND SPAIN. WHILE THE GOVERNOR OF JALISCO, ENRIQUE ALVAREZ DEL CASTILLO, WAS SCHEDULED TO OPEN AND CLOSE THE CONFERENCE, HE WAS, IN FACT, REPRESENTED BY THE STATE'S SECRETARY OF GOVERNMENT, HECTOR CASTANEDA JIMENEZ. THE LATTER COMMENTED TO THE CONSUL GENERAL THAT HE FOUND THE PROCEEDINGS "INCREDIBLE" AND THAT HE DEPARTED MIDWAY THROUGH AN HOUR-AND-A-HALF LONG SPEECH.

3. THE OPENING ADDRESS WAS GIVEN BY THE RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF GUADALAJARA, ENRIQUE JAVIER ALFARO ANGUIANO. LICENCIADO ALFARO STATED RATHER DISINGENUOUSLY THAT, WHILE THE "ESTRADA DOCTRINE" MAINTAINS THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO, IN ORDER TO AVOID ANY HINT OF INTERVENTIONISM, SHOULD REFRAIN FROM JUDGING THE LEGITIMACY OF ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT, IT DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD REFRAIN FROM ACTING WHEN THE VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE POLITICAL RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE, ARE INVOLVED. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE MODIFICATION OF THE CURRENT CHILEAN REGIME IS STRICTLY A MATTER FOR THE CHILEA PEOPLE TO DETERMINE AND THAT OUTSIDE INTERVENTION BY ANY FOREIGN GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE REPUDIATED WITH ALL POSSIBLE VIGOR. THE RECTOR THEN STATED THAT THE UNIVERSITY OF GUADALAJARA COMMUNITY IS PLEDGED TO DO EVERYTHING IN ITS POWER TO OFFER UNDERSTANDING, SOLIDARITY AND SUPPORT TO THOSE IN EXILE WHO ARE FIGHTING FOR THE RETURN OF DEMOCRACY AND LIBERTY FOR THEIR COUNTRY. COMMENT: THE RECTOR OBVIOUSLY SEES NO INCONSISTENCY BETWEEN DENOUNCING OUTSIDE INTERVENTION WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY SPONSORING A

SHE STATED, "WITH THE OPPOSITION UNIFIED, THE ARMY WILL REALIZE THAT THE MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION DOES NOT WANT A DICTATORSHIP."

<TEXT> 1. (U) AT 10:35 AM ON SEPTEMBER 11 CHILEAN POLICE DEACTIVATED A 60-KILO BOMB IN A STOLEN CAR PARKED IN FRONT OF THE DIEGO PORTALES BUILDING WHERE PRESIDENT PINOCHET WAS SCHEDULED TO DELIVER A SPEECH. ACCORDING TO POLICE SOURCES QUOTED IN THE MEDIA, A MAN CLAIMING TO BE A SPOKESMAN FOR THE FPMR CALLED A RADIO STATION AT 10:10 AM TO STATE THAT THE INCIDENT WAS DESIGNED TO DEMONSTRATE THE VULNERABILITY OF OFFICIAL SECURITY MEASURES. THE QUOTED POLICE SOURCES SAID THE CALLER ACCURATELY DESCRIBED THE BOMB WHICH WAS SET TO GO OFF AT 11:09, AS EASILY DISMANTLED.

60 KILOS OF EXPLOSIVES IS A HEAVY PRICE FOR THE FPMR TO PAY FOR A PUBLICITY STUNT AND THE RELATIVELY RELAXED ATTITUDE OF THE POLICE IN REPORTING THE EVENT. END COMMENT.

4. (U) ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 AT 1055 HOURS, A CROWD OF APPROXIMATELY 300 PERSONS BELONGING TO THE PRO-GOVERNMENT "SI" FACTION, SPRAY PAINTED SLOGANS ON THE EXTERIOR WALL OF THE CONSULATE WHILE ON ENROUTE TO A RALLY. THEY ALSO THREW AN ASSORTMENT OF "SI" PAMPHLETS INTO THE CONSULATE COMPOUND. WE CONSIDER THIS AN ACT OF OPPORTUNITY NOT PERCOLATING ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT.

5. (U) REAL VIOLENCE OCCURRED IN SEVERAL POOR NEIGHBORHOODS OF SANTIAGO FOLLOWING A VISIT BY PRESIDENT PINOCHET TO CERRO NAVIA TO GIVE AN ADDRESS TO SI SUPPORTERS. HIS MOTORCADE WAS STONED, ALTHOUGH HIS CAR WAS NOT TOUCHED. POLICE USED TEARGAS AND WATER CANNON TO BREAK UP THE PROTEST. IN OTHER SECTIONS OF THE NEIGHBORHOODS, ANTI-PINOCHET PROTESTORS SET TIRES ON FIRE AND PUT UP BARRICADES. ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL SOURCES, SIX PERSONS WERE SHOT

AND SEVERAL OTHERS WERE WOUNDED (MEDIA REPORTS SAY 12 WERE WOUNDED BY GUNSHOT). ABOUT 200 PERSONS WERE DETAINED, BUT LATER RELEASED. POLICE BLAMED THE CASUALTIES ON AGITATORS FROM THE NO COMMAND. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MIR BLAMED THE POLICE AND THE PROVOCATION OF PINOCHET'S PRESENCE IN THE AREA.

SUBJECT: THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE: SITREP SEVEN
(SEPTEMBER 11 - SEPTEMBER 16)

1. (U) THIS IS THE SEVENTH IN A SERIES OF WEEKLY SITREPS REPORTING DEVELOPMENTS RELEVANT TO THE UPCOMING CHILEAN PLEBISCITE WHICH WILL APPROVE OR DISAPPROVE AN EIGHT YEAR TERM FOR CURRENT PRESIDENT AUGUSTO PINOCHET. THE PLEBISCITE WILL BE HELD ON OCTOBER 5.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

2. (C) IT WAS NOT A GOOD WEEK FOR THE "SI" CAMPAIGN. PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S SOPORIFIC SPEECH ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE MILITARY

SECRET

COUP WAS A NET LOSS, AND IT WAS A MAJOR BLUNDER FOR THE T.V. COUNCIL TO FORCE THE "NO" CAMPAIGN TO CANCEL ITS SEPTEMBER 12 TELEVISION SPOT ON TORTURE. THE GOVERNMENT'S HEAVY-HANDEDNESS HAS GIVEN THE ISSUE OF TORTURE MORE PUBLICITY THAN THE "NO" CAMPAIGN COULD EVER HAVE DREAMED. THE OPPOSITION'S POINT WAS MADE EVEN MORE POIGNANT BY THE SUPREME IRONY OF PINOCHET'S PRONOUNCING THAT SAME DAY THAT FREEDOM OF THE PRESS WAS THE CORNERSTONE OF ALL OTHER FREEDOMS. THE PRESIDENT'S ATTEMPTS TO MAKE AMENDS IN THE NAME OF FAIR PLAY BY ORDERING THAT THE "SI" CAMPAIGN'S 15 MINUTES NOT BE SHOWN THE FOLLOWING NIGHT AND LATER THIS WEEK SIGNING THE RATIFICATION OF TWO INTERNATIONAL TORTURE CONVENTIONS WON HIM FEW POINTS. THESE SETBACKS APPEAR TO HAVE PUT PINOCHET ON EDGE, AS HE LASHED OUT WITH BITTER PERSONAL ATTACKS AGAINST FORMER MEMBERS OF HIS GOVERNMENT WHO HAVE JOINED THE "NO" FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT WAS PUT FURTHER IN A BAD LIGHT BY THE CARABINERO'S USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE TO BREAK UP A GROUP OF INTERNATIONAL VISITORS FROM THE ICFTU WHO WERE ACCOMPANYING LABOR LEADER MANUEL BUSTOS WHEN HE REPORTED TO THE SUPREME COURT TO BEGIN SERVING HIS SENTENCE OF INTERNAL EXILE.

3. (C) THE "NO" CAMPAIGN IS PROVING MORE THAN CAPABLE OF EXPLOITING THESE OPENINGS AND IS SKILLFULLY USING THE MEDIA TO GET MAXIMUM MILEAGE FROM THEM. CROWDS FOR THE "NO" CAMPAIGN RALLIES IN THE PROVINCES CONTINUE TO BE GOOD AND APPEAR TO BE GETTING BETTER AS

THE FREE TELEVISION SPOTS ARE HAVING THEIR EFFECT. ALTHOUGH REGIONAL MILITARY OFFICIALS CONTINUE TO PROJECT SUPREME CONFIDENCE, WE ARE PICKING UP INDICATIONS THAT THERE ARE SOME DOUBTS IN MILITARY RANKS THAT PINOCHET CAN IN.

4. (C) THERE ARE ALWAYS TURNING POINTS IN ANY ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN WHICH ONE CAN LOOK BACK TO AS DECIDING THE OUTCOME. THIS WEEK COULD BE ONE OF THOSE. CERTAINLY, IT WAS A LOW POINT FOR THE "SI" CAMPAIGN AND CLEARLY PRESIDENT PINOCHET IS GOING TO HAVE TO COME OUT WITH SOME NEW INITIATIVES TO REVERSE THE TREND. HE IS NOT SELLING AS A REBORN DEMOCRAT, AND IT WOULD BE AMAZING IF PEOPLE IN HIS OWN CAMP, INCLUDING THE ARMED FORCES, WERE NOT SERIOUSLY WORRIED AT THIS POINT THAT HE IS LEADING THEM DOWN THE PATH OF DEFEAT. EMBASSY IS FAR FROM PREPARED TO COUNT PINOCHET OUT, HE UNDOUBTEDLY HAS DRAMATIC GESTURES UP HIS SLEEVE THAT COULD MAKE A DIFFERENCE, BUT CONCESSIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS, E.G. DROPPING CHARGES AGAINST JOURNALISTS AND PARDONING BUSTOS AND COMPANY, WILL NOT DO THE TRICK. THESE WILL BE INTERPRETED AS MORE CYNICAL MANUEVERING. NOR CAN WE DISCOUNT SELF-INFLICTED WOUNDS BY THE FRAGILE OPPOSITION COALITION, ESPECIALLY NOW THAT THE SMELL OF VICTORY IS BECOMING HEADY. HOWEVER, IF THE "NO" COALITION DOES MAINTAIN UNITY AND A MODERATE IMAGE AND PINOCHET CONTINUES AS HE DID THIS WEEK, IT IS DIFFICULT TO SEE HOW THE GOVERNMENT CAN WIN IN A FAIR ELECTION.

AND SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS.

RULES OF THE GAME

. (U) FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS, REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WENT TO LA MONEDA ON SEPTEMBER 12. THE OCCASION WAS A MEETING BETWEEN PDC GENERAL SECRETARY GUTEMBERG MARTINEZ, PDC ELECTORAL DEPARTMENT HEAD ERIC CAMPANA AND INTERIOR SUBSECRETARY ALBERT CARDEMIL TO FIND OUT HOW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD TABULATE AND RELEASE ITS INFORMAL VOTE COUNT ON THE EVENING OF OCTOBER 5. IN

SECRET

THE MEETING, CARDEMIL PROMISED THAT THERE WOULD NOT BE A COMPULSORY NATIONAL NETWORK FOR RADIO AND TV, UNLESS SERIOUS DISTURBANCES FORCED THE GOC TO TAKE

CONTROL OF THE SITUATION. HE ALSO ASSURED THE PDC REPRESENTATIVES THAT NO RESULTS WOULD BE ANNOUNCED UNTIL AFTER 6 PM. PARTIAL RESULTS WOULD BE ANNOUNCED IN HOURLY BULLETINS FROM THAT TIME ON.

6. (C) ON LEAVING THE MEETING, MARTINEZ EXPLAINED THAT THE SESSION DEALT WITH PURELY TECHNICAL, NOT POLITICAL MATTERS. IT HAD BEEN REQUESTED BY THE PDC SOME MONTHS BACK AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE PRESIDENT'S SEPTEMBER 11 APPEAL FOR COOPERATION FROM OPPOSITION PARTIES. ERIC CAMPANA LATER TOLD EMBOFFS THAT THE GOC AGREED TO CONSIDER THE "NO" REQUEST FOR STANDARDIZATION OF ELECTION RESULTS BY REPORTING THE BASIS OF THEIR INFORMATION (I.E. MESAS, DISTRICTS, PROVINCES, OR NATIONAL). CARDEMIL TOLD HIM THE GOC WILL ADVANCE THE SWITCH TO DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BY ONE WEEK, TO OCTOBER 1, TO ALLOW MORE DAYLIGHT FOR VOTING. THE "NO" CAN SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO THE GOC COMPUTER CENTER, BUT THEY WILL BE RESTRICTED FROM ENTERING THE ROOM WHERE THE COMPUTERS ARE LOCATED. THE "NO" WILL TREAT THIS REQUEST WITH KID GLOVES, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT WANT THEIR PRESENCE TO LEND SUPPORT TO THE GOVERNMENT IN THE CASE OF CONTESTED RESULTS.)

. U) MEANWHILE CARDEMIL SENT LETTERS TO ALL THE POLITICAL PARTIES INVITING THEM TO DESIGNATE OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVES FOR THE GOC COMPUTER CENTER IN DIEGO PORTALES ON ELECTION DAY. THE PPD RESPONDED THAT IT COULD NOT MEET WITH CARDEMIL, SINCE HE IS UNDER THE DIRECT ORDERS OF THE INTERIOR MINISTER, WHO IS, BY HIS OWN ADMISSION, THE MOST ARDENT SUPPORTER OF THE SI." NOR WOULD IT CONSIDER THE INTERIOR MINISTRY'S RESULTS AS OFFICIAL, SINCE THE ONLY OFFICIAL RESULTS ARE THOSE MADE BY THE SCRUTINIZING BOARDS WHICH ARE RELEASED BY THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE (SEN).

8. (C) COMMENT: THE PPD IS TECHNCIALLY RIGHT, SINCE THE ONLY LEGAL RESULTS ARE THE RESULT OF A TIME-CONSUMING PROCESS BEGINNING WITH THE REGIONAL SCRUTINIZING BOARDS, WHO MEET SIX DAYS AFTER THE ELECTION TO CHECK THE VOTE TALLIES TABLE BY TABLE, AND SEND THE RESULTS OF THEIR DETERMINATION TO THE SEN. HOWEVER, THE QUICK, INFORMAL VOTE TALLY IS TRADITIONALLY DONE BY THE INTERIOR MINISTRY.

9. (U) THE PRESIDENT WAS CLEARLY SHOWING HIS AGE IN THE COUP ANNIVERSARY SPEECH OF SEPTEMBER 11, WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE A LONG, BORING LITANY OF GOC ACCOMPLISHMENTS. HOWEVER PINOCHET SHOWED HIS TEETH A FEW DAYS LATER. IN AN EXTEMPORANEOUS TALK BEFORE FORMER ARMY OFFICERS IN SANTIAGO, HE DISSECTED THE PERSONAL LIVES OF SEVERAL "TRAITORS" WHO HAD SERVED IN HIS ADMINISTRATION. FIRST, HE REFERRED TO MARITAL PROBLEMS SUFFERED BY EX-TOURISM DIRECTOR LILIANA

10. (C) THIS AMAZING SPEECH SHOWS A CERTAIN RECKLESSNESS ON THE PRESIDENT'S PART, AND
THE MALIGNANT TONE OF THE ATTACKS ON HIS FORMER COLLABORATORS BRINGS INTO QUESTION WHETHER

PINOCHET CAN COEXIST WITH A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM.
AT ANY RATE, THE PERSONAL ATTACKS ARE NOT APT

THERE MAY BE A METHOD TO HIS MADNESS, THAT

THEY GO SO FAR AS TO APPEAR IN THE NO CAMPAIGN

TV SPOTS, AS DID SAENZ AND MAHN, THEY WILL BE PUBLICLY DRAGGED THROUGH THE GUTTER. THE NO PUBLICITY TEAM IS REPORTEDLY SCHEDULING AN APPEARANCE BY PINOCHET'S NIECE, FORMER JUSTICE MINISTER MONICA MADARIAGA, SOMETIME THIS MONTH. SHE WAS ALSO ATTACKED IN PINOCHET'S SPEECH.

11. (U) THE PRESIDENT WAS IN A SOMEWHAT BETTER FORM THE NEXT DAY AT A ROTARY CLUB TRIBUTE TO THE ARMED FORCES. IN THAT SPEECH, HE DENIED HIS REGIME WAS A DICTATORSHIP, AND HONED IN ON THE CONTINUED THREAT OF TERRORISM.

12. (C) RECENT VISITS BY EMBOFF'S TO VALPARAISO AND VALDIVIA REVEAL THAT EVEN MANY LOCAL SI CAMPAIGN LEADERS BELIEVE THE GOVERNMENT WILL LOSE MOST MAJOR CITIES IN THE PLEBISCITE. THE OBVIOUS SUPERIORITY OF THE NO TV SPOTS OVER THE SI SPOTS HAS HAD A DAMPENING EFFECT ON SI SUPPORTERS, AND LEADERS OF NATIONAL RENOVATION HAVE PUBLICLY CRITICIZED THE GOC FOR ITS COUNTERPRODUCTIVE" ACTION IN CENSURING THE NO PUBLICITY DEALING WITH TORTURE IN CHILE (SANTIAGO 6512).

CAMPAIGN OF BEING TAKEN OVER BY MARXIST ELEMENTS WHO WERE PROPOGATING A CLIMATE OF VIOLENCE AND AGGRESSION. ADDING FUEL TO THE CHARGE, SANTIAGO MAYOR GUSTAVO ALESSANDRI'S CAR WAS STONED BY A SMALL, ANGRY MOB. ON SEPTEMBER 11, THE PRESIDENT'S MOTORCADE WAS STONED BY SLUM DWELLERS WHILE TOURING THE TOWNSHIP OF CERRO NAVIA, ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF SANTIAGO. POLICE DISPERSED THE PROTESTORS WITH TEAR GAS, AROUND 12 PEOPLE WERE WOUNDED, AND PINOCHET HAD TO CANCEL THE CEREMONY. ON THE FOLLOWING DAY 50 RESIDENTS OF THE AREA BROUGHT CHARGES AGAINST THE CARABINEROS, SAYING THAT DRUNKEN POLICEMEN, APPARENTLY IN RETALIATION FOR THE MOTORCADE STONING,

HAD BEATEN YOUTHS AND BROKEN THE WINDOWS OF SCORES OF HOUSES.

14. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 11 THE NO COMMAND STAGED A MOCK ELECTION IN SANTIAGO IN ORDER TO TEACH PEOPLE HOW TO CAST BALLOTS AND DEMONSTRATE THAT THEIR VOTE WOULD BE SECRET. NEARLY 100,000 PARTICIPATED IN THE 681 VOTING TABLES WHICH WERE SET UP THROUGHOUT THE CITY, WHILE ARTISTS AND MUSICIANS PUT ON SHOWS NEARBY.

15. (U) THE CAMPAIGN HAS CONTINUED TO PROVE ITS DRAWING POWER IN THE PROVINCES, WHERE CROWDS OF SEVERAL THOUSAND REGULARLY TURN OUT TO HEAR OPPOSITION PARTY LEADERS SPEAK IN SMALL CITIES AND TOWNS. IN CONCEPCION LAST WEEKEND, AN OPPOSITION

RALLY REPORTEDLY DREW NEARLY 50,000 PEOPLE IN WHAT EVEN THE INTENDENT ACKNOWLEDGED WAS THE BIGGEST DEMONSTRATION YET HELD IN THE SOUTHERN CITY.

16. (S/NF) HOWEVER EX-COMMUNIST DEPUTY LUIS GUASTAVINO CAUSED CONSTERNATION WHEN HE MADE A SURPRISE APPEARANCE AT THE RALLY, DEMANDING TO BE SEATED AMONG THE OTHER PARTY LUMINARIES WHO WERE WAITING TO ADDRESS THE CROWD. AFTER A QUICK POWWOW, ALL THE SPEAKERS DESCENDED FROM THE PLATFORM, LEAVING ONLY PATRICIO AYLWIN TO ADDRESS THE THRONG. PR GENERAL SECRETARY RICARDO NAVARRETE TOLD POLOFF THAT THE MINI-CRISIS WAS A GOOD TEST OF THE NO COMMAND'S DETERMINATION TO REJECT PC PARTICIPATION.

THERE ARE REPORTS OF ONGOING NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE "NO COMMAND" AND THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY. THE PARTY HAS AGREED TO REFRAIN FROM SPONSORING PRE-PLEBISCITE VIOLENCE; THE "NO COMMAND" HAS NOT AGREED TO THE COMMUNIST'S RECIPROCAL DEMANDS.

7. (U) NONETHELESS, RETURNED EXILE LEADERS SUCH AS GUASTAVINO HAVE MADE MORE AND MORE INFLAMMATORY

SPEECHES IN THE PROVINCES, PARTICULARLY IN VALPARAISO (SEPTEL). THE NUNEZ SOCIALISTS ISSUED A HARSH CRITICISM OF GUASTAVINO FOR BEING IRRESPONSIBLE IN HIS POSITION ON THE PLEBISCITE, SAYING THAT THE PC HAS FAILED TO DEVELOP A COHERENT STRATEGY AND WAS A JOHNNIE-COME-LATELY TO THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

18. (C) THE ITALIAN CHARGE TOLD AMBASSADOR THAT THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PDC AND THE PR ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE GROWING INFLUENCE OF THE ALMEYDA SOCIALISTS AND OTHER FAR LEFT PARTIES IN THE NO COMMAND. ACCORDING TO PR LEADER NAVARETTE, THE CENTRIST PARTIES FEEL THAT DEMONSTRATIONS SHOULD BE MINIMIZED DUE TO THE POTENTIAL FOR VIOLENCE AND THE NEGATIVE FALLOUT FOR UNDECIDED VOTERS. ON MORE THAN ONE OCCASION, FRICTION BETWEEN THE "MODERATES" AND THE "LEFTISTS" IN THE TV PUBLICITY COMMITTEE HAS COME TO A HEAD, REQUIRING MEDIATION BY EDGARDO BOENINGER, ANDRES ZALDIVAR AND THE CAMPAIGN'S PR CHIEF.

19. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 14 THE NO CAMPAIGN CALLED ON SI LEADERS AND THE GOVERNMENT TO MEET TOGETHER AND DRAW

UP A PACT AGAINST POLITICAL VIOLENCE. ITS STATEMENT SAID THAT DESPITE THE WIDESPREAD REPUDIATION OF VIOLENCE BY MANY SECTORS, THE LEVELS OF CONFRONTATION AND POLARIZATION WERE INCREASING TO DANGEROUS LEVELS. IT CITED THE CALL RECENTLY MADE BY NATIONAL RENOVATION AND THE NON-VIOLENCE PACT PROMOTED BY BISHOP MEDINA OF RANCAGUA AS POSITIVE EFFORTS TO RESPOND TO THIS THREAT.

20. (S/ SEVERAL LEFTIST PARTIES IN THE "NO COMMAND" ARE WILLING TO SUPPORT A PDC-CHOSEN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FOR DIRECT ELECTIONS BUT ONLY IF THE CANDIDATE IS ANNOUNCED PRIOR TO THE PLEBISCITE. HOWEVER, THE SOURCE SEES THAT THERE IS LITTLE LIKELIHOOD OF AGREEMENT IN THE PDC REGARDING WHICH PDC

LEADER WOULD BE MOST SUITABLE.

21. (C) ALONG THOSE LINES, THE LATEST RUMOR CIRCULATING IN POLITICAL AND BUSINESS CIRCLES IS THAT RICARDO LAGOS AND PATRICIO AYLWIN HAVE AGREED ON A CENTER-RIGHT CANDIDATE, EITHER HERNAN CUBILLOS OR JOSE MIGUEL BARROS, AND THAT THEY WILL RELEASE THE NAME A FEW DAYS BEFORE THE PLEBISCITE. (ONE VERSION OF THE STORY, PROVIDED BY PPD MEMBER SEBASTIAN PINERA, ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANDRES ZALDIVAR AND GABRIEL VALDES ARE RESISTING THE MOVE.) BANKERS HAVE TOLD EMBOFFS THAT THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY IS "REALLY SCARED" ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY, WHICH IN THEIR VIEW WOULD GUARANTEE A NO VICTORY OF MASSIVE PROPORTIONS. MEANWHILE, FORMER RADICAL PARTY LEADER ANSELMO

12. (C) ON SEPTEMBER 15 THE PDC NATIONAL COUNCIL RESOLVED TO FORMALIZE ITS COMMITMENT TO THE PROGRAM OF GOVERNMENT WHICH WAS SIGNED LAST JANUARY BY CENTRIST PARTIES. PDC CHAIRMAN PATRICIO AYLWIN SAID THAT THE PARTIES WHICH SIGNED THE PACT -- THE DC, THE PR, THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, PADENA, USOPO AND THE LIBERALS -- OFFERED AN ALTERNATIVE GOVERNING COALITION WHICH WAS OPEN TO THE DEMOCRATIC RIGHT (I.E. THE NATIONALS) AND THE DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS. THE HUMANIST PARTY, WHICH HAD SIGNED THE JANUARY

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES, IS HOLDING BACK ON DECISION TO TAKE PART. THE DECISION TO FORMALIZE THE PACT WAS CRITIZED BY RICARDO LAGOS WHO SAID WHAT CHILE NEEDED INSTEAD WAS CONSENSUS CANDIDATE WHO COULD EMERGE AFTER NO VICTORY. COMMENT: AFTER LABORING FOR OVER YEAR TO PRODUCE A GOVERNING COALITION, THE DC HAS PRODUCED A MOUSE. THE PROBLEM IN EXPANDING THE COALITION CAME WHEN THE NATIONAL PARTY BEGAN TO SPLINTER AND NUNEZ SOCIALISTS BALKED. AYLWIN UNDOUBTEDLY FELT PRESSURED TO DEMONSTRATE THAT A MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPING

WOULD LEAD THE OPPOSITION AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, BUT, IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT A PAPER ALLIANCE WILL MAKE THAT POINT.

23. (U) IN REPONSE TO A REQUEST FROM THE LAWYER'S ASSOCIATION, RANCAGUA BISHOP JORGE MEDINA INVITED ALL POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS IN THE SIXTH REGION TO SIGN A NON-AGGRESSION AGREEMENT TO LOWER THE LEVEL OF CONFRONTATION IN THE ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN. THE "PACT OF HONOR" COMMITS THOSE INVOLVED TO CREATE A CLIMATE OF MUTUAL RESPECT, DIGNITY AND TRANQUILITY BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE PLEBISCITE SO THAT VOTERS' RIGHT TO CHOOSE IS PROTECTED. IT WAS SIGNED BY 13 REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES OF PARTIES AND INDEPENDENT COMMITTEES WHICH RUN THE GAMUT FROM NATIONAL RENOVATION AND WOMEN OF CHILE TO NUNEZ SOCIALISTS AND MAPU. MSR. INVOLVEMENT IN POLITICS, IS CONSIDERED TO HAVE CLOSE TIES WITH THE GOC.

24. (U) IN A NATIONAL CONGRESS ON SEPTEMBER 10 THE NATIONAL PARTY FACTION LED BY PATRICIO PHILLIPS VOTED TO SUPPORT A SI VOTE IN THE PLEBISCITE. THE VOTE WAS 25 FOR THE SI, 25 FOR THE NO, AND ONE (SYLVIA LESSANDRI'S) FOR NO POSITION. PN LEADER ADOLFO ALLAS, WHO HAD ATTENDED BOTH THE RIESCO AND PHILLIPS ONGRESSES, WAS BOOED WHEN HE MADE AN APPEAL FOR NITY OF THE TWO FACTIONS. PHILLIPS FOLLOWED UP BY EETING WITH PRESIDENT PINOCHET, THEN WITH SERGIO ERNANDEZ. HE NOTED THAT HE WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE V SPOTS FOR THE SI, AND URGED THE FORMATION OF A OINT COMMAND FOR ALL THE PRO-SI PARTIES TO OORDINATE PUBLICITY AND PROVINCIAL TOURS.

25. (C) COMMENT: IT WAS EXPECTED THAT PHILLIPS WOULD LEAD HIS SECTOR OF THE PARTY

INTO SUPPORT FOR THE SI, WHICH HAS BEEN HIS ACKNOWLEDGED PREFERENCE FOR SOME TIME. THE PN-PHILLIPS CONVENTION DREW FEWER NATIONAL COUNSELORS THAN THE RIESCO CONGRESS (151 AS OPPOSED TO 161), THOUGH IT HAS MORE CHANCE OF MAINTAINING LEGAL RECOGNITION. ONLY THE PLEBISCITE RESULTS WILL DETERMINE WHO WILL FINALLY EMERGE FROM THE SPLINTERING OF THE NATIONALS AS THE "REAL" NATIONAL PARTY. PHILLIPS TOLD EMBOFFS SEPTEMBER 12 THAT HIS FACTION WOULD HAVE A MODERATING INFLUENCE ON PINOCHET, PARTICULARLY WITH REGARD TO HUMAN RIGHTS. WE DOUBT THAT EVEN PHILLIPS BELIEVES THAT.

6. (U) AS REPORTED IN SEPTEL, PINOCHET USED HIS TATE OF THE NATION ADDRESS TO ANNOUNCE A CHILEAN SIX HOUSAND PESO BONUS FOR ALL PUBLIC SECTOR WORKERS AND ETIREES. THE BONUS WAS DETERMINED EARLIER IN THE EAR WHEN INFLATION WAS EXPECTED TO BE AROUND 20 ERCENT. THE OBJECT WAS TO MAINTAIN THE REAL VALUE F LAST YEAR'S CHILEAN FIVE THOUSAND PESO BONUS. HERE ARE TWO ELEMENTS WHICH GIVE THE ANNOUNCEMENT ROADER SIGNIFICANCE: (1) MANIPULATION OF THE XCHANGE RATE TO AFFECT PRICES IS CONTINUING TO HAVE

UNIVERSIDAD CATOLICA TOLD ECONCOUN THAT THE FAILURE OF A TREND TO MATERIALIZE IS INEXPLICABLE. ALL BUT ONE OF THE TEN ECONOMISTS PRESENT WAS FOR THE "SI" AND CONFIDENT THAT THE "SI" WILL WIN ON OCTOBER 5. WHEN ASKED TO COMMENT ON THE IMPACT ON THE ECONOMY OF A "NO" WIN, SEVERAL OF THE "SI" SUPPORTERS OF THIS GROUP COMMENTED THAT THE PARALLEL DOLLAR RATE WOULD INCREASE SHARPLY (I.E., THE PESO WOULD DEPRECIATE) AND THAT, MORE IMPORTANTLY, INVESTMENT WOULD DROP OFF AT LEAST IN THE NEAR TERM. MOST OF OUR CONTACTS IN THE FINANCIAL SECTOR BELIEVE THE CENTRAL BANK IS INTERVENING TO KEEP THE PARALLEL MARKET DOWN, ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE NO CONCRETE EVIDENCE.

EVENT. STARTING SEPTEMBER 15 THE SI CAMPAIGN'S TELEVISION SPOTS SHOWED IMAGES OF HAPPY YOUTHS AND RAINBOWS FROM THE NO ADS, WHICH THEY JUXTAPOSED WITH GLOOM AND DOOM SCENES SHOWING THE STREETS OF SANTIAGO GOING UP IN FLAMES.

THE MEDIA

30. (U) IN A MAJOR POLITICAL BLUNDER, THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED TELEVISION COUNCIL THIS WEEK CENSORED A TELEVISION CAMPAIGN ADVERTISEMENT OF THE "NO." STRONG PROTESTS FROM THE PUBLIC AND FROM BOTH OPPOSITION AND PRO-GOVERNMENT PRESS CAUSED PINOCHET TO DECREE THAT SINCE THE "NO" ADVERTISEMENT WAS NOT

AIRED (IT WAS PULLED RATHER THAN SUBMITTED TO CENSORSHIP), HE WOULD, THE FOLLOWING EVENING, FOREGO USE OF THE "SI" SPACE. HOWEVER, THE DAMAGE TO THE "SI" WAS DONE, AND THE RESULTING PUBLICITY GAVE THE CONTESTED SEGMENT OF THE ADVERTISEMENT, WHICH HAD ADDRESSED TORTURE BY THE CNI, WIDER DISTRIBUTION THAN HAD IT BEEN USED AS PART OF THE SPOT. THE OPPOSITION WAS QUICK TO POINT OUT THE IRONY OF THE FACT THAT AT THE SAME TIME THE ADVERTISEMENT WAS BEING CENSORED IN SANTIAGO, PINOCHET WAS IN VALPARAISO FOR THE ANNIVERSARY OF "EL MERCURIO," ASSERTING THAT "FREEDOM OF THE PRESS IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL OTHER FREEDOMS."

OPINION POLLS

31. (C) THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S ECONOMIC FACULTY RELEASED THE RESULTS OF A NATIONAL POLL SHOWING THE "SI" AHEAD BY 48 PERCENT TO 41 PERCENT FOR THE "NO", WITH 11 PERCENT UNDECIDED. SERVING AS A GOOD INDICATION OF THE BIAS OF THIS POLL, THE OFFICE OF INVESTIGACIONES ALSO ANNOUNCED VERY SIMILAR RESULTS OF THEIR RECENT POLL CONDUCTED TEN DAYS AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT OF PINOCHET'S NOMINATION. IT FOUND THAT 47 PERCENT OF THEIR RESPONDANTS SUPPORT THE "SI" AND 40 PERCENT THE "NO", 13 PERCENT UNDECIDED. MORE SERIOUS POLLING DATA IS EXPECTED LATER THIS MONTH WHEN CERC AND CEP ANNOUNCE THE RESULTS OF THEIR NATIONAL POLLS.

1. WOULD APPRECIATE ARA/SC ARRANGING TO DELIVER TO CONGRESSMEN BRUCE MORRISON AND ALSO TED WEISS THE FOLLOWING LETTER FROM ME WITH REGARD TO THEIR FORTHCOMING TRIP TO CHILE AS PART OF A CODEL TO OBSERVE THE SITUATION IN CHILE PRIOR TO THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE.

DEAR CONGRESSMAN (FILL IN NAME AS APPROPRIATE):

WHEN I WAS IN WASHINGTON IN LATE JULY, YOU MAY RECALL I HAD THE CHANCE TO MEET WITH A GROUP OF MEMBERS AND STAFF OF SEVERAL SUBCOMMITTEES OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE. THE MAIN SUBJECT OF OUR DISCUSSION AT THAT TIME WAS THE FORTHCOMING PLEBISCITE IN CHILE AND THE IMPORTANCE OF A SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY IN THIS COUNTRY IN TERMS OF OUR OWN INTERESTS IN THE HEMISPHERE. IN THAT CONTEXT, I TOLD THE GROUP THAT I THOUGHT IT WOULD BE EXTREMELY VALUABLE IF SOME MEMBERS COULD COME TO CHILE EITHER FOR THE PLEBISCITE OR IN THE WEEKS PECEDING IT.

3. AT THE TIME, THE ACTUAL DATE HAD NOT BEEN ANNOUNCED BUT WAS RUMORED TO BE EARLY OCTOBER. IT WAS CLEAR FROM THE COMMENTS OF THE MEMBERS PRESENT THAT THAT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT PERIOD TO BE AWAY GIVEN BOTH OUR OWN ELECTIONS FOR THE CONGRESS AND THE LAST WEEK PROBABLY OF THE CURRENT SESSION. WHAT I SAID AT THE TIME WAS THAT EVEN GETTING TO CHILE FOR A FEW DAYS WOULD BE VERY, VERY HELPFUL.

4. SINCE THEN, THE PLEBISCITE HAS INDEED BEEN SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 5, AS YOU KNOW, AND CAN WELL UNDERSTAND THAT THE NEED FOR A MEMBER TO REMAIN IN THE US AT THIS STAGE IS VERY GREAT WHAT I WANT TO POINT OUT, HOWEVER, IS THE SPECIAL VALUE OF A FEW MEMBERS COMING TO CHILE FOR JUST A SHORT TIME. SIMPLY PUT, WE AS A COUNTRY WILL HAVE A MUCH SAFER AND MUCH MORE PROSPEROUS HEMISPHERE TO THE EXTENT DEMOCRATIC VALUES PREVAIL. THERE HAS BEEN OVER THE LAST DECADE AN ENCOURAGING TREND TOWARD DEMOCRATIC SOCIETIES IN SOUTH AMERICA, BUT CHILE IS ONE OF THE FEW EXCEPTIONS. THIS IS IRONIC AT BEST BECAUSE OF CHILE'S EARLIER STRONG DEMOCRATIC TRADITIONS. EVEN THOUGH THE FORTHCOMING PLEBISCITE LACKS THE COMPETITIVENESS OF A CONTESTED ELECTION, THE DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PARTIES HERE HAVE CONCLUDED THAT IT REPRESENTS THEIR BEST CHANCE TO ACHIEVE A RETURN TO DEMOCRACY. I THINK WE IN THE UNITED STATES HAVE HAD SOME EFFECT IN HELPING CREATE A CLIMATE IN CHILE THAT WORKS TOWARD A DEMOCRATIC SOLUTION AND A KEY INGREDIENT IN OUR WORK HAS BEEN THE STRONG SUPPORT THAT SO MANY OF YOU IN CONGRESS HAVE GIVEN TO THE TWIN ARMS OF PROMOTING DEMOCRACY AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR

SUBJECT: THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE: SITREP SEVEN
(SEPTEMBER 11 - SEPTEMBER 16)

1. (U) THIS IS THE SEVENTH IN A SERIES OF WEEKLY SITREPS REPORTING DEVELOPMENTS RELEVANT TO THE UPCOMING CHILEAN PLEBISCITE WHICH WILL APPROVE OR DISAPPROVE AN EIGHT YEAR TERM FOR CURRENT PRESIDENT AUGUSTO PINOCHET. THE PLEBISCITE WILL BE HELD ON OCTOBER 5.

2. (C) IT WAS NOT A GOOD WEEK FOR THE "SI" CAMPAIGN. PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S SOPORIFIC SPEECH ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE MILITARY

COUP WAS A NET LOSS, AND IT WAS A MAJOR BLUNDER FOR THE T.V. COUNCIL TO FORCE THE "NO" CAMPAIGN TO CANCEL ITS SEPTEMBER 12 TELEVISION SPOT ON TORTURE. THE GOVERNMENT'S HEAVY-HANDEDNESS HAS GIVEN THE ISSUE OF TORTURE MORE PUBLICITY THAN THE "NO" CAMPAIGN COULD EVER HAVE DREAMED. THE OPPOSITION'S POINT WAS MADE EVEN MORE POIGNANT BY THE SUPREME IRONY OF PINOCHET'S PRONOUNCING THAT SAME DAY THAT FREEDOM OF THE PRESS WAS THE CORNERSTONE OF ALL OTHER FREEDOMS. THE PRESIDENT'S ATTEMPTS TO MAKE AMENDS IN THE NAME OF FAIR PLAY BY ORDERING THAT THE "SI" CAMPAIGN'S 15 MINUTES NOT BE SHOWN THE FOLLOWING NIGHT AND LATER THIS WEEK SIGNING THE RATIFICATION OF TWO INTERNATIONAL TORTURE CONVENTIONS WON HIM FEW POINTS. THESE SETBACKS APPEAR TO HAVE PUT PINOCHET ON EDGE, AS HE LASHED OUT WITH BITTER PERSONAL ATTACKS AGAINST FORMER MEMBERS OF HIS GOVERNMENT WHO HAVE JOINED THE "NO" FORCES. THE GOVERNMENT WAS PUT FURTHER IN A BAD LIGHT BY THE CARABINERO'S USE OF EXCESSIVE FORCE TO BREAK UP A GROUP OF INTERNATIONAL VISITORS FROM THE ICFTU WHO WERE ACCOMPANYING LABOR LEADER MANUEL BUSTOS WHEN HE REPORTED TO THE SUPREME COURT TO BEGIN SERVING HIS SENTENCE OF INTERNAL EXILE.

3. (C) THE "NO" CAMPAIGN IS PROVING MORE THAN CAPABLE OF EXPLOITING THESE OPENINGS AND IS SKILLFULLY USING THE MEDIA TO GET MAXIMUM MILEAGE FROM THEM. CROWDS FOR THE "NO" CAMPAIGN RALLIES IN THE PROVINCES CONTINUE TO BE GOOD AND APPEAR TO BE GETTING BETTER AS

THE FREE TELEVISION SPOTS ARE HAVING THEIR EFFECT. ALTHOUGH REGIONAL MILITARY OFFICIALS CONTINUE TO PROJECT SUPREME CONFIDENCE, WE ARE PICKING UP INDICATIONS THAT THERE ARE SOME DOUBTS IN MILITARY RANKS THAT PINOCHET CAN IN.

4. (C) THERE ARE ALWAYS TURNING POINTS IN ANY ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN WHICH ONE CAN LOOK BACK TO AS DECIDING THE OUTCOME. THIS WEEK COULD BE ONE OF THOSE. CERTAINLY, IT WAS A LOW POINT FOR THE "SI" CAMPAIGN AND CLEARLY PRESIDENT PINOCHET IS GOING TO HAVE TO COME OUT WITH SOME NEW INITIATIVES TO REVERSE THE TREND. HE IS NOT SELLING AS A REBORN DEMOCRAT, AND IT WOULD BE AMAZING IF PEOPLE IN HIS OWN CAMP, INCLUDING THE ARMED FORCES, WERE NOT SERIOUSLY WORRIED AT THIS POINT THAT HE IS LEADING THEM DOWN THE PATH OF DEFEAT. EMBASSY IS FAR FROM PREPARED TO COUNT PINOCHET OUT, HE UNDOUBTEDLY HAS DRAMATIC GESTURES UP HIS SLEEVE THAT COULD MAKE A DIFFERENCE, BUT CONCESSIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS, E.G. DROPPING CHARGES AGAINST JOURNALISTS AND PARDONING BUSTOS AND COMPANY, WILL NOT DO THE TRICK. THESE WILL BE INTERPRETED AS MORE CYNICAL MANUEVERING. NOR CAN WE DISCOUNT SELF-INFLICTED WOUNDS BY THE FRAGILE OPPOSITION COALITION, ESPECIALLY NOW THAT THE SMELL OF VICTORY IS BECOMING HEADY. HOWEVER, IF THE "NO" COALITION DOES MAINTAIN UNITY AND A MODERATE IMAGE AND PINOCHET CONTINUES AS HE DID THIS WEEK, IT IS DIFFICULT TO SEE HOW THE

LESS SERIOUS DISTURBANCES FORCED THE GOC TO TAKE

CONTROL OF THE SITUATION. HE ALSO ASSURED THE PDC REPRESENTATIVES THAT NO RESULTS WOULD BE ANNOUNCED UNTIL AFTER 6 PM. PARTIAL RESULTS WOULD BE ANNOUNCED IN HOURLY BULLETINS FROM THAT TIME ON.

6. (C) ON LEAVING THE MEETING, MARTINEZ EXPLAINED THAT THE SESSION DEALT WITH PURELY TECHNICAL, NOT POLITICAL MATTERS. IT HAD BEEN REQUESTED BY THE PDC SOME MONTHS BACK AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE PRESIDENT'S SEPTEMBER 11 APPEAL FOR COOPERATION FROM OPPOSITION PARTIES. ERIC CAMPANA LATER TOLD EMBOFFS THAT THE GOC AGREED TO CONSIDER THE "NO" REQUEST FOR STANDARDIZATION OF ELECTION RESULTS BY REPORTING THE BASIS OF THEIR INFORMATION (I.E. MESAS, DISTRICTS, PROVINCES, OR NATIONAL). CARDEMIL TOLD HIM THE GOC WILL ADVANCE THE SWITCH TO DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BY ONE WEEK, TO OCTOBER 1, TO ALLOW MORE DAYLIGHT FOR VOTING. THE "NO" CAN SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO THE GOC COMPUTER CENTER, BUT THEY WILL BE RESTRICTED FROM ENTERING THE ROOM WHERE THE COMPUTERS ARE LOCATED. THE "NO" WILL TREAT THIS REQUEST WITH KID GLOVES, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT WANT THEIR PRESENCE TO LEND SUPPORT TO THE GOVERNMENT IN THE CASE OF CONTESTED RESULTS.)

EPRESENTATIVES FOR THE GOC COMPUTER CENTER IN DIEGO ORTALES ON ELECTION DAY. THE PPD RESPONDED THAT IT OULD NOT MEET WITH CARDEMIL, SINCE HE IS UNDER THE IRECT ORDERS OF THE INTERIOR MINISTER, WHO IS, BY IS OWN ADMISSION, THE MOST ARDENT SUPPORTER OF THE SI." NOR WOULD IT CONSIDER THE INTERIOR MINISTRY'S ESULTS AS OFFICIAL, SINCE THE ONLY OFFICIAL RESULTS RE THOSE MADE BY THE SCRUTINIZING BOARDS WHICH ARE ELEASED BY THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE (SEN).

8. (C) COMMENT: THE PPD IS TECHNCIALLY RIGHT, SINCE THE ONLY LEGAL RESULTS ARE THE RESULT OF A TIME-CONSUMING PROCESS BEGINNING WITH THE REGIONAL SCRUTINIZING BOARDS, WHO MEET SIX DAYS AFTER THE ELECTION TO CHECK THE VOTE TALLIES TABLE BY TABLE, AND SEND THE RESULTS OF THEIR DETERMINATION TO THE SEN. HOWEVER, THE QUICK, INFORMAL VOTE TALLY IS TRADITIONALLY DONE BY THE INTERIOR MINISTRY.

HOWEVER PINOCHET SHOWED HIS TEETH A FEW DAYS LATER. IN AN EXTEMPORANEOUS TALK BEFORE FORMER ARMY OFFICERS IN SANTIAGO, HE DISSECTED THE PERSONAL LIVES OF SEVERAL "TRAITORS" WHO HAD SERVED IN HIS ADMINISTRATION. FIRST, HE REFERRED TO MARITAL PROBLEMS SUFFERED BY EX-TOURISM DIRECTOR LILIANA

TO WIN SUPPORT AMONG STILL UNDECIDED VOTERS.
THERE MAY BE A METHOD TO HIS MADNESS, THAT BEING TO CONVINCE OTHER GOC DEFECTORS THAT IF THEY GO SO FAR AS TO APPEAR IN THE NO CAMPAIGN

TV SPOTS, AS DID SAENZ AND MAHN, THEY WILL BE PUBLICLY DRAGGED THROUGH THE GUTTER. THE NO PUBLICITY TEAM IS REPORTEDLY SCHEDULING AN APPEARANCE BY PINOCHET'S NIECE, FORMER JUSTICE MINISTER MONICA MADARIAGA, SOMETIME THIS MONTH. SHE WAS ALSO ATTACKED IN PINOCHET'S SPEECH.

11. (U) THE PRESIDENT WAS IN A SOMEWHAT BETTER FORM THE NEXT DAY AT A ROTARY CLUB TRIBUTE TO THE ARMED FORCES. IN THAT SPEECH, HE DENIED HIS REGIME WAS A DICTATORSHIP, AND HONED IN ON THE CONTINUED THREAT OF TERRORISM.

12. (C) RECENT VISITS BY EMBOFF'S TO VALPARAISO AND VALDIVIA REVEAL THAT EVEN MANY LOCAL SI CAMPAIGN LEADERS BELIEVE THE GOVERNMENT WILL LOSE MOST MAJOR CITIES IN THE PLEBISCITE. THE OBVIOUS SUPERIORITY OF THE NO TV SPOTS OVER THE SI SPOTS HAS HAD A DAMPENING EFFECT ON SI SUPPORTERS, AND LEADERS OF NATIONAL RENOVATION HAVE PUBLICLY CRITICIZED THE GOC FOR ITS COUNTERPRODUCTIVE" ACTION IN CENSURING THE NO PUBLICITY DEALING WITH TORTURE IN CHILE SANTIAGO 6512).

13. (U) INDEPENDENTS FOR THE SI ACCUSED THE NO

CAMPAIGN OF BEING TAKEN OVER BY MARXIST ELEMENTS WHO WERE PROPOGATING A CLIMATE OF VIOLENCE AND AGGRESSION. ADDING FUEL TO THE CHARGE, SANTIAGO MAYOR GUSTAVO ALESSANDRI'S CAR WAS STONED BY A SMALL, ANGRY MOB. ON SEPTEMBER 11, THE PRESIDENT'S MOTORCADE WAS STONED BY SLUM DWELLERS WHILE TOURING THE TOWNSHIP OF CERRO NAVIA, ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF SANTIAGO. POLICE DISPERSED THE PROTESTORS WITH TEAR GAS, AROUND 12 PEOPLE WERE WOUNDED, AND PINOCHET HAD TO CANCEL THE CEREMONY. ON THE FOLLOWING DAY 50 RESIDENTS OF THE AREA BROUGHT CHARGES AGAINST THE CARABINEROS, SAYING THAT DRUNKEN POLICEMEN, APPARENTLY IN RETALIATION FOR THE MOTORCADE STONING, HAD BEATEN YOUTHS AND BROKEN THE WINDOWS OF SCORES OF HOUSES.

THE NO CAMPAIGN

14. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 11 THE NO COMMAND STAGED A MOCK ELECTION IN SANTIAGO IN ORDER TO TEACH PEOPLE HOW TO CAST BALLOTS AND DEMONSTRATE THAT THEIR VOTE WOULD BE SECRET. NEARLY 100,000 PARTICIPATED IN THE 681 VOTING TABLES WHICH WERE SET UP THROUGHOUT THE CITY, WHILE ARTISTS AND MUSICIANS PUT ON SHOWS NEARBY.

15. (U) THE CAMPAIGN HAS CONTINUED TO PROVE ITS DRAWING POWER IN THE PROVINCES, WHERE CROWDS OF SEVERAL THOUSAND REGULARLY TURN OUT TO HEAR OPPOSITION PARTY LEADERS SPEAK IN SMALL CITIES AND TOWNS. IN CONCEPCION LAST WEEKEND, AN OPPOSITION

RALLY REPORTEDLY DREW NEARLY 50,000 PEOPLE IN WHAT EVEN THE INTENDENT ACKNOWLEDGED WAS THE BIGGEST DEMONSTRATION YET HELD IN THE SOUTHERN CITY.

16. (S/NF) HOWEVER EX-COMMUNIST DEPUTY LUIS GUASTAVINO CAUSED CONSTERNATION WHEN HE MADE A SURPRISE APPEARANCE AT THE RALLY, DEMANDING TO BE SEATED AMONG THE OTHER PARTY LUMINARIES WHO WERE WAITING TO ADDRESS THE CROWD. AFTER A QUICK POWWOW, ALL THE SPEAKERS DESCENDED FROM THE PLATFORM, LEAVING ONLY PATRICIO AYLWIN TO ADDRESS THE THRONG. PR GENERAL SECRETARY RICARDO NAVARRETE TOLD POLOFF THAT THE MINI-CRISIS WAS A GOOD TEST OF THE NO COMMAND'S DETERMINATION TO REJECT PC PARTICIPATION.

THERE ARE REPORTS OF ONGOING NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE "NO COMMAND" AND THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY. THE PARTY HAS AGREED TO REFRAIN FROM SPONSORING PRE-PLEBISCITE VIOLENCE; THE "NO COMMAND" HAS NOT AGREED TO THE COMMUNIST'S RECIPROCAL DEMANDS.

17. (U) NONETHELESS, RETURNED EXILE LEADERS SUCH AS GUASTAVINO HAVE MADE MORE AND MORE INFLAMMATORY

SPEECHES IN THE PROVINCES, PARTICULARLY IN VALPARAISO (SEPTEL). THE NUNEZ SOCIALISTS ISSUED A HARSH CRITICISM OF GUASTAVINO FOR BEING IRRESPONSIBLE IN HIS POSITION ON THE PLEBISCITE, SAYING THAT THE PC HAS FAILED TO DEVELOP A COHERENT STRATEGY AND WAS A JOHNNIE-COME-LATELY TO THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

18. (C) THE ITALIAN CHARGE TOLD AMBASSADOR THAT THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PDC AND THE PR ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE GROWING INFLUENCE OF THE ALMEYDA SOCIALISTS AND OTHER FAR LEFT PARTIES IN THE NO COMMAND. ACCORDING TO PR LEADER NAVARETTE, THE CENTRIST PARTIES FEEL THAT DEMONSTRATIONS SHOULD BE MINIMIZED DUE TO THE POTENTIAL FOR VIOLENCE AND THE NEGATIVE FALLOUT FOR UNDECIDED VOTERS. ON MORE THAN ONE OCCASION, FRICTION BETWEEN THE "MODERATES" AND THE "LEFTISTS" IN THE TV PUBLICITY COMMITTEE HAS COME TO A HEAD, REQUIRING MEDIATION BY EDGARDO BOENINGER, ANDRES ZALDIVAR AND THE CAMPAIGN'S PR CHIEF.

19. (U) ON SEPTEMBER 14 THE NO CAMPAIGN CALLED ON SI LEADERS AND THE GOVERNMENT TO MEET TOGETHER AND DRAW

UP A PACT AGAINST POLITICAL VIOLENCE. ITS STATEMENT SAID THAT DESPITE THE WIDESPREAD REPUDIATION OF VIOLENCE BY MANY SECTORS, THE LEVELS OF CONFRONTATION AND POLARIZATION WERE INCREASING TO DANGEROUS LEVELS. IT CITED THE CALL RECENTLY MADE BY NATIONAL RENOVATION AND THE NON-VIOLENCE PACT PROMOTED BY BISHOP MEDINA OF RANCAGUA AS POSITIVE EFFORTS TO RESPOND TO THIS THREAT.

20. (S, [redacted] SEVERAL LEFTIST PARTIES IN THE "NO COMMAND" ARE WILLING TO SUPPORT A PDC-CHOSEN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FOR DIRECT ELECTIONS BUT ONLY IF THE CANDIDATE IS ANNOUNCED PRIOR TO THE PLEBISCITE. HOWEVER, THE SOURCE SEES THAT THERE IS LITTLE LIKELIHOOD OF AGREEMENT IN THE PDC REGARDING WHICH PDC

LEADER WOULD BE MOST SUITABLE.

21. (C) ALONG THOSE LINES, THE LATEST RUMOR CIRCULATING IN POLITICAL AND BUSINESS CIRCLES IS THAT RICARDO LAGOS AND PATRICIO AYLWIN HAVE AGREED ON A CENTER-RIGHT CANDIDATE, EITHER HERNAN CUBILLOS OR JOSE MIGUEL BARROS, AND THAT THEY WILL RELEASE THE NAME A FEW DAYS BEFORE THE PLEBISCITE. (ONE VERSION OF THE STORY, PROVIDED BY PPD MEMBER SEBASTIAN PINERA, ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANDRES ZALDIVAR AND GABRIEL VALDES ARE RESISTING THE MOVE.) BANKERS HAVE TOLD EMBOFFS THAT THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY IS "REALLY SCARED" ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY, WHICH IN THEIR VIEW WOULD GUARANTEE A NO VICTORY OF MASSIVE PROPORTIONS. SULE ANNOUNCED FROM MEXICO CITY THAT HE WOULD TRAVEL TO CHILE SHORTLY TO ANNOUNCE HIS CANDIDACY FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

12. (C) ON SEPTEMBER 15 THE PDC NATIONAL COUNCIL RESOLVED TO FORMALIZE ITS COMMITMENT TO THE PROGRAM OF GOVERNMENT WHICH WAS SIGNED
LAST JANUARY BY CENTRIST PARTIES. PDC CHAIRMAN
PATRICIO AYLWIN SAID THAT THE PARTIES WHICH SIGNED THE PACT -- THE DC, THE PR, THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, PADENA, USOPO AND THE LIBERALS -- OFFERED AN ALTERNATIVE GOVERNING COALITION WHICH WAS OPEN TO THE DEMOCRATIC RIGHT (I.E.

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES, IS HOLDING BACK ON DECISION TO TAKE PART. THE DECISION TO FORMALIZE THE PACT WAS CRITIZED BY RICARDO
LAGOS WHO SAID WHAT CHILE NEEDED INSTEAD WAS CONSENSUS CANDIDATE WHO COULD EMERGE AFTER
NO VICTORY. COMMENT: AFTER LABORING FOR OVER YEAR TO PRODUCE A GOVERNING COALITION, THE DC HAS PRODUCED A MOUSE. THE PROBLEM IN EXPANDING THE COALITION CAME WHEN THE NATIONAL PARTY BEGAN TO SPLINTER AND NUNEZ SOCIALISTS WALKED. AYLWIN UNDOUBTEDLY FELT PRESSURED TO DEMONSTRATE THAT A MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPING

WOULD LEAD THE OPPOSITION AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, BUT, IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT A PAPER ALLIANCE WILL MAKE THAT POINT.

23. (U) IN REPONSE TO A REQUEST FROM THE LAWYER'S ASSOCIATION, RANCAGUA BISHOP JORGE MEDINA INVITED ALL POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS IN THE SIXTH REGION TO SIGN A NON-AGGRESSION AGREEMENT TO LOWER THE LEVEL OF CONFRONTATION IN THE ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN. THE "PACT OF HONOR" COMMITS THOSE INVOLVED TO CREATE A CLIMATE OF MUTUAL RESPECT, DIGNITY AND TRANQUILITY BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE PLEBISCITE SO THAT VOTERS' RIGHT TO CHOOSE IS PROTECTED. IT WAS SIGNED BY 13 REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES OF PARTIES AND INDEPENDENT COMMITTEES WHICH RUN THE GAMUT FROM NATIONAL RENOVATION AND WOMEN OF CHILE TO NUNEZ SOCIALISTS AND MAPU. MSR. INVOLVEMENT IN POLITICS, IS CONSIDERED TO HAVE CLOSE TIES WITH THE GOC.

24. (U) IN A NATIONAL CONGRESS ON SEPTEMBER 10 THE RATIONAL PARTY FACTION LED BY PATRICIO PHILLIPS VOTED TO SUPPORT A SI VOTE IN THE PLEBISCITE. THE VOTE WAS 25 FOR THE SI, 25 FOR THE NO, AND ONE (SYLVIA LESSANDRI'S) FOR NO POSITION. PN LEADER ADOLFO ALLAS, WHO HAD ATTENDED BOTH THE RIESCO AND PHILLIPS ONGRESSES, WAS BOOED WHEN HE MADE AN APPEAL FOR NITY OF THE TWO FACTIONS. PHILLIPS FOLLOWED UP BY EETING WITH PRESIDENT PINOCHET, THEN WITH SERGIO ERNANDEZ. HE NOTED THAT HE WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE V SPOTS FOR THE SI, AND URGED THE FORMATION OF A OINT COMMAND FOR ALL THE PRO-SI PARTIES TO OORDINATE PUBLICITY AND PROVINCIAL TOURS.

25. (C) COMMENT: IT WAS EXPECTED THAT PHILLIPS WOULD LEAD HIS SECTOR OF THE PARTY

INTO SUPPORT FOR THE SI, WHICH HAS BEEN HIS ACKNOWLEDGED PREFERENCE FOR SOME TIME. THE PN-PHILLIPS CONVENTION DREW FEWER NATIONAL COUNSELORS THAN THE RIESCO CONGRESS (151 AS OPPOSED TO 161), THOUGH IT HAS MORE CHANCE OF MAINTAINING LEGAL RECOGNITION. ONLY THE PLEBISCITE RESULTS WILL DETERMINE WHO WILL FINALLY EMERGE FROM THE SPLINTERING OF THE NATIONALS AS THE "REAL" NATIONAL PARTY. PHILLIPS TOLD EMBOFFS SEPTEMBER 12 THAT HIS FACTION WOULD HAVE A MODERATING INFLUENCE ON PINOCHET, PARTICULARLY WITH REGARD TO HUMAN RIGHTS. WE DOUBT THAT EVEN PHILLIPS BELIEVES THAT.

6. (U) AS REPORTED IN SEPTEL, PINOCHET USED HIS TATE OF THE NATION ADDRESS TO ANNOUNCE A CHILEAN SIX HOUSAND PESO BONUS FOR ALL PUBLIC SECTOR WORKERS AND ETIREES. THE BONUS WAS DETERMINED EARLIER IN THE EAR WHEN INFLATION WAS EXPECTED TO BE AROUND 20 ERCENT. THE OBJECT WAS TO MAINTAIN THE REAL VALUE F LAST YEAR'S CHILEAN FIVE THOUSAND PESO BONUS. HERE ARE TWO ELEMENTS WHICH GIVE THE ANNOUNCEMENT ROADER SIGNIFICANCE: (1) MANIPULATION OF THE XCHANGE RATE TO AFFECT PRICES IS CONTINUING TO HAVE

I IMPACT ON REAL INCOMES -- IN EFFECT, LOWER THAN XPECTED INFLATION MEANS PUBLIC SECTOR BONUSES, WHILE OT LARGE, ARE MORE GENEROUS THAN ORIGINALLY TENDED; AND (2) PINOCHET URGED BUSINESSMEN TO BE NEROUS IN THEIR NATIONAL DAY BONUSES TO PASS ON THE UITS OF CHILE'S ECONOMIC PROGRESS. BUSINESSES DINARILY TAKE THEIR CUE ON BONUSES FROM THE VERNMENT. PUBLIC SECTOR WORKERS INCLUDE ALL ACHERS IN THE NATION'S PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND PLOYEES IN ALL PUBLIC HOSPITALS.

. (C) ALTHOUGH THERE HAS BEEN DAY-TO-DAY RIATIONS, THERE HAS BEEN NO SIGNIFICANT VEMENT IN THE STOCK EXCHANGE OR IN THE RALLEL DOLLAR. ECONOMISTS FROM THE

UNIVERSIDAD CATOLICA TOLD ECONCOUN THAT THE FAILURE OF A TREND TO MATERIALIZE IS INEXPLICABLE. ALL BUT ONE OF THE TEN ECONOMISTS PRESENT WAS FOR THE "SI" AND CONFIDENT THAT THE "SI" WILL WIN ON OCTOBER 5. WHEN ASKED TO COMMENT ON THE IMPACT ON THE ECONOMY OF A "NO" WIN, SEVERAL OF THE "SI" SUPPORTERS OF THIS GROUP COMMENTED THAT THE PARALLEL DOLLAR RATE WOULD INCREASE SHARPLY (I.E., THE PESO WOULD DEPRECIATE) AND THAT, MORE IMPORTANTLY, INVESTMENT WOULD DROP OFF AT LEAST IN THE NEAR TERM. MOST OF OUR CONTACTS IN THE FINANCIAL SECTOR BELIEVE THE CENTRAL BANK IS INTERVENING TO KEEP THE PARALLEL MARKET DOWN, ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE NO CONCRETE EVIDENCE.

30. (U) IN A MAJOR POLITICAL BLUNDER, THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED TELEVISION COUNCIL THIS WEEK CENSORED A TELEVISION CAMPAIGN ADVERTISEMENT OF THE "NO." STRONG PROTESTS FROM THE PUBLIC AND FROM BOTH OPPOSITION AND PRO-GOVERNMENT PRESS CAUSED PINOCHET TO DECREE THAT SINCE THE "NO" ADVERTISEMENT WAS NOT

AIRED (IT WAS PULLED RATHER THAN SUBMITTED TO CENSORSHIP), HE WOULD, THE FOLLOWING EVENING, FOREGO USE OF THE "SI" SPACE. HOWEVER, THE DAMAGE TO THE "SI" WAS DONE, AND THE RESULTING PUBLICITY GAVE THE CONTESTED SEGMENT OF THE ADVERTISEMENT, WHICH HAD ADDRESSED TORTURE BY THE CNI, WIDER DISTRIBUTION THAN HAD IT BEEN USED AS PART OF THE SPOT. THE OPPOSITION WAS QUICK TO POINT OUT THE IRONY OF THE FACT THAT AT THE SAME TIME THE ADVERTISEMENT WAS BEING CENSORED IN SANTIAGO, PINOCHET WAS IN VALPARAISO FOR THE ANNIVERSARY OF "EL MERCURIO," ASSERTING THAT "FREEDOM OF THE PRESS IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL OTHER FREEDOMS."

OPINION POLLS

31. (C) THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S ECONOMIC FACULTY RELEASED THE RESULTS OF A NATIONAL POLL SHOWING THE "SI" AHEAD BY 48 PERCENT TO 41 PERCENT FOR THE "NO", WITH 11 PERCENT UNDECIDED. SERVING AS A GOOD INDICATION OF THE BIAS OF THIS POLL, THE OFFICE OF INVESTIGACIONES ALSO ANNOUNCED VERY SIMILAR RESULTS OF THEIR RECENT POLL CONDUCTED TEN DAYS AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT OF PINOCHET'S NOMINATION. IT FOUND THAT 47 PERCENT OF THEIR RESPONDANTS SUPPORT THE "SI" AND 40 PERCENT THE "NO", 13 PERCENT UNDECIDED. MORE SERIOUS POLLING DATA IS EXPECTED LATER THIS MONTH WHEN CERC AND CEP ANNOUNCE THE RESULTS OF THEIR NATIONAL POLLS.

POLICY ADVISOR TO THE SALINAS ADMINISTRATION, MET WITH SCIENCE OFFICERS ON SEPTEMBER 22 TO DISCUSS THE S AND T AGENDA FOR THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION. FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA IS WELL KNOWN TO THE SCIENCE OFFICE THROUGH HIS POSITION AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL RESEARCH (IIE) IN CUERNAVACA. HIS SELECTION AS POLICY ADVISOR TO SALINAS IS A STRONG INDICATION THAT HE MAY BE APPOINTED THE NEXT DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (CONACYT).

4. THE S AND T COMMISSION, HEADED BY FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA AND ASSISTED BY FRANKLIN RENDON (DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF TECHNICAL DEVELOPMENT AT CONACYT), IS DIVIDED INTO FOUR WORK GROUPS: SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENT AS A NATIONAL PRIORITY; S AND T IN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT; S AND T AND THE BASIC NEEDS OF THE SOCIETY; AND THE NATIONAL S AND T SYSTEM--STRENGTHENING AND MODERNIZING IT. EACH WORKING GROUP IS DIVIDED INTO SUB-COMMITTEES, WHICH TOTAL 50. THE WORKING GROUPS ARE CHARGED WITH ANALYZING NATIONAL R AND D NEEDS AND ESTABLISHING THE ROLE OF THE SCIENTIFIC COMMUNITY IN DEFINING THE ACTIONS AND POLICIES WHICH MUST BE IMPLEMENTED TO STRENGTHEN THE ACTIVITIES OF NATIONAL RESEARCH CENTERS AND INSTITUTES.

5. RECENTLY, THE S AND T COMMISSION ANNOUNCED THAT THE POLICY FOR THE SALINAS ADMINISTRATION WILL BE TO: ACCELERATE AND STRENGTHEN RESEARCH; GIVE PRIORITY TO PROJECTS THAT LINK RESEARCH AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT; COORDINATE THE ACTIVITIES OF GOVERNMENT, THE SCIENTIFIC COMMUNITY, RESEARCH CENTERS, AND THE PRIVATE SECTOR; AND TO DETERMINE THE MOST IMPORTANT DIRECTIONS FOR NATIONAL SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY.

6. CONVERSATION INCLUDED REFERENCE TO THE 1989 BUDGET WHICH FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA SAID WOULD INCREASE BY 20

PERCENT IN REAL TERMS (THE MAXIMUM INCREASE ESTABLISHED BY THE ADMINISTRATION). HE WAS OPTIMISTIC THAT S AND T (I.E., CONACYT) MIGHT GET THE ENTIRE 20 PERCENT. HE SAID THAT THE SIGNALS HE WAS RECEIVING FROM THE ADMINISTRATION INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD GIVE FULL SUPPORT TO S AND T. THUS FAR, THE VARIOUS COMMISSIONS (34 IN TOTAL) APPOINTED TO DEVELOP THE SALINAS POLICY PLANS ARE WORKING TOGETHER [redacted]

[redacted]

TO COORDINATE THEIR S AND T NEEDS.

7. IN REFERENCE TO THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT, FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA (WHOSE BROTHER, RAFAEL FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA, IS DIRECTOR OF THE PLANT) SAID THAT THERE WAS NO DOUBT THAT THE REACTOR WOULD BE LOADED. IIE HAS BUILT THE SIMULATOR FOR LAGUNA VERDE AND FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA SAID IT WOULD BE SHIPPED TO THE PLANT WITHIN TWO WEEKS. HE SAID THAT THE MARGIN OF NATIONAL ELECTRICAL SUPPLY WAS DWINDLING AS THE GROWTH OF LOADING (4 TO 6 PERCENT PER YEAR FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS) HAS QUICKLY OVERTAKEN THE GROWTH IN SUPPLY. HE SAID THERE WAS A NEED AT IIE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT NON-DESTRUCTIVE TESTING AND BWR WATER CHEMISTRY AND EXPRESSED A DESIRE FOR EXPANDED U.S. COOPERATION.

8. HE MADE REFERENCE TO THE VISIT OF MEMBERS OF THE U.S. NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCE IN JUNE OF THIS YEAR AND SAID THAT HE HAD FOUND THE ONE DAY CONFERENCE AT COCOYOC EXTREMELY USEFUL IN HELPING DETERMINE HOW MEXICAN SCIENTISTS COULD ORGANIZE TO INFLUENCE GOVERNMENT FOR A MORE EFFECTIVE S AND T PROGRAM. SCICOUNS OFFERED TO SEND HIM A COPY OF THE TRIVELPIECE EDITORIAL ON SCIENTISTS BRINGING S AND T ISSUES TO THE FORE IN THE ELECTION PROCESS. THE LETELIER DISPUTE: BACKGROUND AND FACTUAL SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

On September 21, 1976, Orlando Letelier was assassinated on the streets of Washington, D.C. when a bomb exploded underneath his automobile. Killed along with Letelier, a former Chilean Ambassador to the United States and cabinet member, was Ronni Moffitt, an assistant to Letelier and a passenger in his car. Letelier's second passenger, Ronni's husband Michael Moffitt, was injured by the explosion. What follows is a brief account of the events leading up to and following the murder of Orlando Letelier; it reflects information that is available to the United States and which will be presented more fully at an appropriate time. The account should be viewed solely as an orienting summary and not as an exhaustive statement of all of the facts possessed by the United States Government. Nonetheless, the summary will show that senior officials of the Government of Chile planned and participated in the assassination of Orlando Letelier and obstructed, through acts of deception and evasion, all efforts to prosecute those individuals responsible for this brutal and illegal act of state-sponsored terrorism.

The evidence available to the United States is voluminous. It includes the confessions and statements of two DINA (the Chilean secret police) agents, both participants in the assassination of Orlando Letelier, as well as statements by the wife of one of these agents, herself a DINA agent. The evidence also includes statements by Ronni Moffitt, American investigators of the Letelier assassination, an explosives expert, the Director of the Paraguayan Intelligence Service in 1976, a LAN-Chile (the Chilean national airline) employee, several DINA employees who worked for one of the participant-confessors, an individual connecting a DINA participant to a CNM (Cuban, anti-Castro revolutionary group) participant in the assassination, two Venezuelan intelligence officers, several Chilean military/intelligence officers and two Cuban, anti-Castro revolutionaries.

In addition to the wide array of testimonial evidence possessed by the United States, an extensive collection of documentary evidence provides support for much of the testimony offered by those mentioned above and others. Documentary material corroborating the accounts of the participant-confessors and others include telephone records, flight manifests, bills, payment stubs, receipts, photographs, passports, identification cards and documents, simulation film, visa applications, immigration forms, diplomatic cables and various assorted documents. The combination of testimonial and documentary evidence provides compelling proof that the Government of Chile and certain of its officials and employees planned and participated in the assassination of Orlando Letelier and its subsequent cover-up.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

In September 1970, Salvador Allende was elected President of Chile, and Allende chose Orlando Letelier to serve as Ambassador to the United States. Letelier occupied this post in Washington, D.C. for almost three years, returning to Chile to assume the first of several cabinet positions in May 1973. Several months later, in September 1973, a military coup left Allende dead and Orlando Letelier under arrest. Letelier spent twelve months in confinement, often under brutal conditions, before he was released and expelled by the government of Augosto Pinochet.

In late 1974, Letelier returned to Washington, D.C. to accept a position at the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS). During his time at IPS, he developed friendships with two of his assistants, Ronni and Michael Moffitt, and became recognized as an articulate spokesman for the opposition to the regime of Pinochet. In response to Letelier's anti-Pinochet activism, Chile revoked Letelier's citizenship during the middle of 1976. Chile became increasingly concerned that Orlando Letelier would unify the various opposition factions and establish a Government in Exile.

THE ASSASSINATION: PREPARATIONS AND EXECUTION

In late June or early July 1976, Colonel Pedro Espinoza, Director of Operations for DINA, solicited Michael Vernon Townley, an expatriate American living in Chile, and Armando Fernandez, a lieutenant in the Chilean Army, to participate in a mission, the result of which would be the assassination of Orlando Letelier. Townley had been recruited to join DINA two years earlier and had performed several missions for DINA during that period, including collaborating with CNM members in the attempted assassinations of Chilean opposition leaders in Mexico City in 1975.

In performing the groundwork for the Letelier operation, at the orders of Espinoza and Juan Manuel Contreras, the Director of DINA, Townley and Fernandez were sent to Paraguay to obtain fake Paraguayan passports and visas for entry into the United States. After about a week in Paraguay, Townley and Fernandez received the fake documents; however, acting on a tip, the then-U.S. Ambassador to Paraguay, George Landau, photocopied the visa applications and accompanying passports and revoked the visas. Landau also asked the head of the Paraguayan intelligence service, Colonel Guanes, to retrieve the false passports from DINA. DINA returned the passports unused, although the photographs were removed.

Despite the problems encountered in Paraguay, Contreras and Espinoza decided to proceed with the plan to assassinate Letelier. They ordered Fernandez to travel to the United States to surveil Letelier; Fernandez would be accompanied by a female DINA agent, "Liliana Walker." The DINA leaders also sent two other agents, Captains Riveros and Mosquiera, to the United States using false Chilean passports bearing the same names as the Paraguayan visa applicants; the intention of this scheme was to cover for the failed Paraguayan passport mission and confuse any American investigators who might discover that the Government of Chile was behind the assassination of Letelier. Riveros and Mosquiera entered the United States on August 22, 1976, staying for two weeks; meanwhile, Fernandez and Walker arrived on August 26, using false Chilean passports.

During August, Espinoza also met with Townley and conveyed orders that the mission was "still on" and that Townley should meet with leaders of the CNM and secure their assistance. Espinoza hoped that Townley could convince the Cubans to actually kill Letelier and that Letelier's murder could be made to look like a suicide or accident. Nonetheless, the bottom line was that Letelier had to be killed, and Townley was specifically authorized to use a bomb if necessary.

Townley, traveling with a false Chilean passport, arrived at New York's Kennedy Airport aboard a LAN-Chile plane on September 9. He carried with him tri-nitrate of lead and blasting caps to be used in the assassination of Orlando Letelier. Through the contact of a LAN-Chile official, Townley met with Fernandez at the airport as pre-arranged. Fernandez turned over to Townley a map containing Letelier's address, his surveillance notes and some cash.

Having rented a car and driven to New Jersey, Townley contacted an old associate, CNM member Virgilio Paz. Through Paz, Townley was able to set up a meeting the next day with Guillermo Novo and Dionisio Suarez, two leaders of the CNM. At this meeting, Townley asked the two Cubans to cooperate in the Letelier killing. After a few days, the Cubans agreed to participate.

On the night of September 15, 1976, Townley and Paz drove from New Jersey to Washington, D.C. They carried with them a modified Fanon-Courier remote electronic paging device, plastic explosives and TNT, all supplied by the CNM. For the next two days, Townley and Paz watched Letelier's daily movements. On September 18, Suarez joined Paz and Townley in Washington, D.C., bringing with him the blasting cap used in the explosive device. In D.C., the conspirators purchased baking tins, tape and gloves at a Sears store and a battery pack with leads, slide switches and tools at a Radio Shack store to be utilized in the assassination of Letelier. That night, September 18, 1976, Townley, Paz and Suarez constructed the bomb, and Townley attached the device to the undercarriage of Orlando Letelier's automobile.

On September 19, Townley flew to Newark, New Jersey and was met by Alvin Ross Diaz, another CNM member. Before flying from Newark to Miami, Florida, Townley went to Kennedy Airport and submitted a false immigration form to indicate that the person whose identity he used on entering the United States had departed for Spain. In Miami, on September 20 and 21, Townley met, respectively, with CNM leader Felipe Rivero and Ignacio Novo, Guillermo's brother.. On September 21, Townley heard that a bomb had exploded in Washington, D.C. killing Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt and injuring Michael Moffitt. Townley would later learn from Virgilio Paz that the bomb had malfunctioned on the scheduled September 20 and that Paz and Suarez had removed the bomb, corrected the malfunction and reinstalled the device prior to its September 21 detonation. Having "successfully" completed his mission, Townley left Miami on September 22 aboard LAN-Chile to return to Santiago, Chile.

THE U.S. INVESTIGATION AND THE CHILEAN COVER-UP

Immediately after the assassination, as the United States Government began investigating the events surrounding the murder of Letelier, senior officials of the Government of Chile began concealing the involvement in the death of Letelier of both themselves and other Chilean officials and employees. The first break in the American investigation was the discovery of the participation of Guillermo Novo, Virgilio Paz, Dionisio Suarez and Alvin Ross and that DINA was also involved.

During June and July 1977, investigators from the United States Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation requested the assistance of the Chilean government in their investigations of links between the Cubans and Chilean government officials and employees. After a period of delay, the Government of Chile provided a written statement to the Americans which contained patently false information.

Discovering through sources that there was a connection between the Letelier killing and the trip to the United States by two persons using Chilean passports bearing the same names as those who had applied for visas in Paraguay in July 1976, the United States sent formal Letters Rogatory to the Chilean Supreme Court on February 17, 1978. The Letters Rogatory requested the Chilean government to produce for questioning the individuals who had entered the United States using those names; the U.S. also attached the pictures that Ambassador Landau had photocopied in Paraguay -- pictures of Townley and Fernandez.

After the Chilean Supreme Court received the Letters Rogatory, Contreras ordered Townley and Fernandez to lie to the Court, suggesting cover-up stories for each of them. After the Chilean Supreme Court refused to recognize the appearance of Mosquiera and Riveros as compliance with the Letters Rogatory, the Chilean government finally produced Townley and Fernandez. In court on March 31, 1978, Fernandez lied repeatedly about his involvement in the Letelier assassination and Townley, as an American citizen, invoked the privilege against self-incrimination contained in the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

On April 7, 1978, Earl Silbert, the U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, reached an agreement with Enrique Montero, Chilean Undersecretary of the Interior, whereby Townley was expelled from Chile and returned to the United States. Back in the United States, Townley refused to talk until he met with Chilean General Hector Orozco, a special military prosecutor. After giving a truthful statement to Orozco, Townley confessed to assassinating Orlando Letelier and provided the American authorities with extensive details of the involvement of senior-level Chilean officials in the planning, execution and cover-up of the Letelier murder. Much of Townley's statement was later corroborated by a wide range of documentary and testimonial evidence.

Upon Townley's confession in the United States, the Chilean authorities intensified their efforts to cover-up their actions relating to the death of Letelier. Orozco returned to Chile and obtained accurate statements from Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras. After hearing Contreras state that he had acted under the authority of "the Chief" -- the reference being to President Pinochet -- and realizing the magnitude of the conspiracy, Orozco decided that a coordinated plan had to be devised to further mask the roles of the Government of Chile and certain ~~of~~ its officials and employees in the assassination of Orlando Letelier.

THE EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS

On August 1, 1978, a grand jury in Washington, D.C. indicted Contreras, Espinoza, Fernandez and five Cubans with various crimes stemming from their participation in the murder of Letelier. Of the eight persons indicted, only Alvin Ross and Ignacio and Guillermo Novo were in custody; Paz and Suarez were still fugitives, and the three Chileans were in Chile.

The United States issued a formal extradition request for Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez with the Government of Chile on September 21, 1978. During the next several weeks, Orozco told Fernandez and Espinoza to lie at the extradition proceedings, and the three destroyed the truthful statements given by Fernandez and Espinoza several months earlier. President Pinochet also met with Fernandez and told him, "Be a good soldier, tough it out and this problem will have a happy end." On October 17, 1978, Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez lied under oath before the Chilean Supreme Court, providing fallacious cover stories for the trips to Paraguay and the United States. On May 13, 1979, Israel Borquez, President of the Chilean Supreme Court, refused to extradite any of the three Chileans to the United States. On October 1, 1979, the full Chilean Supreme Court also rejected the U.S. extradition request. The Chilean Supreme Court also ordered all Chilean investigations into these matters suspended.

Because many of the crucial conspirators in the plot to assassinate Orlando Letelier were not brought before a U.S. court, the United States was severely hampered in its efforts to prosecute those responsible for this act of international terrorism. Both the refusal of the Chilean Supreme Court to cooperate with American authorities and the Chilean government's failure to conduct a thorough and honest investigation into the assassination were pivotal in shielding the guilty parties from responsibility for their illegal and brutal actions.

THE CRIMINAL AND CIVIL CASES IN THE UNITED STATES

Following the indictments handed down in August 1978, the United States instituted criminal proceedings against the three Cubans in custody, Ignacio and Guillermo Novo and Alvin Ross. On February 14, 1979, after a six week trial, Ross and Guillermo Novo were convicted of murder and conspiracy, the Novo brothers were convicted of lying to a grand jury and Ignacio Novo was convicted of misprison of a felony. However, on September 15, 1980, a federal appellate court overturned the convictions of Ross and Guillermo Novo on evidentiary grounds and overturned the conviction of Ignacio Novo on the ground that he should have received a separate trial. On retrial, Guillermo Novo was found guilty of lying to a grand jury, and subsequently, Ignacio Novo pleaded guilty to lying to a grand jury.

Also following the criminal indictments, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt filed a civil suit against the perpetrators of the Letelier assassination, including the Republic of Chile. When all defendants failed to answer, default judgments were entered. However, after Chile sent a diplomatic note protesting jurisdiction, the district court agreed to review the jurisdictional issue. On March 11, 1980, the court held that Chile was not immune from the jurisdiction of U.S. courts. The Government of Chile then failed to appeal the ruling or participate in the trial on the merits. Thus, the district court, on November 5, 1980, entered judgment in favor of the plaintiffs for approximately $5,000,000, holding the defendants jointly and severally liable. Neither Chile nor the individual defendants appealed.

The families of Letelier and Moffitt then brought suit against LAN-Chile, an airline wholly owned by the Government of Chile, to execute the judgment against the Republic of Chile. The district court ruled in favor of the families, appointing Michael Moffitt as receiver for LAN-Chile's assets. On appeal, however, the federal appellate court held that LAN-Chile's separate juridical existence had to be recognized despite the fact that it was wholly owned by the Government of Chile. The Court stated that the families would have to look directly to Chile to satisfy their judgment. The United States Supreme Court denied certiorari on the judgment-creditors' appeal. Thus, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt exhausted their legal remedies in the United States in pursuit of obtaining compensation from the Republic of Chile for its egregious act of state-sponsored terrorism. The fact remains, however, that the families possess a legally-cognizable judgment against the Government of Chile which the Government refuses to acknowledge.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

In 1985, a Chilean military court granted Contreras' request to dismiss in its entirety the suspended investigation into the "Passport Cases" (Chile's euphemism for the Letelier assassination). The Letelier family, a civil party to the suit under Chilean law, appealed this decision. As the appeal was pending, a major break occurred in the Letelier case.

On February 4, 1987, following discussions with American authorities, Armando Fernandez voluntarily left Chile and entered the United States. Fernandez agreed to testify fully and truthfully and plead guilty to the charge of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of an internationally protected person. Fernandez' testimony corroborated almost entirely Michael Townley's earlier statements, reconfirming and adding to the extensive body of evidence linking highly-placed Chilean officials, including Contreras, Espinoza, Orozco and even Pinochet to the Letelier assassination and/or cover-up.

Armed with this dramatic, new evidence, the United States again formally requested the expulsion from Chile of Contreras and Espinoza on May 11, 1987. On May 22, a Chilean military court of appeal reversed the decision of the lower court and ordered that the investigation of the "Passport Cases" be returned to the status of "suspended" rather than "closed", a small victory for the Letelier family. However, on June 17, the Government of Chile rejected the U.S. request for expulsion.

On July 17, 1987, the U.S. sent a diplomatic note to Chile asking the Chilean government to prosecute Contreras and Espinoza in Chile if they refused to expel them to the United States. On July 28, Assistant Secretary of State Elliot Abrams presented Chilean Ambassador Errazuriz with a diplomatic note requesting Chile to pay ex gratia compensation to the families of Letelier and Moffitt.

In August, the Letelier family petitioned the lower military court to reopen the "Passport Cases." Later that month, the Chilean government sent two notes to the United States, the first refusing to expel or prosecute Contreras and Espinoza and the second rejecting any form of compensation for the families of the victims. And on October 13, the Chilean military court refused to reopen the "Passport Cases." The Letelier family once again filed an appeal.

To add momentum to its investigation, the U.S. Government transmitted a Letter Rogatory requesting General Orozco to furnish information about his knowledge of many aspects of the Letelier assassination and cover-up. After stalling for several months, the Chilean Supreme Court, on April 14, 1988, required Orozco to answer only 12 of the approximately 250 questions put to him. When Orozco's answers were received, they proved to be either minimally informative or patent lies.

Due to the virtual exhaustion of domestic legal proceedings both in the United States and Chile and the Government of Chile's continued refusal to cooperate with diplomatic and legal requests for assistance, the United States, in mid-April, formally espoused the claims of its U.S. citizens arising out of the Letelier assassination. On May 24, in a tersely worded note, the Government of Chile rejected the U.S. demands and refused to consider any further U.S. demands relating to the assassination of Letelier until an international tribunal settled certain jurisdictional issues.

On May 4, the Chilean military appeals court upheld the refusal of the lower court to reopen the "Passport Cases," and the Letelier family again appealed. This last hope of obtaining some cooperation from the Chilean government was extinguished in July 1988, when the Chilean Supreme Court denied the appeal, affirming the decision to keep the investigation in suspension. Despite the continued obstructive tactics of the Chilean government, the United States continues to demand that Chile cooperate in bringing this matter to a satisfactory resolution.

SENATOR ALAN J. DIXON

RECEIVED
88 OCT 20 AM 10:40

Senator Alan Dixon
Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Dixon:

I received a very distressing letter this week from a colleague in Santiago, Chile. My friend, Lind McCloskey (of St. Louis, MO) is, like me, an associate lay missioner with Maryknoll (the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America). On the night of August 30, 1988 the pobladores of the poblacion La Sandera had gathered in the streets to protest the naming of Augusto Pinochet as the candidate for the upcoming plebesite. What began as a peaceful demonstration ultimately erupted into a violent clash between the police and the pobladores. Two people were killed, a fourteen year old and a thirty-one year old man. Fearful for their lives, the remaining protestors returned to their homes.

Later that night, between 9:30 and 10:00, Lind and Maryknoll priest John Remmele were walking in the vicinity of their homes in the poblacion. As they approached their houses, a police bus came toward them at full speed firing shots. They attempted, unsuccessfully, to run for cover. Without asking for identification and without provocation on the part of either of them, the police began to beat both of them with nightsticks. While Lind's wounds were physically minor, John's required hospitalization.

A formal complaint was filed through the Vicaria of Solidaridad of the Catholic Church with the Fiscalia Militar of the Chilean government. To date there has been no response or follow up. Declarations of protest have been made by the people of the poblacion, the pastoral team of the parish (Jesus Senor de la Vida), and the vicar of the zone.

Lind's words speak eloquently of the horror of that night. "...in the emergency room I just started to cry and cry and cry. Mostly I have felt numb emotionally. I think a lot of it was that it all took place where I should have been safe...right outside my house...maybe too it is the fact that I never imagined that this would happen. People get detained, but they have to deal with you and identification and passports. These people never said a word, never asked for anything...they just hit. I think too that I have always thought out decisions to get involved in whatever I do and I didn't have the chance to choose this...or to even choose the circumstances that lead to confronting the police. The fact is that the Chilean people have lived with this for fifteen years. ...There was no curfew, there was no state of emergency and we were in front of our houses and in full rights to be where we were and doing what we were doing... pastoral work...talking with neighbors. They (the police) treat you poorly and tell you directly that it is your own fault for living with poor people."

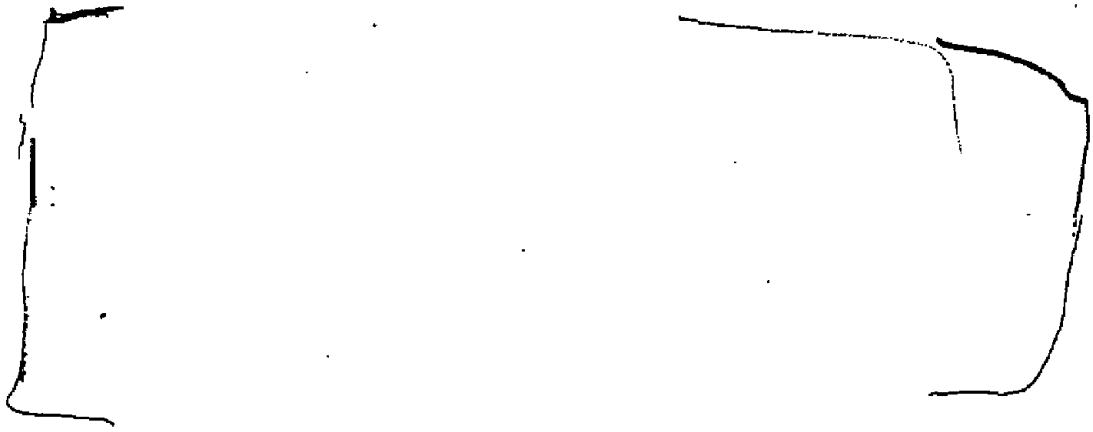
I want to know, Senator, what our government is doing about such on-going human rights violations in Chile. If American citizenship and missionary status provide no immunity from persecution at the hands of a repressive government, what must be the on-going plight of the common men and women of Chile, particularly those rendered voiceless by poverty. I urge you to use your voice and your influence in Congress to decry the continuing repression and injustice of the Pinochet regime. We cannot morally remain silent in the face of such outrage.

Sincerely,



R

SUBJECT: SCIENCE NOTES FOR MEXICO, SEPTEMBER 1988

1. SUMMARY: THE FOLLOWING IS A SYNOPSIS OF THE MAJOR S AND T DEVELOPMENTS IN MEXICO FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER 1988. THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS AND ITEMS OF THE PAST MONTH ARE SUMMARIZED IN THE AREAS OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY, BILATERAL COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS, POLLUTION AND THE ENVIRONMENT, FISHERIES AND WILDLIFE, ENERGY, AND PUBLIC HEALTH. END SUMMARY

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

2. S AND T IN PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID'S FINAL STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS: IN HIS LAST STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS, PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID SPOKE ABOUT THE ADVANCES THAT HAD BEEN MADE IN S AND T IN MEXICO DURING HIS ADMINISTRATION. HE POINTED OUT THAT SUCH DIVERSE AREAS AS BIOTECHNOLOGY, COMPUTER SCIENCE AND DATA MANAGEMENT,

AND MATERIAL SCIENCE CHANGED CONSIDERABLY. DE LA MADRID HIGHLIGHTED THE CHANGES MADE IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING, WHERE THE CREATION OF SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS HAS STRENGTHENED NATIONAL ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND HAS LESSENED THE NEED FOR STUDENTS TO GO ABROAD FOR GRADUATE WORK. DE LA MADRID ALSO PRAISED THE NATIONAL SYSTEM OF RESEARCHERS, WHICH NOW HAS 3,987 MEMBERS, AND IS SUPPORTING 1,341 PROJECTS THIS YEAR. THE PRESIDENT CLOSED BY POINTING OUT THE IMPORTANCE THAT SELECTING APPROPRIATE TECHNOLOGIES HAS IN CREATING A BALANCED ECONOMY. HE ALSO STRESSED THAT SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENT IS THE CATALYST FOR THE CONTINUED RESTRUCTURING OF THE MEXICAN ECONOMY.

3. DISASTER PREVENTION: PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID RECENTLY SIGNED A DECREE CREATING THE NATIONAL DISASTER PREVENTION CENTER. THE CENTER WILL BE LOCATED AT THE NATIONAL AUTONOMOUS UNIVERSITY (UNAM) AND WILL WORK IN COORDINATION WITH THE SECRETARIAT OF THE INTERIOR. IT IS CHARGED WITH DEVELOPING TECHNOLOGIES THAT WILL SUPPORT AND ADVANCE EXISTING CIVIL PROTECTION SYSTEMS. UNAM HAS ALREADY ESTABLISHED AN EARTHQUAKE INFORMATION SERVICE, WHICH USES DATA FROM 16 TELEMETRIC STATIONS SPREAD THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. IN ADDITION, A SEISMOLOGICAL STATION WAS SET UP TO REGISTER SEISMIC ACTIVITY AROUND THE COLIMA VOLCANO, THE MOST ACTIVE SEISMIC AREA IN THE COUNTRY.

4. MORELOS SATELLITE I: THE SECRETARIAT OF COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION (SCT) ANNOUNCED THAT THE MORELOS SATELLITE WILL BE FUNCTIONING AT FULL CAPACITY IN APPROXIMATELY TWO MONTHS. AT PRESENT, USE OF THE SATELLITE BENEFITS 80 MILLION PEOPLE, WHO USE ITS TELECOMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES IN AREAS AS DIVERSE AS:

EDUCATION, HEALTH, BANKING, ENERGY, AND INDUSTRY.

5. PEMEX RESEARCH INTO SUPERCONDUCTORS: PEMEX, THE MEXICAN PETROLEUM PARASTATAL, WILL FINANCE THE MATERIALS RESEARCH OF THE INSTITUTE FOR MATERIALS RESEARCH OF UNAM. PEMEX WILL SUPPLY EQUIPMENT AND FINANCE ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES AND STUDIES OF SPECIALISTS IN THIS AREA.

6. EFFORTS TO PROMOTE R AND D: THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTERREY RECENTLY HELD AN S AND T CONFERENCE DEDICATED TO PROMOTING INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION IN R AND D. SCIENTISTS FROM DEVELOPED AND DEVELOPING COUNTRIES CAME TO RELATE THEIR EXPERIENCES IN COORDINATING THE

7. MEXICO-CENTRAL AMERICA: THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS (SRE) RECENTLY ANNOUNCED THE CREATION OF 140 SCHOLARSHIPS FOR GRADUATE STUDY BY CENTRAL AMERICANS THAT WILL BE FINANCED THROUGH MEXICAN DONATIONS TO THE FUND FOR ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT FOR CENTRAL AMERICA. THIS PROGRAM IS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN IN
8. MEXICO-JAPAN: OKITA SABURO, THE EX-FOREIGN MINISTER OF JAPAN, IS HEADING A COOPERATIVE VENTURE WITH THE MEXICAN MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND THE MEXICAN SOCIAL SECURITY INSTITUTE (IMSS) THAT WILL TRAIN EPIDEMIOLOGISTS, TECHNICIANS AND SPECIALISTS WORKING ON AIDS. THE GOM HAS ALSO EXPRESSED INTEREST IN APPLYING JAPANESE MINING TECHNOLOGY IN EXTRACTING SULFITES FROM VOLCANIC ROCK (THE STATE OF OAXACA IS DEVELOPING A PILOT PROJECT USING THIS EQUIPMENT). MEXICO CITY WILL HOST A HI-TECH TRADE FAIR FEATURING THESE AND OTHER JAPANESE TECHNOLOGIES IN OCTOBER.

9. MEXICO-EEC: THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS RECENTLY HOSTED THE FIRST MIXED COMMISSION ON S AND T COOPERATION BETWEEN MEXICO AND THE EEC. THE MEETING IS SEEN AS A WATERSHED IN MEXICAN-EUROPEAN RELATIONS BECAUSE OF THE AMBITIOUS PROGRAM PLAN THAT WAS DEVELOPED. IN ADDITION TO ESTABLISHING AN S AND T COMMITTEE OFFICE IN MEXICO, THE MEETING DRAFTED PROPOSALS FOR 12 PROJECTS FOR 1988-1989 IN AREAS SUCH AS TECHNOLOGICAL INNOVATION, BIOTECHNOLOGY, AGRICULTURE AND LIVESTOCK, HEALTH AND NUTRITION, ECOLOGY AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND HOUSING. TWELVE SCHOLARSHIPS AT ENGLISH UNIVERSITIES WERE ALSO ESTABLISHED (10 FOR POST DOCTORAL WORK AND 2 FOR DOCTORAL STUDIES). A JOINT BIOTECHNOLOGY WORKSHOP IN MEXICO IS BEING PLANNED FOR JANUARY.

10. MEXICO-USSR: THE MEXICAN STEEL PARASTATAL, SIDERMEX, AND THE SOVIET PARASTATAL TIAZHPROMEXPORT EXTENDED THEIR COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT UNTIL 1993. A GROUP OF MEXICAN TECHNICIANS RECENTLY VISITED THE NOVO-LIPESTK COMPLEX WHERE THEY WERE SHOWN SEVERAL NEW STEEL PROCESSING METHODS. THE SOVIET PARASTATAL AGREED TO CONTINUE TRAINING MEXICAN TECHNICIANS IN HIGH TEMPERATURE STEEL MAKING, WHILE SIDERMEX AGREED TO INSTRUCT SOVIET TECHNICIANS ON METHODS OF RECONSTRUCTING AND MODERNIZING EXISTING PLANTS.

POLLUTION AND THE ENVIRONMENT

11. AIR POLLUTION: SEDUE AND UNEP HOSTED THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL AIR QUALITY CONFERENCE IN TLAXCALA. 60 SPECIALISTS FROM THE USA, BRAZIL, VENEZUELA, MEXICO, JAPAN, THE FRG, FRANCE, SWEDEN AND GREECE PARTICIPATED IN THE CONFERENCE. PARTICIPANTS ASSESSED THE ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE GOM TO SOLVE THE AIR POLLUTION PROBLEMS IN THE VALEY OF MEXICO (35,000 FIXED SOURCES AND 2.5 MILLION VEHICLES EMIT 5 MILLION TONS OF POLLUTANTS INTO THE ATMOSPHERE, MAKING THIS THE REGION'S MOST IMMEDIATE ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEM). AMONG THE CONCLUSIONS WERE PROPOSALS TO: EXTEND THE EXISTING MONITORING NETWORK AND TRAIN MORE TECHNICIANS; MONITOR POLLUTERS MORE CLOSELY;

DECREASE HYDROCARBON PRODUCTION AND USAGE CONTRIBUTING TO OZONE CREATION; AND PUSH THE AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY AND FACTORIES INSTALLED IN THE VALLEY OF MEXICO TO DEVELOP AND APPLY POLLUTION CONTROL TECHNOLOGIES.

12. AIR POLLUTION EFFECTS: EXPERTS RECENTLY COMMENTED ON THE EFFECTS OF POLLUTION AT THE MEXICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION FOR RESPIRATORY ILLNESSES'S SYMPOSIUM. THEY UNCLASSIFIED

POINTED OUT THAT CHILDREN ARE THE MOST AFFECTED BY POLLUTION. IN GENERAL, THE PARTICIPANTS AGREED THAT CONTINUED EXPOSURE TO POLLUTION WEAKENS RESPIRATORY FUNCTION AND DIRECTLY AFFECTS THE THE CARDIOVASCULAR AND CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEMS. THE EXPERTS ADDED THAT THE GOM SHOULD TAKE ACTIONS DESIGNED TO DECREASE OZONE LEVELS AND IMPROVE EXISTING METHODS FOR CONTROLLING AIR POLLUTION.

13. AIR POLLUTION IN THE VALLEY OF MEXICO: THE OZONE LEVEL SURPASSED THE LEGAL LIMIT OF 200 ON THE IMECA SCALE (MEXICAN AIR QUALITY INDEX - 200 EQUALS .11 PPM) ON FIVE DAYS THIS MONTH. ON SEP. 11, OZONE REACHED 297 ON THE IMECA SCALE (.37 PPM), THE HIGHEST LEVEL RECORDED IN 1988.

14. CARIBBEAN ACTION PLAN (CAP): UNEP AND SEDUE HOSTED TWO MEETINGS AS PART OF THE CARI BBEAN ACTION PLAN AT THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS. AN EXPERTS' MEETING WAS HELD FIRST, WHERE PARTICIPANTS EXAMINED STRATEGIES FOR REGIONAL ECOLOGICAL COOPERATION. THIS GROUP THEN MADE RECOMMENDATIONS THAT WERE REVIEWED BY THE MONITORING COMMITTEE OF THE CAP THE FOLLOWING WEEK. EXPERTS FROM 33 COUNTRIES AND FROM THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY, THE LATIN AMERICAN ECONOMIC COMMISSION, THE PANAMERICAN HEALTH ORGANIZATION, THE CARIBBEAN COMMON MARKET AND SEVERAL ENVIRONMENTAL GROUPS ATTENDED. AMONG THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE MEETINGS WERE: A COMMITMENT TO CONSIDER SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PRIORITIES IN DESIGNING REGIONAL PROJECTS; THE CREATION OF A PROJECT TO DESIGN PROGRAMS TO SAFELY HANDLE, STORE AND DISPOSE OF CHEMICAL, RADIOACTIVE AND TOXIC WASTES; AND, A PLEDGE TO PROTECT AND RATIONALLY EXPLOIT MARINE RESOURCES.

IN ADDITION, REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE GOM DISCUSSED LATIN AMERICA'S ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS. MRS. BRUNDTLAND ANNOUNCED A 150,000 US DLS. DONATION FROM NORWAY TO MEXICO FOR THE PURCHASE OF POLLUTION MONITORING EQUIPMENT.

FISHERIES AND WILDLIFE

16. JAMES BRENNAN, NOAA ADMINISTRATOR FOR FISHERIES, RECENTLY MET WITH PEDRO OJEDA PAULLADA, SECRETARY OF FISHERIES, AND OTHER OFFICIALS FROM THE FISHERIES SECRETARIAT (SEPESCA) TO DISCUSS THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES. THE CORDIAL ATMOSPHERE REFLECTED THE CLOSE COOPERATIVE RELATIONSHIP BOTH NATIONS SHARE. BOTH MEN ALSO DISCUSSED THE SUCCESSES OF THE OUTGOING ADMINISTRATIONS AND THE POTENTIAL FOR COOPERATION UNDER THE INCOMING ADMINISTRATIONS.

17. HURRICANE GILBERT: MEXICO'S FISHING FLEET WAS GREATLY DAMAGED BY HURRICANE GILBERT. FLEETS IN THE STATES OF QUINTANA ROO, CAMPECHE, YUCATAN, AND TAMAULIPAS WERE SEVERELY DAMAGED. THE DESTRUCTION OF A SIZABLE PART OF THE FISHING FLEET IS EXPECTED TO GREATLY LOWER FISHERIES PRODUCTION FOR 1988.

18. USFWS/SEDUE ACCORD: THE U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE RECENTLY COMPLETED AN AGREEMENT WITH THE SECRETARIAT OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND ECOLOGY (SEDUE) REGARDING SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND COLLECTION OF FLORA AND FAUNA. UNDER THE AGREEMENT, BOTH AGENCIES WILL STANDARDIZE THEIR PROCEDURES REGARDING RESEARCH AND COLLECTION AND WILL AGREE TO SHARE ALL INFORMATION REGARDING SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND COLLECTION IN THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNTRIES.

19. POSSIBLE NEW DATES FOR THE OPENING OF LAGUNA VERDE: HORACIO LOMBARDO, AN ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT COMMENTED IN THE PRESS THAT THE NUCLEAR PLANT MAY COME ON LINE THIS NOVEMBER. BEFORE THIS CAN HAPPEN, HOWEVER, THE GOM NEEDS TO HAMMER OUT AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FEDERAL AND STATE GOVERNMENTS AND THE PARTIES OPPOSING THE PLANT PLEDGING SUPPORT FOR THE REACTOR. RAFAEL FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE PLANT, PUBLICLY DECLARED THAT THERE ARE 90 TONS OF URANIUM ON-SITE THAT UNCLASSIFIED

PUBLIC HEALTH

20. AIDS: MEXICO WILL HOST THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON AIDS EDUCATION IN IXTAPA ON OCTOBER 12-14. THE CONFERENCE IS AIMED AT PROFESSIONALS WORKING IN PUBLIC EDUCATION CAMPAIGNS. ACCORDING TO THE HEAD OF CONASIDA (NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR THE PREVENTION OF AIDS), DR. JAIME SEPULVEDA AMOR, MEXICO'S GREATEST STRENGTH LIES IN ITS AIDS EDUCATION CAMPAIGN, AND HE FEELS THAT PEOPLE FROM AROUND THE WORLD CAN LEARN A GREAT DEAL FROM THE MEXICAN MODEL. IN ADDITION, CONASIDA REPORTED THAT THERE ARE 1628 CASES OF AIDS IN MEXICO AS OF 9/1/88. CONASIDA AND SECRETARIAT OF HEALTH OFFICIALS CALCULATE THAT THE NUMBER OF CASES IS INCREASING 10 PERCENT A MONTH.

THE ROAD TOWARD DEMOCRACY IS A ROCKY ONE. IN GUATEMALA IT IS MADE EVEN MORE DIFFICULT BY CENTURIES OF UNDERDEVELOPMENT, DEEP SOCIAL DIVISIONS, AND A HISTORY OF VIOLENT RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES. HOWEVER, THE COMPLEX PROCESS OF A GENUINE TRANSITION IS WELL UNDER WAY AND THE SITUATION TODAY, ECONOMICALLY AND POLITICALLY, IS MUCH BETTER THAN WHEN THE ELECTED CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT TOOK OFFICE IN JANUARY 1986. INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED FAR MORE SYSTEMATICALLY, AND THE ENVIRONMENT OF LIBERTY HAS ENCOURAGED THE BROADER EXERCISE OF

RIGHTS. MOST GUATEMALANS, INCLUDING THE LEADERSHIP OF THE ARMED FORCES, REJECTED AN ATTEMPT BY DISSIDENT OFFICERS TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT IN MAY 1988. FEW BELIEVE THAT THE GOVERNMENT PURSUES A POLICY OF

EXTRA-LEGAL REPRESSION, OR EVEN CONDONES IT. WHILE THE TOTAL NUMBER OF REPORTED VIOLENT CRIMES IS UP OVER LAST YEAR, THERE IS NO INDICATION OF OFFICIAL INVOLVEMENT. THE REPORTING ABILITIES OF THE MEDIA AND THE WILLINGNESS OF THE PUBLIC TO REPORT CRIMES TO THE AUTHORITIES MAY HAVE IMPROVED.

THE GUATEMALAN CONSTITUTION WHICH TOOK EFFECT IN JANUARY 1986 PROVIDES FOR A DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED PRESIDENT, A 100 MEMBER UNICAMERAL LEGISLATURE, AND AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY. FREE AND FAIR MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IN APRIL 1988 STRENGTHENED THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. ELEMENTS FROM ACROSS THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM ARE REPRESENTED IN GUATEMALAN POLITICS, ALTHOUGH THE SPLINTERING OF THE OPPOSITION INTO MANY SMALL AND FRAGMENTED PARTIES FACILITATES EFFECTIVE CONTROL OVER BASIC POLICIES BY THE RULING CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY. THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS POLICIES ARE FREELY CRITICIZED IN GUATEMALA.

ONGOING CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS IN THE JUSTICE SECTOR, INCLUDING THE POLICE AND THE JUDICIARY, AS WELL AS INCREASED PROFESSIONALISM IN THE BEHAVIOR OF THE MILITARY, ARE HAVING A POSITIVE IMPACT ON RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. THE PROSECUTION OF MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL POLICE AND EX-MEMBERS OF CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS FOR ABUSES OF HUMAN RIGHTS SHOW THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITMENT TO IMPROVING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION.

VIOLENT CRIME REMAINS WIDESPREAD IN 1988. DIFFERENTIATING CASES OF COMMON CRIME FROM THOSE THAT ARE POLITICALLY MOTIVATED IS DIFFICULT. A PROMINENT EXAMPLE OF THIS IS THE SEPTEMBER 11 CONFRONTATION OF LAND REFORM ADVOCATE FATHER ANDRE GIRON AND THREE OTHERS WITH 30 TO 35 HEAVILY ARMED MEN ON AN ISOLATED ROAD. GIRON'S BODYGUARD WAS SHOT AND KILLED BUT GIRON WAS UNHARMED AND ALLOWED TO CONTINUE ON HIS WAY. EXACTLY WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ATTACK, OR WHAT ITS PURPOSE WAS, HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE OF THE GOG'S POLITICAL WILL WAS DEMONSTRATED BY THE PROSECUTION OF BOTH CIVILIAN AND MILITARY PARTICIPANTS OF THE MAY 11 ATTEMPTED COUP D'ETAT. ALTHOUGH ALL PARTICIPANTS FELL UNDER AN AMNESTY

SUBSEQUENTLY ENACTED BY THE GUATEMALAN CONGRESS, PROSECUTION HAD BEEN UNDERTAKEN IN BOTH CIVILIAN AND MILITARY COURTS. THE MAJORITY OF THE MILITARY PARTICIPANTS WERE RELEASED FROM ACTIVE DUTY FOR THEIR PART IN THE ABORTED COUP, WHILE OTHERS, ACCUSED OF MORE TACIT PARTICIPATION IN THE ATTEMPT, WERE REASSIGNED TO POSITIONS OF LITTLE IMPORTANCE.

THE RETURN TO GUATEMALA OF A GROWING NUMBER OF SELF-EXILES DURING 1988 DEMONSTRATES HOW IMPROVED THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IS OVER THAT OF THE EARLY 1980'S. A VISIT TO GUATEMALA BY TWO LEADERS OF THE UNITED REPRESENTATION OF THE GUATEMALAN OPPOSITION (RUOG), RIGOBERTA MENCHU AND ROLANDO CASTILLO, AS WELL AS THE RETURN OF DR. BERNARDO VILLELA XOY AFTER EIGHT YEARS, ATTEST TO THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA'S DETERMINATION TO ABIDE BY THE RULE OF LAW AND TO GUARANTEE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

THE CONTINUING ACTIVITIES OF THE CONSTITUTIONALLY MANDATED HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, NAMED IN AUGUST 1987, ARE PART OF A WIDER EFFORT TO ENSURE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. THE OMBUDSMAN OPENED OFFICES IN FIVE OF GUATEMALA'S 22 DEPARTMENTS, AND PROCESSED NEARLY 700 OF THE 850 CASES PUT BEFORE HIM THROUGH AUGUST 1988.

THE RECOVERY OF GUATEMALA'S ECONOMY, BEGUN IN 1987, TRANSLATED INTO SLIGHTLY HIGHER PER CAPITA INCOMES FOR GUATEMALANS IN 1988, AS MODERATE GROWTH CONTINUED. GROWTH WAS LED BY INCREASED PRIVATE SECTOR INVESTMENT, EXPORTS OF NON-TRADITIONAL PRODUCTS, TOURISM, AND CONSTRUCTION. ROUGH ESTIMATES INDICATE UNEMPLOYMENT HAS [redacted]

FALLEN STEADILY SINCE 1986. DESPITE HIGHER GOVERNMENT OUTLAYS, THE FISCAL DEFICIT IS MODEST AND THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA HAS PURSUED FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND MACROECONOMIC POLICIES WHICH HAVE RESULTED IN CONTROLLING INFLATION AND STABILIZING THE QUETZAL'S VALUE VERSUS THE DOLLAR. OTHER POSITIVE INDICATORS FOR THE LONG TO MEDIUM TERM ARE GUATEMALA'S RELATIVELY LOW EXERNAL DEBT, LITTLE GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT IN THE ECONOMY, AND GROWING INVESTOR AND CONSUMER CONFIDENCE AS DEMOCRACY TAKES ROOT. HOWEVER, A HISTORY OF A BADLY SKEWED ECONOMY AND OF INADEQUATE PAST ATTENTION TO NEEDED SOCIAL SERVICES INHIBITS THE BENEFITS OF THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY BEING SHARED FULLY AMONG ALL SECTORS.

THE UNITED NATIONS EXPERT FOR ADVISORY SERVICES, HECTOR GROSS ESPIEL, VISITED GUATEMALA IN AUGUST AND FOUND PROGRESS AND THE ABSENCE OF A POLICY OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS.

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

SECTION 1 RESPECT FOR THE INTEGRITY OF THE PERSON, INCLUDING FREEDOM FROM:

A. POLITICAL KILLING

THE NUMBER OF KNOWN KILLINGS IN WHICH A POLITICAL MOTIVE COULD NOT BE RULED OUT REMAINED STEADY IN 1988, REACHING 44 FOR THE MONTHS JANUARY THROUGH JUNE. THOUGH THESE FIGURES INDICATE AN AVERAGE OF SEVEN POSSIBLY POLITICALLY MOTIVATED KILLINGS EACH MONTH, THE SAME AS IN 1987, THEY CONTINUE TO MARK A DRAMATIC DECLINE FROM THE HIGH LEVELS OF POLITICAL KILLING IN THE EARLY

[redacted]

1980'S. THESE FIGURES ARE BASED ON AVAILABLE STATISTICS; IT IS NOT KNOWN HOW MANY OF THESE DEATHS WERE, IN FACT, ACTUALLY POLITICALLY MOTIVATED OR, IF SO, WHICH GROUP OR FACTION WAS RESPONSIBLE.

HOMICIDES ATTRIBUTED TO COMMON CRIME CONTINUED AT A HIGH RATE IN 1988, INCLUDING CASES OF SUSPECTED VIGILANTE JUSTICE BY PRIVATE CITIZENS. ACCORDING TO NATIONAL POLICE STATISTICS, THERE WAS AN AVERAGE OF 188 KILLINGS EACH MONTH, UP FROM THE 1987 AVERAGE OF 148 PER MONTH. REPORTED CASES OF ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL FELL FROM 600 PER MONTH IN 1987 TO AN AVERAGE OF 512 PER MONTH IN 1988, BASED ON AVAILABLE POLICE STATISTICS. THE CONTINUING VIOLENCE AND THE HIGH CRIME RATE HAVE BEEN ATTRIBUTED TO DRUG-TRAFFICKING, COMMON CRIME, POVERTY AND EVEN THE RETURN OF DEMOCRACY. SOME OBSERVERS CITE THE HIGH CRIME RATE IN GUATEMALA AS A BASIS FOR CHARGES THAT POLITICAL KILLINGS CONTINUE. OTHERS HAVE OBSERVED THAT HIGHER STATISTICAL TOTALS MAY RESULT IN PART FROM BETTER RECORDKEEPING, A LESS INHIBITED PRESS AND A GREATER PUBLIC WILLINGNESS TO REPORT CRIMES TO THE AUTHORITIES.

THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA CONTINUED ITS EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE ANY OFFICIAL INVOLVEMENT IN POLITICAL KILLINGS THROUGH REORGANIZATION AND IMPROVED TRAINING, AND ALSO BY PROSECUTING MILITARY AND POLICE OFFICERS ON CRIMINAL CHARGES. NEITHER THE PRESENT DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT NOR THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DIRECTING OR CARRYING OUT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. THOSE INCIDENTS WHICH STILL OCCUR SEEM TO RESULT FROM INDIVIDUALS ACTING BEYOND THEIR AUTHORITY, OR ARE THE RESULT OF CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES NOT RELATED TO THE CIVILIAN OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES. WHILE

RESORT TO VIOLENCE IS STILL ALL TOO COMMON, THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT, RATHER THAN CONTRIBUTING TO THE VIOLENCE, IS

[redacted]

SEEKING TO END IT.

SUBJECT: 1988 REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES FOR GUATEMALA

AN IMPORTANT DEMONSTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S WILL TO PUNISH THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR VIOLATING HUMAN RIGHTS IS THE PROSECUTION OF POLICE AGENTS AND EX-CIVIL DEFENSE PATROL MEMBERS FOR CURRENT AND PAST ABUSES. THE FORMER CHIEF OF POLICE OF QUETZALTENANGO, CATALINO VALIENTE ALONSO, AND SEVEN FORMER POLICE OFFICERS WERE FOUND GUILTY AND SENTENCED TO THIRTY YEARS IN PRISON FOR THE OCTOBER 1987 KIDNAPPING AND MURDER OF UNIVERSITY STUDENT LEADERS DANILO SERGIO ALVARADO MEJIA AND RENE HAROLDO LEIVA CAYAX. THIS PROSECUTION SETS AN IMPORTANT PRECEDENT IN GUATEMALA AND REINFORCES THE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS THAT IS BEING INSTILLED THROUGH THE TRAINING AND REORGANIZATION UNDERTAKEN TO IMPROVE BOTH POLICE AND MILITARY BEHAVIOR. IT IS AN IMPORTANT STEP FOR GUATEMALA TO BEGIN ADDRESSING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES

THROUGH DUE PROCESS OF LAW.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT PRECEDENT WAS SET BY THE PROSECUTION OF TWO FORMER COMMANDERS OF THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROL OF CHITINIMIT IN CHICHICASTENANGO, EL QUICHE. MIGUEL BATZ AND MANUEL GUARCAJ WERE CHARGED WITH THE 1983 MURDERS OF 23 PERSONS DESCRIBED AS FORMER GUERRILLAS WHO HAD OBTAINED AMNESTY. A MASS GRAVE WAS UNCOVERED IN FEBRUARY BY THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN WHO INVESTIGATED THE MASSACRE BASED ON A FORMAL COMPLAINT SUBMITTED TO HIS OFFICE BY A MEMBER OF THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP. (DISPOSITION OF THIS CASE WILL BE FORWARDED TO DEPARTMENT WHEN AVAILABLE TO EMBASSY.)

A THIRD SIGNIFICANT PRECEDENT INVOLVED THE CASE OF ANTONIO MELENDEZ BOUSCAYROL, WHO WAS DETAINED BY POLICE ON MAY 23 FOR ALLEGEDLY SHOOTING A POLICE OFFICER IN GUATEMALA CITY. AFTER HIS DETENTION IN THE NATIONAL POLICE'S SEVENTH PRECINCT MELENDEZ DIED IN THE SOCIAL SECURITY HOSPITAL FROM CRANIAL ENCEPHALIC TRAUMA OF THE FOURTH DEGREE. THE SEVENTH PRECINCT ATTEMPTED TO COVER UP THE CRIME BY STATING THAT MELENDEZ HAD BEEN FOUND DEAD BY POLICE AGENTS. SUBSEQUENT INVESTIGATION BY THE NATIONAL POLICE DETERMINED THAT MELENDEZ DIED AS A RESULT OF VIOLENCE, AND SIX POLICE AGENTS AND THE SUBCHIEF OF THE SEVENTH PRECINCT WERE ARRESTED. (DISPOSITION OF THIS CASE WILL BE FORWARDED TO DEPARTMENT WHEN AVAILABLE TO EMBASSY.)

THE ABDUCTION AND MURDER OF ANA ELIZABETH PANIAGUA MORALES IN GUATEMALA CITY ON FEBRUARY 9 APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN POLITICALLY MOTIVATED. MS. PANIAGUA WAS ABDUCTED I[redacted]

BY THREE MEN IN JOGGING OUTFITS WHO FORCED HER INTO A WHITE VAN. HER BODY WAS FOUND WITH KNIFE WOUNDS TWO DAYS LATER. THE NATIONAL POLICE ANNOUNCED THAT MS. PANIAGUA HAD A PRISON RECORD FOR CRIMES SUCH AS ASSAULT, ROBBERY AND MURDER. THEY ALSO NOTED THAT HER FAMILY WAS NOT COOPERATING WITH THE POLICE INVESTIGATION.

UNIVERSITY OF SAN CARLOS AGRONOMY STUDENT JOSE ALBINO GRIJALVA ESTEVEZ WAS KIDNAPPED AT A BUS STOP IN GUATEMALA CITY ON FEBRUARY 16 AND TAKEN AWAY, ALSO IN A WHITE VAN. HIS BODY WAS FOUND WITH KNIFE AND GUNSHOT WOUNDS THE NEXT DAY IN BARBERENA, SANTA ROSA. THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP (GAM) DENOUNCED BOTH MURDERS AND SEIZED ON THE CASES AS EXAMPLES OF OFFICIALLY SPONSORED VIOLENCE. IN JUNE 1988 THE NATIONAL POLICE PRESENTED DOCUMENTATION TO THE COURTS WHICH ALLEGES THAT TREASURY POLICE AGENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE ABDUCTIONS AND MURDERS, AMONG OTHERS. HOWEVER, THE ACCUSED WERE SUBSEQUENTLY RELEASED FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE.

EUSEBIO AJCALON PIOF AND DOMINGO AJCALON MATZUL WERE REPORTEDLY ABDUCTED BY TWO MEN IN OLIVE GREEN UNIFORMS WHO CARRIED WEAPONS ON THE EVENING OF MAY 29. BOTH MEN HAD ATTENDED A CONSTITUTION DAY CELEBRATION THAT DAY WITH ABOUT 8000 OTHER PEOPLE FROM THE MUNICIPALITIES IN CHIMALTENANGO DEPARTMENT. ACCORDING TO DOMINGO AJCALON'S FATHER, THE TWO MEN LEFT DOMINGO'S HOME AT ABOUT 6:30 P.M. THAT EVENING AND SHOTS WERE HEARD ABOUT 15 MINUTES LATER. WHEN FAMILY MEMBERS WENT TO INVESTIGATE, THEY FOUND NOTHING. EARLY ON MAY 30, THE BODIES OF THE TWO MEN WERE FOUND ON THE LAND OF JOSE YOT IN THE SMALL VILLAGE OF MOCOLIXOT, PATZUN. EUSEBIO AJCALON HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE LOCAL DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL IN MOCOLIXOT BAJO AND MAY HAVE BEEN ACTIVE POLITICALLY IN HIS COMMUNITY. THE MURDERS REMAIN UNSOLVED.

ALLEGATIONS OF DEATH-SQUAD TYPE ACTIVITIES

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

CONTINUED IN 1988, WITH PRESS REPORTS INDICATING THAT THE ACTIVITY OF ULTRA-RIGHT TERRORIST GROUPS HAS BEEN INCREASING. THE NUMBER OF REPORTED KIDNAPPINGS AND MURDERS IN WHICH THERE ARE SIMILARITIES TO DEATH-SQUAD TRAITS OF PREVIOUS YEARS HAS BEEN RISING. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT DENY ANY MILITARY OR POLICE INVOLVEMENT IN DEATH-SQUAD LIKE KILLINGS, AND THESE DENIALS ARE GENERALLY ACCEPTED.

B. DISAPPEARANCE

DISAPPEARANCES TOOK PLACE IN GUATEMALA IN 1988 AT A RATE GREATLY REDUCED FROM THAT OF THE EARLY 1980'S. THE NATIONAL POLICE REPORTED AN AVERAGE OF 27

[redacted]

KIDNAPPINGS PER MONTH IN 1988, SOME OF WHICH ARE PRESUMED TO HAVE BEEN POLITICALLY MOTIVATED. THIS IS NEARLY THREE TIMES THE RATE AT WHICH KIDNAPPINGS WERE REPORTED DURING THE PREVIOUS TWO YEARS. NEARLY 50 PERCENT INVOLVE PERSONS UNDER THE AGE OF SIXTEEN, A PHENOMENON THAT HAS SWELLED THE NUMBER OF DISAPPEARED SINCE THE LAST TRIMESTER OF 1987. THIS APPEARS TO REFLECT MORE AN INCREASE IN KIDNAPPING FOR PROFIT THAN FOR POLITICAL MOTIVATION.

AMONG THE MOST PUBLICIZED CASES WAS THE "DISAPPEARANCE" OF MARIA ELENA GASPAR XUNCAX, A KANJOBAL INDIAN WHO IS A LEGAL PERMANENT RESIDENT IN THE UNITED STATES. ON JULY 1, DURING HER FIRST VISIT BACK TO GUATEMALA IN SEVEN YEARS, SHE WAS DETAINED BY UNIFORMED POLICE OFFICERS AFTER SHE HAD BEEN DENOUNCED AS AN ACTIVE GUERRILLA BY A VILLAGER IN BARRILLAS, HUEHUETENANGO. ACCORDING TO HER OWN ACCOUNT OF THE INCIDENT, SHE WAS THEN TAKEN BY PLAINCLOTHES MEN TO THE NEARBY MILITARY CAMP AND QUESTIONED REPEATEDLY. MS. GASPAR WAS FREED ON JULY 6, AND THE MILITARY TRANSPORTED HER BACK TO SAN MIGUEL, WHERE SHE HAD BEEN STAYING WITH RELATIVES. HER FAMILY IN BARILLAS HAD ASSUMED THAT SHE HAD DISAPPEARED SINCE THEY RECEIVED NO CONFIRMATION OF HER WHEREABOUTS AFTER THE FIRST OF JULY. ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT SOURCES, THE ARMY FORMALLY APOLOGIZED TO MS. GASPAR AND THE CASE WAS ONE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY. MS. GASPAR HAD NO FURTHER PROBLEMS DURING THE REMAINDER OF HER VISIT TO GUATEMALA.

A PARTICULARLY TROUBLING ABDUCTION INVOLVED THE

UNCLASSIFIED

JUDGE PRESIDING OVER THE CASE DESCRIBED IN THE PRECEDING SECTION IN WHICH TREASURY POLICE AGENTS WERE ACCUSED BY [redacted]

THE NATIONAL POLICE OF ALLEGED KILLINGS, ABDUCTIONS AND ROBBERIES. JUDGE ANIBAL TREJO DUQUE AND CARLOS MORAN ARRIAGA WERE ABDUCTED ON JULY 20. THE DISCOVERY OF TREJO'S ABANDONED VEHICLE LED TO AN INVESTIGATION OF THEIR APPARENT KIDNAPPING. TREJO WAS FREED ON THE EVENING OF JULY 22, AND STATED THAT HIS CAPTORS DID NOT ASK HIM ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CASE HE WAS PROSECUTING, THOUGH SOME OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT THE ABDUCTION WAS RELATED TO THE CASE. TREJO REPORTED THAT HE WAS TREATED WELL AND TOLD THAT HIS ABDUCTION WAS A MISTAKE. TREJO ALSO INSISTS THAT MORAN WAS NOT WITH HIM WHEN HE WAS ABDUCTED. MORAN WAS FOUND DEAD ON THE MORNING OF JULY 22. SHORTLY THEREAFTER JUDGE TREJO RELEASED ALL THE ACCUSED TREASURY AGENTS FROM PRE-TRIAL CUSTODY. A SIGNIFICANT ASPECT OF THIS ABDUCTION IS THE LACK OF INFORMATION CONCERNING ANY POLICE INVESTIGATION INTO THE CASE.

OTHER NOTABLE DISAPPEARANCES INCLUDE THOSE OF THE GOMEZ QUISQUINA GROUP. ACCORDING TO REPORTS, REMIGIO GOMEZ QUISQUINA WENT TO LOOK FOR FIREWOOD LATE ON THE EVENING OF FEBRUARY 15 IN SAN LUCAS TOLIMAN AND NEVER RETURNED HOME. GOMEZ QUISQUINA SUFFERED FROM SEIZURES. WHEN HE DID NOT RETURN HIS FOUR BROTHERS, HIS FATHER, A COUSIN AND A FRIEND WENT LOOKING FOR HIM, THINKING THAT HE HAD SUFFERED A SEIZURE. THEY NEVER RETURNED. AT FIRST THE FAMILY BELIEVED THAT THEY HAD BEEN ABDUCTED BY THE MILITARY BUT THEY LATER THOUGHT THAT THE GUERRILLAS, WHO WERE KNOWN TO BE LOOKING FOR RECRUITS IN THAT AREA, MAY HAVE WAYLAID THE MEN. THE DISAPPEARANCES REMAINED UNSOLVED.

SALVADORAN CITIZEN RAFAEL VEGA CASTILLO DISAPPEARED IN JANUARY AFTER DRIVING INTO GUATEMALA IN A 1987 TOYOTA AND CARRING A LARGE AMOUNT OF CURRENCY WITH WHICH TO PURCHASE COMPUTER EQUIPMENT. POLICE AGENTS PAID BY THE VEGA FAMILY TO CHECK ON THE WHEREABOUTS OF [redacted]

RAFAEL VEGA REPORTED THAT VEGA WAS SEEN IN A MILITARY POLICE PRISON, WHERE HE WAS HELD UNDER ANOTHER NAME. MILITARY AUTHORITIES DENY THAT HE WAS EVER HELD BY THEM. THE NATIONAL POLICE REPORT THAT THE BODY OF VEGA AND THAT OF ANOTHER MAN WERE FOUND ON FEBRUARY 18 IN ESQUINTLA. VEGA DIED FROM A HEAD FRACTURE, INTERNAL BLEEDING IN THE HEAD CAUSED BY A GUNSHOT, AND A NONCONTAGIOUS ILLNESS (PRESUMABLY THE EPILEPSY FROM WHICH HE SUFFERED). VEGA WAS POSITIVELY IDENTIFED ON MARCH 17 BY HIS UNCLE, WITH WHOM HE HAD LIVED IN EL SALVADOR.

DISAPPEARANCES IS THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP (GAM), THE PRINCIPAL DOMESTIC CIVILIAN ORGANIZATION DEVOTED TO PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THE OFFICE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN, IN OPERATION SINCE AUGUST 1987, CONTINUED TO INVESTIGATE ALLEGED HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, INCLUDING DISAPPEARANCES.

C. TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

UNCLASSIFIED

DURING 1988 REPORTS OF TORTURE ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE MILITARY OR POLICE FORCES WERE INFREQUENT. THE NATIONAL POLICE, UNDER THE COORDINATION OF THE INTERIOR MINISTRY, ARE ATTEMPTING TO END ALL SUCH ABUSES. THROUGH TRAINING AND FOREIGN ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS FROM SEVERAL COUNTRIES, INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES, SPAIN, VENEZUELA AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY, THE NATIONAL POLICE HAVE BEGUN TO REORGANIZE AND TO IMPROVE INVESTIGATIVE AND FORENSIC LABORATORY TECHNIQUES AND THUS PROFESSIONALIZE THE SECURITY FORCES. ISOLATED CASES OF PRISONERS BEING MURDERED WHILE THEY ARE IN PRISON DO OCCUR, BUT THE BLAME HAS NOT BEEN LAID ON GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES.

D. ARBITRARY ARREST, DETENTION, EXILE, OR FORCED LABOR

ALLEGATIONS OF ARBITRARY ARREST ARE INFREQUENT IN GUATEMALA. UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, A PERSON CANNOT BE HELD FOR MORE THAN SIX HOURS WITHOUT BEING BROUGHT BEFORE A JUDGE AND FORMALLY CHARGED WITH A CRIME. CONSEQUENTLY, AT TIMES CASES ARE BROUGHT BEFORE A JUDGE WITH INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE. CONTINUED UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE APPLICATION OF THIS REQUIREMENT IN THE CONSTITUTION, [redacted]

DESIGNED TO PREVENT ARBITRARY ARREST AND DETENTION, HAS FREQUENTLY RESULTED IN ALLOWING ACCUSED CRIMINALS TO GO FREE.

OTHER PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS INCLUDE THE NEED FOR AN ARREST WARRANT FROM THE CRIMINAL COURT WHERE THE ACCUSATION IS PRESENTED WHEN THE ACCUSED IS NOT APPREHENDED "EN FLAGRANTE." GUATEMALAN LAW ALSO STIPULATES THAT THE TIME LIMIT FOR BEING CHARGED OR RELEASED IS 20 DAYS IN THE INSTITUTIONAL OR INVESTIGATIVE PHASE. ADDITIONALLY, THE LAW INCORPORATES THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT AGAINST ILLEGAL DETENTION AND REQUIRES THE PERSONAL APPEARANCE OF ANY PERSON WHO IS ILLEGALLY DETAINED OR WHOSE FREEDOM IS THREATENED IN ANY WAY.

INVOLUNTARY EXILE IS NOT USED AS A PUNISHMENT BY THE GOVERNMENT, AND THERE HAVE BEEN NO KNOWN INSTANCES IN WHICH GOVERNMENT CRITICS WERE ARRESTED FOR POLITICAL REASONS. THE PRACTICE OF COMPULSORY LABOR IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. FOR A DISCUSSION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR, SEE SECTION 6C.

CHARGES CONTINUE TO SURFACE THAT MEMBERS OF VOLUNTEER CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS ARE FORCED TO DO UNRELATED TASKS WITHOUT COMPENSATION. DOCUMENTATION OF SUCH CASES IS SCARCE. THE QUESTION STILL ARISES REGARDING THE VOLUNTARY NATURE OF THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS. WHILE THE GOVERNMENT INSISTS THAT THEY ARE WHOLLY VOLUNTARY, COMPLAINTS ARE FREQUENTLY MADE THAT INDIVIDUALS ARE FORCED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CIVIL DEFENSE PATROLS UNDER THREATS AND INTIMIDATION AT THE LOCAL LEVEL. THE GOVERNMENT HAS PRESENTED THE HUMAN RIGHTS OMBUDSMAN WITH A FORMAL WRITTEN DECLARATION THAT SERVICE IS STRICTLY VOLUNTARY, AND THE OMBUDSMAN HAS DISSEMINATED COPIES OF THE DECLARATION TO ALL CIVIL

THE GUATEMALAN CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY, OPERATING UNDER THE CIVIL LAW TRADITION, AND ENSURES THE JUDICIARY'S INDEPENDENCE BY ALLOTTING IT A SET PERCENTAGE OF THE NATIONAL BUDGET. UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, THERE IS A SUPREME COURT, A COURT OF APPEALS AND SEVERAL COURTS OF PARTICULAR JURISDICTION. THERE IS ONLY ONE FORMAL JUDICIAL SYSTEM FOR ALL CIVILIANS, AND THE MILITARY HAS ITS OWN SPECIAL

COURTS WHICH HAVE JURISDICTION ONLY OVER MILITARY PERSONNEL.

MINIMUM DUE PROCESS IS PROVIDED FOR BY THE GUATEMALAN JUDICIARY SYSTEM. ALL ACCUSED ARE ALLOWED A [redacted]

PUBLIC TRIAL, ONCE THE INVESTIGATIVE PHASE IS COMPLETE. THE RIGHT TO LEGAL COUNSEL IS PROVIDED FOR BY LAW AND MADE AVAILABLE BY THE STATE TO INDIGENTS. STATE FUNDED LEGAL SERVICES ARE USUALLY PROVIDED BY LAW STUDENTS. SINCE THE MAJORITY OF THE NATION'S LAWYERS LIVE IN OR NEAR GUATEMALA CITY, IT IS SOMETIMES DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN LEGAL COUNSEL IN THE COUNTRYSIDE. DEFENDANTS MAY BE RELEASED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE MAGISTRATE AFTER POSTING BAIL. CUMBERSOME JUDICIAL MACHINERY RESULTS IN MANY DEFENDANTS SPENDING SEVERAL MONTHS IN PRISON BEFORE THEIR CASES ARE BROUGHT TO TRIAL. ALL CASES ARE GRANTED AN AUTOMATIC APPEAL UPON CONVICTION AND REVISION IN THE COURT OF APPEALS.

THE GUATEMALAN JUDICIARY IS WORKING CLOSELY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRIME AND TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS (ILANUD) AND OTHER DONORS IN ORDER TO IMPROVE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE LEGAL SYSTEM AND TO ACQUIRE NEEDED TRAINING AND EQUIPMENT. LEGISLATION TO IMPROVE THE SELECTION AND MANAGEMENT OF JUDICIAL PERSONNEL IS BEFORE THE CONGRESS. JUDICIAL REFORMS AND TRAINING SHOULD RESULT IN IMPROVED JUDICIAL SUPERVISION OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS AND GREATER EFFICIENCY AND PROFESSIONALISM.

THERE ARE NO KNOWN CASES OF PERSONS BEING IMPRISONED FOR POLITICAL REASONS OR FOR NONVIOLENT EXERCISE OF BASIC HUMAN RIGHTS.

F. ARBITRARY INTERFERENCE WITH PRIVACY, FAMILY, HOME OR CORRESPONDENCE

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR THE INVIOLABILITY OF [redacted]

THE HOME, PERSONAL CORRESPONDENCE, AND PRIVATE PAPERS.

INSTANCES OF AUTHORITIES VIOLATING THE PRIVACY OF THE HOME AND ENGAGING IN CRIMINAL ACTS AGAINST INDIVIDUALS AND PROPERTY ARE ISOLATED.

SECTION 2 RESPECT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES, INCLUDING:

A. FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS

THE GUATEMALAN CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION. THE BOUNDARIES OF FREE EXPRESSION HAVE EXPANDED SIGNIFICANTLY IN THE FIRST THREE YEARS OE DEMOCRATIC RULE. THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS LEADING CIVILIAN OFFICIALS RECEIVE A STEADY STREAM OF CRITICISM FROM GUATEMALA'S PRINT AND BROADCAST MEDIA. NEWSPAPERS CARRY PAID ADVERTISEMENTS PLACED BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND THE UMBRELLA GUERRILLA GROUP THAT IS WAGING WAR AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT. UNPAID GUERRILLA PRESS RELEASES PROVIDE THE INSURGENT VERSION OF CLASHES WITH THE MILITARY. IN-DEPTH INTERVIEWS WITH GUERRILLA LEADERS HAVE RECENTLY APPEARED IN THE NATION'S LEADING PRINT MEDIA.

DESPITE THE MORE OPEN ATMOSPHERE, JOURNALISTS CONTINUE TO EXERCISE A DEGREE OF SELF-CENSORSHIP IN REPORTING ON MILITARY MATTERS AND PERSONALITIES. MEDIA ORGANS THAT HAVE GIVEN INTERVIEW SPACE TO GUERRILLA LEADERS HAVE BEEN CAREFUL TO GIVE EQUAL TIME TO ARMY SPOKESMEN. JOURNALISTS REMAIN WARY OF INVESTIGATING CHARGES OF MALFEASANCE OR CORRUPTION IN THE MILITARY.

THE LAST YEAR HAS SEEN INCREASED TENSIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND MUCH OF THE NATION'S NEWS MEDIA. EXTREMELY JEALOUS OF THEIR PREROGATIVES, THE MEDIA ARE QUICK TO REACT TO ANYTHING THEY INTERPRET AS "PRESSURE"

IN ADDITION, IN THE WAKE OF THE FAILED MAY 11 COUP ATTEMPT, A NUMBER OF INCIDENTS OCCURRED THAT RAN COUNTER TO THE GENERAL TENDENCY TOWARDS GREATER FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION. THESE EVENTS RAISED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY TO MAINTAIN AND GUARANTEE THE PROGRESS MADE TOWARDS GREATER OPENNESS.

IN LATE MAY, THE GOG CLOSED ONE OF THE NATION'S FOUR COMMERCIAL TELEVISION CHANNELS. THE CHANNEL HAD LEASED SPACE TO A STRIDENTLY ANTI-GOVERNMENT NEWS PROGRAM RUN BY AN UNSUCCESSFUL 1985 PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. THE COURTS ORDERED THE GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW THE STATION BACK ON THE AIR AFTER A 12-DAY PERIOD. THE GOVERNMENT COMPLIED AND THE NEWS PROGRAM BROADCAST FOR A FEW DAYS UNTIL ITS CONTRACT WITH THE CHANNEL RAN OUT IN [redacted]

EARLY JUNE. THE NEWS PROGRAM'S MANAGEMENT CHARGES THAT ITS CONTRACT WAS NOT RENEWED DUE TO GOG "PRESSURES" ON THE CHANNEL'S MANAGEMENT. BOTH THE CHANNEL AND THE GOVERNMENT DENY THIS CHARGE.

ON MAY 19 THE RESIDENCE/OFFICE OF THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS REPRESENTATIVE WAS THE VICTIM OF A TERRORIST BOMB ATTACK. NO ONE WAS INJURED BUT MATERIAL DAMAGE WAS EXTENSIVE. THE TASS REPRESENTATIVE LEFT GUATEMALA SHORTLY AFTER THIS ATTACK. THE CUBAN NEWS AGENCY "PRENSA LATINA" REPRESENTATIVE CLOSED HIS OFFICE AROUND THE SAME TIME, REPORTEDLY AFTER RECEIVING DEATH THREATS. WHILE TASS AND "PRENSA LATINA" REPRESENTATIVES HAVE TRAVELED TO GUATEMALA ON TRIPS SUBSEQUENTLY, NEITHER ORGANIZATION HAS REOPENED ITS OFFICES HERE.

ON JUNE 10 A LEFT-LEANING WEEKLY NEWSPAPER CALLED "LA EPOCA" WAS THE OBJECT OF A PRE-DAWN TERRORIST BOMB ATTACK. THE ATTACK, CONDUCTED AGAINST THE NEWSPAPER'S

EDITORIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES, WAS ALSO AIMED AT THE ACEN-SIAG NEWS AGENCY, AN ORGANIZATION OWNED AND OPERATED BY THE SAME PERSONS WHO PUBLISHED "LA EPOCA." A WITNESS TO THE ATTACK WAS KIDNAPPED, HELD AND INTERROGATED BY THE TERRORISTS FOR THIRTY HOURS. ALTHOUGH MATERIAL DAMAGE WAS EXTENSIVE, NO ONE WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED. THE GOG CONDEMNED THE ATTACK AND THE DIRECTOR OF THE GOG'S DAILY NEWSPAPER PUBLICLY OFFERED THE TEMPORARY USE OF GOG FACILITIES TO INSURE NO BREAK IN PUBLICATION.

"LA EPOCA'S" PUBLISHER, AFTER VOWING TO REOPEN IMMEDIATELY, CHANGED HIS MIND AND LEFT THE COUNTRY. HE ATTRIBUTED HIS CHANGE OF HEART TO DEATH THREATS DIRECTED [redacted]

AT HIM AND THE MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF. THE PUBLISHER PUBLICLY CHARGED "ELEMENTS OF THE STATE SECURITY APPARATUS" FOR THE ATTACK. ALTHOUGH NO EVIDENCE WAS PRODUCED TO PROVE THIS ACCUSATION, IT IS WIDELY BELIEVED BY LOCAL OBSERVERS. THE PUBLISHER RETURNED TO GUATEMALA IN SEPTEMBER.

FOREIGN FILMS, BOOKS, MAGAZINES, AND NEWSPAPERS CIRCULATE FREELY IN GUATEMALA. THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT JAM FOREIGN RADIO OR TELEVISION BROADCASTS. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS WORK WITHOUT GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE.

B. FREEDOM OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION

THE RIGHTS OF PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY AND POLITICAL ASSOCIATION ARE PROVIDED FOR IN THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE GOVERNMENT TAKES STEPS TO ASSURE THAT THESE RIGHTS CAN BE EXERCISED FREELY. THE GOVERNMENT MUST GRANT A PERMIT (PERSONERIA JURIDICA) SO THAT ORGANIZATIONS CAN ACQUIRE LEGAL STATUS AS IS COMMON IN LATIN AMERICA, BUT THE LACK OF SUCH STATUS HAS NOT BEEN AN IMPEDEMENT TO PEACEFUL ASSOCIATION. THE GOVERNMENT MEETS WITH ORGANIZATIONS WITHOUT LEGAL STATUS WHICH FUNCTION FREELY, SUCH AS THE UNIDAD DE ACCION SINDICAL Y POPULAR (UASP) AND THE ALIANZA CIVICA NACIONAL.

LEFTIST LEADERS WHO MAINTAIN TIES WITH GUERRILLA SUPPORT GROUPS OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY RETURNED TO GUATEMALA IN APRIL, AND THEY WERE ALLOWED TO ADDRESS PUBLIC RALLIES AND MARCH IN THE MAY DAY PARADE. PROVOCATIONS DURING THE PARADE INCLUDED THE BURNING OF AN AMERICAN FLAG. THE POLICE ACTED WITH RESTRAINT AND, AS IN OTHER PUBLIC DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS, THE PARADE ENDED PEACEFULLY.

TERRORIST GROUP ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE BLAST, WHICH WAS TERMED A RIGHT-WING RESPONSE TO AN ANNOUNCED SEMINAR ON LIBERATION THEOLOGY. THE GOVERNMENT CONDEMNED THE ATTACK.

INTERNATIONAL GROUPS WHO HAVE INVESTIGATED HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES IN GUATEMALA HAVE ALLEGED THAT LEADERS OF GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE GOVERNMENT HAVE BEEN SUBJECT TO HARRASSMENT AND/OR VIOLENCE. WHILE THIS WAS ADMITTEDLY A PROBLEM IN THE LATE 1970'S AND EARLY 1980'S, THERE HAVE BEEN MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS IN THIS AREA SINCE GUATEMALA ESTABLISHED A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. UNSITRAGUA, A LABOR CONFEDERATION WHICH IS THE HEIR TO A MOVEMENT WHICH SENT RECRUITS TO THE GUERRILLAS IN THE 1970'S, EMERGED WITH A CLANDESTINE LEADERSHIP IN THE

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

MID-1980'S. IN 1988, ITS LEADERS HELD PUBLIC, ON CAMERA PRESS CONFERENCES
TO MAKE INFLAMATORY ACCUSATION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT FOR ITS ECONOMIC PRACTICES. WHILE THERE WERE REPORTS OF ANONYMOUS THREATS IN SOME CASES (THESE TRADITIONS HAVE NOT BEEN ELIMINATED), THE LEADERS THEMSELVES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE GOVERNMENT PROTECTED THEIR RIGHT TO DISSENT.

C. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

GUATEMALA HAS NO STATE RELIGION. MORE THAN 70 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION IS ROMAN CATHOLIC, BUT ALL RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS HAVE THE RIGHT TO PRACTICE FREELY IN GUATEMALA. MANY INDIAN GROUPS, WHICH COMPRISE ROUGHLY 50 PERCENT OF THE NATION'S TOTAL POPULATION, MIX NATIVE BELIEFS WITH CATHOLIC PRACTICES. OVER 25 PERCENT OF GUATEMALANS NOW ADHERE TO PROTESTANT DENOMINATIONS, MOST OF WHICH ARE EVANGELICAL IN NATURE. THERE ARE ALSO SMALL COMMUNITIES OF JEWS, MORMONS, BAHA'I, AND BUDDHISTS. TENSIONS BETWEEN THE NATION'S CATHOLIC HIERARCHY AND THE GROWING EVANGELICAL MOVEMENT CONTINUES, BUT FEW INSTANCES OF VIOLENT CLASHES WERE REPORTED IN 1988.

D. FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY, FOREIGN TRAVEL, EMIGRATION, AND REPATRIATION

THERE ARE NO LEGAL RESTRICTIONS ON FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WITHIN THE COUNTRY AND WITH REGARD TO TRAVEL ABROAD. A NUMBER OF PROMINENT LEFTISTS WHO FLED GUATEMALA IN THE EARLY 1980'S HAVE RETURNED, SOME TO VISIT AND OTHERS TO LIVE PERMANENTLY. GUERRILLA LEADERS WITH THE URNG ANNOUNCED TO THE NATIONAL RECONCILIATION [redacted]

COMMISSION THAT THEY WISHED TO RETURN TO GUATEMALA TO PARTICIPATE IN THE NATIONAL DIALOGUE. THE GOVERNMENT SAID THEY COULD RETURN TO GUATEMALA ONLY IF THEY LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS AND ACCEPTED THE AMNESTY.

GUERRILLAS WHO HAVE ACCEPTED THE AMNESTY ARE DOCUMENTED BY THE GOVERNMENT AND ALLOWED TO LIVE WHERE THEY CHOOSE. THE MODEL VILLAGE PROGRAM OF THE FORMER MILITARY GOVERNMENT WAS TRANFERRED FROM THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE TO THE MINISTRY OF DEVELOPMENT AFTER CIVILIAN

RULE WAS REESTABLISHED IN 1986. SINCE THEN, IT HAS BEEN GOVERNMENT POLICY NOT TO DEVELOP ADDITIONAL VILLAGES.

GUATEMALA GENERATED THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES IN THE EARLY 1980'S AND EVEN MORE DISPLACED PERSONS. REFUGEES ARE NOW REPATRIATING AS SECURITY AND LIVING CONDITIONS IMPROVE IN CONFLICTIVE AREAS. THE NUMBER OF RETURNEES HAS INCREASED EACH YEAR SINCE THE INAUGURATION OF THE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT, REACHING ABOUT 2,000 IN 1988 (TWICE THE NUMBER THAT RETURNED IN 1987). NEARLY 4500 DISPLACED PERSONS RETURNED TO AREAS UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL IN 1988. ALTHOUGH THOSE WHO RETURN FROM REFUGE IN OR OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY OR FROM SERVICE WITH THE GUERRILLAS MAY FIND THAT THEIR LAND IS NOW BEING FARMED BY OTHERS, THE GOVERNMENT GUARANTEED THAT RETURNING REFUGEES WILL RECEIVE EITHER THEIR OWN LAND OR LAND IN NEWLY SETTLED AREAS. THIS HAS NOT ALWAYS PROVEN TO BE POSSIBLE IN PRACTICE, AND A FEW REPARTIATED REFUGEES HAVE SOUGHT TO RETURN TO THEIR COUNTRY OF ASYLUM (USUALLY MEXICO).

GUATEMALA CONTINUES TO RECEIVE REFUGEES FROM NICARAGUA AND EL SALVADOR. ESTIMATES OF THE NUMBER OF NICARAGUANS LIVING IN GUATEMALA VARY BETWEEN 7,000 AND 20,000, AND MOST OF THEM ARE IN THE COUNTRY ILLEGALLY. THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF SALVADORANS WHO COME TO [redacted]

ESCAPE THE GUERRILLA WARFARE. THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT DEPORT THESE PERSONS, AND MANY OF THEM OBTAIN ASSISTANCE FROM VARIOUS CHURCH GROUPS AND OTHER CHARITIES.

SECTION 3 RESPECT FOR POLITICAL RIGHTS: THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO CHANGE THEIR GOVERNMENT

PRESIDENT VINICIO CEREZO TOOK OFFICE IN JANUARY 1986 AFTER FREE AND FAIR DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS IN 1985 FOLLOWING 20 YEARS OF MILITARY RULE. THE PRESIDENT AND A NEAR MAJORITY OF CONGRESSIONAL DEPUTIES ARE MEMBERS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY. IN THE 100-MEMBER UNICAMERAL CONGRESS THERE ARE ELEVEN POLITICAL PARTIES WHICH RANGE ACROSS THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM FROM RIGHT TO [redacted]

LEFT. THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESSIONAL DEPUTIES WERE ELECTED TO FIVE YEAR TERMS IN 1985 AND NEW NATIONAL ELECTIONS ARE SCHEDULED FOR 1990. MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS WERE HELD IN APRIL 1988 AND BY ALL ACCOUNTS THEY WERE FREE AND FAIR. LOWER THAN EXPECTED VOTER TURNOUT WAS ATTRIBUTED TO THE ELIMINATION, PURSUANT TO THE NEW CONSTITUTION, OF THE PREVIOUS LONG-STANDING LAW WHICH HAD IMPOSED A FINE ON CITIZENS WHO DID NOT VOTE.

SECTION 4 GOVERNMENTAL ATTITUDE REGARDING INTERNATIONAL AND NONGOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATON OF ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA HAS WELCOMED INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DELEGATIONS. THOUGH NOT MANY INTERNATIONAL GROUPS HAVE PERMANENT OFFICES IN GUATEMALA, MANY HAVE REPRESENTATIVES IN THE COUNTRY OR VISIT FAIRLY FREQUENTLY. AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL AND AMERICAS WATCH CONTINUED TO ISSUE REPORTS IN 1988 THAT ARE CRITICAL OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN GUATEMALA, ALTHOUGH THEY DO NOTE IMPROVEMENTS. REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH GROUPS HAVE VISITED GUATEMALA SINCE THE DEMOCRATICALLY ELECTED GOVERNMENT CAME TO POWER IN JANUARY 1986.

HECTOR GROSS ESPIEL, THE UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS EXPERT FOR GUATEMALA, VISITED IN AUGUST AND CONSULTED WITH THE GOVERNMENT ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. GROSS ESPIEL SAID THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN GUATEMALA HAS IMPROVED, AND THAT GREAT PROGRESS HAD BEEN MADE AS THERE IS NO LONGER A POLICY OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS CARRIED OUT BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

[redacted]

A LOCALLY MANAGED RED CROSS HAS OPERATED FREELY IN GUATEMALA FOR MANY YEARS WITH NO CONNECTION TO THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC). IN JANUARY 1988 AN ICRC OFFICE OPENED IN GUATEMALA.

THE MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUP, OR GAM, APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN LOSING SUPPORT AT HOME IN 1988, AND ITS DEMONSTRATIONS HAVE BEEN LESS WELL ATTENDED THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS. THE GROUP IS MOST ACTIVE IN THE RURAL AREAS OF GUATEMALA. GAM CONTINUES TO RECEIVE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT, AND IN 1988 IT RECEIVED AN AWARD FROM THE PROTESTANT CHURCH OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY.

SECTION 5 DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE, SEX, RELIGION, LANGUAGE OR SOCIAL STATUS

STARK CULTURAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE LADINO MIDDLE AND UPPER CLASSES AND THE LARGE NUMBER OF INDIGENOUS MAYAN GROUPS, WHO NUMBER APPROXIMATELY 50 PERCENT OF GUATEMALA'S POPULATION, HAVE HISTORICALLY CREATED AN ENVIRONMENT OF MISUNDERSTANDING AND SEPARATION BETWEEN THE TWO GROUPS. IN AN ATTEMPT TO BRING THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLE INTO NATIONAL LIFE, THE GOVERNMENT IS PROVIDING MEDICAL ATTENTION AS WELL AS BILINGUAL EDUCATION IN SPANISH AND THEIR NATIVE LANGUAGE TO THOSE WHO LIVE IN THE MOST DISTANT RURAL AREAS. INDIANS LIVING NEAR TOWNS HAVE HAD THESE BENEFITS. CITIZENS OF INDIAN DESCENT HAVE THE SAME LEGAL RIGHTS AS OTHER GUATEMALANS, AND SEVERAL HAVE BEEN ELECTED AS MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS AND AS MAYORS.

A NUMBER OF WOMEN ARE MAKING SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTIONS IN THE GOVERNMENT AND IN THE PRIVATE

RECONCILIATION COMMISSION, FORMED PURSUANT TO THE ESQUIPULAS II AGREEMENT. DESPITE THIS PROGRESS, CENTURIES-OLD STEREOTYPES STILL EXIST. TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF WOMEN IN THE WORKFORCE, THE GOVERNMENT HAS ESTABLISHED A NATIONAL OFFICE OF WOMEN (ONAM). STAFF AND RESOURCE LIMITATIONS RESTICT ITS ABILITY TO COORDINATE ACTIVITIES WITH 56 GUATEMALAN WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS. AMONG THE ISSUES ONAM IS ATTEMPTING TO ADDRESS ARE EMPLOYER DISCRIMINATION AGAINST MARRIED AND PREGNANT WOMEN, THE INABILITY OF PROFESSIONAL WOMEN TO FIND EMPLOYMENT, AND THE LACK OF DAYCARE CENTERS FOR THE CHILDREN OF WORKING WOMEN.

SECTION 6 WORKER RIGHTS

[redacted]

[redacted]

PAGE 02 GUATEM 13059 10 OF 11 042137Z

A. RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION

WORKERS HAVE A RIGHT UNDER THE CONSTITUTION TO ORGANIZE UNIONS, AND THERE HAS BEEN A GREAT DEAL OF RECENT ORGANIZING, PARTICULARLY IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR. TO HAVE LEGAL STATUS, UNIONS LIKE OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

MUST OBTAIN RECOGNITION FROM THE STATE. PRIOR TO 1984, THIS REQUIREMENT WAS USED TO FRUSTRATE ORGANIZATIONAL ACTIVITY, AND ONLY ABOUT TWO PERCENT OF THE LABOR FORCE WAS UNIONIZED. THE NEW CONSTITUTION EXTENDS THE RIGHT TO STRIKE EVEN TO PUBLIC SECTOR UNIONS, AND THE NUMBER OF ORGANIZED WORKERS HAS GROWN RAPIDLY. THEY NOW CONSTITUTE ABOUT EIGHT PERCENT OF THE LABOR FORCE.

MORE UNIONS HAVE ACQUIRED LEGAL STATUS IN THE PAST TWO YEARS THAN AT ANY TIME IN THE PREVIOUS THIRTY YEARS. YET THERE ARE ALSO SCORES OF UNIONS AWAITING LEGAL RECOGNITION. OBTAINING RECOGNITION CAN STILL BE TIME CONSUMING, AND SOME HAVE ALLEGED THAT POLITICAL INFLUENCE PLAYS A ROLE IN THE PROCESS. NEVERTHELESS, ALL OF THE UNIONS RECEIVE MORE FAVORABLE TREATMENT THAN THEY DID IN THE PAST. A NUMBER OF UNIONS ARE OPERATING WITHOUT LEGAL RECOGNITION. THIS DENIES THEM SOME PROTECTIONS UNDER THE LABOR CODE, BUT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PACTS WHICH HAVE THE SAME LEGAL FORCE AS CONTRACTS WITH RECOGNIZED UNIONS ARE STILL NEGOTIATED.

B. RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY

THE LABOR CODE ESTABLISHES LABOR COURTS THAT FORM THE CORE OF A COMPLEX SYSTEM DESIGNED TO SETTLE LABOR DISPUTES. THE MINISTRY OF LABOR HAS THE AUTHORITY TO [redacted]

ARBITRATE STRIKES. MOST PARTIES PREFER TO NEGOTIATE RATHER THAN GO TO THE BACKLOGGED LABOR COURTS.

ALTHOUGH STRIKES ARE TECHNICALLY ILLEGAL UNLESS ALL THE STEPS IN THE LABOR CODE ARE FOLLOWED, EMPLOYERS, INCLUDING STATE AGENCIES, HAVE MADE CONCESSIONS TO UNIONS TO SETTLE STRIKES THAT WERE TECHNICALLY ILLEGAL.

WORKERS HAVE LEGAL PROTECTION AGAINST ANTI-UNION DISCRIMINATION. WHEN A WORKER IS A UNION OFFICIAL, THE LAW PROVIDES THAT HE CANNOT BE FIRED, AND THIS PROTECTION EXTENDS FOR TWO YEARS AFTER HE LEAVES OFFICE. WHILE UNION OFFICIALS COMPLAIN THAT THE LAW IS NOT IMPLEMENTED EFFECTIVELY, THE MAJOR IMPEDIMENT TO ORGANIZING IS EMPLOYER RESISTANCE, NOT THE LAW.

THERE ARE NO ZONES IN GUATEMALA WHERE LEGAL PROTECTION FOR WORKERS DOES NOT APPLY. LABOR ORGANIZING IS LEGAL BUT STILL DIFFICULT IN AREAS WHERE THERE WAS REVOLUTIONARY VIOLENCE IN THE LATE 1970'S, PARTICULARLY IN THE INDIAN HIGHLANDS.

C. PROHIBITION OF FORCED OR COMPULSORY LABOR

THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES THE RIGHT OF WORKERS TO FREELY CHOOSE THEIR WORK AND GUARANTEES DIGNIFIED CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT. GUATEMALA HAD A TRADITION OF FORCED LABOR BY INDIGENEOUS WORKERS, THE "ENCOMIENDA" SYSTEM, WHICH WAS OUTLAWED IN THE 1930'S. VAGRANCY LAWS WERE IN EFFECT UNTIL THE 1950'S THAT ALLOWED FOR THE IMPRISONMENT OF WORKERS WHO DID NOT HAVE EMPLOYMENT. THIS HISTORY STILL INFLUENCES ATTITUDES IN SOME RURAL AREAS. HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT IS TAKING STEPS TO CONTROL ABUSES.

D. MINIMUM AGE FOR EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

E. ACCEPTABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK

THERE IS A MINIMUM WAGE. IT IS $1.20 PER DAY IN RURAL AREAS AND $1.50 IN URBAN AREAS.

THERE ARE MAXIMUM HOURS OF WORK. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES FOR A FOURTY-FOUR HOUR WORK WEEK. THERE ARE OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH REGULATIONS, BUT THEY ARE NOT ALWAYS EFFECTIVELY ENFORCED.

1. RUMORS ARE RAMPANT THAT THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR PLANT WILL START UP AT THE END OF NEXT WEEK. THE LEFTIST NEWSPAPER LA JORNADA PUBLISHED AN ARTICLE CLAIMING THAT THE NATIONAL COMMISSION OF NUCLEAR SECURITY AND SAFETY (CNSNS) HAD ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY (OCTOBER 5) THAT THE PERMISSION TO LOAD URANIUM 235 AND 238 WAS READY AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT HOPES TO BEGIN THE LOADING PROCESS BY THE END OF NEXT WEEK. THE LEFTIST-NATIONALISTIC NEWSPAPER EXCELSIOR REPORTED THE SAME STORY AS A RUMOR AND ADMITTED THAT SOURCES AT THE FEDERAL ELECTRICITY COMMISSION (CFE) WOULD NOT CONFIRM IT. THEY REPORTED THAT THE CNSNS HAD MET YESTERDAY AT CFE TO REVIEW THE TEXT OF THE PERMISSION IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH THAT ALL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE RUNNING AND SAFETY OF THE PLANT ARE ABSOLUTELY CLEAR.

2. EMBASSY SOURCE AT CFE STATED THAT HE WISHED IT WERE TRUE THAT THE PERMISSION HAD BEEN OFFICIALLY GRANTED AND THAT HE HAD NO COMMENT AS TO WHEN THE PLANT MIGHT START

UP. HE DID SAY THAT HE KNOWS THAT IT IS THE INTENTION OF PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID TO HAVE THE FUEL LOADED BEFORE HE LEAVES OFFICE (NOVEMBER 30). HE INSISTED THAT THE

PERMISSION CANNOT BE OFFICIAL UNTIL THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES IT. HE CLAIMED THAT RECENT RUMORS ABOUT THE IMMINENT START-UP OF THE PLANT ARE DUE TO PRESS ARTICLES LAST WEEK WHICH REPORTED THE SUPPORT OF THE COLLEGE OF CIVIL ENGINEERS FOR THE NUCLEAR POWER PROJECT AND THE RESULTANT BARRAGE OF ARTICLES INSPIRED BY ECOLOGICAL GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE PROJECT.

3. MEANWHILE, LAST WEEK THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES ANNOUNCED THAT THEY WOULD REQUEST A CONSENSUS OF OPINION BEFORE THE PLANT IS ALLOWED TO START UP. BOTH THE COMMITTEES OF ECOLOGY AND ENERGETICS OF THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES DECLARED THAT THEY WOULD BEGIN HEARINGS THIS WEEK ON LAGUNA VERDE. IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES COULD STOP THE PROJECT EVEN IF THEY WANTED TO, SINCE THE DECISION LIES WITH THE PRESIDENT.

4. THE OCTOBER 3 EDITION OF THE LEFTIST-POLITICAL-INFLUENTIAL MAGAZINE PROCESO HAD A PROMINENTLY DISPLAYED POLITICAL CARTOON THAT PICTURES PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID STANDING IN THE DOORWAY, SUITCASES AT HIS FEET WHILE HIS WIFE CALLS FROM BEYOND THE DOOR "LET'S GO, OLD MAN". DE LA MADRID IS WAVING GOODBYE AS HE SAYS "O.K., YOU CAN START UP LAGUNA VERDE NOW".

ASSISTANT SECRETARY ABRAMS AND HIS FCO COUNTERPART DAVID GILLMORE. AT THEIR MEETING ON OCTOBER 7 THEY AGREED IT WOULD BE IMPORTANT TO ENHANCE COMMUNICATION WITH THE CHILEAN ARMY AND TO USE FRIENDLY EUROPEANS TO TRY TO HELP KEEP THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION TOGETHER AND THE LEFT (CUBANS) IN LINE. THEY ALSO DISCUSSED THE NEED FOR A NEW STRATEGY FOR THE ANNUAL UNGA CHILE RESOLUTION. THE GOAL SHOULD BE TO PERSUADE SOME KEY LATINS AND EUROPEANS TO WORK WITH SYG DE CUELLAR IN FAVOR OF A SIMPLER, FORWARD LOOKING RESOLUTION. END SUMMARY

3. AS ELLIOTT ABRAMS MET WITH FCO DEPUTY UNDER SECRETARY

DAVID GILLMORE IN WASHINGTON ON OCTOBER 7, 1988. GILLMORE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY UK EMBASSY POLITICAL OFFICERS ROGER BONE AND PETER RICKETTS. ALSO PRESENT FOR THE US SIDE WERE ARA/DAS-DESIGNATE MICHAEL SKOL, ARA/SC RICHARD HOWARD, ARA/SC ROBERT HOPPER AND EUR/NE HOWARD PERLOW. IN ADDITION TO THE DISCUSSION OF CHILE (BELOW) THEY COVERED ARGENTINE ISSUES (SEPTEL) AND PROSPECTS FOR IMPROVED US/LATIN DIALOGUE (SEPTEL).

ABRAMS SAID THE KEY WOULD BE CONSTANT RAW-BONING BY ALL OF THOSE WHOM THE OPPOSITION VIEW WITH SOME REGARD. ABRAMS SUGGESTED THAT ANOTHER IMPORTANT QUESTION WILL BE WHETHER THE PLEBISCITE DEFEAT WILL REDUCE PINOCHET'S LONG-STANDING ABILITY TO DOMINATE HIS COLLEAGUES ON THE JUNTA.

ABRAMS SAID THAT OUR MILITARY HAS SOME LIMITED PROFESSIONAL CONTACTS WITH THE ARMY WHILE AMBASSADOR BARNES IS ABLE TO DISCUSS ISSUES WITH GENERAL GORDON ON OCCASION.

. ABRAMS DESCRIBED STATUS OF AMBASSADOR DESIGNATE GILLESPIE'S CONSIDERATION BY THE SENATE NOTING THAT HE WAS APPROVED IN COMMITTEE AND COULD BE CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE AS A WHOLE BEFORE IT RECESSES. THEREFORE, GILLESPIE SHOULD BE AVAILABLE TO ARRIVE IN SANTIAGO SEVERAL WEEKS AFTER AMBASSADOR BARNES DEPARTURE IN LATE NOVEMBER. GILLMORE SAID THAT SEEMED LIKE A SENSIBLE TIME FOR A CHANGE. 8. ABRAMS DESCRIBED A PRIVATE MEETING HE HAD HELD THE NIGHT BEFORE WITH CHILEAN AMBASSADOR HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ WHO COULD BE THE NEXT CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER. ERRAZURIZ CONFIDED THAT THE GOC HAD REALIZED TWO WEEKS AGO THAT PINOCHET WOULD LOSE. PARTLY FOR THAT REASON THE GOC HAD REACTED WITH INTENSE ANGER TO EFFORTS BY USG, AND IN PARTICULAR BY AMBASSADOR BARNES, TO WARN "INSULTINGLY" OF AUTO-COUP PROSPECTS. ERRAZURIZ COMPLAINED THAT OFFICIAL US/CHILEAN BILATERAL RELATIONS HAD NEVER BEEN WORSE.

9. ON THE OTHER HAND, ERRAZURIZ HAD TOLD ABRAMS THAT NEW BILATERAL OPTIONS NOW WERE OPEN. ABRAMS RESPONDED THAT USG NOW IS GREATLY CONCERNED THAT IMPORTANT ELEMENTS OF CHILEAN LEFT WILL CAUSE PROBLEMS BECAUSE THEY HAVE NO INTEREST IN A PEACEFUL TRANSITION. REGARDING THE CONSERVATIVES IN CHILE, ABRAMS NOTED THAT THEY WOULD HAVE A GOOD CHANCE OF WINNING A CONTESTED PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IF THEY PLAY THEIR CARDS RIGHT.

ABRAMS SAID HE WOULD PRESS SOVIETS TO EXERCISE SOME INFLUENCE BY NOTING THAT WITHOUT HELP FROM MOSCOW THE CUBANS WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO PROVIDE ARMS AND FUNDS TO GROUPS IN CHILE AND ELSEWHERE WHICH SUPPORT VIOLENCE. IT ALSO COULD HELP, ABRAMS ADDED, TO TRY TO GET THE SPANIARDS AND KEY LATIN DEMOCRATS SUCH AS ALFONSIN AND CARLOS ANDREZ

PEREZ TO BEGIN TO PRESS CASTRO PUBLICLY. C

WHAT ABOUT THE ANNUAL UN CHILE RESOLUTION?

14. ABRAMS SUGGESTED THAT THE CHANGED POST-PLEBISCITE SITUATION SHOULD AFFECT THE CONSIDERATION IN NEW YORK OF THE ANNUAL UNGA RESOLUTION. HE ASKED IF THE BRITISH THOUGHT IT COULD BE POSSIBLE TO SEEK A NEW TYPE OF RESOLUTION THIS YEAR AS OPPOSED TO THE TYPICAL MEXICAN-STYLE ONE. TO PURSUE SUCH AN OPTION, ABRAMS PROPOSED THAT SOMEONE OTHER THAN THE USG COULD ENCOURAGE UNSYG PEREZ DE CUELLAR TO WORK TOWARDS A SIMPLE, NON-CONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION. GILLMORE SAID THIS WAS AN EXCELLENT IDEA C

ABRAMS AND GILLMORE AGREED THAT THE UN SHOULD BE RECEPTIVE THIS YEAR TO A MILDER, CONSENSUS CHILE RESOLUTION TO MATCH THE MOOD WHICH HAS DEVELOPED RECENTLY AT THE UN AND MADE POSSIBLE CONSENSUS SUPPORT FOR RESOLUTIONS ON PERENNIALLY DIFFICULT ISSUES SUCH AS AFGHANISTAN.

15. C

IN SUM, IT IS HARD TO CALCULATE WHETHER THE MEXICANS WOULD BE WILLING TO COOPERATE WITH AN EFFORT TO BUILD A SHORTER, BALANCED CONSENSUS RESOLUTION.

16. FYI: SUBSEQUENTLY A UN SOURCE CLOSE TO PEREZ DE CONFIDENTIAL

CUELLAR PREDICTED TO ARA/SC OFFICER THAT THE MEXICANS

WOULD ALMOST INEVITABLY SEEK TO INTRODUCE SOME VERSION OF THEIR NORMAL RESOLUTION. ON THE OTHER HAND, OUR SOURCE SAID SUPPORT FOR SUCH A RESOLUTION WOULD PROBABLY EVAPORATE QUICKLY IF WELL REGARDED NATION(S) INTRODUCED AN ALTERNATE TEXT. HE SUGGESTED THAT BOTH ARGENTINA AND SPAIN WOULD BE IDEAL CANDIDATES TO LEAD SUCH AN EFFORT -- ESPECIALLY SINCE ARGENTINA'S VIEWS WILL BE RESPECTED AS A DEMOCRATIC NEIGHBOR AND BECAUSE OF CAPUTO'S CURRENT ROLE AS UNGA PRESIDENT.

Q: What is the status of the Letelier's relatives claim? Has the United States Government taken it over? Why?

A: By means of a diplomatic note dated April 18, 1988, the United States Government espoused the claims of Mr. Michael Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Karpen and Mr. Juan Pablo Letelier. Their claims against the Government of Chile for the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt in 1976 are now, as a matter of both U.S. and international law, considered the U.S. Government's own claims. This means the U.S. Government is now pursuing the claims on behalf of these U.S. citizens as claims of the USG. Doing this is a serious step because it reflects a decision by the United States Government that the claims are meritorious and that the failure to make compensation constitutes an injury to the United States.

Q: How is the money to be split under this arrangement? How much for the relatives and how much for the USG? What is the rationale for the split?

A: Under international and U.S. law, settlement payments for claims espoused by the United States are paid to the United States Government. In instances in which the USG makes a claim based on injury both to itself and to its nationals, the United States, in its discretion, can determine how much of that claim will be received by the U.S. national. Obviously, payments and allocations would depend on a number of factors, including the injury suffered and the size of the settlement. As there has been no settlement reached to date in the Lettelier claim, it would be both impossible and inappropriate to speculate about how any such settlement would be paid.

): WHAT IS THE STATUS OF THE LETELIER'S RELATIVES CLAIM? [AS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT TAKEN IT OVER? WHY?

.: BY MEANS OF DIPLOMATIC NOTE DATED APRIL 18, 1988, HE .S. GOVERNMENT ESPOUSED THE CLAIMS OF MR. MICHAEL OFFITT, MR. AND MRS. MURRAY KARPEN AND MR. JUAN PABLO ETELIER. THEIR CLAIMS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE OR THE DEATHS OF ORLANDO LETELIER AND RONNIE MOFFITT IN 976 ARE NOW, AS A MATTER OF BOTH U.S. AND INTERNATIONAL AW, CONSIDERED THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S OWN CLAIMS. THIS [ANS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS NOW PURSUING THE CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF THESE U.S. CITIZENS AS CLAIMS OF THE USG. DOING

UNCLASSIFIED

THIS IS A SERIOUS STEP BECAUSE IT REFLECTS A DECISION BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT THAT THE CLAIMS ARE MERITORIOUS AND THAT THE FAILURE TO MAKE COMPENSATION CONSTITUTES AN INJURY TO THE U.S.

Q: HOW IS THE MONEY TO BE SPLIT UNDER THIS ARRANGEMENT? HOW MUCH FOR THE RELATIVES AND HOW MUCH FOR THE USG? WHAT IS THE RATIONALE FOR THE SPLIT?

A: UNDER INTERNATIONAL AND U.S. LAW, SETTLEMENT PAYMENTS FOR CLAIMS ESPOUSED BY THE U.S. ARE PAID TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. IN INSTANCES IN WHICH THE USG MAKES A CLAIM BASED ON INJURY BOTH TO ITSELF AND TO ITS NATIONALS, THE U.S., IN ITS DISCRETION, CAN DETERMINE HOW MUCH OF THAT CLAIM WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE U.S. NATIONAL. OBVIOUSLY, PAYMENTS AND ALLOCATIONS WOULD DEPEND ON A NUMBER OF FACTORS, INCLUDING THE INJURY SUFFERED AND THE SIZE OF THE SETTLEMENT. AS THERE HAS BEEN NO SETTLEMENT REACHED TO DATE IN THE LETELIER CLAIM, IT WOULD BE BOTH IMPOSSIBLE AND INAPPROPRIATE TO SPECULATE ABOUT HOW ANY SUCH SETTLEMENT WOULD BE PAID.

Q: WHAT IS THE STATUS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL ACTION ON THE COMPENSATION CLAIM?

A: THERE IS NO PENDING LEGISLATION THAT RELATES TO THE U.S. COMPENSATION CLAIM AGAINST CHILE ITSELF. H.R. 3763 WOULD REVISE THE FOREIGN SOVEREIGN IMMUNITIES ACT TO EXPAND THE KINDS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENT PROPERTY THAT PLAINTIFFS CAN SEIZE TO ENFORCE COURT JUDGEMENTS AGAINST A FOREIGN STATE. THE BILL'S SPONSOR IN THE HOUSE, CONGRESSMAN BERMAN, HAS INDICATED THAT THE BILL IS INTENDED TO PERMIT THE LETELIER AND MOFFITT FAMILIES TO
UNCLASSIFIED

ENFORCE THEIR COURT JUDGMENT AGAINST CHILE.

Q: WHAT IS THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE'S POSITION ON THE BILL?

A: THE DEPARTMENT TESTIFIED IN OPPOSITION TO CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF H.R. 3763. I REFER YOU TO THE TESTIMONY OF DEPUTY LEGAL ADVISER ELIZABETH VERVILLE.

. INM TAKEN QUESTIONS AT MIDDAY BRIEFING 10/11/88:

: HOW MANY AIRCRAFT HAS THE U.S. PROVIDED TO OTHER OUNTRIES TO FIGHT THE DRUG WAR?

: OVER THE PAST TEN YEARS, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS ROVIDED ONE HUNDRED FORTY TWO AIRCRAFT TO GOVERNMENTS ROUND THE WORLD FOR ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION OF RUGS. MORE THAN HALF OF THIS AIRCRAFT WERE DEEDED TO THE OVERNMENT OF MEXICO. SINCE 1986, WHEN CONGRESS MANDATED

THAT DRUG CONTROL AIRCRAFT OWNERSHIP REMAIN WITH THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, TWENTY NINE AIRCRAFT, INCLUDING HELICOPTERS AND FIXED WING AIRCRAFT, HAVE BEEN TITLED TO THE INM BUREAU.

Q: DOES THE U.S. HAVE PLANS TO LAUNCH A PARAMILITARY OPERATION, BECOMING MORE AGGRESSIVE AGAINST THE LATIN AMERICAN COCAINE TRADE?

A: FACING GROWING VIOLENCE FROM COCAINE TRAFFICKERS IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES, THE GOVERNMENTS OF LATIN AMERICA ARE FIGHTING BACK, BUILDING RURAL MOBILE POLICE UNITS TO PROTECT THE COUNTRY AGAINST CRIMINAL TRAFFICKERS ELEMENTS. THEY ARE ALSO ERADICATING COCA PLANTATIONS AND RESEARCHING NEW CROPS THAT WILL PROVIDE A LIVELIHOOD TO PEASANT GROWERS. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS WORKING WITH A NUMBER OF LATIN AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS TO BUILD UP THEIR OWN CAPABILITIES FOR ERADICATION AND INTERDICTION. WE ARE UNCLASSIFIED

COMMITTED TO HELPING THESE GOVERNMENTS AND WILL CONTINUE TO PROVIDE TRAINING AND EQUIPMENT.

Q: ARE THE U.S. TITLED AIRCRAFT IN BOLIVIA ARMED?

A: THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE PROVIDED SIX HUEY HELICOPTERS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE FOR DELIVERY TO BOLIVIA TO FULFILL A BOLIVIAN REQUEST FOR AIRLIFT TO SUPPORT DRUG CONTROL OPERATIONS. BOLIVIAN PILOTS FLY THESE HELICOPTERS. THE BOLIVIAN GOVERNMENT, USING MILITARY ASSISTANCE FUNDING ADMINISTERED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, ARMED THE HELICOPTERS WITH M-60 DOOR GUNS, TO DEFEND THE CRAFT AGAINST GROUND FIRE. THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS NOT ARMED ANY U.S. TITLED AIRCRAFT.

Q: What is the status of the Congressional action on the compensation claim?

A: There is no pending legislation that relates to the U.S. compensation claim against Chile itself. H.R. 3763 would revise the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act to expand the kinds of foreign government property that plaintiffs can seize to enforce court judgments against a foreign state. The bill's sponsor in the House, Congressman Berman, has indicated that the bill is intended to permit the Letelier and Moffitt families to enforce their court judgment against Chile.

(C) SANTIAGO 7377

1. (C) SUMMARY: UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO'S FOURTH VISIT WAS DELIBERATELY TIMED TO COINCIDE WITH THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE TO GIVE HIM A FIRST-HAND LOOK AT CHILE'S DEMOCRATIC PROGRESS (REFTEL A). LIKE MOST FOREIGN OBSERVERS, HE LAUDED THE DEMOCRATIC FERVOR OF CHILEANS WHO 1URNED OUT IN RECORD NUMBERS TO VOTE, AND PRAISED THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT FOR ACCEPTING ITS ELECTORAL DEFEAT. HIS EARLY COMMENDATION FOR THE EXEMPLARY DEPORTMENT OF THE CARABINEROS DURING THE PLEBISCITE WAS RETRACTED SOMEWHAT AS HE SOUGHT AN EXPLANATION FROM CARABINERO CHIEF STANGE, DURING A SECOND VISIT, FOR THE UNPROVOKED

ATTACK ON JOURNALISTS ON OCTOBER 6 AND 7. WHILE NOTING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION HAD IMPROVED MARKEDLY SINCE HE ACCEPTED THE RAPPORTEUR ASSIGNMENT, HE SAID THERE WAS STILL CONSIDERABLE ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT. AMONG AREAS OF CONTINUING CONCERN FOR HIM, HE SAID, WERE THE "PRECARIOUS" SITUATION OF THE MEDIA AND THE MILITARY'S ROLE IN JUSTICE. SPOKESMAN FOR THE "NO" COMMAND PATRICIO AYLWIN TERMED VOLIO'S STATEMENTS "NAIVE." END SUMMARY.

2. (U) IN A PRESS CONFERENCE ON OCTOBER 10, VOLIO HAD HIGH PRAISE FOR CHILEANS WHO TURNED OUT IN RECORD NUMBERS TO VOTE IN THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE AND FOR THE GOVERNMENT IN ACCEPTING ITS DEFEAT. HE TERMED THE EVENT A "POINT OF DEPARTURE, A NEW SPIRIT OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE AND THEIR AUTHORITIES, TO FACE UP TO AND RESOLVE THEIR IMPORTANT AND SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS..." VOLIO NOTED THAT HE HAD OBSERVED AN IMPROVEMENT IN HUMAN RIGHTS AFFAIRS SINCE HE ACCEPTED HIS RAPPORTEUR ASSIGNMENT, AND THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT THE PROCESS TOWARD DEMOCRACY, OF WHICH THE PLEBISCITE WAS AN IMPORTANT PART, WOULD INCLUDE AN END TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THERE WAS CONTINUING ABUSES AND SAID HIS NEXT REPORT WOULD ADDRESS CONTINUING SERIOUS PROBLEMS, AMONG THEM THE "PRECARIOUS" SITUATION OF THE MEDIA AND THE QUESTIONABLE ROLE OF THE MILITARY IN THE JUDICICAL PROCESS. HE ALSO NOTED THAT HE WOULD CONTINUE TO MONITOR THE PROGRESS OF INVESTIGATIONS INTO PARTICULARLY EGREGIOUS CASES OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, AMONG THEM THE CASES OF THE "BURNED ONES", DISAPPEARANCES, AND THE MURDER OF THE

3. (U) DURING HIS VISIT, WHICH ENDED OCTOBER 10, VOLIO MET WITH PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT LUIS MALDONADO, JUDGE RENE GARCIA, WHO WAS INVESTIGATING

CHARGES OF TORTURE, AND MILITARY JUDGE EDWIN BLANCO, CURRENTLY IN CHARGE OF THE INVESTIGATION OF THE "BURNED ONES" CASES. VOLIO MET TWICE WITH CARABINERO CHIEF RODOLFO STANGE. VOLIO TOLD REPORTERS ON OCTOBER 6 THAT HE MET THAT DAY WITH STANGE TO CONGRATULATE HIM AND HIS FORCES FOR THE EXEMPLARY DEPARTMENT DURING THE PLEBISCITE, WHICH HE TERMED A DECISIVE FACTOR IN ITS SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION. ALTHOUGH HE REFERRED TO DISCUSSION OF ALLEGED CARABINERO HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HE PRAISED THE CARABINEROS FOR SAFEGUARDING CHILEAN CITIZENS. PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE ON OCTOBER 10, HOWEVER, VOLIO MET AGAIN WITH STANGE TO DISCUSS THE UNPROVOKED ATTACKS ON JOURNALISTS ON OCTOBER 6 AND 7. NOTING THE ATTACKS BOTHERED HIM A GREAT DEAL, HE TOLD REPORTERS THAT HE WANTED AN EXPLANATION DIRECT FROM STANGE.

4. (C) PATRICIO AYLWIN, SPOKESMAN FOR THE "NO" COMMAND TOLD THE AMBASSADOR AND OTHER EMBOFFS THAT HE FOUND VOLIO'S COMMENTS "NAIVE." EMBOFFS REPLIED THAT THEY HAD NEVER FOUND HIM NAIVE EITHER WITH REGARD TO HIS MISSION IN CHILE OR ON CENTRAL AMERICAN MATTERS. HE HAS MADE NO SECRET, HOWEVER, OF FACT THAT HE SEES HIS MOST IMPORTANT ROLE IN CONTRIBUTING TO THE RETURN OF DEMOCRACY TO CHILE, FROM WHICH A GREATLY IMPROVED

6. (C) VOLIO SAID HIS REPORT WAS NEARLY DONE AND PROMISED TO SHARE A COPY WITH THE AMBASSADOR, WHO URGED HIM TO ADD SOME COMMENTS ON THE PLEBISCITE PROCESS AS WELL, WHICH VOLIO SAID HE WOULD DO AFTER HIS RETURN TO COSTA RICA A FEW DAYS HENCE. HE EXPRESSED HIMSELF AS BEING VERY IMPRESSED WITH THE CHILEAN PEOPLE'S PARTICIPATION IN THE PLEBISCITE AND WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S CARRYING OUT ITS PROMISES. IN FACT, HE WAS MORE TOLERANT THAN ONE MIGHT HAVE EXPECTED OF THE ATTACKS THE NIGHT BEFORE BY POLICEMEN AGAINST NEWS CORRESPONDENTS, CHILEAN AND FOREIGN (THE AMBASSADOR GAVE HIM A COPY OF THE EMBASSY'S REPORT ON THE INCIDENT). VOLIO EXPLAINED THAT HE FELT THAT UNDER GENERAL STANGE GREAT STRIDES HAD BEEN MADE IN IMPROVING THE CONDUCT OF THE CARABINEROS AND ONE

COULD UNDERSTAND THAT THEY OCCASIONALLY MIGHT LOSE THEIR TEMPERS GIVEN THE OFTEN DISTORTED REPORTING OF CHILEAN EVENTS IN THE FOREIGN MEDIA.

IN THE CONTEXT OF HIS OWN REPORT, VOLIO URGED BOTH THE SPANISH AMBASSADOR AND THE TWO AMERICANS TO DO ALL THEY COULD DO TO SEE THAT AT THIS YEAR'S UNGA THE CHILEAN RESOLUTION REFLECT THE SUBSTANCE OF HIS REPORT WHICH WOULD BE A VERY BALANCED ONE, PARTICULARLY IN THE LIGHT OF THE PLEBISCITE. HE QUOTED FOREIGN MINISTER GARCIA AS HAVING TOLD HIM THAT IF THE SAME OLD MEXICAN RESOLUTION WAS SERVED UP AGAIN, GARCIA COULD NOT GUARANTEE THAT CHILE WOULD GO ON COOPERATING WITH THE UNHRC. THE AMBASSADOR URGED THE SPANISH AMBASSADOR TO TRY TO INTEREST THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY IN TAKING THE INITIATIVE THIS YEAR AWAY FROM THE MEXICANS AND DOING THEIR OWN MORE BALANCED RESOLUTION TO REFLECT VOLIO'S CONCLUSIONS. VOLIO THOUGHT THAT WOULD BE VERY HELPFUL AND THE TWO AMBASSADORS AGREED TO DISCUSS THE IDEA FURTHER.

7. (C) COMMENT: VOLIO'S DECISION TO REQUEST A SECOND MEETING WITH STANGE ON OCTOBER 10, AND RAISE THE BEATINGS OF JOURNALISTS, MAY HAVE BEEN DUE IN PART TO THE CONCERN EXPRESSED BY THE TWO AMBASSADORS. BARNES

4. EMBASSY COMMENT: SEVERAL RECENT EVENTS THAT MIGHT HAVE RESULTED IN MAJOR ANTI-NUCLEAR PROTESTS FAILED TO DO SO. THE GENERAL ELECTIONS IN JULY, THE VERACRUZ ELECTIONS IN OCTOBER AND THE APPROVAL PROCESS FOR THE START-UP OF THE REACTOR WERE ALL IDEAL TIMES FOR THE ANTI-NUCLEAR GROUPS TO SHOW THEIR FORCE. THE FACT THAT THEY DID NOT LEADS US TO BELIEVE THAT THE ANTI-NUCLEAR MOVEMENT IN MEXICO DOES NOT HAVE THE STRONG POPULAR SUPPORT THAT PRESS COVERAGE WOULD LEAD ONE TO BELIEVE IT HAS. SUBJECT: Resolution on Chile at the UNGA

The UNGA will soon take up the matter of human rights in Chile. Our goal should be the adoption of a balanced, fair resolution on Chile which we can support and which furthers our general policy goals. To achieve that goal, ARA/SC and Dick Schifter and his people have designed the following plan for your approval.

The plan's main point is to prompt the EC countries to draft and submit a short resolution which realistically points out the gains made during 1988, defines the areas where abuses continue and backs the efforts of Special Rapporteur Volio. We would provide the Europeans with informal draft language and would encourage EC-wide support for the text.

We believe that such a resolution would garner support from the Latin democracies and probably preempt or brush aside the unablanced version we must expect from Mexico/Cuba. With consensus developing behind what he hope will be a moderate and accurate resolution, we could sign on as co-sponsors or at least vote in favor of it. A balanced resolution introduced neither by the U.S. nor Mexico should gain USUN's acquiesence.

The plan, should you approve it, would proceed more or less as follows:

--HA and ARA/SC begin drafting language that we would like to see in a future resolution.

--you raise the strategy of an EC resolution informally with Rich Williamson and then brief the Secretary on our plan.

--if Williamson goes along, ARA/HA/and IO would meet to agree on final drafting language. (If IO balks, we should consider an action memo to the Secretary.)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

59-96-0079

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

--Next, we we send out a cable to the EC posts and to our Embassy in Santiago providing the draft language and talking points for demarches to prompt action and support. (Best bets for early sponsors/drafters might be the Dutch, Belgians, Brits, and Germans, but perhaps the Greeks, French, or Spaniards may also be interested.)

--Assuming European interest, we demarche the Latins.

Time is short. If you approve of this plan, we should begin implementing it right away.

THE PLEBISCITE AND HUMAN RIGHTS—CHILE'S UNCERTAIN PATH BACK TO DEMOCRACY

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 21, 1988

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, this is an important time in Chilean history, a time when Chile is beginning its long journey to restore its 150-year tradition of democracy. In the october 5 plebiscite on whether Gen. Augusto Pinochet's Presidential term should be extended to 1997 the courageous people of Chile sent a clear message—they want democracy to begin now. Of the total 7.2 million votes cast, 54.7 percent voted no.

In a nation where registering to vote is voluntary, not obligatory, it is a tribute to the Chilean people that over 90 percent of them registered to vote, and 97 percent of those who registered voted. The Government of Chile also should be commended for compliance with the provisions of the voting laws and its acceptance of the opposition victory.

Mr. Speaker, I welcome the results of the plebicite in Chile. We in the Congress continue to have a strong interest in the restoration of democracy. It is important that the military leaders know that our interest in Chile continues.

The plebiscite is not an end but a beginning. We appeal to the Chilean Government to facilitate a smooth transition to democracy. It is crucial that the outrageous human rights violations which have occurred in the past 15 years now cease, and that normal democratic freedoms be allowed without interference. For example, greater freedom of speech and of the press will be essential for fair and free Presidential elections, which are now scheduled for December 1989. We are encouraged by the news that former Foreign Minister Clodomiro Almeyda now has been freed after 16 months of political imprisonment for exercising the right of free speech. Free exercise of this fundamental right must continue.

We also hope that the almost 500 political prisoners still languishing in Chilean prisons will now be released. At the end of August the government announced a relaxation in permitting exiles to return to Chile. In keeping with that spirit of liberalization, in September I urged President Pinochet to consider lifting the sentences of administrative exile that were imposed against seven Chilean exiles who still remain in Chilean jails for illegal entry: Victor Maturana Brugos, Sergio Godoy Frifis, Juan Bustos Saavedra, Jorge Martinez Munoz, Arinda Ojeda Aravena, Juan Sandoval Torres, and Rigoberto Villagra Arenas. I again urge President Pinochet to release these men.

Our greatest concern remains for those political prisoners who are currently facing death sentences. We have received reports that many of these prisoners were forced by security personnel to sign confessions under torture while being held incommunicado. Furthermore, their cases are not being heard by civilian courts but by military courts which have consistently shown a lack of independence from the military government.

The longest-held political prisoner in Chile threatened with the death penalty is Rolando Cartegena Cordova, who has been imprisoned for 7 years without a proper trial. He has been tortured and deprived of his human rights. Amnesty International and the U.S. International Human Rights Law Group have opposed the death penalty, particularly for cases such as that of Cartagena's where there have not been full guarantees of a fair trial before an impartial tribunal. Cartagena, like most of the other political prisoners facing possible death sentences, has been offered asylum by a large number of countries, including Spain, Italy, Norway, Finland, and Austria.

Mr. Speaker, it is our hope that the Government of Chile will respond to the appeals in behalf of Cartagena and all other political prisoners still suffering in Chilean prisons. As Chile moves toward democracy, it must not forget these prisoners. The United States and the rest of the world have not and will not forget them.

SUBJECT: MEXICO'S CHANGING POLITICAL AGENDA

1. (C) - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. BEGIN SUMMARY: WITH THE RETURN OF A SEMBLANCE OF NORMALITY TO THE DOMESTIC POLITICAL SCENE, THE FOCUS OF MEXICO'S POLITICAL AGENDA IS BEGINNING TO SHIFT AWAY FROM CARDENAS AND HIS NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDN) TO OTHER ISSUES. THE ELEVENTH-HOUR DECISION OF THE DE LA MADRID ADMINISTRATION TO BEGIN THE START UP OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT RAISED A NEW POLITICAL ISSUE WHICH RESULTED IN A FIRESTORM OF

OPPOSITION PROTEST. THE UNWANTED BIRTH OF THE NEW "CRITICAL CURRENT" WITHIN THE RANKS OF THE PRI ANGERED AND DISTRACTED SOME PARTY MEMBERS WHO WERE ALREADY

TRYING TO GRASP THE NETTLE OF MODERNIZATION. THE USG DECISION TO OFFER A BRIDGE LOAN OF 3.5 BILLION DOLLARS IN SUPPORT OF GOM ECONOMIC POLICIES ALSO PROVIDED A CONVENIENT TARGET FOR PARTISAN ATTACKS FROM LEFT AND RIGHT. CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS MAY HAVE FADED BUT HE IS NOT YET DEAD AS HE CONTINUES TO PRESS FORWARD WITH THE FORMATION OF THE PARTY "BORN ON JULY 6." MEANWHILE, PAN EX-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE MANUEL J. CLOUTHIER HAS FOR ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES DISAPPEARED FROM THE POLITICAL SCENE. BASED ON SOUNDINGS WITH A WIDE RANGE OF POLITICAL CONTACTS, THE EMBASSY STILL ANTICIPATES A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO THE SALINAS ADMINISTRATION ON DECEMBER 1. END SUMMARY.

3. NUCLEAR POWER A HIGHLY CHARGED EMOTIONAL ISSUE

PRESIDENT DE LA MADRID'S LONG AWAITED -- SOME WOULD SAY FEARED -- DECISION TO BEGIN LOADING LAGUNA VERDE'S REACTOR PRODUCED A COMBUSTIBLE MIXTURE OF PROPONENTS AND OPPONENTS TRADING INSULTS AND BLOWS OUTSIDE THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AS THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION WAS DEBATED LAST WEEK. THE LAGUNA VERDE ISSUE QUICKLY POLARIZED AND INTENSIFIED THE DEBATE ON THE WISDOM OF MEXICO ENTERING THE NUCLEAR AGE. THE ARGUMENTS PRO AND CON ARE NOT LIKELY TO FADE AWAY SOON, BUT THOSE INDIVIDUALS ACTIVELY OPPOSED TO THE PLANT APPEAR TO BE RELATIVELY FEW IN NUMBER. THE U.S. CONSULAR AGENT IN VERACRUZ BELIEVES THAT IF A REFERENDUM WERE HELD IN THE STATE, A MAJORITY OF CITIZENS LIVING THERE WOULD OPPOSE OPENING THE PLANT. HOWEVER, MOST RESISTANCE IS

PASSIVE AND ONLY RELATIVELY FEW PEOPLE HAVE UNTIL RECENTLY ACTIVELY PARTICIPATED IN DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE PLANT. LAST WEEK, HOWEVER, CARDENAS SUPPORTERS MOBILIZED SOME 5,000 PEOPLE WHO BLOCKED HIGHWAYS IN THE STATE TO SHOW THEIR DISPLEASURE NOT ONLY WITH LAGUNA VERDE BUT ALSO WITH ALLEGED FRAUD IN THE OCTOBER 2 STATE ELECTIONS.

4. NEVERTHELESS, OUR JUDGEMENT IS THAT THE GOM WILL NOT BE DISSUADED FROM ITS DECISION. IT WAS HARDLY AN EASY ONE TO MAKE IN VIEW OF THE CHERNOBYL DISASTER AND THE GROWING PROBLEMS ASSOCIATED WITH NUCLEAR POWER. ONCE MADE, HOWEVER, THE GOM CAN ILL AFFORD A POLITICAL

RETREAT WHICH WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO AN IMAGE OF WEAKNESS. VERACRUZ GOVERNOR GUTIERREZ BARRIOS, ONE OF MEXICO'S SHREWDEST POLITICIANS, HAS CLEVERLY AVOIDED TAKING A CLEAR POSITION ON THE WISDOM OF OPENING LAGUNA VERDE, ALTHOUGH HE HAS ACTED AS AN HONEST BROKER IN FACILITATING MEETINGS BETWEEN OPPOSITION GROUPS, SUCH AS THE "VERACRUZ MOTHERS," WITH SENIOR GOM OFFICIALS. (COMMENT: OUR CONSULAR AGENT CLAIMS HE KNOWS ALL SIX (|) OF THE MOTHERS.) GUTIERREZ BARRIOS VISITED THE PLANT OCTOBER 21 AND IN RESPONSE TO REPORTERS' QUESTIONS AFTERWARDS ASSURED THEM THAT THE PLANT WAS SAFE AND THAT SAFETY CONCERNS WOULD BE OF PARAMOUNT INTEREST. AS PLANT START UP PROCEEDS, THE FEARS AND HOPES OF MANY MEXICANS ARE LIKELY TO REMAIN INTENTLY RIVETED ON LAGUNA VERDE. THE DIRE WARNINGS AND OCCASIONAL PROTESTS OF PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENTALISTS ARE ALSO LIKELY TO CONTINUE, BUT WITH LIMITED CHANCES FOR SUCCESS.

5. A SLIGHT WHIFF OF POLITICAL OPPORTUNISM PERVADED CARDENAS'S DECISION TO PHYSICALLY JOIN FORCES WITH

ANTI-LAGUNA VERDE PROTESTERS OUTSIDE THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES OCTOBER 18. CARDENAS MIGHT HAVE FELT COMPELLED TO ATTEND GIVEN THE ASSOCIATION OF THE MINUSCULE "GREEN PARTY" WITH HIS MOVEMENT. THE LAGUNA VERDE ISSUE WAS NOT A PROMINENT PART OF HIS PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN, ALTHOUGH IT WAS FEATURED DURING HIS SWINGS THROUGH VERACRUZ. HOWEVER, THE SCHEDULED CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES DEBATE PROVIDED CARDENAS WITH ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO HEIGHTEN HIS ANTI-PRI/GOM PROFILE AND HE WAS QUICK TO EXPLOIT IT. CARDENAS'S

OPPOSITION TO LAGUNA VERDE IS AT LEAST CONSISTENT WITH HIS OTHER POSITIONS, A BRAND OF ECONOMIC NATIONALISM WHICH TENDS TO LOOK BACKWARD RATHER THAN FORWARD.

6. POLITICS OF THE U.S. BRIDGE LOAN OFFER

AS MIGHT BE EXPECTED, THE DECISION BY THE U.S. TREASURY AND FEDERAL RESERVE TO OFFER A 3.5 BILLION DOLLAR BRIDGE LOAN DREW FIRE FROM THE RIGHT AND LEFT OPPOSITION, PROVIDING A VEHICLE TO ATTACK THE GOVERNMENT FOR ACQUIRING MORE DEBT AND FOR ITS DEPENDENCE ON THE U.S. FDN SENATORS IFIGENIA MARTINEZ AND PORFIRIO MUNOZ LEDO ARGUED ON THE FLOOR OF THE SENATE THAT THIS WAS NOT THE RIGHT APPROACH TO RESOLVE MEXICO'S EXTERNAL DEBT PROBLEM. HOWEVER, THEIR CALL

[redacted]

FOR SENATE REVIEW OF THE DECISION WAS EASILY DEFEATED IN THE OVERWHELMINGLY PRI SENATE. PAN LEADERS WERE UPSET BY REPORTS THAT THE USG OFFERED THE LOAN AS A GESTURE OF SUPPORT FOR THE INCOMING SALINAS DE GORTARI ADMINISTRATION, WHOSE LEGITIMACY THE OPPOSITION HAS STEADFASTLY REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE. MEANWHILE, THE GOVERNMENT, FEARFUL THAT ITS IMAGE OF INDEPENDENCE FROM WASHINGTON HAS BEEN COMPROMISED ONCE AGAIN, IS KEEPING A VERY LOW PROFILE, EVEN TO THE EXTEND OF DENYING THAT NEGOTIATIONS ARE CURRENTLY UNDERWAY WITH THE IMF FOR A STANDBY LOAN OR THAT IT HAS AGREED TO ANY CONDITIONS IMPOSED BY THE USG. WHILE SALINAS CAN NOT ADMIT IT PUBLICLY, THE U.S. LOAN OFFER DOES IN FACT BOLSTER THE CHANCES FOR A SUCCESSFUL LAUNCHING OF HIS ADMINISTRATION.

7. NEW STRIFE WITHIN THE PRI

[redacted]

AS IF THE DEMOCRATIC CURRENT (CD) WEREN'T ENOUGH, FORMER PRI SECRETARY GENERAL AND CD FOUNDING MEMBER RUDOLFO GONZALEZ GUEVARA ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY OCTOBER 17 THE EXISTENCE OF A SO-CALLED "CRITICAL CURRENT" WITHIN THE RULING PARTY. IN PUBLISHED INTERVIEWS, GONZALEZ'S MAJOR PURPOSE APPEARS TO BE TO PICK UP WHERE CD MEMBERS LEFT OFF IN REFORMING THE PRI, ALBEIT THIS TIME BY REMAINING WITHIN THE PARTY UNLESS FORCED OUT. ESSENTIALLY, GONZALEZ HAS ISSUED A NEW PUBLIC CALL TO PARTY MEMBERS TO DEMOCRATIZE AND TO MAKE THE PARTY INDEPENDENT OF THE GOVERNMENT IN ORDER TO AVOID AN OVERWHELMING DEFEAT IN THE 1991 CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

8. THESE LATEST PROVOCATIVE STATEMENTS FROM A SENIOR, RESPECTED PRIISTA TEND TO COMPOUND THE DIFFICULT SITUATION IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES WHERE THE PRI MUST DEAL WITH A MORE NUMEROUS AND VOCAL OPPOSITION. A CLOSE ADVISER TO VERACRUZ GOVERNOR GUTIERREZ BARRIOS INDICATED LAST WEEK THAT THE GONZALEZ INITIATIVE HAD RESULTED IN MUCH BITTER STRIFE AND HITTING BELOW THE BELT WITHIN PARTY RANKS. IT SEEMS CERTAIN THAT THE "CRITICAL CURRENT" WILL CONTINUE IN THE MONTHS AHEAD TO SPUR RELUCTANT PARTY MEMBERS TOWARD MODERNIZATION BUT AT THE COST OF CONSIDERABLE DISCOMFORT IF NOT

DISUNITY AMONG PRIISTAS WHO ALREADY FIND THEMSELVES DIVIDED AND LABELLED AS "TEC HNOCRATS," "DINOSAURS," OR "RENOVATORS."

9. CARDENAS STILL STRUGGLING

CARDENAS'S POLITICAL VISIBILITY HAS LESSENED IN RECENT WEEKS, ALTHOUGH HIS OCTOBER 21 PRESS CONFERENCE CONVOKING FORMATION OF A NEW PARTY WAS A MAJOR EVENT. IN FACT, FOR THE FIRST TIME, TELEVISA'S EVENING NEWS

SHOW "MUCHAS NOTICIAS" EVEN HAD THE TEMERITY (IF NOT AUTHORIZATION) TO PERMIT CARDENAS'S VOICE TO BE HEARD, A SIGNIFICANT LIBERALIZATION COMPARED TO THE TOTAL EXCLUSION OF HIS AND CLOUTHIER'S VOICES DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN. NEVERTHELESS, HE STILL CONFRONTS A MONUMENTAL TASK IN ACTUALLY FORMING THE PARTY. THE CONVOCATION ITSELF REPRESENTS ONLY THE FIRST STEP IN A LONG PROCESS. BASED UPON EMBASSY OFFICER CONVERSATIONS WITH FDN LEADERS REPRESENTING SEVERAL PARTIES, IT REMAINS CLEAR THAT MELDING

TOGETHER THIS IDEOLOGICALLY DISPARATE GROUP OF TRUE AND OPPORTUNISTIC CARDENAS SUPPORTERS STILL REPRESENTS A FORMIDABLE CHALLENGE AND SUCCESS IS BY NO MEANS ASSURED.

10. CARDENAS MAY EMBARK UPON A NATIONWIDE TOUR TO TRY TO DEVELOP GRASSROOTS SUPPORT FOR THE NEW ORGANIZATION, ONE OF WHOSE SUGGESTED NAMES IS THE "DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTION PARTY (PRD)." SOME FDN COALITION PARTNERS -- SUCH AS THE POPULAR SOCIALIST PARTY (PPS) AND THE AUTHENTIC PARTY OF THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION (PARM) -- ARE RELUCTANT TO LOSE THEIR POLITICAL IDENTITY NOW. HOWEVER, THEY MAY WELL DECIDE IN TIME THAT UNITY UNDER THE CARDENAS BANNER IS THE ONLY WAY TO DISLODGE THE PRI FROM CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT. WITH A NATIONAL CONVENTION AS THE NEXT TARGET, CARDENAS APPEARS DETERMINED TO DEVOTE HIS ENERGIES TO PARTY FORMATION RATHER THAN FUTILELY ATTEMPTING TO PREVENT SALINAS'S ACCESSION TO THE PRESIDENCY.

11. WHERE IS CLOUTHIER?

PAN EX-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE CLOUTHIER HAS PRACTICALLY VANISHED FROM MEXICO'S POLITICAL RADARSCOPE. THE CONTRAST BETWEEN HIS FEISTY

UNCLASSIFIED

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN TACTICS AND HIS ALMOST TOTAL POLITICAL ECLIPSE COULD NOT BE MORE STARK. LACK OF A SEAT IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES HAS ABETTED HIS SLIDE AS THE PRESS CONCENTRATES ITS ATTENTIONS ON PANISTA CONGRESSIONAL REPRESENTATIVES. THIS IS NOT TO SAY THAT CLOUTHIER'S VOICE IS NOT HEARD WITHIN PARTY COUNCILS WHERE HE WIELDS SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE.
[redacted]IAL

RATHER, HIS PUBLIC PERSONA HAS SHRUNK, CREATING THE IMPRESSION OF A PAN DEVOID OF THE STRONG LEADERSHIP EVIDENT DURING THE CAMPAIGN. A PARTY SPOKESPERSON INDICATED CLOUTHIER NEEDED A REST AND HAD ALSO UNDERGONE AN OPERATION. ACCORDINGLY, CLOUTHIER'S REAPPEARANCE ON THE NATIONAL STAGE COULD BE ONLY A MATTER OF TIME.

12. PEACEFUL TRANSITION OF POWER EXPECTED

THE EMBASSY STILL ANTICIPATES THAT SALINAS'S DECEMBER 1 INAUGURATION WILL BE PEACEFUL. POLITICAL LEADERS OF ALL STRIPES, IN CONVERSATIONS WITH EMBASSY OFFICERS AND IN PUBLIC PRONOUNCEMENTS, AGREE ON THIS POINT. THE EXPENSIVE, FULL-PAGE ADVERTISEMENTS PLACED IN LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS BY THE SO-CALLED "COMMITTEE FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF U.S.-MEXICAN RELATIONS" IN WHICH THE UNKNOWN AUTHORS PROCLAIM THE THREAT OF AN INCIPIENT INSURRECTION ON OUR BORDER WERE CAREFULLY READ NOT ONLY BY MEXICAN EDITORIALISTS BUT ALSO BY THE MEXICAN LEFT. THE RESPONSE WAS PUBLIC DISAVOWAL BY FDN LEADERS OF ANY INTENTION ON THEIR PART TO BLOCK SALINAS'S INAUGURATION THROUGH VIOLENCE. THEY DENIED THAT ARMED GUERRILLA GROUPS HAVE SPRUNG UP FOR THIS PURPOSE (THE EMBASSY HAS NO INFORMATION ON ANY SUCH INSURGENT GROUPS). THESE RECENT PUBLIC DECLARATIONS COMPLEMENT EARLIER ASSURANCES FROM SENIOR FDN OFFICIALS WHO FORESWORE ANY ATTEMPT AT VIOLENCE.

13. WHILE WE RECOGNIZE IT IS PRUDENT TO SEE WHAT THE LEFT DOES RATHER THAN WHAT IT SAYS IT WILL DO, WE NEVERTHELESS ARE HARD PRESSED TO FIND ANY EVIDENCE THAT THE INAUGURATION WILL BE ANYTHING BUT PEACEFUL.

The Honorable Harry Barnes, Jr.
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States
Embassy of the United States
Santiago, Chile
APO Miami, Florida 34033

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Thank you for taking time to meet with a member of my staff, Dr. Kay King, who was in Chile in September with a W.O.L.A/ C.I.I.R. delegation to study conditions for the plebicite. I am told that you and your staff were most helpful.

I also want to thank you for the help you have given to Dr. Michele Ritterman, one of my supporters who is involved in many worthwhile community activities in my Congressional district. As you may recall, she is working on the case of Rolando Cartagena Cordova, a political prisoner in Santiago. She is planning to come to Chile again in a few weeks and hopes to see Mr. Cartagena. I would be most appreciative if you could once more do all within your power to facilitate her visit with Mr. Cartagena and provide for her protection while she is there.

Since Ambassador Charles Guillespie may arrive in Chile before Dr. Ritterman returns to the United States, I would appreciate your conveying this request on her behalf to him.

As you near the completion of your term in Chile I want to add my voice to the many others who have praised you for your outstanding service. As you may know, a number of my colleagues recently held a special order in your honor. Unfortunately, my office was misinformed as to the nature of that special order so my praises are belated. However, I do want you to know of my great respect and admiration for your many accomplishments.

My wife, Annette, and I would like to invite you to lunch when you return to Washington. We are very anxious to have the opportunity to visit with you. As you can see from the enclosed statement, our interest in human rights in Chile continues, and we would welcome a first-hand report of your experiences there.

Cordially,

CHILE AND CONCOMMITANT GOC MOVES TO END THE STATES OF SIEGE AND EXCEPTION, TO END MOST EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL EXILES, TO LEGALIZE PARTIES AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, ETC. VOLIO FEARS, HOWEVER, THAT CHILE'S TRADITIONAL FOES AT THE UNGA WILL WORK TO PASS A HARD-LINE RESOLUTION WHICH IGNORES THIS PROGRESS. FOR THAT REASON, VOLIO ARGUES, IT IS INCUMBENT UPON MODERATE UNGA MEMBERS TO WORK FOR THE PASSAGE OF A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING CHILE'S PROGRESS. IF THIS DOES NOT OCCUR AND A HARD-LINE RESOLUTION EMERGES FROM THE UNGA, VOLIO FEARS THAT THE GOC WILL TERMINATE ITS COOPERATION WITH THE UN. IN THAT EVENT, VOLIO SAYS THAT HE WOULD STEP DOWN AS RAPPORTEUR FOLLOWING THE UNHRC MEETING IN FEBRUARY. HOWEVER, VOLIO HAS SAID ALL THIS BEFORE, AND WE DON'T EXPECT HIM TO GIVE UP HIS CHILE ASSIGNMENT LIGHTLY. END SUMMARY.

4. VOLIO CITES PROGRESS

FERNANDO VOLIO, UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, TOLD POLOFF OCTOBER 28 THAT THERE HAS BEEN GREAT PROGRESS IN IMPROVING RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE SINCE HIS REPORT TO THE UNHRC IN FEBRUARY OF THIS YEAR. VOLIO STATED THAT THE PLEBISCITE IS THE MOST OBVIOUS EXAMPLE OF THIS PROGRESS. THE PLEBISCITE, HE ASSERTED, WAS CHARACTERIZED BY OPENNESS AND EFFICIENCY. THE ARMED FORCES, HE SAID, DID AN EXCELLENT JOB IN SAFEGUARDING THE PROCESS, YET DID NOT INTERFERE WITH IT. VOLIO BASED HIS VIEWS ON HIS FIRST-HAND OBSERVATIONS DURING THE PLEBISCITE

PERIOD, HIS FOURTH VISIT TO CHILE.

VOLIO SAID THAT DURING HIS VISIT TO GENEVA EARLIER THIS YEAR FOR THE UNHRC MEETING, OPPONENTS OF THE GOC --BOTH DEMOCRATS AND MARXISTS-- HAD ENUMERATED FOR HIM THE CHIEF SHORTCOMINGS OF THE PINOCHET REGIME. THERE HAS BEEN SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS, VOLIO

EMPHASIZED, IN ALL THE AREAS CITED:

--FOREIGN EXILE: THE FACT THAT 4348 PERSONS WERE IN EXILE BY ORDER OF THE GOC WAS THE PROBLEM CONSIDERED MOST SERIOUS BY VOLIO'S INTERLOCUTORS EARLIER THIS YEAR. NOW, NO CHILEANS ARE IN EXILE BY EXECUTIVE ORDER, AND ONLY SEVEN ARE IN EXILE AS THE RESULT OF JUDICIAL ORDERS;

--INTERNAL EXILE: ALL EXECUTIVE ORDERS FOR INTERNAL EXILE HAVE BEEN CANCELED, AND ONLY TWO PERSONS REMAIN UNDER COURT-ORDERED INTERNAL EXILE;

--STATE OF SIEGE: THE STATE OF SIEGE HAS BEEN LIFTED;

--TWO STATES OF EXCEPTION: BOTH HAVE BEEN LIFTED;

--MILITARY CONTROL OF THE UNIVERSITIES: ALL MILITARY RECTORS HAVE BEEN REPLACED BY CIVILIANS;

--PROSCRIPTION OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES: ALL SUCH RESTRICTIONS HAVE BEEN LIFTED;

--ABUSE AND TORTURE OF PRISONERS: IN THE PERIOD SINCE THE UNHRC MEETING, THE ICRC HAS SIGNED AGREEMENTS PROHIBITING TORTURE WITH THE CARABINEROS,

C O N F I D E N T I A L SECTION 02 OF 03 SAN JOSE 14212

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PHUM, PREL, PGOV, UNGA, UNHRC-1, CI, CS
SUBJECT: VOLIO COMMENDS PROGRESS IN CHILE, CALLS

THE INTELLIGENCE SERVICE, THE INVESTIGATIVE POLICE AND THE ADVISORY COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. VOLIO ASSERTED THAT WHEREAS TORTURE WAS A COMMON PRACTICE IN THE PAST, IT NOW APPEARS TO OCCUR ONLY IN ISOLATED INSTANCES;

--LAWS ORGANIZING DEMOCRATIC PROCESS: AT THE TIME OF THE UNHRC MEETING NO SUCH LAWS HAD BEEN PROMULGATED. NOW, HOWEVER, ONLY THE LAW GOVERNING THE ELECTION OF THE CONGRESS REMAINS OUTSTANDING;

--THE COURTS: VOLIO COMMENDED THE PAST COURAGE OF INDIVIDUAL JUDGES IN THE CIVIL COURTS, AND OPINED THAT NOW THE FULL SYSTEM IS ABLE TO OPERATE FREELY. THE MILITARY COURTS, HOWEVER, REMAIN IN POOR SHAPE, ACCORDING TO VOLIO. EVEN HERE, HOWEVER, HE WAS OPTIMISTIC, BECAUSE THE MILITARY JUSTICE SITUATION IS CONFIDENTIAL

BEING STUDIED BY A SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT WHO WILL LIKELY RECOMMEND THAT A NUMBER OF IMPROVEMENTS BE MADE. (CITING THE SENSITIVITY OF

5. CALLS FOR POSITIVE UNGA RESOLUTION

AFTER SETTING FORTH THE AREAS IN WHICH THE GOC HAS PROGRESSED IN HUMAN RIGHTS, VOLIO ARGUED SPIRITEDLY FOR SIMILAR PROGRESS IN UNGA CONSIDERATION OF THE ANNUAL CHILE RESOLUTION. VOLIO STATED THAT MEXICO AND THE TRADITIONAL SPONSORS OF HARD-LINE RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE HAVE ALREADY BEGUN THEIR EFFORT TO PASS YET ANOTHER RESOLUTION WHICH IGNORES THE PROGRESS MADE IN CHILE AND THE REPORTS OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

VOLIO, CITING HIS DINNER MEETING IN SANTIAGO WITH THE COSTA RICAN, SPANISH AND U.S. AMBASSADORS (REF A), ARGUED THAT MODERATE UNGA MEMBERS NEED TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE AT THIS TIME TO RECOGNIZE THE PROGRESS MADE IN THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. IN PARTICULAR, VOLIO ARGUED THAT MODERATE UN MEMBERS SHOULD SUPPORT CHILE'S MOVEMENT TOWARD REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY. REITERATING HIS BELIEF THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE BEST PROTECTED BY PROGRESS TOWARD DEMOCRACY, VOLIO STRESSED THAT SUPPORTERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE SHOULD BE BACKING THE CURRENT PROCESS LEADING TO GENERAL ELECTIONS BY MARCH, 1990.

VOLIO INQUIRED AS TO THE USG POSITION ON A CHILE

RESOLUTION. POLOFF RESPONDED THAT WHILE THE USG POSITION ON THE UNGA RESOLUTION PER SE HAD NOT YET BEEN COMMUNICATED TO US, THE GENERAL USG PERSPECTIVE ON RECENT EVENTS IN CHILE WAS SET FORTH IN PRESS GUIDANCE (REF B -- COPY GIVEN TO VOLIO) EXPLAINING OUR RECENT VOTE IN FAVOR OF A LOAN TO CHILE AT THE INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK. POLOFF NOTED THAT OUR VOTE ON THAT LOAN REFLECTED RECOGNITION OF THE IMPROVEMENTS IN BASIC HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS WHICH HAVE RECENTLY TAKEN PLACE IN CHILE.

6. NEGATIVE RESOLUTION COULD END GOC COOPERATION

VOLIO FEARS THAT A NEGATIVE UNGA RESOLUTION ON CHILE MIGHT WELL SPARK THE GOC TO TERMINATE ITS COOPERATION WITH THE UN. THIS ALMOST OCCURRED EARLIER THIS YEAR FOLLOWING THE UNHRC MEETING, VOLIO OBSERVED. GOC ROVING AMBASSADOR CALDERON REPORTEDLY INFORMED VOLIO DURING A MAY VISIT TO SAN JOSE THAT THE GOC DECIDED TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION ONLY AFTER VERY SERIOUS CONSIDERATION OF ENDING IT (VOLIO ADDED THAT CALDERON LAID THE GOC DECISION TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION IN LARGE PART TO THE FACT THAT VOLIO IS THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR). IF THE UNGA WERE TO IGNORE ALL THE PROGRESS MADE IN CHILE SINCE THE UNHRC MEETING, VOLIO SAID, HE DOESN'T SEE HOW HARD-LINERS IN THE GOC COULD BE RESTRAINED FROM BRINGING GOC COOPERATION WITH THE UN TO AN END.

EFFECT. VOLIO SAID THAT BEING IGNORED BY THE GROUP TO WHICH HE REPORTS --WHICH HAS OCCURRED REPEATEDLY-- CAN ONLY GO ON FOR SO LONG. THUS IF A HARD-LINE RESOLUTION EMERGES FROM THE UNGA AND SPARKS THE GOC TO TERMINATE ITS COOPERATION WITH THE UN, VOLIO TOO WOULD FEEL CALLED UPON TO END HIS LABORS AS SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. VOLIO SAID THAT IF IT BECAME NECESSARY TO STEP DOWN, HE WOULD DO SO AFTER THE UNHRC MEETING IN FEBRUARY.

8. VOLIO'S REPORT TO UNGA

VOLIO STATED THAT HIS COMING REPORT TO THE UNGA (HIS SEVENTH REPORT ON CHILE) WOULD FOR THE MOST PART FOLLOW THE MODEL OF HIS PREVIOUS ONES. THIS REPORT,

CONFIDENTIAL
CLASS
CONFIDENTIAL

WHICH WAS SUBMITTED TO THE UN PRIOR TO HIS TRIP TO CHILE DURING THE PLEBISCITE PERIOD, WILL THEREFORE NOT/NOT DISCUSS THE PLEBISCITE IN DETAIL. THAT SUBJECT, SAID VOLIO, WILL BE THE PRINCIPAL TOPIC OF HIS FEBRUARY REPORT TO THE UNHRC. THE UNGA REPORT'S COVERAGE OF THE PLEBISCITE WILL BE LIMITED TO A BRIEF BUT VERY POSITIVE ACCOUNT IN APPENDIX II.

VOLIO SAID THAT A NEW ELEMENT IN HIS UNGA REPORT WILL BE ITS SECTION III. THIS SECTION, ON "NEW DENUNCIATIONS" OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, WILL LIST THE CHARGES AGAINST THE GOC THAT HAVE RECENTLY COME TO VOLIO'S ATTENTION. THE INTRODUCTION TO THIS SECTION

WILL INCLUDE A DISCLAIMER STATING THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR HAS NOT YET HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO INVESTIGATE THE CHARGES. FOR THAT REASON, THE CHARGES HAVEN'T INFLUENCED HIS VIEWS SET FORTH IN THE BODY OF THE REPORT. VOLIO'S CONCLUSIONS REGARDING THE VALIDITY OF THE CHARGES WILL BE INCLUDED IN HIS REPORT TO THE UNHRC FOLLOWING HIS DETAILED STUDY OF THEM.

APPENDIX I OF THE REPORT IS ALSO NEW. THE GOC RESPONSE TO THE CHARGES LISTED IN SECTION III WILL BE SET FORTH HERE. THIS APPENDIX, LIKE SECTION III, WILL INCLUDE THE DISCLAIMER THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR HAS NOT YET HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY EITHER THE CHARGES OR THE RESPONSES THERETO. AGAIN, VOLIO WILL NOTE THAT HIS CONCLUSIONS ON THESE CHARGES WILL BE SET FORTH IN HIS REPORT TO THE UNHRC.

VOLIO STATED THAT HIS FINAL CHANGES TO HIS REPORT SHOULD BY NOW BE INCORPORATED INTO IT BY THE UN

PUBLICATIONS OFFICE IN NEW YORK. CLAIMING THAT HIS CHANGES WERE TAKEN DIRECTLY TO NEW YORK FROM CHILE BY A UN FUNCTIONARY, VOLIO DEFLECTED POLOFF'S REQUEST FOR A COPY OF THE REPORT BY SUGGESTING THAT USUN IS WELL SITUATED TO OBTAIN A COPY THE MOMENT IT COMES OFF THE PRESSES.

9. WANTS TO MEET A/S SCHIFTER AT UNGA NOVEMBER 20-23

POLOFF TOOK THE OCCASION TO INFORM VOLIO PER REF C THAT A/S SCHIFTER WOULD BE AVAILABLE TO MEET WITH HIM DURING MOST OF NOVEMBER. VOLIO WAS VERY PLEASED TO HEAR THAT. HE REQUESTED THAT SCHIFTER MEET HIM IN NEW YORK WHEN HE ARRIVES THERE FOR UNGA CONSIDERATION OF THE CHILE RESOLUTION NOVEMBER 21-23. VOLIO WILL ARRIVE IN NEW YORK THE AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 20. EMILIA BARRISH, THE DCM OF THE COSTA RICAN UN MISSION, CAN ARRANGE THE MEETING, VOLIO STATED.

10. COMMENT

VOLIO WAS MOST IMPRESSED WITH PROGRESS IN CHILE AND PRIMED FOR A GOOD FIGHT AT THE UNGA. GIVEN THE OBVIOUS SATISFACTION HE TAKES IN HIS CHILE EFFORTS --AND THE FACT THAT HE HAS CRIED WOLF BEFORE-- WE DOUBT THAT HE WOULD LEAVE THE FIELD TO THE MEXICANS AND THEIR FRIENDS EVEN IF THE UNGA RESOLUTION ON CHILE TURNS OUT TO BE LESS THAN SATISFACTORY IN HIS EYES.

OF THE MAIN BODY OF THE REPORT TO THE DEPARTMENT (IO), JCS AND FAA BY FAX. THREE COPIES OF THE FULL REPORT, INCLUDING APPENDICES, WILL BE SENT BY OVERNIGHT SERVICE TO THE SAME ADDRESSEES.

3. ON FIRST EXAMINATION THE REPORT APPEARS TO AVOID CONTROVERSIAL POLITICAL QUESTIONS; IT CONCLUDES THAT THE AIRCRAFT WAS DESTROYED BY TWO SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILES BECAUSE IT "WAS PERCEIVED AS A MILITARY AIRCRAFT WITH HOSTILE INTENTIONS" (PARA 3.2.1). THE REPORT CONTAINS EIGHT SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS (PARA 4) TO IMPROVE CIVIL/ MILITARY COORDINATION "IN AREAS WHERE MILITARY ACTIVITIES POTENTIALLY HAZARDOUS TO CIVIL FLIGHT OPERATIONS TAKE PLACE."

4. WE EXPECT THE COUNCIL TO DISCUSS C-WP/8708 ON NOVEMBER 28 OR 30. A NUMBER OF COUNCIL MEMBERS MAY MAKE GENERAL COMMENTS ON THE REPORT AT THAT TIME, BUT WE EXPECT THAT THE RESULT OF THE DISCUSSION WILL BE TO REFER THE REPORT TO THE AIR NAVIGATION COMMISSION (ANC), FOR TECHNICAL COMMENT. THE COUNCIL CAN BE EXPECTED TO TAKE FINAL ACTION ONLY AFTER THE ANC REVIEW IS COMPLETE, PROBABLY EARLY IN 1989.

-- WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION HAS NOW COMPLETED ITS INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACCIDENTAL SHOOT-DOWN OF IRAN AIR 655 ON JULY 3, 1988 AND MADE THE REPORT AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS OF THE ICAO COUNCIL.

-- THE REPORT IS QUITE DETAILED. THE MAIN BODY CONSISTS OF 26 PAGES; THERE ARE MORE THAN 150 PAGES IN ATTACHMENTS. IT CONTAINS A NUMBER OF SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS TO IMPROVE CIVIL/MILITARY COORDINATION.

-- WE BELIEVE THAT THE REPORT REQUIRES DETAILED CONSIDERATION BY THE ICAO'S AIR NAVIGATION COMMISSION WHICH IS WELL QUALIFIED TO ADVISE THE COUNCIL ON THIS HIGHLY TECHNICAL QUESTION.

-- WE ANTICIPATE THAT INITIAL DISCUSSION OF THE REPORT

1. OSCAR GUILLERMO GARRETON, FORMER UNDER SECRETARY IN THE MINISTRY OF ECONOMY AND FORMER SECRETARY GENERAL OF MAPU, WAS RELEASED FROM JAIL UNDER A 100,000 PESO (APPROXIMATELY DOLS335 U.S. DOLLARS) BOND ON NOVEMBER 3. WITH THE RELEASE OF SOCIALIST LEADER CLODOMIRO ALMEYDA ON OCTOBER 18, GARRE1ON HAD ASSUMED THE POSITION OF MOST CELEBRATED POLITICAL PRISONER IN CHILE. HE WAS ARRESTED IN MAY 1988 AFTER SURRENDERING HIMSELF TO MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO ANSWER CHARGES THAT HE HAD ATTEMPTED TO INCITE NAVAL OFFICERS TO REBELLION IN 1973. GARRETON HAD RE-ENTERED CHILE FROM EXILE WITH PERMISSION TO VISIT HIS AILING PARENTS.

SUBJECT: SCIENCE NOTES FOR MEXICO, OCTOBER 1988

1. SUMMARY: THE FOLLOWING IS A SYNOPSIS OF THE MAJOR S AND T DEVELOPMENTS IN MEXICO FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 1988. THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS AND ITEMS OF THE PAST MONTH ARE SUMMARIZED IN THE AREAS OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY, POLLUTION AND THE ENVIRONMENT, FISHERIES AND WILDLIFE, ENERGY, AND PUBLIC HEALTH. END SUMMARY

2. LEADING S AND T FIGURES SPEAK OUT ON THE FUTURE: EXCELSIOR, MEXICO'S LEADING DAILY, FEATURED A SERIES OF ARTICLES ON THE FUTURE OF S AND T IN MEXICO. FIVE OF MEXICO'S TOP S AND T POLICY MAKERS CONTRIBUTED THEIR THOUGHTS ON THE NEED FOR A STRONGER S AND T BASE, THE NEED FOR LINKS BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY SECTOR AND PRIVATE INDUSTRY, AND THE ROLE OF GOVERNMENT IN DEVELOPING S AND T. ALL AGREED THAT IT IS NECESSARY FOR THE GOM TO TAKE UNCLASSIFIED

A MORE ACTIVE ROLE IN DEVELOPING THE NATION'S SCIENTIFIC BASE, BUT ADVANCEMENT COULD ACCELERATE WITH PRIVATE SECTOR INVOLVEMENT. THE BUDGETARY CONSTRAINTS OF GOM

MAKE IT IMPERATIVE THAT THE PRIVATE SECTOR BECOME A REAL PLAYER IN THE PROCESS. IN ADDITION, PUBLIC/PRIVATE SECTOR COOPERATION WOULD LEAD TO THE CREATION OF TECHNOLOGIES APPROPRIATE TO MEXICO'S NEEDS.

3. JOINT RESEARCH INITIATIVES BETWEEN UNAM AND PRIVATE INDUSTRY: JOSE CARPIZO, THE RECTOR OF THE NATIONAL AUTONOMOUS UNIVERSITY (UNAM), RECENTLY ANNOUNCED THAT HE HAD SIGNED SIX PACTS WITH COMPANIES IN ORDER TO INCREASE THE UNIVERSITY'S PRESENCE IN THE INDUSTRIAL SECTOR. IN ADDITION TO THESE PACTS, PLANS ARE MOVING FORWARD ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNAM SPONSORED INDUSTRIAL PARK IN THE STATE OF MORELOS. AMONG THE AGREEMENTS SIGNED WERE THOSE WITH THE CONFEDERATION OF INDUSTRIAL CHAMBERS (CONCAMIN) AND THE NATIONAL MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIAL CHAMBER (CANACINTRA). UNAM'S LEADERSHIP HOPES THAT SIGNING PACTS WITH NATIONAL CHAMBERS WILL INCREASE THE UNIVERSITY'S INVOLVEMENT WITH THE PRIVATE SECTOR.

4. MORELOS SATELLITE I: THE SECRETARIAT OF COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION (SCT) ANNOUNCED THAT THE MORELOS II SATELLITE, NOW IN ORBIT BUT UNUSED, IS EXPECTED TO ENTER INTO OPERATION IN APRIL 1989. IN ADDITION, THE SCT STATED THAT THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW SATELLITE TO REPLACE THE MORELOS I IS NOW UNDERWAY. MORELOS I IS EXPECTED TO CEASE FUNCTIONING IN 1994.

OF THE FEDERAL DISTRICT (DDF) AND THE JAPANESE AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION (JICA) HELD A JOINT CONFERENCE WHERE THEY ANNOUNCED THEIR TWO YEAR STUDY ON AIR POLLUTION IN THE VALLEY OF MEXICO. THE STUDY IS TO BE CONDUCTED IN TWO PARTS. THE FIRST PART (JUST COMPLETED), WAS A LONG RANGE TECHNICAL STUDY OF THE SITUATION IN THE VALLEY OF MEXICO. THIS STUDY FOCUSED ON SOURCES OF POLLUTION, METEOROLOGICAL CONDITIONS AND THEIR EFFECTS ON POLLUTION, AND THE EFFECTIVENESS OF EXISTING MEASURES IN DEALING WITH POLLUTION PROBLEMS. PHASE II OF THE STUDY, WHICH WILL FOCUS ON POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS TO THE PROBLEM, IS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN IN JANUARY 1989.

6. WINTER MALAISE: THE SECRETARIAT OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND ECOLOGY ANNOUNCED THAT THEY EXPECT POLLUTION LEVELS THIS WINTER TO BE THE WORST EVER. THEY BASED THIS CONCLUSION ON THE FACT THAT THERMAL INVERSIONS AND HIGH POLLUTION LEVELS HAVE BEEN OCCURRING THROUGHOUT THE RAINY SEASON, WHICH IS USUALLY THE TIME CONDITIONS ARE AT THEIR BEST. AS A RESULT OF THIS FORECAST, THE POSSIBILITY OF MIDMORNING SCHOOL OPENINGS IS ONCE AGAIN BEING PROPOSED.

7. MEXICO ANNOUNCES PLAN TO RESTRUCTURE FISHING FLEET: IN THE WAKE OF THE EXTENSIVE DAMAGE CAUSED TO THE MEXICAN FISHING FLEET BY HURRICANE GILBERT, THE GOM ANNOUNCED PLANS TO PURCHASE NEW VESSELS AND MAKE CREDITS AVAILABLE TO THOSE FISHERMEN WHO LOST THEIR BOATS. IN ADDITION, PLANS WERE ANNOUNCED TO SELL OIL TO URUGUAY IN EXCHANGE FOR CREDITS TO PURCHASE FISHING VESSELS. THE DAMAGE TO THE FLEET WAS EXTENSIVE, AND THE FLEET IS NOT

8. LOADING OF LAGUNA VERDE: AFTER MUCH TREPIDATION AND POLITICAL HAND-WRINGING, THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR REACTOR WAS FINALLY LOADED. THE POLITICAL DECISION TO LOAD THE REACTOR WAS MADE IN MID-OCTOBER, AND THE LOADING PROCESS BEGAN IN THE LATTER PART OF THE MONTH. THE OPPOSITION TO THE PLANT REMAINS VOCAL, BUT THE PLANT IS EXPECTED TO COME ON LINE IN MARCH OR APRIL OF 1989.

AND WAS ATTENDED BY PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICIALS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE. DR. JAIME SEPULVEDA AMOR, THE HEAD OF CONASIDA (NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR THE PREVENTION OF AIDS), AND OTHER SPEAKERS STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF PUBLIC EDUCATION CAMPAIGNS IN COMBATING AIDS. THE CONFEREES WERE UNANIMOUS IN THEIR CALL FOR GREATER PUBLIC SECTOR INVOLVEMENT IN THE AIDS EDUCATION PROCESS, AND IN THEIR DESIRE FOR STRONGER BUDGETARY BACKING OF AIDS INFORMATION PROGRAMS. CONASIDA ALSO REPORTED THE NUMBER OF REGISTERED AIDS CASES CONTINUES TO INCREASE BY 10 PERCENT EACH MONTH.

10. POPULATION GROWTH SLOWS IN MEXICO: THE SECRETARIAT OF HEALTH RECENTLY ANNOUNCED THAT THE POPULATION GROWTH RATE OF MEXICO HAS DROPPED TO 2 PERCENT A YEAR. THE POPULATION GROWTH RATE HAS BEEN STEADILY DECLINING THROUGHOUT THE DE LA MADRID ADMINISTRATION.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION WITH JOAQUIN VILLALOBOS (ERP) AND LEONEL GONZALES (FPL), on the evening of Friday, November 11, 1988 in a room at the Camino Real Hotel in Mexico City

[Villalobos has a boyish face that smiles often, though unnaturally. He wears a blue sports coat and red tie that look they had been purchased at a thrift shop. At first, his arms are crossed across his chest and his answers are tentative. Gradually, his words flow more smoothly and his hands begin to talk. Yet he never becomes impassioned; it is hard to imagine him as a guerrilla commander or Leninist ideologue.]

SOLARZ: I appreciate your willingness to meet me. I have been to El Salvador several times. I've met some of your colleagues: Hafkal, Guadaloupe, Zamora, Ungo. What message have you been conveying to Latin American leaders? What is the possibility of a negotiated settlement in El Salvador?

VILLALOBOS: I've talked to some of the people you mentioned. The interchanges have been positive. We have a better opportunity [to convey our message??]. We have been exchanging opinons concerning assessments of the situation in El Salvador and about what course to follow. I don't mean simply what we will do but also how the situation develops because of various factors after eight years of war. Under the current conditions, there isn't the possibility of coming up with a concrete formula for an immediate dialogue. We are hopeful that better conditions will develop in the future. Rather than have a public, confrontational dialogue under these conditions, it is better to have a private dialogue which is less confrontational and may open the door to real negotiations.

This approach is based on the situation in El Salvador, which is leading to an explosion. After eight years of war, a military settlement is not appropriate. The social and economic situation is grave, moreso than when the war started. The structural causes of the war--tenancy, for example--have not been resolved. Besides the war, there are natural factors like earthquakes, drought, and flood which create a situation of social tension. This is happening in many Latin American centers. In the case of El Salvador, there is a war with thousands of soldiers and a situation of dual power. This situation of social violence is the result of an economic crisis.

SOLARZ: I agree that a military solution is not appropriate and that the solution needs to be solved through dialogue. I assume that you believe that dialogue cannot take place until after the March 1989. Or do you want to begin the dialogue before the elections?

GONZALEZ: There are no conditions for dialogue now. The Christian Democratic Party (PCD) is divided; there is no-one there to talk with. The army does not want to talk. Within the Reagan Administration, there is no force promoting dialogue. The commandantes decision was to begin an exploratory phase with the Latin American governments to present views on both dialogue and real negotiations. We want to create the conditions which would allow negotiations to take place.

SOLARZ: After the elections, if Christiani or Chavez Mena offered a dialogue, would you agree?

GONZALEZ: We want to create a real negotiating framework. That doesn't mean just Chavez Mena. It includes the armed forces and the American Administration. We had dialogues with the PCD. But when we were developing a process, the army got involved and there was also no political will in the Reagan Administration to support dialogue.

SOLARZ: Let us assume that the atmosphere for a dialogue can be created. Past dialogues have failed because the FMLN has demanded an interim government in which it participates, as a prelude to new elections. The government position has been that it will not share power with the FMLN. It says that the FMLN should lay down its arms and enter into the political process. Ungo and Zamora have returned and are participating. If there is a new dialogue with the support of the armed forces and the United States, would the FMLN still insist on its past demand?

VILLALOBOS: We are trying to establish a negotiating framework in which you can have a strong debate about the real correlation of forces, but in which a war would continue. We are proposing private negotiations with one person or with how ever many they want. We think that the actual correlation of forces is changing. The political model which the Reagan Administration promoted is failing. The PCD, which the Reagan Administration supported, is splitting. The Reagan Administration has been obligated to split the PCD in order to save the political model. The army's fighting method will not end the war.

In this situation, entering into a dialogue and negotiations in which our position would include a denial of the force which we have accumulated isn't possible. But as things move toward social explosions, we seek a movement to dialogue and negotiations without conditions. We can discuss all possibilities.

GONZALEZ: We have elements of a solution. We have to recognize that there are two powers, each representing segments of the people. Negotiations would be designed to find a formula to merge the two forces.

SOLARZ: Do you have any ideas?

GONZALEZ: There are different dimensions. First concerns what relations will be established between North America and Salvadorans. We don't think there needs to be a radical revolution. A new process is under way [in the US??] which would find many friends in LAtin America. Second, there needs to be a way to have an economy in El Salvador so that people can survive. Land would be very important in

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

this economic system, but that conflicts with the interests of a small element of the population. Third we need to look at the political reality in El Salvador. There is no necessity for a single party. There are many forces searching for change, a new pluralism. We don't have a pre-cooked formula. We are proposing three elements.

SOLARZ: What are your views on the return of Ungo and Zamora?

VILLALOBOS: We participated in the discussions preceding it. It is important that the FDR parties increase, grow, and make contacts with other political forces.

SOLARZ: So you supported their decision?

VILLALOBOS: We supported it totally.

SOLARZ: How do you characterize yourselves ideologically?

VILLALOBOS: As revolutionaries and Salvadorans. This is a complicated theme to handle, especially given the Reagan Administration and certain US political forces. The Reagan Administration is very ideological, and seems not to want to understand the reality of Central America and how the social situation in Central America has created forces which lead to a different way of thinking. This [misunderstanding] moves North American society into a prejudgment that we are Marxist-Leninists. This is a theme of great importance. We understand Marxist-Leninist theories as a study discipline, and not as a model to copy. We believe that many world politicians, including those who defend capitalism, use this study discipline. The Reagan Administration has raised the danger of radical revolution in El Salvador and drawn analogies to Pol Pot in Cambodia. This is totally wrong.

It is not solely a question of propaganda when we talk about pluralism. It is an aspect of political reality. Today the world is much more multipolar than before and there can be many changes. Throughout this military conflict, we have maintained ties with the Socialist International, Social Democrats, Social Christians, and political forces in the United States and the US Congress. In the Latin American and European context, we cannot reduce the conflict to just East-West proportions. Political change will not necessarily come through military victory or concessions. We cannot close out the possibility of radical change in El Salvador when there is a more open situation worldwide.

SOLARZ: You say that El Salvador is not ripe for revolution. You say that you favor political pluralism. Obviously you would like changes in the economic and social system. Why then are you not willing to lay down your arms and work within the confines of the political system as have Ungo and Zamora?

GONZALEZ: We hold to the thesis that the presence of a revolutionary situation does not pose a threat to the US because the changes which we seek are internal--having to do with social conditions, land, tenancy, respect for human rights, and so on. The government has not responded to the demands of the major portion of the population which has been marginalized through electoral fraud. To lay down are arms [and participate in elections] would in fact undermine the movement towards a negotiating process. The dinosaurs of the oligarchy would only take full control, adding political and military power to their economic power. Because our goal is to avoid a state of total war, we are willing to hold discussions.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

SOLARZ: There have been dialogues before, and the failure should be laid at various doors. If there is a new dialogue, is there any possibility of any change in the FMLN position?

VILLALOBOS: There has been a fundamental change. We are willing to get into a private dialogue. The public dialogues led to political confrontations. We are looking at another way to solve the problems of El Salvador.

SOLARZ: If ARENA wins, is there any possibility of a dialogue?

VILLALOBOS: We consider that the principal obstacle to a natural understanding has been the American Administration.

SOLARZ: In what way?

VILLALOBOS: The Reagan Administration has provided economic and military aid to the armed forces so they can continue the war. The PCD has been the political instrument for maintaining this support and sustaining repression without bringing international isolation. An ARENA victory would create complications for the Bush Administrataion. We think that a new level of realism might be reached. ARENA wants to wage war and impose repression, but it does not have the political conditions to do so in either international or domestic terms. We think they will continue to keep their contacts.

SOLARZ: I don't know who will win the election. My guess is that ARENA will. If they win, I don't know what they will do. Perhaps they will launch a Matanza. They may reject a dialogue. But if ARENA, for reasons of its own or because of US pressure, were willing to have a private dialogue with you, would you do it?

BOTH: Yes, ARENA has more power.

GONZALEZ: The election will not solve the problem of power in El Salvador. Dialogue is not determined by the interlocutors themselves. The arrival of ARENA would permit other forces, including the the PCD to go into opposition against the war. The people are not alone. There is still the FMLN, and we see the way out. Negotiations are a new approach for the FMLN. We don't have a formula but we are assessing the political will for a political solution.

SOLARZ: Concerning your ideological definition: if I defined a Marxist-Leninist as one who believed in the dictatorship of the proletariat, dominated by a vanguard party run by democratic centralism, would that agree with your political views?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

VILLALOBOS: Radical revolution is not necessary. The current world conditions do not created the need for revolution in El Salvador. Everything which has been understood about the Marxist-Leninist current up until this point--particularly in the interior of the United States--has defects. We take the Bolshevik and Cuban revolutions as a point of departure. But there are others which flowed out of different conditions. Those are different. We cannot talk of a dictatorship of the proletariat for El Salvador, nor a single party.

SOLARZ: So you believe in a pluralist system in which parties can compete for power?

VILLALOBOS: Yes.

SOLARZ: And a mixed economy?

VILLALOBOS: Yes.

SOLARZ: Do you envisage a system in El Salvador that is closer to Costa Rica or to Nicaragua?

GONZALEZ: In the El Salvador phenomenon, the forces driving the change are not only peasants and workers but also the Christian forces, intellectuals, and the petty bourgeoisie. We cannot speak of a single-party system, but have to talk about a Salvadoran model. Perhaps Costa Rica is not an appropriate model because it does not have a reactionary oligarchy. Nor is it necessary to talk about Nicaragua because in Central American they can enter into different domestic situations and international relations.

VILLALOBOS: El Salvador has economic development. . . .

SOLARZ: Let me speak frankly. In trying to convince Americans concerning democracy and capitalism, Fidel Castro in the Sierra Maestra promised pluralism and a mixed economy. In power, there were no opposition parties and the government took over the economy. Before they took power in 1979, the Sandinistas promised genuine political pluralism, a free press, and respect for bourgeois liberties. Then they took power and in effect cracked down on the other parties, censored La Prensa, and violated human rights. Since your chief supporters are Fidel Castro and Daniel Ortega, the American people see you making the same kind of promises that they made when they were in the position you are in now. They did not keep their promises. Why should Americans believe that you will keep yours?

GONZALEZ: The change has to do with new ideas. Latin Americans ought to learn to live in a democracy in order to construct one. Democracy is not just counting votes but building social forces. We are creating various elements of a model. If we create one with a minority element--the oligarchy, for example--and if it tries to defeat the people, that is a problem to be resolved.

VILLALOBOS: This is the fundamental political question and we want to speak frankly. This is not a question of truth or lies but of concrete reality. Different revolutions spring from different circumstances. The Bolshevik Revolution had to move into war communism. It was Nazi Fascism which stimulated Stalinism. It would be madness to think of perestroika with a Nazi neighbor. But now the world has changed. We know the circumstances of the consolidation of Cuban revolution. The United States was in a trauma and perhaps could neither control the situation nor understand it as a process of change. That caused a deepening and isolation of the Cuban revolution.

We are not offering new lies but offering an analysis of a changed world situation and a change in the United States. There are possibilities of contacts with parts of North American society, with Latin America, and with Europe, and not with just one pole. Our contacts help define our identity. Contrary to isolating our resolution by making a counter-revolution, this is an affair with revolutionary ideas which needs to be examined. If change were produced, the Salvadoran Revolution dares to say that if there were no contras, this model would probably be functioning in Nicaragua.

SOLARZ: If you came to power in El Salvador, what assurance is there that you would not support revolutionary movements in Honduras and Costa Rica?

VILLALOBOS: This is a frank and realistic answer. Looking at Latin America as a whole, social conditions are the main factor creating revolutionary situations. Most serious is dependence on the United States. We consider that there are some countries in Latin America and Central America which have a higher level of stability and riches, with larger capitalist sectors which have produced changes in their societies. On the other hand, there are critical points where revolution is inevitable--not necessarily radical revolution, but where change is necessary. El Salvador has five million people--six million if all come back. If the land is not redistributed and profound social changes do not occur, irrespective of our will, war will continue. This type of situation doesn't exist in Costa Rica. In El Salvador there is only one mode of production, social contradictions are deeper, and the oligarchy is not responsive to change.

SOLARZ: So what about the export of revolution?

VILLALOBOS: The exporting of revolution is not possible. We have our own problems. We are not looking for new conflicts. If a revolution existed outside of El Salvador, you would say that were were giving arms even if we weren't. The United States needs to understand the need for change and the need to live in peace. That will lead to the stabilization of markets. Changes in the Salvadoran tenure system will have good effect on the capitalism in Guatemala.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

SOLARZ: The Salvadoran government has done some agrarian reform. What else would you like done?

VILLALOBOS: To be completely clear, even though we have our own ideas, we think that without Phase II there has been no real land reform. The oligarchy continues to have economic power.

GONZALEZ: Without changes to Phase I, such as providing credit to the beneficiaries, land reform hasn't really taken place. Recently the National Assembly approved a law returning land to the original owner.

SOLARZ: Every country is unique. What works in one doesn't work in another. Yet we make judgments about other countries based on our own values. I was critical of Pol Pot's Cambodia and Marcos's Philippines. I have a high opinion of Costa Rica, Norway, and Sweden. What is your opinion of the political systems in Cuba and Costa Rica, and in the United States and the Soviet Union?

VILLALOBOS: We can speak better of own reality. Without a doubt, socialism has achieved great social progress, brought benefits to large majorities, and solved major problems. The social conditions in which they developed their power, state, and democracy relates to particular internal and international situations. With regard to the Salvadoran situation and international context, we are advocating great changes in peaceful and democratic ways.

SOLARZ: What do you think of Cuban and Soviet democracy?

VILLALOBOS: One cannot limit the concept of democracy to the idea of representation--although that is an element of democracy. We would also urge economic democracy and democracy of participation. We are looking for ways to build our model.

GONZALEZ: Our message to the Third World is that we don't split the world into two blocs. We look for good in all.

SOLARZ: What is your view on Afghanistan?

VILLALOBOS: Perhaps it would have been better had there been no intervention.

SOLARZ: Concerning Poland, are your sympathies with Solidarity or the Polish government?

VILLALOBOS: We need to say something all encompassing. We are critics of errors in policies. We are not closed to criticism and errors on the part of forces which are close to us ideologically. Concerning Poland, we don't side with either side, but know that popular demands were not satisfied and errors were committed.

SOLARZ: You say you are willing to have a multiparty system in El Salvador. Is that appropriate for Cuba?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

VILLALOBOS: You should ask the Cubans.

GONZALEZ: We are in the transition to the new Administration. We want to continue this exhange to open the way to a solution, rather than complicating the international situation. Changes in US military support will complicate and prolong the conflict. You cannot bet on our military defeat because of our ties to the people. But we remain open to this process.

SOLARZ: If there is to be a solution, there must be mutual compromise. Based on my talks in El Salvador, I see no chance that the government will agree to any power-sharing arrangments in which the FMLN people get positions before elections. I hope a formula can be found to continue the struggle for change by peaceful means.

SUBJECT: OBTAINING A FAIR AND BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE 1988 UNGA

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~, ENTIRE TEXT.

SUMMARY

2. IN THE OCTOBER 5, 1988 PLEBISCITE, THE CHILEAN PEOPLE VOTED TO HOLD OPEN PRESIDENTIAL AND CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS IN 1989 RATHER THAN RATIFY PINOCHET AS PRESIDENT FOR ANOTHER EIGHT YEARS. THIS IMPORTANT EVENT WAS CARRIED OUT IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF IMPROVED HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS DUE TO STEPS TAKEN BY THE GOC. WHILE THE CONSTITUTION ALLOWS PINOCHET TO REMAIN IN POWER UNTIL MARCH 11, 1990 WITH HIS REGIME INTACT UNTIL THEN, THE PERIOD BETWEEN NOW AND THAT DATE HOLDS THE POTENTIAL FOR FURTHER IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS.

3. WE UNDERSTAND THAT IMPORTANT MEMBERS OF THE EC ARE INTERESTED IN A SHORTER AND MORE BALANCED UNGA RESOLUTION ON CHILE WHICH WOULD RECOGNIZE THE PROGRESS REPRESENTED BY THE PLEBISCITE AND CERTAIN HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS AND ENCOURAGE PROSPECTS FOR FUTURE HUMAN RIGHTS ADVANCES AS CHILE MOVES BACK TOWARD DEMOCRACY. THE U.S. DOES NOT ITSELF WNAT TO INTRODUCE A RESOLUTION ON CHILE. IT WOULD,

HOWEVER, IN ORDER TO STIMULATE MOVEMENT IN THIS AREA, BE PREPARED TO EXPLORE AND WHERE POSSIBLE ENCOURAGE THE E.C. TO INTRODUCE SUCH A RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AT THE 1988 UNGA. SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD RECOGNIZE THE IMPORTANT POSITIVE STEPS WHICH HAVE BEEN TAKEN BY THE GOC AS WELL AS INDICATE AREAS WHERE RIGHTS IMPROVEMENT IS STILL NEEDED. WE FEEL THAT THE BEST MEANS OF ACHIEVING THIS GOAL IS TO CONSULT WITH THE EC AND ENCOURAGE THOSE COUNTRIES WHO HAVE SHOWN AN INTEREST TO TAKE THE LEAD IN DRAFTING AND PRESENTING A RESOLUTION EITHER AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO OR IN LIEU OF THE UNBALANCED RESOLUTIONS SUBMITTED IN THE PAST BY MEXICO (WITH CUBAN SUPPORT).

4. THIS CABLE REQUESTS THE HELP OF ACTION POSTS IN CONSULTING WITH HOST GOVERNMENTS REGARDING THE SITUATION IN CHILE CREATED BY THE GOC'S RECENTLY-HELD PLEBISCITE AND RELATED HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENTS AND TO DISCUSS THEIR INTEREST IN AN EC RESOLUTION ON CHILE. IT REQUESTS THAT USUN ASSIST IN OPENING THE WAY FOR A MORE MODERATE AND BALANCED OUTCOME THAT WOULD RECOGNIZE THE PROGRESS ACHIEVED AND ENCOURAGE FURTHER IMPROVEMENT. INFO POSTS MAY LATER BE ASKED TO SEEK SUPPORT FOR SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD ONE EMERGE, AND MAY USE THE BACKGROUND MATERIAL PROVIDED IN THIS CABLE TO RESPOND TO QUESTIONS CONCERNING CHILEAN DEVELOPMENTS, ESPECIALLY AS THEY RELATE TO THE UNGA. END SUMMARY.

POST-PLEBISCITE CHILE AND THE TRANSITION:

5. CHILE REMAINS CALM AFTER THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE ALTHOUGH THERE IS MUCH POLITICAL ACTIVITY TAKING PLACE. PINOCHET'S CANDIDACY FOR PRESIDENT IN THE OPEN ELECTIONS REMOTE POSSIBILITY, JUDGING BY COMMENTS BY MANY OF HIS FORMER CIVILIAN AND MILITARY SUPPORTERS THAT THE
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONSTITUTION PREVENTS HIM FROM RUNNING AND THAT FEW WOULD BACK HIS CANDIDACY ANYWAY. THE 16 PARTIES WHICH FORMED THE "NO COMMAND" AGAINST PINOCHET IN THE PLEBISCITE REMAIN UNITED AND ARE DEBATING THE NOMINATION OF A SINGLE CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT IN THE 1989 ELECTION. AT THE SAME TIME, THE OPPOSITION HAS CALLED ON THE GOC TO NEGOTIATE POSSIBLE CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION AND MOVING FORWARD THE ELECTION DATE. WHILE SOME CONTACTS MAY HAVE TAKEN PLACE WITH NON-ARMY MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA NO MOVEMENT IN THE DIRECTION CALLED FOR BY THE OPPOSITION IS APPARENT.

6. CIVILIAN SUPPORTERS OF A "YES" VOTE IN THE PLEBISCITE ARE ALSO CAREFULLY WEIGHING THEIR OPTIONS FOR THE FUTURE. ON THE FAR LEFT, THE COMMUNIST PARTY REMAINS DIVIDED BETWEEN THOSE WHO FAVOR THE CONTINUED USE OF VIOLENCE AGAINST THE REGIME AND THOSE WHO SEEK ACCOMMODATION WITH

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTIES FOR JOINT POLITICAL ACTION.

7. THE COMING WEEKS SHOULD BE MARKED BY INTENSE POLITICKING WITHIN AND AMONG THE DIFFERENT POLITICAL GROUPS. POLITICAL ACTIVITY SHOULD SLOW DOWN BY MID-DECEMBER AND MAY NOT FULLY RESUME UNTIL THE SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE SUMMER VACATIONS END IN MARCH. REGARDLESS OF THE PACE OF ACTIVITY, HOWEVER, IMPORTANT POLITICAL DECISIONS WILL BE TAKEN BY BOTH THE OPPOSITION AND FORMER SUPPORTERS OF THE "YES" CAMPAIGN, WITH THE MILITARY EVALUATING DEVELOPMENTS IN ORDER TO DETERMINE ITS OWN POSITION. THE OUTLOOK AND BEHAVIOR OF THE ARMED FORCES IS, OF COURSE, A CRUCIAL INGREDIENT IN CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

8. THE U.S. AND THE EUROPEAN DEMOCRACIES MADE A POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION IN SUPPORT OF A FREE AND FAIR PLEBISCITE PROCESS. WE WILL CONTINUE TO BACK A TRANSITION TO FULL DEMOCRACY IN CHILE WHICH IS ULTIMATELY THE BEST GUARANTEE OF CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS IN CHILE. AN IMPORTANT PART OF THIS EFFORT WILL BE TO ENCOURAGE THE GOC TO MAKE FURTHER PROGRESS IN THE AREA OF HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS IN ORDER THAT THE POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT IN CHILE BE AS CONDUCIVE AS POSSIBLE TO DEMOCRATIC DECISION-MAKING. AT THE SAME TIME WE FEEL THAT CONTINUED IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN RIGHTS WILL STRENGTHEN THE GOC'S COMMITMENT TO A RESTORATION OF DEMOCRACY, FACILITATE DIALOGUE AND DEBATE ON ISSUES CRUCIAL TO THE FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY, ENCOURAGE MODERATION WITHIN THE OPPOSITION, AND DENY THE FAR LEFT AN ISSUE.

9. IN THIS LIGHT, WE FEEL THAT EC INTEREST IN THE ADOPTION OF A BALANCED, FAIR RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNGA COULD PLAY A ROLE IN STIMULATING MORE PROGRESS IN HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS AS THE COUNTRY BEGINS PREPARATIONS FOR GENERAL ELECTIONS. DECISION-MAKING WITHIN THE GOC IN THE MONTHS AHEAD MAY BE INCREASINGLY DISTRIBUTED AMONG SEVERAL PLAYERS RATHER THAN CONCENTRATED ALMOST TOTALLY IN

THE HANDS OF PINOCHET. A MORE MODERATE AND BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UN COULD STRENGTHEN MODERATION AND ENHANCE THE POSITION OF THOSE WHO FAVOR DIALOGUE BETWEEN POLITICAL FORCES AND FULLER RESPECT FOR HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS. THIS IN TURN SHOULD LEAD TO AN INCREASED PUBLIC PERCEPTION THAT THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY IS ON TRACK.

AN EC RESOLUTION AT THE UNGA:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

10. IN RECENT WEEKS WE HAVE RECEIVED A NUMBER OF INFORMAL INDICATIONS THAT RESPONSIBLE MEMBERS OF THE EC SUCH AS THE UK MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN THE WAKE OF THE PLEBISCITE IN A SHORTER AND MORE BALANCED UNGA RESOLUTION WHICH WOULD RECOGNIZE AND STIMULATE FURTHER PROGRESS ON THE PATH TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENT. THE DEPARTMENT WOULD LIKE TO CONSULT WITH EC NATIONS WHICH APPEAR FAVORABLY INCLINED TO SUCH AN OUTCOME AND EXCHANGE VIEWS AS TO HOW ONE MIGHT DEVELOP CONSENSUS AROUND A BALANCED RESOLUTION THAT WOULD REFLECT SUCH A MODERATE AND CONSTRUCTIVE APPROACH. SUCH A RESOLUTION, IF IT COULD BE DEVELOPED ON A TIMELY BASIS, MIGHT EVEN DISSUADE THE MEXICANS FROM PRESENTING A VERSION OF THEIR OWN, WHICH WE UNDERSTAND THEY ARE DRAFTING.

11. WE HAVE CONSULTED WIDELY WITH THE EC COUNTRIES ON CHILE IN THE PAST YEAR AND NOW MORE THAN EVER FEEL THAT OUR VIEWS ON THE NEED FOR A PEACEFUL, MODERATE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY ARE WIDELY RESPECTED, UNDERSTOOD AND SHARED. BY STATEMENTS AND ACTIONS, NEARLY ALL OF THE EC COUNTRIES HAVE EXPRESSED THEIR SATISFACTION WITH THE PLEBISCITE RESULT AND HAVE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT IMPROVEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE IN RESPECT FOR BASIC RIGHTS IN CHILE. THIS LAYS THE FOUNDATION FOR A FAIR RESOLUTION CREATED AND SPONSORED BY THE EC THAT WE COULD SUPPORT AND WHICH WOULD BE MOST LIKELY TO ENCOURAGE THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO CONTINUE ON THE DIFFICULT PATH TO DEMOCRACY AND THEREBY PERMANENT HUMAN RIGHTS IMPROVEMENT.

12. FOLLOWING UP ON INTEREST EXPRESSED, ACTION EMBASSIES (PLUS THE US MISSION TO THE EC AND EMBASSY VATICAN) ARE REQUESTED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR HOST GOVERNMENTS AND ORGANIZATIONS TO DISCUSS WITH THEM IN MORE DETAIL THEIR THOUGHTS ON THE PROSPECTS FOR A SHORTER AND MORE BALANCED EC RESOLUTION OF THE KIND DESCRIBED. WHERE INTEREST IS INDICATED, THEY SHOULD FURTHER ENCOURAGE THE EC NATIONS BY SUGGESTING THAT THEY DRAFT AND SUBMIT A RESOLUTION ON CHILE TO THE UNGA. IN PARTICULAR, IT MIGHT MAKE TACTICAL SENSE FOR A SMALL SUB-GROUP OF EC NATIONS TO TAKE THE LEAD IN NEW YORK AND ELSEWHERE IN EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES FOR SUCH AN OUTCOME. WE HAVE DISCUSSED THIS PROSPECT INFORMALLY WITH SOME OF THEM ALREADY AND FIND AN INTEREST IN PURSUING SUCH A COURSE. PARAGRAPH 16 CONTAINS SOME IDEAS FOR A SHORT, POSITIVE RESOLUTION WHICH CAN BE LEFT WITH YOUR INTERLOCUTORS. THE EC COUNTRIES SHOULD REALIZE THAT WE WHILE WE WOULD CONSIDER A TIMELY EXPRESSION OF SUPPORT FOR POSITIVE MOVEMENT TOWARDS A BALANCED RESOLUTION, WE WOULD LIKEWISE MOVE TO DISTANCE OURSELVES QUICKLY FROM A RESOLUTION IF NEGOTIATIONS ON A TEXT WERE TO EVOLVE IN AN UNACCEPTABLE WAY. THEY, OF COURSE, SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT OUR VOTE ULTIMATELY WILL BE DETERMINED BY THE FINAL TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION. PLEASE REPORT RESPONSES TO DEPARTMENT, EC COLLECTIVE, SANTIAGO, SAN JOSE AND USUN.

SUBJECT: Letelier Case: Next Steps

ISSUE FOR DECISION

Whether to execute a series of steps designed to continue our pursuit of justice in this case of international terrorism in a manner consistent with our support for a transition to democracy in Chile.

ESSENTIAL FACTORS

On August 30, 1988, Acting Secretary Whitehead approved a plan (Action Memo at Tab A) to invoke a 1914 bilateral treaty with Chile to bring about an international investigation into responsibility for the 1976 Letelier/Moffitt killings. At the time we initially recommended that decision, we planned to invoke the treaty before the nomination of Pinochet as a candidate in the October 5 plebiscite. As events developed, we were unable to act sufficiently in advance of the plebiscite to avoid the appearance that our purpose was to interfere in the vote. Hence, we decided to postpone implementing that decision until the plebiscite had been completed.

In the interim, a new problem has arisen. Legislation is now pending in the Congress that would authorize the families of the victims to attach Chilean property in the U.S. to satisfy an outstanding $10 million judgment. We persuaded Senator Kennedy to keep this legislation on hold pending our next steps.

We understand that you have requested that we submit for your approval the steps we would now take in implementing the Acting Secretary's decision. If approved, the following series of steps could be taken during the next two weeks. ARA would manage the process with a view towards avoiding or minimizing any adverse effect on our broad effort to support a transition to democracy in Chile. L would carry out the legal process in full coordination with ARA.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

STEP ONE: Notify Commission President

Of the five commissioners called for under the terms of the 1914 treaty, two are appointed by each party (one national and one non-national) and a fifth member agreed to by both parties serves as President. In 1965, the United States and Chile agreed that Suzanne Bastid of France should serve as President. Madame Bastid is a respected international lawyer, but she is now 82 years old and resportedly in frail health. L would contact Madame Bastid to determine if she remains willing and able to serve. If not, we would have to propose to Chile simultaneously with invocation of the Treaty a new candidate for President. In the absence of agreement, the Swiss President may appoint the President of the Commission.

STEP TWO: Identify and Appoint Commissioners

The Legal Adviser will identify potential national and non-national U.S. Commissioners and contact these people concerning their availability to serve. Once he has made a selection, you will send them formal appointment letters in due course.

STEP THREE: Inform the Congress and the Families

Simultaneously with step four, we will wish to brief the Hill and the families of the victims. It should be noted that during steps one and two, our intentions will have to be discussed with persons outside the government and thus we run the risk of our plan being prematurely leaked to Chile.

STEP FOUR: Invoke the Treaty

We will deliver to the GOC in Washington a diplomatic note invoking the Treaty and convoking the Commission. We will inform the GOC of the names of the U.S. appointed commissioners, a U.S. proposal for a new President if we have previously determined that Madame Bastid is unable to serve, a proposed set of procedures to be followed, and a precise definition of the matter we wish the Commission to investigate. At the same time, we will inform the President of the Commission and the other Commissioners of our action and request the Commission to meet as soon as possible to organize itself and its work.

We believe we should invoke the treaty before our new Ambassador to Chile arrives in mid-December. This time period offers several advantages. Selection of candidates or campaigning for the 1989 Chilean general elections have not yet begun, and we can therefore invoke the treaty without credibly being accused of attempting to influence Chile's internal political process. At the same time, the Commission's report will not be due until one year after invocation of the Treaty. Hence, it will come only after the Chilean election and cannot credibly be seen as an effort to affect the current government.

STEP FIVE: Explain Our Action to the Chileans

Immediately upon presenting our diplomatic note invoking the Treaty, we will call on Junta members, other key GOC officials, and high-ranking military officers to explain our reasons for proceeding with this step. Our arguments will center on the fact that lack of progress by the GOC in bringing to justice those guilty of the Letelier/Moffitt murders and in responding to the U.S. claim against Chile arising out of this matter constitutes a major obstacle to the reestablishment of normal relations between the U.S. and Chile. By law, we may not sell arms or provide military training to Chile until the GOC takes action on the case. Regardless of other steps the GOC may take, the Letelier matter must be eventually dealt with in order for fully normal relations to come about.

We will underscore our belief that the 1914 treaty offers a way for making progress on the case and, subsequently, improving relations with Chile. Should the Chilean Government pledge to cooperate in the work of the investigative commission envisioned by the treaty, this could provide grounds for us to request from Congress greater flexibility in dealing with the Chilean military even as the investigation proceeds. The rewards for cooperation might be greater professional contact with the U.S. armed forces. This is a potentially strong argument because some elements in the Chilean military have long considered Letelier, and Pinochet's heavy-handed cover up, as an embarrassment to the institution. Apart from possibly Pinochet himself, no active duty Chilean military officer appears to be even potentially implicated in the assassination plot. Pinochet might further weaken his already-damaged legitimacy and possibly undercut his military support if he refuses to allow the investigation and thereby closes the door to better military relations with the U.S.

We will also stress the potential for improved relations if Chile were to satisfy the 12 million dollar U.S. claim which we have espoused on behalf of the families of the victims and to cover USG damages resulting from the assassination. Chile can satisfy this claim without admitting fault. We will stress that lack of cooperation or obstruction could increase bilateral tensions and cause Congress to become wary of any USG efforts to ease legislative or political restrictions impeding the establishment of more normal relations. Particularly, lack of cooperation by the GOC on the claim appears likely to result in congressional action to change the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act by broadening attachment provisions, which would be economically and politically harmful to Chilean interests by exposing Chilean assets in the United States to attachment, thereby straining U.S.-Chilean relations rather than leading towards normalization.

Our arguments in favor of cooperation should carry much weight. We have consistently treated the Letelier case as a legal and moral rather than a political matter, and our intentions have for the most part been correctly perceived in Chile. We are confident that public opinion in Chile would continue to view our actions in invoking the treaty and pressing the claim as responsible steps aimed at obtaining justice in the case, steps which the GOC could not exploit to its political advantage. It has tried to fend off other U.S. initiatives on Letelier by claiming that the matter should be submitted to international arbitration. The treaty we are now proposing to invoke provides for arbitration if the parties are unable to reach a settlement on the basis of the findings of the investigative commission. Invocation should therefore be seen by Chileans as a proper and legal step in keeping with the accepted norms of international behavior, not as an attempt to interfere in Chilean political life. The morality of our position is a strong argument to be used now in discussing the Letelier matter with the highly nationalistic Chilean military.

STEP SIX: Consult With Congress

Convincing domestic reasons for prompt invocation of the treaty also exist. The House has passed legislation to amend the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA) to allow inter alia for attachment of Chilean property in the U.S. as a means of obtaining compensation for the families of the victims in the Letelier-Moffitt case. Senate action was only narrowly avoided this session and, based on our consultations on the Hill, we have good reason to believe that the legislation applicable to Chile will be reintroduced and passed by the Congress unless we can convince them that we are taking effective action on our own to further pursue the case and secure compensation for the victims' families.

Should the Congress act to change the FSIA with retroactive effect as now planned, important Chilean assets, such as a LAN Chile airplane, could be attached to satisfy the $10 million outstanding judgment. Such a step would establish a very harmful precedent of economic sanctions against Chile and hand Pinochet and others a useful means of fomenting a nationalistic reaction against the U.S. While differences exist within the Department concerning the merits of supporting or opposing such legislation as a general matter, ARA feels strongly that we should in any event attempt to keep Letelier out of the scope of any future legislation. The best way of doing so is by taking prompt action on the Treaty and by pressing our claim strongly on the diplomatic front. This may help buy time, but it does not assure that Congress will not act next year to change the FSIA with a retroactive impact on Chile.

Should the Commission find that officials of the Chilean Government were responsible for the crime, it would strengthen our claim that Chile should pay damages. However, the Commission itself is not constituted to assess damages. Our goal will therefore be to try to convince Congress that invocation of the 1914 Treaty holds the potential for progress not only in determining criminal responsibility in the case but that perhaps through the Commission process we also may obtain just compensation for the victims' families. We will point out to key members that amendments to the FSIA could be counter-productive to democracy in Chile by producing a nationalistic backlash in favor of Pinochet. We will make a large effort to get these key points across.

FUTURE STEPS:

If Chile cooperates with the Commission, we can expect that the Commission's Report will not come out until after the December, 1989 elections. Chilean cooperation will open up opportunitiesto renew cooperation with Chile on other fronts. But unless the claim is satisfied, it will always be a major irritant in U.S.- Chilean relations. And if Congress were to pass legislation making possible attachment of Chilean assets, our whole relationship is likely to be affected. Thus, our important message to Chile will be to cooperate with us on all fronts to put the Letelier case behind us.

RECOMMENDATION

That you approve the above steps in order that invocation of the 1914 Treaty proceed.

DRAFT DIP. NOTE

The Department of State presents its compliments to the Embassy of Chile and refers to the Treaty for the Settlement of Disputes that may Occur Between the United States and Chile, which entered into force on January 19, 1916.

The United States recalls that in 1972 the Government of Chile appointed Edmundo Vargas Carreno and Manfred Lachs as Commissioners to the International Commission of Investigation appointed by Chile under Article II of the Treaty, and that in 1965 the parties jointly appointed Suzanne Bastid to serve as President of the Commission. The United States has the honor to inform the Government of Chile that in accordance with Article II it has appointed on this date _____ of the United States and _____ of _____ as Commissioners appointed by the United States. A curriculum vitae of each person is attached. The United States has today informed the previously appointed Commissioners of this development.

The Department notes that Article I of the Treaty states that the Parties "agree that all disputes that may arise in the future between them, shall, when diplomatic methods of adjustment have failed, be submitted for investigation and report" to the Commission which is now constituted. The United States has attempted to resolve, through diplomatic methods, the dispute between the United States and Chile concerning the involvement of officials of the Government of Chile in the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in Washington, D.C. on September 21, 1976 and the continued failure of the Government of Chile to cooperate fully in the investigation of those murders. Accordingly, the United States today is submitting to the International Commission for its investigation and report this matter and hereby, pursuant to Article III of the Treaty, convokes the Commission. The United States has so informed the Commissioners.

Specifically, the United States requests the Commission to investigate and report upon the facts surrounding the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in Washington, D.C. on September 21, 1976, including the involvement of Chilean Government officials in those deaths, and to investigate and report upon the extent to which officials of the Government of Chile obstructed subsequent investigations into the deaths.

~~DRAFT~~ MEMORANDUM FOR COLIN L. POWELL
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Invocation of a 1914 treaty with Chile to convoke an international commission to investigate the 1976 assassinations of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in Washington, D.C.

The Secretary has approved the invocation by the United States of a 1914 treaty with Chile which provides for the submission of disputes between the two countries to a five person international commission. We will ask the commission to investigate and report upon the facts surrounding the September 1976 deaths in Washington, D.C. of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, including the involvement of Chilean Government officials, and the extent to which officials of the Government of Chile obstructed subsequent investigations into the deaths.

The State Department has decided to take this action in the hope of finally bringing this matter to a fair and just resolution. For twelve years, the Government of Chile has thwarted the various legal steps taken by both the Department and the victims' families to prosecute the individuals who planned and carried out the assassination, to compensate the victims' families, and to redress this insult to the United States and this violation of our sovereignty. Whether invocation of the 1914 treaty will prove fully successful is uncertain; at a minimum, though, it should underscore our resolve to continue to seek justice in this matter.

The Department of Justice has concurred in this decision. We hope to initiate this action prior to the date on which our new Ambassador to Chile assumes his post in mid-December.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ON SCHEDULING AN APPOINTMENT WITH PROFESSOR SUZANNE BASTID

1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT. THIS IS AN ACTION MESSAGE.

2. DEPARTMENT REQUESTS THAT EMBASSY DETERMINE WHEREABOUTS OF PROFESSOR AND INTERNATIONAL LEGAL SCHOLAR SUZANNE BASTID AND IF SHE IS IN FRANCE CONTACT HER. THE MOST RECENT ADDRESSES AVAILABLE TO DEPARTMENT ARE 88 RUE DE GRENELLE, 75007, PARIS AND 71550 ANOST FRANCE (HOME). SHE IS A PROFESSOR EMERITUS AT THE FACULTY OF LAW, ECONOMICS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PARIS, A PAST PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, AND A MEMBER OF INSTITUTE OF FRANCE. MME BASTID IS 82, BUT HAS BEEN PROFESSIONALLY ACTIVE AS RECENTLY AS 1985 WHEN SHE SAT AS AN AD HOC JUDGE AT THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE. EMBASSY IS REQUESTED TO ASCERTAIN THE STATE OF HER HEALTH AND LEVEL OF CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY. SPECIFICALLY EMBASSY IS REQUESTED TO ASK HER SCHEDULE OVER THE NEXT TWO MONTHS AND ASK WHETHER SHE WOULD BE AVAILABLE WITHIN THE NEXT TWO-THREE

UNCLASSIFIED

WEEKS TO MEET AT HER CONVENIENCE FOR AN HOUR OR SO WITH USG OFFICIALS TO DISCUSS HER POSSIBLE INVOLVEMENT IN AN INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT MATTER OF CONCERN TO THE UNITED STATES. YOU MAY INFORM HER THAT THE MATTER RELATES TO HER FUNCTIONS AS PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION ESTABLISHED IN THE 1914 TREATY BETWEEN CHILE AND THE UNITED STATES. YOU SHOULD REQUEST THAT SHE KEEP THAT INFORMATION STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL AS NO FINAL DECISIONS HAVE BEEN MADE TO INVOKE THE TREATY AND WE WISHED TO DISCUSS THIS WITH HER BEFORE TAKING ANY STEPS UNDER THE TREATY. ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING MME BASTID'S RECENT ACTIVITIES, JUDGMENT, POLITICAL LEANINGS, HEALTH ETC. THAT EMBASSY CAN DISCRETELY OBTAIN WOULD ALSO BE APPRECIATED.

3. STRICTLY FYI. DEPARTMENT PLANS TO CONVOKE THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION OF INVESTIGATION, AS PROVIDED IN A 1914 TREATY WITH CHILE, TO INVESTIGATE THE ASSASSINATION OF ORLANDO LETELIER IN WASHINGTON IN 1976. UNDER THE TREATY, EACH COUNTRY SELECTS TWO COMMISSIONERS, AND TOGETHER THEY SELECT A FIFTH COMMISSIONER WHO SERVES AS PRESIDENT. IN 1965 CHILE PROPOSED MME BASTID AS PRESIDENT, THE U.S. ACCEPTED THE PROPOSAL AND MME BASTID ACCEPTED THE POSITION, AND TO DEPARTMENT'S KNOWLEDGE SHE HAS NEVER RESIGNED IT. EITHER PARTY MAY WITHDRAW ITS APPROVAL OF THE PRESIDENT AT ANYTIME BEFORE INVESTIGATION BEGINS.

4. THIS TREATY HAS NEVER BEEN INVOKED, AND MME BASTID MAY HAVE LONG SINCE FORGOTTEN HER COMMISSION AS PRESIDENT. HER NEUTRAL PARTICIPATION AND LEADERSHIP OF THE COMMISSION, HOWEVER, IS IMPORTANT TO A SUCCESSFUL INVESTIGATION. HER STATUS WITHIN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY DESERVES RESPECT AND WE ARE SOMEWHAT CONCERNED ABOUT PLACING HER INTO THIS POSITION WITHOUT NOTICE. USG PLANS TO INVOKE THE TREATY UNILATERALLY AND FOR THE TIME BEING ALL PLANS ARE CONFIDENTIAL. WE BELIEVE, HOWEVER, THAT WE SHOULD GIVE HER A HEADS UP AND NOT SURPRISE HER, EVEN AT RISK SHE MAY LEAK U.S. THINKING TO CHILE. EMBASSY SHOULD NOT DISCLOSE TO HER THE SUBJECT OF A POTENTIAL INVESTIGATION. THE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING REFERRED TO IN PARA 2 WOULD BE TO INFORM HER MORE SPECIFICALLY OF U.S. INTENTIONS. END FYI.

5. AS THE PLAN IS TO MOVE ON THIS BY THE END OF NOVEMBER, DEPARTMENT WOULD APPRECIATE RESPONSE SOONEST.

DRAFT LETTER TO PRESIDENT

Dear Madame Bastid:

I am writing to you in your capacity as President of the International Commission established by the Treaty for the Settlement of Disputes that May Occur Between the United States and Chile, signed at Washington July 24, 1914. (Copy attached at Tab A.) The United States wishes to submit to the Commission a dispute between the United States and Chile involving the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit in Washington, D.C. in 1976.

The United States Government has credible evidence proving that Chilean Government officials were responsible for planning and directing this assassination and for obstructing subsequent investigations into the assassination. (A summary of the United States understanding of the facts underlying the dispute is attached at Tab B.) The United States Government has repeatedly sought the cooperation of the Government of Chile on repeated occasions in this regard -- in its request for extradition of the responsible Chilean officials, in its request that those officials be criminally prosecuted in Chile, in its request that those individuals be expelled to the United States, in its request that the Government of Chile appoint a special investigator to prosecute the criminal case in Chile, and, finally, in its request that the Government of Chile compensate the United States citizens and the United States Government for injuries suffered as a result of the assassinations. The Government of Chile has rejected each request. (A chronicle of diplomatic efforts to resolve this dispute is attached at Tab C.)

This dispute is admissible before the International Commission established under the terms of the 1914 treaty between the United States and Chile. Article I of that treaty provides that "all disputes" between the United States and Chile "shall, when diplomatic methods of adjustment have failed, be submitted for investigation and report" to the International Commission. The responsibility of the Government of Chile for an assassination committed in the United States and injuring United States citizens is a matter of dispute between the United States and Chile, which the United States Government has unsuccessfully attempted to resolve through diplomatic means.

Article II of the Treaty provides for an International Commission of Investigation composed of five members. In accordance with that Article, in 1965 the United States and Chile agreed that you should serve as the President of the International Commission, and in 1972 the Government of Chile appointed as its Commissioners Edmundo Vargas Carreno of Chile and Manfred Lachs of Poland. The United States has today appointed as its Commissioners _____ of the United States and _____ of _____.

Pursuant to Article III of the Treaty, the United States hereby submits this dispute to the Commission. The United States requests that the Commission investigate and report upon the facts surrounding the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit in Washington, D.C. on September 21, 1976, including the involvement of Chilean Government officials in those deaths, and to investigate and report upon the extent to which officials of the Government of Chile obstructed subsequent investigations into the deaths.

An International Commission of Investigation has never been convoked under the 1914 Treaty, and the United States Government recognizes that the Commission will be faced with novel questions, including what procedures it should adopt in conducting its investigation. The United States respectfully suggests that the rules for international commissions of inquiry contained in Part III of the Hague Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes of October 18, 1907 provide a useful guide. (A copy of these rules is attached at Tab D.)

Attached at Tab E is a list of the other Commission members with their phone numbers and addresses. The United States stands ready to assist you in any way possible as you organize the Commission. The co-agents for the United States in this matter are Mr. David A. Colson, Assistant Legal Adviser for Inter-American Affairs of the Department of State, and Mr. Robert E. SUBJECT: SECRETARY'S MEETING WITH CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ, NOVEMBER 18, 1988

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. THE SECRETARY MET WITH CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ AT THE DEPARTMENT ON NOVEMBER 18, 1988. ERRAZURIZ DESCRIBED TO THE SECRETAR THE OBJECTIVES OF THE GOC DURING THE TRANSITIONAL PERIOD DURING THE NEXT 15 MONTHS. THE KEY ELEMENT WITHIN THE GOC IN SHAPING POLICY, HE CLAIMED, IS A TEAM OF FOUR ECONOMISTS (HIMSELF INCLUDED) NOW IN CHARGE OF THE MINISTRIES OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THE INTERIOR, FINANCE, AND MINING. KEY ISSUES TO BE DEALT WITH ARE FURTHER PRIVATIZATION OF THE ECONOMY, INCLUDING THE CENTRAL BANK, EXAMINING ANY POSSIBLE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION, AND DEALING WITH THE CHURCH. WHILE GUARDEDLY OPTIMISTIC THAT

NOTED THAT THE "OLD GUARD" OF THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCCH) IS STILL IN CHARGE AND THAT THE PARTY HAS NOT RENOUNCED TERRORISM. THE KEY QUESTION, HE SAID, IS NOT WHETHER CHILE WILL BE DEMOCRATIC OR NOT BUT WHETHER IT WILL HAVE A FREE SOCIETY AND ECONOMY OR A SOCIALIST ONE. CONSERVATIVES, CENTRISTS, AND EVEN SOME SOCIALISTS CAN PLAY A POSITIVE ROLE IN THIS, HE SAID, BUT PRESSURE ON THE GOC TO CHANGE ECONOMIC POLICIES FROM BOTH WITHIN AND OUTSIDE THE GOVERNMENT ARE GROWING STRONGER. HE DEMOANED SIGNS OF ALLEGED COOPERATION BETWEEN DEMOCRATS IN THE OPPOSITION AND THE PCCH AND NOTED THAT RICARDO LAGOS IS CERTAIN TO BE THE KEY OPPOSITION LEADER OF THE FUTURE. HE CALLED ON THE SECRETARY FOR U.S. UNDERSTANDING OF THE GOC'S POSITION AND TO SUPPORT THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY AGAINST WHAT HE CONSIDERED AN ANTI-GOC ATTITUDE IN EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA. HE LAMENTED THE GSP/OPIC CUTOFF DECISION OF LAST YEAR AND LACK OF MILITARY RELATIONS WI'H THE U.S.

3. THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE USG ADMIRES THE ECONOMIC POLICIES OF CHILE AND WISHES TO SEE A TRANSITION TO FULL DEMOCRACY TAKE PLACE IN THE CONTEXT OF ECONOMIC LIBERTIES. CHILE, HE CLAIMED HAS THE BEST ECONOMY IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE USG HOPES THAT THE POLICIES WHICH HAVE GUIDED IT TO SUCH SUCCESS WILL SURVIVE THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. THE U.S., HE STATED, WISHES TO IMPROVE ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GOC AND NOTED THAT THE LETELIER CASE CONTINUES TO BE AN IRRITANT IN BILATERAL RELATIONS. HE REPEATEDLY URGED THE GOC TO TAKE ACTION ON THIS CASE. THE PLEBISCITE, HE STATED, WAS A WATERSHED EVENT WHICH CAN HELP IMPROVE RELATIONS. HE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT MILITARY RELATIONS CANNOT RETURN TO NORMAL AT THIS TIME, BUT

PERHAPS IN THE FUTURE IF THE TWO COUNTRIES WORK TOGETHER ON BILATERAL MATTERS. THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION, HE SAID, WILL PROBABLY MAINTAIN CURRENT POLICY ON CHILE. THE SECRETARY CONGRATULATED ERRAZURIZ ON HIS NEW POSITION AND ON THE JOB HE DID IN WASHINGTON AS AMBASSADOR TO THE U.S.

ACCOMPANIED THE FONNIN TO THE MEETING. ELLIOTT ABRAMS OF ARA AND PETER DESNAZO OF ARA/OC (NOTETAKER) WERE ALSO PRESENT. ERRAZURIZ OPENED THE MEETING WITH A LONG DISCUSSION OF HOW GOC POLICY WILL BE GUIDED DURING THE NEXT 15 MONTHS BEFORE POWER IS TURNED OVER TO A NEW REGIME AND WHAT GOC POLICY IS LIKELY TO BE. HE BEGAN BY CLAIMING THAT HALF OF HIS TIME WILL BE SPENT ON INTERNAL POLITICAL MATTERS. WHEN THE SECRETARY INQUIRED AS TO WHY THIS WOULD BE SO, ERRAZURIZ STATED THAT THE "OLD ECONOMIC TEAM" WHICH GUIDED ECONOMIC POLICY YEARS AGO HAS BEEN RECONSTITUTED TO RUN POLITICAL POLICY MAKING NOW. THIS GROUP IS COMPRISED OF FOUR CURRENT MINISTERS, HE SAID, AND MEETS AT THE START OF EACH DAY TO COORDINATE ACTIVITES BEFORE EACH MEMBER RETURNS TO HIS MINISTRY. THE FOUR ARE ERRAZURIZ, MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR CARLOS CACERES, FINANCE MINISTER HERNAN BUCHI, AND MINING MINISTER PABLO BARAONA. THE GROUP, HE CLAIMED, HAS WIDE "EXECUTIVE" POWER.

5. AMONG THE FIRST TASKS OF THIS GROUP, ERRAZURIZ SAID, WILL BE TO FURTHER PRIVATIZE THE ECONOMY, INCLUDING THE CENTRAL BANK, TO DEAL WITH THE ISSUE OF WHETHER THE CONSTITUTION SHOULD BE AMENDED, AND TO DEAL WITH THE CHURCH. ON THIS LAST MATTER, HE SAID, THE CHURCH IS GOING BACK TO "NORMALCY" LIKE SO MANY OTHER INSTITUTIONS IN CHILE. HE CLAIMED THAT THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS RECENTLY STATED THAT THE CHURCH WILL RETURN TO DEALING WITH ETHICAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

AND MORAL ISSUES AND DROP THE POLITICAL ROLE IT ASSUMED DURING THE PLEBISCITE. OTHER FAVORABLE SIGNS FROM THE CHURCH, HE SAID, ARE THAT CARDINAL FRESNO HAS STATED THAT THERE WILL BE NO FURTHER CONTACT BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND TERRORISTS. THAT CONTACT, HE CLAIMED, HAD BEEN "VERY CLOSE" AT ONE TIME, FOMENTED BY LEFTISTS WITHIN THE CHURCH. STUDENTS, HE SAID, ARE ALSO GOING BACK TO THEIR BOOKS AND ARE TIRED OF POLITICS.

UNCLASSIFIED

6. THESE POSITIVE SIGNS NOTWITHSTANDING, ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED THAT TERRORISM IS ON THE RISE, LED BY THE PCCH. WHEN THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE BIG LOSER IN THE PLEBSICTE WAS THE PCCH, ERRAZURIZ AGREED BUT THEN WENT INTO A LONG DISCUSSION OF HOW THE "OLD GUARD" OF THE PARTY, LED BY CORVALAN IN MOSCOW, CONTINUES TO RULE, DESPITE HIS OWN WISH AND THAT OF MANY OTHERS THAT HE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

BLOOD WOULD TAKE OVER THE PARTY. THE PCCH, HE SAID, IS STILL RUN BY MOSCOW, MAKING THE SALVADOREAN AND CHILEAN PARTIES UNIQUE IN ALL LATIN AMERICA IN THIS RESPECT, HE CLAIMED. THE PARTY REFUSES TO GIVE UP TERRORISM AS A WEAPON, AS SHOWN BY THE ATTENDENCE OF HIGH-LEVEL PARTY MEMBERS AT THE RECENT FUNERAL OF FPMR LEADER PELLEGRINI AFTER THE LOS QUENES ATTACK. WHEN THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION HAD REJECTED BOTH THE PCCH AND VIOLENCE DURING THE PLEBISCITE CAMPAIGN, ERRAZURIZ AGREED, BUT AMENDED THE SECRETARY'S OBSERVATION BY NOTING THAT THE PCCH AND DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION WORK CLOSELY TOGETHER IN LABOR UNIONS AND STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS. IN THE FUTURE, HE SAID, THE GOC WILL REPRESS THE FPMR WITH GREAT VIGOR BUT WILL BE CAREFUL NOT TO MOVE AGAINST THE POLITICAL WING OF THE PCCH BECAUSE THAT IS COUNTER-PRODUCTIVE AND PRODUCES A MARTYR IMAGE FOR THE PARTY.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

7. CHILE'S MAIN PROBLEM, ERRAZURIZ STATED, IS NOT THE ISSUE OF DEMOCRACY VERSUS DICTATORSHIP, BUT WHETHER THE COUNTRY WILL HAVE A FREE ECONOMY AND SOCIETY OR A SOCIALIST SYSTEM. TO GUARANTEE THE FORMER, "CONSERVATIVES, CENTRISTS, AND SOME SOCIALISTS MUST PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE," HE STATED. THE GOC'S FREE MARKET ECONOMIC POLICIES ARE COMING UNDER FIRE FROM THE OPPOSITION AND "SOME SECTORS" BOTH FROM WITHIN THE GOC AND WITHOUT WANT TO BACK OFF FROM THE FREE MARKET MODEL. IN THIS REAGARD, ERRAZURIZ SAID, IT WOULD BE IMPORTANT FOR THE USG TO HAVE A MORE "BUSINESSLIKE" RELATIONSHIP WITH CHILE.

UNCLASSI

8. THE SECRETARY RESPONDED BY STATING THAT THE USG ADMIRES CHILEAN ECONOMIC POLICY AND CONSIDERS CHILE TO HAVE THE BEST FUNCTIONING ECONOMY IN LATIN AMERICA. WE WANT THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY TO BE SUCCESSFUL, HE SAID, AND HOPE THAT THE ECONOMIC MODEL DOES NOT BECOME A VICTIM OF THE PROCESS. THE USG WILL CONDUCT ITSELF IN A WAY WHICH WILL AID THE TRANSITION PROCESS AND SEEK TO BROADEN ITS DIALOGUE WITH THE GOC WITH THE AIM OF IMPROVING RELATIONS. TO THIS END, WE ARE SENDING A "SOLID" CAREER AMBASSADOR, TONY GILLESPIE, TO CHILE. THIS

AMBASSADOR BARNES AND EXPRESS HOPE IN THE FUTURE.

9. THE SECRETARY RAISED THE MATTER OF THE LETELIER/MOFFIT CASE, ASKING ERRAZURIZ IF SOMETHING COULDN'T BE DONE BY THE GOC TO RID US OF THIS "IRRITANT" IN BILATERAL RELATIONS. ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED BY STATING THAT OF THE FIVE PEOPLE SENTENCED IN THE 1976 KILLINGS, THREE WERE LATER AQUITTED. THE U.S. LEGAL SYSTEM, HE CLAIMED, IS EXCELLENT. THEREFORE, IF IT AQUITTED THREE DEFENDENTS, THE EVIDENCE AGAINST THEM WAS POOR AND, HENCE, SO IS THE U.S. CASE AGAINST CHILE. BESIDES, THE GOC HAS PAID A
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"TREMENDOUS PRICE" ALREADY FOR LETELIER IN TERMS OF DAMAGE TO RELATIONS. THE SECRETARY URGED ERRAZURIZ TO LOOK FOR A WAY TO ADVANCE THE CASE.

10. GOING DEEPER INTO PROBLEMS IN BILATERAL RELATIONS, ERRAZURIZ MENTIONED GSP/OPIC AND LACK OF FULL MILITARY RELATIONS AS MAJOR DIFFICULTIES. THE LATTER HAS PLACED CHILE IN A TOUGH MILITARY SITUATION, WITH THE PERUVIANS HEAVILY ARMED BY THE SOVIETS AND THE ARGENTINES DEVELOPING MISSILES AND REARMING, HE SAID. ARGENTINA IS UNSTABLE AND, AS THE MALVINAS AND BEAGLE CHANNEL EPISODES DEMONSTRATED, UNAFRAID OF CONFLICT, ERRAZURIZ NOTED. THE USSR HAS STATIONED A LARGE FISHING FLEET JUST OUTSIDE THE 200 MILE LIMIT OF CHILE, HE ADDED AS A FOOTNOTE. THE GOC NEEDS SUPPORT FROM THE "OUTSIDE," ERRAZURIZ SAID, NOT IN TERMS OF MONEY BUT IN UNDERSTANDING. COMPETITION WITH COMMUNISM AND RICARDO LAGOS IS GOING TO GET TOUGHER AND CHILE CAN EXPECT NO HELP FROM EUROPE OR LATIN AMERICA. ONLY THE U.S. CAN BE EXPECTED TO TAKE A MORE FAVORABLE STANCE.

UNCLASSIFIED

11. THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE CHILEAN PLEBISCITE WAS A "WATERSHED EVENT" WHICH WILL PUT US IN A BETTER POSITION TO IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH CHILE PROVIDED THERE ARE NO "SETBACKS" IN THE FUTURE. HE THEN RAISED THE LETELIE CASE AGAIN, URGING THE GOC TO "LANCE THE LETELIER BOIL" BY TAKING ACTION ON THE CASE. THE U.S. CANNOT REESTABLISH MILITARY RELATIONS UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS, THE SECRETARY SAID, BUT HE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT IN THE FUTURE WE CAN WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE PROGRESS AND BUILD A BETTER AND

UNCLASSIFIED

SUSTAINABLE RELATIONSHIP. HE ADVISED ERRAZURIZ THAT THE REW ADMINISTRATION AND AMBASSADOR WILL MAINTAIN CURRENT POLICIES REGARDING CHILE.

12. THE SECRETARY ENDED THE INTERVIEW BY CONGRATULATING ERRAZURIZ ON HIS APPOINTMENT AS FOREIGN MINISTER AND HIS WORK AS AMBASSADOR TO THE U.S. HE ASKED ERRAZURIZ TO PAY HIS RESPECTS TO SERGIO DE CASTRO, A FRIEND OF THE SECRETARY.

PRESIDENTIAL EVENING READING

CHILE: Foreign Minister Discusses Bilateral Relations. I met today with Chile's new Foreign Minister, Hernan Felipe Errazuriz, who was Ambassador to the U.S. from 1984 until a few weeks ago. Errazuriz called on us to support his government during the 15 month transitional period before an elected administration takes over in March, 1990. He expressed fear that Chile's free market-model economy would come under heavy political fire from domestic opponents. I told him that, while we felt that the honest plebiscite which the Chilean Government conducted on October 5 made better bilateral relations possible, Chile must make progress in the Letelier/Moffitt murder case before we could return to normal military relations. In that regard, I will inform you when steps have been taken to invoke a bilateral treaty with Chile as a means of making progress on the Letelier matter.

1. EMBASSY SANTIAGO NOMINATES REPRESENTATIVES FROM TWO OF CHILE'S MOST RESPECTED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, THE VICARIA DE SOLIDARIDAD AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION:

A. ALEJANDRO GONZALEZ OR ROBERTO GARRETON, LAWYERS IN THE VICARIA

B. MAXIMO PACHECO, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION.

CHRONICLER AND DOCUMENTOR OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AS WELL AS AN ADVOCATE IN JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS REGARDING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. IT IS CAREFUL IN DISTINGUISHING BETWEEN THOSE WHO SUFFER FOR PURELY POLITICAL BELIEFS AND ACTIVITIES AND THOSE WHO ARE CHARGED WITH VIOLENT ACTS. EITHER GONZALEZ OR GARRETON PLAN TO BE IN THE UNITED STATES ON DECEMBER 8 WHILE ENROUTE TO COSTA RICA TO REPRESENT THE VICARIA AT A HUMAN RIGHTS SEMINAR. THE VICARIA IS NOW IN THE PROCESS OF DETERMINING THE REPRESENTATIVE AND HIS ITINERARY.

3. MAXIMO PACHECO IS WELL KNOWN TO HUMAN RIGHTS ACTORS IN WASHINGTON. HE HAS MEETINGS SCHEDULED WITH VARIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FROM DECEMBER 5 TO DECEMBER 13, AND IT APPEARS HIS SCHEDULE WOULD PERMIT HIS BEING IN WASHINGTON ON THE 8TH.

4. EMBASSY FEELS STRONGLY THAT CHILE SHOULD BE REPRESENTED AT THE DEPARTMENT'S HUMAN RIGHTS DAY ACTIVITIES. MANY CHILEAN ACTIVISTS HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT THE POLITICAL ADVANCES IN CHILE, MOST NOTABLY THE SUCCESSFUL PLEBISCITE, WILL RESULT IN DECREASED INTEREST IN THE U.S. IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE; AN INVITATION TO THE DECEMBER 8 CEREMONIES WILL REASSURE THEM THAT IT IS OF CONTINUING CONCERN TO USG OFFICIALS.

5. BECAUSE THE OFFICIALS OF THE VICARIA NAMED ABOVE DO NOT TRAVEL OFTEN TO THE U.S., WE WOULD GIVE FIRST PRIORITY TO THEM FOR AN INVITATION IF ONLY ONE WERE FORTHCOMING FOR CHILE. HOWEVER, THERE IS MORE CERTAINTY THAT MAXIMO PACHECO COULD ATTEND AND THEREFORE STRONGLY SUGGEST THAT INVITATIONS

TO REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH ORGANIZATIONS BE EXTENDED. BARNES

SUBJECT: German journalist's investigation of Colonia Dignidad

REF DOS

Gero Gemballa, a German journalist with German Television Channel One is back in Santiago. A year ago, in August, he interviewed Bill Barkell on camera regarding Colonia Dignidad and the Weisfeiler case. That interview was incorporated in a documentary which aired in Germany in December of 1987 (we received a copy of the script - in German). He also had an article in "Stern" magazine in October 1987, and has written a book, published in February 1988, "Colonia Dignidad: A German Camp in Chile."

Gemballa has continued his investigation, and has come back to the Embassy with a request for an background briefing on the case. He says that in this past year of investigation, which has included conversations with Maximo Pacheco and a Hans Coomb, he has discovered the following:

1) That there is a Dignidad-Contreras connection, and therefore, a connection with the Letelier case;

2) That there is a Michael Townley connection;

3) That a Gerhard Mertins, who has an arms supply business in Washington, D.C. called MIREX, is connected with Colonia Dignidad and possibly with the Letelier case. Mertins has arms supply businesses in Germany and in Switzerland, as well. He had a business in Mexico but was kicked out by the Mexican authorities because he was involved in the death of a journalist there;

4) Finally, that Boris Weisfeiler was more than just a bumbling professor out for a Sunday stroll in a countryside he did not know.

Gemalla's request is for an off-the-record background briefing on what the U.S. position might be a year after the Barkell on-camera interview. He will be here for a few more days, and is staying in the Hotel Tupahue, room 716. I have attached a photocopy of his business cards. Please advise how or if we should proceed with this.

1. (C) SUMMARY: CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION SHARES U.S. VIEW THAT UN RESOLUTION ON CHILE SHOULD BE BALANCED. IT HAD SERIOUS PROBLEMS WITH MEXICAN FIRST DRAFT, SAME WITH SECOND DRAFT. IT WILL INFORM U.S. HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, WHO ARE IN TOUCH WITH MEXICAN DELEGATION AT U.N., THAT COMMISSION SUPPORTS MANY OF THE FORMER U.S. CONCERNS. ESSENTIAL PARA 16 REFTEL FOR A BALANCED RESOLUTION. [redacted] B1

END SUMMARY.

2. (C) [redacted] B1

[redacted] HE HAD RECEIVED A FIRST DRAFT FROM THE MEXICANS ABOUT TWO WEEKS AGO. HE FOUND THE DRAFT TOTALLY UNACCEPTABLE, AND TOLD THE MEXICANS SO, BECAUSE IT WAS ALMOST A VERBATIM REPEAT OF LAST YEAR'S RESOLUTION. THE DRAFT CONTAINED ALMOST NO REFERENCE TO THE PLEBISCITE, THE LIFTING OF THE STATES OF EXCEPTION, OR THE END TO EXILE. [redacted] HE HAD RECEIVED A SECOND DRAFT, WHICH AT FIRST BLUSH HE B1 [redacted] MORE ACCEPTABLE ALTHOUGH HE STILL HAD PROBLEMS. HE SHOWED IT TO EMBOFF BUT WOULD NOT ALLOW A COPY TO BE MADE. THE SECOND DRAFT STRUCK EMBOFF, AFTER A QUICK READ, AS TOUCHING MOST OF THE POINTS CONTAINED IN PARAGRAPH 16 OF REFTEL, BUT UNEVENLY. REFERENCE TO POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS WERE MORE CURSORY THAN WERE REFERENCES TO MORE NEGATIVE ASPECTS. IF THERE WAS ANY REFERENCE TO TERRORIST VIOLENCE IN THE MEXICAN DRAFT, IT FAILED TO REGISTER. MEXICAN DRAFT DID CONTAIN CRITICISM OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC FAILURES OF PINOCHET GOVERNMENT. [redacted] B1

[redacted] THE MEXICANS CLAIMED THAT THIS DRAFT HAS WIDESPREAD SUPPORT IN THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY.

3. (C) [redacted] THE CHRC HAD TWO SINE QUA NONS FOR AN ACCEPTABLE DRAFT: THAT IT GIVE FULL WEIGHT TO SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR VOLIO'S REPORT AND THAT IT NOTE THAT THE LEGAL REGIME WHICH PERMITTED EXILING, AN IMPOSITION OF STATES OF EXCEPTION, REFERRALS TO MILITARY RATHER THAN CIVILIAN COURTS, ETC. REMAINED INTACT, EVEN THOUGH THE GOVERNMENT CHOSE NOW NOT TO EXPLOIT ALL OF THESE POWERS. B1

4. (C) [redacted] IT WAS OUR UNDERSTANDING THAT MANY IN THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY SHARED THE U.S. VIEW THAT A BALANCED AND SHORT RESOLUTION WAS NECESSARY AT THIS TIME. [redacted] THE OBSERVATION THAT FAILING TO GIVE CREDIT WHERE CREDIT WAS DUE WOULD UNDERMINE THE MODERATES IN THE GOC WHO WERE WORKING FOR POSITIVE CHANGE IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. HE READ THE NON-PAPER DRAWN FROM PARAGRAPH 16 OF REFTEL AND SAID IT APPEARED THAT HE AND THE GOC WERE IN COMPLETE AGREEMENT. B1

5. (C) THE FOLLOWING MORNING, [redacted] THE COMMISSION AS A WHOLE AGREED U.S. APPROACH TO THE RESOLUTION WAS MORE APPROPRIATE THAN THAT OF THE MEXICANS. HE SAID THEY WOULD PROPOSE THE U.S. LIST OF ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS FOR INCLUSION IN THE RESOLUTION AND STATE THE COMMISSION'S CONCEPT OF ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS WAS IDENTICAL. B1

[redacted] HIS TELEX WOULD BE SENT TO NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE AMERICAS WATCH HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP, WITH THE REQUEST THAT IT BE PASSED TO CHILEAN EXILE JAIME BARROS, WHO WORKS WITH AMERICAS WATCH. BARROS IS APPARENTLY THE CHRC'S CONTACT WITH THE MEXICAN U.N. DELEGATION.

2. MFA INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS OFFICE DIRECTOR KNUT VOLLEBAEK CALLED EMBASSY BACK LATE NOVEMBER 18 TO INFORM US THAT NORWAY COULD NOT SUPPORT AN ALTERNATE CHILE RESOLUTION ALONG THE LINES CONVEYED IN REFTEL A. GENERALLY. HE TERMED THE CHILE ISSUE "DIFFICULT" FOR THE NORWEGIAN MFA, DUE TO A "STRONG CHILE LOBBY" IN NORWAY. WHILE IMPLYING THAT SOME IN THE MFA MIGHT FEEL OTHERWISE, HE SAID THE LANGUAGE THE U.S. PROPOSED WAS JUST TOO POSITIVE FOR THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT.

3. NORWAY WOULD HAVE PARTICULAR PROBLEMS, HE SAID, WITH THE PASSAGE WHICH CONDEMNS "VIOLENCE FROM WHATEVER SOURCE" AND THE LACK OF ANY REFERENCE TO THE CONTINUED USE OF TORTURE IN CHILE. VOLLEBAEK CONCLUDED BY SAYING THAT THE MFA WOULD INSTRUCT THE NORWEGIAN UN MISSION TO USE ELEMENTS OF THE U.S. LANGUAGE IN AN EFFORT TO INTRODUCE GREATER BALANCE INTO THE EXPECTED MEXICAN DRAFT.

4. COMMENT. IN THE WAY FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS ARE PERCEIVED BY NORWEGIAN PUBLIC OPINION, CHILE IS "PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER TWO - RIGHT BEHIND SOUTH AFRICA. THERE IS INDEED A "CHILE LOBBY" IN NORWAY IN THAT PUBLIC OPINION AND PROMINENT LABOR PARTY POLITICIANS (INCLUDING LABOR MP REIDUN STEEN, WHOSE WIFE IS CHILEAN-BORN) STRONGLY LIMIT THE GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY (ASSUMING IT WOULD BE SO INCLINED) TO TREAT CHILE IN A MORE BALANCED ... 1. (C) SUMMARY: AN ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE GOVERNMENT THAT SOME MEMBERS OF THE OPPOSITION PLANNED TO REVIVE CHARGES AGAINST THE ARMED FORCES FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS MAY PROVE TO BE THE OPENING ROUND IN DISCUSSIONS ON HOW TO CONFRONT THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE DURING THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION. HERETOFORE, THE ISSUE HAS NOT BEEN WIDELY DEBATED, AND PINOCHET AND HIS HARDLINE FOLLOWERS MAY HAVE SOUGHT TO FLUSH OUT THE OPPOSITION'S POSITION. REACTIONS BY HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS AND POLITICAL LEADERS WERE MUTED, INDICATING AN APPRECIATION FOR THE DELICACY OF THE PROBLEM. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ON NOVEMBER 9, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE GOVERNMENT MIGUEL ANGEL PODUJE ISSUED A STATEMENT DENOUNCING AN OPPOSITION PLAN TO UNDERMINE THE PRESTIGE OF THE ARMED FORCES AND TO UNDERMINE A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY BY REVIVING CHARGES OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES ON A MASSIVE SCALE. THE STATEMENT NOTED THAT THE PLAN WAS PART OF AN ATTEMPT TO ISOLATE THE GOVERNMENT AND THAT IT WOULD CAUSE DIFFICULTIES "IN THE CORE OF THE ARMED AND SECURITY FORCES."

3. (U) ASKED BY A REPORTER ABOUT THE STATEMENT, PODUJE SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAD RELIABLE SOURCES FOR THE INFORMATION AND THAT IT WAS CLEARLY PART OF A STRATEGY TO CREATE A CLIMATE OF INSTABILITY IN THE COUNTRY. WHEN PINOCHET WAS ASKED ABOUT THE STATEMENT, HE REPLIED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS OBLIGED TO INFORM THE PEOPLE ABOUT THE OPPOSITION'S POLITICAL MANEUVER SO THAT THEY WOULD UNDERSTAND THE POLITICAL ORIGINS OF SUCH A HUMAN RIGHTS CAMPAIGN. PINOCHET ADDED, IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, THAT THE STATEMENT WAS NOT MEANT TO BE A WARNING FROM THE ARMED FORCES (PRESUMABLY TO LEAVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE ALONE). PINOCHET SAID, "(THE ARMED FORCES) DON'T WARN. WE DON'T GIVE WARNINGS BEFORE WE STRIKE."

4. (U) THE GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT, AS FAR AS WE CAN DETERMINE, WAS NOT PROMPTED BY ANY ACTION ON THE PART OF HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS TO FILE MASSIVE CHARGES AGAINST THE ARMED FORCES. THE TWO MOST RESPECTED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS IN CHILE

THE VICARIA DE SOLIDARIDAD AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION QUICKLY DENIED THE ALLEGATIONS OF A PLAN TO ATTACK THE UNIFORMED SERVICES ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS FRONT. THE VICARIA NOTED THAT CHILEAN LAW CONCEDES TO EVERY INDIVIDUAL THE RIGHT TO SEEK JUSTICE IN THE COURTS. THE VICARIA ADDED WRYLY THAT IT HAD SOUGHT JUSTICE

AND WOULD CONTINUE TO SEEK JUSTICE IN THE COURTS, "WHATEVER THE PRACTICAL VALUE" BECAUSE THAT IS THE WAY ONE OPERATES UNDER A RULE OF LAW. SPEAKING FOR THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, ANDRES DOMINQUEZ SAID THE UNIFORMED SERVICES HAD NOTHING TO FEAR FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS. INSTEAD OF THREATENING HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, HE SAID, THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD STOP VIOLATING HUMAN RIGHTS. HE NOTED THAT "THE ARMED FORCES ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR POLITICAL DECISIONS WHICH RESULTED IN HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND EVEN LESS SO FOR THE EXECUTION OF THESE DECISIONS."

5. (C) WEIGHING IN FROM THE POLITICAL SIDE, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY PRE-CANDIDATE EDUARDO FREI SAID THOSE WHO VIOLATED HUMAN RIGHTS SHOULD BE TRIED AND SENTENCED, BUT BY CIVILIAN COURTS. PDC PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN, COINCIDENTLY WITH THE RELEASE OF THE STATEMENT AND DURING A PUBLIC DEBATE WITH AN OFFICIAL OF RENOVACION NATIONAL, SAID "A NUREMBERG TRIAL IS ABSOLUTELY CONTRARY TO WHAT WE NEED. IT COULD LEAD TO A BREAKDOWN OF THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY." DOMINQUEZ' STATEMENT, CAREFULLY TELLING THE ARMED FORCES THAT AS AN INSTITUTION THEY

HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR, REFLECTS THE VIEW OF THE COMMISSION'S VICE PRESIDENT MAXIMO PACHECO THAT THE STATEMENT WAS DIRECTED MORE TO THE ARMED FORCES THAN AS A WARNING TO THE OPPOSITION TO TREAD CAREFULLY ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE. HE TOLD EMBOFF THAT HE BELIEVES PINOCHET IS ATTEMPTING TO PERSAUDE THE ARMED FORCES THAT THEIR FATE IS COMPLETELY LINKED TO HIS, AND THAT CHARGES AGAINST HIM FOR ABUSE OF POWER OR FOR BEING THE ONLY OBSTACLE TO A PEACEFUL TRANSITION APPLY TO THEM AS WELL.

CONTENT OF THE GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT VERY CURIOUS. RESOLUTION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM UNDER A NEW GOVERNMENT IS NOT HIGH

7. (C) PACHECO'S INTERPRETATION OF THE STATEMENT, THAT IT WAS DESIGNED TO MOVE THE ARMED FORCES TOWARD RALLYING AROUND PINOCHET, HAS MERIT. BUT WE WOULD NOT RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT SOME MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO ARE CLOSE TO PINOCHET AND WERE CONVINCED HE WOULD WIN THE PLEBISCITE

ARE NOW BEGINNING TO WORRY ABOUT FACING THE MUSIC ON HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. AT THE VERY LEAST, THEY ARE INTERESTED IN FLUSHING OUT THE OPPOSITION'S POSITION ON THE ISSUE.

8. (C) WE WOULD ALSO NOT RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT PINOCHET, RECOGNIZING THAT SOLUTION TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM WILL BE A DIVISIVE ISSUE FOR THE OPPOSITION, IS ATTEMPTING TO SOW DISCORD AMONG ITS RANKS. THE CAREFUL AND MUTED RESPONSE FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS AND THE MODERATE RESPONSE FROM POLITICAL LEADERS MAY INDICATE THAT THEY, TOO, RECOGNIZE HOW DELICATE THE ISSUE IS AND ARE POSTPONING A DEBATE OVER IT.

9. (C) THE ISSUE HAS DISAPPEARED FROM THE MEDIA FOR THE TIME BEING, BUT EVENTUALLY THE PROBLEM OF BALANCING THE REQUIREMENTS OF THOSE WHO WANT THE MILITARY PUNISHED FOR THEIR ABUSES WITH THE REQUIREMENT OF KEEPING THE MILITARY ON THE ROAD TO DEMOCRACY WILL HAVE TO BE FACED. BARNES

MEMORANDUM 11/21/88

TO DCM

FROM IO

You may recall Gero Gemballa, the German TV journalist who did an on-camera interview - brief and pro-forma - with Bill Barkell a year ago.

I am not comfortable with Gemballa, who last year told a journalist friend of mine that he thought we were hiding something. However, I do not see that we could very well tell Gemballa that we cannot meet him, since we did once before and came away unscathed.

I therefore recommend that you or Bill meet him, but absolutely off the record unless there is a special message we would want to impart, in which case we could use the "foreign diplomats" background formula.

We refused the interview.

IN ORDER TO DISSUADE SENATOR KENNEDY FROM PUSHING THE SOVEREIGN IMMUNITIES LEGISLATION THROUGH THE SENATE JUST BEFORE ADJOURNMENT, HARRY BARNES HAD PROMISED TO DO HIS BEST TO SEE THAT THE TREATY PROPOSAL WAS PRESENTED BEFORE HE LEFT CHILE AT THE END OF NOVEMBER. HE ALSO VOLUNTEERED TO TALK TO THE SENATOR AFTER CONGRESS RECONVENES IN JANUARY TO DISCUSS THE CHILEAN RESPONSE TO OUR INITIATIVE IN THE LIGHT OF WHICH THE SENATOR WOULD DETERMINE HIS OWN NEXT STEPS ON THE LEGISLATION. ASIDE FROM THIS, HIS OWN COMMITTMENT, HARRY DOES NOT SEE ANY PROBLEMS WITH PROCEEDING AS SOON AS POSSIBLE IN TERMS OF CHILEAN GOVERNMENT REACTIONS, BEYOND THE USUAL LACK OF COOPERATION ON THIS CASE. IF HE HAD BEEN CONSULTED, HE WOULD THEREFORE HAVE ADVISED PROCEEDING NOW RATHER THAN WAITING UNTIL JANUARY.

2. FOLLOWING THE CEREMONY NOVEMBER 21 IN WHICH I PRESENTED SOME ANTI-NARCOTICS EQUIPMENT UNDER OUR INM PROGRAM TO CARABINEROS CHIEF RODOLFO STANGE, HE AND I TALKED FOR SOME MINUTES PRIVATELY AS A SORT OF FAREWELL CALL ON HIM IN HIS CAPACITY AS A JUNTA MEMBER AS WELL.

3. STANGE INDICATED THAT THE CHANGE OF ARMY MEMBERS ON THE JUNTA MIGHT WELL SLOW WORK DOWN AS GENERAL SINCLAIR LEARNED THE NECESSARY BACKGROUND. IN ADDITION, HE SUPPOSED SINCLAIR WOULD HAVE LITTLE LEEWAY WHEREAS GORDON HAD ESTABLISHED VERY GOOD RELATIONS WITH HIS THREE COLLEAGUES. ON SPECIFIC MATTERS STANGE SAW THE NEW LAW ON CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS AS PARTICULARLY COMPLICATED, BUT SAID OPPORTUNITIES WOULD BE PROVIDED FOR

THE POLITICAL PARTIES TO COMMENT BEFORE ANY MEASURE WAS ENACTED. HE THOUGHT THAT THERE WOULD BE LITTLE CHANCE THAT THE LAW COULD BE ADOPTED AS SOME SUGGESTED BEFORE THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS. MORE GENERALLY HE FELT THERE WAS STILL NEED FOR THE RESULTS OF THE PLEBISCITE TO SINK IN AND HE SAW THE CONTRADICTIONS BETWEEN PINOCHET'S REFUSAL TO CONSIDER CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS AND INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES' URGING OF DIALOGUE AS A SYMPTOM OF THAT NEED. HE HAS A VERY POSITIVE IMPRESSION OF CACERES.

4. I ASKED STANGE ABOUT THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ATTACK SEVERAL WEEKS AGO BY TERRORISTS ON A CARABINEROS' OUTPOST AT LOS QUENES. HE DESCRIBED IT AS A PROBE TO TEST CARABINEROS' READINESS AND SAID THE FPMR ORGANIZERS WERE SURPRISED AT THE SPEED OF CARABINEROS REACTION. HE RECOGNIZED THAT ISOLATED INSTALLATIONS LIKE THIS ONE WERE VULNERABLE, BUT THOUGHT THE SWIFTNESS OF THE RESPONSE WOULD BE A GOOD DETERRENT. A DETERRENT AS WELL WAS THE CAPTURE OF SEVERAL OF THE ATTACKERS, INCLUDING THE ONE WHO KILLED THE CARABINERO THERE AS WELL AS ONE WHO WARNED TWO OF THE LEADERS WHO SUBSEQUENTLY DROWNED WHILE TRYING TO ESCAPE AGAINST CROSSING THE NEARBY RIVER.

5. STANGE IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION SAID HE HAD NOT HEARD THE RUMOR I HAD ABOUT A CONFIDENTIAL

POSSIBLE SERIES OF CHANGES AFFECTING THE CNI, INCLUDING EVEN ITS DISSOLUTION. HE SAID HE WOULDN'T "CRY" OVER IT, HOWEVER,

6. COMMENT: I CONTINUE TO BE IMPRESSED WITH STANGE'S REALISM AND PROFESSIONALISM AS WELL AS HIS APPRECIATION FOR THE SUPPORT WE THROUGH VARIOUS PROGRAMS HAVE BEEN OFFERING THE CARABINEROS. AS THE ONE COMMANDER IN CHIEF MOST LIKELY TO STAY ON AFTER A NEW DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT COMES TO POWER IN 1990, HE WILL BRING THOSE SAME QUALITIES TO BEAR IN A VERY USEFUL WAY FOR THAT NEW GOVERNMENT, I WOULD THINK. SUBJECT: RETURNED CHILEAN EXILE LEADER

REF: CARACAS 11275

1. SINCE RETURNING TO CHILE IN EARLY 1988, ANICETO RODRIGUEZ HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN FOSTERING UNITY AMONG THE VARIOUS SOCIALIST FACTIONS, AND IN SUPPORTING THE OPPOSITION ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN. HE SERVES ON THE POLITICAL COMMISSION OF THE PARTY FOR DEMOCRACY (PPD), THE "INSTRUMENTAL" CENTER-LEFT PARTY HEADED BY RICARDO LAGOS WHICH INCLUDES MANY MODERATE SOCIALISTS AND ORIGINALLY FORMED TO DEFEAT PINOCHET IN THE PLEBISCITE AND TO BRING ABOUT A RETURN TO DEMOCRACY. HE ALSO HEADS A GROUP CALLED THE MOVEMENT FOR SOCIALIST INTEGRATION (MIS). AT LUNCH WITH DCM AND POLOFF NOVEMBER 17, RODRIGUEZ SAID MIS HOPES TO SPONSOR A CONGRESS FOR SOCIALIST UNITY IN MID-APRIL TO WHICH THE MAJOR SOCIALIST GROUPS

WOULD BE INVITED TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES. BECAUSE OF STUBBORN IDEOLOGICAL AND TACTICAL DIFFERENCES, PARTICULARLY OVER THE SOCIALISTS' RELATION TO THE COMMUNISTS, FEW EXPECT THE CONGRESS TO PRODUCE THE DESIRED REUNIFICATION.

2. THE MOST IMPORTANT DIVISION AMONG CHILEAN SOCIALISTS IS BETWEEN THE SOCIALIST PARTY/NUNEZ, AND THE SOCIALIST PARTY/ALMEYDA, WHICH COOPERATES IN POLITICAL ALLIANCES WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY. THE NUNEZ PARTY HAS BEEN OUTSPOKEN IN CRITICIZING THE PCCH FOR ITS STRATEGY OF SPONSORING VIOLENT METHODS OF POLITICAL CHANGE. THE NUNEZ SOCIALISTS STILL RELUCTANTLY ADMIT TO BEING MARXISTS, BUT IN THE LAST 15 YEARS HAVE MOVED SIGNIFICANTLY CLOSER TO THE POLITICAL CENTER AND NOW HOLD VIEWS VIRTUALLY INDISTINGUISHABLE FROM THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS. RODRIGUEZ HAS MADE IT CLEAR HE ALSO FEELS CLOSEST TO THE NUNEZ GROUP, BUT HAS NOT JOINED IT BECAUSE HE STILL HOPES TO PRESIDE OVER A UNIFICATION OF ALL THE SOCIALISTS. THERE ARE ALSO A NUMBER OF SMALLER SPLINTER GROUPS, SUCH AS THE SOCIALIST PARTY/ MANDUJANO, THE HISTORIC SOCIALIST PARTY, AND THE CHILEAN SOCIALIST PARTY, WHICH OCCASIONALLY GET PUBLICITY IN THE PRO-GOVERNMENT PRESS WHICH PROMOTES THE IMAGE OF DISARRAY IN SOCIALIST RANKS BUT HAVE PRACTICALLY NO MEMBERS.

3. THE MISSION HAS BEEN IN FREQUENT CONTACT WITH RODRIGUEZ SINCE HIS RETURN AND EXPECTS TO REMAIN SO. HE HAS CONSIDERABLE STATURE AMONG CHILEAN SOCIALISTS AND WAS THE FIRST PERSON TO

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PGOV, CI
SUBJECT: MIXED SIGNALS FROM GOC ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM

REF: SANTIAGO 9098

1. (C) SUMMARY: IN A SERIES OF HARD-LINE, OFTEN MENACING SPEECHES OVER THE WEEKEND, PRESIDENT PINOCHET STATED THAT HE IS NOT ABOUT TO ACCEPT CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION WITHOUT A FIGHT. HE SPECIFICALLY REJECTED EACH OF THE REFORM PROPOSALS THAT HAVE BEEN ADVANCED, CHARACTERIZED THE ATTEMPTS TO CHANGE THE CONSTITUTION AS "RUPTURIST," CONTRARY TO THE LEGAL SYSTEM, AND CONTRARY TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF CHILE; AND WARNED OF UNSPECIFIED "CONSEQUENCES" IF THE OPPOSITION DOES NOT ACCEPT THE INSTITUTIONAL ORDER. BACK IN SANTIAGO, INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES MAINTAINED THE MODERATE LINE OF HIS NOVEMBER 11 SPEECH, STATING IN AN INTERVIEW THAT THE GOC IS STILL OPEN TO DIALOGUE

WITH THE POLITICAL PARTIES. ALTHOUGH CACERES ALSO MENTIONED THE NEED FOR ALL CONCERNED TO RESPECT THE INSTITUTIONALITY OF THE POLITICAL PROCESS, HIS TONE AND HIS STATEMENTS AS TO THE DESIRABILITY AND POSSIBILITY OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM WERE CONSIDERABLY MORE MODERATE THAN THE PRESIDENT'S. IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN WHETHER PINOCHET'S HARDLINE RHETORIC WAS SIMPLY FOR THE CONSUMPTION OF THE DIEHARD SUPPORTERS HE ADDRESSED OR IS THE REAL GOC BOTTOM-LINE. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) IN A SPEECH IN PUNTA ARENAS ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, PINOCHET DISCUSSED AND REJECTED EACH OF THE FOUR PRINCIPAL REFORMS THAT HAVE BEEN PROPOSED BY BOTH OPPOSITION AND CONSERVATIVE POLITICAL SECTORS: CHANGES IN ARTICLE 8, CHANGES IN THE MAKE-UP OF THE CONGRESS, A WEAKENING OF THE POWERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, AND AN EASING OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROCESS.

3. (U) THE PRESIDENT REAFFIRMED HIS GOVERNMENT'S INFLEXIBILITY" ON THE PROHIBITION AGAINST TOTALITARIAN GROUPS, WARNING THAT TO REMOVE OR WEAKEN ARTICLE 8 OF THE CONSTITUTION WOULD GIVE COMMUNISM THE OPPORTUNITY TO "USE DEMOCRACY TO DESTROY DEMOCRACY." HE REITERATED HIS ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF APPOINTING ONE-THIRD OF THE CONGRESS, SAYING THAT CHILE'S EXPERIENCE HAD SHOWED THAT LAW SHOULD NOT BE A PRODUCT OF MERE POLITICAL BARGAINING, BUT SHOULD BE INFLUENCED BY WISER, MORE EXPERIENCED PEOPLE, I.E., THOSE WHO WOULD BE APPOINTED FROM THE SUPREME COURT, THE GOVERNMENT, AND THE ARMED FORCES.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. (U) THE PRESIDENT THEN REJECTED THE CALL FOR CHANGES IN THE ROLE OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, STATING THAT THE COUNCIL'S GOAL WAS TO PREVENT THE ISOLATION OF THE ARMED FORCES AND KEEP THEM FROM BEING SUBJECTED TO THE WHIMS OF POLITICAL INTERESTS. FINALLY, PINOCHET DENOUNCED THE IDEA OF MAKING CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS EASIER, SAYING HE WOULD NOT

ACCEPT A CONSTITUTION "EXPOSED TO TRANSIENT POLITICAL MAJORITIES."

5. (U) ON NOVEMBER 18, IN A SPEECH IN COIHAIQUE, PINOCHET BECAME MORE STRIDENT. CHALLENGING THE OPPOSITION TO "DEFINE ITSELF," HE DEMANDED THAT THE OPPOSITION DECLARE WHETHER IT WOULD MAINTAIN ITS "RUPTURIST" POSITIONS, OR RESPECT THE "INSTITUTIONALITY IN FORCE." HE WARNED OPPOSITION LEADERS TO "BEWARE THE CONSEQUENCES" IF THEY REFUSED TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE VALIDITY OF THE CONSTITUTION. THE PRESIDENT TOPPED OFF HIS TRIP BY BREAKFASTING ON NOVEMBER 19 WITH A GROUP OF WOMEN SUPPORTERS IN COIHAIQUE, WHERE HE REPEATED HIS "LET THEM BEWARE OF THE CONSEQUENCES" STATEMENT, AND THEN WARNED THAT THE OPPOSITION, BY REJECTING THE CONSTITUTION, WOULD BE REJECTING THE RESULTS AND THE VALIDITY OF THE PLEBISCITE.

6. (U) PINOCHET'S ATTITUDE DIFFERED SHARPLY FROM THAT OF HIS INTERIOR MINISTER, CARLOS CACERES, WHO IN A LENGTHY INTERVIEW PUBLISHED IN LEADING DAILY "EL MERCURIO" ON NOVEMBER 20, REITERATED THE WILLINGNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT TO CONVERSE WITH LEADERS OF ALL PARTIES ABOUT THE POLITICAL FUTURE. HE REFUSED TO SPECIFY ANY CONDITIONS FOR SUCH DISCUSSIONS, STATING

ONLY THAT THE OPPOSITION NEEDS TO "RECOGNIZE THAT THE CONSTITUTION IS NOT NEUTRAL," THAT IT IS "FOUNDED ON THE RESPECT FOR CHILE'S OWN VALUES." ASKED TO CLARIFY WHAT EXACTLY THAT MEANT, THE MINISTER RESPONDED THAT THE OPPOSITION SHOULD ACT "ACCORDING TO THE IDEA OF RESPECT FOR THE EXISTING LEGAL STRUCTURE (LEGALIDAD VIGENTE)."

7. (U) CACERES DID NOT SPECIFICALLY RULE OUT ANY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM PROPOSALS CURRENTLY CIRCULATING, SAYING INSTEAD THAT HE HOPED FOR A CIVILIZED DISCUSSION THAT WOULD GO BEYOND PARTISAN POLITICS AND COVER OTHER AREAS BESIDES THE CONSTITUTION. HE DID MENTION, HOWEVER, THAT ARTICLE 8 WAS FUNDAMENTALLY ROOTED IN THE MORAL VALUES OF THE CONSTITUTION, AND IMPLIED THAT WHILE THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT BE PREPARED TO ACCEPT CHANGES IN THE LAWS WHICH

ENFORCE IT, THE ARTICLE ITSELF WOULD NOT BE UP FOR DISCUSSION. HE REPEATED HIS EARLIER STATEMENTS THAT THE CONSTITUTION IS "PERFECTIBLE," BUT AVOIDED

SPECIFICS ON THE QUESTION OF HOW.

8. (U) ALTHOUGH NO MENTION WAS MADE IN THE INTERVIEW OF PINOCHET'S REMARKS IN THE SOUTH, CACERES POINTED OUT THAT HIS OPENING TO THE POLITICAL PARTIES IS SUPPORTED BY THE ENTIRE GOVERNMENT. REMINDED OF WHAT HAD HAPPENED TO FORMER INTERIOR MINISTER JARPA IN 1983 WHEN JARPA BEGAN CONVERSATIONS WITH THE OPPOSITION ONLY TO HAVE PINOCHET PULL THE RUG OUT FROM UNDER HIM), CACERES STATED EMPHATICALLY THAT HE HAS THE SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT.

9. (U) ON OTHER MATTERS, CACERES REAFFIRMED THAT PINOCHET WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, CALLING THAT IDEA A "CLOSED CHAPTER." HE DENIED, TOO, THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD ANY PARTICULAR CANDIDATE IN MIND TO REPRESENT THE FORCES OF THE "SI," SAYING ONLY THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT THAT PARTISANS OF "A FREE SOCIETY" WOULD DO WELL IN THE ELECTION.

10. (U) SOUNDING A NOTE SIMILAR TO CACERES, ADMLRAL MERINO TOOK PAINS TO DISTANCE HIMSELF SLIGHTLY FROM PINOCHET'S REMARKS. ASKED ON NOVEMBER 22 WHAT HE THOUGHT OF THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENTS ON THE VALIDITY OF THE PLEBISCITE, MERINO ANSWERED THAT "THAT IS HIS OPINION, NOT MINE," AND EMPHATICALLY DENIED THAT THE VALIDITY OF THE PLEBISCITE COULD BE CALLED INTO QUESTION.

11. (C) COMMENT: THE WEEKEND'S EVENTS ARE THE CULMINATION OF A SCHIZOPHRENIC TEN DAYS WITHIN THE GOC. FIRST, CACERES OPENED UP THE POSSIBILITY OF DIALOGUE WITH THE OPPOSITION IN HIS NOVEMBER 11 SPEECH (REFTEL). SECRETARY GENERAL PODUJE SECONDED THE INTERIOR MINISTER ON NOVEMBER 13, STATING THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS WILLING TO DISCUSS POLITICAL MATTERS WITH ALL THOSE WHO WORK WITHIN THE LEGAL SYSTEM. THEN ON NOVEMBER 15, ADMIRAL MERINO SPOKE OUT, REJECTING

ANY REFORMS IN THE AMENDMENT PROCESS, THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND ARTICLE 8. THE CONTRASTING STATEMENTS OF PINOCHET AND CACERES FURTHER CONFUSED MATTERS. PINOCHET'S AGGRESSIVENESS IS A SIGN THAT HE IS REBOUNDING FROM THE PLEBISCITE DEFEAT AND HIS REMARKS TO THE WOMEN'S BREAKFAST CAN BE ATTRIBUTED AT LEAST PARTIALLY TO HIS NATURAL TENDENCY TO POSTURE IN FRONT OF AVID SUPPORTERS. ONE COULD ALSO ARGUE THAT PINOCHET'S WARNINGS ABOUT THE DANGERS OF TOYING WITH THE CONSTITUTION ARE AIMED PRIMARILY AT THOSE CONSERVATIVE SECTORS (ESPECIALLY IN NATIONAL RENEWAL WHICH IS CONSIDERING CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS NOT UNLIKE THOSE PROPOSED BY OPPOSITION PARTIES) WHO ARE "BETRAYING"HIM BY SUPPORTING CONSITUTIONAL REFORM. HOWEVER ONE LOOKS AT IT, IT IS CLEAR THAT THE GOC COMES ACROSS AS OF TWO MINDS ON THE SUBJECT, AND ITS SINCERITY ABOUT DIALOGUE WITH THE POLITICAL PARTIES HAS COME UNDER SOME SERIOUS QUESTION. AS A RESULT, ONE ALREADY HEARS SPECULATION ABOUT HOW LONG THE PRINCIPAL SPOKESMAN FOR THE NEW MODERATE LINE, MINISTER OF INTERIOR CACERES, WILL LAST. BARNES

COLOMBIAN INTENTION IS TO WREST LEADERSHIP FROM MEXICO ON THIS ISSUE. VENEZUELA, ARGENTINA, ECUADOR, AND BRAZIL COSPONSORING COLOMBIAN PROPOSAL. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 22, COLOMBIAN PERMREP PENALOSA GAVE ARA AREA ADVISER RONDON CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION WHICH COLOMBIA HAD JUST PRESENTED TO THIRD COMMITTEE. PENALOSA STATED THAT COLOMBIA IS FED UP WITH MEXICO'S EFFORTS TO RUN THE GROUP OF EIGHT AND FELT OBLIGED TO INTRODUCE A RESOLUTION TEMPERING WHAT EVERYONE KNEW WOULD BE AN UNACCEPTABLE MEXICAN DRAFT ON CHILE. PENALOSA REPORTED THAT COLOMBIA ALREADY HAS COSPONSORSHIP OF ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, ECUADOR, AND VENEZUELA. ADDED SUPPORT IS EXPECTED FROM COSTA RICA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, AND URUGUAY. FURTHERMORE, A VERY PLEASED PENALOSA CONTINUED, CHILEAN RAPPORTEUR VOLIO IS IN ON THE COLOMBIAN ACT.

4. COLOMBIAN RESOLUTION IS ONLY A PAGE AND A HALF, COMPARED TO MEXICO'S DRAFT, WHICH IS OVER TWICE AS LONG. IN ITS FOUR OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS, COLOMBIAN RESOLUTION MAKES FOLLOWING POINTS:

-- FREE ELECTIONS ARE FUNDAMENTAL FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN ANY COUNTRY;

-- CALLS UPON CHILE TO ESTABLISH CONDITIONS FOR FULL DEMOCRACY;

-- CALLS UPON CHILE TO RESPECT HUMAN RIGHTS;

-- CALLS UPON THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO EXAMINE THE REPORT OF THE RAPPORTEUR SO THAT APPROPRIATE MEASURES MAY BE TAKEN TO REESTABLISH HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL LIBERTIES IN CHILE.

5. PREAMBLE WELCOMES VISIT OF RAPPORTEUR TO CHILE, AS WELL AS HIS PRAISE FOR PLEBISCITE AND CONSEQUENT IMPROVEMENT IN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. IT NOTES THAT MAINTENANCE OF STATE OF EXCEPTION IS SOURCE OF VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS. RESTRICTIONS ON PRESS FREEDOM ALSO MENTIONED.

6. PENALOSA FELT THAT COLOMBIAN RESOLUTION MIGHT BE TOO EASY ON CHILE BUT THAT ONLY WAY TO DEAL WITH MEXICO WAS TO INTRODUCE A COMPETING RESOLUTION THAT CONTRASTED DRAMATICALLY WITH MEXICO'S.

7. ASKED ABOUT PERU'S ATTITUDE, MINISTER GRILLO OF THE COLOMBIAN MISSION COMMENTED THAT THE PERUVIANS WORK HAND IN HAND WITH THE MEXICANS AND WERE, THEREFORE, NOT PART OF THE COLOMBIAN EFFORT.

TO DATE, ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT HAS OFFERED NO PUBLIC REACTION. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, FOUR ARAB AMBASSADORS CALLED ON MFA SECRETARY FOR SPECIAL AFFAIRS ALCONADA SEMPE NOVEMBER 23 TO LOBBY ON BEHALF OF PNC DECLARATION. WE MET NOVEMBER 25 WITH MFA DEPUTY DIRECTOR FOR NORTH AFRICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST (BOSSO) TO MAKE REF A TALKING POINTS (ALSO LEFT AS NON-PAPER), INQUIRE ABOUT EARLIER VISIT BY ARAB AMBASSADORS, AND HEAR GOA REACTIONS TO THE PALESTINIAN DECLARATION OF STATEHOOD.

4. BOSSO NOTED GOA OFFICIAL LINE ON THE STATEHOOD DECLARATION THAT ARGENTINA IS "STUDYING" THE QUESTION. HE ASSURED US THAT THIS IS THE LINE ARGENTINES TOOK WITH ARAB AMBASSADORS THE DAY BEFORE. THE ARAB AMBASSADORS LOBBIED HARD FOR GOA STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE PNC DECLARATION AND FUTURE RECOGNITION OF THE PLO. THE ARGENTINES REFUSED TO COMMIT.

5. REF B RECEIVED AFTER DEMARCHE. HOWEVER, BOSSO CONFIRMED ARGENTINES HOPE TO COORDINATE THEIR RESPONSE TO THE PNC DECLARATION WITH THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE [redacted]

LATIN AMERICAN GROUP OF EIGHT. MOST G-8 PRESIDENTS AND/OR FOREIGN MINISTERS WILL ASSEMBLE IN MEXICO CITY DECEMBER 1 FOR THE NEW MEXICAN PRESIDENT'S INAUGURATION. BOSSO PREDICTED A COORDINATED G-8 RESPONSE AFTER THE MEXICO CITY INAUGURATION. HE NOTED, WITH SOME FRUSTRATION, THAT BRAZIL'S QUICK RESPONSE TO THE PALESTINIAN DECLARATION WOULD COMPLICATE EFFORTS AT COORDINATION, BUT COULD PROBABLY BE FINESSED WITH CAREFUL DRAFTING.

6. WHEN PRESSED, BOSSO DOWNPLAYED POSSIBILITY GOA WOULD SHIFT ITS FUNDAMENTAL POSITION OF NON-RECOGNITION OF THE PALESTINIAN NATION. ARGENTINA HAD REBUFFED ALL PRESSURES TO RECOGNIZE THE PLO FOR THE PAST FIVE YEARS. IT HAS THE STRONGEST AND LARGEST JEWISH LOBBY IN LATIN AMERICA (ALTHOUGH BALANCED BY AN EQUALLY STRONG ARAB-ARGENTINE LOBBY). PRESIDENT ALFONSIN HAS TENTATIVE PLANS TO VISIT ISRAEL EARLY IN 1989 AND BOSSO DID NOT THINK IT LIKELY HE WOULD TAKE SUCH A DRASTIC STEP AS

TO RECOGNIZE AN INDEPENDENT PALESTINIAN STATE BEFORE THE VISIT. IN SHORT, GOA WOULD NOT BE PUSHING HARD FOR RECOGNITION IN GROUP OF EIGHT CONSULTATIONS, BUT WOULD NOT RESIST A CONSENSUS POSITION.

7. COMMENT. BOSSO'S CORE MESSAGE OF GOA RELUCTANCE TO TAKE DRASTIC STEPS CONCERNING PALESTINE AT THIS TIME IS PROMISING. HIS STATEMENT THAT ARGENTINA WAS LOOKING FOR A G-8 COORDINATED POSITION IS NOT. IN THE PAST, GOA HAS USED G-8 CONSENSUS DECISIONS AS COVER FOR DIFFICULT POLITICAL DECISIONS ON CENTRAL AMERICA, NARCOTICS, TRADE, HUMAN RIGHTS AND OTHER CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES. ARGENTINA HAS A STRONG AND EFFECTIVE JEWISH DOMESTIC LOBBY. OTHER G8 MEMBERS SUCH AS BRAZIL,

1. ON NOVEMBER 16, THE DEPARTMENT SPOKESPERSON MADE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT WITH REGARD TO THE OUTCOME OF THE PALESTINIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL:

QUOTE: AFTER REVIEWING THE OUTCOME OF THE PALESTINE NATIONAL COUNCIL, THERE ARE SIGNS THAT THERE ARE PALESTINIANS WHO ARE TRYING TO MOVE THE PLO IN A CONSTRUCTIVE WAY. THAT'S ENCOURAGING AND SHOULD CONTINUE. BUT MEASURED AGAINST THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS, MORE MOVEMENT ON KEY ISSUES WILL BE REQUIRED. AND MEASURED AGAINST THE POSITIONS THE PLO MUST ADOPT IN ORDER FOR THE U.S. TO ENGAGE IN DIALOGUE WITH IT, THE RESULTS OF THE PNC SESSION FALL SHORT OF MEETING THOSE REQUIREMENTS. END QUOTE.

2. IN RESPONSE TO FOLLOW-UP QUESTIONS, THE SPOKESPERSON MADE THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL REMARKS:

--THE REFERENCE TO RESOLUTIONS 242 AND 338 IS AN ADVANCE OVER PREVIOUS EFFORTS BY THE PNC; NEVERTHELESS IT IS AMBIGUOUS, BOTH IN ITS PLACEMENT IN THE TEXT AND ITS

UNCLASSIFIED

MEANING.

UNCLASSIFIED

--POSSIBLY IMPLIED OR INDIRECT REFERENCE TO ISRAEL'S RIGHT TO EXIST IS NOT SUFFICIENT; RECOGNITION MUST BE CLEAR AND UNAMBIGUOUS.

--THE STATEMENT ON TERRORISM IS A RESTATEMENT OF PREVIOUS POSITIONS. IT IS STILL PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS.

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE - VOLIO DEMANDS REVISION OF MEXICAN RESOLUTION

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT

2. FERNANDO VOLIO, UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, CALLED POLOFF THE AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 28 TO COMPLAIN ABOUT THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE AND REQUEST USG ASSISTANCE. VOLIO SAID HE CANNOT TOLERATE THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION'S PARAGRAPH 10, WHICH HE SAYS WOULD HAVE THE UNHCR RECEIVE INFORMATION ON CHILE FROM THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AND OTHER SOURCES. VOLIO INTERPRETS THE PROVISION AS A METHOD OF GIVING "RADICAL" NGOS ACCESS TO THE UNHCR WITH THE GOAL OF REDUCING THE INFLUENCE OF HIS REPORT. IF THIS LANGUAGE IS ADOPTED, VOLIO SAID, HE WILL RESIGN IMMEDIATELY. VOLIO HAS ALREADY INFORMED THE UNHRC AND THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT OF HIS POSITION. HE STATES THAT THE GOC POSITION --JUST

REITERATED TO HIM-- IS TO CEASE COOPERATION WITH THE UN SHOULD VOLIO STEP DOWN.

3. VOLIO ASKED THAT USUN WORK WITH COSTA RICAN DEPUTY PERMREP EMILIA BARRISH AGAINST THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION. WHEN PERMREP GUTIERREZ LEFT NEW YORK SEVERAL DAYS AGO FOR SAN JOSE, BARRISH'S INSTRUCTIONS WERE TO ABSTAIN ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION, VOLIO SAID. NOW, HOWEVER, HE FEARS THAT THE GOCR MAY VOTE IN FAVOR. HE BASES THIS FEAR ON INFORMATION HE HAS PICKED UP LOCALLY PLUS THE FACT THAT MEXICO REPORTEDLY HAS ADOPTED LANGUAGE MODERATING ITS TEXT IN SEVERAL PLACES --ALTHOUGH NOT IN PARAGRAPH 10.

4. COMMENT: VOLIO IS A PROUD MAN, AND REGARDS THE LANGUAGE OF PARAGRAPH 10 AS A PERSONAL AFFRONT. THUS, WE TAKE MORE SERIOUSLY THAN USUAL VOLIO'S LATEST THREAT TO RESIGN.

1. OCCASIONALLY, CONGEN VEHICLES CARRYING U.S. OR FSN PERSONNEL ARE STRUCK BY STONES IN INCIDENTS RELATED TO THE INTIFADA IN THE WEST BANK AND EAST JERUSALEM. CONGEN VEHICLES ALSO ENCOUNTER OCCASIONAL ROADBLOCKS, BOTH BY PALESTINIANS AND IDF FORCES. THESE ARE HAZARDS INHERENT IN THE CONDUCT OF CONGEN'S WORK IN COVERING EVENTS AND PROVIDING CONSULAR SERVICES.

2. RSO AND CONSULATE MEMBERS ARE AWARE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF STONING INCIDENTS AND TRAVEL IS CLOSELY MONITORED. CONSULATE MEMBERS ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT PROJECTED TRAVEL TO RSO AND SUPPLY CONTACT NAMES AND PHONE NUMBERS IN AREA TRAVELLED, ALL BEFORE PERMISSION TO TRAVEL IS GRANTED, AND USE ARMORED VEHICLES WITH RADIOS. THE FOLLOWING ILLUSTRATES THE KIND OF INCIDENTS THAT OCCASIONALLY OCCUR. (OUR STANDARD SECURITY OPERATING PROCEDURE WAS FOLLOWED ON THIS OCCASION.) ALL CONGEN PERSONNEL OBSERVE CAREFULLY THESE SECURITY PRECAUTIONS TO MINIMIZE RISK FROM SUCH INCIDENTS, AND PROCEDURES ARE REVIEWED REGULARLY BY THE CONSUL GENERAL AND THE RSO.

3. ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, THE CONGEN POLITICAL SECTION CHIEF, ACCOMPANIED BY TWO PALESTINIANS AND TWO ISRAELIS, WAS ON CONSULATE BUSINESS IN THE ARAB TOWN OF BEITA (NEAR NABLUS).

4. THE POLITICAL OFFICER AND GROUP OBSERVED THE ISRAELI DEFENSE FORCE TROOPS ENTER THE VILLAGE, BREAK WINDOWS AND FORCE PEOPLE TO REMOVE PALESTINIAN FLAGS AND GRAFFITI. TWO SHOTS WERE HEARD BUT THEIR ORIGIN OR DIRECTION WAS UNKNOWN.

5. THE GROUP REMAINED IN A VILLAGE HOME FOR OVER TWO HOURS UNTIL IT WAS APPARENT THAT THE TROOPS WERE NOT LEAVING. ON DEPARTURE THEY PASSED TWO ISRAELI CHECKPOINTS AND WERE STOPPED AND QUESTIONED. EACH TIME THE SOLDIER WANTED THE GROUP TO REMAIN UNTIL AN OFFICER ARRIVED AND EACH TIME THE GROUP TALKED THEIR WAY THROUGH THE CHECKPOINT. (SUCH ALTERCATIONS AT IDF CHECKPOINTS OCCUR REGULARLY.)

6. THE GROUP THEN HAD TO PASS THROUGH TWO PALESTINIAN ROADBLOCKS OF BURNING TIRES AND TWO OF STONES. DESPITE THEIR SHOUTS THAT THEY WERE GUESTS OF THE VILLAGE, THE VEHICLE WAS STONED

WHEN THE STONES WERE REMOVED TO ALLOW PASSAGE.

7. AS THEY APPROACHED JERUSALEM AND PASSED THROUGH THE AREA OF WADI JOZ, A STONE ROADBLOCK FORCED THE DRIVER TO SLOW AT WHICH TIME PEOPLE HIDDEN BY THE ROADSIDE THREW STONES, TWO OF WHICH STRUCK THE VEHICLE. THERE WERE NO INJURIES AND THE ARMORED CONSULATE VEHICLE SUSTAINED VERY MINOR DAMAGE.

2. SUMMARY: ALTHOUGH GPRB HAS NOT YET MADE AN OFFICIAL DECISION REGARDING RECOGNITION OF A NEW PALESTINIAN STATE, WE BELIEVE THAT SUCH RECOGNITION IS LIKELY. GPRB WAS ALSO CRITICAL OF USG DECISION TO REFUSE ARAFAT VISA. (END SUMMARY)
3. ECONOFF MET WITH MFA DIRECTOR FOR AFRICAN AND ARAB AFFAIRS JOEL ADECHI ON NOVEMBER 28 TO DISCUSS TALKING

POINTS PROVIDED REF A ON PALESTINIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL'S UNILATERAL DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE. STRESSING OUR OPPOSITION TO EFFORTS BY EITHER ISRAEL OR THE ARAB STATES TO RESOLVE UNILATERALLY THE FINAL STATUS OF THE WEST BANK AND GAZA AND TO ANY UNILATERAL DECLARATION OF

STATEHOOD, ECONOFF STRESSED USG DESIRE TO ENSURE PEACE IN THE REGION THROUGH A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT. ADECHI RESPONDED THOUGHTFULLY, SAYING THAT THE GPRB SUPPORTS BOTH THE RIGHT OF THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE TO SELF-DETERMINATION AND THE RIGHT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL TO EXIST.

4. ALTHOUGH THERE HAD NOT YET BEEN AN OFFICIAL GPRB DECISION REGARDING RECOGNITION OF THE NEW PALESTINIAN STATE DECLARED BY THE PALESTINE NATIONAL COUNCIL (PNC), HE CONTINUED, SUCH A DECISION IS VERY LIKELY. ECONOFF ASKED WHAT TYPE OF ASSISTANCE THE PLO PROVIDED BENIN, IF ANY. ADECHI REPLIED THAT TWO MEDICAL DOCTORS HAD BEEN SENT BY ARAFAT TO BENIN AS PART OF A TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PACKAGE SHORTLY AFTER ARAFAT'S MAY 1986 VISIT TO COTONOU BUT THAT BOTH PHYSICIANS HAD SINCE DEPARTED AND NOT BEEN REPLACED. THE PLO AMBASSADOR TO LAGOS HAD RECEIVED ACCREDITATION TO BENIN IN 1986, ADECHI ADDED, AND HAD ACCOMPANIED ARAFAT'S SPECIAL ENVOY, AMIR ABU HASSIRA, ON HIS NOVEMBER 24 CALL ON PRESIDENT KEREKOU. HASSIRA DELIVERED BACKGROUND DOCUMENTS ON THE PNC DECISION, ADECHI SAID. (ACCORDING TO LOCAL PRESS REPORTS, HASSIRA ALSO TRANSMITTED A MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM YASSER ARAFAT TO PRESIDENT KEREKOU FOR THE SUPPORT WHICH BENIN HAS GIVEN THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE "IN THEIR RIGHTFUL STRUGGLE FOR NATIONAL LIBERATION.")

5. ADECHI THEN CRITICIZED THE USG DECISION TO DENY ARAFAT A VISA TO ATTEND THE UNGA AS AN INVITEE. USING

[redacted]

INFORMATION PROVIDED REF B, ECONOFF OUTLINED THE U.N. HEADQUARTERS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHT OF THE USG TO BAR THE ENTRY OF THOSE PERSONS WHO REPRESENT A THREAT TO U.S. SECURITY, PARTICULARLY THOSE INDIVIDUALS CONDONING OR LENDING SUPPORT TO TERRORISM AGAINST U.S. CITIZENS. ADECHI COMMENTED THAT, ALTHOUGH HE AGREED THAT THE PLO OBSERVER MISSION AT THE U.N. HAD EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO SPEAK FOR THE PLO, HE AND THE REST OF THE GPRB COULD NOT HELP BUT WONDER WHY THE USG HAD CHOSEN THIS MOMENT TO DENY ARAFAT ENTRY, SINCE "ARAFAT HAS SHOWN THAT HE REPRESENTS THE MORE REASONABLE FACTION OF THE PLO." ADECHI SAID THAT HE AND OTHER GPRB OFFICIALS HAD CONCLUDED THAT THE VISA REFUSAL WAS "A PARTING SHOT FROM PRESIDENT REAGAN" AND THAT THEY HOPED PRESIDENT-ELECT BUSH WOULD PROVE "MORE FLEXIBLE."

6. COMMENT: WE EXPECT THE GPRB TO JOIN NEIGHBORING BURKINA FASO, NIGER, AND NIGERIA IN RECOGNIZING A NEW

INDEPENDENT PALESTINIAN STATE. ADECHI ACCEPTED AN INFORMAL EMBASSY TRANSLATION OF THE TALKING POINTS PROVIDED REF A AND PROMISED TO SHARE THESE VIEWS WITH OTHERS IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY, BUT IT WAS CLEAR THAT HE DID NOT FIND OUR ARGUMENTS CONVINCING. FOR THE RECORD, WE FOLLOWED UP ON THIS ISSUE BY PROVIDING ADECHI A COPY OF THE USIA-PROVIDED FRENCH TEXT OF THE SECRETARY'S DECISION ON ARAFAT'S VISA (REF C) ON NOVEMBER 29. END COMMENT. STADTLER

2. USUN STRONGLY RECOMMENDS ABSTENTION ON THIRD COMMITTEE RESOLUTION L. 81, "SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN CHILE." CHILE WILL BE CALLING FOR A VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION BASED ON ITS OBJECTIONS (REF B). THERE IS MUCH MERIT TO THE CHILEAN CLAIM THAT THE RESOLUTION ASKS CHILE TO UNDERTAKE ACTION THAT IT IS ALREADY IMPLEMENTING IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THE RESOLUTION ALSO DOES NOT TAKE ACCOUNT OF ONGOING ACTS OF

LEFTIST TERRORISM IN CHILE.

3. THE RESOLUTIOF AS IT NOW STANDS DOES NOT ADHERE AS CLOSELY TO THE VOLIO REPORT AS WE WOULD LIKE. REF A IS AN INDICATOR OF SERIOUS CUNTROVERSY SURROUNDING THE RESOLUTION. ALTHOUGH THEIR MOTIVES ARE DIFFERENT, YUGOSLAVIA, ALGERIA AND SWEDEN HAVE WITHDRAWN THEIR CO-SPONSORSHIP OF THE RESOLUTION. COLOMBIA AND OTHER ARA STATES PLAN TO ABSTAIN ON THE RESOLUTION, WHICH THEY CLAIM DOES NOT REFLECT REALITY.
4. COMMENT. WHILE WE AGREE THAT THE CURRENT LANGUAGE OF THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT FULLY REFLECT REALITY, WE ALSO BELIEVE THAT A "NO" VOTE WILL GIVE THE WRONG MESSAGE. THE RESOLUTION IS AN IMPROVEMENT OVER LAST YEAR'S, AND THE UNITED STATES SHOULD GET THE IDEA ACROSS THAT IT SERIOUSLY WANTS A MOVE TOWARD FULL DEMOCRACY AND COMPLETE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. AN ABSTENTION WITH AN EXPLANATION OF POSITION (EOP) WILL FULFILL THESE REQUIREMENTS. UNLESS INSTRUCTED OTHERWISE BEFORE THE VOTE (NOVEMBER 29 AFTERNOON OR NOVEMBER 30), U.S. WILL ABSTAIN ON THIS RESOLUTION. FYI. IF CHILE AGREES TO A CONSENSUS TEXT WITH MEXICO, U.S. SHOULD ALSO JOIN CONSENSUS. END FYI. DEPARTMENT MAY WISH TO SEND ELEMENTS FOR AN APPROPRIATE EOP ASAP.

(FYI: THE US AND SEVERAL OTHER DELEGATIONS WILL ABSTAIN ON THE RESOLUTION.) ALTHOUGH THIS IS NOT THE FIRST TIME THAT VOLIO HAS THREATENED TO RESIGN, DEPARTMENT AGREES WITH POST'S ASSESSMENT THAT THE THREAT SHOULD BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY. POST IS REQUESTED TO APPROACH VOLIO TO CONVINCE HIM TO STAY ON THE JOB, AT LEAST UNTIL AFTER THE TRANSITION PERIOD TO ELECTIONS IN CHILE HAS BEEN COMPLETED. AS POST IS AWARE, VOLIO'S SENSITIVITES ON THE ISSUE REQUIRE A DELICATE TOUCH. POST SHOULD DRAW UPON LANGUAGE IN TALKING POINTS BELOW AS APPROPRIATE.

3. TALKING POINTS:

-- THE US NOTES WITH GREAT APPRECIATION THE EXCELLENT WORK THAT UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO HAS DONE IN CHILE OVER THE YEARS.

-- THE LACK OF PROPER RECOGNITION OF VOLIO'S PERFORMANCE IS ONE OF THE CAUSES OF THE US ABSTAINING ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION AT THE 43RD UNGA. OTHER COUNTRIES ARE ABSTAINING ON THE RESOLUTION FOR THE SAME REASON.

-- THE DEGREE OF COOPERATION THAT VOLIO HAS SECURED FROM THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IN RECENT YEARS AND THE PROGRESS THAT CHILE HAS MADE TOWARD RETURNING TO DEMOCRACY IS TESTIMONY TO VOLIO'S SUCCESS AS A UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

-- IT IS OF PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE THAT VOLIO NOT RESIGN FROM HIS POSITION AS SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AT SUCH A SENSITIVE PERIOD IN CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY.

1. (CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY. IN THE NAME OF GROUP OF EIGHT UNITY AND AS

A RESULT OF NEW, SOFTER MEXICAN DRAFT, COLOMBIA HAS WITHDRAWN ITS HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE. STATUS REPORT FOLLOWS. END SUMMARY.

3. TABLING OF COLOMBIAN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE (REFTEL) CREATED SERIOUS STRAIN WITHIN GROUP OF EIGHT. MEXICO WAS REPORTEDLY INDIGNANT OVER COLOMBIA'S EFFORTS. COLOMBIAN THIRD COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVE TOLD MISOFF THAT, AFTER FOUR DIFFICULT GROUP OF EIGHT MEETINGS WEEKEND NOVEMBER 25-26, COLOMBIA WITHDREW ITS RESOLUTION. COLOMBIAN SAID "GROUP OF EIGHT WAS READY TO EXPLODE."

4. A NEW, SOFTER MEXICAN VERSION (THEIR FIFTH DRAFT) BEGAN TO CIRCULATE IN THIRD COMMITTEE NOVEMBER 28 (FAXED TO ZWEIBEN OF IO). SPONSORS ARE AUSTRALIA, AUSTRIA, CUBA, DENMARK, FRANCE, GREECE, ITALY, LUXEMBOURG, MEXICO, NETHERLANDS, NORWAY, PORTUGAL, AND SPAIN.

5. NORWEGIAN DELEGATE TOLD MISOFF THAT SWEDEN WITHDREW ITS COSPONSORSHIP OF MEXICAN RESOLUTION WHICH, IN THEIR VIEW, IS NOW TOO SOFT. ALGERIA AND YUGOSLAVIA ALSO DROPPED AS COSPONSORS, APPARENTLY FEARFUL THAT CHILE COULD CHALLENGE THEIR HUMAN RIGHTS BONA FIDES. (COMMENT: THERE WERE RIOTS IN ALGIERS ON DAY OF CHILEAN PLEBISCITE AND DEATHS APPARENTLY OCCURRED ALSO IN YUGOSLAVIA).

6. CHILEANS ARE BEGINNING TO LOBBY AGAINST HR RESOLUTION, THOUGH A CHILEAN MISOFF ACKNOWLEDGED THAT NEW MEXICAN DRAFT IS CERTAINLY MILDER THAN HAS BEEN THE CASE TO DATE. CHILEANS OBJECT STRONGLY TO QUESTIONING IN PARA 9 OF PREAMBLE OF COUNTRY'S JURIDICAL FRAMEWORK. CHILEAN MISOFF TOLD USUN THAT IT IS THAT JURIDICAL

FRAMEWORK, I.E., THE CONSTITUTION, THAT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DEMOCRATIC PROGRESS TO DATE. HE FELT STRONGLY THAT CHILE'S LAWS SHOULD NOT BE UNDERMINED.

7. COLOMBIA REPORTS THAT BRAZIL WILL JOIN IT IN ABSTAINING. COLOMBIAN MISOFF GRILLO HOPES VENEZUELA WILL ABSTAIN TOO.

8. URUGUAYAN PERMREP PAOLILLO TOLD MISOFF THAT NEW MEXICAN DRAFT IS MOST BALANCED PRODUCT ACHIEVABLE. GROUP OF EIGHT WOULD HAVE LIKED A CONSENSUS RESOLUTION, PAOLILLO NOTES, BUT CHILE WOULD THEN HAVE INSISTED ON TERMINATION OF RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE. PAOLILLO EXPECTS URUGUAY AND ARGENTINA TO VOTE FOR RESOLUTION.

9. BRITISH MISOFF HELKE BELIEVES EC L2 WILL ALL SUPPORT RESOLUTION. SHE REGRETTED LACK OF REFERENCES TO TORTURE AND TERRORISM.

10. MEXICO SUB-SECRETARY HELLER COMMENTED TO MISOFF THAT NEW MEXICAN DRAFT INCORPORATES U.S. POINTS OF VIEW. HE REGRETTED THAT THERE COULD BE NO MENTION OF TERRORISM BUT CLAIMED EUROPEANS OBJECT. HE CALLED FOR A FAVORABLE U.S. VOTE ON WHAT HE CALLED EQUITABLE RESOLUTION. ASKED ABOUT CHILEAN OBJECTIONS TO MENTION OF JURIDICAL FRAMEWORK (PARA 9 PREAMBLE), HELLER SAID THIS REFERS TO ARTICLES 8 AND 9 OF CHILEAN CONSTITUTION THAT PERMIT PROSECUTION FOR POLITICAL DIFFERENCES. URUGUAY'S PAOLILLO FELT THAT LANGUAGE ON JURIDICAL FRAMEWORK COULD BE REWORKED SLIGHTLY.

11. URUGUAY AND UK MISOFFS REPORT RAPPORTEUR VOLIO OF COSTA RICA IS OFFENDED BY REFERENCE (PARA L0 OPERATIVE) TO "THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR AND OTHER PERTINENT INFORMATION." VOLIO SEEMS TO WANT TO BE EXCLUSIVE SOURCE FOR UN. COSTA RICA WILL REPORTEDLY

TAGS: PREL, PINR, PHUM, CI
SUBJECT: MEETING OF CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ WITH ELLIOTT ABRAMS, NOVEMBER 18, 1988.

1. CONFIDENTIAL, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ MET WITH ASSISTANT SECRETARY ELLIOTT ABRAMS AT THE DEPARTMENT ON NOVEMBER 18, 1988. ABRAMS REQUESTED THAT THE GOC REVIEW THE CASES OF INTERNALLY EXILED LABOR

LEADERS MANUEL BUSTOS AND ARTURO MARTINEZ AND THOSE OF THE MANY JOURNALISTS CURRENTLY PENDING IN MILITARY AND CIVIL COURTS. ALTHOUGH HE CLAIMED SUCH MATTERS WERE SMALL COMPARED WITH THE GREATER ISSUES FACING THE GOC, ERRAZURIZ PROMISED THAT HE WOULD LOOK INTO THEM ON HIS RETURN TO SANTIAGO. ASKED BY ABRAMS IF HE WOULD MEET WITH WILLIAM DOHERTY OF AIFLD TO DISCUSS THE BUSTOS/MARTINEZ MATTER, ERRAZURIZ STATED HALFHEARTEDLY THAT HE MIGHT BE ABLE TO FIT HIM INTO HIS SCHEDULE IN WASHINGTON. ABRAMS TOLD

ERRAZURIZ THAT IT IS UNLIKELY THAT U.S. POLICY TOWARD CHILE WOULD CHANGE VERY MUCH UNDER A BUSH ADMINISTRATION BUT THAT, WITH AN EXCHANGE OF NEW AMBASSADORS PENDING AND AS A RESULT OF THE PLEBISCITE, IT IS TIME TO CREATE A MORE POSITIVE ATMOSPHERE FOR BILATERAL RELATIONS. ERRAZURIZ AGREED, NOTING THAT CHILEAN RELATIONS WITH EUROPE HAVE IMPROVED RECENTLY, CITING ITALY AND BELGIUM AS SPECIFIC CASES. THE GOC, ERRAZURIZ SAID, WOULD PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO DEALING WITH THE COMMUNISTS AND THE CHURCH IN THE COMING YEAR, NOTING THAT A POSSIBLE OPENING TO EASTERN EUROPE IS ALSO IN THE WIND. ON THE TOPIC OF A RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNGA, ERRAZURIZ WARNED THAT THIS YEAR'S EXERCISE WOULD PRODUCE AN UNBALANCED MEXICAN RESOLUTION SUPPORTED BY EUROPE AND THE SOCIALIST BLOC AS IN THE PAST AND THAT THE U.S. SHOULD NOT EXPECT MUCH COOPERATION IN OBTAINING SOMETHING MORE BALANCED. ABRAMS TOLD ERRAZURIZ THAT, DUE TO LEGAL PROBLEMS, THE SIGNING OF THE BILATERAL CIVIL AIR AGREEMENT SCHEDULED FOR LATER IN THE MONTH IN SANTIAGO WOULD HAVE TO BE POS'PONED. END SUMMARY.

3. ACCOMPANIED BY DIRECTOR OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OCTAVIO ERRAZURIZ AND CHARGE PATRICIO MATURANA, FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ CALLED ON ELLIOTT ABRAMS AT THE DEPARTMENT ON NOVEMBER 18. DAS MICHAEL SKOL AND RICHARD HOWARD AND PETER DESHAZO (NOTETAKER) OF ARA/SC ALSO ATTENDED THE MEETING. THE VISIT FOLLOWED AN EARLIER MEETING THAT DAY BETWEEN ERRAZURIZ AND THE SECRETARY, WHICH WAS REPORTED IN SEPTEL.

4. AS ABRAMS OPENED THE DISCUSSION BY ASKING ERRAZURIZ WHAT COULD BE DONE TO REEVALUATE THE INTERNAL EXILE OF LABOR LEADERS MANUEL BUSTOS AND ARTURO MARTINEZ AND TO REEXAMINE THE MANY CASES PENDING AGAINST JOURNALISTS IN

CONFIDENTIAL
UNCLASSIFIED
CONFIDENTIAL

CHILEAN COURTS. ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT THE GOC'S MAJOR PRIORITY IS TO ADDRESS BIG GROUPS ON BIG ISSUES AND NOT TO "USE UP ENERGY" ON MATTERS SUCH AS THOSE RAISED BY ABRAMS. IF BUSTOS IS NOT PUNISHED, THERE WOULD BE NO

INCENTIVE FOR OTHERS TO DESIST FROM CALLING ILLEGAL STRIKES, ERRAZURIZ SAID, AND THE SAME HOLDS TRUE FOR THE JOURNALISTS. THE GOC MUST NOW DEAL WITH A COMMUNIST TERRORIST THREAT AND WILL BE PREOCCUPIED WITH THIS KEY ISSUE, SAID ERRAZURIZ, INFERRING THAT IT HAD LITTLE TIME TO WASTE ON OTHER MATTERS. NONETHELESS, HE SAID, THE GOC COULD REONSIDER THESE ISSUES AND MIGHT TAKE ACTION BUT ONLY IF SUCH ACTION IS JUDGED TO FAVOR GOC INTERESTS, NOT BECAUSE OF OUTSIDE PRESSURE.

5. ABRAMS STATED THAT IT WOULD BE A MISTAKE TO THINK THAT THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION WILL CHANGE POLICY TOWARD CHILE IN ANY SIGNIFICANT WAY, BUT PREDICTED THAT IT WOULD WORK AT IMPROVING THE "ATMOSPHERE" FOR CONDUCTING BILATERAL RELATIONS. THE EXCHANGE OF NEW AMBASSADORS, THE HOLDING OF THE PLEBISCITE, AND THE INAUGURATION OF A NEW ADMINISTRATION IN WASHINGTON ALL HOLD OUT THE PROSPECT FOR CREATING A NEW AND MORE POSITIVE OUTLOOK FOR RELATIONS, HE SAID. ERRAZURIZ NODDED HIS APPROVAL.

6. ASKED BY ABRAMS TO CLARIFY HIS STATEMENT MADE EARLIER TO THE SECRETARY THAT THE CHURCH WILL PLAY A CENTRAL ROLE IN CHILE'S POLITICAL FUTURE, ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT THE CHURCH HAD BEEN AN ACTIVE FORCE AGAINST THE GOC IN THE PLEBISCITE BUT THAT THE CHURCH HIERARCHY IS NOW CHANGING TO A MORE MODERATE POSITION. IN THE PAST, HE CONTENDED, "EXTREMIST PRIESTS" MAINTAINED RELATIONS WITH LEFTISTS, INCLUDING COMMUNISTS AND TERRORISTS, ABOVE ALL THROUGH THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY. THIS IS NOW CHANGING, AT THE INSISTENCE OF THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS AND CARDINAL FRESNO. ACCORDING TO ERRAZURIZ, THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS HAD TOLD

THE MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR RECENTLY THAT THE CHURCH WILL NO LONGER ALLOW MASSES TO BE SAID FOR EXTREMISTS, WILL OPENLY ESCHEW ANY RELATIONS WITH TERRORISTS, AND WILL RETURN TO NORMAL, NON-POLITICAL RELIGIOUS ACTIVITY. "THE CHURCH IS PROBABLY THE MOST IMPORTANT ACTOR IN CHILE," ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED.

7. WHEN QUESTIONED ABOUT RELATIONS WITH EUROPE, ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT ITALY HAS MADE A NOTICEABLE CHANGE IN ITS POSITION ON CHILE AND THAT THE BELGIANS, PENDING THE RESOLUTION OF A PROBLEM WITH THE SOCIALIST PARTY OF

BELGIUM, IS ALSO READY TO ADJUST ITS STANCE ON CHILE. EVEN IN EASTERN EUROPE, ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED, THERE IS NEW INTEREST IN BETTERING RELATIONS WITH CHILE. THIS INCLUDES OFFICIAL ENTITIES OF THE USSR, HE SAID, WHICH ARE INTERESTED IN "OPENING OFFICES" IN SANTIAGO. (HE DID NOT SAY WHICH).

8. ABRAMS ASKED ERRAZURIZ TO CONSIDER MEETING WITH AIFLD DIRECTOR WILLIAM DOHERTY ON THE BUSTOS/MARTINEZ MATTER WHILE IN WASHINGTON. ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED THAT PERHAPS DURING THE LAST DAY OF HIS STAY IN WASHINGTON HE MIGHT FIND TIME. (COMMENT: CHARGE MATURANA TOLD HOWARD AND DESHAZO AFTER THE MEETING THAT IT WAS TOTALLY INAPPROPRIATE FOR A FOREIGN MINISTER TO MEET WITH DOHERTY BUT THAT HE, MATURANA WOULD BE WILLING TO DO SO ONCE ERRAZURIZ HAD RETURNED TO CHILE. END COMMENT).

9. ASKED TO COMMENT ON THE RECENT TELEVISED SPEECH BY INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES, ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED LACONICALLY THAT CACERES IS AN IMPORTANT PLAYER WHO IS SPEAKING FRANKLY AND OUTLINING HIS THOUGHTS ABOUT KEY POLITICAL ISSUES. HE IMPLIED THAT CACERES MEANS WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT

UNCLASSIFIED

DIALOGUE AND OTHER IMPORTANT MATTERS.

10. THE ISSUE OF THE CHILEAN RESOLUTION AT THE UNGA WAS RAISED. ERRAZURIZ STATED THAT SPAIN IS THE USG'S WORST ENEMY AT THE UNGA, CITING SPAIN'S POSITION ON AFGHANISTAN AS PROOF, AND WARNED ABRAMS NOT TO EXPECT ANYTHING FROM A GOVERNMENT WHICH IS FINANCING BOTH PATRICIO AYLWIN AND RICARDO LAGOS IN THEIR BIDS FOR POWER. FRANCE IS ALSO ANTI-CHILEAN BUT "SPAIN IS THE STRONGEST ENEMY OF THE US," HE REITERATED. THE UK, HE SAID, WOULD FAVOR A FAIR RESOLUTION. ACCORDING TO ERRAZURIZ, THE SUCCESSFUL HOLDING OF THE PLEBISCITE SHOULD ABROGATE THE NEED FOR ANY RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT ALL. ABRAMS RESPONDED THAT PERHAPS THE MATTER OF THE CHILE RESOLUTION COULD BE RAISED AT AN APPROPRIATE LEVEL DURING THE UPCOMING MEETING BETWEEN PRESIDENTS-ELECT BUSH AND SALINAS.

11. DURING THEIR MEETING, ABRAMS MENTIONED TO ERRAZURIZ

THAT WE WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO SIGN THE NEW CIVIL AIR AGREEMENT WITH CHILE LATER IN THE MONTH AS TENTATIVELY PLANNED BECAUSE OF SEVERAL LEGAL PROBLEMS STILL PENDING. ERRAZURIZ REPLIED THAT THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE SIGNING POSED NO PROBLEM.

2. PER INSTRUCTIONS REF A, POLOFF MET NOVEMBER 30 WITH FERNANDO VOLIO, THE UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AND ATTEMPTED TO PERSUADE HIM TO CONTINUE IN HIS POST EVEN IF THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE PASSES WITH PARAGRAPH 10 UNCHANGED (REF B). VOLIO WAS GRATIFIED BY OUR SUPPORT FOR HIS WORK, AND PLEASED BY OUR DECISION TO ABSTAIN WHEN THE RESOLUTION COMES UP FOR A VOTE. WELL.

3. NONETHELESS, VOLIO WAS UPSET BY THE LIKLIHOOD THAT THE MEXICAN DRAFT WILL PASS, AND WOULD NOT BE SWAYED BY OUR ARGUMENTS THAT HE STAY IF IT DOES. POLOFF POINTED OUT THAT PARAGRAPH 10'S LANGUAGE CALLING ON THE UNHRC TO RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM ALL SOURCES WOULD NOT CONSTITUTE MUCH OF A REAL CHANGE, GIVEN THE UNHRC'S PRACTICE OF HEARING TESTIMONY FROM ALL COMERS AT ITS FEBRUARY MEETING. VOLIO SHARPLY DISAGREED, STATING THAT IT IS ONE THING FOR THE UNHRC TO RECEIVE PUBLIC AND UNOFFICIAL TESTIMONY AT ITS ANNUAL MEETING, BUT QUITE ANOTHER TO CHANGE THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE. PARAGRAPH 10 DOES THIS BY STATING THAT THE UNHRC WILL OFFICIALLY RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM OTHER SOURCES. WHY, HE ASKED RHETORICALLY, SHOULD THE UNHRC GO TO THE TROUBLE AND EXPENSE OF HAVING A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR IF HIS REPORT IS WORTH NOTHING MORE THAN THE RAVINGS OF "RADICAL" NGOS? VOLIO WAS SIMILARLY UNMOVED BY OUR ARGUMENTS ON THE IMPORTANCE OF HIS CONTINUING THROUGH THE 1989 ELECTIONS IN CHILE, THE INADVISABILITY OF SIMPLY LEAVING THE FIELD TO THE MEXICANS AND CUBANS, OR OF THE IMPORTANCE FOR THE UN AS AN INSTITUTION OF RETAINING MODERATES WITHIN IT.

4. POLOFF ALSO ARGUED THAT VOLIO SHOULD NOT VIEW HIMSELF NARROWLY AS A FUNCTIONARY OF THE UN. INSTEAD, HE SHOULD FOCUS ON THE GOAL OF IMPROVING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE THROUGH THE DEVELOPMENT OF DEMOCRACY. NO, SAID VOLIO, THERE COMES A TIME WHEN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY MUST REACT TO THE UN DOUBLE STANDARD. WHEN POLOFF POINTED

OUT THAT SUCH A REACTION WILL BE A LONG TIME COMING, VOLIO RESPONDED THAT AT LEAST HE WON'T BE A PART OF THE CONTINUING CHARADE.

5. IF THE MEXICAN DRAFT PASSES WITH PARAGRAPH 10 UNCHANGED, VOLIO CONCLUDED, HE WILL RESIGN AT THE FEBRUARY UNHRC MEETING AFTER SUBMITTING HIS REPORT ON

DECLASSIFIED

THE PLEBISCITE PERIOD IN CHILE. VOLIO SAID THAT THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT HAD CONFIRMED TO HIM NOVEMBER 29 THAT IT TOO OPPOSES THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION. THE GOC POSITION, SAID VOLIO, CONTINUES TO BE THAT IF VOLIO STEPS DOWN, CHILE WILL TERMINATE ITS COOPERATION WITH THE UNHRC (REF C).

6. VOLIO TOLD US THAT THE COSTA RICAN UN MISSION WILL OFFER AN AMENDMENT TO THE LANGUAGE OF PARAGRAPH 10 DURING CONSIDERATION OF THE CHILE RESOLUTION THE EVENING OF NOVEMBER 30. THE AMENDMENT WOULD DELETE THE LANGUAGE WHICH WOULD HAVE THE UNHRC RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM SOURCES IN ADDITION TO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. THE AMENDMENT WOULD BE BASED ON THE FACT THAT NONE OF THE OTHER SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS HAVE BEEN PUT IN THIS POSITION. VOLIO STATED THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS FOR AFGHANISTAN AND IRAN AGREE WITH HIS VIEW THAT THE LANGUAGE IS AN ATTACK ON THE SYSTEM OF SPECIAL RAPPORTEURS IN GENERAL. IF THE COSTA RICAN AMENDMENT IS ADOPTED, VOLIO WILL STAY ON. IF NOT, HE SAID, HE WILL HAVE RECEIVED A VERY CLEAR VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE, LEAVING HIM NO OPTION BUT TO STEP DOWN.

2. PER INSTRUCTIONS REF A, POLOFF MET NOVEMBER 30 WITH FERNANDO VOLIO, THE UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AND ATTEMPTED TO PERSUADE HIM TO CONTINUE IN HIS POST EVEN IF THE MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON CHILE PASSES WITH PARAGRAPH 10 UNCHANGED (REF B). VOLIO WAS GRATIFIED BY OUR SUPPORT FOR HIS WORK, AND PLEASED BY OUR DECISION TO ABSTAIN WHEN THE RESOLUTION COMES UP FOR A VOTE. COSTA RICAN FOREIGN MINISTER MADRIGAL, VOLIO TOLD US, HAS DIRECTED THE COSTA RICAN MISSION TO ABSTAIN AS WELL.

3. NONETHELESS, VOLIO WAS UPSET BY THE LIKLIHOOD THAT THE MEXICAN DRAFT WILL PASS, AND WOULD NOT BE SWAYED BY OUR ARGUMENTS THAT HE STAY IF IT DOES. POLOFF POINTED OUT THAT PARAGRAPH 10'S LANGUAGE CALLING ON THE UNHRC TO RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM ALL SOURCES WOULD NOT CONSTITUTE MUCH OF A REAL CHANGE, GIVEN THE UNHRC'S PRACTICE OF HEARING TESTIMONY FROM ALL COMERS AT ITS FEBRUARY MEETING. VOLIO SHARPLY DISAGREED, STATING THAT IT IS ONE THING FOR THE UNHRC TO RECEIVE PUBLIC AND UNOFFICIAL TESTIMONY AT ITS ANNUAL MEETING, BUT QUITE ANOTHER TO CHANGE THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE. PARAGRAPH 10 DOES THIS BY STATING THAT THE UNHRC WILL OFFICIALLY RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM OTHER SOURCES. WHY, HE ASKED RHETORICALLY, SHOULD THE UNHRC GO TO THE TROUBLE AND EXPENSE OF HAVING A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR IF HIS REPORT IS WORTH NOTHING MORE THAN THE RAVINGS OF "RADICAL" NGOS? 9. (C) CHILE WILL BE CALLING FOR A VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION "SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN CHILE" BASED ON ITS OBJECTIONS. THERE IS MUCH MERIT TO THE CHILEAN CLAIM THAT THE RESOLUTION ASKS CHILE TO UNDERTAKE ACTION THAT IT IS ALREADY IMPLEMENTING IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THE RESOLUTION ALSO DOES NOT TAKE ACCOUNT OF ONGOING ACTS OF LEFTIST TERRORISM IN CHILE. WHILE WE AGREE THAT THE CURRENT LANGUAGE OF THE RESOLUTION DOES NOT FULLY REFLECT REALITY, WE ALSO BELIEVE THAT A "NO" VOTE WILL GIVE THE WRONG MESSAGE.

THE RESOLUTION IS AN IMPROVEMENT OVER LAST YEAR'S, AND THE U.S. SHOULD GET THE IDEA ACROSS THAT IT SERIOUSLY WANTS A MOVE TOWARD FULL DEMOCRACY AND COMPLETE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. AN ABSTENTION WITH AN EOP WILL FULFILL THESE REQUIREMENTS.

SUBJECT: THIRD COMMITTEE ADOPTS RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE

1. ON NOVEMBER 30, UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE ADOPTED DRAFT RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. VOTE TOTAL: 82 TO 1 (CHILE), WITH 51 ABSTENTIONS (US). TEXT APPEARS IN PARA 3 BELOW; US EXPLANATION IN PARA 2.

2. US EXPLANATION OF VOTE WAS GIVEN BY AMBASSADOR BYRNE. BEGIN TEXT:

THE UNITED STATES CONSIDERS THIS DRAFT RESOLUTION ON THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE TO BE SUBSTANTIALLY MORE BALANCED AND MORE IN HARMONY WITH THE FINDINGS OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR THAN ANY RESOLUTION PREVIOUSLY ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. THE DRAFT RECOGNIZES MANY OF THE IMPORTANT GAINS WHICH CHILE HAS MADE DURING THE PAST MONTHS; IT

ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE HOLDING OF THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE HAS STIMULATED INCREASED POLITICAL PARTICIPATION; AND IT CORRECTLY POINTS OUT THAT SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS PERSIST AND THAT THEY NEED TO BE CORRECTED.

WE ARE HOPEFUL THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WILL CONTINUE THIS MORE BALANCED AND REALISTIC APPROACH TO THE PROBLEM OF HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS IN CHILE. WE URGE THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO TAKE NECESSARY STEPS TO ENSURE THE FULLEST POSSIBLE OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, AND TO CONTINUE MOVEMENT TOWARD THE REESTABLISHMENT OF FULL DEMOCRACY IN CHILE -- WHICH IS THE ULTIMATE GUARANTEE THAT SUCH RIGHTS WILL BE RESPECTED.

NEVERTHELESS, DESPITE THESE IMPROVEMENTS, WE REGRET THAT THIS DRAFT RESOLUTION STILL CONTAINS NO MENTION OF TERRORISM FROM THE POLITICAL EXTREMES AS A SIGNIFICANT CAUSE OF SOME OF THE GRAVEST VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. IN ADDITION, THE DRAFT RESOLUTION GIVES INSUFFICIENT RECOGNITION TO THE DEGREE TO WHICH THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE MARKED A MAJOR STEP TOWARD THE RESTORATION OF DEMOCRATIC PROCEDURES IN CHILE. RESPECTED OBSERVERS FROM SCORES OF COUNTRIES WITNESSED THE CAMPAIGN, THE BALLOTING AND THE TALLY; THEY AGREED THAT THE PLEBISCITE WAS ESSENTIALLY FREE AND FAIR. WE ALSO BELIEVE THAT THE GOOD WORK OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR DESERVES COMMENDATION, RATHER THAN MERELY BEING NOTED.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE UNITED STATES WILL ABSTAIN.

SUBJECT: REACTION TO UN RESOLUTION ON CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION ON CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AT THE UN RECEIVED ONLY MODERATE COVERAGE IN THE MEDIA. THE U.S. VOTE WAS MENTIONED, BUT HAS NOT DRAWN ANY PARTICULAR COMMENT. A BLAST FROM SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO, AIMED DIRECTLY AT MEXICO, SHOULD ENLIVEN THE DEBATE OVER WHAT ONE RADIO COMMENTATOR TERMED "THE ANNUAL RITUAL" OF THE WORLD'S CONDEMNING CHILE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND CHILE'S RESPONDING WITH CRIES OF "INTERVENTION" AND "MARXIST CONSPIRACY." END SUMMARY.

2. (U) REPORTING ON THE UN RESOLUTION HAS BEEN RELATIVELY STRAIGHTFORWARD, WITH LITTLE EDITORIAL COMMENT. PRO-GOVERNMENT "EL MERCURIO" CARRIED THE TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION AND PORTIONS OF THE CHILEAN

GOVERNMENT'S CRITICISM OF IT. ALTHOUGH THE U.S.' EXPLANATION OF VOTE WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO THE MEDIA, IT HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED IN ITS ENTIRETY. THE MEDIA HAVE NOTED ONLY THAT THE U.S. VIEWED THE LACK OF A REFERENCE TO TERRORISM AS A SERIOUS FLAW IN THE RESOLUTION. OPPOSITION "LA EPOCA" CARRIED A SHORT PIECE NOTING "PREDICTABLY," CHILE REJECTED THE RESOLUTION AS DISCRIMINATING.

3. (U) THE ONLY EDITORIAL COMMENT OF WHICH EMBASSY IS AWARE WAS CARRIED ON ANTI-GOVERNMENT "RADIO COOPERATIVA." THE COMMENTATOR REFERRED TO THE VOTE AS "AN ANNUAL RITUAL SINCE 1974," DURING WHICH MUCH OF THE WORLD CONDEMNS CHILE FOR ITS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT DENOUNCES THE RESOLUTION AS "INTERVENING IN CHILEAN DOMESTIC AFFAIRS" AND AS PART OF A "MARXIST CONSPIRACY."

4. (U) ON DECEMBER 2, HOWEVER, "EL MERCURIO" CARRIED PORTIONS OF AN INTERVIEW WITH FERNANDO VOLIO, IN WHICH HE STOPPED SHORT OF THREATENING TO RESIGN (REFTEL) BUT DID NOT HIDE HIS ANGER AT THE RESOLUTION. VOLIO IS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES ABSTAINED BECAUSE THEY RECOGNIZED THAT THE RESOLUTION "PERSISTS IN IGNORING THE VOCATION OF CHILEANS TO ACHIEVE DEMOCRACY."

5. (U) VOLIO BLASTED MEXICO FOR "INSISTING ON USING HARD LANGUAGE THAT IS INCONSISTENT WITH WHAT IS HAPPENING IN CHILE. MEXICO HAS A DESIRE TO APPEAR AS THE CHAMPION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT ONLY OUTSIDE ITS OWN HOUSE." HE NOTED THAT THE "MEXICANS APPOINT THEMSELVES DRAFTERS OF THE RESOLUTIONS AGAINST CHILE,

6. (C) MAXIMO PACHECO, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, TOLD EMBOFF

THAT HE THOUGHT VOLIO WAS "UNFAIR" IN HIS CRITICISMS. HE TERMED HIMSELF A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF VOLIO'S, BUT SAID HE WAS NOT BLIND TO VOLIO'S WEAKNESSES OF TEMPERMENT AND PRIDE. HE OPINED THAT VOLIO'S PIQUE WILL BLOW OVER; VOLIO'S THREATS TO RESIGN HAVE BEEN RENDERED MEANINGLESS BY REPETITION. PACHECO ADDED THAT HE HAD BEEN INTERVIEWED BY "EL MERCURIO" ABOUT VOLIO'S COMMENTS, BUT HIS REMARKS WILL BE CARRIED ON DECEMBER 3. PACHECO SAID HE HAD CAREFULLY AVOIDED TELLING THE "EL MERCURIO" JOURNALIST THAT HE WAS SORRY THE U.S. HAD NOT VOTED IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION, WHICH HE TERMED VERY BALANCED, LEST "EL MERCURIO" HEADLINE HIS COMMENTS WITH "CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION BLASTS THE U.S."

7. (C) COMMENT: JUDGING FROM THE MUTED MEDIA COVERAGE AND THE ABSENCE OF ANY STATEMENT FROM MAJOR POLITICAL FIGURES, POST-PLEBISCITE ATTENTION APPEARS TO BE FOCUSED MORE ON POLITICAL MANEUVERING THAN IT IS ON THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS VOTES.

SUBJECT: REACTION TO UN RESOLUTION ON CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION ON CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AT THE UN RECEIVED ONLY MODERATE COVERAGE IN THE MEDIA. THE U.S. VOTE WAS MENTIONED, BUT HAS NOT DRAWN ANY PARTICULAR COMMENT. A BLAST FROM SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO, AIMED DIRECTLY AT MEXICO, SHOULD ENLIVEN THE DEBATE OVER WHAT ONE RADIO COMMENTATOR TERMED "THE ANNUAL RITUAL" OF THE WORLD'S CONDEMNING CHILE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND CHILE'S RESPONDING WITH CRIES OF "INTERVENTION" AND "MARXIST CONSPIRACY." END SUMMARY.

2. (U) REPORTING ON THE UN RESOLUTION HAS BEEN RELATIVELY STRAIGHTFORWARD, WITH LITTLE EDITORIAL COMMENT. PRO-GOVERNMENT "EL MERCURIO" CARRIED THE TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION AND PORTIONS OF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT'S CRITICISM OF IT. ALTHOUGH THE U.S.' EXPLANATION OF VOTE WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO THE MEDIA, IT HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED IN ITS ENTIRETY. THE MEDIA HAVE NOTED ONLY THAT THE U.S. VIEWED THE LACK OF A REFERENCE TO TERRORISM AS A SERIOUS FLAW IN THE RESOLUTION. OPPOSITION "LA EPOCA" CARRIED A SHORT PIECE NOTING "PREDICTABLY," CHILE REJECTED THE RESOLUTION AS DISCRIMINATING.

3. (U) THE ONLY EDITORIAL COMMENT OF WHICH EMBASSY IS AWARE WAS CARRIED ON ANTI-GOVERNMENT "RADIO COOPERATIVA." THE COMMENTATOR REFERRED TO THE VOTE AS "AN ANNUAL RITUAL SINCE 1974," DURING WHICH MUCH OF THE WORLD CONDEMNS CHILE FOR ITS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT DENOUNCES THE RESOLUTION AS "INTERVENING IN CHILEAN DOMESTIC AFFAIRS" AND AS PART OF A "MARXIST CONSPIRACY."

4. (U) ON DECEMBER 2, HOWEVER, "EL MERCURIO" CARRIED PORTIONS OF AN INTERVIEW WITH FERNANDO VOLIO, IN WHICH HE STOPPED SHORT OF THREATENING TO RESIGN (REFTEL) BUT DID NOT HIDE HIS ANGER AT THE RESOLUTION. VOLIO IS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES ABSTAINED BECAUSE THEY RECOGNIZED THAT THE RESOLUTION "PERSISTS IN IGNORING THE VOCATION OF CHILEANS TO ACHIEVE DEMOCRACY."

5. (U) VOLIO BLASTED MEXICO FOR "INSISTING ON USING HARD LANGUAGE THAT IS INCONSISTENT WITH WHAT IS HAPPENING IN CHILE. MEXICO HAS A DESIRE TO APPEAR AS THE CHAMPION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT ONLY OUTSIDE ITS OWN HOUSE." HE NOTED THAT THE "MEXICANS APPOINT THEMSELVES DRAFTERS OF THE RESOLUTIONS AGAINST CHILE,

DEMONSTRATE THEIR BIAS, AND FORGET THAT WHAT THEY ARE SUPPOSED TO DO IS AID AND HELP ALL CHILEAN SECTORS TO CONTINUE WORKING AS THEY HAVE UNTIL NOW TO IMPROVE THE PROBLEMS."

6. (C) MAXIMO PACHECO, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, TOLD EMBOFF THAT HE THOUGHT VOLIO WAS "UNFAIR" IN HIS CRITICISMS. HE TERMED HIMSELF A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF VOLIO'S, BUT SAID HE WAS NOT BLIND TO VOLIO'S WEAKNESSES OF TEMPERMENT AND PRIDE. HE OPINED THAT VOLIO'S PIQUE WILL BLOW OVER; VOLIO'S THREATS TO RESIGN HAVE BEEN RENDERED MEANINGLESS BY REPETITION. PACHECO ADDED THAT HE HAD BEEN INTERVIEWED BY "EL MERCURIO" ABOUT VOLIO'S COMMENTS, BUT HIS REMARKS WILL BE CARRIED ON DECEMBER 3. PACHECO SAID HE HAD CAREFULLY AVOIDED TELLING THE "EL MERCURIO" JOURNALIST THAT HE WAS SORRY THE U.S. HAD NOT VOTED IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION, WHICH HE TERMED VERY BALANCED, LEST "EL MERCURIO" HEADLINE HIS COMMENTS WITH "CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION BLASTS THE U.S."

7. (C) COMMENT: JUDGING FROM THE MUTED MEDIA COVERAGE AND THE ABSENCE OF ANY STATEMENT FROM MAJOR POLITICAL FIGURES, POST-PLEBISCITE ATTENTION APPEARS TO BE FOCUSED MORE ON POLITICAL MANEUVERING THAN IT IS ON THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS VOTES.

POLOFF SPOKE WITH UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE FERNANDO VOLIO DECEMBER 1 FOLLOWING THE VOTE ON THE CHILE RESOLUTION IN THE UNGA'S THIRD COMMITTEE. VOLIO STATED THAT COSTA RICAN DEPUTY PERMREP EMILIA BARRISH HAD PERSUADED MEXICO TO AMEND ITS DRAFT TO ELIMINATE THE LANGUAGE WHICH WOULD CALL UPON THE UNHRC TO RECEIVE INFORMATION FROM SOURCES IN ADDITION TO THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR. WITH THE OFFENSIVE LANGUAGE REMOVED, VOLIO STATED HE NO LONGER PLANS TO STEP DOWN.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: OJAN, PREL, CI, AR
SUBJECT: ATTORNEY GENERAL CONFIRMS GOA INTEREST IN PRATTS MURDER INVESTIGATION

REF: SANTIAGO 9014

UNCLASSIFIED

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. ARGENTINE ATTORNEY GENERAL WAS UNAWARE OF APPROACH TO USG THROUGH CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS LEADER PACHECO FOR EVIDENCE ON PRATTS MURDER CASE, BUT CONFIRMED GOA INTEREST IN MOVING FORWARD ON INVESTIGATION. HE SUGGESTED, AND EMBASSY AGREES, THAT WASHINGTON DETERMINE WHETHER THERE IS POTENTIALLY USEFUL INFORMATION IN U.S. LETELIER MURDER FILES. IF SO, THEN GOA WILL FORMALLY REQUEST IT. END SUMMARY.

3. IN COURSE OF MEETING WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL D'ALESSIO DECEMBER 2, WE INQUIRED ABOUT REFTEL REPORT ON GOA INTEREST IN U.S. EVIDENCE RELATED TO GEN. PRATTS MURDER INVESTIGATION. AS ATTORNEY GENERAL, D'ALESSIO SUPERVISES ALL ARGENTINE FEDERAL FISCALS (PROSECUTORS). D'ALESSIO WAS UNAWARE THAT SIMONETTI HAD APPROACHED CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS LEADER PACHECO FOR INFORMATION ON THE PRATTS CASE. AMALLO IS THE FISCAL WITH DIRECT SUPERVISORY CONTROL OVER THE PRATTS INVESTIGATION. D'ALESSIO DESCRIBED HIM AS COMPETENT, SERIOUS, AND PROFESSIONAL. SIMONETTI IS A CLERK, A LAW STUDENT, AND DEFINITELY NOT A DECISION-MAKER IN THE PRATTS CASE.

4. THAT SAID, D'ALESSIO NOTED THAT GOA IS STILL DEFINITELY INTERESTED IN PURSUING THE PRATTS INVESTIGATION. RECENT GOA ARRESTS OF PRESUMED FPMR CHILEAN GUERRILLAS HAVE INCREASED POLITICAL PRESSURE FOR PROGRESS ON THE 1974 ASSASSINATION CASE. GOA IS INTERESTED IN ANY INFORMATION THAT MIGHT MOVE THE PRATTS INVESTIGATION FORWARD. D'ALESSIO UNDERSTOOD THAT MICHAEL TOWNLEY HAD IMMUNITY FROM POSSIBLE PROSECUTION IN THE PRATTS CASE. NEVERTHELESS, HE HOPED THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT MIGHT REVIEW ITS LETELIER FILES, PARTICULARLY THE TOWNLEY TESTIMONY. IF THERE WERE ANYTHING RELATED TO THE PRATTS CASE, GOA WOULD FORMALLY ASK FOR IT IN ANY WAY THE USG MIGHT REQUIRE.

5. D'ALESSIO CLOSED BY EXPRESSING PERPLEXITY AS TO WHY SIMONETTI APPROACHED PACHECO ON THIS MATTER. GOA WAS COMFORTABLE DEALING DIRECTLY WITH THE USG ON LEGAL/JUDICIAL MATTERS. HE SPECULATED THAT SIMONETTI OVERSTATED HIS OWN BRIEF AND PACHECO OVER-REACTED TO WHAT HE HEARD. HE SUGGESTED THAT ANY FURTHER COMMUNICATION ON THIS QUESTION BE HANDLED THROUGH THE CHIEF FEDERAL PROSECUTOR FOR BUENOS AIRES, LUIS MORENO OCAMPO.

6. COMMENT. SIMONETTI MAY HAVE JUMPED THE GUN IN HIS CONVERSATION WITH PACHECO, BUT D'ALESSIO CONFIRMED GOA INTEREST IN POSSIBLE U.S. EVIDENCE IN THE PRATTS CASE. WE RECOMMEND THAT THE DEPARTMENT TREAT THIS AS A SERIOUS REQUEST FROM THE GOA IF THERE IS EVIDENCE IN THE LETELIER TRIAL COULD ASSIST IN THE PRATTS INVESTIGATION.

- Person -
If Argentina makes a case on Townley; Townley is extradited - particularly if Townley can be extradited - conduct use his own testimony & send him to Argentina - Bardella, Propper, etc could testify to make case - to petition for -82- demanded -

-- THE DRAFT RESOLUTION ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE PUT FORWARD BY THE COLOMBIAN DELEGATION WAS AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN THE MEXICAN DELEGATION'S DECISION TO MODERATE THE TEXT OF THEIR RESOLUTION ON THE SAME SUBJECT.

-- THE US APPRECIATES THE EFFORTS BY COLOMBIA TO EXERT ITS INFLUENCE IN ENSURING THAT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE BETTER REFLECTS BOTH THE PROGRESS IN THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE AREAS IN WHICH IMPROVEMENT IS NECESSARY.

-- COLOMBIA'S EFFORT DEMONSTRATES THE POTENTIAL INFLUENCE OF THE LATIN GROUP IN PERSUADING THE UN TO EXAMINE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN LATIN AMERICA IN AN EVENHANDED AND OBJECTIVE MANNER. WHITEHEAD

PRESIDENT'S ADEPT HANDLING OF THE MEETING. AT THIS SESSION, THE ICAO COUNCIL MERELY REAFFIRMED THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE THAT STATES MUST REFRAIN FROM RESORTING TO THE USE OF WEAPONS AGAINST CIVIL AIRCRAFT, AND REFERRED THE REPORT TO THE AIR NAVIGATION COMMISSION (ANC) FOR REVIEW OF THE REPORT'S TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS. COUNCIL SHOULD RECEIVE THE ANC REPORT AND RESUME DISCUSSION OF THE ENTIRE ITEM AT ITS NEXT SESSION (FEBRUARY/MARCH).

3. THE USG MAY BE LESS SUCCESSFUL AT FUTURE ICAO SESSIONS. SUPPORT FROM OUR TRADITIONAL ALLIES WAS TEPID (AT BEST), AND SEVERAL COUNCIL MEMBERS CONCURRED IN THE USG POSITION ONLY UPON INSTRUCTIONS FROM THEIR CAPITALS. THE IRAN REPRESENTATIVES STAYED AWAY FROM POLEMICS, FOCUSSING INSTEAD ON SPECIFIC TECHNICAL ASPECTS OF THE REPORT AND ARGUING THAT THE REPORT REVEALED SIGNIFICANT SHORTCOMINGS IN THE NAVY'S CONDUCT. (FOR EXAMPLE, IRAN FOCUSSED ON THE QUALITY OF THE VINCENNES' RADIO WARNINGS; ON THE NOTAM WHICH THE ICAO INVESTIGATION TEAM HAS ALREADY LABELLED (NOT IN CONFORMITY" WITH ICAO RULES; AND ON THE LOCATION OF THE VINCENNES AND IRAN AIR 655 IN RELATION TO IRANIAN TERRITORIAL WATERS AND TO IRANIAN AIRSPACE RESPECTIVELY AT THE TIME OF THE SHOOTDOWN.) OTHER COUNCIL MEMBERS (INCLUDING TO SOME EXTENT OUR ALLIES) HAVE UNDOUBTEDLY PICKED UP ON THESE AND OTHER POINTS AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO PURSUE THEM AT LATER ICAO CONSIDERATION OF THE SHOOTDOWN. THE SOVIETS AGGRESSIVELY SUPPORTED THE IRANIAN POSITION AND EMPHASIZED THE NEED

SUCH OCCURRENCES IN FUTURE. DECISION FOLLOWED LENGTHY DISCUSSION AND LAST MINUTE PROPOSAL BY SOVIETS, BACKED BY CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND CUBA, TO AMEND THE DECISION TO INCLUDE A SPECIFIC REFERENCE TO US WARSHIPS, A CONDEMNATION OF THE ACT AND CALL FOR THE US TO WITHDRAW ITS NOTAM. SOVIETS AGREED, HOWEVER, TO HAVE THEIR PROPOSALS CONSIDERED IN MARCH. MISSION BELIEVES REPRESENTATIONS MADE BY EMBASSIES WERE CRITICAL TO ACHIEVING THIS SUCCESSFUL OUTCOME. THE MARCH SESSION WILL BE MORE DIFFICULT. ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE THAT TIME. END SUMMARY AND COMMENT.

2. THE SECOND DAY OF ICAO COUNCIL DISCUSSION OF THE IR 655 INVESTIGATION REPORT OPENED WITH COUNCIL PRESIDENT KOTAITE EMPHASIZING THE NEED FOR ANY DECISION TO BE BASED ON CONSENSUS. HE SAID THAT THE COMMON ELEMENTS IN ALL STATEMENTS MADE AT THE OPENING SESSION INCLUDED EMPHASIS ON THE FUNDAMENTAL OBLIGATION TO REFRAIN FROM THE USE OF ARMED FORCE AGAINST CIVIL AVIATION, THE NEED FOR ALL STATES WHICH HAVE NOT DONE SO TO RATIFY ARTICLE 3 BIS TO THE CHICAGO CONVENTION, AND THE NEED FOR IMPROVED MILI-TARY/CIVILIAN COORDINATION TO IMPROVE FLIGHT SAFETY. HE SAID ALL HAD AGREED TO REFER THE REPORT TO THE ANC FOR TECHNICAL REVIEW, ALTHOUGH SOME SPEAKERS HAD ALSO CALLED FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF A DRAFTING GROUP TO PREPARE A DECISION TO BE ADOPTED AT THE PRESENT COUNCIL SESSION. HE THEN OPENED THE FLOOR FOR FURTHER COMMENT. SEVENTEEN COUNCIL MEMBERS (INCLUDING THE US) SPOKE, AS DID IRAN.

4. IN SUMMING UP, KOTAITE AGAIN EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR CONSENSUS AND OUTLINED A DECISION THAT HE THOUGHT WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE (FULL TEXT AT PARA 5). HE ALSO SAID THAT THE DIRECTOR OF THE LEGAL BUREAU WOULD BE AVAILABLE TO THE ANC TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS IT MAY HAVE, INCLUDING QUESTIONS ON THE STATUS OF THE WATERS IN WHICH THE VINCENNES WAS LOCATED. AS REGARDS ARTICLE 54(J) THE SECRETARY GENERAL WOULD TRANSMIT TO ALL MEMBER STATES THE FULL TEXT OF THE REPORT AND ANY RESOLUTION EVENTUALLY ADOPTED BY COUNCIL. THE COUNCIL WOULD ALSO REPORT TO THE ASSEMBLY, AS REQUIRED BY ARTICLE 54(K). NIGERIA, EGYPT, SAUDI ARABIA, INDONESIA, AND THE FRG SUPPORTED THE CHAIR'S SUMMARY. CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE USSR AND CUBA REITERATED THEIR VIEW THAT THE COUNCIL SHOULD ACT ON THE FACTS KNOWN TO IT AND CONDEMN THE SHOOTDOWN, BUT AGREED (AND, INDEED, SOUGHT CONFIRMATION) THAT THIS COULD ALSO BE DONE AT A LATER STAGE (I.E. FRG REP, WHO MAY HAVE BEEN SPEAKING FOR THE OTHER WESTERN EUROPEANS AS WELL, TOLD USDEL THAT ONLY BASIS FOR AGREEMENT WAS US ACCEPTANCE OF LANGUAGE CONDEMNING THE ACT. IF WE COULD ACCEPT THAT,D WE COULD DISPOSE OF THE ISSUE ONCE AND FOR ALL. THIS WOULD AVOID THE DANGER OF A MORE UNFAVORABLE OUTCOME IN THE FUTURE,D INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF AN EXTRAORDINARY ASSEMBLY. USDEL SAID COUNCIL HAD ALREADY AGREED TO KOTAITE'S SUMMARY AND THAT IN OUR VIEW THE ONLY PURPOSE OF THIS FINAL MEETING WAS TO ADOPT LANGUAGE REFLECTING THE DECISION ALREADY TAKEN. IF THE SOVIETS WANTED TO RECORD THEIR MINORITY VIEW, THEY HAD THAT RIGHT. USDEL ALSO SAID CONDEMNATION WAS NOT APPROPRIATE IN ANY EVENT. WE DID NOT BELIEVE THERE WAS A LARGE RISK OF AN EXTRAORDINARY ASSEMBLY, BUT WE WOULD DEAL WITH THAT WHEN AND IF IT MATERIALIZED.

SUBJECT: INFORMATION ON AYUTUXTEPEQUE MASSACRE IN EL SALVADOR

1. THIS MESSAGE CONTAINS A SYNOPSIS PREPARED BY EMBASSY SAN SALVADOR OF DEVELOPMENTS TO DATE IN THE LEGAL CASE ON THE AYUTUXTEPEQUE MASSACRE (ALSO KNOWN AS THE EL ZAPOTE MASSACRE) IN EL SALVADOR. THE SALVADORAN FMLN GUERRILLA FRONT HAS ACCUSED GOVERNMENT TROOPS OF COMMITTING THE ATROCITY AND THE CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOPRIC'S LEGAL ASSISTANCE OFFICE HAS SAID THAT EVIDENCE POINTS TO GOVERNMENT TROOPS, BUT THE EVIDENCE AVAILABLE TO US INDICATES THAT THE MURDERS ARE MORE LIKELY TO HAVE RESULTED FROM A FAMILY FEUD. ACTION ADRESSEE POSTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO SHARE THIS

2. BEGIN TEXT:

SUBJECT: AYUTUXTEPEQUE MASSACRE

SUMMARY:

ON FEBRUARY 25, TWO EX-SOLDIERS IMPLICATED IN THE JANUARY 21 MURDER OF 15 MEMBERS OF THE ARAGON FAMILY IN AYUTUXTEPEQUE, EL SALVADOR CONFESSED TO THE JUDGE AND JOURNALISTS THAT THEY HAD COMMITTED THE MASSACRE BECAUSE TWO SISTERS FROM THE RIVAL VASQUEZ FAMILY HAD PROMISED THEM MONEY AND THREATENED THEM WITH DEATH. THE JUDGE AND PROSECUTORS ANNOUNCED THAT THE CASE WAS NOW CLARIFIED BUT THE INVESTIGATION CONTINUES. APPARENTLY CONTRADICTING A PREVIOUS WRITTEN STATEMENT ISSUED TO THE PRESS UNDER HER NAME, THE 88-YEAR OLD SURVIVOR OF THE MASSACRE NOW DENIES THAT THE JUDGE PRESSURED HER TO CHANGE HER TESTIMONY. END SUMMARY.

SUSPECTS CONFESS TO MASSACRE:

ON FEBRUARY 25, TWO EX-SOLDIERS IMPLICATED IN THE JANUARY 21 MURDER OF 15 PEOPLE IN AYUTUXTEPEQUE CONFESSED TO THE JUDGE AND JOURNALISTS THAT THEY HAD COMMITTED THE MASSACRE. ON FEBRUARY 25, THE CASE WAS TRANSFERRED TO THE CRIMINAL COURT IN MEXICANOS, SAN SALVADOR DEPARTMENT, DR. JORGE ERNESTO CRUZ CIENFUEGOS PRESIDING. JESUS VANEGAS ALVARENGA AND ARMANDO DE PAZ ASSERTED THAT THE VASQUEZ SISTERS PROMISED THEM MONEY TO KILL THE ARAGON FAMILY AND THREATENED THEM WITH DEATH IF THEY DID NOT COLLABORATE IN THE CRIME. JUDGE CRUZ DECLARED THAT THESE CONFESSIONS ESTABLISHED THE MOTIVE FOR THE MASSACRE AS DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE ARAGON AND VASQUEZ FAMILIES.

ACCORDING TO STATEMENTS JESUS AND ARMANDO MADE TO THE PRESS, THE SIX DEFENDANTS (JESUS, ARMANDO, RAFAEL ANTONIO DE PAZ VANEGAS, OSCAR ORTIZ HERNANDEZ, NATIVIDAD VASQUEZ AND MARIA CRISTINIA VASQUEZ) GATHERED AT ARMANDO'S HOUSE ON THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 21. FROM THERE, THEY PROCEEDED TO THE HOUSES OF THE ARAGON FAMILY, KNOCKING ON THE DOOR OF EACH HOUSE AND IDENTIFYING THEMSELVES AS SOLDIERS. ONCE HAVING GAINED ENTRY, THEY KILLED EVERYONE IN SIGHT.

JESUS VANEGAS ALVARENGA APPARENTLY KILLED 7 MEMBERS OF THE ARAGON FAMILY, ARMANDO DE PAZ VANEGAS 3, THE VAZQUEZ SISTERS AT LEAST ONE, WHILE OSCAR ORTIZ HERNANDEZ AND RAFAEL ANTONIO DE PAZ KILLED THE REMAINING 4 PERSONS. ELEUTERIA ORTIZ VDA. DE ARAGON AND THE CHILDREN WERE SPARED, ACCORDING TO JESUS AND ARMANDO, BECAUSE THEY "FELT SORRY FOR THEM."

AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE PRESS CONFERENCE, JUDGE CRUZ AND THE PROSECUTORS ANNOUNCED THAT THE CASE WAS NOW CLARIFIED BUT THAT THE INVESTIGATION WOULD CONTINUE. OSCAR ORTIZ HERNANDEZ REMAINS A FUGITIVE. UNDER SALVADORAN LAW, ALL SIX DEFENDANTS FACE A MAXIMUM SENTENCE OF 30 YEARS.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES:

ON FEBRUARY 21, SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE UNIT (SIU) DETECTIVES REPORTEDLY CORNERED THREE SUSPECTS IN THE MASSACRE (ALL NOW UNDER ARREST) IN SAN SALVADOR'S DOWNTOWN CENTRAL MARKET. ONE OF THE THREE THREW A GRENADE AT PURSUING SIU DETECTIVES, KILLING AN SIU DETECTIVE AND A BYSTANDER, AS WELL AS WOUNDING 2 OTHER DETECTIVES AND 7 BYSTANDERS. ON FEBRUARY 22, DR. AMILCAR PALACIOS, THE JUDGE OF FIFTH CRIMINAL COURT, TOOK RAFAEL'S STATEMENT REGARDING THIS INCIDENT AND CHARGED HIM WITH THE CRIME. RAFAEL PLEADED INNOCENT.

ON FEBRUARY 28, JUDGE PALACIOS ACCEPTED A COMPLAINT AGAINST RAFAEL ANTONIO DE PAZ, OSCAR ARMANDO DE PAZ, AND JESUS VANEGAS ALVARENGA IMPLICATING THEM IN THE JANUARY 17 MURDER OF FELIPE GUARDADO ALVARENGA VALENZUELA IN LA LIBERTAD DEPARTMENT.

THE LETELIER CASE: BACKGROUND AND FACTUAL SUMMARY

On September 21, 1976 at approximately 9:30 A.M., a bomb exploded underneath Orlando Letelier's automobile as he was driving to work in Washington, D.C. Letelier and his assistant, Ronni Moffitt, were killed by the force of the explosion. Letelier was a former Chilean Ambassador to the United States for the government of Salvador Allende. He had returned to the United States after a year of imprisonment at the hands of the Pinochet junta which had come to power after ousting Allende in a military coup in 1973. Since that time, Letelier had become a respected spokesman for the opposition to the Pinochet government which had been ruthlessly silenced inside Chile, but which was becoming increasingly active on the international scene.

The assassination created an international uproar and triggered an exhaustive investigation by law enforcement authorities in the United States. The investigation revealed the participation of high level Chilean government officials in the planning and execution of the Letelier assassination, and their hindrance of the investigation by acts of evasion and even deception. The following is an account of what the investigation uncovered and the legal and political activity that has taken place since the assassination. It shows that the United States has vigorously attempted to bring those who participated in this act of political terrorism to justice, but has been thwarted by a lack of cooperation by the Chilean government.

I. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Orlando Letelier first came to Washington, D.C. in 1970, having been appointed Chilean Ambassador to the United States by Salvador Allende, the newly elected President of Chile. He served as Ambassador until May 1973. He returned to Santiago at that time to assume a cabinet position in the Allende government in the face of destabilizing threats by the Chilean military. On September 11, 1973, Allende was killed during a military coup, and Letelier was arrested without charge. He spent a year in solitary confinement before he was released and expelled by the new Pinochet government.

Letelier returned to the United States late in 1974 to take a position with the Institute of Policy Studies in Washington. There, he met Ronni Karpen and her future husband Michael Moffitt, who became Letelier's assistants. Letelier became increasingly involved in politics during his time at the Institute and was recognized as a leader of the opposition to the Pinochet government in Chile. One day before he was to deliver an address to a crowd of 5,000 at Madison Square Garden in New York on the third anniversary of the coup in Chile (September 1976), the Chilean government issued a decree revoking Letelier's Chilean citizenship for his antigovernment activism.

As Letelier was gaining international prominence, operatives in the Chilean secret police, the Department of National Intelligence (DINA), were laying the groundwork for his assassination. In mid-1974, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, then director of operations for DINA and a Lieutenant Colonel in the Chilean army, recruited electronics expert Michael Vernon Townley, an expatriate American citizen living in Chile, to join DINA. Townley's first mission for DINA was the purchase of some electronic equipment at Audio Intelligence Devices in Miami, Florida under the assumed name of Kenneth Enyart in December 1974. After successfully completing that mission, Townley met with then-Colonel Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, the director of DINA, who ordered Townley to travel to Mexico in order to assassinate some Chilean opposition leaders who were scheduled to meet in Mexico City in early 1975.[1/]

In the United States before travelling to Mexico, Townley contacted members of the Cuban Nationalist Movement (CNM), a group of Cuban exiles dedicated to the overthrow of Fidel Castro's communist government in Cuba, in order to seek their assistance in the Mexican mission. Townley first met with Felipe Rivero in Miami, and then later with Guillermo Novo Sampol and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel in New Jersey. As a result of these meetings, the leadership of CNM decided to assist DINA in the Mexico City mission, sending Virgilio Paz Romero with Townley to Mexico. The mission was a failure.[2/]

Townley and Paz continued to work together after the Mexico City failure. They spent the last part of 1975 conducting DINA intelligence missions in Europe. Early in 1976, Paz travelled to Chile with Townley to get intelligence training from DINA and to have some medical work done on his shoulder. While in Chile, Paz stayed with Townley and his wife, Mariana Callejas (also a DINA agent) until the middle of June 1976.[3/] It was this time spent together which cemented the ties between DINA and CNM; it was these two organizations working in tandem, under the direction of DINA orders, who would assassinate Letelier.

II. THE ASSASSINATION: PREPARATIONS AND EXECUTION

In late June or early July 1976, Colonel Espinoza solicited Townley and Chilean Army Lieutenant Armando Fernandez Larios for the Letelier assassination mission. The three met outside of Santiago to discuss the mission. As Fernandez remained in an automobile, Espinoza told Townley the purpose of his mission, that he was to enlist the aid of the CNM, and that he was to make the death of Letelier appear to be an accident or suicide. Espinoza also informed Townley that he and Fernandez would soon travel to Paraguay to acquire Paraguayan passports, under false names, with visas to enter the United States in order to execute the assassination. 4/

Espinoza told Fernandez that he was to accompany Townley to Paraguay. His mission was go to the United States to surveil Letelier, to "see what he was up to." Fernandez was not privy to the meeting between Espinoza and Townley; although he suspected that his mission would result in more than simple intelligence gathering because of the involvement of important DINA operatives like Townley and Espinoza, he did not find out the true purpose of the mission until he later heard about Letelier's assassination on the radio. 5/

On July 17, 1976, Colonel Benito Guanes Serrano, head of the Paraguayan intelligence service, J-2, received a telegram from Contreras informing him that two DINA officers would be arriving in Asuncion, Paraguay soon in the hopes of acquiring Paraguayan passports in order to conduct an intelligence mission in the United States. At the time, Paraguay and Chile were both members of Operation Condor, a consortium of South American intelligence agencies who cooperated in anticommunist and antiterrorist activities, so the request for false documentation did not strike Guanes as strange. 6/

In late July 1976, Townley and Fernandez travelled to Paraguay under the false names Juan Andres Wilson Silva and Alejandro Rivadeneira respectively. They explained to Paraguayan officials that they needed the false passports to perform a security check on the operations of the Chilean copper company CODELCO. (Fernandez would later tell a different cover story, that he and Townley had been sent to Paraguay to obtain passports to travel to the United States to meet with General Vernon Walters of the CIA in order to acquire a list of U.S. politicians sympathetic to the Chilean government.) Townley and Fernandez applied for, and received after about a week in Paraguay, Paraguayan passports under another set of assumed names, Townley as Juan Williams Rose and Fernandez as Alejandro Romeral Jara. They also applied for visas for entry to the United States with the new Paraguayan passports. The visas were issued routinely by the U.S. Consul on July 27, 1976. Before the two departed for the United States to complete their mission against Letelier, however, they were ordered to return to Santiago and to discontinue the operation. Fernandez and Townley believed that the mission had been wisely terminated, since they suspected that American authorities had been informed that the visas were for Chileans rather than for Paraguayans. 7/

On the same day that the U.S. Consul approved the visa applications in Paraguay, George Landau, the U.S. Ambassador to Paraguay at the time, became suspicious of the visa applications and had them and the accompanying Paraguayan passports fully photographed. [NOTE TO KOZAK: CAN WE EXPLAIN THE REASON FOR LANDAU'S SUSPICION MORE FULLY IN THIS UNCLASSIFIED DOCUMENT?] After some investigation, he decided to revoke the visas. He contacted Guanes, who in turn requested that DINA return the passports unused. The passports were cancelled and given to Landau. When Landau received the passports, the photographs of the two Chilean agents had been removed.8/how did Landau now to contact Guanes?

In early August 1976, Espinoza again contacted Fernandez and ordered him to go to the United States right away to perform surveillance on Letelier. He was to travel with a female companion, known as Liliana Walker Martinez, under the cover story that they were from the Chilean Department of Public Works on official business. Both Fernandez and Walker were given false Chilean official passports; Fernandez travelled as Armando Faundez Lyon. They entered the United States on August 26, 1976.9/

During the middle of August 1976, Espinoza also contacted Townley, telling him the mission to assassinate Letelier was "still on." Espinoza ordered Townley to contact the leadership of the CNM and secure their assistance. Townley was to meet Fernandez for a briefing on the intelligence gathered by Fernandez. He was to coordinate the assassination attempt, but to make sure the Cubans actually did the killing after he was safely out of the United States. Espinoza again emphasized to Townley that he was to make the murder look like accidental death or suicide. However, Espinoza remarked that the "bottom line" was that Letelier should be killed, and specifically approved the use of a bomb to kill Letelier if it became impossible to make the death appear accidental.10/

Before the commencement of the mission to assassinate Letelier, DINA officials began to concoct a proper cover story for the Paraguayan passport incident. Having removed the pictures from the Paraguayan passports, and unaware that Ambassador Landau had previously photographed them, Espinoza ordered two DINA agents, Army Captains Rene Riveros Valderrama and Rolando Mosqueira Jarpa to go to the United States under false official Chilean passports, Riveros under the name Juan Williams Rose, and Mosqueira under the name Alejandro Romeral Jara. They travelled to Washington, D.C. on August 22, 1976. They returned to Chile in early September 1976, but their entry into the United States under the same name as the Paraguayan visa applicants (who were actually Townley and Fernandez)

caused great confusion to investigators of the Letelier assassination for well over a year after the crime was committed.11/

Meanwhile, Fernandez was also in the United States. He called the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington, D.C. to get Letelier's home address under the pretext of having to make a delivery to him. He was told at that time that Letelier would be out of town for the next three weeks. Fernandez then went to Letelier's home address in Bethesda, Maryland and ascertained the location, confirming his information by observing a car parked in front with a Chilean insignia on the back. This, he assumed, was Letelier's automobile. After completing this task, Fernandez called Espinoza and told him that Letelier was out of town; Espinoza agreed with Fernandez that he could do nothing more in Washington, and told him he could return to Chile after taking some vacation in the U.S. Fernandez thereupon travelled to New York City with his sister on September 6, 1976, where he stayed a few days. Upon learning that his father was critically ill in Chile, Fernandez called Espinoza and requested permission to return immediately. Espinoza agreed, but informed Fernandez that Townley would be arriving in New York City that day, September 9, 1976. Espinoza ordered Fernandez to meet Townley at Kennedy International Airport that day to brief him on the information Fernandez had collected about Letelier.12/

Townley, travelling with a false Chilean official passport under the name Hans Petersen Silva, arrived at Kennedy Airport as scheduled on September 9, 1976. He carried with him some of the materials for constructing the bomb which would ultimately be used for assassinating Letelier. He met Fernandez at Kennedy Airport, and Fernandez supplied Townley with the information he had acquired regarding Letelier. Fernandez flew back to Chile with Liliana Walker that evening, and briefed Espinoza at DINA headquarters upon his arrival in Santiago. Back in the United States, Townley rented a car and headed for New Jersey.13/

In New Jersey that evening, Townley met with his old CNM associate Virgilio Paz at the Bottom of the Barrel Restaurant in Union City, N.J. He told Paz that he wished to speak with Guillermo Novo. The next day, Townley met with Novo and Suarez in the Estrella Restaurant in Union City, where Townley formally asked Novo and Suarez for assistance in the Letelier murder. The two CNM leaders responded that they would have to take the request under consideration. A few days later, they agreed to participate in the assassination. Townley called a DINA official in Chile to pass along the news of the successful recruitment of the Cubans, and to receive confirmation of his orders.

Late in the evening of September 15, 1976, Townley and Paz drove to Washington, D.C., their automobile loaded with explosives. They arrived at about 4:00 A.M. on the following day. They spent that day and the next watching Letelier, his home, and his daily movements. On September 17, they followed Letelier to work and watched the activity around his office from a restaurant across the street. That evening, Townley and Paz purchased some of the materials needed to construct the bomb at a Sears store near Letelier's home in Bethesda, Maryland. Suarez joined Paz and Townley in Washington, D.C. on September 18. The three of them purchased more materials necessary for the bomb at a Radio Shack store that evening.

They then returned to Townley's motel room where they proceeded to construct the bomb out of plastic explosives and TNT. On the night of September 18, 1976, Townley, Suarez, and Paz drove to Letelier's house to install the bomb beneath Letelier's automobile. Townley himself affixed the bomb, which was to be detonated by a remote control device, an electronic paging device which Townley had modified earlier. After returning to his motel room, Townley called his wife in Chile, informing her that the bomb had been placed, and asking her to relay that information to DINA headquarters.

Early the next morning, Townley flew to Newark using the identity Kenneth Enyart. Alvin Ross Diaz met him at the airport, then drove him to Guillermo Novo's apartment, where he recounted the events of the past few days in Washington. After visiting his sister in Westchester County, Townley went to Kennedy Airport to submit a false United States Immigration and Naturalization Service Form I-94 to show that Hans Petersen Silva, the holder of the official Chilean passport, had flown to Madrid, Spain. He then flew from Newark to Miami, Florida, still using the Kenneth Enyart identity. Townley purchased a new return ticket to Santiago with some help by LAN Chile (Chilean national airline) employees since he was short of funds. On September 20, Townley met with Felipe Rivero; the two discussed the DINA/CNM relationship generally, but not the assassination of Letelier specifically. Townley then spent the rest of the day shopping and spent the evening and night at his parents' home in Boca Raton, Florida.14/

On September 21, 1976, Townley called Ignacio Novo to arrange a meeting. Novo suggested to Townley that he should listen to the news on his car radio, as something important had happened in Washington. That "something" was that the bomb planted below Letelier's car had been detonated, killing Letelier and his assistant, Ronni Moffitt. Michael Moffitt, husband to Ronni Moffitt and also an assistant to Letelier, was in the back of the car and escaped with only minor injuries. Townley met with Ignacio Novo that day and explained to him the details of the assassination. Townley then returned to Chile on September 22, travelling under the identity of Kenneth Enyart with a fraudulently obtained U.S. passport.15/

III. THE U.S. INVESTIGATION AND THE CHILEAN COVER-UP

Upon his return to Chile, Townley informed Espinoza of the details of the mission. Espinoza seemed satisfied with the results of Townley's efforts. He destroyed the false Chilean official passport in the name of Hans Petersen Silva which Townley had used to enter the United States. Soon thereafter, Espinoza called Fernandez into his office at DINA headquarters and told Fernandez not to worry, that the assassination had been carried out by the "opposition" to the Pinochet government to discredit the regime before the Chilean Foreign Minister was scheduled to speak at the U.N. that week. Espinoza told Fernandez, "That is what you will say." Although Espinoza never told Fernandez that he had participated on a mission to assassinate Letelier, the implications of Espinoza's comments made it clear to Fernandez that that was exactly what he had done.16/

The United States government initiated its investigation under the auspices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Department of Justice immediately after the explosion in Washington on September 21, 1976. The investigation first led to the Cuban exiles. Through informers, the investigators ascertained that Guillermo Novo, Virgilio Paz, Dionisio Suarez and Alvin Ross had all participated in the crime. Further informer contact with the Cubans revealed that DINA had also been involved.17/

On June 28, 1977, Assistant United States Attorney Eugene Propper, one of the lead investigators on the Letelier case, requested the assistance of the Chilean government in the investigation of the extent of DINA contact with the Cubans during a meeting with the Chilean Ambassador to the United States, Jorge Cauas. Propper was subsequently advised that the Chilean government was initiating an investigation to provide him with the answers he sought. Special Agent Robert Scherrer of the FBI repeated Propper's request for information at a meeting with General Ernesto Baeza Michaelsen, the director of Investigaciones de Chile on July 15, 1977. Baeza told Scherrer that he would speak personally with President Pinochet to expedite the investigation. That same evening, Scherrer met Colonel Contreras, who denied having any information regarding the Cubans and their contact with his organization, DINA. After a period of delay, the Chilean government submitted a written answer to these requests to the Department of Justice which contained much obviously false information. The Chilean government's response stated that any further requests for information by the United States would have to go through the proper judicial channels in accordance with international law.18/

The only leads which the American investigators had regarding the identity of the Chilean officials involved in the Letelier assassination was that two persons travelling under official Chilean passports had entered the United States using the same names as the Chileans who had applied for visas in Paraguay in July 1976. Realizing that the Chilean government was not cooperating in the investigation, the investigators sent formal Letters Rogatory to the Chilean Supreme Court through the District Court for the District of Columbia on February 17, 1978. This was the appropriate step under international legal procedures as the Chileans had demanded. The Letters Rogatory requested that the Chilean government produce for questioning "Juan Williams Rose" and "Alejandro Romeral Jara," the names of the Chileans who had entered the United States and had applied for U.S. visas with Paraguayan passports; the investigators did not know that they were two different sets of people.19/

After the Chilean Supreme Court received the Letters Rogatory, Contreras summoned Townley to his office. Contreras was no longer the director of DINA, the name of which had by now been changed to the National Information Center (CNI). He had been promoted to General and installed as the director of the Chilean Army Engineers. He had been replaced at CNI by retired Chilean Army General Odlanier Mena. At first, Contreras suggested to Townley that he flee Chile to avoid questioning. When Townley refused, Contreras suggested a cover story that Townley had planned to travel to the United States only to obtain a list of U.S. politicians favorable to the Pinochet regime in Chile, but that the trip had never taken place.20/

Around the same time, Contreras also met with Fernandez and instructed him to deny ever having been to the United States. The new head of CNI, General Mena, refused to believe Fernandez repeated denials of his trip to the United States, and continued to press Fernandez. Fernandez returned to Contreras, who finally advised Fernandez to admit that he had travelled to the United States on official business for CODELCO, the Chilean national copper company. Later, with the help of Espinoza, Contreras and Fernandez developed the CODELCO cover story more fully: Fernandez was to explain to curious investigators that he had gone to the United States to investigate manipulation of funds by CODELCO employees.21/

The investigation began to pick up momentum when pictures of Townley and Fernandez appeared in the international press in

March, 1978, identifying them as the Chilean agents who had entered Paraguay seeking a visa for entry into the United States under false Paraguayan passports. The American investigators had attached to the Letters Rogatory the photographs of Townley and Fernandez that Ambassador Landau had copied from the false Paraguayan passports in July, 1976. The publication of the photographs swiftly led to the identification of Townley and Fernandez as the individuals that had visited both Paraguay and the United States, rather than Mosqueira and Riveros (the other "Williams" and "Romeral" who had entered the United States as part of the cover up, and who were identified by the Chilean passport numbers given in the Letters Rogatory).22/

On March 22, 1978, the Chilean government produced Riveros and Mosqueira in a Chilean court in response to the Letters Rogatory. The United States protested, in that they were not the individuals whose photographs had been included with the Letters Rogatory. The Chilean court refused to recognize the appearance of Riveros and Mosqueira as compliance with the Letters Rogatory. After continued pressure on the Chilean government, the American investigators interviewed Fernandez on March 30, 1978 before he appeared before a Chilean magistrate pursuant to the Letters Rogatory.23/

In that interview, Fernandez told the American investigators the cover story that had been arrived at with Espinoza and Contreras regarding his trip to the United States in 1976, that he and Liliana Walker had travelled to the United States to investigate irregularities at CODELCO. He also stated that he had coincidentally bumped into Townley at Kennedy Airport, and that they exchanged pleasantries before Fernandez returned to Chile. The next day, Fernandez and Townley both appeared in Chilean court in response to the Letters Rogatory. Fernandez reiterated the false cover story. Townley refused to testify; as an American citizen, he was entitled to invoke the fifth amendment privilege against self-incrimination.24/

Shortly after his refusal to testify before the Chilean judge, the United States formally requested the expulsion of Townley from Chile. On April 7, 1978, Earl Silbert, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and Enrique Montero, Chilean Undersecretary of the Interior, reached an agreement whereby Townley would be returned to the United States and Chile would henceforth cooperate in the investigation of the Letelier assassination. The next day, the Chilean government complied with the agreement and Townley was turned over to FBI agents in Chile who took him back to the United States in custody. Townley refused to make a statement until he could see General Hector Orozco Sepulveda, the special military prosecutor appointed to investigate the Letelier assassination. Upon Orozco's order to Townley to tell the truth, Townley first made a statement to Orozco, and then a statement to the American investigators after reaching a plea bargaining agreement with them.25/

Townley's statement confirmed the gravest suspicions of the American investigators. The conspiracy to assassinate Letelier reached to the highest level of the Chilean government. After the assassination, the Chilean government had actively attempted to deflect the progress of the investigation. Much of Townley's statement was later corroborated by documentary evidence, from a vivid reconstruction of the explosion that killed Letelier to Townley's travel receipts. Statements by other individuals, such as Jack Holcomb, the owner of Audio Intelligence Devices, Fernando Cruchaga, a LAN-Chile employee in New York, and Townley's wife, Mariana Callejas, also corroborated Townley's statement.26/

As Townley was finally truthfully testifying on the Letelier assassination in the United States, the attempt by the guilty parties in the Chilean government to avoid justice continued. Orozco returned to Chile with Townley's statement, and confronted Fernandez with the true account of the events in the United States in August and September of 1976. Fernandez then gave a true statement to Orozco, who in response ordered Contreras, who had resigned from the Chilean military in March 1978, to make a statement. Contreras did, after being confronted with true statements by Fernandez, Espinoza and Townley. He admitted to Orozco that he had ordered Espinoza to have Letelier assassinated. He claimed that he was acting under the authority of "the Chief," President Pinochet. After hearing Contreras' statement, Orozco told Fernandez not to worry, that everything would be taken care of.27/

On August 1, 1978, a grand jury in Washington, D.C. handed down indictments based on the results of the investigation by American law enforcement authorities. The indictment charged Contreras, Espinoza, Fernandez, Guillermo Novo, Alvin Ross, Virgilio Paz, and Dionisio Suarez with murder and conspiracy to murder in violation of the United States Code and the District of Columbia Code. It also charged Guillermo and Ignacio Novo with making false statements to a grand jury about their involvement with DINA. Only the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross were in custody in the United States; Paz and Suarez were still fugitives. Around the same time in Chile, Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras were detained in a military hospital pursuant to a provisional arrest request from the United States.28/

The United States made that formal extradition request for the three Chileans on September 21, 1978. The attorney for the United States in Chile, Alfredo Etcheberry, submitted an exhaustive argument in favor of the extradition, supported by elaborate documentation collected during the course of the investigation of the assassination. Etcheberry argued that the evidence presented was more than sufficient to meet the standards of the 1902 Extradition Treaty between Chile and the United States, which requires only enough evidence to bring the accused to trial for the offense under the laws of the nation where the fugitive is found.29/

Before the proceedings in the Chilean Supreme Court began on the extradition request, Orozco summoned Espinoza and Fernandez from their detention. Orozco then ordered them to lie in their declarations before the Supreme Court. Upon their protests that they had already provided him with truthful written declarations, Orozco returned the declarations to Fernandez and Espinoza, who promptly tore them up. Fernandez also met before the Supreme Court proceedings with President Pinochet, who told Fernandez, "Be a good soldier, tough it out and this problem will have a happy end."30/

On October 17, 1978, Contreras, Espinoza, and Fernandez lied under orders from Orozco to the Chilean Supreme Court during the extradition proceedings. Fernandez first told the court that his trip to Paraguay with Townley to obtain false passports was intended to result in a trip to the United States to meet with General Vernon Walters of the CIA to obtain a list of American politicians favorable to Chile. He then told the familiar cover story about his trip to the United States with Liliana Walker, that they were checking on irregularities in the finances of CODELCO. Contreras and Espinoza also used these cover stories in their testimony to the Supreme Court.31/

Before the Chilean courts issued a decision on the extradition request, the criminal proceedings against the defendants in custody in the United States began. On February 14, 1979, after a six week trial, a jury in the District Court for the District of Columbia found Guillermo Novo and Alvin Ross guilty on the murder and conspiracy charges, while both of the Novo brothers were convicted of lying to a grand jury about their involvement with DINA. Ross and Guillermo Novo received two consecutive sentences of life in prison for their roles in the murder, while Ignacio Novo was sentenced to eight years in prison for lying to the grand jury. Each of the defendants filed an appeal.32/

On May 13, 1979, Israel Borquez Montero, President of the Chilean Supreme Court, handed down his decision rejecting the

extradition request by the United States. He stated that, under Chilean law, the prosecution needed to show a "well-founded presumption" of the guilt of the accused before going forward with a criminal indictment. Thus, according to Borquez, the same standard was to be applied in the extradition proceedings, since the Extradition Treaty stated that the law of the nation in which the accused were located was to be determinative of the sufficiency of evidence for extradition. He held that Townley's plea bargained statement to the American investigators, which Chilean law views as a "compensated accusation" since the witness receives a reduced sentence in return for his testimony, could not be viewed as impartial under Chilean law. As such, neither Townley's testimony, nor the evidence compiled with the aid of information provided by Townley, could be afforded the weight necessary to reach the "well-founded presumption" needed to extradite Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez.

The only evidence which remained in favor of the United States' request, Borquez stated, was certain "absurd or contradictory" testimony made by Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras. Borquez ordered that these contradictions be made part of the record of the ongoing Chilean military investigation, and that they be considered in the possibility of initiating criminal action.33/

The United States appealed Borquez' decision to the full Chilean Supreme Court, which upheld Borquez' denial of the extradition request on October 1, 1979. The U.S. had argued that Borquez' decision had erred by not granting Townley's testimony the weight of a "well-founded presumption" against Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras because a number of Chilean statutes recognized the evidentiary value of plea bargained testimony. The Supreme Court ignored this contention, and went beyond Borquez' decision to invalidate evidence gathered by American investigators in Chile, because such action violated Chilean sovereignty. The Court reversed Borquez' call that the military investigation pursue the contradictions in the testimony of Fernandez, Espinoza and Contreras because criminal charges could not be based on the "suspicions" these contradictions produced. Until the United States produced new evidence beyond that which it produced for the extradition request, the Supreme Court ruled that there could be no further Chilean action on the Letelier assassination.34/

Almost a year later, on September 15, 1980, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed the criminal convictions of the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross. The murder and conspiracy convictions of Guillermo Novo and Ross were held invalid because of the admission into evidence of testimony of two informants based on unsolicited admissions of guilt made by the defendants to the informants while they were in prison with the defendants. The court based this ruling on a United States Supreme Court case decided well after the trial, and even after oral argument on the appeal was completed. The court also reversed Ignacio Novo's conviction for lying to the grand jury; the court ruled that jointly trying Ignacio Novo with the murder defendants was likely to confuse the jurors because of the complexity of the evidence and the disparity between the charges against him and the murder defendants.35/

The United States retried Guillermo Novo and Alvin Ross in early 1981. On May 30, a jury acquitted both defendants of the murder charges, and convicted Guillermo Novo of lying to a grand jury about his involvement with DINA. Ignacio Novo later pleaded guilty to the charges of lying to a grand jury. Without further access to the other indicted individuals, the criminal case could go no further in the United States. Official Chilean action on the case ended in the middle of 1982, when the Supreme Court issued an order staying the investigation in the "Passport Cases" (the Chilean government's euphemism for the Letelier assassination) pending the discovery of new evidence.36/

Because many of the crucial participants in the plot to assassinate Letelier were not before the court, the United States was hampered in its attempts to bring the conspirators in an act of international terrorism to justice. The intransigence of the Chilean Supreme Court on the extradition request and the Chilean government's refusal to conduct a full investigation into the assassination were thus instrumental in shielding the guilty parties from the consequences of their brutal actions.

IV. THE CIVIL CASE AGAINST CHILE

After the issuance of the criminal indictment in August, 1978, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt filed a civil suit in District Court for the District of Columbia. The complaint alleged that Townley, Ross, Paz, Suárez, and Ignacio and Guillermo Novo acted in concert with DINA, a governmental organ of the Republic of Chile, and its operatives Espinoza, Fernandez, and Contreras, to bring about the death of Letelier and Moffitt. This, the plaintiffs asserted, violated Letelier's and Moffitt's rights under the first amendment of the U.S. Constitution, international law, the common law, and U.S. statutory law.

The court entered a default judgment against the individual plaintiffs when they failed to respond to service of process. The government of Chile did not respond to service of process through normal channels either. Instead, Chile protested through a diplomatic note and an attached memorandum of law that it was protected from the jurisdiction of United States courts by the doctrine of sovereign immunity, more specifically, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA).

On March 11, 1980, after the first criminal conviction of the Novo brothers and Alvin Ross, the court ruled against Chile, holding that the FSIA did not protect the government of Chile from the civil jurisdiction of United States courts. The court stated that Section 1605(a)(5) of the FSIA specifically confers jurisdiction over foreign states for official non-commercial conduct which results in personal injury or death in the United States. That section exempts "discretionary" acts from its sweep, but the court held that no governmental official had "discretion" to commit political assassination. The court also held that Chile could not use the act of state doctrine as a defense in that the act in question, the assassination (rather than the planning of the assassination) took place in the United States, thus outside the jurisdiction of Chile.37/

The government of Chile did not appeal that ruling and did not participate in a trial on the merits. On November 5, 1980, the District Court for the District of Columbia entered a judgment in favor of the families of Letelier and Moffitt. The court awarded compensatory and punitive damages of approximately $5 million to the plaintiffs, making the individual defendants and the Government of Chile jointly and severally liable. Neither Chile nor the individual defendants appealed.38/

The families of Letelier and Moffitt thus became judgment creditors of the government of Chile. They sued in the District Court for the Southern District of New York in an attempt to execute the judgment against LAN-Chile, the wholly governmentally owned Chilean national airline. The government of Chile again did not participate in the proceedings; LAN-Chile, however, did appear to defend its assets against attachment.

LAN-Chile claimed that it was a "separate juridical entity" from the government of Chile and therefore not liable for the government's debts. The airline also argued that the FSIA protected a government's commercial assets from execution if those assets were unrelated to the commission of the tort. For their part, the judgment creditors asserted that the court should "pierce the corporate veil" of LAN-Chile because of LAN-Chile's participation and assistance of the assassination plot. They argued that the FSIA offered no protection to LAN-Chile because its assets were used in the commission of the

The District Court agreed with the judgment creditors. It held that "internationally recognized equitable principles" required that LAN-Chile's separate juridical existence not be recognized. The court further held that the FSIA did not prevent execution against a foreign government's commercial assets if the assets were used in the "commercial activity upon which the claim is based." Even though this section of the FSIA related to the execution of judgments based on commercial claims and not to personal injury or death caused by the actions of a foreign government official, the court held that execution was proper, because Congress would not have created "a right without a remedy" in Section 1605(a)(5) of the FSIA.39/

The Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit disagreed with the District Court's analysis and reversed its judgment. It held that LAN-Chile's separate juridical existence had to be recognized even though it was a wholly owned entity of the Republic of Chile. According to the court, the limited participation of the LAN-Chile employees in the assassination was not an "abuse" of the corporate form meriting the "piercing of the corporate veil." The court also stated that while this may leave the judgment creditors with a "right without a remedy" under American domestic law, they may be able to obtain relief by pressing their claim in an international tribunal, or if the government of Chile decided to honor the judgment as an act of goodwill. The Supreme Court denied certiorari on the judgment creditors' appeal.40/

Thus, the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt exhausted their domestic legal remedies in trying to obtain compensation from the government of Chile for its egregious act of state sponsored terrorism against their loved ones. The fact remains, however, that the families had a legally cognizable claim to damages which the government of Chile refused, and continues to refuse, to acknowledge. Despite this refusal, the families of Letelier and Moffitt have continued to pursue their claim, just as the United States continues to seek justice for both the victims and the perpetrators of the Letelier assassination.

V. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The government of Chile continued its efforts to avoid conducting a full and fair investigation when, in 1985, a military court granted Contreras' request to dismiss entirely the suspended investigation into the "Passport Cases." This decision was based on the Chilean statute of limitations for passport fraud, which is five years. The statute of limitations for murder in Chile is fifteen years, indicating the extent to which the military court continued to deny the Chilean government's role in the Letelier assassination. The Letelier family, a civil party to the suit under Chilean law, appealed the ruling. The appeal was still pending in early 1987, when a major break occurred in the Letelier case.41/

On February 4, 1987, Armando Fernandez Larios voluntarily entered the United States following discussions with several U.S. governmental officials, in which he offered to testify truthfully after pleading guilty to the charge of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of an internationally protected person. Fernandez' statement to the United States government corroborated almost entirely Michael Townley's earlier statements, reconfirming and adding to the solid body of evidence linking highly placed Chilean officials to the Letelier assassination.42/

As dramatic new evidence which the Chileans had been demanding to continue their investigation, Fernandez' voluntary decision to come forward with the truth rekindled the efforts of the Letelier and Moffitt families, in tandem with the United States government, to force the Chileans to bring the responsible parties in the Letelier assassination to justice. On May 11, 1987, the United States again formally requested by diplomatic note the expulsion from Chile of Contreras and Espinoza, the two former DINA leaders who had played a crucial role in the planning, execution and cover up of the Letelier assassination.43/

On May 22, a military court of appeal in Santiago suddenly reversed the decree of a lower court which had permanently closed the "Passport Cases." This appeal by the Letelier family had lain dormant for almost two years when the appeals court finally acted on it. The result of the reversal, however, was hardly a triumph for the Letelier family; all the court dictated was that the investigation be returned to "suspended" status, which meant that the investigation would not be reopened without new evidence.44/

On May 27, the Chilean Foreign Ministry divulged publicly the U.S. request for the expulsion of Contreras and Espinoza, and indicated to the Chilean press that it would reject the request. The Foreign Ministry took this action without responding in any formal manner to the United States. On June 17, more than a month after receipt of the diplomatic note requesting expulsion, the government of Chile rejected the United States request by its own diplomatic note, again making the content of the note public. In response, Assistant Secretary of State Elliot Abrams called Chilean Ambassador to the United States Errazuriz into his office in Washington on

June 24 to convey the deep dissatisfaction of the United States over the Chilean government's intransigence.45/

On July 17, the United States continued its diplomatic pressure on Chile to cooperate in the Letelier case by issuing a diplomatic note demanding that the Chilean government prosecute Contreras and Espinoza domestically if it would not expel them to the United States. On July 28, Assistant Secretary Abrams presented Ambassador Errazuriz with another diplomatic note, this one requesting that the government of Chile pay ex gratia compensation to the families of the victims of the Letelier assassination. According to the note, ex gratia compensation would absolve Chile of its moral responsibility to the victim's families without admitting guilt in the assassination.46/

Taking advantage of the favorable appeals court ruling in May, the Letelier family petitioned the lower military court to reopen the "Passport Cases" on August 20, 1987. The petition argued that the new evidence presented by Fernandez' testimony was more than sufficient to require a new investigation. On August 21, the United States sent another diplomatic note to the Chilean government, urging that the government of Chile grant the Letelier petition and finally cooperate in resolving the case, now over ten years old.47/

On August 28, 1987, the Chilean government delivered two diplomatic notes to the United States government. The first vigorously defended the Chilean government's decision not to expel or prosecute Contreras and Espinoza, implying that it basically considered the criminal proceedings in the Letelier case settled. The second note refused the United States request for compensation to the victim's families, denying any responsibility for the assassination and questioning the exercise by the United States courts of jurisdiction in the civil suit against Chile. Far from indicating any willingness to cooperate in bringing the case to an end, the Chilean government offered only to take the question of the jurisdiction of American courts to an international tribunal.48/

On October 13, 1987, a Chilean military court refused to reopen the "Passport Cases," ruling that the new evidence submitted, Fernandez' statement about his involvement in the Letelier assassination, lacked any "probative value." The United States issued a strongly worded statement decrying Chile's continued lack of cooperation, and even obstruction of justice, on October 16. On October 20, the Foreign Ministry of Chile publicly responded to the United States' statement by disingenuously claiming that it had cooperated with the investigation all along. The same day, the Letelier family

filed an appeal of the October 13 refusal to reopen the "Passport Cases" in a military appeals court.[49]

In an attempt to push the investigation further, the United States served General Orozco, the investigator assigned to the Letelier case at the time of Townley's expulsion, with a Letter Rogatory, requesting information about his knowledge of many aspects of the affair. The Chilean courts stalled for several months before finally requiring a response from Orozco. On April 14, 1988, the Chilean Supreme Court refused to require Orozco to answer all but twelve of the some 250 questions put to him by the United States. When Orozco's responses were received, they were in general evasive or obviously false.[50]

On May 4, 1988, the Chilean military appeals court upheld the refusal of the lower court to reopen the "Passport Cases." The Letelier family appealed this decision to the Chilean Supreme Court. This last hope of forcing some form of cooperation from the Chilean government was extinguished on July 14, 1988, when the Supreme Court affirmed the decision to keep the "Passport Cases" in suspension on the grounds that Fernandez' confession added nothing new to the evidence already available.[51]

VI. THE CURRENT POSTURE OF THE CASE

Because of the refusal of diplomatic and legal requests for assistance by the United States, and the exhaustion of domestic legal proceedings, both criminal and civil in the United States and Chile by the United States government and the families of the victims of the Letelier and Moffitt murders, the United States has chosen to espouse the claims of the United States citizens involved in the case. The Department of State has formally requested through diplomatic channels that the government of Chile pay the United States and the claimants it represents $12 million in compensation for the personal and national injury the Chilean government's participation and cover up of the Letelier assassination has caused. The government of Chile has formally denied this request as well. The United States demands that Chile cooperate in seeing justice done for both the families of the victims and the participants in this act of political terrorism, the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. It will not rest until a satisfactory resolution has been reached.[52]

ANNOTATION

This annotation refers the reader to the documentation for this account currently available in State Department files. Well known historical facts are not cited here. Where additional documentary support may be needed to support assertions in the summary, or where any weakness exists in State Department files, it has been noted here.

Much of the documentary-type evidence (as opposed to testimony-type evidence) in the Extradition Request Documents package are illegible. This is a result of the poor quality if the copies at the U.S. Attorney's office. The original photographs of these documents are in the files at the U.S. Attorney's Office; each document can be identified by its number on the list of documents which precedes the package. The appropriate file box numbers for the extradition materials can be identified by the Letelier Case File Manifest which also precedes the package.

2. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 44-47; Callejas Grand Jury Testimony, E.R. #96, pp. 12-15.

4. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 2-5.

5. Fernandez Proffer to District Court, D.S. #2, pp. 2-3, 7. There are some points in Townley's statement which contradict Fernandez' claims about how little he knew about the purpose of the mission. In this case, however, Townley's statement corroborates that Fernandez stayed in the car during Townley's initial meeting with Espinoza.

6. Guanes Statement, E.R. #114; Cable from DINA, E.R. #115; Scherrer Statement, E.R. #116.

7. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 4-13; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 3-4; Photographs of Townley's and Fernandez' False Paraguayan Passports and U.S. Visa Applications, E.R. #49-52 and 128-130.

8. Scherrer Statement, E.R. #51; Guanes Statement, E.R. #114.

As indicated in the text, there is more information available regarding how Landau became suspicious. Since this information about the Paraguayan Passport incident is important to the ultimate solution of the case, we should determine whether this information can be used in this unclassified document, or whether it should be declassified.

9. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 4-5; "Faundez" and "Walker" Travel Documents; E.R. #131-34. The true identity of Liliana Walker remains unknown.

10. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 14-15.

11. Riveros and Mosqueira Statements and Travel Documents, E.R. #141-49. There appears to be some contradiction in the explanations of the purpose of Riveros' and Mosqueira's trip to the U.S. They claimed they were making a delivery to a Chilean Army General Floody in the U.S, for Espinoza. Floody asserts that they told him they were in the U.S. to make contact with CIA operative General Vernon Walters. See Floody's Statement, E.R. #150. General Walters, for his part, claims he had no contact with DINA after his retirement in June 1976, and that therefore Floody's version of events is absurd. See Walter's Statement, E.R. #151. In fact, Mosqueira used the "General Walters" cover story later in his testimony before the Chilean Supreme Court in the extradition proceedings. See Borquez Extradition Decision, D.S. #7. It is most likely that the "Walters" cover story was actually used by Riveros and Mosqueira, since Fernandez later used the same story to explain his and Townley's mission to Paraguay before the Chilean Supreme Court during the extradition proceedings in 1978. The use of the same story to cover for the missions to Paraguay and the U.S. by the different "Williams'" and "Romerals" would have neatly completed the open circle created by the failed mission to Paraguay, that is if Landau hadn't copied the photographs on the false Paraguayan passports, thereby exposing the Chilean cover up of the Paraguay mission.

12. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 4-6; Etcheberry Submission for Extradition Request, D.S. #6, p. 61. For documents confirming the dates of Fernandez' presence in the U.S. under the name of Faundez Lyon, see E.R. #133-38.

13. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 15-16; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 6. It is here, in the explanation of what Fernandez told Townley, that the contradictions between the testimony of Townley and Fernandez are most acute. Townley indicates that Fernandez told him, in some detail, about Letelier's automobile, his place of work, and his "daily movements." [TRANSLATION OF SPANISH VERSION OF TOWNLEY STATEMENT CORRESPONDING TO MISSING PAGES 17-18 OF THE ENGLISH

VERSION IS NEEDED AS THE PAGES ARE MISSING FROM U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.] If this is true, it contradicts Fernandez statement that Letelier was out of town at the time of his visit, and that he only observed Letelier's house and car in Letelier's absence. It is unclear whether Letelier was in Washington while Fernandez was there, which could be a crucial fact in verifying Fernandez' testimony. Both the Schedule of Letelier's Activities, D.S. #32, and Etcheberry's Submission for the Extradition Request, D.S. #6, pp. 60-61, indicate that Letelier was present in Washington for 3-4 days while Fernandez was there.

14. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 19-39. This description of events is entirely Townley's, although some of it is corroborated by his wife, Mariana Callejas' Grand Jury Testimony, E.R. #96. Furthermore, there is a good deal of documentary evidence which supports Townley's story. See E.R. #55-73.

15. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, p. 39; Townley's Passport and Passport Application under the name Kenneth Enyart, E.R. #42-43.

16. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 39-40; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 7. Again, the extent of Fernandez' knowledge about the purpose of his mission to the U.S. may be greater than he admits.

17. Cornick and Scherrer Affidavit Summarizing Canete's Testimony, D.S. #3; Propper Statement, E.R. #155.

19. Propper Statement, E.R. #155; Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157.

20. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, pp. 41-42. Note that this is the same cover story used to explain the Paraguayan passport trip and the trip by Riveros and Mosqueira to the U.S.

21. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 7-9. Townley's statement mentions that that Townley, Fernandez and Contreras met at this time to plan the cover up. Fernandez does not mention any such meeting, so my text does not include it.

22. Townley Statement, E.R. #41, p. 41; Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, pp. 9-10; Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157. Fernandez statement sems a bit confused about the sequence of events that led to his identification as "Romeral." This may be attributable to the fact that he made his statement nearly ten years after these occurrences. Townley's version seems closer to the other historical accounts I have read about the timing of these events. See also E.R. #139-41, documents identifying Townley and Fernandez as the DINA agents who were in Paraguay and later the United States.

23. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 10. We need unclassified information which documents the presentation of Riveros and Mosqueira in response to the Letters Rogatory. The Letters Rogatory, E.R. #157, may provide this information if some of the material after the actual questions are translated into English (this may be useful anyway). We also may benefit if we can locate the official answers provided by Fernandez to the Letters Rogatory.

24. Etcheberry Submission for Extradition Request, D.S. #6, p. 49. Again, Fernandez' official answer to the Letters Rogatory, or some other unclassified information regarding his testimony would be useful here.

25. Fernandez Proffer, D.S. #2, p. 11; Silbert/Montero Agreement, D.S. #4. It is unclear why the Chilean government decided to expel Townley. Possibly, Townley's expulsion was a result of intergovernmental rivalries, especially that between Contreras and Mena. The desire on Mena's part to discredit his rival and predecessor, Contreras, briefly dominated the Chilean response to the American investigation. However, when it was discovered that Contreras was willing to implicate even Pinochet in the assasination, the Chilean government again started stonewalling. See infra note 28. This rivalry between Mena and Contreras is detailed in historical accounts (specifically Labyrinth). It should probably be discussed in the text here or at an earlier point (text accompanying notes 21 or 22) if reliable unclassified or declassified information can be found.

ADS,

Attached are 3 Letelier papers for your review + comment.

① A new set of talking points for your consideration.

② A counter-proposal to Chile's chronology. Our additions are in CAPS and deletions are in brackets.

③ A counter draft of a statement of facts.

It would be nice to work #2-3 [redacted] out with Chile next week, or at least pass them the documents early in the week so that the ball is in their court before the meeting.

Concept Paper

1. The Government of Chile would make an ex gratia payment of an acceptable amount to the Letelier/Moffitt families, victims of the assassination which occurred in Washington, D.C., in 1976. In response:

a. the families of the victims would seek an order vacating the judgment they obtained against the Republic of Chile;

b. the U.S. Government would drop its espousal of the claims of the families of the victims;

c. the U.S. Government would drop its claim against the Government of Chile;

d. the Department of State would inform interested members of Congress, expressing the view that further efforts to legislate a remedy to provide fair compensation to the families of the victims was no longer necessary.

2. The Government of Chile would inform the United States of efforts it is making, and that it intends to make, to bring to justice the persons responsible for the Letelier assassination. These would include: seeking an amendment of Chilean law to provide for prosecution in civil courts of military personnel accused of criminal conduct; reopening the "passports case;" and, appointing a special prosecutor.

3. The United States would make the findings required by Sec. 726 of the International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1981 (the Kennedy-Harkin Amendment) and by 545(c)(2) of the FY 1990 Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Act (P.L. 101-167).

4. The Governments of Chile and the United States of America would make the appointments necessary to fill the vacancies on the 1914 Treaty Commission and agree that either government could constitute the Commission if it was considered necessary to pursue justice and to resolve the Letelier case.

5. These steps could be taken simultaneously or in the sequential order listed. They could be recorded in a memorandum of understanding between the governments or they could be taken based on an informal understanding between governments.

Resolutions on Chile at U.N. Human Rights Commission

As a result of the many gross violations of human rights following the 1973 coup, the Human Rights Commission of the United Nations (UNHRC) in 1979 appointed a Special Rapporteur to examine the state of human rights in Chile. Unlike most other countries with human rights problems, which are considered under agenda item 12 by the UNHRC at its annual meeting in Geneva, Chile was singled out for special attention by being placed under a separate item (5). The mandate of the Special Rapporteur is still in effect and resolutions on human rights in Chile are annually voted on and approved at both the UN General Assembly in New York in November and the February meeting of the UNHRC in Geneva.

In past years, Mexico has taken the lead in drafting and circulating resolutions on human rights in Chile, both in New York and in Geneva. These resolutions have usually been excessively negative and unbalanced, due in part to pressure from the large Chilean exile community in Mexico and the Mexican Government's own foreign policy agenda. They have received overwhelming support, however, even from the democracies of Latin America and Western Europe.

Our position at Geneva and at the UNGA in New York has been to seek the passage of balanced, fair resolutions on Chile which accurately reflect the human rights situation. We feel that for the UNHRC to have a positive effect in improving the climate for basic liberties in Chile, these resolutions should both point out improvements made by the Chilean Government and identify areas where further gains are needed. In 1986, we introduced our own resolution at the UNHRC, which was approved, and in the following year we negotiated sufficient changes in the Mexican resolution to be able to vote in favor of it. In 1988, we abstained on a Mexican text which we found overly negative.

The current session of the UNHRC is now in progress. Our delegation will again seek a balanced, fair resolution which reflects the many improvements made by the GOC in 1988 in human rights. Last November, the UN General Assembly approved a resolution which went a long way toward achieving such balance (we abstained, but noted this improvement) and, if another such resolution is presented in Geneva, we could probably support it with minor changes. Our delegation will, without taking the lead on a Chile resolution, seek to moderate any text the Mexican may introduce and will at the same time suggest that Chile in the future be considered under item 12 rather than item 5 by the UNHRC.

SUBJ: PINOCHET INTERVIEW IN "LE MONDE"

1. (U) SUMMARY: IN A YEAR-END INTERVIEW WITH THE FRENCH DAILY "LE MONDE", PRESIDENT PINOCHET COMMENTED ON HIS PLEBISCITE DEFEAT (ADMITTING THAT FOR THE MOMENT, IT WAS BETTER THAT HE LOST), THE PRESENT AND NEAR-TERM POLITICAL SITUATION AND HIS PLACE IN HISTORY. CONCERNING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, HE ADMITTED THERE HAD BEEN EXCESSES BUT NOTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS "ACCELERATING" THE JUDICIAL PROCESSING OF SUCH CASES. HE ALSO ACKNOWLEDGED TENTATIVE, INITIAL CONTACTS WITH THE SOVIET UNION BUT, NEVERTHELESS, EMPHASIZED THAT THE GREATEST THREAT FACING CHILE CONTINUES TO BE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) REPORTED IN THE DECEMBER 31 EDITION OF "LE MONDE" AND REPUBLISHED IN "EL MERCURIO", PINOCHET'S FIRST POST-PLEBISCITE INTERVIEW FOCUSED ON HIS PERCEPTIONS OF HIS PLEBISCITE DEFEAT AND THE RESULTANT POLITICAL ACTIVITY LEADING TO OPEN

ELECTIONS NEXT DECEMBER. BENEFITING FROM AN EXTENDED REST, HE SAID HE FELT "LIKE NEW" AND AS STRONG AS HE HAS BEEN FOR THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS. NEVERTHELESS, HE MAINTAINED HE WAS GOING TO KEEP HIS DISTANCE FROM THE UPCOMING POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, AND "LET OTHERS WORK OR UNLEASH DISORDER". HE IS SIMPLY "GOING TO OBSERVE-NOTHING MORE".

3. (U) ASKED ABOUT HIS PLEBISCITE DEFEAT, HE SAID "WE LOST ON POINTS, BUT NOT BY A KNOCKOUT". HE THEN OPINED THAT IT WAS PROBABLY BETTER THAT HE LOST BECAUSE IF HE HAD WON, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN CALLED FRAUDULENT, AND IN ANY CASE, "NOW THERE ARE GOING TO BE ELECTIONS". HE WENT ON TO BLAME HIS DEFEAT ON CHILEANS' "PROVERBIAL BAD MEMORY" AND ON THE INTERVENTION OF THE CHURCH, THE NORTH AMERICANS (AND SPECIALLY AMBASSADOR BARNES), THE RUSSIANS AND THE EUROPEANS. CONCERNING THE SOLIDARITY OF THE ARMED FORCES, PINOCHET COMPARED HIMSELF TO NAPOLEAN, NOTING THAT HE HAD SEEN CARABINEROS CRYING AT HIS DEFEAT ON OCTOBER 5 AND THAT HE IS APPLAUDED WHENEVER HE VISITS THE REGIMENTS. HE ALSO COMPARED HIMSELF TO A ROMAN EMPEROR -- CINCINATUS -- WHO, ACCORDING TO PINOCHET, LEFT HIS PLOW AT THE REQUEST OF HIS COMPATRIOTS TO LIFT THE SEIGE OF ROME. AFTER DOING SO AND RECEIVING THE HONORS AND ACCLAMATION DUE HIM, HE RETURNED TO HIS PLOW.

4. (U) CONCERNING THE RETURN TO DEMOCRACY, PINOCHET REITERATED HIS PERENNIAL CAUTION THAT "DEMOCRACY HAS AN AQUILLES HEEL. IT PERMITS THOSE WHO WANT TO DESTROY IT, TO INFILTRATE AND DESTROY IT FROM WITHIN." THE APPROACHING POLITICAL SCENE IS VIEWED AS "VERY CONFUSING". A CONSENSUS "OPPOSITION" CANDIDATE WOULD "BE OBLIGATED TO ACCEDE TO PRESSURES FROM THE MOST RADICALIZED SECTORS". A VICTORY BY THE OPPOSITION "WOULD CONSTITUTE A GRAVE THREAT TO THE PROGRESS ACHIEVED THESE LAST YEARS". WHEN ASKED ABOUT A POSSIBLE CONFLICT OVER HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES BETWEEN A FUTURE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AND THE ARMED FORCES, HE REJECTED THE LIKELIHOOD BECAUSE "THE COMMANDERS IN CHIEF MUST REMAIN AT THEIR POSTS ANOTHER EIGHT YEARS, AS STATED IN THE CONSTITUTION". HE THEN

ADMITTED THAT THEIR HAD BEEN "EXCESS IN THE FIGHT AGAINST TERRORISM", BUT THAT THE GOVERNMENT "HAD DECIDED TO ACCELERATE THE JUDICIAL PROCESS" IN SUCH CASES. AS AN EXAMPLE, HE REFERRED TO THE RECENTLY ANNOUNCED JAIL SENTENCE (541 DAYS) FOR THE SOLDIER CONVICTED OF THE BURNING DEATH OF A YOUNG PROTESTER. "AN OFFICER HAS BEEN CONDEMNED, AND OTHER SUCH MATTERS ARE EQUALLY IN THE PROCESS OF BEING JUDGED."

5. (U) QUESTIONED ABOUT REESTABLISHING CONTACT WITH THE SOVIET UNION, THE PRESIDENT DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY, THEN ADMITTED THERE HAD BEEN "DISCREET CONVERSATIONS IN SWITZERLAND" AND THAT

CHILE IS BEGINNING TO HAVE "COMMERCIAL RELATIONS" WITH THE SOVIETS "INDIRECTLY THROUGH MEXICO". NEVERTHELESS, HE REAFFIRMED THAT HE DOES NOT BELIEVE IN "PERESTROIKA" OR THAT IT WILL MODIFY THE COMMUNIST THREAT. "IF THERE ARE TRUE CHANGES, THEN YES. I AM LIKE SAINT THOMAS; I BELIEVE WHAT I SEE."

6. (C) COMMENT: PINOCHET'S VIEW OF HIMSELF AS A BATTLE-WEARY GENERAL, BEATEN BUT NOT DEFEATED IN THE VALIANT DEFENSE OF HIS COUNTRY, IS ONE WHICH WILL PROBABLY MOTIVATE HIS FUTURE ACTIONS TO SOME EXTENT. ANOTHER FACTOR,

ARTICLE 12. IRONICALLY, EARLIER THAT DAY MEMBERS OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION HAD MET WITH THE AMBASSADOR AND URGED THAT THE USG ACTIVELY SUPPORT RETENTION OF ITEM 5 TO UNDERSCORE THE CONTINUING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IN CHILE. EMBASSY BELIEVES THAT THE USG SHOULD ACTIVELY AND FORCE-

FULLY SEEK DELETION OF ITEM 5, IN ORDER TO ENCOURAGE THOSE IN THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT WHO ARE COMMITTED TO EFFECTING A TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. IN ADDITION, MOVEMENT OF CHILE TO ITEM 12 SHOULD STRENGTHEN OUR ARGUMENT FOR MOVING CUBA TO ITEM 12 AS WELL. DEPARTMENT SHOULD THEREFORE REVISE AND STRENGTHEN THE LANGUAGE ON CHILE IN PARA 9(C) OF REF B. AMBASSADOR WILL RAISE THIS ISSUE WITH HA AND IO DURING HIS WASHINGTON CONSULTATIONS BEGINNING JANUARY 26. END SUMMARY.

3. (C) ON JANUARY 18, ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER COLONEL RAMON VALDES REQUESTED A MEETING WITH AMBASSADOR ON SHORT NOTICE, TO PRESENT A MEMORANDUM REQUESTING THAT THE "USG... JOINTLY PRESENT WITH OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION A PROCEDURAL MOTION, AT THE OPENING OF THE SESSION OF THE (UNHRC), TO DEFINITIVELY END THE INDIVIDUAL MENTION OF CHILE IN THE AGENDA OF THE UNHRC. SPECIFICALLY, THE REQUEST JZNQJM KC) VALDES DID NOT INDICATE WHICH WERE THE "OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION" REFERRED TO IN THE MEMORANDUM.

5. (C) COINCIDENTALLY, JUST BEFORE MEETING WITH VALDES, THE AMBASSADOR PAID COURTESY CALL ON MEMBERS OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, WHO MADE A STRONG PLEA THAT THE USG NOT ATTEMPT TO DELETE

ITEM 5 IN FAVOR OF TREATING THE CHILEAN SITUATION IN ITEM 12. COMMISSION ARGUED THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO HIGHLIGHT THE FACT THAT, THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE NOTWITHSTANDING, THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE CONTINUES TO VIOLATE HUMAN RIGHTS AND RETAINS THE LEGAL AND GOVERNMENTAL FRAMEWORK TO REIMPOSE SUCH RESTRICTIONS AS EXILE, PRESS CENSORSHIP AND FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY.

6. (C) COMMENT: CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS THAT THE POLITICAL OPENING IN CHILE, CHARACTERIZED BY THE FREE AND FAIR PLEBISCITE, HAS OBSCURED THE FACT THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES CONTINUE AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE RETAINS CONSIDERABLE AUTHORITY TO REIMPOSE RESTRICTIVE MEASURES. THEY ARE OF COURSE CORRECT. THE PLACE TO RECOGNIZE CONTINUING HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS, HOWEVER, IS IN THE TEXT OF THE UNHRC RESOLUTION ON CHILE, NOT BY SINGLING OUT CHILE IN A SPECIAL AGENDA ITEM. WE HAVE MADE THIS

CLEAR TO CHILE'S HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS, AND ALTHOUGH THEY DO NOT WELCOME OUR POSITION, IT COMES AS NO SURPRISE TO THEM.

THIS YEAR'S UNHRC MEETING. 9. (U) INFORMAL TRANSLATION OF CHILEAN MEMORANDUM:

- (U) "DURING THE COMING MONTHS OF FEBRUARY AND MARCH, THE 45TH SESSION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS WILL BE HELD IN THE CITY OF GENEVA, SWITZERLAND. AS IN PREVIOUS YEARS, THE AGENDA FOR THIS COMMISSION WILL CONTAIN ITEM 5, ENTITLED "THE QUESTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE."

-(U) "THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE CONSIDERS THAT THE MAINTENANCE OF THIS AFFAIR AS A SPECIAL THEME OF THE AGENDA OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION CONSTITUTES A DISCRIMINATORY TREATMENT, IN SINGLING OUT ONLY CHILE BY ASSIGNING IT A SEPARATE AGENDA ITEM. IN CONTRAST, SITUATIONS WHICH AFFECT OR COULD AFFECT OTHER COUNTRIES ARE CONSIDERED IN A GENERAL FRAMEWORK, ARTICLE 12 OF THE AGENDA, ENTITLED "QUESTION OF VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL LIBERTIES IN WHATEVER PART OF THE WORLD..."

-(U) "BECAUSE OF THIS, THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE ASKS YOUR EXCELLENCY'S GOVERNMENT, A MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION, TO PRESENT IN CONJUNCTION WITH OTHER COUNTRIES OF THE REGION A PROCEDURAL MOTION AT THE OPENING OF THE SESSION OF THE CITED ORGANIZATION, TO EFFECT THE DEFINITIVE END OF THE INDIVIDUAL MENTION OF CHILE IN THE AGENDA OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. -(U) "BESIDES BEING DISCRIMINATORY, THE MAINTENANCE OF ITEM 5 TO SINGLE OUT THE CHILEAN SITUATION, THE EVOLUTION OF ITS POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROCESS, RECOGNIZED BY ITS OWN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, MR. FERNANDO VOLIO JIMENEZ, AS WELL AS IN THE TEXT

TAGS: OREP, PREL, ECON, CI
SUBJECT: CODEL WIRTH VISIT TO SANTIAGO JANUARY 11-12

1. (C) BEGIN SUMMARY: CODEL WIRTH, DURING THEIR TWO-DAY STAY IN SANTIAGO, MET WITH A CROSS-SECTION OF CHILEANS INTERESTED IN DEBT AND ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES. DURING REPRESENTATIONAL EVENTS, THE CODEL ALSO HAD A CHANCE TO MEET WITH MOST OF THE TOP POLITICAL LEADERS. FOR ITS PART, THE GOC GAVE A CORDIAL WELCOME TO THE CODEL. CONGRESSMEN BRYANT AND SIKORSKI RAISED WITH THE FOREIGN AND INTERIOR MINISTERS THE CONTINUING U.S. INTEREST IN RESOLVING THE LETELIER CASE AND ENDING THE INTERNAL EXILE OF TWO CHILEAN LABOR LEADERS. END SUMMARY.

2. (C) AT A RECEPTION AND A LUNCH AT THE AMBASSADOR'S RESIDENCE, SENATORS WIRTH AND SHELBY AND CONGRESSMEN BRYANT AND SIKORSKI MET WITH A BROAD SPECTRUM OF CHILEAN POLITICAL, BUSINESS, ENVIRONMENTAL AND MEDIA LEADERS. THE CODEL MEMBERS TALKED AT LENGTH WITH POLITICAL LEADERS (BOTH SUPPORTERS OF THE "SI" AND "NO" OPTIONS) ABOUT THE REASONS FOR THE VICTORY OF THE OPPOSITION IN THE PLEBISCITE AND POLITICAL PLANS FOR THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS. RENOVACION NACIONAL LEADER MIGUEL OTERO ATTRIBUTED THE LOSS TO PINOCHET'S BEING IN OFFICE FOR SO LONG AND THE IMAGE OF THE REGIME. CONGRESSMAN SIKORSKI TALKED AT LENGTH WITH ACTING PRESIDENT OF THE UNIFIED WORKER'S CENTRAL (CUT) DIEGO OLIVARES ABOUT THE INTERNAL EXILE OF CUT PRESIDENT MANUEL BUSTOS AND VICE PRESIDENT ARTURO MARTINEZ. HE ALSO DISCUSSED THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE WITH PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION JAIME CASTILLO. SERGIO DIEZ, AN ANNOUNCED CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF CHILE IN THE DECEMBER 1989 ELECTIONS, LISTENED INTENTLY TO PRACTICAL ADVICE ON CAMPAIGNING AND THE USE OF TELEVISION GIVEN HIM BY HIS LUNCHEON PARTNER, MRS. SHELBY.

3. (LOU) SENATORS SHELBY AND WIRTH ALSO REVIEWED THE CHILEAN DEBT SWAP PROVISIONS WITH CHILEAN AND AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN INVOLVED WITH THE PROGRAM. SENATOR SHELBY AND CONGRESSMAN BRYANT HAD EXTENSIVE DISCUSSIONS WITH FORMER GOC DEBT NEGOTIATOR HERNAN SOMERVILLE. (SOMERVILLE WILL BE IN WASHINGTON THE WEEK OF JANUARY 23 AND SENATOR SHELBY EXPRESSED AN INTEREST IN GETTING TOGETHER WITH HIM. DETAILS WILL FOLLOW SEPTEL.)

4. (LOU) AT A WORKING BREAKFAST, THREE RESIDENT CORRESPONDENTS FOR U.S. MEDIA IN CHILE (KEVIN NOBLETTE OF AP, TOM HARVEY OF UPI, AND MALCOLM COAD OF THE WASHINGTON POST) REVIEWED THE POLITICAL SITUATION HERE. WHILE THEY NOTED GREATER FREEDOM OF THE PRESS OVER THE PAST SIX MONTHS, THEY ALSO POINTED OUT THE SUBTLE CONTROL MECHANISMS BOTH OVER THE PRESS AND POLITICAL DISSIDENTS IN GENERAL. DESPITE AN OVERALL ATMOSPHERE OF OPTIMISM ABOUT CHILE'S DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION PERVASIVE SINCE THE OCTOBER 5TH PLEBISCITE, THEY ALSO SAID THAT THEY THOUGHT THAT SYSTEMATIC HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES BY SECURITY FORCES CONTINUE TO OCCUR. THEY CHARACTERIZED THE OPPOSITION POLITICAL GROUPS AS PRAGMATIC AND THOUGHT IN TODAY'S TERMS, THAT A UNIFIED OPPOSITION CANDIDATE, MOST LIKELY A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT, WOULD WIN THE DECEMBER PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.

5. (U) THE CODEL MET WITH A NUMBER OF EXPERTS ACTIVE IN ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES IN CHILE. GUILLERMO GEISSE OF CIPMA, AN ENVIRONMENTAL THINK TANK, REVIEWED THE NGO OVERVIEW OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS IN CHILE. GEISSE STRESSED THAT CIPMA WAS THE OFFICIAL ORGANIZER OF THE "CHILEAN ENVIRONMENTAL CONFERENCE" AND THAT THE THIRD ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD IN CONCEPCION, WITH WWF/AID FUNDING SUPPORT. ARTURO RIED, OF THE FISHERIES DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE (IFOP), GAVE THE GOC PERSPECTIVE ABOUT MARINE POLLUTION. RIED REPORTED THAT IFOP DID A COMPLETE SURVEY ABOUT MARINE POLLUTION SOURCES ABOUT THREE YEARS AGO. THAT RESEARCH HAD ALSO THE SUPPORT OF THE COMISION PERMANENTE DEL PACIFICO SUR (CPPS), WHICH INCLUDES COLOMBIA, ECUADOR, PERU AND CHILE.

JAIME UNDURRAGA, HAVING TWO HATS -- EXXON MINING AND AMCHAM --, PRESENTED PRIVATE ENTERPRISE VIEWS ON ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS. UNDURRAGA HIGHLIGHTED THE GOOD RELATIONSHIPS CURRENTLY EXISTING BETWEEN NGOS, UNIVERSITIES AND THE PRIVATE SECTOR. AUGUSTA GRANO OF PARTNERS OF THE AMERICAS, REFERRED TO THE EXISTING UNOFFICIAL NETWORK OF INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTARY AGENCIES, NGOS IN CHILE AND ABROAD, AND ENVIRONMENTALISTS WITHIN THE GOC AND OTHER OFFICIAL INSTITUTIONS. FINALLY, GUILLERMO MANN, IN HIS CAPACITY AS V.P. FOR CONSERVATION INTERNATIONAL AND A CHILEAN CITIZEN, PRESENTED THE INTERNATIONAL VIEW OF THE ENVIRONMENT IN LATIN AMERICA. MANN'S PRESENTATION WAS FOCUSED ON THE DIFFICULTY OF OBTAINING SUSTAINED DEVELOPMENT WITHOUT RISKING THE ENVIRONMENT. THE FACT THAT LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES HAVE A LARGE FOREIGN DEBT HAS CREATED AN INCENTIVE TO INCREASE PRODUCTION AND EXPORTS DESPITE ENVIRONMENTAL DEGRADATION.

6. (U) JUAN ANDRES FONTAINE, RESEARCH DIRECTOR AND FRANCISCO GARCES, INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE CENTRAL BANK OF CHILE, BRIEFED THE CODEL ON THE PROGRESS THE CHILEAN ECONOMY HAS MADE SINCE THE 1982 CRASH HIT LATIN AMERICA. CHILE HAS ESSENTIALLY CARRIED ITS STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT TOWARDS INCREASING SAVINGS AND EXPORTS, AND DECREASING THE BURDEN OF ITS EXTERNAL DEBT. FONTAINE EXPLAINED THAT IN 1988, CHILE'S PER CAPITA GDP SURPASSED BY 2.0 PERCENT THE LEVEL IN 1980. CHILE HAS ALSO MANAGED TO GROW BY 5.4 PERCENT ON AVERAGE SINCE 1985. UNEMPLOYMENT HAS DECLINED TO 7.1 PERCENT OF THE LABOR FORCE AND INFLATION IS LARGELY UNDER CONTROL IN THE 12-PERCENT RANGE. OVER THE MEDIUM-TERM,

7. (LOU) REGARDING THE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS, FONTAINE SAID THAT NO BOP FINANCING IS NEEDED IN 1989-1990. IN 1991, CHILE IS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN FULL AMORTIZATION OF ITS EXTERNAL DEBT AND THAT WILL HAVE TO BE ACHIEVED WITH SUPPORT FROM THE INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL MARKETS. FONTAINE FELT THAT THE EXTERNAL DEBT WILL MOST LIKELY BE RESCHEDULED IN 1991.

8. (LOU) GARCES SPOKE ON CHILE'S DEBT REDUCING MECHANISMS WHICH HAVE CUT OVER U.S. DOLS 6 BILLION FROM CHILE'S EXTERNAL DEBT. DEBT SWAPS HAVE ALSO INCREASED THE FLOW OF NEW INVESTMENT TO CHILE. QUESTIONED BY SENATOR SHELBY AS TO WHAT CHILE WOULD LIKE TO SEE IN THE FORM OF A DEBT PLAN, GARCES OUTLINED A "CHILEAN PLAN":

-- A DEBT SCHEME SHOULD REWARD COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE RESTRUCTURED AND SERVICED THEIR EXTERNAL DEBT.

-- INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND DEBT GO TOGETHER, AND MARKETS MUST REMAIN OPEN.

-- INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS MUST BE CAPITALIZED SO THAT THEY CAN CONTINUE PLAYING A ROLE IN THE RESTRUCTURING OF LDC ECONOMIES.

-- VOLUNTARY MARKETS MUST REWARD COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE MADE MACRO ADJUSTMENTS.

-- COOPERATION AMONG INDUSTRIAL COUNTRIES ON THE DEBT PROBLEM, NOT JUST ON ECONOMIC POLICY.

9. (C) FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ GAVE THE CODEL A VERY CORDIAL WELCOME. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION BY SENATOR SHELBY, MINISTER ERRAZURIZ EXPLAINED HOW THE JAPANESE WERE INCREASING THEIR MARKETS IN CHILE THROUGH AID PROGRAMS THAT ACTUALLY AIMED AT EXPANDING JAPANESE TRADE TO CHILE. THE ONE CHILEAN EXPORT SUCCESS TO JAPAN OUTSIDE OF COPPER HAS BEEN GRAPES. BY FOCUSING ON ONE ISSUE AND HAVING YEARS OF PATIENCE, THE CHILEANS SUCCEEDED IN OPENING THE MARKET. ERRAZURIZ ALSO REVIEWED THE INCREASE IN AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND INVESTMENT IN CHILE.

AND THE PROCEDURES FOR THE DECEMBER 14 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS. HE INDICATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT THIS YEAR WAS GOING TO GIVE ADDITIONAL FOCUS TO HEALTH AND EDUCATION. IN ADDITION, OVER THE NEXT YEAR, THE GOC WOULD INCREASE CIVILIAN PARTICIPATION TO PHASE THE MILITARY OUT OF GOVERNMENT.

13. (C) CACERES ALSO REVIEWED THE ECONOMIC SITUATION, ESPECIALLY HOW CHILE EVOLVED ITS DEBT STRATEGY WHEN HE WAS FINANCE MINISTER IN 1982-83. CHILE MADE SIGNIFICANT STRUCTURAL REFORMS (WHICH CACERES LISTED AS THE MOST IMPORTANT FIRST STEP) AND THEN WORKED OUT ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS. IT THEN BROUGHT IN THE IMF AND WORLD BANK FOR CREDIT WHEN THE BANKS BOWED OUT. HE FELT THAT CHILE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED AGAIN FOR VOLUNTARY LENDING BY THE BANKS.

14. (C) COMMENT:
WHEN THE SENSITIVE CASES OF LETELIER AND BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ WERE RAISED, ERRAZURIZ AND CACERES REPEATED ONLY HALF-HEARTEDLY THE USUAL GOC EXCUSES. CACERES' COMMENTS ON THE LABOR LEADERS' CASES TENDED TO CONFIRM THE REPORTS THAT PINOCHET HIMSELF APPEARS TO BE THE STUMBLING BLOCK FOR A RESOLUTION.

THE GOC HAS IN THE PAST GIVEN PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT TO REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. FOLLOWING THE GOVERNMENT'S DEFEAT IN THE OCTOBER 1988 PLEBISCITE, HOWEVER, AND THE APPOINTMENT OF ERRAZURIZ AND CACERES AS FOREIGN AND INTERIOR MINISTERS, A NEW POLICY SEEMS TO BE DEVELOPING. FOR EXAMPLE, CACERES MET WITH THE CODEL; HIS PREDECESSOR NEVER DID. THE VIP LOUNGE AT THE AIRPORT WAS MADE AVAILABLE, AND FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MEMORY OF THE POST, A MOTORCYCLE ESCORT WAS PROVIDED THROUGHOUT THE VISIT.

SUBJECT: LETELIER

1. SUMMARY. DEPARTMENT OFFICERS MET ON JANUARY 17 WITH EDMUNDO VARGAS CARREÑO, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS, TO DELIVER THE LETTER NOTIFYING VARGAS THAT THE USG HAS INVOKED THE 1914 TREATY AND CONVOKED THE COMMISSION OF WHICH VARGAS IS A MEMBER. VARGAS STATED HIS WILLINGNESS TO SERVE, EXPRESSED DOUBTS AS TO WHETHER CHILE WOULD RETAIN HIM ON THE COMMISSION, AND PROVIDED BACKGROUND INFORMATION. END SUMMARY.

2. DEPARTMENT OFFICERS FROM L AND USOAS MET WITH VARGAS AT HIS OAS OFFICE ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 17. VARGAS HAD BEEN GIVEN A COPY OF THE LETTER LAST FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, IN VENEZUELA BY EMBASSY CARACAS. THE WASHINGTON MEETING WAS HELD AS A FOLLOW-UP TO DELIVER THE MATERIALS REFERENCED IN THE LETTER. AS HE DID LAST FRIDAY, VARGAS EXPRESSED GREAT INTEREST IN SERVING ON THE COMMISSION, WHILE OPINING THAT CHILE IS CERTAIN TO REPLACE HIM, SINCE HE WAS APPOINTED UNDER THE ALLENDE ADMINISTRATION. IN AN IRONIC BIT OF HISTORY, VARGAS SAID THAT IT WAS LETELIER HIMSELF WHO REDISCOVERED THE TREATY IN THE EARLY 1970S, AS A POSSIBLE MEANS OF SETTLING THE COPPER DISPUTES. VARGAS' APPOINTMENT RESULTED FROM THE RENEWED FOCUS ON THE TREATY SPARKED BY LETELIER. VARGAS ADDED THAT NOTHING FURTHER DEVELOPED ON THE TREATY PRIOR TO THE COUP, AND THAT WAS THE LAST HE HAD HEARD OF THE TREATY OR THE COMMISSION.

3. VARGAS ASKED WHAT WE THOUGHT CHILE'S REACTION WOULD BE. DEPARTMENT REPLIED THAT WE HOPED FOR COOPERATION, AND THAT CHILE'S REACTION TO DATE HAD BEEN RESTRAINED. WE ADDED THAT SHOULD MADAME BASTID RESIGN, THAT WILL PROVIDE AN EARLY OPPORTUNITY TO GAUGE THE EXTENT OF CHILEAN COOPERATION.

4. VARGAS ASKED ABOUT THE SECRECY OF THE PROCESS. WE REPLIED THAT WE HAD TOLD THE OAS THAT WE INTENDED TO KEEP THIS CONFIDENTIAL, THAT NO ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE IN WASHINGTON, AND THAT WE HOPED VARGAS WOULD TREAT THE MATTER IN THE SAME FASHION.

5. VARGAS STATED THAT HE EXPECTS TO BE REPLACED. DEPT. REPLIED THAT THIS WAS A MATTER FOR THE OAS, BUT THAT UNTIL SUCH TIME AS HE IS OR MAY BE REPLACED, THE USG REGARDS HIM AS A MEMBER, AND IT IS IN THAT CAPACITY THAT WE WERE MEETING WITH HIM.

6. VARGAS CLOSED THE MEETING BY GIVING DEPT. AN UPDATED RESUME AND COMPLIMENTING THE USG ON INVOKING THE TREATY. HE SAID THAT IT PLACES CHILE IN A DIFFICULT POSITION; IF THE OAS REPLACES HIM, IT WILL BE ACKNOWLEDGING THAT THE TREATY REMAINS IN EFFECT AND IS AN APPROPRIATE MECHANISM FOR DEALING WITH THE LETELIER DISPUTE. re Pinochet after the Plebiscite

1. "Paranoical personality (pp) can function in world, but deep problems. Typical pp if can't win, takes low profile. But when has power, tends to annihilate opponents. Another feature is that he tends to enclose himself in his little group. For Pinochet this is his family. The issue of loyalty becomes an obsession.

2. Only such a person would have backbone to take total power in a system used to checks and balances, and to maintain that "not one leaf moves without my knowing about it." This personality type also has little tolerance for frustration. First wave of protests in March of 1983 - near national strike; Pinochet flew over Santiago in helicopter, saw bonfires, had depressive crisis. Lithium treatment. Second major depression came after Oct. 5, 1988. (Turned down Sinclain's offer to use army for anything he wanted. Monday after election defeat, told ministers it was better No won, to avert civil war.) Since that time, those who have met Pinochet in diplomatic community say he is ~~xx xxxxxxxxxx~~ not all there. Within family, he has swings of hyperactivity and passivity, absent, inexpressive~~xx~~ (ex. - sang on N.Yrs' eve). These bipolar swings are also typical of para. personalities.

3. Big danger is they can get involved in disastrous adventures. Luckily night of plebiscite, Air Force and responsible right moved assertively, producing potential split within govt., a new balance.

The good side is that pp's are very sensitive. Almost Leninist in their calculations of the "correlation of forces." While they are in down side, they are more permissive. Pinochet is still in depressive cycle. Must accept frustrations. For 4-5 weeks after plebiscite spent all his time with army, analyzing situation. ~~xx~~ He realized that if he didn't accept defeat as irreversible fact, he might lose control.

4. To know what next must look at Pin.'s environment. Average member of/military establishment is undergoing "crisis of puberty". Feeling new independence, mourning loss of all-powerful father figure, making new contacts, desire. New promotions are merit-based. Many from class he was in in military academy. Right now there's a draw within army - 50 percent are with Pinochet (although some of them are up for grabs), and 50 percent are more loyal to institution (the corporatists).

UNCLASSIFIED

5. On his part, Pinochet is concerned about negotiating two things, maybe three:

-- when he retires (and substitute Commander in Chief)
-- ~~xxxxxxxx~~ protection from human rights trials (Galtieri's fate) avoiding
-- how many paratroopers will guard him in retirement

No one is pushing his Presidential campaign except the ultras. Consensus even within army is that he had his chance, failed in trying to mimic civilian political elader.

He's surrounded by two "burning walls" of defense:
-- Constitution stays as it is, especially parts involving power of military. At very least HE will be only one to negotiate anything.
-- the army

He might like to name Sinclair as CC when he leaves. But most unlikely. Sinclair seen as a politician, therefore weak, within army structure. Pino ∴ can't depend on him to defend family interests. along with his violent mood-swings

6. What else he's thinking/is revealed in part by series of speeches -- Barrabas speech; references to boxer having been knocked out; saying if opposition won't accept Constittuion as is, he won't accept plebiscite results; Le Monde interview (tame) where he reiterated point it's good No won, mentioned contacts with USSR in Switz. Reads prepared speeches by Poduje, but digresses. Policy seems to be to keep journalists away;

7. Family security is a bixg issue. Even his grandchildren have bodyguards. Maintaining tight protection in the future will be major concern.

8. Is Pinochet corrupt? In sense of stealing money, no. In sense of setting up unprecedented standard of living for President of Chile, somewhat.
-- Most Presidents before lived in La Moneda (very uncomfortable) or in own houses, also using Lo Castillo in Vina. Pinochet built at least 12 houses for himself with public funds (Bucalemu, Locurro, Carrera Austral, several in Lakes region and 1-2 in North, Melocoto, etc.
-- Family took advantage of office to build fortunes (his future income). Ex. Marco Antonio, partner of Mao Rojas (husband of Pamela Sue Martin), rents planes to Lan Chile, set up intermed. corp. to receive copper exports. Ponce Le Rouse - 100 million.
-- Now budget of Presidency as big as any important ministry - 200,000,000/yr. - same as Min. Public works, which includes CNI. (Now trying to "privatize" CNI by transferring Defense, to protect files. New head of CNI one of Chile's silliest generals
-- Stories about family scandals involving Marco Antonio, permissive daughters have been kept under wraps. As they start to come out, will affect army in deciding to adapt itself or not. Meanwhile army is taking steps to cleanse itself first. [ ] Getting rid of generals who are "tainted" by politics.

Dear Senator Dixon:

I am writing to bring to your attention a threat by the Chilean Government to seize the files of the Vicaria de Solidaridad. The Vicaria is the human rights organization of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Santiago. The military prosecutor intends to seize the medical and financial records by February 6. Enclosed is some background information.

We view this as a direct violation of the Church's right to protect the confidentiality of the people it serves. Archbishop May, president, of the U.S. Bishops' Conference as well as Cardinal Bernardin have already expressed their concern and solidarity to the Chilean Bishops. The Chilean Bishops are supporting the Vicaria in their appeal to protect the files and the people who have placed their trust in the Church.

I ask you to do what you can to intervene in what appears to be an increasingly tense situation.

Sincerely,

Ms. Mary Yu

EL SALVADOR: STATE DEPARTMENT REPORT

Q: WHAT CAN YOU TELL US ABOUT THIS NEW STATE DEPARTMENT REPORT ON EL SALVADOR. WHY WAS IT WRITTEN? WHAT ARE ITS CONCLUSIONS?

A: THE REPORT WAS RELEASED LAST NOVEMBER BY THE BUREAU OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS AS PART OF ITS PUBLIC INFORMATION SERIES. IT IS A RETROSPECTIVE ANALYSIS THAT ADDRESSES THE MISTAKEN NOTIONS THAT THE POLITICAL CENTER IN EL SALVADOR IS COLLAPSING, THAT THE OVERALL SALVADORAN SITUATION HAS DETERIORATED GRAVELY, AND THAT OUR POLICY OF SUPPORT FOR ITS CONTINUED DEMOCRATIC EVOLUTION NEEDS TO BE MODIFIED.

THE REPORT'S MAIN POINTS ARE:

THAT EL SALVADOR'S DYNAMIC DEMOCRATIC PROCESS ENJOYS THE SUPPORT OF ITS PEOPLE AND HAS WROUGHT FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE ACROSS THE RANGE OF POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ISSUES, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS;
UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

THAT THE MINORITY OF EXTREMISTS OF LEFT AND RIGHT ARE RELEVANT TO THE PROCESS ONLY BECAUSE THEY USE VIOLENCE TO OPPOSE IT;

THAT THE COMPLETION OF THE SALVADORAN EFFORT TO INSTITUTIONALIZE DEMOCRACY REQUIRES CONTINUED U.S. SUPPORT.

THAT THE U.S. REMAINS VERY ENGAGED IN EFFORTS TO IMPROVE HUMAN RIGHTS.

I HAVE COPIES OF THE REPORT AVAILABLE HERE, AND I SUGGEST THAT ANYBODY WHO IS INTERESTED READ IT FOR HIMSELF.

NICARAGUA: CIA AUDIT OF CONTRAS

Q. DOES THE DEPARTMENT HAVE ANY COMMENT ON REPORTS THAT CIA IS CONDUCTING AN AUDIT OF THE SECRET POLITICAL FUND OF THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE?

A. NO, I DON'T HAVE ANY COMMENT TO OFFER ON THOSE REPORTS.

Q: WHAT DO YOU HAVE ON AN AMERICAN NAMED MICHAEL YALE REIF WHO HAS BEEN KIDNAPPED IN MEDELLIN, COLOMBIA?

A: WE CAN CONFIRM THAT AN AMERICAN CITIZEN WAS KIDNAPPED ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, IN MEDELLIN, COLOMBIA. AT THE TIME OF THE KIDNAPPING, THE AMERICAN WAS RIDING IN A CAR WITH A PROMINENT COLOMBIAN BUSINESSMAN. THE CAR WAS BLOCKED AT AN INTERSECTION, AND SEVEN MEN OVERWHELMED AND CAPTURED THE COLOMBIAN BUSINESSMAN AND THE AMERICAN CITIZEN.

EL SALVADOR

Q: IS THERE A SPLIT WITH PRESIDENT DUARTE ON THE GUERRILLA PROPOSAL?

A: ABSOLUTELY NOT. ONE HAS TO SMILE SOMETIMES AT THE HEADLINES THAT APPEAR IN PARTS OF THE MEDIA, BUT, NO, THERE'S ABSOLUTELY NO SPLIT. AS I SAID YESTERDAY, WE BELIEVED THAT THESE PROPOSALS ARE GETTING SERIOUS AND SUBSTANTIAL CONSIDERATION. PRESIDENT DUARTE HAS SENT THEM AROUND TO VARIOUS OTHER SALVADORAN LEADERS.

THERE HAVE BEEN A NUMBER OF PROBLEMS NOTED, AS I SAID YESTERDAY, CONCERNING CONSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL ISSUES. THERE HAVE BEEN SOME POSITIVE POINTS NOTED. SO I THINK BASED ON OUR SOUNDINGS WITH PRESIDENT DUARTE AND OTHER LEADERS, THAT'S THE STATE OF PLAY AS WE UNDERSTAND IT.

Q: WAS PRESIDENT DUARTE MISQUOTED WHEN HE SAID SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT THAT THIS WAS NOT A PEACE PROPOSAL BUT A WAR PROPOSAL?

A: I THINK WHAT YOU NEED TO DO IS LOOK AT EVERYTHING HE SAID, AND THAT'S ALWAYS THE CASE. PEOPLE LIKE TO CHOOSE THIS STATEMENT OR THAT STATEMENT AND SAY THAT'S THE SUM TOTAL OF IT, AND IT CERTAINLY ISN'T IN THE CASE OF THOSE PARTICULAR STATEMENTS. AND I HAVE QUOTED MYSELF MANY OTHER THINGS THAT HE'S SAID.

Q: BUT YOU'RE NOT DISPUTING THAT ONE STATEMENT.

A: THE STATEMENT IS THERE. YOU CAN ALL READ THAT.

MEXICO

Q: MEXICAN CONGRESSMEN YESTERDAY, THEY CRITICIZED THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL TO BUILD THIS CANAL IN CALIFORNIA. WOULDN'T THAT BE CONSIDERED AN INTRUSION AND MEDDLING IN OUR INTERNAL AFFAIRS?

A: LET ME JUST GIVE YOU WHAT I KNOW ABOUT THIS PARTICULAR BARRIER DITCH, AS IT'S CALLED I THINK. THE INS HAS COORDINATED THE PLANS FOR THIS WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT, FOR EXAMPLE. THESE PLANS ARE CURRENTLY UNDERGOING ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT. THE PLANS ARE TO CONSTRUCT A DUAL-PURPOSE BORDER SECURITY ENHANCEMENT PROJECT AND DRAINAGE DITCH.

ABOUT FOUR MILES IN LENGTH. IT WOULD EXTEND ABOUT ONE MILE EAST AND THREE MILES WEST OF THE OTAY MESA PORT OF ENTRY IN CALIFORNIA.

ONE PURPOSE OF THE PROJECT IS TO PREVENT UNAUTHORIZED ENTRY OF VEHICLES. THE BORDER PATROL HAS OBSERVED AS MANY AS 369 SUCH ENTRIES A MONTH ACROSS THE LEVEL PLAIN NEAR OTAY MESA. THESE HAVE RESULTED IN HOT PURSUITS, ACCIDENTS, ONE ACCIDENTAL DEATH, AND SERIOUS INJURIES TO UNDOCUMENTED ALIENS.

THE DITCH WOULD ALSO RESOLVE A PROBLEM THAT THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAS ASKED US TO FIX CAUSED BY DRAINAGE FROM NEW DEVELOPMENTS ON THE U.S. SIDE. HENCE, DUAL PURPOSE.

TO: ARA - Michael M. Skol

ARA - Michael G. Kozak

FROM: ARA/SC - Richard B. Howard

SUBJECT: Talking Points for Congressional Briefings: 1914 Treaty

General

- Tomorrow (today), we will present the Government of Chile with a diplomatic note invoking a bilateral treaty for the settlement of disputes signed by the two nations in 1914.

- This treaty establishes an international commission of five persons to investigate disputes arising between Chile and the United States which could not be resolved by diplomatic methods.

Why are We Doing This?

- We are invoking the treaty to request that the commission investigate and report on the facts surrounding the Letelier/Moffitt murders which took place in Washington, D.C. in 1976 and to investigate and report on the subsequent investigation by the Chilean government into the matter.

- We are taking this step because we have exhausted other diplomatic means in obtaining the cooperation of the GOC in resolving the case.

- As you know, two former high officials of the Chilean secret police have since 1978 been under indictment by a U.S. district court for their role in the murders.

- We first sought their extradition and then their expulsion to the U.S. The GOC refused to cooperate with these and all other U.S. requests, including the naming of a special military prosecutor to move the case forward in Chile and the payment by the GOC of compensation to the victims' families and to the U.S. for damages.

- At present, a letters rogatory request has been served on 7 former Chilean government officials involved in the GOC's investigation of the case.

DECLASSIFIED

- We are confident that this treaty will be a useful means of eventually obtaining justice in the case. In our view, it should clearly underscore the GOC's responsibility for the murders and facilitate further action to resolve a matter which has been a major point of discord in our bilateral relations.

How Does the Treaty Work?

- The treaty establishes an international commission composed of five persons, one U.S. citizen and one non-citizen appointed by the U.S., one Chilean citizen and one non-citizen appointed by Chile, and a fifth member chosen by agreement between the two governments to serve as president, to investigate the issue in dispute.

- Within 12 months after the Commission's investigation has officially commenced, the commission must prepare a written report of the findings of its investigation.

- On the basis of this report, the two governments have up to six months for renewed negotiations on a settlement of the dispute. If no settlement results during that time period, the dispute may be submitted to the Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague.

- While the findings of the Commission cannot automatically trigger a binding solution to the Letelier case, we are confident that a verdict on the Chilean government's responsibility in the matter returned by a respected group of international jurists has the potential for bringing justice to the case.

- It is most unlikely that the final report of the Commission and the period for conciliation between the two governments provided for in the treaty would be completed before the change in government in Chile scheduled for March, 1990.

- That means that the government which would be responding to the Commission's findings would be an elected one which should be more cooperative.

Why Should the GOC Cooperate Now?

- The Letelier case has been a cause of significant discord in our bilateral relations for many years.

- In part because of non-progress on the case, we are prohibted by law from selling arms or providing training to Chile's armed forces.

- If the Chilean Government agrees to cooperate in resolving the case, this could contribute to the eventual removal of military restrictions and to the normalization of bilateral relations.

- For this reason, the 1914 Treaty provides the GOC with an excellent means of bettering relations with the U.S. We feel that it clearly behooves the Chilean Government to cooperate with the work of the Commission and we will urge that it do so. Indeed, it has a contractual obligation under the terms of the treaty to do so.

- The GOC has consistently stated that it was not responsible for the Letelier/Moffitt murders. This provides the GOC with a chance to present its case and, potentially, to clear its name.

Why Does the U.S. Not Take Stronger Action? (if-asked basis)

- We have always considered the Letelier/Moffitt case as a legal and moral matter, not a political one. We therefore wish to resolve the case by legal/juridical means, such as by invoking this treaty.

- Consistent with our policy, we do not favor the use of political or action action with regard to the Letelier case. Economic sanctions against Chile, especially at this key political moment when open elections are less than a year away and Chile's economy is doing well, would undermine Chile's new democratic regime before it even takes office.

- We therefore feel that actions such as the seizure of Chilean assets to pay indemnization to the victims' families would be unhelpful. Such steps would be seen in Chile as economic aggression against Chile as a whole and provide Pinochet with nationalistic ammunition against us. Nor would the seizure of property make any progress in bringing to justice those indicted for the crime.

United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Biden:

Yesterday I sent a telegram to the Chilean Minister of the Interior, The Honorable Carlos Caceres. That telegram reads:

> "I feel compelled to protest the order of seizure for medical records from the Solidarity Vicariate of the Archdiocese of Santiago. This order violates long-standing and very necessary ethical norms and is a patently unwarranted attack on such an internationally respected human rights organization."

I am given to understand that the Chilean government intends to effect the seizure order on February 6. It appears to me necessary to request that you bring to bear the power of your office as well as that of our Department of State on the Chilean government in order to make it known that such behavior cannot be tolerated in a government which uses the word democratic to describe itself and which has otherwise shown promise recently of treating its citizens in a fitting manner.

It is my fervant hope that you will work diligently with your colleagues on the Foreign Relations Committee to devise a course of action which will enable our Nation to support all that is good and helpful to the return of democracy in Chile.

Respectfully yours,

Douglas Smith, c.s.c.

EL SALVADOR

El Salvador has a freely elected democratic government, with an executive branch headed by a president, a unicameral legislative assembly, and an independent, but politically appointed, judiciary. A new Constitution was adopted in 1983, and the first free presidential elections in Salvadoran history were held in 1984. Legislative and municipal elections followed in 1985 and 1988. Numerous international observers agreed these elections were free and fair. Jose Napoleon Duarte, Christian Democrat, has been President since 1984.

The bitterly contested elections in March 1988 resulted in the transfer of majority control at the municipal and legislative levels from the governing Christian Democratic Party (PDC) to the opposition Nationalist Republican Alliance party (ARENA). The leaders of two political parties allied with the antigovernment insurgents, who had returned to El Salvador in 1987, announced in 1988 their intention to contest the March 1989 presidential elections. In October the general secretary of the legal political front of the outlawed Communist Party of El Salvador (PCES) returned to participate openly in the political system.

El Salvador's efforts to institute democracy, enforce respect for human rights, and redress social injustice are complicated and severely tested by the existence of a Marxist-Leninist guerrilla insurgency supported by Nicaragua, Cuba, and the Soviet Union. The five organizations, including the armed wing of the PCES, that form the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation (FMLN) have been engaged in armed conflict against the Government since 1980 and are dedicated to the violent overthrow of the democratic process. In recent years the FMLN, with an estimated 6,000 to 8,000 full-time guerrillas backed by a network of front groups consisting of part-time militia, clandestine cells, and paramilitary civilian supporters, has stepped up its program of urban bombings and assassinations of unprotected government officials. The FMLN has embarked on a campaign of threatening and assassinating mayors. Since March 1988, 8 mayors and 1 former mayor were killed by the FMLN and over 70 were threatened with death. The FMLN also increasingly relied on children for combat and support tasks in 1988. Finally, the insurgents continued to seek to destroy the economy by attacking infrastructure and production facilities.

The armed forces total 56,000, including some 11,500 members of the three police forces, which are under the control of the Defense Ministry. As the insurgency gathered strength in the early 1980's, members of the security forces committed numerous human rights violations, including killings, disappearances, and torture. Up to 1983 members of the security forces acquiesced in the operations of several formal paramilitary groups operating as rightwing death squads. Some of the paramilitary groups are believed to have had members belonging at the same time to the police or military. Although statistics are unreliable, there are credible estimates that these groups summarily executed thousands of persons during the 1980-1983 period.

While the formal paramilitary death squads ceased to exist after 1983, rightwing vigilantism has continued, albeit at a declining level. Reports in 1988 of efforts to resuscitate these formal paramilitary groups have not been substantiated. The paramilitary groups themselves have not acknowledged any killings since 1984. Commencing in mid-1987, there was an increase of killings (press reports show of 11 per month in mid-1987 to an averag the first 10 months of 1988) in which a possible, though unproven. Some of these been carried out by rightwing vigilantes, or the FMLN; others may have been committ criminals.

Section 1 Respect for the Integrity of the Freedom from:

a. Political Killing

Statistics on political killings are necess can only be interpreted as indicative of tr over time in comparison with past reports u methodology. Common criminal deaths, for e disguised as political killings by perpetra confound investigators; by the same token, in other murders may go undetected, causing classified as common crimes.

The number of deaths reported in the Salvado appeared to be politically motivated average through October; this compares with a monthl 1987, 22 in 1986, 28 in 1985, 64 in 1984, 1 1982, 444 in 1981, and 750 in 1980. Given t any rural areas, it is likely that the press total number of civilian deaths.

These statistics on apparently politically motivated deaths were compiled by the U.S. Embassy principally from reports in the local press, but also from guerrilla media and other publicly available sources. Of the 185 killings of noncombatants during the first 10 months of 1988, 54 appeared clearly to have been perpetrated by, and another 40 possibly committed by, the FMLN. In 10 cases there was insufficient evidence to designate the likely assailants. Fourteen killings were attributed to military personnel. Finally, 34 civilians reportedly killed in combat action between the two sides are included among the 185 victims. Another 42 died as a result of guerrilla mines; one death is attributed to an army mine. The Catholic Archbishoprics' human rights and legal aid office Tutela Legal, which has acknowledged that in many cases the motivations for and perpetrators of killings cannot easily be determined, attributes 89 killings from January to November of 1988 to the security forces, 40 to the FMLN, and 51 to "death squads" (not further defined as a category).

Reports continue of noncombat killings attributed to the military and police. The mutilated bodies of two men and a boy were discovered on February 1 at Puerta del Diablo, a place that had once been a dumping ground for assassination victims. The killings were traced to soldiers of the army's First Brigade; the investigation has been stalled due to a lack of cooperation by the military. On May 24 the bodies of two men, who family members said had been detained by elements of the Army's Arce Battalion on February 25, were disinterred in El Tablon, Morazan department. The bodies showed signs that the men had been tortured before they were murdered. A third man taken at the same time remains missing. The army reported that the unit involved claimed the victims were killed in combat. On the basis of this report, the military halted further investigation, thus hindering the civilian investigation.

On September 21, an army unit reported that a soldier was wounded and eight civilian detainees were killed in an FMLN ambush near La Cebadilla Creek in San Sebastian, San Vicente department. The unit also reported two guerrillas killed. Local residents, however, contradicted the military's version of the events and claimed the 10 persons were killed by soldiers. Initial evidence from a court investigation and an exhumation casts doubt on the military's version. The Government's investigation continues, but by year's end no results had been announced.

In 1988 some foreign journalists and Amnesty International reported that the formal paramilitary death squads were rebuilding their infrastructures. In the early 1980's, the death squads often acknowledged their killings; there have been no such claims by a formal paramilitary group since 1984. While some human rights groups continue to use the phrase "death squads" to describe certain political killings outside of combat, many of these recent deaths are likely the result of less organized rightwing vigilantism rather than the formal pre-1983 paramilitary death squads.

A PDC official in the San Salvador suburb of Soyapango was killed in a December 12 altercation with municipal police. Some witnesses asserted that the incident was politically motivated, but details remained sketchy at year's end.

A U.S. Embassy study of unexplained murders in which a political [illegible]ve, though not apparent, co[illegible]not be excluded, showed tha[illegible]ese deaths increased from a[illegible]erage of 11 per

The monthly average for January-(Although it is not certain that the incr 1987 was politically motivated, the natu killings--signs of torture and execution corpses--suggests the likelihood that th politically motivated. It is unclear, ho deaths were carried out by rightwing vigi the FMLN, or the security forces; some al work of common criminals.

The May 11 murder by unknown assailants o civilian judge known for his high standar bench of the First Military Court, dealt judicial system. Judge Serrano was heari cases: the trial of four active and form and two civilians for kidnaping prominent ransom (the six accused were also alleged squads); and the trial of three FMLN memb 1985 massacre of four U.S. Marines, two o and seven other persons in San Salvador's Serrano's assassination is generally thou of these cases; he had just announced to not going to grant amnesty to the four kic defendants.

which, according to guerrilla radio broadcasts, are intended to kill government officials, military officers, businessmen, and foreign diplomats, particularly members of the American Embassy.

The guerrillas' use of unmarked, indiscriminately placed landmines and booby traps is a major cause of death and maiming. Planted along farm roads other economic and infrastructure targets these mines killed 36 civilians in 1987, and 42 in the first 10 months of 1988. From January through September, over 160 civilians--many of them children--were wounded by guerrilla mines. The Armed Forces of El Salvador (ESAF) uses mines on the perimeters of its installations. One man was killed in July by what was probably an army mine while working near a military training area.

b. Disappearance

Law and government policy forbid unacknowledged detention by security or armed services. However, there have been credible reports of persons who disappeared after having been taken away by men in uniform or plain clothes thought to be members of the army or security forces. Eliseo Cordova Aguilar, an executive of a pro-FMLN labor union, was standing outside his house on July 12 with a prosecutor from the Attorney General's office and another person when all three were abducted by three hooded men. The attorney and the other person were released 3 hours later, but Cordova remains missing. The labor union and several other organizations blame elements of the Treasury Police for the disappearance, and other credible sources concur in this assessment.

According to press reports, 46 civilians disappeared between January and August, including nonpolitical disappearances such as lost or runaway children aged 10 or over. Persons who desert their families, emigrate, or join guerrilla ranks may also account for some of the disappearances. Persons reported missing by family members often were found later to have been legally arrested and properly reported to human rights organizations. During the same period, the press reported 161 persons abducted by the guerrillas and 12 abducted by unknown assailants. During 1988 the guerrillas captured and exchanged or released several government officials and members of the armed forces.

In 1988 the FMLN increasingly relied on the use of children under the age of 15 in battle. Documents captured in 1988 revealed that both the People's Liberation Forces (FPL) and the People's Revolutionary Army (ERP) factions of the FMLN have organized children from the ages of 9 to 15 into so-called pioneer squads. Credible reports were received of children kidnaped by the FMLN for recruitment as "pioneers" and of their use as couriers and spotters. During a press conference in March, FMLN leader Francisco Mena Sandoval said that children are permitted to use weapons because they are the future of the revolutionary process. In the same press conference, FMLN leader Joaquin Villalobos declared the FMLN uses children "only for defensive purposes." According to reliable statistics from captured FMLN combatants and defectors, the average age of the FMLN fighter continued to decline in 1988 as the guerrilla forces increasingly relied on kidnaping of children to fill its dwindling ranks. Children under 15 were used by the guerrillas on September 22 to penetrate a marked minefield surrounding a military post at Cerro Aguacate. One 9-year-old child lost both hands. The bodies of what appeared to be six 14- to 16-year-old boys were left behind by FMLN forces that attacked an ESAF position in San Miguel department on February 17. The Salvadoran military has also been criticized for forced recruitment of minors. It is government policy to dismiss underaged recruits.

c. Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman, or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

Reports of abuse by arresting forces continue, with most involving abuses that leave no marks and thus are extremely difficult to prove or disprove. Such abuses include deprivation of food and sleep, threats against the detainee or his family, prolonged interrogation while blindfolded, being forced to stand for long periods of time, forced exercise, and blows to the ears. Some prisoners claim to have been forced to sign confessions without being permitted to read them. Some instances of severe beatings, rape, choking, injection with unidentified drugs, and electric shock were reported. Jose Angel Alas Gomez, 27, arrested for complicity in an extortion scheme, died on January 12 while in Treasury Police custody. The police blamed the death on a heart attack brought on by a fall while trying to escape, but marks on the body cast doubt on this story. When a complaint of mistreatment appears credible, the Government's Human Rights Commission (CDH) reports the incident to the commander of the unit responsible and to the Ministry of Defense. Not all commanders who have been presented with such charges have taken action against the offenders.

The Government continued to use disciplinary action to reduce the incidence of crimes committed by the ESAF. During 1987 143 military and police were turned over to the courts for trial on charges of murder, rape, assault, robbery, and other serious crimes. The figure for the first 7 months of 1988 was 94, all of whom were enlisted personnel. Most disciplinary actions taken in 1988 were related to common crime.

In recent years, there have been few allegations of mistreatment of prisoners in El Salvador's prisons, administered and guarded by justice ministry personnel. No verifiable instances of torture occurred in the penitentiaries in 1988. The 44 prisoners in pretrial confinement for insurgency related offenses as of November 1988 were distributed througout the prison system and treated as common criminals. In late 1987, the Government released over 480 political prisoners, the first Esquipulas II signator to achieve full compliance with the amnesty provisions of that agreement.

Human rights instruction is now a part of police recruit training and officers' classes. The CDH, the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), and Catholic clergy offer courses on human rights for police, military, and civil defense personnel.

The Salvadoran security and armed forces are required to register detainees and have them examined by a doctor or nurse upon their entry into police facilities. In insurgency-related arrests, they are also required to notify promptly the family of the detainee, Tutela Legal, the CDH, and the ICRC. The registration, notification, and arraignment procedures, together with the official prohibition on mistreatment of prisoners, continued to be enforced in an effort to eliminate mistreatment by government authorities.

d. Arbitrary Arrest, Detention, or Exile

The criminal code contains articles prohibiting terrorism, insurgency, and other actions against the stability of the State, and persons arrested under them have the same legal protection as common criminals. Salvadoran law permits judges and nonjudicial authorities, most often security force officers, to issue arrest warrants, which must be in writing. The Constitution requires that all persons arrested by the police be freed or turned over to the courts within 72 hours, and this right has been applicable since the state of emergency was abrogated in 1987. Arrests without apparent sufficient cause do occur; but incommunicado detention beyond 3 days is no longer common. When it has occurred, it usually has been the result of a detention in the field by an operating military unit.

The courts have held that membership in a front organization controlled by the insurgents is not in itself sufficient reason for holding an arrestee, although membership in one of the guerrilla groups or advocating violence is. For example, Mario Aguinada, secretary general of the Nationalist Democratic Union (UDN), the political arm of the PCES, returned to El Salvador in October after a self-imposed, 8-year exile. The UDN and Aguinada hold that insurgency is a legitimate means of addressing El Salvador's problems, and the PCES has a military arm in the field. Despite this background, Aguinada participates freely in politics.

From January to September 1988, the security forces detained 2,861 persons, including 130 foreigners, on suspicion of insurgency-related offenses. Of that number, 2,410 were subsequently released, 397 were consigned to the courts, and 54 were hospitalized, deported, or sent to the juvenile facility.

During the arraignment proceedings, the judge may order the accused detained further for up to 72 hours to determine if the evidence warrants holding the accused for trial. This time limit is normally adhered to in practice. The judge then is constrained legally to a time limit of 120 days for investigating serious crimes, and 45 days for lesser offenses, before bringing the accused to trial or dismissing the case. In practice, however, these limitations are not followed. The backlog of cases is one major reason for delay. All persons held in the prison system are under judicial order. Anyone can request that an appeals court or the Supreme Court review the legal merit of a detention, from the time it appears a court will issue an arrest warrant until the trial is completed and a sentence is carried out. Such an appeal freezes action on the case until the higher court renders its decision.

The Government does not recognize the FMLN as a belligerent power and thus does not accord prisoner of war status to captured guerrillas. The armed forces are required to turn captured guerrillas over to the civilian court system for criminal prosecution.

The state of exception, which suspended some constitutional protections for certain accused criminals and instituted a parallel military judicial structure for prosecuting such individuals, was terminated in January 1987. The law detailing procedures for judicial processing of suspects in in December 1987 to permit continuation of the two such trials remaining in the military court system following the Esquipulas II amnesty: the Zona Rosa massacre and kidnaping for ransom of prominent businessmen. The kidnaping case was subsequently moved to a common criminal court. No new arrests can be made under Decree 618 unless the state of emergency is renewed.

There are no provisions for exile in the law. Naturalized citizenship can be revoked for extended residence outside the country or, in some cases, criminal convictions. Some leaders of the FMLN and the political group with which it is formally allied, the Revolutionary Democratic Front (FDR) claim to be in exile, but it is self-imposed. However, some could be subject to arrest in El Salvador for membership in guerrilla combatant organizations should they return. Nevertheless, FDR political leaders Guillermo Ungo and Reuben Zamora returned to El Salvador to participate in the democratic system without being arrested, as did Aguinada and several other political leaders of the UDN.

With regard to forced or compulsory labor, see Section 6.c.

e. Denial of Fair Public Trial

The Constitution provides that the judiciary, the Attorney General's office, and the Solicitor General's office (public defenders) are independent of the Government and each other. The Legislative Assembly chooses the Supreme Court justices for 5-year terms, and the Attorney General and Solicitor General for 3-year terms. The Constitution establishes the regular court system and provides for a special system should the Legislative Assembly enact a state of exception.

The Constitution provides that a person accused of a crime may have a lawyer present upon being arraigned, but the right is seldom used, probably because few arrestees can afford to hire a private attorney. At present, court-appointed attorneys are not available to a defendant until the investigative phase is over, and the judge determines there is sufficient evidence to enter the final, or plenary, stage of the trial. The defendant has a right to be present in court and to confront the witnesses against him. All court records of trials of adults are open to the public unless the judge rules the case is to be kept confidential. An appeal process exists and is used regularly.

Most major crimes in El Salvador are tried publicly before a 5-person jury. Jury trials resulted in a 41 percent conviction rate in the first 7 months of 1988, a significant increase over the 22 percent rate recorded in 1987. Absences of attorneys, the destruction of many court buildings in the October 1986 earthquake, and a practically nonfunctional jury identification and notification system hinder the judicial system from expeditiously processing cases. Corruption and intimidation by leftwing and rightwing extremists are also factors. As a result, only 15 percent of the 4,390 prison inmates in September were serving sentences; the rest were awaiting adjudication of their cases. Bail is available for some minor offenses but is seldom used. Prisoners are usually incarcerated for 6 to 18 months from the time they are charged until they are brought to trial, and even longer waits are common.

Historically, civilian judicial and military police officers have been discharged and turned over to the civilian courts for trial of criminal offenses, the officers of the armed and security forces are treated differently from other citizens before the law. Judges are frequently reluctant to bring charges against them, and colleagues often fail to cooperate in the prosecution of crimes imputed to a fellow officer.

No military officer has been convicted of human rights violations or any other crime in recent years. The attempt to reopen the trial against one of the former military officers who ordered the January 1981 murders of a Salvadoran and two American land reform experts failed on March 9 when the Supreme Court rejected an appeal by the prosecution to overturn a December 10, 1987 lower court ruling that the Government's amnesty applied to the case. (The amnesty was decreed in accordance with the Government's international obligations under the October 1987 Esquipulas agreement.) The Supreme Court on July 21 also upheld a controversial lower court decision to grant amnesty to the defendants, including several active duty officers, in the notorious Las Hojas massacre case.

f. Arbitrary Interference with Privacy, Family, Home, or Correspondence

The Government generally does not interfere arbitrarily in the personal lives of citizens, although it reserves the right to intervene when it believes national security is threatened. Both the Government and the guerrillas use networks of informants. According to the Constitution, before entering a private dwelling, the security forces must have the inhabitant's consent, a judicial warrant, or reasonable belief that a crime is being or will be committed. In practice, the security forces often use forced entry to carry out arrests and investigations. Government forces often intercept mail deliveries in zones of conflict. Wiretapping of telephone communications by the Government, the FMLN, private individuals, and political parties reportedly is widespread.

The guerrillas arbitrarily interfere widely in the lives of the inhabitants of the conflictive zones. They extract "war taxes" (consumables such as food, clothing, and medical supplies), intercept mail, and engage regularly in wiretapping. The guerrillas often force villagers to attend political meetings, and they engage in forced recruitment of combatants, laborers, and porters. FMLN committees control the villages set up by refugees who returned from camps in Honduras, just as they controlled the camps. The people usually comply with the FMLN demands, because the guerrillas regularly back up their threats by assassinating those who fail to cooperate.

Section 2 Respect for Civil Liberties, Including:

a. Freedom of Speech and Press

There are no governmental restrictions on freedom of speech and the press. San Salvador, a city of 1 million, has five daily papers, five television stations, and numerous radio stations. All of the press and most of the broadcasting media are in private hands. Television and print journalism in El Salvador is flourishing; interviews feature a full range of political figures from all political viewpoints, including labor leaders, human rights activists, private sector representatives, government officials, and guerrilla commanders.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Of the leading daily newspapers, three are editorially conservative and the other two are more moderate. One of the more moderate newspapers presents a range of views from conservative to far left; it has published unedited articles from the FMLN/FDR press agencies Salpress and Notisal (which recently established a joint office in San Salvador), press releases from both liberal and pro-FMLN organizations, and a weekly supplement from the Jesuit-run University of Central America. The views of the left are also available in a variety of journals, newsletters, periodicals, bulletins, and paid advertisements in the daily press. While an 8-year-old decree forbidding publication of anonymous paid advertisements or communiques remains in effect, recent examples of such propaganda show this law to be essentially unenforced.

Television stations sell broadcast time to political and labor organizations. These paid spots are uncensored and usually broadcast live. Commercial radio stations broadcast news and propaganda reports recorded from the clandestine guerrilla radio stations or supplied by the guerrillas on cassette.

Academic freedom is protected by the Constitution and respected by the Government.

b. Freedom of Peaceful Assembly and Association

Any association not formed for criminal purposes is legal and permitted in El Salvador. Political, professional, religious, labor, and social organizations operate remarkably openly and freely, given the fact that the country is fighting a communist insurgency. Various groups from both the left and the right criticize the Government, and hold marches and demonstrations without official interference.

The FMLN seeks to manipulate labor organizations and use labor organizations as paramilitary shock troops. Marches by labor, displaced persons, and human rights organizations known to be fronts of the FMLN are frequent. Violence erupted during one such march on July 21, prompting the security forces to have large numbers of riot control police accompany subsequent demonstrations. The police did not interfere with the demonstrators, and the marches remained peaceful.

On September 13, FMLN-controlled organizations conducted marches in San Salvador and Santa Ana in coordination with a guerrilla military offensive. Government forces broke up both marches after demonstrators opened fire on the riot control troops. Demonstrators killed one policeman and wounded four in the San Salvador incident. Following the shootings, government forces detained over 200 demonstrators, collecting firearms, molotov cocktails, hand grenades, and homemade bombs from them. All but 14 of the detainees were released by the police within 72 hours; the remaining 14 were released by court order within another 72 hours.

For a discussion of freedom of association as it applies to labor unions, see Section 6.a.

c. Freedom of Religion

Freedom of religion is provided for by the Constitution and is respected in practice. Although the country is predominantly Roman Catholic, an estimated 20 percent of the population subscribe to other faiths. Foreign and Salvadoran missionaries generally operate freely and without harassment. Arrests of church members and employees, both Catholic and Protestant, are unrelated to religious beliefs. Several times during the year the military interfered with church-related assistance to the needy in zones of conflict, claiming it was intended for the guerrillas.

The Catholic Church continues to be one of the most influential institutions in the country. The Archbishop's Sunday homily is broadcast live from the Metropolitan Cathedral on one of the government's television stations and radio. The Archbishop on September 3 and 4 sought to sponsor a national debate on the political causes and solutions to the conflict. Many invitees declined to participate, but the session was attended by representatives of 57 organizations, most of which were critical of the Government or allied with the FMLN. Catholic Church publications disseminate the Church's position on human rights and the war. Church statements have become increasingly critical of the leftist insurgency, but the Church does not hesitate to criticize the Government.

d. Freedom of Movement Within the Country, Foreign Travel, Emigration, and Repatriation

The Constitution establishes the right of free movement. Nevertheless, local military commanders often restrict entry to areas where military operations are under way and require that foreigners receive permission before entering combat zones. On occasion the Government has ordered foreigners out of the country when it considered they involved themselves in internal political affairs.

An estimated 155,000 persons are still displaced within El Salvador by the conflict, down from a peak of about 525,000 in 1985. Approximately 130,000 of them still receive government assistance, and another 25,000 who are not registered with the Government receive assistance from private relief organizations such as World Relief and the International Rescue Committee. Another 168,100 Salvadorans are refugees in other Central American countries and in Mexico, and more than 500,000 are estimated to be illegal immigrants in the United States.

As the level of violence falls, an increasing number of refugees are returning from abroad. More than 6,800 refugees returned from other Central American countries between 1984 and August 1986, according to the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR). Since then, another 2,100 chose to leave the Mesa Grande refugee camp in Honduras, where some had been living since the beginning of the war, to return to their homes in El Salvador.

There is no evidence of a Government policy of harassment of individuals returning to El Salvador from abroad. The Intergovernmental Committee for Migration interviewed some 12,028 returnees from the United States between December 1984 and December 1987 and found no evidence of a policy of harassment. There have been no reports of comparable studies regarding returnees coming from other areas. The Government imposes no control on emigration and cooperates with international organizations that arrange Salvadorans' emigration to other countries.

The Government, with assistance from the UNHCR and the ICRC, has registered some 400 Nicaraguan refugees, although officials estimate as many as 1,500 are residing in the far southeastern part of the country. Those refugees who are registered are free to travel within El Salvador.

Section 3 Respect for Political Rights: The Right of Citizens to Change Their Government

El Salvador's 1983 Constitution provides for rights and procedures by which citizens can change their government. There have been three national-level elections since 1983. On March 20, 1988, nine political parties participated in municipal and Legislative Assembly elections throughout the country. In these elections, the governing PDC lost its assembly majority to ARENA, marking the first peaceful transition of power in the Assembly from the ruling to an opposition party. The Supreme Court resolved a dispute over the allocation of one deputy's seat. ARENA won 32-seats in the 60-seat Assembly, the PDC received 22 seats, and the National Conciliation Party (PCN) won 6. None of the smaller parties that participated won enough votes to be eligible for a seat.

The FMLN refuses to participate in the electoral process, and through armed actions and threats consistently works to hinder and disrupt electoral activity. The FMLN instead calls for powersharing, whereby as an institution it would assume an unspecified degree of governmental authority and power without ever having had to participate in the electoral process.

Voting is by secret ballot. In preparation for the March 1988 elections, the Central Elections Council (CCE) distributed 1,650,000 computerized voter identification cards as a safeguard against fraud. Following the elections, the CCE resumed the registration process for those who will turn 18 years of age before the March 1989 presidential elections and for those of voting age not yet registered.

The Constitution allows all political parties that do not advocate armed opposition to the democratic system to participate in the electoral process. It establishes the right of a citizen to join any legally recognized party. In practice, even parties still linked to the FMLN have been permitted to reenter the political arena. In late 1987, leaders of the FDR (claiming that the party was not a member of the FMLN but only an ally) returned to El Salvador and formed a political coalition, the Democratic Convergence (CD), with the Social Democratic Party (PSD). The CD chose not to participate in the 1988 legislative elections, but it did announce its intention to run in the March 1989 presidential elections. In addition, self-exiled members of the UDN--the political front for the outlawed PCES--returned and successfully petitioned to reactivate its status as a legal political party. The PCES remains a member of the FMLN through its armed wing, the Armed Forces of Liberation.

Although women represent only a small minority of the upper ranks of the Government, they do fill several key elected and appointed positions: 7 of the 60 Legislative Assembly deputies are women; 2 of them are on the Assembly Board of Directors. Three vice-ministers in the Duarte administration are women. Five of the governors of El Salvador's 14 departments are women. The highest office held by a woman in recent years was president of the Legislative Assembly (Maria Julia Castillo - 1983 to 1984).

Section 4 Governmental Attitude Regarding International and Nongovernmental Investigation of Alleged Violations of Human Rights

The Government continues to be receptive to visiting groups interested in human rights. High-ranking government officials and military officers regularly meet with U.S. Congressmen, human rights organizations, church and labor groups, and others. Americas Watch and the Lawyers Committee for Human Rights maintain an office in San Salvador. The ICRC has an agreement with the Government that permits it to work in the areas of conflict to assist noncombatants, to visit prisoners and detainees accused of guerrilla activity, and to make confidential reports to the Government on human rights issues. Tutela Legal and the CDH also hav access to the prisons. The U.N. Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in El Salvador made his eighth annual visit to the country in October 1988.

Domestic human rights organizations active in El Salvador include the Government's CDH, an agency which investigates complaints of human rights abuses by all parties, and Tutela Legal of the Catholic Archdiocese of San Salvador. The CDH receives testimony about human rights violations, conducts investigations, visits arrested persons, and reports to the local commanding officer and the Ministry of Defense when it discovers a case of abuse. Its doctors examine detainees to determine the validity of complaints of torture. The CDH keeps a register of persons injured by landmine explosions and is working in conjunction with aid organizations on a project to register civilian amputees and provide them with prosthetic devices.

Tutela Legal's staff visits persons detained by the security forces, carries out some on-site investigations, and receives testimony about human rights violations. Seldom using its findings to assist government authorities in prosecuting human rights offenders, Tutela Legal often declares that government-connected death squads committed a murder when the only evidence available is the body of the victim. Disputing government claims that the FMLN had murdered the FMLN human rights organization (CDHES) chief Herbert Anaya Sanabria in October 1987, for example, it claimed it had evidence that death squads were responsible but never made public its proof.

Guerrilla defectors and captured documents have demonstrated that the FMLN controls several groups that ostensibly are independent human rights organizations. These include the nongovernmental Human Rights Commission of El Salvador (CDHES), the Federation of Committees of Mothers and Families (FECMAFAM), the Committee of Mothers of Political Prisoners, Disappeared and Assassinated of El Salvador (Co-Madres), and the Christian Committee for the Displaced (CRIPDES). These groups report only on perceived abuses by government forces and refuse to investigate, acknowledge, or even record human rights abuses committed by the FMLN. Many of their reports about alleged government abuses, moreover, are highly distorted versions of the facts or, on occasion, are fabrications. They continue to operate freely. Although some individual members were arrested during 1988 and charged with guerrilla membership or activities, all were subsequently released by the security services or the courts.

The Salvadoran Association for Human Rights (ASPRODERH), founded by a group of FMLN defectors who had worked in the CDHES and Co-Madres on behalf of the FMLN, was formed in 1987. It has not been particularly active in 1988. The Lutheran Church, the National Association of Indigenous Persons (ANIS), the National Union of Workers and Peasants (UNOC), and other nongovernmental organizations also have human rights and legal assistance offices.

Section 5 Discrimination Based on Race, Sex, Religion, Language, or Social Status

El Salvador is ethnically homogeneous, though a small segment of the population claims to have descended solely from the region's indigenous Indians. There is no official discrimination against these Indians, but there have been disputes over Indian land ownership.

Under the Constitution, women enjoy the same legal rights as men. Women are represented in limited numbers in all three branches of government, in business, and in the professions. In the Armed Forces, women serve as nurses and in administration and intelligence; the security services have a limited number of policewomen. A high proportion of women in the lower economic strata are heads of single parent households, often providing for large families. In general, women tend to occupy jobs at the lower end of the economic scale, and, outside the Government, women's wages tend to be lower than those of men for equivalent work.

Section 6 Worker Rights

a. The Right of Association

Article 47 of the Constitution prohibits the Government from using nationality, sex, race, creed, or political philosophy to prevent workers or employers from organizing themselves into unions or associations. This Constitutional provision was intended to provide the legal framework for secondary legislation, including a revised labor code. Legislative action has been stymied, however, because of a lack of consensus between government, the private sector, and labor. Five separate proposals for revising the code have been drafted since 1985, and none of these have been formally submitted to the Legislative Assembly. Thus, there remains in place a confusing and sometimes conflicting set of laws governing labor relations. Despite the inconsistencies in law, existing statutes do provide protections which are enforceable under the Constitution.

Legally, only private sector workers have the right to form unions and to strike. Employees of the nine autonomous government entities may form unions but are barred from striking. Finally, the labor code bars agricultural workers and employees of government ministries and departments from forming unions or striking. These employees are instead represented by associations whose function is similar to that of unions.

There are approximately 150 trade unions, employees associations, and peasant organizations currently active, with a combined membership of just over 400,000--roughly 20 percent of the work force. As noted by the International Labor Organizations's (ILO) Committee on Freedom of Association during its Direct Contacts Mission to El Salvador in January 1986, these organizations span the political spectrum and play an active role in El Salvador. The Ministry of Labor counts 100 actual trade unions, representing approximately 100,000 workers; the balance of the organized work force belongs to farmworker or government employee associations. These organizations freely elect their officers in accordance with their individual constitutions and bylaws. Leaders of worker organizations appear regularly on television, publicize their views in the country's major newspapers, and conduct seminars on various issues without government interference.

Since 1980, there has been only one instance where recognition of a union or association was withdrawn "for cause." This was in the case of the Union of Workers for the Rio Lempa Hydroelectric Project (STECEL) which, acting in concert with the FMLN, cut off electricity to most parts of El Salvador, causing several deaths and significant economic damage.

Twice since 1986 the Salvadoran Supreme Court has reaffirmed constitutional safeguards protecting trade unions, worker associations, peasant organizations and their leaders from arbitrary and capricious behavior by management and/or the Government. In March 1986, the court ruled unconstitutional a July 1985 decision by the Labor Ministry which had stripped 11 leaders of the Sewer and Waterworks Union (SETA) of their positions because they disobeyed a labor judge's order to end a strike. The Court held that union leaders cannot be deprived of their leadership status because such status derives from union elections. In August 1987, the Supreme Court similarly overturned an order of the Ministry of Interior which had divested leaders of the ANIS, a peasant association, of their positions. The Court voided the Ministry's order, reinstated the leaders, and ruled that the Minister of Interior was liable for civil damages for having exceeded his authority.

The right to strike for the private sector is provided for by law and is freely exercised in practice. There were 33 private sector strikes during the period June 1, 1987 to May 31, 1988, affecting 4,000 workers. The Ministry of Labor intervened, as set forth in legislation, and the strikes were resolved. The absence of specific laws granting workers in autonomous government institutions as well as public employees the right to strike has not deterred strike activity. For example, more than 8,000 public employees affiliated with the Salvadoran Worker's Central (CTS) walked off their jobs at the Ministries of Public Works and Agriculture in May 1988, demanding a pay increase and other benefits. The CTS members remained off their jobs until the Government agreed to reopen negotiations on their demands.

The ILO's Committee of Freedom of Association has reviewed allegations of the murder, detention, and intimidation of some trade unionists and other antiunion actions over the past few years. The ILO regards the climate of violence and insecurity engendered by the existence of a guerrilla insurgency as an obstacle to the exercise of trade union rights. In 1988 the committee reached interim conclusions regarding some of these cases, and asked the Government to take appropriate steps.

FMLN-linked labor organizations seek to use ostensibly peaceful dissent to provoke government actions, then level charges of workers' rights violations when the Government maintains order. The FMLN seeks to disrupt and subvert democratic labor groups that refuse to collaborate, and it uses occasional traffic stoppages to shut down the economy and force workers to stay away from their places of employment. These actions constitute a perversion of legitimate trade union activity which harms both organized and unorganized labor.

Labor unions are not restricted from affiliations with international labor organizations, and Salvadoran unions freely affiliate with such groups. The Secretary General of the General Confederation of Workers (CGT), the major affiliate of the democratic labor umbrella organization UNOC, represented Salvadoran democratic Labor at the ILO's 1987 and 1988 conferences.

b. The Right to Organize and Bargain Collectively

The right of collective bargaining is granted in Article 39 of the Constitution and Article 269 of the labor code. Under the labor code, only private sector workers can exercise this right, but the Constitution is interpreted broadly to provide all workers the right to bargain collectively.

Private sector unions use the mechanism of collective bargaining extensively. Approximately 53 collective-bargaining agreements covering private sector employees were certified by the Ministry of Labor between June 1, 1987, and May 31, 1988. According to ministry statistics, these 53 contracts covered approximately 44,250 workers. Nearly 60 percent of the collective bargaining agreements certified since June 1984 were contracts for unions affiliated to antigovernment labor organizations. A similar collective bargaining practice is also followed, albeit in a more informal manner, between public employees and the Government.

The Director-General's office (DGT) of the Ministry of Labor is responsible for overseeing the implementation of collective bargaining agreements and acting as conciliator in labor-related disputes in the private sector and in autonomous government institutions. According to the Ministry's latest report, covering the period from June 1, 1987, to May 31, 1988, the DGT participated directly in 403 labor-management conflicts, including 33 strikes. Approximately 250 were resolved through direct conciliation.

Article 47 of the Constitution states that union officials at the time of their election, throughout their term, and for one year following their term shall not be fired, suspended for disciplinary reasons, removed, or debased in their work conditions except for legal cause. This provision is generally observed in practice.

The relationship between the business community and the labor movement has gradually improved over the last few years, but a large reservoir of mistrust remains. Businessmen frequently take measures to prevent unions from being formed. The DGT took steps against such offenders in 1988, and 7 new unions as well as 22 union locals were given legal recognition, some of them in enterprises where management had fought to keep them out.

El Salvador has one export processing zone. There are no differences in labor regulations in this area and those which prevail in general. However, there are no labor unions represented at present in any of the firms in this zone, and the firms discourage labor organizing.

c. Prohibition of Forced or Compulsory Labor

The Constitution prohibits forced or compulsory labor except in cases of public calamity and other instances specifically determined by law.

The ILO's Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions has for a number of years reviewing the provisions in the penal code that allow the imposition of sentences involving compulsory labor. In 1988 it provided the Government with suggestions on how to improve existing legislation and practice. The FMLN continues to force civilians, including minors, to serve as porters, spotters, and couriers for the guerrilla army.

d. Minimum Age for Employment of Children

The Constitution prohibits the employment of children under the age of 14. The labor code states that exceptions can be made only in cases where it can be demonstrated that such employment is absolutely indispensable to the sustenance of the minor and his family. This is most often the case with children of peasant families who traditionally work with their families during planting and harvesting seasons.

The Constitution also prohibits the employment of persons under 18 and all women in occupations considered dangerous.

e. Acceptable Conditions of Work

The Government's National Minimum Wage Council recommended an average 25 percent wage increase for commercial, industrial, service, and agroindustrial employees in May 1988. On May 21, 1988, President Duarte signed a decree raising the minimum wage. Commercial as well as industrial and service workers in San Salvador were paid $3.60 daily, while their counterparts in other areas of the country received $3.40. Agroindustrial workers employed in the cotton and sugar industries received $2.20, while those employed in the coffee industry earned $3.40. The increase in the daily minimum wage was intended to offset higher food prices, which rose sharply due to supply shortages stemming from prolonged drought. Wage rates for most categories of workers are higher than the legal minimums, especially in the private sector. For the most part, minimum wages are inadequate to meet the Ministry of Economy's standard of basic necessity, in which a family unit of five persons requires a monthly income of $282.

The law limits hours of work for minors between 14 and 18 years of age to a maximum of 6 per day, while for adults it is 8. Premium pay is mandated for longer hours.

The Constitution and the labor code spell out the rights of workers to a healthy and safe working environment. These statutes require employers, including the Government, to take steps to ensure that employees are not placed at risk in their workplaces. Despite limited budgetary resources, the Ministry of Labor attempted to enforce the applicable regulations. According to ministry figures, the inspector general's office conducted approximately 29,000 inspections and reinspections between June 1, 1987, and May 31, 1988. Roughly 27,000 of these occurred in commercial, industrial, and service establishments. The total number of employees covered by these inspections and reinspections was nearly 550,000. The inspector-general's corps cited employers for almost 8,000 infractions and assessed fines totaling $45,000. Employers were also ordered to pay approximately $195,000 to employees as compensation for injuries sustained on their jobs.

JOINT STATEMENT

I. WRONGFUL DEATH CLAIMS

Recovery for wrongful death under international law is well established. Numerous mixed claims commissions adjudicated claims between states, including wrongful death claims, from the middle of the nineteenth century to the Second World War. There is also considerable precedent for direct diplomatic settlements of wrongful death claims between states. Recently, the United States reached a settlement of death, injury and property claims with the Government of Israel arising out of an unprovoked air and sea attack on the vessel USS Liberty in 1967, and a settlement has been reached between the United States and the Government of Iraq concerning the death claims arising out of the attack on the USS Stark on May 17, 1987.

It is widely recognized that the purpose of reparation for an international wrong is to make the aggrieved party whole. This principle was announced by the Permanent Court of International Justice in the Chorzow Factory Case in a statement that has since been often quoted. The Court stated that reparation under international law "must, as far as possible, wipe out all the consequences of the illegal act and reestablish the situation which would, in all probability have existed if that act had not been committed." Reparation, said the Court, includes restitution in kind or the monetary equivalent as well as damages for losses not covered by restitution or its monetary equivalent. Chorzow Factory Case (Germany v. Poland), 1928 P.C.I.J., ser. A, No. 17, at 29 (Judgment of Sept. 13, 1928). See e.g., 5 G. Hackworth, Digest of International Law 718-20 (1943); Mann, The Consequences of an International Wrong in International and National Law, 1976-77 Brit. Y.B. Int'l L. 1, 2; Eagleton, Measure of Damages in International Law, 29 Yale L.J. 52, 52-4 (1929).

Elements of Compensation

The decision of the U.S.-German Mixed Claims Commission in the Lusitania case has served generally to fix three basic elements of damage as the accepted international standard of compensation in wrongful death cases. In announcing the standards by which it would decide all wrongful death claims brought before it by U.S. claimants against Germany, the Commission stated that the elements of compensation were:

> the amounts (a) which the decedent, had he not been killed, would probably have contributed to the claimant, . . . (b) the pecuniary value to such claimant of the deceased's personal services in claimant's care, education, or supervision, and . . . (c) reasonable compensation for such mental suffering or shock, if any, caused by the violent severing of family ties, as claimant may actually have sustained by reason of such death.

The Commission stated that the sum of these estimates, reduced to its present cash value, will generally represent the loss sustained by claimant. Lusitania Cases (U.S. v. Germany), Mixed Claims Commission, Administrative Decisions and Opinions of a General Nature, at 19-20. The Lusitania decision provides the most detailed and reasoned discussion by an international body on the elements of damage recoverable in wrongful death cases. Other international claims commissions rarely stated the precise basis for their damage awards, and it is difficult to discover unifying principles in their awards. See generally A. Feller, The Mexican Claims Commissions: 1923-1934 295-300 (1935); 2 F. Garcia-Amador, The Changing Law of International Claims 564-65 (1984); 5 G. Hackworth, Digest of International Law 747-55; R. Lillich & G. Christenson, International Claims: Their Preparation and Presentation 72-74 (1962); 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 660 (1937); Eagleton, Measure of Damages in International Law, 39 Yale L.R. 52, 60; cf. 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law at 704-16 (in very old cases, indemnity sometimes calculated based on the worth of the life lost rather than the loss to claimants).

Many of the diplomatic settlements of wrongful death claims between states have been made in such a way that very little can be discerned about the basis for the amounts involved. This is understandable since the settlements, which usually are concluded by means of ex gratia payments, often seek to avoid assigning wrongdoing imputable to the state and purport to be humanitarian gestures rather than full compensation. See 8 M.

Whiteman, Digest of International Law 888-91, 1265-66; 5 G. Hackworth, Digest of International Law 747-48; 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 700-704, 736-77; cf. Lillich, The Current Status of the Law of State Responsibility, in International Law of State Responsibility for Injuries to Aliens 7-14 (R. Lillich, ed. 1983) (discussing various reasons post-World War II practice has been to settle virtually all international claims by diplomatic settlement).

There are also various other cases, including claims commission decisions and diplomatic settlements, where the basis for the compensation sought and received is not explained in detail, and there is no express reference to compensation for mental shock or loss of personal services. The fact that damages in some of these cases were awarded to claimants who were probably not financially dependent on the deceased, however, indicates that some element other than direct pecuniary loss was included. See 5 G. Hackworth, Digest of International Law 747-55; 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 660-700, Yates, State Responsibility for Nonwealth Injuries to Aliens in the Postwar Era, in International Law of State Responsibility for Injuries to Aliens 216-31 (R. Lillich, ed. 1983); see also e.g., Fisher Case (U.S. v. Mexico), Special Mexican Claims Commission, Decision No. 522, in Report to the Secretary of State 421 (1940); Cooper Case (U.S. v. Mexico), Special Mexican Claims Commission, Decision No. 538, in Report to the Secretary of State 429 (1940). Cases where the basis for damages is expressly stated to include only lost financial contributions are nearly all prior to the Lusitania decision. See 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 660-62, 667-77.

In one case, the Corfu Channel Case, brought by the United Kingdom against Albania in the International Court of Justice, involving deaths, injuries and material damage to two British warships struck by mines off the coast of Albania, the British expressly claimed only for pensions, grants and other amounts paid out by the British Government to families and dependents of the deceased crewmembers and to the injured, and for the costs of medical treatment and administration. Corfu Channel Case (U.K. v. Albania), 1949 I.C.J. 9-10 (Judgment of Dec. 15, 1949 Assessing the Amount of Compensation); Memorial of the United Kingdom (U.K. v. Alb.) 1949 I.C.J. Pleadings (1 Corfu Channel)

92-100 (Memorial dated Sept. 30, 1947); Observations of the United Kingdom (U.K. v. Alb.) 1950 I.C.J. Pleadings (2 Corfu Channel) 391-97 (Observations dated Aug. 1, 1949). The United Kingdom stated in its pleading on the amount of damages, however, that it was not claiming the entire amount of compensation for which it was entitled under international law. See id. at 392. Although the International Court of Justice awarded the full amount claimed by the United Kingdom for wrongful death, Albania did not participate in the damage phase of the case, and has not paid the award.

Recent U.S. practice in international law has expressly followed the Lusitania standard. In requesting compensation from the Government of Israel for wrongful death resulting from the attack on USS Liberty in 1967, the U.S. Government claimed the same three basic elements of damage. The United States stated in diplomatic notes presenting the individual claims that:

> [t]he amount of the claim for the surviving wife and children is based upon the loss of special services the decedent would have performed, shock and mental anguish suffered as a result of the death and the loss of financial contributions the decedent would have made towards their support . . . . The amount of the claim for the surviving parents includes a specific allowance for shock and emotional anguish suffered by the parents as a result of the violent severing of family ties. It also includes an allowance for future support, services and the benefits which the decedent could reasonably be expected to have provided to his parents.

The United States rejected Israeli counterproposals (which were probably influenced by the restrictive British claim in the Corfu Channel Case) to pay compensation to the U.S. Government only in the amount of statutory death benefits and pensions paid by the U.S. Government to survivors of the deceased crewmen. Although Israel paid the full amount of U.S. claims for wrongful death, it made the payments on an ex gratia basis. See 1980 M. Nash, Digest of U.S. Practice in International Law 747.

The three elements of compensation fixed in the Lusitania decision were also the basis of compensation requested of the Government of Iraq in 1960 for the wrongful deaths of three Americans killed by a mob in 1958 while in the custody of Iraq authorities in Baghdad. 8 M. Whiteman, Digest of Internationa Law 901.

Although there is some post-World War II U.S. precedent that does not expressly follow the Lusitania standard, it may in fact contemplate the same general elements of compensation. In a diplomatic claim against Bulgaria that was later filed in the International Court of Justice, the U.S. Government requested compensation for "pecuniary loss" on behalf of famil members of American citizens who were killed when the El Al airliner on which they were travelling was shot down over Bulgarian airspace in 1955. "Pecuniary loss" was not explaine in any more detail, but the term is often used in U.S. domesti law to mean losses that are objectively quantifiable in pecuniary terms such as financial support and personal services. While the term as used in domestic law does not ordinarily include mental shock, see id. at n. 17, the fact that none of the deceased in the El Al tragedy were the male heads of households indicates that damages for mental shock ar anguish were probably included. For example, a claim of $20,000 was made for two sisters of one of the deceased. See Application of the United States (U.S. v. Bulgaria), I.C.J. Pleadings (Aerial Incident of 27 July 1955) 28-30 (Applicatio dated Dec. 2, 1958). A Department of State memorandum from 1959 refers only to those damages for wrongful death that equa the "amount the decedent would have contributed to his dependents had he lived." There is no reference to damages for mental shock and lost special services. See 8 M. Whiteman, Digest of International Law 900-01. Written suggestions of the Department of State on the preparation of claims, dated July 1 155, do not specify the types of damages available for wrongf death. These suggestions are reprinted in R. Lillich & G. Christenson, International Claims: Their Preparation and Presentation 131-33.

Governments demanding compensation from the Soviet Union for the deaths of their citizens resulting from the 1983 shooting down of Korean Airlines flight 007 by a Soviet fight-plane include the United States, Australia, Canada, Japan, the Philippines, South Korea, and the United Kingdom. Specific amounts have so far been claimed only by Canada and the United Kingdom. Details of their legal basis, however, have not been made public. The Soviet Union has never acknowledged responsibility for the tragedy.

There is precedent for demanding punitive damages in international law, but such damages have usually been demanded in diplomatic settlements by the state for injury to itself, not for injuries to its citizens. See 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 716-33. Most claims commissions were not given jurisdiction to award punitive damages.

Calculation of Damages

The published decisions of the various mixed claims commissions do not offer much guidance as to the method used in calculating awards or what evidence was relied on in individual cases. Nor do the exhaustive catalogue of claims settlements and tables of awards set out in Whiteman's first volume of Damages in International Law (1937) demonstrate enough consistency that a common methodology for arriving at an amount can be accurately deduced from them. See 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 637-826; A. Feller, The Mexican Claims Commissions 1923-1934 295-300. Although the various awards made by the U.S.-German Mixed Claims Commission usually do not provide details of the evidence relied upon by the Commission to calculate damages, the Lusitania decision does contain a useful list of various considerations and factors the Commission stated would guide it in calculating awards. Lusitania Cases (U.S. v. Germany), Mixed Claims Commission, Administrative Decisions and Opinions of a General Nature, at 20-21. At least as to damages for lost financial contributions, this list is the most exhaustive and well-reasoned statement by an international body of the factors to consider in calculating wrongful death damages under international law. The United States followed many of the same factors in calculating damages for the claims against Israel arising out of the attack on USS Liberty. The principal considerations and factors can be summarized as follows:

> the age of the decedent, his present and future earning capacity, his probable life expectancy, the amount of his present and estimated future contributions to his dependents, and the estimated amount of his present and future personal consumption.

These factors have been cited with approval as the basis for calculating the lost financial support element of wrongful death claims. See G. Hackworth, Digest of International Law 750-53 (1943); R. Lillich & G. Christenson, International Claims: Their Preparation and Presentation 73 n.270; 8 Whiteman, Digest of International Law 900-901.

The Lusitania decision does not provide detailed guidance on how to calculate damages for lost personal services and mental shock and anguish. It does state, however, that compensation for mental shock and suffering of the dependents of the deceased "must be adequate and balance as near as may be the injury suffered. . . Mental suffering is a fact just as real as physical suffering, and susceptible of measurement by the same standards. . . Mental suffering to form a basis of recovery must be real and actual rather than purely sentimental and vague." Lusitania Decision, supra, at 21-22.

II. PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS

Recovery under international law for personal injury is well established. Generally, damages are determined by the actual monetary loss shown to have been sustained. In ascertaining that loss, the nature and seriousness of the injury, the extent of impairment to health and earning capacity and the claimant's station in life are considered rather than the nature and seriousness of the wrong of the respondent state. 1 M. Whiteman, Damages in International Law 627 (1937). Other factors, including the permanency of the injury, disfigurement and mental suffering are also taken into account. Id.

Although there is limited discussion of personal injury claims under international law, one international claims commission stated precisely the basis for damage awards in personal injury cases. The Special Mexican Claims Commission examined claims of U.S. nationals against Mexico for personal or property damages suffered during the Mexican Revolution. The Commission articulated in Decision 1 the general principles it would apply in reviewing a personal injury claim, stating that due weight would be given to the following factors:

> The nature and seriousness of the injury; the extent of the impairment of the claimant's health and earning capacity; the proved expenses and loss of time incident to the injury; and any aggravation of the injury by unusual cruelty.

Report to the Secretary of State (Special Mexican Claims Commission) (Department of State, Arbitration Ser. 7, 1940) 15, 21.

Most diplomatic settlements of personal injury claims do not indicate the basis for the amount involved. However, in determining the amount of compensation sought from the Government of Israel for the personal injury claims arising out the attack on the USS Liberty, the State Department took into account, as customarily done in international practice, the nature and extent of the bodily injuries, pain and physical suffering associated with those injuries, and loss of earning capacity, if any.

Most nations recognize that compensable damages for personal injury claims include both pecuniary and non-pecuniary losses. Pecuniary losses include loss of earning capacity and the expenses occasioned by the injury. Such losses are more capable of monetary calculation. Non-pecuniary losses include physical pain, mental suffering, distress for disfigurement and the like associated with the injury. These elements, while more difficult to measure, are also considered compensable. Therefore, in accordance with international law and practice, compensation would be awarded for physical injuries taking into account: 1) the nature and severity of the injuries; 2) the pain and suffering associated with those injuries; 3) any special expenses incurred as a result of the injuries; 4) any resulting lost earnings or lost earnings capacity.

From: Andre:

As you may know, we have invoked an international commission, pursuant to a 1914 Treaty with Chile, to look into the Letelier/Moffitt murders and their aftermath. The Commission calls for a national and non-national to be appointed by each party, and a president to be appointed by mutual agreement.

Chile recently revoked its approval of the sitting president, and we are now engaged in discussions about a replacement. I prepared a list of potential candidates from third countries for the front office based on my work this summer finding two replacement arbitrators for the Iran-US Claims Tribunal, but Mary Mochary said that she would prefer people with a law enforcement background. (My list was comprised primarily of international commercial arbitration types).

Which leads to my request: are you aware of prominent, well-qualified lawyers from third countries who have a law enforcement/criminal law background, and an internationalist bent? In addition, are there professional associations of these types that I could tap into?

Thanks.

SUBJECT: THE VICE PRESIDENT'S MEETINGS IN SAN SALVADOR - MEMORANDA OF CONVERSATIONS

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT.

2. FOLLOWING ARE THE MEMORANDA OF CONVERSATIONS OF THE VICE PRESIDENT'S MEETINGS IN SAN SALVADOR FEBRUARY 3 FOR YOUR REVIEW, EDITING AND DISTRIBUTION.

3. MEETING WITH ARCHBISHOP RIVERA DAMAS

IN HIS FIRST MEETING UPON ARRIVAL IN EL SALVADOR, THE VP OPENED THE CONVERSATION WITH ARCHBISHOP OF SAN SALVADOR ARTUPO RIVERA DAMAS EMPHASIZING THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S DEEP COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE. THE VP REFERRED TO HIS JUST CONCLUDED REPRESENTATION OF THE UNITED STATES AT THE INAUGURATION OF CARLOS ANDRES PEREZ AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE PEACEFUL TRANSITION OF POWER THAT HE HOPED EL SALVADOR WOULD SOON ENJOY.

RIVERA DAMAS CHARACTERIZED HIMSELF AS A PASTOR AND VIEWED EVENTS IN EL SALVADOR FROM THIS OPTIC. POLITICAL SPACE HAS OPENED IN EL SALVADOR, BUT HAS BEEN USED IN TWO WAYS, ONE POSITIVE, THE OTHER NEGATIVE. SOME POLITICAL ELEMENTS HAVE SOUGHT TO USE THE GROWTH OF THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM IN EL SALVADOR TO CREATE POLITICAL PROBLEMS FOR THE SYSTEM THAT HAS GIVEN THEM THE POLITICAL SPACE. IN A CIRCULAR PROCESS, THEIR ABUSE OF THE SYSTEM THEN ENGENDERS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN EL SALVADOR HAS WORKED OVER THE PAST YEARS OF THE CONFLICT TO ALLEVIATE ITS SYMPTOMS AND TO HUMANIZE ITS CONDUCT. SOCIAL WORK HAS EMPHASIZED WORK WITH ORPHANS AND DISPLACED PERSONS AND EVACUATION OF WOUNDED FMLN COMBATANTS. POLICY WORK HAS FOCUSSED ON EFFORTS TO LOWER THE INTENSITY OF FIGHTING BY PERSUADING THE GOVERNMENT TO DESIST FROM AERIAL BOMBARDMENT AND THE FMLN TO DESIST FROM INDISCRIMINATE USE OF CONTACT LAND MINES. OVERALL THE CHURCH HAS SOUGHT TO CREATE AN AUSPICIOUS CLIMATE FOR DIALOGUE. IT WAS IN THIS LATTER CONTEXT

THAT HE BROUGHT THE LATEST FMLN PROPOSAL FROM MEXICO.

WITH REGARD TO THE PROPOSAL, THE ARCHBISHOP NOTED THAT THE POLITICAL PARTIES AND THE GOVERNMENT FIRST APPEARED TO REJECT IT. HE NOTED NOW A SECOND LOOK BY THEM, REFLECTING A MORE FLEXIBLE APPROACH AND AN EFFORT TO FORMULATE A COUNTERPROPOSAL. RIVERA DAMAS EMPHASIZED THAT SINCE HIS DELIVERY OF THE DOCUMENT HE HAS CHARACTERIZED IT AS A POLITICAL PROPOSAL FROM POLITICIANS, DIRECTED TO POLITICIANS AND FOR POLITICIANS. HE HAS ASKED THAT IT BE STUDIED AND NOT REJECTED OFF THE CUFF. THE PROPOSAL IS ONLY IN THE REALM OF IDEAS, BUT IT APPEALS TO THOSE IN EL SALVADOR WHO DESIRE PEACE. HE UNDERSTANDS THAT THE PROPOSAL PRESENTS THE MOST POLITICAL DIFFICULTIES TO THE ARENA AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT (PDC) PARTIES.

THE CHURCH UNDERSTANDS THE NEED TO BALANCE RESPECT FOR THE CONSTITUTION WITH THE DESIRE FOR PEACE. IT IS A DIFFICULT EQUATION AND THE CHURCH IS AWAITING THE DECISIONS OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES.

THE VICE PRESIDENT UNDERSCORED THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S VIEW THAT DEMOCRACY AND PEACE ARE THE BEST ROUTES TO CREATING JOBS AND ALLEVIATING POVERTY. THE ADMINISTRATION ADAMANTLY CONDEMNS VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND RIGHT. VIOLENCE LEADS TO VIOLENCE. WE WANT PEACE. IN 1983 THEN VICE PRESIDENT BUSH MADE A STRONG STATEMENT ON HUMAN RIGHTS. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID HIS VISIT TODAY IS TO EMPHASIZE THAT DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS GO TOGETHER.

THE VICE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT THE FMLN PROPOSAL HAS NOT BEEN REJECTED BY THE UNITED STATES. IT IS NOW UP TO THE FMLN TO RESPOND SERIOUSLY BY IMPLEMENTING AN IMMEDIATE CEASE-FIRE. UNITED STATES' DESIRES IN EL SALVADOR SHOULD BE CLEAR. WE SEE THE CONSTITUTION AS A SACRED DOCUMENT, ONE THAT REFLECTS THE LINKAGE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. WE BELIEVE PRESIDENT DUARTE HAS DONE A SUPERB JOB OF CONSOLIDATING DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR. WE CONGRATULATE HIM FOR THIS ACCOMPLISHMENT. EL SALVADOR TODAY IS DIFFERENT FROM THE EL SALVADOR VICE PRESIDENT BUSH SAW IN 1983.

RIVERA DAMAS SAID HE FOUND THE VICE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS CONSOLING AND COMFORTING FOR THE PEOPLE OF EL SALVADOR. YOUR VISION IS REALISTIC. IT IS IMPORTANT TODAY FOR YOU TO TALK DIRECTLY TO PEOPLE WHO HAVE AN IMPORTANT ROLE TO PLAY IN ENDING THE VIOLENCE. HE SHARED FULLY THE VICE PRESIDENT'S ASSESSMENT OF PRESIDENT DUARTE'S GREAT ACCOMPLISHMENT OF CONSOLIDATING DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR.

THE VICE PRESIDENT CLOSED BY ASKING THAT THE ARCHBISHOP STAY IN CONTACT WITH THE AMBASSADOR.

4. MEETING WITH PDC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FIDEL CHAVEZ MENA

PDC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE MET WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT ACCOMPANIED BY HIS VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FRANCISCO (CHICO) BARRIENTOS, PDC MAURICIO ALVERGUE (FORMER SALVADORAN AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES AND NOW MEMBER OF THE PDC POLITICAL COMMITTEE) AND ATILIO VIEYTEZ (ALSO MEMBER OF THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE).

CHAVEZ MENA RECIPROCATED THE VICE PRESIDENT'S GREETINGS BY WISHING HIM WELL AND ASKING THAT HIS PERSONAL CONGRATULATIONS BE PASSED TO THE PRESIDENT. HE NOTED HIS PERSONAL ACQUAINTANCE WITH THE PRESIDENT AND RECALLED SEVERAL PREVIOUS CONVERSATIONS WITH HIM. HE ASKED THAT THE PRESIDENT BE THANKED FOR THE SUPPORT THE PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAVE GIVEN TO EL SALVADOR. HE NOTED THAT THE REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION HAS CONSISTENTLY SUPPORTED ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID AND PROVIDED POLITICAL BACKING TO EL SALVADOR. WE WOULD NEVER HAVE GOTTEN THIS FAR WITHOUT YOU. SALVADORAN DEMOCRACY, THOUGH, IS STILL IN ITS INFANCY. IT IS A FRAGILE ACCOMPLISHMENT.

CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE HAS BEEN A PRINCIPAL WITNESS TO THIS PROGRESS, AS A MEMBER OF THE PDC WHEN THEY MADE A PACT WITH THE MILITARY, AS FOREIGN MINISTER AND THEN AS MINISTER OF PLANNING WHERE FOR FOUR YEARS HE

MANAGED THE UNITED STATES' ASSISTANCE PROGRAM. IN THESE ROLES HE HAS SOUGHT TO HARMONIZE AND COORDINATE UNITED STATES AND SALVADORAN NATIONAL INTERESTS AS A GREAT FRIEND OF THE UNITED STATES.

PROGRESS HAS BEEN ACHIEVED DESPITE RECOGNIZED ERRORS AND GREAT DIFFICULTIES. HOWEVER, DESPITE EVERYTHING THAT HAS OCCURRED, BECAUSE OF HELP FROM THE UNITED STATES, THE ECONOMY NEVER COLLAPSED AND THE FMLN IS LOSING GROUND EVERY DAY. THE FMLN, AS A CONSEQUENCE, IS LOSING ITS GLOBAL VISION OF A REVOLUTIONARY TRIUMPH.

CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE HOPED TO SEE THE VICE PRESIDENT AGAIN, BUT NEXT TIME AS PRESIDENT OF EL SALVADOR. HE HAS A MORAL OBLIGATION TO WIN THE PRESIDENCY BECAUSE THE VERY DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, NOT JUST A POLITICAL CANDIDACY, IS AT STAKE. CHAVEZ MENA NOTED THAT THE VICE PRESIDENT HAD JUST COME FROM VENEZUELA WHERE HE HAD WITNESSED A PEACEFUL TRANSITION OF POWER IN WHICH THE PDC THERE LOST POWER. VENEZUELA, COMPARED TO EL SALVADOR, IS A CONSOLIDATED DEMOCRACY. EL SALVADOR IS NOT. FOR THIS REASON, CHAVEZ MENA REPEATED HE HAD A MORAL OBLIGATION TO WIN THE PRESIDENCY. FOR ALL ITS PROBLEMS, THE PDC IS THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE IN THIS ELECTION.

AN ARENA PRESIDENTIAL VICTORY WOULD POLARIZE THE NATION. THE FMLN WOULD BE DELIGHTED BY AN ARENA VICTORY. THERE WOULD BE A SHIFT TO THE LEFT BY TRADE UNIONS, PEASANT ORGANIZATIONS AND THE MIDDLE CLASS. THE WORST CASE SCENARIO FOR EL SALVADOR WOULD BE A DIMINSHED PDC, A STRENGTHEND LEFT AND ARENA IN POWER.

ARENA AS A PARTY WAS BORN IN ORDER TO BLOCK DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR. THE ISSUE IN THIS ELECTION IS NOT

ONE OF PERSONALITIES. THE VICE PRESIDENT, HE NOTED, WOULD SEE FREDY CRISTIANI, A NICE INDIVIDUAL AND GOOD MAN. THIS IS NOT THE ISSUE. THE ISSUE IS WHICH PARTY WILL STRENGTHEN THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM. THERE IS ONLY ONE ANSWER. THE PDC.

CHAVEZ MENA THEN OUTLINED FIVE ARGUMENTS TO UNDERSCORE THIS ASSERTION.

(A) CONSOLIDATION OF DEMOCRACY: THE PDC IS COMMITTED TO HUMAN RIGHTS, TO IMPROVE THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE, AND TO STRENGTHEN POLITICAL FREEDOMS. THE PARTY HAS A VISION OF DEMOCRACY.

(B) END THE WAR. THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN CARRIES WITH IT GLOBAL POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS. CHAVEZ MENA STATED THAT HE HAD JUST ANNOUNCED THIS MORNING THAT THE PDC, WITH THE CONSENSUS OF THE OTHER POLITICAL PARTIES, WOULD SUPPORT CHANGING THE DATE OF THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. IF THE FMLN DOES NOT AGREE WITH THE CONSENSUS DATE AND DOES NOT PARTICIPATE, AFTER HE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT AND TAKES OFFICE JUNE 1, HE WILL CALL IMMEDIATELY FOR A DIALOGUE WITH THE FMLN LEADING TO A NATIONAL PLEBISCITE ON SEPTEMBER 15 TO GIVE THE FMLN THE CHANCE AT THE BALLOT BOX THAT IT SAYS IT NOW ACCEPTS. IF ARENA IS IN POWER THIS WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT.

(C) IMPROVE THE ECONOMY: IT IS DIFFIULT TO IMPROVE THE ECONOMY IN THE MIDDLE OF A WAR. HOWEVER, YOUR OWN ADVISORS WILL APPRECIATE THE ECONOMIC PLATFORM OF THE CHAVEZ MENA GOVERNMENT. IMPROVING THE ECONOMY DEPENDS ON FINDING THE RIGHT PEOPLE TO RUN AN EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION. THE PARTY HAS AUTHORIZED HIM TO REACH OUT TO INDEPENDENT SECTORS, BEGINNING WITH HIS VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. THE CHAVEZ MENA ADMINISTRATION WILL BE CHARACTERIZED FOR ITS BROAD BASE AND AMPLE PARTICIPATION FROM EVERY SECTOR, INCLUDING THE BUSINESS SECTOR.

ABOVE ALL, HIS WILL BE AN HONEST ADMINISTRATION. THE CORRUPTION ISSUE LEVELED AGAINST THE DUARTE GOVERNMENT WAS PART REAL AND PART FICTITIOUS. THE PERCEPTION, HOWEVER, HURT THE PARTY SERIOUSLY AND HE IS LABORING UNDER THIS PROBLEM. HIS COMMITMENT, THOUGH, IS TO HONEST GOVERNMENT, EFFICIENT

GOVERNMENT, AND PARTICIPATION FROM INDEPENDENT EXPERTS CAPABLE OF HELPING TO END THE WAR, CONSOLIDATE DEMOCRACY AND BRING ECONOMIC GROWTH.

(D) INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT: CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE WANTED TO SPEAK FRANKLY TO THE VICE PRESIDENT. ONLY THE PDC HAS THE INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION AND CONNECTIONS NEEDED TO CONSOLIDATE DEMOCRACY. ARENA WOULD BE ISOLATED INTERNATIONALLY. CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE IS KNOWN BY ALL KEY WORLD LEADERS, INCLUDING THE POPE, PRIME MINISTER FELIPE GONZALEZ, AND WESTERN GERMAN CHANCELLOR KOHL. KOHL HAS MADE NO SECRET OF HIS SUPPORT. IN MEETINGS WITH CHAVEZ MENA HE PROMISED TO CONVEY HIS SUPPORT FOR HIM TO THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION. MOST EUROPEAN FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE PERSONAL FRIENDS.

UNITED STATES NEUTRALITY IN THE SALVADORAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION CANNOT APPLY TO NEUTRALITY ABOUT THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM ITSELF, AND IN THIS REGARD, THE PDC IS THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE. THE UNITED STATES CANNOT IGNORE THIS FACT. CHAVEZ MENA SAID THIS WAS NOT A CAMPAIGN SPEECH; THIS IS A FACT OF THE SITUATION THAT THE UNITED STATES CONFRONTS IN THIS ELECTION. NEUTRALITY AS AN ABSTRACT POSITION WAS UNDERSTANDABLE, BUT THE UNITED STATES MUST UNDERSTAND THAT NEUTRALITY IN EL SALVADOR MEANS A TILT TO THE RIGHT. THE SIGNAL THAT WE SEND BY OUR STATEMENTS OF NEUTRALITY IS THAT WE ARE OPENING THE DOOR TO A NON-DEMOCRATIC PARTY BY ACCEPTING IT AS AN EQUAL TO THE DEMOCRATIC PDC. THE EUROPEANS ARE NOT NEUTRAL ON THIS ISSUE.

THE VICE PRESIDENT THANKED CHAVEZ MENA FOR HIS DIRECT REMARKS. HE NOTED THAT WE SHARE A MORAL COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. THE UNITED STATES IS COMMITTED TO SEEING DEMOCRACY STABILIZED IN EL SALVADOR; IN THIS CONTEXT WE ARE NEUTRAL IN THE ELECTION. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID THAT HE UNDERSTOOD WHAT CHAVEZ MENA WAS IMPLYING WITH REGARD TO ARENA WERE IT TO WIN THE ELECTION AND DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS TAKE A TURN FOR THE WORSE. IF THIS HAPPENS, THIS WOULD NOT BE DEMOCRACY BECAUSE STATE SPONSORED VIOLENCE IS INCOMPATIBLE WITH THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. SECURITY FOR THE STATE IS ONE CONCEPT. STATE SPONSORED VIOLENCE AGAINST CITIZENS IS SOMETHING ELSE. THE UNITED STATES UNDERSTANDS THE DIFFERENCE AND WOULD NOT ACCEPT SUCH BEHAVIOR.

THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED WHETHER THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION SHOULD BE POSTPONED. NOTING THAT PRESIDENT DUARTE IS COMMITTED TO LEAVING OFFICE ON SCHEDULE JUNE 1, WHAT DID CHAVEZ MENA HAVE IN MIND WITH REGARD TO A POSTPONEMENT.

CHAVEZ MENA SAID THAT DUARTE WILL LEAVE OFFICE JUNE 1 AND HE WILL TAKE OFFICE THE SAME DAY. THIS DATE CANNOT BE POSTPONED. HOWEVER, THERE IS A NEED TO DEMONSTRATE FLEXIBILITY ON THE FMLN PROPOSAL. SINCE 1982 THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITION HAS BEEN THAT THE FMLN SHOULD INCORPORATE ITSELF INTO THE PROCESS AND PURSUE ITS OBJECTIVES AT THE BALLOT BOX. IF THE FMLN IS NOW SAYING THAT IT WILL DO THAT, THERE IS A NEED TO RESPOND CAREFULLY AND TO FIND A DATE WITHIN THE CONSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK SO THAT THE FMLN CAN PARTICIPATE.. IF A DATE CANNOT BE FOUND NOW, CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE HAS PROPOSED THAT AFTER TAKING OFFICE, THE GOVERNMENT ENTER INTO A DIALOGUE LEADING TO A NATIONAL PLEBISCITE ON THE SEPTEMBER 15 DATE CHOSEN BY THE FMLN FOR AN ELECTION. THE DIALOGUE AND THE PLEBISCITE WILL END THE WAR.

REFERRING AGAIN TO HIS FIVE POINTS, CHAVEZ MENA UNDERSCORED THE NEED FOR POLITICAL, AS WELL AS MILITARY, CONDUCT OF THE WAR. FOR A POLITICIAN, PEACE AND ELECTIONS CAUSE EMOTIONAL REACTIONS. THE FMLN HAS BEEN ASTUTE IN CAUSING PROBLEMS FOR THE SYSTEM, BUT IN AN ELECTORAL CONTEXT. EVERYONE IS NOW MAKING AN OFFER, EVEN ROBERTO D'AUBUISSON. PARENTHETICALLY, CHAVEZ MENA SAID D'AUBUISSON SHOULD BE BEHIND BARS TOGETHER WITH HIS DEATH SQUADS AS THE FIRST BY-PRODUCTS OF AN EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. D'AUBUISSON'S LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY PROPOSAL FOR A 72-HOUR AMNESTY FOR THE FIVE FMLN LEADERS IS A POLITICAL AND LEGAL TRAVESTY. HE SAID HE COULD NOT PARTIALLY PARDON SOMEONE WHO HAS COMMITTED A CRIME. THE ISSUE NEEDS TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY AND ONE SHOULD LEND ONESELF TO PLAYING THE FMLN'S GAME.

THE FMLN CAN PARTICIPATE NOW IN THE SYSTEM BECAUSE THEY ARE SUPPORTING POLITICALLY THE CONVERGENCIA DEMOCRATICA WHICH IS ALREADY PARTICIPATING. POSTPONING THE JUNE 1 DATE FOR TAKING OFFICE BY THE NEW PRESIDENT IS NOT POSSIBLE BECAUSE IT WOULD CAUSE CONSTITUTIONAL CHAOS. THE CHOICE IS BETWEEN CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER AND ANARCHY. THE PROCESS IS TOO DEAR AND HAS BEEN GAINED AT TOO HIGH A PRICE TO PLAY GAMES WITH IT. THE MILITARY IS ALSO A FACTOR; IT IS COMMITTED, FINALLY, TO RESPECT THE CONSTITUTION. THE PDC IS, THUS, THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE TO ACHIEVE PEACE THROUGH THE CONSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK. WE ARE THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE; EVERYTHING ELSE FLOWS FROM THIS FACT.

THE VICE PRESIDENT REITERATED OUR COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY THROUGH THE BALLOT BOX AS THE FUNDAMENTAL ELEMENT OF OUR COMMITMENT TO THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM IN EL SALVADOR.

CHAVEZ MENA COMMENTED THAT THE UNITED STATES SYSTEM HAS BEEN CONSOLIDATED OVER 200 YEARS. ELECTIONS DO NOT PUT THE SYSTEM IN JEOPARDY. THAT IS NOT THE CASE YET IN EL SALVADOR. ONLY THE PDC CAN ASSURE THE UNINTERRUPTED CONTINUATION OF THE PROCESS. THIS ELECTION IS ABOUT THE SYSTEM; IT IS NOT ABOUT THE CANDIDATES. THERE IS TOO MUCH AT RISK. PEOPLE SAY WE ARE CRAZY TO TRY TO START A DEMOCRACY IN THE MIDDLE OF A WAR. ABRUPT CHANGE AT THIS POINT THROUGH AN ARENA VICTORY WOULD DISRUPT THIS PROCESS. A SHIFT TO THE EXTREME RIGHT WOULD CAUSE TERRIBLE POLITICAL TURBULENCE THAT WOULD JEOPARDIZE THE SYSTEM. IN ADDITION, NO PARTY SHOULD HAVE A MONOPOLY ON POWER SUCH AS ARENA WOULD HAVE THROUGH CONTROL OF THE PRESIDENCY, LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, SUPREME COURT, GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE, INDEPENDENT AGENCIES AND THE MILITARY. THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES BELIEVE IN CHECKS AND BALANCES; IN THEIR WISDOM THEY GAVE THE CONGRESS TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND THE PRESIDENCY TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. SUCH BALANCE WOULD NOT EXIST IF ARENA WINS THE PRESIDENCY.

CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE HAS CLEANED UP HIS PARTY. THE PROCESS IS NOT COMPLETE, BUT HE IS COMMITTED TO A FULL HOUSECLEANING OF UNSAVORY ELEMENTS. WHY HAS CRISTIANI NOT DONE THE SAME WITH HIS PARTY? WHY HAS CRISTIANI NOT DONE LIKE CHAVEZ MENA AND GOTTEN THE UNSAVORY ELEMENTS OUT OF HIS PARTY? I WANT CRISTIANI TO CLEAN OUT THE DEATH SQUADS FROM HIS PARTY; WHY WON'T HE DO IT, CHAVEZ MENA ASKED. THE UNITED STATES KNOWS EXACTLY WHAT HE IS TALKING ABOUT SINCE WE KNOW EXACTLY WHAT D'AUBUISSON'S ROLE WAS WITH THE DEATH SQUADS. CHAVEZ MENA EXCUSED HIS FRANKNESS, BUT SAID THERE IS SIMPLY TOO MUCH AT STAKE NOT TO SPEAK DIRECTLY ON THIS ISSUE. THE SYSTEM, THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS ARE AT STAKE. THIS IS THE KEY POINT CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE WANTED TO MAKE.

ARENA WITH TOTAL POWER WILL RADICALIZE EL SALVADOR TO THE POINT THE SYSTEM WILL BE JEOPARDIZED. DEMOCRACY IS A NEWBORN CHILD HERE; IT NEEDS HELP TO WALK. THE PROBLEM IN THIS ELECTION IS NOT PERSONALITIES; THIS IS NOT THE ISSUE. THE ISSUE IS THE SYSTEM AND WHO CAN BEST ASSURE THE PEOPLE OF EL SALVADOR AND THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WHICH HAS BACKED THIS PROCESS, THAT THE SYSTEM WILL ADVANCE AND CONSOLIDATE. CHAVEZ MENA NOTED THAT HE HAS BEEN IN PUBLIC LIFE FOR 28 YEARS. THIS ELECTION IS ABOUT THE PROCESS AND HE SAID HE IS THE ONLY ONE IN THIS ELECTION THAT CAN ASSURE IT WILL GO FORWARD.

CHICO BARRIENTOS EXPLAINED THAT HE WAS NOT A MEMBER OF THE PDC, BUT REPRESENTED THE INDEPENDENT SECTORS WHO WANT TO HELP THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND WHO UNDERSTAND THAT ARENA IS NOT A DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE. HE RECALLED THAT D'AUBUISSON WAS A HIGH SCHOOL CLASSMATE, HE KNEW HIM WELL AND HIS STATEMENT IS BASED ON PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE. BARRIENTOS SAID HIS INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT REPRESENTED THE BROAD MIDDLE

GLASS DEMOCRATIC CENTER THAT WANTS TO PRESERVE DEMOCRACY. IN ALLYING ITSELF WITH THE PDC, THE IDEA IS TO DRAW INTO GOVERNMENT NEW PEOPLE AND TO RID THE GOVERNMENT OF CORRUPTION. THE GOVERNMENT THAT FOLLOWS WILL BE NOT ONLY OF THE PDC, BUT OF THE MOST EFFICIENT TECHNICIANS AND EXPERTS THAT THE COUNTRY HAS AVAILABLE.

THE VICE PRESIDENT CONCLUDED THE MEETING EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR CHAVEZ MENA'S CLEAR PRESENTATION. HE UNDERSCORED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PROMISE TO RUN A CLEAN GOVERNMENT AND NOTED THAT ONLY AN HONEST GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE CREDIBILITY. ON THE ISSUE OF THE PROCESS AND THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, THE UNITED STATES IS FULLY COMMITTED; THE BOND BETWEEN US IS DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE. WE WILL NOT CHOOSE SIDES, BUT WILL LET THE PEOPLE DECIDE. WE WOULD, THOUGH, NOT LOOK FAVORABLY ON ANY ACTION THAT WOULD DISRUPT THE SYSTEM OR HARM DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR.

5. MEETING WITH ARENA PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FREDY CRISTIANI

ARENA PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FREDY CRISTIANI WAS ACCOMPANIED TO HIS MEETING WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT BY VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE CHICO MERINO, PRESIDENT OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY RICARDO ALVARENGA VALDIVIESO AND BY ACTING SAN SALVADOR MAYOR JUAN JOSE DOMENECH. THE VICE PRESIDENT CONVEYED TO THE CANDIDATE AND THE PARTY THE GREETINGS OF PRESIDENT BUSH, NOTING THE PRESIDENT'S PERSONAL INTEREST IN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. A LOT HAS CHANGED SINCE THE VICE PRESIDENT'S 1983 VISIT TO EL SALVADOR. THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED THAT HIS VISITORS SPEAK FRANKLY TO HIM ABOUT HOW THEY SEE THE SITUATION.

CRISTIANI, SPEAKING IN ENGLISH, THANKED THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR COMING TO LISTEN TO THEM AND NOTED HE FELT IT A GREAT HONOR TO SHARE WITH HIM ARENA'S VIEWS.

WITH REGARD TO THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN, THE FMLN PROPOSAL HAS INTRODUCED CERTAIN OBSTACLES TO THE PROCESS SUCH AS THE ATTACKS ON THE ELECTED MAYORS. NEVERTHELESS, HE FELT OPTIMISTIC BASED ON THE RESULTS OF POLLING DATA WHICH APPEARED TO FAVOR ARENA. A DELAY OF THE ELECTION WOULD BE A PROBLEM, HE SAID.

THE FMLN PROPOSAL CONTAINS UNCONSTITUTIONAL ELEMENTS. HOWEVER, IT SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED THAT THE FMLN SAYS IT IS ACCEPTING THE ELECTORAL PROCESS FOR THE FIRST TIME. THE STRATEGY OF ANY RESPONSE SHOULD BE TO HOLD THEM TO THIS COMMITMENT AND TRY TO PULL THEM IN, NOT SHUT THE DOOR. THE ARENA OFFICIAL POSITION WAS PUT FORWARD IN THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY LAST WEEK A CALL WAS MADE FOR A NATIONAL PEACE PROPOSAL TO BE CONSIDERED ALONGSIDE THE FMLN PROPOSAL. ARENA USED THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY AS A FORUM TO BRING THE PARTIES TOGETHER. THE PDC DID NOT ATTEND THE SESSION, UNFORTUNATELY, WHICH WAS AIMED AT ANALYZING WHAT POSITIVE ELEMENTS EXIST IN THE THE FMLN PROPOSAL THAT DO NOT VIOLATE THE CONSTITUTION. AT THE SAME TIME, THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH HAS CALLED FOR DISCUSSIONS ON THE FMLN PROPOSAL TO WHICH ARENA WAS NOT INVITED. TO GET OVER THIS IMPASSE, ARENA HAS PROPOSED A THIRD VENUE AT A LOCAL HOTEL TO BRING ALL SIDES TOGETHER TO CONSIDER A SINGLE RESPONSE.

ARENA HAS PROPOSED IN THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY A 72-HOUR AMNESTY TO PERMIT THE FMLN COMMANDANTES TO PRESENT THEIR PROPOSAL DIRECTLY TO THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY. CRISTIANI NOTED THAT SEVERAL OBJECTIONS HAD BEEN RAISED TO THIS PROPOSAL BY OTHER POLITICAL PARTIES SAYING SUCH AN AMNESTY WAS ILLEGAL. ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, THE MEETING OF ALL THE POLITICAL PARTIES WOULD, HOPEFULLY, BE HELD TO ADDRESS ALL THESE ISSUES. ARENA WOULD ADOPT THE POSITION THAT, AS A POLITICAL PARTY, IT COULD NOT EXCEED THE STRICTURES OF THE CONSTITUTION. THERE MAY BE SOME FLEXIBILITY IN THE SYSTEM, HOWEVER, AND ARENA IS LOOKING FOR IDEAS. CONSTITUTIONAL LAWYERS MEETING, BY COINCIDENCE, IN SAN SALVADOR THIS WEEK LOOKED AT THE ISSUES AND ALL AGREED THAT POSTPONING THE ELECTION BEYOND THE LEGALLY MANDATED PERIOD AND ORGANIZATION OF A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT WAS NOT POSSIBLE. ARENA HAS NOT ACCEDED TO THE FMLN'S PROPOSAL FOR A FIVE DAY TRUCE, BUT INSTEAD, BELIEVES ANY PLAN SHOULD INCLUDE A CEASE-FIRE. HE NOTED THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF EL SALVADOR IN THE PERSON OF MARIO AGUINADA CARRANZA WAS ALREADY BACK WORKING IN THE SYSTEM, THOUGH NOT PARTICIPATING IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

IN RESPONSE TO THE VICE PRESIDENT'S QUESTION, CRISTIANI SAID HE DID NOT THINK THAT THE FMLN'S PROPOSAL WAS A SERIOUS ONE. HE AGREED IT WAS ONLY POLITICAL, DESCRIBING FOR LACK OF A BETTER TERM AS PART OF THE FMLN'S DIPLOMATIC OFFENSIVE STRATEGY TO MAKE PEOPLE SEE THE FMLN AS FLEXIBLE AND ON THE MORAL HIGH GROUND. THE FMLN, THOUGH, HAS ENJOYED SUCCESS WITH ITS EFFORTS. EVERYONE IS NOW TALKING ABOUT THEIR PROPOSAL. CRISTIANI NOTED THE NEED FOR TIME TO PUT SOMETHING TOGETHER TO THROW BACK AT THEM SO THAT THEY CANNOT ESCAPE FROM A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT. JUAN JOSE DOMENECH AND CRISTIANI REFERRED TO A PHONE CALL FROM SAN SALVADOR MAYOR ARMANDO CALDERON SOL IN WASHINGTON TO ATTEND THE PRAYER BREAKFAST SAYING THAT SOME MEMBERS OF CONGRESS HAVE INTRODUCED LEGISLATION SUPPORTING THE PROPOSAL. THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED WHETHER THIS WAS SENSE OF CONGRESS RESOLUTION AND WHAT HOUSE IT WAS IN. CRISTIANI WAS NOT SURE.

THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED CRISTIANI TO DESCRIBE HIS PLATFORM AND WHAT THE PARTY REPRESENTED. CRISTIANI SAID THAT MUCH EMPHASIS APPEARED TO BE FOCUSSED ON THE ISSUE OF VIOLENCE AND THE WAR. IN THE RURAL AREAS IN PARTICULAR, THOUGH, UNEMPLOYMENT AND THE HIGH COST OF LIVING ARE ISSUES THAT ARE PARAMOUNT. THE ECONOMIC PROGRAM OF ARENA IS ONE AREA THAT CLEARLY DISTINGUISHES IT FROM THE PDC, THOUGH HE NOTED THAT THE PDC APPEARS TO BE MOVING CLOSER TO ARENA'S ECONOMIC POSITION.

THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID HE WANTED TO MAKE A FEW POINTS WITH REGARD TO UNITED STATES' POLICY. WE ARE NEUTRAL IN THIS ELECTION. WE WANT TO SEE A FREE AND FAIR CONTEST, WITH THE WINNER REAPING THE BENEFITS. AS IN OUR SYSTEM, WE WOULD HOPE THAT THE WINNER WOULD REACH OUT TO THE LOSER AND BUILD A STRONG CONSENSUS AFTER THE ELECTION. DEMOCRACY FUNCTIONS ON THE BASIS OF A STABLE MAJORITY. WHOEVER WINS NEEDS TO REACH OUT.

SECOND, THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED THAT MANY IN CONGRESS HAVE DEEP SUSPICIONS ABOUT ARENA'S COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY, HUMAN RIGHTS AND FAIR PROCESS. HE NOTED THAT, IF SUCCESSFUL, ARENA WOULD BE CONSIDERED, IN OUR LEGAL TERMINOLOGY, TO BE IN THE SUSPECT CATEGORY. HE IS NOT STATING THAT ARENA IS A SUSPECT, BUT TALKING PARTICULARLY ABOUT PERCEPTION, ESPECIALLY AMONG AN ELEMENT OF CONGRESS WHICH WILL WATCH ARENA CLOSELY. SPECIAL EMPHASIS WILL BE PLACED ON ARENA'S NOMINATIONS TO THE SUPREME COURT AND WHAT IT DOES WITH THE MILITARY. IT IS A FACT THAT DEMOCRACY MEANS JUSTICE AND JUSTICE MEANS HUMAN RIGHTS. HE NOTED HIS INTENT IN A LATER MEETING TO STRESS HUMAN RIGHTS TO THE MILITARY. THE UNITED STATES HAS A STRONG PASSION FOR JUSTICE AND ELIMINATION OF VIOLENCE ON BOTH LEFT AND RIGHT. WHILE PERCEPTION MAY NOT BE REALITY, THIS IS A FACT OF POLITICAL LIFE, AS THE VICE PRESIDENT HIMSELF SAID HE LEARNED IN THE CAMPAIGN.

THE VICE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT ARENA WAS AWARE OF THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS. IT WOULD BE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE TO SEE VIOLENCE INCREASE OR HUMAN RIGHTS DENIED. THERE WOULD BE PROBLEMS IN CONGRESS, WHICH HAS A LOT TO SAY ABOUT FOREIGN POLICY. THROUGH THEIR CONTROL OF THE BUDGETARY PROCESS THEY CAN DENY FUNDS. IF DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS ARE NOT BEING RESPECTED, CONGRESS COULD DECIDE TO RESTRICT AID. AS A FRIEND, THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID HE WANTED CRISTIANI TO APPRECIATE OUR DEEP COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY.

CRISTIANI EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR THE VICE PRESIDENT'S FRANK ASSESSMENT. HE SAID HE RECOGNIZED THE PERCEPTION PROBLEM. OUR MESSAGE ON DEMOCRACY AND

HUMAN RIGHTS IS SIMPLY THAT YOU GIVE US A CHANCE TO PROVE OURSELVES IN THE CONTEXT OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM THAT WE SUPPORT. WE HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL AS AN INSTITUTION IN MAKING ARENA THE STRONGEST POLITICAL PARTY IN EL SALVADOR. ALL WE WANT FROM YOU IS A FAIR CHANCE TO PROVE THAT WE CAN PERFORM TO YOUR EXPECTATIONS. ARENA CAN DEAL BETTER WITH THE MILITARY AND IT CAN DEAL BETTER WITH THE FMLN. ARENA AGREES WITH THE PRINCIPLES ENUNCIATED BY THE VICE PRESIDENT. ALL IT ASKS IS THAT ARENA NOT BE PRE-JUDGED. GIVE US A CHANCE, HE REPEATED, AND UNDER THESE TERMS THERE WILL BE NO PROBLEMS BETWEEN US.

THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED THAT NEITHER HE NOR THE PRESIDENT WOULD PRE-JUDGE ARENA. THERE ARE SPECIFIC AREAS, THOUGH, THAT NEED SOME CLARIFICATION AND THAT WILL SERVE AS INDICATORS OF ARENA'S INTENTIONS. ONE OF THOSE IS NOMINATIONS FOR THE NEW SUPREME COURT TO TAKE OFFICE JUNE 1.

CRISTIANI REPLIED THAT IMPROVEMENTS IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE ARE A KEY ELEMENT OF THE ARENA PLATFORM. NAMING OF THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES SHOULD BE DONE BASED ON MERIT, NOT PARTY AFFILIATION. ARENA BELIEVES THAT THE COUNTRY NEEDS A PERMANENT JUDICIAL CAREER AND THAT THE SYSTEM OF FIVE YEAR TERMS FOR JUSTICES SHOULD BE CONSTITUTIONALLY MODIFIED. THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED HOW NOMINEES WOULD BE SELECTED. CRISTIANI SAID THAT THE KEY WAS TO DEPOLITICIZE THE PROCESS. ARENA HAD ALREADY RECEIVED SUGGESTED NAMES FROM A LAWYERS GROUP. THE VICE PRESIDENT ASKED IF A GROUP WOULD BE SET UP TO PREPARE A LIST OF NAMES BASED ON MERIT. CRISTIANI REPLIED IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY TO REPLACE ALL 14 JUDGES ON THE COURT, SOME CONTINUITY IS NEEDED. ARENA'S PLATFORM MENTIONS THE NEED FOR A CAREER JUDICIARY AND A MERIT SYSTEM. HOWEVER, ARENA WOULD

NOT WANT TO SEE THE ENTIRE SUPREME COURT REPLACED BECAUSE THIS WOULD DISRUPT THE ENTIRE JUDICIAL SYSTEM SINCE THE SUPREME COURT, IN TURN, APPOINTS ALL OTHER JUDGES. THE VICE PRESIDENT NOTED ARENA'S INTENTION TO RETAIN CERTAIN JUSTICES ON THE COURT AND TO APPOINT OTHERS STATING THAT WE WILL WATCH ARENA'S ACTION CLOSELY IN THIS AREA SINCE IT IS NOT DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT. HE REMINDED CRISTIANI THAT ARENA WILL SEND A STRONG MESSAGE WITH THEIR NOMINATIONS.

THE VICE PRESIDENT TOLD CRISTIANI THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE IMPORTANCE OF FIGHTING MARXIST-LENINISTS, BUT MILITARY ABUSES HAVE TO STOP AND THE PERPETRATORS BROUGHT TO JUSTICE. ONE IS NOT ASKING FOR SCAPEGOATS IN THE SYSTEM, BUT FOR FACTS TO BE ACTED ON. AN IMPORTANT FIRST STEP FOR THE NEXT ADMINISTRATION WILL BE TO SHOW A COMMITMENT TO JUSTICE. HE RESTATED THAT ARENA WILL BE IN A SUSPECT CATEGORY IF IT TAKES OFFICE AND ARENA WILL HAVE TO DEAL EFFECTIVELY WITH THAT FACT. IT WILL BE IMPORTANT TO CORRECT THIS MISPERCEPTION, BECAUSE IF THE PERCEPTION PROVES CORRECT, IT WILL BE A DISASTER FOR EL SALVADOR. THE UNITED STATES IS DEEPLY COMMITTED TO EL SALVADOR. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID HE WANTED CRISTIANI TO UNDERSTAND UP FRONT WHERE WE ARE COMING FROM ON THE BASIC ISSUES OF DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS AND ON OUR NEUTRALITY IN THE ELECTION.

CRISTIANI SAID THAT A STRAW POLL OF 500 RESPONDENTS IN SAN SALVADOR EVIDENCED AN 80 PERCENT PREFERENCE NOT TO PUT OFF THE ELECTIONS AS REQUESTED BY THE FMLN. THE LATEST THE ELECTION COULD BE HELD WOULD BE MARCH 31. CRISTIANI EXPLAINED THAT THE CCE HAD TO MAKE THE ELECTION CALL; THE CCE IS COMPOSED OF THE THREE MAJOR PARTIES WHO WOULD HAVE TO AGREE UNANIMOUSLY ON A NEW DATE.

THE VICE PRESIDENT WISHED CRISTIANI WELL IN THE ELECTION AND EMPHASIZED THAT WE WOULD BE WATCHING CLOSELY AND WITH ANTICIPATION ON THE POINTS HE HAD RAISED IN THEIR DISCUSSION.

6. LUNCHEON AT PRESIDENT DUARTE'S RESIDENCE

ON ARRIVAL AT THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICIAL RESIDENCE FOR A FORMAL LUNCH, PRESIDENT DUARTE AND VICE PRESIDENT QUAYLE WENT INTO A FIFTEEN MINUTE TETE-A-TETE WITH NO ONE ELSE PRESENT. (FYI. CONTENTS TO BE SUPPLIED BY THE VICE PRESIDENT) IN OTHER DISCUSSIONS AT THE LUNCHEON:

- AT FRANCISCO "CHACHI" GUERRERO, PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT: AT THE INVITATION OF THE VICE PESIDENT, CHACHI GUERRERO WAS ESCORTED INTO THE PRESIDENT'S PRIVATE STUDY BY THE AMBASSADOR. DUARTE REMAINED AT THE VICE PRESIDENT'S SIDE THROUGHOUT THE TALK WITH GUERRERO. THE VICE'PRESIDENT BEGAN BY NOTING THERE WAS NOT ENOUGH TIME FOR THE SOCIAL AMENITIES, BUT THERE WAS A NEED FOR DIRECT, CANDID DISCUSSION. HE SAID THAT HIS MESSAGE TO ALL SALVADORAN AUDIENCES WAS A SIMPLE BUT IMPORTANT ONE: HUMAN RIGHTS, DEMOCRACY AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. THEY ALL GO TOGETHER, THEY ARE TOTALLY ENTWINED. THE VICE PRESIDENT NOTED HEIGHTENED PERSONAL CONCERN WITH A LACK OF PROGRESS IN THREE IMPORTANT CASES, SAN SEBASTIAN, THE SARAVIA EXTRADITION, AND THE SHERATON MURDERS, IN WHICH "THINGS SHOULD HAVE COME OUT BETTER", WOULD HAVE COME OUT BETTER BUT FOR ACTIONS OR LACK OF ACTION BY THE SUPREME COURT. HE REPEATED HIS AND PRESIDENT BUSH'S DEEP COMMITMENT TO THE CAUSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND SERIOUS CONCERN THAT THESE CASES WERE STALLED WITHIN THE COURT SYSTEM OVER WHICH GUERRERO PRESIDED.

THE SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT AGREED THAT CANDID LANGUAGE WAS ESSENTIAL. HE PROCEEDED TO DESCRIBE THE SALVADORAN LEGAL SYSTEM, THE VARIOUS LEVELS OF COURTS, ETC., TURNING TO THE THREE CASES CHACHI SAID HE HAD JUST APPOINTED A NEW JUDGE IN THE SAN SEBASTIAN INVESTIGATION, A "FIRM, TOUGH, IMPERVIOUS TO PRESSURE" APPOINTEE TO REPLACE A WEAK FIRST CHOICE. HE EXPLAINED THAT SINCE THE CASE INVOLVED

THE VICE PRESIDENT CUT CHACHI OFF, SAYING THERE WASN'T TIME TO GO INTO THE DETAILS. HE CONCLUDED BY TELLING GUERRERO THAT THE AMBASSADOR WOULD EXPECT A REPORT ON EACH OF THE STAGNANT CASES, WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK, AND THE AMBASSADOR, AWARE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT'S PERSONAL INTEREST, WOULD REPORT THE RESULTS DIRECTLY TO THE VICE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE. CHACHI GUERRERO SAID THAT WAS JUST WHAT HE HAD IN MIND, AND WOULD PREPARE A REPORT ON EACH IMMEDIATELY.

- B. THE LUNCHEON DISCUSSION AMONG THE GUESTS AT THE HEAD TABLE WAS ESSENTIALLY SOCIAL, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE TOASTS OFFERED BY PRESIDENT DUARTE AND THE VICE PRESIDENT (WHICH CONSUMED TWENTY MINUTES OF THE FORTY FIVE).

7. MEETING ONE ON ONE WITH MINISTER OF DEFENSE VIDES CASANOVA

THE VICE PRESIDENT, ACCOMPANIED BY THE AMBASSADOR AND USCINCSO GENERAL FRED WOERNER MET PRIVATELY WITH MINISTER OF DEFENSE VIDES CASANOVA. GENERAL VIDES CASANOVA OPENED WITH A CORDIAL WELCOME TO THE ESTADO MAYOR. HE SAID THAT, ON LISTENING TO THE VICE PRESIDENT'S LUNCHEON TOAST HE HAD BEEN IMPRESSED BY THE STRENGTH OF THE WORDS, AND THE FACT THAT "WE'RE ALL ON THE SAME WAVELENGTH, FIGHTING FOR DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS". "THAT'S WHY I'VE STAYED ON SO LONG", VIDES STATED, "TO HAVE LEFT EARLIER WOULD HAVE BEEN TO DO SO WITH TOO LITTLE SUCCESS". THE MINISTER ASKED THE VICE PRESIDENT TO BE AS FRANK AND CANDID AS HE COULD BE IN HIS TALKS TO THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND, AND LATER WITH THE COMMANDERS. VIDES CLAIMED THE TOUGHER THE MESSAGE THE VICE PRESIDENT DELIVERED THE BETTER IT WOULD HELP HIM IN HIS DEALINGS WITH THE OTHER OFFICERS ON BOTH THEMES, DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. HE ADDED THAT HE PROJECTED THE SAME MESSAGE CONSTANTLY, BUT THAT THESE WERE WORDS THAT HAD TO BE REPEATED OVER AND OVER.

THE VICE PRESIDENT THANKED THE MINISTER FOR HIS ADVICE. HE SAID HE DIDN'T WANT TO APPEAR RUDE OR PREACHY, BUT AS A FRIEND FELT HE MUST BE FRANK. "WE'RE ALLIES, AND THE ISSUE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IS CRITICAL TO THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRACY. I APOLOGIZE IF I APPEAR HARSH, BUT BOTH PRESIDENT BUSH AND I ARE COMMITTED TO THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, AND ITS HUMAN RIGHTS COMPONENT. THEY'RE INSEPARABLE. ANY BACKSLIDING WOULD BE BAD FOR BOTH OF US." THE MINISTER SAID HE UNDERSTOOD, AND FULLY AGREED.

8. MEETING WITH THE MOD AND THE JOINT GENERAL STAFF

FOLLOWING A PRIVATE MEETING IN THE OFFICE OF THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE, THE VICE PRESIDENT AND MINISTER OF DEFENSE MET WITH THE JOINT GENERAL STAFF: COL. RENE EMILIO PONCE, CHIEF OF THE JOINT GENERAL STAFF, GENERAL RAFAEL LARIOS, VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, CO. HUMBERTO VILLALTA, NAVY CHIEF OF STAFF AND GENERAL JUAN RAFAEL BUSTILLO, AIR FORCE CHIEF.

MOD VIDES CASANOVA OPENED REFERRING TO THE VICE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS AT THE OFFICIAL LUNCHEON HOSTED BY THE PRESIDENT. HE NOTED THE VICE PRESIDENT'S YOUTH AND DYNAMISM AND CLEAR ARTICULATION OF THE BASIS OF U.S. POLICY. THE MINISTER SAID ONE THING THE VICE PRESIDENT HAD DONE AT LUNCH HAD CAUGHT HIS ATTENTION AND COMMUNICATED VISUALLY TO HIM THE KIND OF MAN THEY ARE DEALING WITH, AND THAT WAS THE PERSONAL ATTENTION THE VICE PRESIDENT HAD PAID TO THE STAFF AT THE PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE AND THE VERY HUMAN AND DIRECT SENSE OF APPRECIATION HE HAD CONVEYED TO THEM. THIS SMALL GESTURE MEANT A LOT AND SAID A LOT ABOUT THE VICE PRESIDENT; HE IS VERY KIND IN HIS DEALINGS AND VERY DIRECT IN HIS WORDS. YOU HAVE A SENSE FOR PEOPLE, HE SAID. YOUR GESTURES IMPART YOUR PERSONALITY. SO, THE MINISTER STATED, HE WANTED TO TELL THE VICE PRESIDENT TO SPEAK PLAINLY TO THEM, EVEN IF THE MESSAGE MIGHT BE SOMETHING THEY MIGHT NOT WANT TO HEAR. WE ARE INTERESTED IN YOUR VISION OF HOW WE ARE DOING AND HOW WE ARE SEEN FROM THE OUTSIDE.

AFTER HEARING YOUR LUNCHEON TOAST, VIDES SAID HE COULD ASSURE THE VICE PRESIDENT THAT THE ARMED FORCES ARE FULLY COMMITTED TO THE VICE PRESIDENT'S TWO CENTRAL POINTS: DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. THERE REMAINS A LOT TO DO TO STRENGTHEN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. TO DO THIS, WE NEED TO HELP YOU STRENGTHEN THE BIPARTISAN CONSENSUS IN CONGRESS ON AID TO EL SALVADOR. ONLY WITH UNITED STATES AID WILL EL SALVADOR BE ABLE TO FURTHER REDUCE THE MARXIST-LENINIST INSURGENCY. YOU ARE AT HOME HERE, AMONG FRIENDS, MR. VICE PRESIDENT, VIDES SAID. PLEASE TELL US WHAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO SAY.

THE VICE PRESIDENT NOTED THIS WAS HIS FIRST VISIT TO EL SALVADOR. PRESIDENT BUSH HAS SHOWN A STRONG INTEREST IN THE PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR. THE VICE PRESIDENT UNDERSCORED HIS DESIRE NOT TO COME ACROSS AS A LECTURING NORTH AMERICAN TELLING SALVADORANS HOW TO RUN THEIR COUNTRY. THE PURPOSE IS TO DISCUSS SOME IMPORTANT ISSUES IN A VERY SHORT SPACE OF TIME.

THE VICE PRESIDENT DESCRIBED FOR THE GENERAL STAFF HIS OWN PERSONAL BACKGROUND IN CONGRESS, HIS POLITICAL VIEWS, AND HIS COMMITMENT TO A STRONG NATIONAL DEFENSE AND EXPERTISE IN THE AREA OF NATIONAL SECURITY. HE NOTED HIS VIEWS THAT MARXISM-LENINISM IS A POLITICAL SCOURGE THAT, FORTUNATELY, APPEARS ON THE WANE. WE RECOGNIZE THE INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS OF COMMUNISM. IN THIS HEMISPHERE WE ARE COMMITTED TO STOPPING COMMUNISM AND ENCOURAGING DEMOCRACIES TO WORK TOGETHER TO DO SO.

REFERRING TO HIS LUNCHEON TOAST, THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID THE BONDS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND EL

SALVADOR ARE BASED ON DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. IN THIS REGARD, OUR RELATIONSHIP HAS NEVER BEEN STRONGER.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT AND PRESERVATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS. WHEN ATROCITIES ARE COMMITTED, THEY MUST BE PROSECUTED AND THE ACCUSED BROUGHT TO JUSTICE. THE COMPASSION AND COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE IS SHARED EQUALLY BY CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICANS AND LIBERAL DEMOCRATS WHO MIGHT HAVE COME TO LECTURE THE MILITARY FROM TIME TO TIME. THERE IS A SHARED DEEP COMMITMENT DEMOCRATIC TO PRINCIPLES.

AS THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS MOVES FORWARD, THE WORLD, INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES, IN PARTICULAR, WILL BE WATCHING THE MATURING OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. A MATURING DEMOCRACY MUST PLACE UP FRONT CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND CONCERN WHEN THE LIVES OF INNOCENT PERSONS ARE PUT IN JEOPARDY. THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIBERAL DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICANS ON THIS POINT. THE DIFFERENCE COMES WHEN THE LIBERAL DEMOCRATS DO NOT APPLY THE SAME STANDARDS TO THE POLITICAL LEFT AS THEY DO THE RIGHT. LIBERAL DEMOCRATS SOME TIMES SEEM TO TAKE THE POSITION THAT THEY KNOW NO ENEMIES ON THE LEFT AND THE ONLY PROBLEM EXISTS ON THE RIGHT.

WE ARE FRIENDS AND ALLIES, THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED, AND WANT TO MOVE FORWARD WITH YOU ON THIS BASIS. AS THE MILITARY COMMANDERS YOU ARE IN POSITIONS OF AUTHORITY TO MAKE THE SYSTEM WORK AND ENSURE THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED. OR, IF YOU DO NOT TAKE HUMAN RIGHTS SERIOUSLY, YOU CAN TURN THE CLOCK BACK.

TO SUPPORT YOU, WE NEED A BIPARTISAN CONSENSUS ON EL SALVADOR. SUCH A CONSENSUS EXISTS NOW BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS. BUT, IF HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES

ARE NEGLECTED OR PERCEPTIONS EMERGE THAT IT ONLY APPLIES TO THE LEFT, NOT TO THOSE IN AUTHORITY, WE WILL TAKE A STEP BACKWARDS. HE UNDERSCORED THIS AS A STATEMENT OF FACT, NOT A THREAT. WE ARE AT A CRITICAL JUNCTURE. PRESIDENT BUSH AND I, THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED, LOVE THIS COUNTRY AND WANT TO HELP YOU NOT ONLY WITH NATIONAL SECURITY, BUT WITH HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE AS WELL.

TO BE OF HELP IN SUPPORTING THE GOALS OF DEMOCRACY AND GOOD BILATERAL RELATIONS, THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID THERE WAS ONE ITEM THAT NEEDS TO BE SPECIFICALLY ADDRESSED: THE INCIDENT AT SAN SEBASTIAN. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHO WAS GUILTY, BUT THAT A TRAGEDY OCCURRED THAT NEEDS TO BE THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATED AND BROUGHT TO JUSTICE. THIS CASE IS VIEWED AS A CRITICAL TEST OF THE ADVANCEMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. HE NOTED THAT THE AMBASSADOR WOULD LEAVE WITH THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE AND ENVELOPE WITH SPECIFICS ON THIS CASE THAT NEED TO BE ADDRESSED.

THIS CASE IS A SIGN OF THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH THE MILITARY TAKE HUMAN RIGHTS. WE ARE NOT SAYING WHERE BLAME MUST BE DIRECTED. WE ARE SAYING WHOEVER IS CULPABLE MUST BE PUNISHED. THE VICE PRESIDENT UNDERSCORED THAT HE WAS TALKING VERY SERIOUSLY ABOUT A VERY SERIOUS PROBLEM. HE REITERATED THAT THESE ARE THE WORDS OF A FRIEND COMMITTED TO DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR.

GENERAL BUSTILLO POSED A QUESTION AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE VICE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS WITH REGARD TO FMLN VIOLENCE AGAINST THE POPULATION AT LARGE, EXPRESSING CONCERN THAT DIMENSIONS OF SUCH HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES FROM THE FMLN ARE NOT WIDELY REPORTED AND UNDERSTOOD OUTSIDE EL SALVADOR. EL SALVADOR DOES NOT HAVE THE FINANCIAL CAPACITY TO COMMUNICATE EFFECTIVELY THAT THE COUNTRY IS UNDER SIEGE FROM A VIOLENT MINORITY THAT IS DAILY COMMITTING ABUSES AGAINST THE PEACEFUL MAJORITY.

THE VICE PRESIDENT EXPRESSED HIS AGREEMENT WITH GENERAL BUSTILLO'S GENERAL CHARACTERIZATION OF THE FMLN. TO BE ABLE TO DEFEAT THE FMLN, HE SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES NEEDS THE HELP OF THE MILITARY TO SHOW THAT PEOPLE IN POSITIONS OF AUTHORITY TAKE HUMAN RIGHTS SERIOUSLY.

VIDES CASANOVA SAID THAT THE VIOLENCE REFERRED TO BY BUSTILLO HAD BEEN GREATER IN RECENT MONTHS AND THAT THIS INCREASE WAS NOT WIDELY REPORTED OUTSIDE EL SALVADOR. HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES FROM THE FMLN HAVE INCREASED SIGNIFICANTLY, BUT ONLY THE MILITARY IS BEING PRESSURED FOR ISOLATED CASES. THE POINT, THOUGH, VIDES CASANOVA SAID, IS THAT THE MILITARY CANNOT RESPOND TO TERRORISM WITH TERRORISM. STATE TERRORISM IS AS EQUALLY REPUGNANT AS VIOLENT TERRORISM FROM THE FMLN. OFFICERS MUST SHOW PATIENCE AS A PROFESSIONAL ARMED FORCE FACING BANDS OF MURDERERS. EVERY DAY BRINGS MORE PROFESSIONALISM TO THE ARMED FORCES, DEVELOPING AS A FORCE UNDER THE RULE OF LAW.

VIDES CASANOVA, ADDRESSING THE VICE PRESIDENT, SAID THAT HE COULD HELP CONVEY THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION AND RECENT INCREASE IN VIOLENCE FROM THE FMLN. HE COULD ALSO CONVEY THAT THE MILITARY, LIKE THE UNITED STATES, HAS MADE COMMITMENTS, AND THAT BOTH SIDES HAVE LIVED UP TO THESE COMMITMENTS.

THE MILITARY HAVE DONE EVERYTHING POSSIBLE CONCERNING THE SAN SEBASTIAN (LA CEBADILLA) INCIDENT. BUT THEY WILL TRY TO DO MORE. THEY URGED THAT THE CASE BE TURNED OVER FOR INVESTIGATION TO THE SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE UNIT, UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE PRESIDENT. VIDES CASANOVA SAID HE HAD PRESSED THE PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT FOR A MONTH TO NAME A JUDGE IN THE CASE TO REPLACE THE JUDGE WHO RESIGNED. AT THE PRESIDENT'S LUNCHEON TODAY VIDES CASANOVA SAID HE TOLD THE PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT THAT HE IS READY TO WORK WITH THE NEW JUDGE WHO WAS JUST APPOINTED YESTERDAY.

PAST YEAR, ACCORDING TO VIDES CASANOVA, NOTWITHSTANDING THAT THIS HAS BEEN A VIOLENT PERIOD BECAUSE OF THE INCREASE IN ATTACKS FROM THE FMLN. IT DID NOT MATTER, HOWEVER, SINCE NO BRIDE WOULD GO TO HER WEDDING WITH A STAIN ON THE DRESS. THE MILITARY WILL MAKE MISTAKES, HE SAID, WE NEED TO CORRECT THEM AND REMOVE THE STAIN. HE SAID THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. ONE INCIDENT LIKE SAN SEBASTIAN COULD TURN INTO ANOTHER HARKIN SHERATON CASE AMENDMENT THAT WILL COST THE MILITARY ANOTHER $5-10-15 MILLION IN ASSISTANCE.

THE VICE PRESIDENT EXPRESSED HIS APPRECIATION TO ALL AROUND THE TABLE FOR LISTENING TO HIM AND SATISFACTION THAT AFTER A MONTH OF EFFORT BY THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, A JUDGE HAS FINALLY BEEN REAPPOINTED TO THE CASE. MY STATEMENTS, THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID, COME FROM MY DEEP COMMITMENT TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS, NOT BECAUSE I ENJOY SPEAKING THIS WAY TO FRIENDS, BUT BETWEEN FRIENDS WE HAVE TO UNDERSTAND EACH OTHER IN ORDER FOR DEMOCRACY TO SURVIVE AND OUR CLOSE RELATIONSHIP TO CONTINUE. PRESIDENT BUSH WANTS THAT RELATIONSHIP TO CONTINUE, AND SO DO I, THE VICE PRESIDENT CONCLUDED.

9. TEXT OF VICE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS TO THE ASSEMBLED JOINT GENERAL STAFF, BRIGADE AND DETACHMENT COMMANDERS

FOLLOWING A PHOTO OPPORTUNITY AND A WARM WELCOME BY COL RENE (PONCE), THE CHIEF OF THE JOINT GENERAL STAFF, VP QUAYLE ADDRESSED APPROXIMATELY 45 SENIOR OFFICERS INCLUDING THE HIGH COMMAND, SERVICE CHIEFS, BRIGADE, DETACHMENT AND IMMEDIATE REACTION BATTALION COMMANDERS, AND THE DIRECTORS OF THE PUBLIC SECURITY SERVICES AND MILITARY TRAINING CENTERS. PARAGRAPH TWO CONTAINS THE VP'S REMARKS.

REMARKS:

- ON THIS, THE FIRST PRESIDENTIAL ENVOY OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION, I WAS PARTICULARLY PLEASED TO TRAVEL TO VENEZUELA TO CELEBRATE THE DEMOCRATIC CHANGE OF PRESIDENTS AND TO BE IN EL SALVADOR NOW, A COUNTRY WITH WHICH WE HAVE SUCH CLOSE LINKS AND WHICH IS A CLOSE FRIEND OF THE U.S.

- SO THAT YOU KNOW ME BETTER, I WOULD LIKE TO TELL YOU SOME OF MY BACKGROUND. I SPENT 4 YEARS IN CONGRESS AND 8 YEARS IN THE SENATE REPRESENTING INDIANA, THE STATE IN WHICH THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME IS LOCATED--THE ALMA MATER OF YOUR ILLUSTRIOUS PRESIDENT, DUARTE. WHILE IN THE SENATE I WAS ON THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE AND AM NOT ONLY FAMILIAR WITH BUT A FIRM BELIEVER THAT A SOUND INVESTMENT IN NATIONAL SECURITY MEANS PEACE AND FREEDOM.

I PERSONALLY APPRECIATE OUR U.S.I MILITARY SERVICEMEN AND THE SACRIFICES THAT THEY AND THEIR FAMILIES MAKE. I ALSO APPRECIATE YOUR SERVICES AND THE GOALS YOU ARE SEEKING TO ACHIEVE. I REITERATE MY BELIEF IN THE IMPORTANCE OF STRONG NATIONAL SECURITY, WHICH IS ESSENTIAL FOR THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE.

I JUST HELD A FRANK DISCUSSION WITH THE HIGH COMMAND AND NOW WANT TO SHARE WITH YOU MY IDEAS, NOT AS A FIRST TIME LECTURER, RATHER AS A FRIEND WHO UNDERSTANDS THAT STRONG NATIONAL SECURITY IS NEEDED TO PROTECT DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR. AND WHEN I SPEAK OF DEMOCRACY I MEAN RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE.

- I AM VERY AWARE THAT THE FMLN IS A MARXIST LENINIST GROUP, DEDICATED TO TERRORISM AND FINANCED FROM THE OUTSIDE. I KNOW IT ENGAGES IN KILLING INNOCENT PEOPLE AND MAYORS, AS WELL AS COMMITTING VIOLENCE AGAINST TOWNS AND THE NATION'S INFRASTRUCTURE. NOT ONLY I, BUT PRESIDENT BUSH AND OTHERS IN COUNTRY UNDERSTAND THE GOALS OF THE MARXIST LENINISTS.

- WHEN IN CONGRESS, I WAS A STRONG PROPONENT FOR AID TO THE CONTRAS TO PRESSURE THE MARXIST ORTEGA GOVERNMENT. I AND OTHERS WERE SUCCESSFUL IN OBTAINING AID UNTIL JANUARY 1988. I AM CONSIDERED A CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN AND A HARD-LINER ON COMMUNISM, AND AM PROUD OF MY STAND. EVEN THOUGH I AM A HARD-LINER ON COMMUNISM, I AM ALSO A HARD-LINER IN SUPPORTING DEMOCRACIES AND ADHERENCE TO RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. DEMOCRACY DOES NOT EXIST WITHOUT RESPECT AND UNDERSTANDING OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THEY GO HAND-IN-HAND.

- WE ARE NOW AT A CRITICAL TIME FOR DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR. I HOPE TO SEE A PEACEFUL TRANSFER OF ADMINISTRATIONS HERE OCCURRING WITHIN A CONSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK.

- VIOLENCE MUST BE CONDEMNED WHETHER IT COMES FROM THE LEFT OR RIGHT. BUSH AND I ARE HARD-LINERS ON VIOLENCE AGAINST INNOCENT PEOPLE. SOME PEOPLE IN OUR COUNTRY BELIEVE THAT EL SALVADOR WILL NOT MAKE IT AS A DEMOCRACY. THESE SAME INDIVIDUALS ARE SAYING THE CLOCK WILL BE TURNED BACK AND ARE PREDICTING MORE VIOLENCE AND ABUSES. BUSH AND I WANT TO PROVE THEM WRONG -- THAT DEMOCRACY CAN SURVIVE, THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE SACRED HERE. BY PROVING THEM WRONG, WE CAN HELP BOTH THE USG AND GOES BECAUSE WE WILL BE LINKED TOGETHER IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE.

- I AM HERE TODAY TO SAY THAT WE CAN IN FACT MAKE IT. WE CAN SEE DEMOCRACY ADVANCED, BUT WE (THE USG) NEED HELP AND UNDERSTANDING.

- THE EYES OF THE WORLD ARE ON EL SALVADOR TO SEE WHERE THE COUNTRY IS GOING ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES. WHEN VIOLATIONS OCCUR AND INNOCENT PEOPLE ARE KILLED, SUCH AS OCCURRED IN SAN SEBASTIAN, THERE MUST BE AN INVESTIGATION AND THE GUILTY MUST BE PUNISHED REGARDLESS OF THE CONSEQUENCES. WE CANNOT TURN OUR HEADS WHEN INNOCENT LIVES ARE TAKEN. ALL EYES IN OUR COUNTRY ARE FOCUSED ON THIS CASE.

- IN A DEMOCRACY, FREE PEOPLE ARE STRONG. THIS INVESTMENT IN FREEDOM MEANS FREEDOM FOR THE INNOCENT AGAINST ABUSES FROM THE LEFT OR RIGHT. THOSE WHO ARE GUILTY OF ABUSES MUST PAY THE PRICE.

- IN CONCLUSION, I AM HERE AS A FRIEND AND SUPPORTER. WE WANT TO WORK WITH YOU. WE WILL STAND TALL WITH YOU. REGARDING TERRORISM PERPETRATED BY THE FMLN, WE ARE WITH YOU. BE WITH US AS WELL IN OUR ATTEMPT TO SUPPORT YOU. YOU MUST BE WITH US AS WE NOURISH THIS DEMOCRACY. INVESTIGATE HUMAN RIGHTS INCIDENTS. GET

THE FACTS ON THE TABLE IN A COMPLETE, OBJECTIVE MANNER. TOGETHER, WE CAN GET AHEAD. IF WE DO NOT STRENGTHEN DEMOCRACY, PEACE WILL SUFFER.

- I THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION. I SALUTE YOUR COURAGE AND SERVICE TO YOUR COUNTRY. UNDERSTAND OUR COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE DEPTH OF OUR COMMITMENT. WE ARE IN THIS TOGETHER AGAINST TOTALITARIANISM.

FOLLOWING THE VICE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT HE TOOK QUESTIONS FROM THE FLOOR.

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION WITH REGARD TO WHETHER THE UNITED STATES WOULD RENEW MILITARY SUPPORT TO THE CONTRAS, THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED THAT THE NEW ADMINISTRATION WAS GOING TO PAUSE TO SEE IF DANIEL ORTEGA WOULD CARRY OUT ANY OF HIS COMMITMENTS TO DO ANYTHING, INCLUDING WHETHER HE WOULD STOP EXPORTING REVOLUTION FROM NICARAGUA. UNFORTUNATELY, HE SAID, THE CONGRESS CUT OFF MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE DEMOCRATIC RESISTANCE LAST YEAR. WE ARE PROVIDING HUMANITARIAN AID NOW. WHETHER WE WILL RENEW MILITARY AID WILL DEPEND ON THE ACTIONS OF ORTEGA AND THE SANDINISTAS.

FIRST BRIGADE COMMANDER ORLANDO ZEPEDA ASKED THE VICE PRESIDENT WHAT COULD BE DONE TO CURTAIL SUPPORT TO THE FMLN FROM SOLIDARITY GROUPS IN THE UNITED STATES. THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID THAT THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS CLEAR. WE CONSIDER THE FMLN AS A TERRORIST ORGANIZATION. UNDER THE UNITED STATES ARMS EXPORT CONTROL ACT THERE ARE LIMITS ON WHAT TYPES OF ASSISTANCE CAN BE PROVIDED UNDER THE LAW. THAT LAW WILL BE ENFORCED. UNITED STATES CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES ON FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION AND FREEDOM OF SPEECH GIVE GROUPS WIDE LATITUDE FOR ACTION, BUT THEY CANNOT VIOLATE THE LAW, INCLUDING THE ARMS EXPORT CONTROL ACT. IN GENERAL, TERMS, HOWEVER, PRESIDENT AND THE VICE PRESIDENT DO NOT LOOK FAVORABLY ON PEOPLE GIVING ANY SUPPORT, INCLUDING MORAL SUPPORT, TO THE FMLN. WITHIN OUR CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS, HOWEVER, THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE IS TO ARGUE AGAINST THEM AND DEMONSTRATE PROGRESS IN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

THE MEETING CONCLUDED WITH A BRIEF PRESENTATION CEREMONY OF A PLAQUE MADE BY SALVADORAN TROOPS HANDICAPPED IN ACTION AGAINST THE FMLN.

1B. MEETING WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR ORGANIZATIONS

AMANDA VILLATORO, COORDINATOR AND SPOKESPERSON FOR THE UNION OF WORKERS AND CAMPESINOS (UNOC) LED A FOUR PERSON DELEGATION COMPOSED OF SAMUEL MALDONADO (PRESIDENT OF THE SALVADORAN CAMPESINO UNION), SALVADOR CARAZO AND FRANCISCO COLOCHO. SPEAKING FOR THE GROUP, VILLATORO SAID SHE WANTED TO BRIEF THE VICE PRESIDENT ON WHY UNOC HAS OPTED TO SUPPORT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PARTY CANDIDATE, FIDEL CHAVEZ MENA, FOR PRESIDENT. UNOC IS CONCERNED ABOUT A POSSIBLE RETURN TO REPRESSION. THE ORGANIZATION INTERVIEWED SEVERAL CANDIDATES TO ANALYZE WHAT THEY HAD TO OFFER LABOR. ON THIS BASIS THEY CONCLUDED THAT, TO CONSOLIDATE DEMOCRACY, THERE HAD TO BE ANOTHER TERM OF OFFICE FOR THE PDC.

VILLATORO SAID SHE ACCEPTED THAT CRISTIANI IS A DECENT INDIVIDUAL. HE, HOWEVER, DOES NOT HAVE ABSOLUTE POWER IN ARENA. ROBERTO D'AUBUISSON AND COL. (R) SIGIFREDO OCHOA (ARENA ASSEMBLY VICE PRESIDENT) ARE THE POWERS IN THE PARTY. UNOC VIEWS THIS AS A DANGEROUS SITUATION. IF ARENA WINS AND THE RESULT IS GREATER REPRESSION, THE ULTIMATE WINNER WILL BE THE FMLN WHICH WILL GAIN GREATER ACCEPTANCE THAN IT NOW ENJOYS. THE PDC IS, THUS, THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE TO CONSOLIDATE THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS.

THE NEW FMLN PROPOSAL, ACCORDING TO VILLATORO, IS DIFFERENT AND HAS CHANGED THE SITUATION. UNOC BELIEVES THE PROPOSAL SHOULD BE ANALYZED AND A

COUNTERPROPOSAL AGREED UPON THAT CAN BE NEGOTIATED. SUCH NEGOTIATIONS WOULD OFFER SOME HOPE OF PEACE. FOR THE FIRST TIME THE FMLN HAS RECOGNIZED ELECTIONS AS A MEANS OF RESOLVING THE PROBLEM. SHE BELIEVES ONE HAS TO TAKE THE FMLN AT ITS WORD AND FORCE THEM TO COMMIT TO ELECTIONS. THEY SAID THEY WOULD DO IT. ONE SHOULD MAKE THEM DO IT.

VILLATORO NOTED ARENA'S INITIAL NEGATIVE RESPONSE WHICH CONTRAST TO THE LEFT INITIAL UNILATERAL ACCEPTANCE OF WHATEVER THE FMLN PROPOSAL SAID. THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR IS TOO POLARIZED, SHE SAID. WHAT IS NEEDED IS A NATIONAL COUNTERPROPOSAL TO THE TWO EXTREMES THAT WILL GIVE SOME HOPE THAT, IN THE SHORT TERM OR NEAR FUTURE, FOR A RESOLUTION OF THE CONFLICT.

THE POLITICAL PARTIES HAVE THE GREATEST RESPONSIBILITY. THEY WILL DECIDE WHETHER ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD MARCH 19. UNOC HAS DISCUSSED THE CONCEPT OF HOLDING A PLEBISCITE ON SEPTEMBER 15 AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO POSTPONING THE ELECTION PAST THE CONSTITUTIONAL DEADLINE. UNOC WOULD LIKE AN PROPOSAL THAT DOES NOT VIOLATE THE CONSTITUTION, BUT THAT ALSO DOES NOT HIDE BEHIND THE CONSTITUTION AS THE FMLN IS SAYING IS BEING DONE. A REFERENDUM, OR SOME VARIANT IS NEEDED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE SITUATION CREATED BY THE FMLN.

WITH REGARD TO HUMAN RIGHTS, VILLATORO SAID THE SITUATION HAS IMPROVED SINCE THE EARLY 1980'S AND STEPS HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO CONSOLIDATE THE PROCESS. IT IS IMPORTANT TO END THE CONFLICT SINCE THE CONFLICT IS ITSELF A HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION. SHE NOTED THAT IT IS NOT ONLY THE SALVADORAN ARMED FORCES (ESAF) WHICH IS COMMITING ABUSES, BUT THE FMLN AS WELL. VILLATORO EXPRESSED STRONG OPPOSITION TO AMERICA'S

WATCH'S EFFORTS TO DENY GSP PRIVILEGES TO EL SALVADOR BY INVOKING UNITED STATES LEGISLATION CONCERNING RESPECT FOR WORKERS RIGHTS. AMERICA'S WATCH ONLY PRESSES FROM ONE SIDE, SHE SAID. THERE ARE TWO SIDES. NOT ONLY DOES ONE HAVE THE SAN SEBASTIAN CASE, THERE IS ALSO THE TRES CEIBAS CASE OF CAMPESINOS KILLED BY THE FMLN. AMERICA'S WATCH FOCUSSES ON SAN SEBASTIAN, BUT NOT TRES CEIBAS. IN A WAR, SHE SAID, THERE WILL BE VIOLATIONS. THIS IS WHY THE WAR MUST END.

VILLATORO SUMMARIZED THAT HER REMARKS REFLECTED UNDC'S THINKING ON HUMAN RIGHTS, DEMOCRACY AND VIOLENCE. SHE CONCLUDED THAT SINCE ARENA WON AN ASSEMBLY MAJORITY IN MARCH 1988, VIOLENCE HAS INCREASED. THE FMLN GETS OXYGEN FROM THOSE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS. ON THE OTHER HAND, THEIR REASON FOR FIGHTING DISAPPEARS WHEN HUMAN RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED.

CAPAZO SAID THAT EL SALVADOR HAD SUFFERED THE SEVEN PLAGUES OF EGYPT. PERHAPS IT IS TIME TO REAP THE BENEFITS OF THAT SUFFERING. WORKERS HOPE THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS IS THE BEGINNING OF THAT BLESSING. IT IS IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER THAT WORKERS HAVE DIED BECAUSE OF THE ACTIONS OF THE FMLN. THIS IS A WAR BETWEEN TWO CAMPESINO ARMIES. IT IS THE SONS OF PEASANTS AND WORKERS FIGHTING EACH OTHER. THE UNITED STATES MUST CONTINUE TO HELP CREATE JOBS AND GENERATE EMPLOYMENT IN THIS COUNTRY. ONLY WITH WORK WILL THE WAR END. THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS IS NOT CONSOLIDATED.

UDC HEAD SAMUEL MALDONADO NOTED THAT THE AMERICA'S WATCH APPROACH IS OF GREAT CONCERN SINCE IT IS INTENDED TO LEAD TO A CUT OFF OF MILITARY AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE. THIS WILL LEAD TO ANOTHER NICARAGUA. UNITED STATES' ASSISTANCE SHOULD CONTINUE, WITH THE PROPER HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS AND WITH CONTINUED SUPPORT FOR THE STRUCTURAL REFORMS (LABOR REFORM, NATIONALIZATION OF THE BANKING SYSTEM AND COFFEE MARKETING AND EXPORT). THIS IS THE BASIS FOR DEFEATING THE FMLN.

MALDONADO NOTED THAT UNDC HAS CREATED ITS OWN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION AS A RESULT OF THE POLARIZED SITUATION CREATED BY THE EXISTENCE OF A GOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION AND A NON-GOVERNMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. MALDONADO LAMENTED THAT THE GOVERNMENTAL COMMISSION ONLY REPORTED ON FMLN ABUSES AND THE NON-GOVERNMENTAL ONLY ON GOVERNMENT ABUSES. INVITED BY THE VICE PRESIDENT TO EXPAND ON HIS DESCRIPTON OF UNDC HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVITIES, MALDONADO NOTED THAT UNDC HAD ALREADY INVESTIGATED THE SAN SEBASTIAN AND TRES CEIBAS CASES. HE NOTED THAT ON JANAURY 1 A UDC LABOR ORGANIZER HAD BEEN KILLED IN SAN VINCENTE DEPARTMENT BY THE FMLN. OTHER MURDERS IN METAPAN AND SAN ANTONIO HAD ALSO BEEN INVESTIGATED BY UNDC. HE CONCLUDED THAT A HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION THAT WAS NOT IMPARTIAL HAD NO RIGHT TO CALL ITSELF SUCH.

COLOCHO SAID THAT HE REPRESENTED THE URBAN SECTOR. HE NOTED THAT IN THE LAST FEW YEARS THEY HAD SEEN CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS FOR THEIR PEOPLE UNDER PRESIDENT DUARTE. ON THIS BASIS THE UNION IS GOING TO SUPPORT FIDEL CHAVEZ MENA.

THE VICE PRESIDENT REGRETTED THERE WAS NOT MORE TIME TO EXPLORE THE POINTS RAISED BY THE LABOR REPRESENTATIVES. HE SUMMARIZED THE MEETINGS HE HAD ALREADY HAD IN THE COURSE OF THE DAY AND NOTED THAT IN EACH HE HAD UNDERSCORED OUR CONCERN FOR DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS AND OUR CONDEMNATION OF VIOLENCE FROM THE RIGHT AND FROM THE LEFT. WITH REGARD TO THE FMLN PROPOSAL, WE SUPPORT PRESIDENT DUARTE'S EFFORT TO FIND A SOLUTION WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE CONSTITUTION. WE DO NOT WANT THOSE CRITICS WHO FORESEE MORE VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR BE PROVEN RIGHT, THE VICE PRESIDENT SAID. WE ARE COMMITTED TO HUMAN RIGHTS. WE HAVE CONVEYED THIS MESSAGE TO ALL, INCLUDING ARENA, WHO WAS TOLD THEY WOULD BE WATCHED CLOSELY IF THEY WIN. THE UNITED STATES IS NEUTRAL IN THE ELCTION, BUT COMMITTED TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY, THE VICE PRESIDENT CONCLUDED.

11 MEETING WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF EL SALVADOR

VICE PRESIDENT GREETED THE AMCHAM DELEGATION COMPOSED OF HECTOR FIGUEROA, PHIL WAND, EDUARDO RUBIO, RAMSEY MOORE AND STEVE GILBERTSON OFFERING THEM A SUMMARY OF THE MEETINGS HE HAD AND THE MESSAGES HE HAD CONVEYED TO THE VARIOUS GROUPS CONCERNING DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. HE NOTED THAT SOME CRITICS IN THE UNITED STATES THINK DEMOCRACY IS NOT GOING TO MAKE IT IN EL SALVADOR. THIS WAS HIS FIRST TRIP AS A PRESIDENTIAL ENVOY FOR THE ADMINISTRATION AND HIS FIRST TRIP TO EL SALVADOR. THE PURPOSE OF THE VISIT IS TO SHOW OUR INTEREST IN THE REGION AND TO UNDERSCORE THE PROGRESS MADE UNDER PRESIDENT DUARTE. HE ASKED THE GROUP TO GIVE HIM INFORMATION THAT CAN HELP PROVE THE CRITICS WRONG.

FIGUEROA SAID THAT THE SALVADORAN CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS ONE OF 19 IN LATIN AMERICA ORGANIZED UNDER THE UMBRELLA OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE IN LATIN AMERICA. FIGUEROA SUMMARIZED THE CHAMBERS BASIC POSITION AS BEING ONE SUPPORTIVE OF CONTINUED UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR. HE NOTED THAT EL SALVADOR WAS PASSING THROUGH MULTIPLE CRISES AT PRESENT, INCLUDING AN ECONOMIC CRISIS BROUGHT ON BY A 45 REDUCTION COFFEE PRODUCTION AS A RESULT OF HIGH WINDS AND DROUGHT. THE FALL IN PRODUCTION WOULD PRODUCE A FOREIGN EXCHANGE CRISIS TO ADD TO THE FISCAL AND TRADE DEFICITS THAT ALREADY EXIST. FIGUEROA EXPRESSED DOUBTS THAT THE SITUATION COULD WAIT SIX MONTHS TO BE ADDRESSED UNTIL A NEW ADMINISTRATION TAKES OFFICE.

WITH REGARD TO THE FMLN PROPOSAL, FIGUEROA NOTED THAT THE FMLN ITSELF CALLED THIS A POLITICAL PROPOSAL, NOT A PEACE PROPOSAL. IN THE INTERIM, THE FMLN HAS INCREASED VIOLENCE AGAINST THE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT INFRASTRUCTURE, KILLING ONE GOVERNOR, EIGHT MAYORS AND CAUSING 72 MAYORS AND CITY COUNCILS TO RESIGN. THE FMLN PROPOSAL DOES NOT ADDRESS THE ISSUES OF VIOLENCE AND THE CONFLICT, NOR DOES IT TALK ABOUT LAYING DOWN ARMS, NOR RESPECT FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

WITH REGARD TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE MILITARY, THE CHAMBER SPOKE ON JANUARY 31 TO COL. PONCE, HEAD OF THE JOINT CHIEFS. THE CHAMBER URGED PONCE TO CLEAR UP HUMAN RIGHTS CASES AND TO BRING TO JUSTICE THOSE ACCUSED IN SUCH CASES, BOTH BECAUSE THEY NEED TO THAT AND BECAUSE IT IS THE ONLY WAY TO PROTECT POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR THE ESAF. FIGUEROA RESPONDED TO A QUERY FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT THAT THEIR APPROACH TO PONCE INCLUDED REFERENCE TO THE SAN SEBASTIAN CASE. THEY BROUGHT TO PONCE'S ATTENTION RECENT WASHINGTON POST AND NEW YORK TIMES COVERAGE OF EL SALVADOR AS EXAMPLES OF WHAT IS AT RISK.

THE VICE PRESIDENT STATED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT NEED A BIG FIGHT IN CONGRESS OVER AID TO EL SALVADOR. THERE ARE SOME IN CONGRESS WHO NOW WANT TO SHIFT THE DEBATE FROM NICARAGUA TO EL SALVADOR. OTHERS ARE SIMPLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE BUDGET. HE NOTED THE CYNICISM EXPRESSED BY SOME DEMOCRATS IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN WHO CALLED FOR A CENTRAL AMERICA PLAN -- AIMED AT NEBRASKA AND INDIANA. DEMOGOGUERY ON THIS ISSUE IS STILL POSSIBLE AFTER THE ELECTION, HE NOTED.

FIGUEROA PRESENTED THE VICE PRESIDENT WITH A POSITION PAPER AND INFORMED HIM THAT THE GROUP WOULD BE IN WASHINGTON FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN CHAMBERS THE FIRST WEEK IN MAY. THE VICE PRESIDENT INVITED THE GROUP TO STOP BY OR CALL HIM OR A MEMBER OF THE STAFF IF HE IS NOT AVAILABLE.

PHIL WAND SAID THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO END THE MEETING WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT ON A PESSIMISTIC NOTE BECAUSE THERE ARE MANY SUCCESS STORIES IN EL SALVADOR DESPITE THE PROBLEMS. IT IS THESE SUCCESS STORIES THAT ARE GOING TO MAKE EL SALVADOR SURVIVE. A KEY

MEMORANDUM: The 1914 Treaty During the Allende Years

The purpose of this memorandum is to chronicle the events in 1971-3 that led to the 1914 Treaty becoming an issue in U.S.-Chile relations at the time. The legal significance of these events is discussed in the accompanying memorandum on the arguments Chile might raise objecting to the scope and applicability of the 1914 Treaty to the Letelier case.

Salvador Allende was elected President of Chile in 1970 and by mid-1971 his government had expropriated substantial U.S. owned property, including U.S. owned copper mines. U.S.-Chilean relations were on a down-hill slide.

In November 1971, Embassy Santiago requested information from the Department on the 1914 Treaty. What prompted the Embassy's request is not reported. In the early part of 1972 a number of memos were written in L concerning the 1914 Treaty and other dispute settlement mechanisms as they might apply in U.S.-Chilean relations.

On March 24, 1972 Chile appointed Manfred Lachs of Poland and Edmundo Vargas of Chile as members of the Commission established under the 1914 Treaty.

A year later, in December 1972, senior level talks began in Washington on U.S.-Chilean differences. These talks focussed on financing/expropriation/compensation issues. Chile informally suggested use of the 1914 Treaty at the meeting.

Shortly after the December 1972 meeting, Chilean newspapers began to print stories about possible use of the 1914 Treaty. Chilean Ambassador to the U.S., Orlando Letelier, is referred to as one of the group that "dusted off" the old Treaty.

On February 10, 1973 the Washington Post printed an interview with Allende where he referred to the 1914 Treaty (attached).

On March 2, 1973 Allende held a press conference again referring to the 1914 Treaty. Allende alludes to possible unilateral invocation of the Treaty.

CONFIDENTIAL
DECL:OADR

On March 6, 1973, Acting Assistant Secretary Crimmins testified before the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs and was asked about these press reports. He said:

> "Well, as a matter of firm principle we strongly believe in the use of international arbitration for cases of this kind. The 1914 Treaty has indeed been referred to by President Allende, it came up in an indirect way during our discussion in December without any firm address to the question. The 1914 Treaty is a treaty of conciliation, not arbitration; it provides for an examination by an internationally established group of experts to look into the questions in issue and to render a report which is not binding on either party. We would expect to be addressing this kind of question as we move along with the Chileans to an examination of the fundamental issues."

On March 22-23, 1973 a second round of bilateral talks was held. Chile formally proposed application of the 1914 Treaty, not only to the copper dispute but to Chilean allegations of a U.S.-inspired economic and financial embargo of Chile in international financial institutions.

Following these talks, there was substantial discussion in the Department concerning use of dispute settlement as a means of resolving issues with Chile. The U.S.G. did not question whether the Treaty was in force, or the scope or applicability of the 1914 Treaty to the dispute. The U.S.G opposed the 1914 Treaty on the grounds that it did not provide a clear means to reach a binding dispute settlement. There was continued discussion in the Chilean press, including interviews with Chilean officials, concerning possible use of the 1914 Treaty. After Letelier became Foreign Minister he continued to advocate use of the Treaty in his conversations with U.S. officials.

On August 16-17, 1973 the two sides met again and Chile restated its request to use the 1914 Treaty. The U.S. side maintained its opposition. Following the meeting the Department began to consider ways of marrying the 1914 Treaty to other mechanisms to achieve a more binding result.

No other meeting was held. Allende was overthrown on September 11, 1973.

2. SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION

DEPARTMENT REQUESTS POSTS' INPUT ON THE FOLLOWING DRAFT REPORT ON CUBA'S CONTINUED EFFORTS TO SUBVERT DEMOCRACY IN LATIN AMERICA. THE FINAL REPORT WILL BE USED TO BRIEF THE INCOMING ASSISTANT SECRETARY AND DISTRIBUTED TO POST TO BRIEF SELECT HOST COUNTRY OFFICIALS. WE MAY ALSO CONSIDER A SANITIZED VERSION FOR PUBLICATION.

3. CUBA IS PURSUING A TWO-TRACK STRATEGY IN LATIN AMERICA OF IMPROVING ITS BILATERAL GOVERMENT-TO-GOVERNMENT RELATIONS; WHILE CONTINUING TO BACK CERTAIN ANTI-GOVERNMENT RADICAL ELEMENTS THROUGHOUT THE HEMISPHERE. MANY LATIN AMERICAN LEADERS HAVE BEEN RECEPTIVE TO CASTRO'S POLITICAL OVERTURES AND CHOSEN TO DOWNPLAY CUBAN INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF LATIN COUNTRIES. ACCORDINGLY, ONE USE OF THE FINAL REPORT MIGHT BE TO REMIND HOST COUNTRY GOVERNMENTS THAT FIDEL CASTRO'S RECENT ATTEMPTS TO REJOIN THE MAINSTREAM OF THE LATIN AMERICAN COMMUNITY SHOULD BE VIEWED WITH SKEPTICISM. CUBA IS CONTINUING THE SAME COURSE OF ACTION (SUPPORT FOR RADICAL ELEMENTS AND GUERRILLA MOVEMENTS) WHICH CAUSED ITS LATIN NEIGHBORS TO SEVER RELATIONS AND EJECT CUBA FROM THE OAS IN THE FIRST PLACE.

4. THE FOLLOWING TEXT WILL, WHEN FINISHED, PROVIDE A HEMISPHERIC OVERVIEW AND SPECIFIC EXAMPLES OF CUBAN SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES IN SELECT LATIN COUNTRIES FOR POSTS TO DRAW UPON. "SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES" REFERS TO CUBAN

COVERT OR EXTRA-LEGAL SUPPORT FOR RADICAL GROUPS WHICH POSE A THREAT TO THE EXISTING ORDER IN THE AFFECTED COUNTRIES. THE REPORT DOES NOT ADDRESS THE FULL RANGE OF CUBAN ACTIVITIES IN LATIN AMERICA, BUT EMPHASIZES CUBA'S COVERT ACTIVITIES. CUBA IS PURSUING A SUCCESSFUL DIPLOMATIC OFFENSIVE IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE POINTS LISTED BELOW MUST BE VIEWED WITHIN THAT CONTEXT. THIS DISCUSSION DOES NOT INCLUDE CUBAN OVERT OR COVERT SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENTS, MAINSTREAM OPPOSITION PARTIES, OR LEGAL PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS. IT DOES NOT COVER THE RANGE OF "LEGITIMATE" CHANNELS THROUGH WHICH THE GOC HAS SOUGHT TO IMPROVE ITS INTERNATIONAL STANDING, NAMELY SPORTS AND CULTURAL EXCHANGES, HOSTING INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES, SCHOLARSHIPS, MEDICAL AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE, AND TRADE AND AIR TRAVEL AGREEMENTS. HOWEVER, IF POSTS HAVE ANYTHING USEFUL TO ADD ON THE OVERT SIDE THAT WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO THIS REPORT AND ITS CREDIBILITY, WE WOULD WELCOME IT. WHERE OUR ANALYSIS IS OFF BASE, PLEASE SAY SO.

5. THE INDIVIDUAL EXAMPLES OF CUBAN ACTIVITIES CONTAINED IN THE DRAFT TEXT [redacted] A5 WE RECOGNIZE THAT THE EXAMPLES INCLUDED THUS FAR ARE INCOMPLETE AND LOOK TO POSTS TO STRENGTHEN THEM AND ADD NEW EXAMPLES. IF POST CHOOSES TO SUBMIT ADDITIONAL [redacted] A5 KEEPING IN MIND THE POSSIBILITY OF A LATER UNCLASSIFIED VERSION, NOTORIOUS PUBLIC EXAMPLES WOULD OF COURSE ALSO BE WELCOME. THE DEADLINE FOR RESPONSES IS FEBRUARY 28. THE DEPARTMENT'S FINAL REPORT WILL BE CLEARED WITH APPROPRIATE WASHINGTON AGENCIES. END SUMMARY/INTRODUCTION.

6. OVERVIEW

THE BOTTOM LINE IS THAT CUBAN SUPPORT FOR RADICAL MOVEMENTS AND ARMED INSURGENTS IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE MILITARIZES AND INTERNATIONALIZES WHAT WOULD OTHERWISE BE LOCAL CONFLICTS AND PROBLEMS. IN A REGION WHOSE PRIMARY NEEDS ARE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, SOCIAL EQUITY AND GREATER DEMOCRACY, CUBA IS COMPOUNDING EXISTING PROBLEMS BY ENCOURAGING DESTABILIZATION AND ARMED INSURRECTION.

7. IN MOST CASES, CUBA SEEMS TO BE HEDGING ITS BETS WITH A TWO-PRONGED OFFENSIVE CONSISTING OF NORMALIZATION PLUS TARGETTED DESTABILIZATION. IT HAS STEPPED UP ITS POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC EFFORTS TO WOO LEGITIMATE LATIN GOVERNMENTS AND POLITICIANS, BUT STILL MAKES MEDIUM TO LONG-TERM INVESTMENTS IN RADICAL GROUPS WHICH (WITH THE NOTABLE EXCEPTIONS OF POLITICAL EXTREMISTS IN CHILE, COLOMBIA, AND EL SALVADOR) MAY NOT BE IN A POSITION TO

DECLASSIFIED IN PART UNCLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED IN PART
UNCLASSIFIED

CAUSE SHORT-TERM THREATS TO THEIR COUNTRIES' STABILITY, BUT COULD POSE SIGNIFICANT THREATS IN THE FUTURE.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights Special Project (1993)

8. OVER THE YEARS, CUBA HAS:

-- TRAINED VIOLENT LEFTIST CADRES IN URBAN AND GUERRILLA WARFARE, INTELLIGENCE TRADECRAFT, PROPAGANDA AND IDEOLOGY;

-- SUPPLIED OR TRANSFERRED WEAPONS, FUNDS, AND OTHER MATERIAL SUPPORT TO RADICAL GROUPS WHICH SEEK TO ASSUME POWER BY FORCE;

-- PROVIDED GUIDANCE, ORGANIZATIONAL ASSISTANCE, PLANNING AND, IN SOME CASES, ADVISORS TO GUERRILLA ORGANIZATIONS AND RADICAL GOVERNMENTS TO FOMENT REVOLUTIONS;

-- ENCOURAGED TERRORISM TO WEAKEN GOVERNMENTS' LEGITIMACY; AND

-- WORKED TO UNITE TRADITIONALLY SPLINTERED RADICAL GROUPS BEHIND A COMMITMENT TO TAKE POWER.

9. CUBA'S DRIVE TO DESTABILIZE OTHER LATIN GOVERNMENTS DOES NOT NECESSARILY DISCRIMINATE BETWEEN DEMOCRACIES AND DICTATORSHIPS AND PERSISTS IN SOME CASES DESPITE IMPROVED BILATERAL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

10. THE MAJORITY OF CUBAN COVERT OPERATIONS AIMED AT SUBVERSION IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE ARE PLANNED AND COORDINATED BY THE AMERICA DEPARTMENT OF THE CUBAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCC/AD). PCC/AD BRINGS TOGETHER THE EXPERTISE OF THE CUBAN MILITARY AND THE GENERAL DIRECTORATE OF INTELLIGENCE (DGI) INTO A LARGE-SCALE OPERATIONS NETWORK THAT INCLUDES TRAINING CAMPS INSIDE CUBA, ARRANGMENTS FOR COVERT MOVEMENT OF PERSONNEL TO AND FROM CUBA, AND OPERATIVES IN PLACE ABROAD. PCC/AD PERSONNEL ARE PRESENT IN EVERY CUBAN DIPLOMATIC MISSION IN LATIN AMERICA.

CUBAN SUPPORT FOR RADICAL FORCES IN THE CARIBBEAN ARE PRIMARILY AIMED AT THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC AND HAITI. APART FROM THOSE TWO COUNTRIES, THE LEVEL OF SUBVERSION IN THE REST OF THE CARIBBEAN APPEARS RELATIVELY LOW. ALTHOUGH THE GOC PROVIDES LIMITED AMOUNTS OF FUNDS AND TRAINING TO LEFTISTS IN THE REGION, IT SEEMS TO BE CONCENTRATING ON IMPROVING CUBA'S DIPLOMATIC AND TRADE RELATIONS WITH ITS ISLAND NEIGHBORS. CASTRO HAS MAINTAINED HIS MANY CONTACTS AMONG THE AREA'S LEFT-LEANING POLITICIANS AND ENCOURAGED THEM AND THEIR LABOR ALLIES TO COOPERATE IN UNITED FRONTS AND TO PARTICIPATE IN THEIR NATION'S POLITICAL PROCESSES.

12. DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

-- THE PRO-CUBAN DOMINICAN LIBERATION PARTY (PLD), THE DOMINICAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCD) AND THE SOCIALIST BLOCK (BS) HAVE SENT MEMBERS TO CUBA FOR TRAINING.

-- CUBA, IN SOME CASES, ACTS AS AN INTERMEDIARY FOR DOMINICAN RADICALS TRAVELLING TO VIETNAM FOR PARAMILITARY TRAINING.

-- IN 1988, MEMBERS OF THE PCD CENTRAL COMMITTEE TRAVELLED TO CUBA VIA PANAMA FOR SEVERAL MONTHS OF TRAINING IN COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AND/OR FALSE DOCUMENT PREPARATION.

-- THE DOMINICAN "FRIENDS OF CUBA" ORGANIZATION ENGAGES IN COUNTERINTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT.

-- CUBA USES THE PCD AS A CONDUIT FOR FUNDS AND OTHER SUPPORT FOR THE UNIFIED PARTY OF HAITIAN COMMUNISTS (PUCH).

-- THE CUBAN COMMUNIST PARTY'S AMERICA DEPARTMENT (PCC/AD) PROVIDED FUNDS TO THE PCD IN 1988 FOR TRANSFER TO THE UNIFIED PARTY OF HAITIAN COMMUNISTS (PUCH) IN PORT AU PRINCE. THE MONEY WAS TO BE USED TO SEND PUCH MEMBERS TO CUBA FOR PARAMILITARY TRAINING.

13. HAITI

-- CUBA HAS PROVIDED LIMITED FINANCIAL AID AND PARAMILITARY TRAINING TO THE PUCH.

-- IN 1987, APPROXIMATELY 50 PUCH OPERATIVES ARRIVED IN HAITI TO ENGAGE IN LONG-TERM DESTABLIZING OPERATIONS. AN UNKNOWN NUMBER OF THE FIFTY WERE TRAINED IN CUBA.

14. BAHAMAS

-- CUBA HAS BEEN PUSHING TO UPGRADE RELATIONS WITH THE BAHAMAS. EARLIER THIS YEAR, THE CUBANS MADE OVERTURES TO USE THE BAHAMAS AS A SOURCE AND TRANSIT POINT FOR EMBARGOED U.S. GOODS IN A PROBABLE ATTEMPT TO REPLACE PANAMA IN THIS ROLE.

15. JAMAICA

-- THERE ARE REPORTS OF CUBAN CONTRIBUTIONS TO RADICAL PEOPLE'S NATIONAL PARTY (PNP) POLITICIANS.

-- JAMAICAN AUTHORITIES SUSPECT THE MANAGER OF CUBANA AIRLINES' KINGSTON OFFICE TO BE INVOLVED IN INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES.

16. SURINAME

-- CUBA HAS MADE INFORMAL MOVES TO REESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SURINAME. VICE PRESIDENT ARRON IS SAID TO SUPPORT RELATIONS, PARTLY AS A SOP TO POWERFUL MILITARY LEADER BOUTERSE.

18. TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

-- IN 1987 ABOUT 75 PEOPLE, MAINLY FROM LABOR UNIONS, TRAVELED TO CUBA TO ATTEND BRIEF TRAINING/LABOR SEMINARS.

19. MEXICO AND CENTRAL AMERICA

CUBA'S PRINCIPAL TARGETS FOR SUBVERSION IN CENTRAL AMERICA ARE EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA. THE GOC RECOGNIZES THAT THE CONDITIONS IN HONDURAS ARE NOT YET READY FOR A FULL-SCALE INSURGENCY. CUBA HAS CLOSE RELATIONS WITH AND PROVIDES EXTENSIVE MILITARY AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO NICARAGUA AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PANAMA AND CONTINUES TO USE BOTH NATIONS AS BASES FROM WHICH TO BACK SUBVERSION AGAINST NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES.

20. COSTA RICA

-- CUBAN OFFICIALS REPORTEDLY DECLARED THE TIME WAS RIPE FOR DESTABILIZATION IN COSTA RICA AT A SUMMER 1988 MEETING IN HAVANA.

-- MEMBERS OF THE COSTA RICAN MORA CANAS BRIGADE REPORTEDLY TRAINED 8-12 MONTHS IN CUBA UNTIL MID-1985.

-- A CUBAN IS THE GENERAL COORDINATOR OF THE PATRIOTIC SANTAMARIA ORGANIZATION (OPS), A LIBYAN-SUPPORTED TERRORIST GROUP. CUBA PERIODICALLY SENDS INSTRUCTIONS TO OPS VIA NICARAGUA'S EMBASSY IN SAN JOSE.

-- IN 1987, THE COMMUNIST COSTA RICAN PEOPLE'S PARTY

21. EL SALVADOR

-- THE GOC CONTINUES TO ACTIVELY SUPPORT THE FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT (FMLN) THROUGH MILITARY TRAINING AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PLANNING AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT.

-- ONE CENTER FOR TRAINING FMLN GUERRILLAS IS LOCATED IN THE CANDELARIA AREA OF WESTERN CUBA.

-- TO TRAIN FMLN GUERRILLAS FOR THE HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL 1981 ATTACK ON ILOPANGO AIR BASE, THE CUBANS BUILT A FACSIMILE OF ILOPANGO AIRFIELD IN CUBA.

-- CUBA HAS ASSISTED IN THE PLANNING PHASE OF SEVERAL LARGE SCALE GUERRILLA ATTACKS, NOTABLY THE MARCH 1987 ATTACK ON THE FOURTH BRIGADE.

-- IN 1988, TEN ARMED FORCES OF NATIONAL RESISTANCE (FARN) MEMBERS RETURNED TO EL SALVADOR VIA MEXICO AFTER FIVE YEARS OF TRAINING IN CUBA AND NICARAGUA.

-- A PEOPLE'S REVOLUTIONARY ARMY (ERP) DESERTER DESCRIBED IN LATE 1986 HOW MONEY FLOWS FROM CUBA AND THE USSR TO ERP UNITS IN THE FIELD. THE FUNDS ARRIVE IN MEXICO OR NICARAGUA WHERE THEY ARE CARRIED OVER LAND INTO EL SALVADOR. IF THE NICARAGUAN ROUTE IS USED, THE MONEY IS CHANNELLED TO THE ERP THROUGH HONDURAS.

23. HONDURAS

-- A CAPTURED MEMBER OF THE HONDURAN PEOPLE'S REVOLUTIONARY UNION/POPULAR LIBERATION MOVEMENT (CHINCHONEROS) REVEALED THAT HONDURAN GUERRILLAS WERE TRAINED IN CUBA IN THE EARLY 1980'S.

-- CUBAN (AND NICARAGUAN) STRATEGY IN HONDURAS IS TO UNIFY ALL THE MAIN LEFTIST GROUPS.

[redacted]

-- IN 1987, A MEETING OF OFFICIALS OF MAJOR HONDURAN LEFTIST GROUPS WAS CONVENED IN HAVANA AND, WITH CUBAN (AND NICARAGUAN) HELP, AN AGREEMENT WAS REACHED TO PROMOTE COOPERATION AMONG THE VARIOUS GROUPS AND TO INCREASE LEFTIST ACTIVITY INSIDE HONDURAS.

-- THE CUBANS HAVE PUSHED HONDURAN LEFTISTS TO REORGANIZE THEIR ARMED ELEMENTS AND TO INFILTRATE/ORGANIZE MASS MOVEMENTS.
-- TO ENCOURAGE COOPERATION, THE CUBANS REPORTEDLY HAVE OFFERED FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR THE COMMUNIST MARXIST-LENINST PARTY OF HONDURAS (PCMLN) AND FUNDING FOR A NEWSPAPER TO BE PUBLISHED BY THE HONDURAN PATRIOTIC FRONT WITH INPUT FROM OTHER LEFTIST GROUPS.

24. MEXICO

-- THERE IS LITTLE EVIDENCE OF CUBAN SUBVERSION DIRECTED AT MEXICO.

-- CUBA USES MEXICO AS A MAJOR TRANSIT POINT, TRANSFER LOCATION FOR FUNDS, AND MEETING PLACE FOR LEFTISTS THROUGHOUT THE HEMISPHERE.

-- CUBAN AND SOVIET-SUPPLIED FUNDS TO THE SALVADORAN ERP [redacted]

ARE TRANSFERRED TO FMLN ORGANIZATIONS IN NICARAGUA WHICH FUNNEL THE MONIES THROUGH HONDURAS TO THE INSURGENTS IN NORTHEASTERN EL SALVADOR.

26. PANAMA

-- PANAMA IS A MAJOR CROSSROADS FOR CUBAN-SUPPORTED CLANDESTINE TRAVEL AND AN IMPORTANT LIAISON CENTER FOR CUBAN OFFICIALS AND LATIN REVOLUTIONARIES.NOT ONLY IS THE EMBASSY IN PANAMA CITY ONE OF CUBA'S LARGEST, BUT THE CUBANS PROBABLY HAVE MORE "FRONTS" IN PANAMA THAN ANYWHERE ELSE. ONE OF THESE IS THE INTERAMERICAN COOPERATIVE INSTITUTE IN PANAMA CITY, WHICH NOT ONLY ASSISTS INSURGENT GROUPS IN TRAVEL TO AND FROM PANAMA BUT SERVES AS A SCHOOL TO EDUCATE LEFTIST CADRES TO OPERATE THROUGHOUT THE HEMISPHERE.

27. SOUTH AMERICA

CUBA IS MOST HEAVILY INVOLVED IN HELPING RADICAL GROUPS IN CHILE AND COLOMBIA. AT THE SAME TIME, SOUTH AMERICA HAS BEEN THE FOCUS OF CUBA'S CAMPAIGN TO BETTER ITS DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS IN LATIN AMERICA. THE GOC HAS MADE SPECIAL EFFORTS TO COURT THE GOVERNMENTS OF VENEZUELA, ECUADOR AND BRAZIL. THE CUBANS ARE HEDGING THEIR BETS BY FORGING LINKS WITH MAINSTREAM SOUTH AMERICAN POLITICAL PARTIES CAPABLE OF WINNING POWER THROUGH ELECTIONS.

-- IN 1988, THE ARGENTINE ARMY CAPTURED A GROUP OF MANUEL RODRIGUEZ PATRIOTIC FRONT (FPMR) MEMBERS CROSSING THE BORDER FROM ARGENTINA INTO CHILE. THE GROUP INCLUDED CUBAN NATIONALS AND OTHERS WITH CUBAN AND NICARAGUAN PASSPORTS WHO HAD BEEN TRAINED IN CUBA.

-- THROUGH ITS EMBASSY, CUBA PROVIDES A LIMITED AMOUNT OF FUNDING, TRAINING AND COUNSEL TO THE MONTENEROS AND THE PEOPLE'S REVOLUTIONARY ARMY AND HAS LINKS WITH THE ARGENTINE ALL FOR THE FATHERLAND MOVEMENT (MTPP). IN JANUARY, 50 TO 70 HEAVILY ARMED ULTRA-LEFTISTS CONNECTED TO THE MTPP ATTACKED THE TABLADA ARMY BASE IN BUENOS AIRES, DISPLAYING IMPRESSIVE MILITARY DISCIPLINE AS THEY HELD OUT AGAINST GOVERNMENT TROOPS FOR OVER 24 HOURS.

29. BOLIVIA

-- THE CUBANS WERE INSTRUMENTAL IN UNIFYING SEVERAL SMALL RADICAL BOLIVIAN FACTIONS UNDER THE NATIONAL CONVERGENCY AXIS-PATRIOTICA (EJE-P). CUBA APPEARS TO BE EJE-P'S CHIEF FOREIGN SOURCE OF FUNDS.

-- IN 1985, THE CUBANS REPORTEDLY AGREED TO SUPPLY ENOUGH WEAPONS TO ARM THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PCCH). THE FIRST OF THESE EXPANDED DELIVERIES OCCURRED IN APRIL 1985 AND CONSISTED OF 150 AK-47 RIFLES AND 20 RPG-7 GRENADE LAUNCHERS.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Mark 2/24/89 R

I am writing to express my grave concern over recent events involving the Vicariate of the Catholic Church in Santiago, Chile. As you are aware, the Vicariate has been a stalwart defender of human rights in Chile during the past fifteen years. It has provided legal and medical assistance and counseling to the victims of human rights abuse and to their families.

Recently, the military prosecutor of the Chilean government has undertaken a broad investigation of the Vicaria, with the apparent intent of confiscating this human rights organization's medical, legal, and financial records. The military prosecutor has been seeking complete access to the Vicaria's medical and legal records of human rights victims as well as to personnel and financial records as early as 1983. The most recent investigation relates to a 1986 incident in which a Vicaria doctor provided treatment to an individual wounded in a demonstration. The government claims the individual is part of a terrorist group, although informed followers of the case do not believe such is the case.

The case is particularly disturbing as it indicates a possible effort to harass the Vicaria as well as the Catholic Church. The broad scope of the investigation threatens thousands of individuals who have sought protection and help from the Vicaria whenever their human rights were in jeopardy. It is also a clear violation of the confidential relationship between doctors and lawyers and their clients.

In Chile, a host of civic, political, and private business leaders and associations, both liberal and conservative, have come to the support of the Vicaria. The Chilean Conference of Bishops also has spoken out publicly in defense of the Vicaria. Diplomatic representatives, including a high official of the British government, have visited the Vicari to express their support.

2. BELOW ARE INSTRUCTIONS FOR USDEL TO UNHRC REGARDING OUR POSITION ON CHILE AND REQUESTS TO EMBASSY BOGOTA AND EMBASSY MEXICO FOR DEMARCHES TO COLOMBIAN AND MEXICAN FOREIGN MINISTRIES REGARDING UNHRC POSITION ON CHILE.

3. FOR USDEL GENEVA: AS USDEL IS AWARE, DEPARTMENT'S GOAL IN GENEVA IS THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE WHICH CAN RECEIVE OUR SUPPORT. THIS RESOLUTION SHOULD ACCURATELY REFLECT THE CURRENT STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, TAKING INTO FULL ACCOUNT THE PROGRESS THAT CHILE HAS MADE AND IS MAKING IN RETURNING TO DEMOCRATIC RULE. RESOLUTION SHOULD IDEALLY

4. DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY DETERMINED THAT USDEL WOULD NOT

INTRODUCE OR SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE BUT SHOULD INSTEAD MAKE A SERIOUS EFFORT TO OBTAIN THE SUBMISSION OF THE KIND OF RESOLUTION DESCRIBED ABOVE. THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE (43/158) ADOPTED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE ON NOVEMBER 30, 1988 COULD BE A GOOD STARTING POINT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A STILL BETTER RESOLUTION IN GENEVA. OUR VOTE ON AN EVENTUAL RESOLUTION WILL BE DETERMINED BY HOW WE JUDGE THE FINAL TEXT FROM THE VANTAGE POINT OF OUR OVERALL CHILE POLICY. USDEL SHOULD MAKE OUR POSITION KNOWN TO OTHER DELEGATIONS AS APPROPRIATE AND ENCOURAGE POTENTIAL DRAFTERS TO DEAL FAIRLY AND REALISTICALLY WITH THE ISSUE. YOU SHOULD POINT OUT OUR VIEW THAT BY RECOGNIZING THE IMPORTANT ADVANCES MADE BY THE GOC IN THE PAST YEAR, WE WILL ENCOURAGE FURTHER PROGRESS IN HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS.

5. ON THE ITEM FIVE MATTER, USDEL SHOULD, AS APPROPRIATE, MAKE KNOWN OUR VIEW THAT CHILE SHOULD NOT BE SINGLED OUT FOR SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER ITEM 5 BUT CONSIDERED UNDER ITEM 12. UNLESS IT HAD SUBSTANTIAL SUPPORT FROM OTHER WESTERN DEMOCRACIES, HOWEVER, WE WOULD PREFER NOT TO EXPEND SCARCE CAPITAL IN SUPPORTING AN EFFORT TO MOVE CHILE FROM ITEM 5 AND IN ANY CASE SHOULD NOT TAKE THE LEAD IN ATTEMPTING TO BRING ABOUT SUCH AN INITIATIVE.

DEPARTMENT REQUESTS THAT YOU QUERY APPROPRIATE FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIALS ON WHAT COLOMBIA'S POSITION ON CHILE WILL BE AT THE UNHRC, EXPLAINING OUR BELIEF THAT A FAIR AND BALANCED RESOLUTION CAN HELP FURTHER THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE BY ENCOURAGING MORE PROGRESS BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT. YOU SHOULD ENCOURAGE THE COLOMBIAN GOVERNMENT TO PLAY THE SAME ACTIVE, POSITIVE, ROLE IN

7. FOR EMBASSY MEXICO. THE DEPARTMENT REQUESTS THAT YOU MAKE A SIMILAR DEMARCHE TO ENCOURAGE THE GOM TO WORK FOR A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION WHICH ENCOURAGES PROGRESS BY THE GOC ON HUMAN RIGHTS. THIS DEMARCHE WILL ALSO BE A USEFUL MEANS OF DETERMINING IF THE CHILE POLICY OF THE NEW ADMINISTRATION IN MEXICO HAS EVOLVED IN A MORE POSITIVE DIRECTION.

2. RUBEN ZAMORA PROVIDED THE FOLLOWING READ-OUT BY TELEPHONE ON THE PROCEEDINGS DURING DAY TWO (FEBRUARY 21) OF THE FMLN-POLITICAL PARTIES MEETING IN MEXICO:

-- THE PDC FLOATED A FIVE-WEEK POSTPONEMENT OF THE MARCH 19 ELECTIONS. THE OTHER PARTIES REPORTEDLY REACTED NEGATIVELY, PERCEIVING THE OFFER AS AN EFFORT BY THE PDC TO BOOST ITS PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN;

-- THE FMLN PRESENTED ANOTHER DOCUMENT FLESHING OUT ITS PROPOSALS. WE DO NOT YET HAVE THE TEXT, BUT UNDERSTAND IT CALLS FOR THE PARTIES TO ESTABLISH THREE COMMISSIONS

TO WORK OUT DETAILS OF A CEASE-FIRE, LEGALITIES OF ELECTION POSTPONEMENT, AND VERIFICATION. THE COMMISSIONS ARE TO FINISH WORK BEFORE MARCH 19, FOLLOWED BY A CEASE-FIRE. THE ELECTIONS WOULD TAKE PLACE FIVE MONTHS AFTER THE CEASE-FIRE GOES INTO EFFECT. (ZAMORA SAID THE FMLN PROBABLY WOULD ACCEPT FOUR MONTHS. HE DISMISSED THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE FMLN WOULD ACCEPT A SIX-WEEK POSTPONEMENT OF ELECTIONS.);

-- THE PARTICIPANTS PROBABLY WILL AGREE TO CALL UPON THE GOES AND ESAF TO CONSIDER THE FMLN PROPOSALS;

3. COMMENT: ZAMORA'S STATEMENT THAT THE FMLN WOULD NOT ACCEPT A SIX-WEEK POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTION CONTRADICTS SEVERAL RECENT HINTS BY HIS SUBORDINATE, HECTOR SILVA, THAT THE FMLN WOULD SHOW FLEXIBILITY. IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT THE FMLN IS SAVING THIS CONCESSION FOR LATER.

1. WHILE THE FMLN MAY BE MEETING IN MEXICO WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF EL SALVADOR'S POLITICAL PARTIES TO DISCUSS THEIR PEACE PROPOSAL, FMLN UNITS HERE ARE STRIKING HARD AT THE COUNTRY'S ELECTRICAL POWER SYSTEM. DURING THE NIGHT OF FEBRUARY 21-22, GUERRILLAS BOMBED TOWERS ON SIX MAJOR TRANSMISSION LINES, ALMOST ISOLATING THE CITY OF SAN SALVADOR FROM THE ELECTRICAL GRID. AS OF THE MORNING OF FEBRUARY 22, THE CITY'S ONLY SOURCES OF POWER WERE THE SOYAPANGO GAS TURBINE PLANT AND ONE SECONDARY LINE FROM THE 15TH OF SEPTEMBER DAM, WHICH TOGETHER CAN PROVIDE ENERGY FOR ONLY 40 PCT. OF THE METROPOLITAN AREA'S PEAK DEMAND. THIS IS THE MOST DAMAGE DONE TO THE SYSTEM SINCE THE EVENING PRIOR TO THE MARCH 1988 ELECTION.

2. ACCORDING TO CEL (THE STATE POWER UTILITY), THE FOLLOWING LINES WERE CUT BY THE FMLN:

- 5 DE NOV. - SAN RAFAEL CEDROS
- OPICO - NEJAPA
- CERRON GRANDE - SAN MARTIN
- SONSONATE - NUEVO CUSCATLAN
- 15 DE SEPT. - SAN RAFAEL CEDROS

- 15 DE SEPT. - SAN MIGUEL

A SEVENTH LINE, NEJAPA - CERRON GRANDE, HAS BEEN INOPERATIVE SINCE APRIL 21, 1988, AS THE POOR SECURITY SITUATION IN THE AREA HAS MADE REPAIRS IMPOSSIBLE.

3. CEL IS HOPEFUL THAT THREE OF THE DOWNED LINES CAN BE REPAIRED DURING FEBRUARY 22. PAST EXPERIENCE SUGGESTS, HOWEVER, THAT IT MAY TAKE AT LEAST 48 HOURS BEFORE FULL POWER CAN BE RESTORED TO THE CITY. WE WOULD ALSO NOTE THAT AN ELECTRICAL CUT OF THIS MAGNITUDE ALSO SERIOUSLY AFFECTS SAN SALVADOR'S WATER SUPPLY, AS THE WATER UTILITY'S PUMPING STATIONS ARE UNABLE TO FUNCTION NORMALLY. DLOUHY

2. SUMMARY. A LEADERSHIP VACUUM AT THE TOP IS BEING FILLED BY FIRST VICE PRESIDENT DESIGNATE ABRAHAM RODRIGUEZ AND MOD VIDES CASANOVA WHO ARE TAKING THE LEAD IN FASHIONING A RESPONSE TO THE FMLN'S POLITICAL WARFARE INITIATIVE. IN A 2/22 MEETING BOTH EXPRESSED FRUSTRATION THAT THE POLITICAL PARTIES HAVE NOW TURNED THE PROBLEM BACK TO THE GOES, HAVING BEEN UNABLE THEMSELVES TO COME UP WITH A COHERENT UNIFIED POSITION IN TALKS WITH THE FMLN. RODRIGUEZ AND THE ESAF ARE LOOKING FOR, BUT HAVE NOT COME UP WITH, AN AUDACIOUS NATIONAL POLITICAL STRATEGY TO REGAIN THE POLITICAL INITIATIVE. THE ESAF IS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT FMLN INROADS WITH THE CONGRESS AIMED AT CURTAILLING ASSISTANCE. END SUMMARY.

OF HOW TO CONFRONT THE FMLN'S POLITICAL INITIATIVE. MOD VIDES SAID THAT THE GOES MUST COME UP WITH A COHERENT POSITION THAT HE CAN TAKE TO THE TROOPS, WHATEVER IT IS. IF THE PARTIES WANT TO HAVE ELECTIONS MARCH 19 VIDES SAID HE WOULD TELL THE TROOPS THEIR JOB IS TO PROVIDE SECURITY SO THAT THE ELECTIONS CAN BE HELD. IF THE PRESIDENT IS TOO ILL TO DEAL WITH THE ISSUE HIMSELF, VIDES SAID THE MILITARY WILL WORK WITH RODRIGUEZ AS THE PRESIDENT'S REPRESENTATIVE. WHATEVER THE CASE, VIDES SAID THAT THE JUNIOR RANKS IN PARTICULAR ARE RESTIVE, WANT CLEAR INSTRUCTIONS AND CANNOT BE LEFT TO DRIFT.

5. AFTER READING PRESS ACCOUNTS OF THE JOINT STATEMENT OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE MEXICO MEETING, BOTH VIDES AND RODRIGUEZ EXPRESSED ANNOYANCE AND IRRITATION THAT THE POLITICAL PARTIES WERE NOW TURNING THE ISSUE BACK TO THE GOVERNMENT AFTER BEING UNABLE TO COME UP WITH A UNIFIED POSITION. RODRIGUEZ SAID THAT BY CALLING IN THE GOVERNMENT, THE PARTIES HAD HANDED THE FMLN A VICTORY. THE FMLN HAS SOUGHT TO DILUTE THE AUTHORITY OF THE GOES AND TO REDUCE IT TO JUST ANOTHER SECTORAL INTEREST GROUP BY ENLARGING THE FORMAL DIALOGUE FROM [redacted]

THE FMLN-GOES TO FMLN-GOES, ESAF, UNIONS, BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS AND POLITICAL PARTIES. VIDES NOTED THAT THE FMLN IS SEEKING TO CHANGE THE PREVIOUS DIALOGUES (NOT NEGOTIATIONS) ON HOW TO INCORPORATE THE FMLN INTO THE SYSTEM INTO NEGOTIATIONS (NOT DIALOGUE) ON HOW TO CHANGE THE SYSTEM. UNABLE TO DEAL WITH THEIR MUTUAL JEALOUSIES, THE PARTIES WERE SET UP BY THE FMLN.

6. VIDES FOUND NO MERIT IN THE FMLN'S PROPOSALS AND DISCOUNTED AS RHETORIC FMLN OFFERS TO CEASE HOSTILITIES AND INCORPORATE ITSELF INTO THE SYSTEM. NOTING THE CALL FOR AN INDEPENDENT PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT, VIDES SAID THE ENTIRE FMLN APPROACH IS AIMED AT DESTROYING THE LEGITIMACY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER AND THE INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF THE POLITICAL PROCESS. FROM AN ELECTORAL PROPOSAL THE FMLN IS SEEKING TO ENTRAP THE GOVERNMENT IN A NEGOTIATION ON THE VALIDITY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS. VIDES SAID THE PROBLEM NOW IS HOW TO MANAGE A NEGOTIATION IN WHICH THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE PAINTED AS INFLEXIBLE AND ANTI-PEACE BECAUSE IT ADHERES TO THE CONSTITUTION.

7. COL. PONCE SUGGESTED THAT THE ESAF, UNDER RODRIGUEZ' GUIDANCE, TRY TO COME UP WITH WITH WHAT HE

CONSTITUTIONAL TO POSTPONE THE ELECTION DATE, APRIL 30. VIDES NOTED THAT ARENA IS OPPOSED AND THAT [illegible] LAWYERS HE HAD CONSULTED DID NOT BELIEVE A POSTPONEMENT PAST MARCH 31 WAS CONSTITUTIONAL. IT WAS NOT CLEAR ANYWAY WHETHER THE FMLN WOULD BE INTERESTED IN A SIX WEEK POSTPONEMENT VICE ITS PROPOSAL FOR A FIVE MONTH POSTPONEMENT. IN THE MEANTIME, HE NOTED, THE POLITICAL PARTIES WERE NOW FIGHTING AMONG THEMSELVES OVER A POSTPONEMENT SO THE OFFER WAS MOOT. THE GOES NEEDS ANOTHER APPROACH. AFTER CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION NO ONE CAME UP WITH ANY "AUDACIOUS" IDEAS BUT ALL SEEMED TO RECOGNIZE THAT THE FMLN HAS SUCCEEDED IN FORCING THE GOES INTO TALKS.

3. COMMENT: AT THIS POINT, THE MARCH 89 ELECTION CONTINUES TO MOVE FORWARD OF ITS OWN MOMENTUM. 2. REFTEL NOTES THAT FMLN IS ANXIOUSLY AWAITING REACTION IN THE UNITED STATES AND IN THE ESAF TO ITS LATEST PROPOSALS. BOTH GOES AND ESAF ARE CONCERNED WITH POSSIBLE POSITIVE INROADS FMLN MAY BE MAKING WITH ITS APPEARANCE OF FLEXIBILITY AND WILLINGNESS TO INCORPORATE ITSELF INTO THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. FELIX BLANCO HAS BEGUN TO WAVER. LIKE HIS COUNTERPARTS IN AGEPYM, HE HAS BEEN REMINDED OF THE DANGERS OF PARTICIPATING IN FMLN PROPAGANDA EXERCISES. END SUMMARY.

3 PRESSURE TACTICS EMPLOYED TO CHANGE MINDS

LABOR ACTIVISTS SYMPATHETIC TO THE FMLN ARE USING A VARIETY OF PRESSURE TACTICS TO FORCE SOME DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS TO ACCEPT THE INVITATION TO TRAVEL TO MEXICO TO DISCUSS THE INSURGENT'S PEACE PROPOSAL. THE FMLN HAD ORIGINALLY INTENDED TO HOLD THE MEETING ON FEBRUARY 22 WITH WHAT IT HOPED WOULD BE A CROSS-SECTION OF SALVADORAN LABOR (REFTEL). THIS SCHEDULED SESSION WAS PUT UNTIL ON HOLD UNTIL FEBRUARY 23 BECAUSE THE 270,000-MEMBER NATIONAL UNION OF WORKERS AND PEASANTS (UNOC) AND THE 15,000-MEMBER SALVADORAN WORKERS CENTRAL (CTS) SENT WORD ON FEBRUARY 21 THAT NEITHER WOULD ATTEND. BOTH UNOC AND CTS ASSUMED THAT THEIR PRESENCE WOULD BE USED TO SIGNAL SUPPORT FOR THE FMLN'S PEACE OFFER AND TO EXERT PRESSURE ON THE GOES TO ACCEPT THE PROPOSAL. ANOTHER INVITEE, THE 30,000-MEMBER GENERAL

ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES (AGEPYM), WAS LEANING TOWARD ACCEPTING THE INVITATION BUT HAD NOT MADE A FORMAL DECISION.

4 ASKED TO RECONSIDER BUT UNOC FIRM ON NOT ATTENDING

MEMBERS OF THE FMLN LABOR FRONT NATIONAL UNITY OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (UNTS) HAVE TRIED SEVERAL TIMES THROUGH PHONE CALLS TO CONVINCE UNOC TO RECONSIDER AND ATTEND. ACCORDING TO UNOC COORDINATOR AND SPOKESPERSON AMANDA VILLATORO, THE CALLERS HAVE ALTERNATELY APPEALED TO UNOC'S "PATRIOTISM" AND HAVE INFERRED THAT UNOC WOULD "SHARE THE BLAME" FOR A RESULTING "NATIONAL CRISIS" IF EFFORTS TO REACTIVATE PEACE TALKS FAIL. NEVERTHELESS, UNOC IS STICKING BY ITS DECISION TO FOREGO THE TALKS IN MEXICO WITH THE FMLN.

5 CTS SECGEN FELIX BLANCO UNDER INTENSE PRESSURE

CTS SECGEN FELIX BLANCO HAS PROBABLY BEEN SUBJECTED TO THE MOST PRESSURE. SHORTLY AFTER CTS' EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE VOTED TO TURN DOWN THE INVITATION, THREE

BLANCO DENIED THE ALLEGATIONS, NOTING THAT CHAVEZ, HERNANDEZ AND VASQUEZ HAD WALKED OUT OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS AFTER HIS SLATE WON A LEADERSHIP VOTE 53-TO-26. BLANCO HAS ALSO EHROON SEVERAL OCASSIONS SINCE THE EVENING OF FEBRUARY 21 THAT BOTH UNOC AND AGEPYM HAD HAD A CHANGE OF HEART AND WOULD BE PARTICIPATING IN THE MEXICO MEETING. BLANCO WAS BEING MADE TO FEEL AS THOUGH HE WAS THE SOLE OBSTACLE TO A CONSENSUS BETWEEN UNOC, AGEPYM, UNTS, AND CTS ON ATTENDING THE

MEXICO MEETING. THOSE INVOLVED IN THIS BIT OF FICTION EVEN TRIED TO PREVENT BLANCO FROM CHECKING, OFFERING TO BUY HIS TICKET, HELP HIM PACK (IMMEDIATELY) AND TRANSPORT HIM TO THE AIRPORT FOR AN EARLY FLIGHT TO MEXICO CITY. FORTUNATELY, BLANCO DID CHECK.

7 BLANCO'S ADVERSARIES ADD ANOTHER TWIST

THESE TACTICS ARE BEGINNING TO SHOW SIGNS OF SUCCESS, HOWEVER. BLANCO CALLED CTS' EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE INTO SESSION FEBRUARY 22 AFTER HE LEARNED THAT THE CHAVEZ/HERNANDEZ/VASQUEZ CLIQUE WAS PLANNING TO REPRESENT CTS IN MEXICO. THE MEETING RESULTED IN A TENTATIVE DECISION TO SEND ONE "OFFICIAL" CTS DELEGATE BUT THIS WILL DEPEND ON THE APPROVAL OF CTS' REGIONAL PARENT ORGANIZATION, THE LATIN AMERICAN CONFEDERATION OF WORKERS (CLAT). BLANCO CALLED CLAT OFFICIALS IN CARACAS, HOPING THAT THEY WOULD DENY PERMISSION FOR THE TRIP.

8 AGEPYM "50-50" ON ATTENDING

THE LATEST WORD FROM AGEPYM IS THAT CHANCES ARE "50-50" THAT A DELEGATION WILL BE SENT. AGEPYM'S LEADERSHIP MAY DECIDE AGAINST SUCH A MOVE IF THEY DETERMINE THAT THEY WILL BE ENJOYING ONLY THE COMPANY OF THE FMLN AND UNTS.

9. COMMENT:

UNDC IS ADAMANT THAT IT WILL NOT ATTEND THE FMLN'S MEETING IN MEXICO. ALTHOUGH CTS IS WAVERING AND AGEPYM IS LEANING TOWARD ATTENDING, NEITHER HAS YET TO ACCEPT OFFERS OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO DEFRAY TRAVEL COSTS. THUS, IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT THE RESCHEDULED SESSION WILL INDEED TAKE PLACE FEBRUARY 23. THERE HAVE BEEN GENTLE REMINDERS TO ALL CONCERNED OF THE DANGERS OF PARTICIPATING IN FMLN PROPAGANDA EXERCISES.

3. DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY DETERMINED THAT USDEL IN GENEVA WOULD NOT INTRODUCE OR SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE BUT WOULD INSTEAD MAKE A SERIOUS EFFORT TO OBTAIN THE SUBMISSION OF THE KIND OF RESOLUTION DESCRIBED ABOVE. OUR VOTE ON AN EVENTUAL RESOLUTION WILL BE DETERMINED BY HOW WE JUDGE THE FINAL TEXT FROM THE VANTAGE POINT OF OUR OVERALL CHILE POLICY. USDEL WILL ALSO MAKE KNOWN OUR VIEW THAT CHILE SHOULD NOT BE SINGLED OUT FOR SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER ITEM 5 BUT CONSIDERED UNDER ITEM 12, BUT WILL NOT EXPEND SCARCE CAPITAL IN SUPPORTING AN EFFORT TO MOVE CHILE FROM ITEM 5 AND IN ANY CASE SHOULD NOT TAKE THE LEAD IN ATTEMPTING TO BRING ABOUT SUCH AN INITIATIVE.

--BECAUSE POLITICAL VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE FAR LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT IS A CONTINUING THREAT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, WE FEEL THAT THE UNHRC RESOLUTION SHOULD CONDEMN SUCH ACTS.

--RESOLUTION SHOULD ALSO REFLECT AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FINDINGS OF THE LATEST REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, FERNANDO VOLIO.

--WE FEEL THAT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE (43/158) ADOPTED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE ON NOVEMBER 30, 1988 WAS A GREAT IMPROVEMENT OVER PAST TEXTS AND COULD BE A GOOD STARTING POINT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A STILL BETTER RESOLUTION IN GENEVA.

--THE ADOPTION OF A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION IN GENEVA WHICH NOTES THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE GOC AS WELL AS PERSISTING PROBLEMS WOULD ENCOURAGE FURTHER PROGRESS BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN THIS IMPORTANT ELECTION YEAR.

--WE THEREFORE ENCOURAGE THE DELEGATIONS OF SPAIN/ITALY TO TAKE THESE FACTORS INTO ACCOUNT AS THEY DRAFT THEIR RESOLUTION TEXT IN GENEVA.

E.O. 12356: DECL OADR
TAGS: AORC, EAIR, PREL, ICAO, XX
SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR DEMARCHES ON IRAN AIR 655

REF: MONTREAL 0355

1.(C) THE DEPARTMENT AGREES WITH THE U.S. MISSION TO ICAO THAT DEMARCHES ON THE ISSUE OF IRAN AIR FLIGHT 655 ARE NECESSARY (SEE REFTEL).

2.(C) THEREFORE, ACTION ADDRESSEES ARE REQUESTED TO MAKE A DEMARCHE, USING THE TALKING POINTS BELOW, TO AN APPROPRIATE LEVEL OF THE HOST GOVERNMENT BEFORE MARCH 8. THE PURPOSE OF THIS DEMARCHE IS TO EXPLAIN THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE U.S. NOTICE TO AIRMEN (NOTAM) IN THE PERSIAN GULF AND TO SEEK SUPPORT FOR THE U.S. DURING THE ICAO COUNCIL DISCUSSION OF IRAN AIR 655, WHICH WILL BEGIN MARCH 13 IN MONTREAL.

3.(U) TALKING POINTS

- ON MARCH 13 THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION (ICAO) COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO RESUME CONSIDERATION OF THE ACCIDENTAL SHOOTDOWN OF IRAN AIR

FLIGHT 655 ON JULY 3, 1988.

-- IT WOULD BE PREMATURE TO JUDGE THE TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS WHICH WILL EMERGE FROM THE ICAO AIR NAVIGATION COMMISSION (ANC), BUT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS FULLY SUPPORTIVE OF EFFORTS TO IMPROVE PROCEDURES TO PREVENT SUCH ACCIDENTS IN THE FUTURE.

-- FOR EXAMPLE, THE U.S. WILL WITHDRAW ITS NOTICE TO AIRMEN (NOTAM) FOR THE GULF AREA ON MARCH FIRST SINCE

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

 DECLASSIFIED

HOWEVER, DANGER STILL EXISTS IN THE AREA, THE U.S. HAS REQUESTED ALL STATES THAT CONTROL FLIGHT INFORMATION REGIONS IN THE GULF AREA TO PROMULGATE NOTAMS WITH CERTAIN INFORMATION RELEVANT TO THE SAFETY OF INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION. IT IS OUR HOPE AND EXPECTATION THAT THOSE STATES WILL COMPLY WITH THEIR OBLIGATIONS UNDER ANNEXES 11 AND 15 OF THE CONVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION AND WILL PROMULGATE THAT INFORMATION ON OR BEFORE MARCH 1.

- THE INVESTIGATIONS INTO THE INCIDENT CLEARLY

DEMONSTRATE THAT IRAN AIR FLIGHT 655 WAS SHOT DOWN AS A RESULT OF MISTAKEN IDENTIFICATION AS IT APPROACHED AN . ACTIVE COMBAT ZONE.

-- THE UNITED STATES DEEPLY REGRETS THIS TRAGIC ERROR AND HAS OFFERED TO PROVIDE COMPENSATION, ON AN EX GRATIA BASIS, TO THE FAMILIES OF THE VICTIMS.

- THE UNITED STATES IMMEDIATELY LAUNCHED ITS OWN INVESTIGATION OF THE INCIDENT, AND ALSO COOPERATED FULLY WITH ICAO IN ITS INVESTIGATION. THE U.S. INVESTIGATION REPORT WAS MADE PUBLIC AND IS AVAILABLE AS AN APPENDIX TO THE ICAO REPORT.

-- THE U.S. OBJECTIVE IN COUNCIL DISCUSSIONS IN MARCH WILL BE TO AVOID POLEMICS AND NOT TO APPORTION BLAME FOR THE INCIDENT, BUT RATHER TO FOCUS ON WHAT STEPS CAN BE TAKEN TO AVOID SUCH TRAGIC ACCIDENTS IN THE FUTURE.

-- WE HOPE FOR THE SUPPORT AND UNDERSTANDING OF YOUR REPRESENTATIVE DURING COUNCIL DISCUSSION OF THE INCIDENT.

4. (~~C~~) PLEASE REPORT REACTIONS TO THE DEPARTMENT (SLUGGED FOR IO/T AND EB/TRA/AVP) AND MONTREAL (SLUGGED FOR THE U.S. MISSION TO ICAO).

5. (~~C~~) FYI, THE DEPARTMENT IS DRAFTING INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE U.S. DELEGATION TO THE MARCH 13 COUNCIL MEETING.

THERE WILL BE A SECOND DEMARCHE REQUEST MADE TO ACTION ADDRESSEES WITHIN THE NEXT TEN DAYS PROVIDING MORE SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON THE POSITION WHICH THE U.S. WILL TAKE AT THE MEETING AND THE SUPPORT WE SEEK FROM OTHER

THE UNHRC IS THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE WHICH CAN RECEIVE OUR SUPPORT. THIS RESOLUTION SHOULD ACURATELY REFLECT THE CURRENT STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS, TAKING INTO FULL ACCOUNT THE PROGRESS THAT CHILE HAS MADE AND IS MAKING IN RETURNING TO DEMOCRATIC RULE. RESOLUTION SHOULD IDEALLY CONDEMN POLITICAL VIOLENCE/TERRORISM FROM ANY SIDE AS A THREAT TO DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS. IT SHOULD ALSO REFLECT AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FINDINGS OF THE LATEST REPORT BY SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FERNANDO VOLIO.

3. DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY DETERMINED THAT USDEL IN GENEVA WOULD NOT INTRODUCE OR SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE BUT WOULD INSTEAD MAKE A SERIOUS EFFORT TO OBTAIN THE SUBMISSION OF THE KIND OF RESOLUTION DESCRIBED ABOVE. OUR VOTE ON AN EVENTUAL RESOLUTION WILL BE DETERMINED BY HOW WE JUDGE THE FINAL TEXT FROM THE VANTAGE POINT OF OUR OVERALL CHILE POLICY. USDEL WILL ALSO MAKE KNOWN OUR VIEW THAT CHILE SHOULD NOT BE SINGLED OUT FOR SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER ITEM 5 BUT CONSIDERED UNDER ITEM 12, BUT WILL NOT EXPEND SCARCE CAPITAL IN SUPPORTING AN EFFORT TO MOVE CHILE FROM ITEM 5 AND IN ANY CASE SHOULD NOT TAKE THE LEAD IN ATTEMPTING TO BRING ABOUT SUCH AN INITIATIVE.

4. AS NOTED IN REFTEL A, DELEGATIONS FROM MEXICO, SWEDEN, ITALY, SPAIN, AND COLOMBIA ARE CURRENTLY DRAFTING A RESOLUTION ON CHILE. DEPARTMENT HAS ALREADY REQUESTED THAT EMBASSIES MEXICO AND BOGOTA APPROACH GOM AND GOC TO MAKE KNOWN OUR VIEWPOINTS ON THE NEED FOR A BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE. IT NOW REQUESTS THAT EMBASSY MADRID AND EMBASSY ROME MAKE SIMILAR DEMARCHES, USING THE FOLLOWING TALKING POINTS:

CONFIDENTIAL

--THE U.S. SEEKS THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR AND BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNHRC.

--SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD ACCURATELY REFLECT THE CURRENT STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, TAKING INTO FULL ACCOUNT THE PROGRESS WHICH TOOK PLACE IN 1988, ESPECIALLY REGARDING THE PLEBISCITE.

--BECAUSE POLITICAL VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE FAR LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT IS A CONTINUING THREAT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, WE FEEL THAT THE UNHRC RESOLUTION SHOULD CONDEMN SUCH ACTS.

--RESOLUTION SHOULD ALSO REFLECT AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FINDINGS OF THE LATEST REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, FERNANDO VOLIO.

INCREASE ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO BUILD PEACE. DUARTE THEN POINTED OUT TWO OTHER OPTIONS: A PLEBISCITE TO GRANT THE GOES AUTHORITY TO TAKE DECISIONS ON THE FMLN PROPOSALS THAT WOULD IMPLY CONSTITUTIONAL MODIFICATIONS (DUARTE THEN CALLED FOR A PLEBISCITE, BUT DID NOT SPECIFY A DATE), OR A JOINT EXECUTIVE-ASSEMBLY-SUPREME COURT AGREEMENT ON HOW TO PROCEED. DUARTE'S PROPOSAL IS AIMED AT ARENA AS WELL AS THE FMLN. WE UNDERSTAND ARENA IS SUSPICIOUS BUT WILLING INITIALLY TO WITHHOLD COMMENT IN ORDER TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE FMLN. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE INITIAL PART OF THE SPEECH DWELT ON DUARTE'S PERSONAL COMMITMENT TO PEACE AND THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE REGIONAL AGREEMENTS THAT CALL ON GUERRILLA GROUPS TO PARTICIPATE IN FREE ELECTIONS WITHIN EACH COUNTRY'S CONSTITUTION.

3. (U) INFORMAL TRANSLATION ON OPERATIVE PARTS OF PROPOSAL "TO THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE, THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, THE POLITICAL PARTIES, AND TO THE FMLN:"

FIRST: THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND THE FMLN UNILATERALLY DECREE A CEASE OF HOSTILITIES (NOTE: UNDERSTOOD HERE [redacted]

AS CEASEFIRE, BUT ALSO TO INCLUDE VIOLENT STREET DEMONSTRATIONS, ETC.) BEGINNING FEBRUARY 28, 1989, TILL JUNE 1, 1989.

SECOND: ONCE THE FOREGOING HAS BEEN CARRIED OUT, I CONVOKE THE FMLN TO INITIATE PEACE CONVERSATIONS WITH US IN GUATEMALA STARTING FEBRUARY 28, IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE:

A) A FINAL END TO THE ARMED STRUGGLE;
B) THE FMLN'S FORMAL INCORPORATION INTO THE POLITICAL AND CIVIL LIFE OF THE COUNTRY;
C) THAT THE ARMED FORCES BE RECOGNIZED AS THE ONLY ARMED FORCE IN THE COUNTRY.

THIRD: I INVITE THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY TO CHOOSE THREE DEPUTIES TO JOIN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH'S THREE MEMBERS IN THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMISSION THAT WILL CARRY OUT THE PEACE CONVERSATIONS WITH THE FMLN. I LIKEWISE INVITE THE POLITICAL PARTIES TO EACH SELECT AN OBSERVER FOR THE CONVERSATIONS.

FOURTH: THE TERMS OFFERED IN THE FMLN'S PROPOSAL TRANSCEND THE REACH OF MY PRESIDENTIAL ABILITIES AND RAISE CONSTITUTIONAL DIFFICULTIES THAT MUST BE RESOLVED AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE MOMENT.

1. CONFIDENTIAL, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. DEPARTMENT HAS READ PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF SPANISH/MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. AS PER TELCONS, WE ARE PROVIDING THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS TO USDEL/UNHRC REGARDING STEPS TO TAKE.

3. USDEL SHOULD REPEAT TO SPANISH DELEGATION AND TO OTHERS AS APPROPRIATE THAT OUR GOAL AT GENEVA WHERE CHILE IS CONCERNED REMAINS THE ADOPTION OF A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION WHICH ACCURATELY REFLECTS THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION, I.E. A RESOLUTION WE COULD SUPPORT. AS

IT NOW STANDS, HOWEVER, DEPARTMENT VIEWS THIS DRAFT AS UNBALANCED AND CONTAINING LANGUAGE AND CONCEPTS WHICH WE FIND BOTH HARMFUL AND UNACCEPTABLE. AS APPROPRIATE, USDEL SHOULD CONVEY TO SPANIARDS, LATIN DEMOCRACIES, AND WEOGS OUR SUGGESTIONS FOR IMPROVING THE TEXT, NOTING THAT U.S. SUPPORT FOR A RESOLUTION WOULD DEPEND ON THE FINAL TEXT

AFTER CHANGES. SPECIFICALLY, WE HAVE THE FOLLOWING COMMENTS, REFERRING TO THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEXT:

--PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH 7, BEGINNING WITH "DEPLORING THAT": WE DISAGREE WITH THE TONE AND CONTENT OF THE PART OF THE PARAGRAPH BEGINNING WITH "AND MOST OF THE REPEATED CALLS." THIS REFERENCE BELITTLES WHATEVER PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE BY THE GOC IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS AREA AND CONTRADICTS THE "ADOPTION OF POSITIVE STEPS" MENTIONED IN SAME PARA ABOVE. THIS PORTION OF PARA SHOULD BE ELMINATED.

--OPERATIVE PARA 3. "TAKES NOTE OF" IS TOO BEGRUDGING. SHOULD UPGRADE TO "WELCOMES" OR SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE, AS WAS DONE IN 3RD COMMITTEE RESOLUTION PASSED AT UNGA LAST DECEMBER.

--JUXTAPOSITION OF OPERATIVE PARA 6 WITH OPERATIVE 7 IS TOTALLY UNFAIR AND MISLEADING. BY DOING SO, THE "EXTREME VIOLENCE" OF PARA 6 IS ATTRIBUTED ENTIRELY TO THE GOC. WE SUGGEST THAT PARA 6 BE PLACED ELSEWHERE AND STATED MORE FIRMLY, REPLACING "DEPLORES" FOR "EXPRESSES ITS CONSTERNATION." DEPARTMENT'S 1988 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT, CITING VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY AND CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION FIGURES, NOTES THAT MANY OF "POLITICAL" DEATHS IN 1988 WERE CAUSED BY LEFTIST TERRORISTS.

--OPERATIVE PARA 7 SHOULD BE TOTALLY REDONE, MAKING IT A SINGLE PARAGRAPH WORDED LIKE OPERATIVE 8 IN THE THIRD COMMITTEE VERSION (43/158). AS IT NOW STANDS, THE LETTERED SUBPARAS OF PARA 7 RAISE ISSUES WHICH RISK SETTING BACK THE PROGRESS THAT HAS BEEN MADE IN CHILE. IN PARTICULAR WE ARE TROUBLED BY :

1). THE CRITICISM OF THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION IN SUBPARA (B). WE FIND THIS INTERVENTIONIST AND DOUBT THAT OTHER LATINS WOULD SUPPORT SUCH LANGAUGE. LAST YEAR, THE MEXICAN DELEGATION CONSIDERED INCLUSION OF SUCH LANGUAGE UNTIL WIDESPREAD PRESSURE FORCED THEM TO DROP IT.

2). THOSE REFERENCES TO MATTERS OCURRING OUTSIDE OF CHILE ("INCLUSO EN EL EXTERIOR") IN SUBPARA (C) AND IN SAME SUBPARA THE REFERENCE TO THE AMNESTY LAW AND DETAILED CALL FOR TRIALS FOR PAST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. FIRST IS A MATTER OF BILATERAL CONCERN WITH OTHER GOVERNMENTS, INCLUDING U.S., IN CASE OF LETELIER. SECOND (AMNESTY LAW,

ETC.) IS A MATTER FOR CHILEANS THEMSELVES TO EVENTUALLY DECIDE AND RAISING THIS HYPOTHETICAL FUTURE DEVELOPMENT NOW CAN ONLY CREATE DIFFICULTIES FOR THOSE IN CHILE WHO ARE WORKING FOR A PRAGMATIC, MODERATE, DEMOCRATIC FUTURE.

3). SUBPARA (E): SHOULD BE DROPPED ALTOGETHER. SAME LANGUAGE HAS BEEN INTRODUCED IN PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS AND EVENTUALLY DROPPED. WHILE PROBLEMS WITH WORKER RIGHTS PERSIST, THE VIOLATIONS OF "DERECHOS ECONOMICOS, SOCIALES, Y CULTURALES" HAVE NO AGREED BASIS IN FACT.

4. IN GENERAL, WE BELIEVE THE NEGATIVE POINTS CLEARLY OUTWEIGH THE POSITIVE IN CURRENT TEXT AND THAT THEY HAVE TO BE BROUGHT INTO BALANCE. USDEL SHOULD WORK IN THE WAY IT FINDS MOST APPROPRIATE TO TRY AND CORRECT THIS PROBLEM. WHILE A DETERMINED EFFORT IS NEEDED, MANY OF

SUBJECT: FMLN RESPONSE TO DUARTE PROPOSAL

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THE FMLN ISSUED A RESPONSE TO DUARTE'S PEACE PLAN ON FEBRUARY 28. THE RAMBLING DOCUMENT IN EFFECT REJECTS DUARTE'S PROPOSAL FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF AN UNCONDITIONAL CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES BY BOTH SIDES TO ACHIEVE PEACE, AND REITERATES THE FMLN'S PREVIOUS INSISTENCE ON NEGOTIATING A CEASE-FIRE ON FMLN TERMS, INCLUDING UNILATERAL REDUCTION OF THE NATION'S ARMED FORCES FROM 56,000 TO 12,000, DISSOLUTION OF THE PUBLIC SECURITY FORCES (POLICE) AND FORMATION OF A NEW CIVILIAN PUBLIC SECURITY FORCE, AND MECHANISMS TO CEASE-FIRE, WHICH IT HAS ALREADY CONDITIONED.

4. THE FMLN DESCRIBES DUARTE'S PROPOSAL FOR A MEETING BETWEEN THE GOES AND THE FMLN IN GUATEMALA AS POSITIVE, BUT (NO DOUBT INTENTIONALLY) MISREPRESENTS IT AS A MEETING BETWEEN THE GOES, THE POLITICAL PARTIES AND THE FMLN RATHER THAN A MEETING WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES, WITH THE PARTIES AS OBSERVERS. THE FMLN ALSO CALLS FOR RELOCATION OF THE MEETING IN SAN SALVADOR (WITH INTENTION NO DOUBT OF MOUNTING STREET DEMONSTRATIONS TO SUPPORT ITS OWN CAUSE). FINALLY, THE FMLN APPEARS TO OFFER A UNILATERAL CEASE-FIRE ON BOTH SIDES ONLY FOR THE DURATION OF THE MEETING.

5. THE FMLN CALLS ON THE GOES TO TURN SUCH A MEETING INTO A FORUM FOR NEGOTIATING DEFINITIVE AGREEMENTS, AND INSISTS THAT THE GOES EXPLICITLY STATE WHETHER IT IS WILLING TO DISCUSS POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS TO SEPTEMBER 15 WITH THE ARMED FORCES CONFINED TO BARRACKS, CESSATION OF REPRESSION, A CONSENSUS ELECTORAL CODE, RESTRUCTURING THE CENTRAL ELECTIONS COUNCIL, AND VOTING FOR SALVADORAN CITIZENS OVERSEAS. (THIS IGNORES BOTH DUARTE'S CALL FOR A CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES FIRST, AS WELL AS HIS ASSURANCE THAT THE AGENDA FOR TALKS WAS OPEN.) THE MEETING SHOULD BE HELD UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE PAPEL NUNCIO OR ARCHBISHOP OF SAN SALVADOR.

6. OTHER POINTS INCLUDE:

--THE FMLN APPROVES OF DUARTE'S IDEA OF A PLEBISCITE, BUT THE QUESTION TO BE VOTED ON SHOULD BE AGREED UPON BY ALL PARTIES;

--THE FMLN CALLS UPON ALL POLITICAL PARTIES TO WITHDRAW THEIR CANDIDACIES IN ORDER TO MAKE POSSIBLE AN ELECTION POSTPONEMENT, WITH THE PDC TO TAKE THE LEAD;

--THE FMLN REJECTS DUARTE'S CALL FOR POSTPONING ELECTIONS TO APRIL 30, SAYING THAT ALL PARTIES BUT THE PDC HAD OPPOSED THIS, AND THAT THIS WAS CLEAR PROOF DUARTE SOUGHT TO TURN THE ISSUE TO THE PDC'S ELECTORAL ADVANTAGE;

--THE PROPOSAL FOR A FOUR MONTH UNILATERAL CEASE-FIRE DEMONSTRATES A "LACK OF SERIOUSNESS";

--THE DUARTE PROPOSAL SHOWED THE PRESIDENT SOUGHT TO

8. WE NOTE THE FMLN DOES NOT BREAK ANY NEW GROUND. INDEED, ITS INSISTENCE ON CONSIDERATION OF SEPTEMBER 15 AS AN ELECTION DATE IS A STEP BACK FROM ITS MEXICO CITY PROPOSAL, WHICH WOULD HAVE SCHEDULED ELECTIONS IN AUGUST OR PERHAPS JULY.

9. THE FMLN RESPONSE SUGGESTS THAT THE FMLN PROPOSALS ARE ONLY PART OF A MULTI-TRACK STRATEGY TO ACHIEVE ITS STATED OBJECTIVES. THE PROPOSALS ARE INTENDED TO INVIGORATE THE POLITICAL/DIPLOMATIC WARFARE TRACK TO COMPLEMENT ITS MILITARY ACTIVITIES. THE FMLN PROPOSAL IS PART OF ITS OVERALL WARFARE STRATEGY AND DOES NOT APPEAR TO BE PART OF A SINCERE PEACE PROCESS. THE FMLN HAS RECOGNIZED THAT MILITARY

OFFENSIVES ALONE WILL NOT GAIN POWER. BY LINKING ITS MILITARY STRENGTH TO A POLITICAL/DIPLOMATIC INITIATIVE, THE FMLN HOPES TO BE ABLE TO TRANSLATE MILITARY ACTIONS INTO LEVERAGE AT THE NEGOTIATING TABLE.

10. IT DOES NOT APPEAR THERE IS MUCH PLAY LEFT IN THE BACK-AND-FORTH OF GOES AND FMLN DIALOGUE PROPOSALS, WITH THE ELECTIONS ONLY TWO AND A HALF WEEKS AWAY. AT THIS POINT THE QUESTION IS HOW THE GOES SHOULD RESPOND.

11. THE GOES PROPOSAL, FLAWED THOUGH IT IS BY CONFUSING THE PEACE AND ELECTIONS ISSUES, HAS GIVEN THE GOES A BASE FROM WHICH TO DEFEND ITSELF FROM FMLN EFFORTS TO ISOLATE IT POLITICALLY INTERNATIONALLY. THE FMLN RESPONSE IS NOTEWORTHY FOR ITS CONFUSION AND LACK OF IMAGINATION. THE GOES HAS LEVELLED THE PLAYING FIELD WITH ITS PROPOSAL, AND WITH ASTUTE MANAGEMENT, HAS THE POTENTIAL TO SCORE POLITICALLY IF IT CAN KEEP THE FOCUS ON THE ISSUE OF VIOLENCE VERSUS NON-VIOLENCE AND PEACE VERSUS WAR.

12. OUR VIEW IS THAT THE GOES SHOULD REITERATE ITS [redacted]

WILLINGNESS TO MEET WITH THE FMLN (THE PLACE IS NOT SO IMPORTANT) AS LONG AS THE FMLN FIRST IMPLEMENTS A LONG-TERM UNILATERAL CEASE-FIRE. THE ONUS FOR CONTINUED VIOLENCE SHOULD STICK TO THE FMLN, NOT THE GOES.

13. THE FMLN IS LIKELY TO STEP UP VIOLENCE TO DISRUPT THE ELECTIONS. THE MILITARY IS FAIRLY WELL PREPARED, HOWEVER, AND THE PROPOSALS AND COUNTERPROPOSALS HAVE ALREADY BOUGHT THE GOES SOME VALUABLE TIME.

1. CONFIDENTIAL, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. DEPARTMENT HAS READ PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF SPANISH/MEXICAN RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. AS PER TELCONS, WE ARE PROVIDING THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS TO USDEL/UNHRC REGARDING STEPS TO TAKE.

3. USDEL SHOULD REPEAT TO SPANISH DELEGATION AND TO OTHERS AS APPROPRIATE THAT OUR GOAL AT GENEVA WHERE CHILE IS CONCERNED REMAINS THE ADOPTION OF A FAIR, BALANCED RESOLUTION WHICH ACCURATELY REFLECTS THE CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION, I.E. A RESOLUTION WE COULD SUPPORT. AS

IT NOW STANDS, HOWEVER, DEPARTMENT VIEWS THIS DRAFT AS UNBALANCED AND CONTAINING LANGUAGE AND CONCEPTS WHICH WE FIND BOTH HARMFUL AND UNACCEPTABLE. AS APPROPRIATE, USDEL SHOULD CONVEY TO SPANIARDS, LATIN DEMOCRACIES, AND WEOGS OUR SUGGESTIONS FOR IMPROVING THE TEXT, NOTING THAT U.S. SUPPORT FOR A RESOLUTION WOULD DEPEND ON THE FINAL TEXT

AFTER CHANGES. SPECIFICALLY, WE HAVE THE FOLLOWING COMMENTS, REFERRING TO THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEXT:

--PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH 7, BEGINNING WITH "DEPLORING THAT": WE DISAGREE WITH THE TONE AND CONTENT OF THE PART OF THE PARAGRAPH BEGINNING WITH "AND MOST OF THE REPEATED CALLS." THIS REFERENCE BELITTLES WHATEVER PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE BY THE GOC IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS AREA AND CONTRADICTS THE "ADOPTION OF POSITIVE STEPS" MENTIONED IN SAME PARA ABOVE. THIS PORTION OF PARA SHOULD BE ELMINATED.

--OPERATIVE PARA 3. "TAKES NOTE OF" IS TOO BEGRUDGING. SHOULD UPGRADE TO "WELCOMES" OR SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE, AS WAS DONE IN 3RD COMMITTEE RESOLUTION PASSED AT UNGA LAST DECEMBER.

--JUXTAPOSITION OF OPERATIVE PARA 6 WITH OPERATIVE 7 IS TOTALLY UNFAIR AND MISLEADING. BY DOING SO, THE "EXTREME VIOLENCE" OF PARA 6 IS ATTRIBUTED ENTIRELY TO THE GOC. WE SUGGEST THAT PARA 6 BE PLACED ELSEWHERE AND STATED MORE FIRMLY, REPLACING "DEPLORES" FOR "EXPRESSES ITS CONSTERNATION." DEPARTMENT'S 1988 HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT, CITING VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY AND CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION FIGURES, NOTES THAT MANY OF "POLITICAL" DEATHS IN 1988 WERE CAUSED BY LEFTIST TERRORISTS.

CONFIDENTIAL
UNCLASSIFIED

--OPERATIVE PARA 7 SHOULD BE TOTALLY REDONE, MAKING IT A SINGLE PARAGRAPH WORDED LIKE OPERATIVE 8 IN THE THIRD COMMITTEE VERSION (43/158). AS IT NOW STANDS, THE LETTERED SUBPARAS OF PARA 7 RAISE ISSUES WHICH RISK SETTING BACK THE PROGRESS THAT HAS BEEN MADE IN CHILE. IN PARTICULAR WE ARE TROUBLED BY :

1). THE CRITICISM OF THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION IN SUBPARA (B). WE FIND THIS INTERVENTIONIST AND DOUBT THAT OTHER LATINS WOULD SUPPORT SUCH LANGAUGE. LAST YEAR, THE MEXICAN DELEGATION CONSIDERED INCLUSION OF SUCH LANGUAGE UNTIL WIDESPREAD PRESSURE FORCED THEM TO DROP IT.

2). THOSE REFERENCES TO MATTERS OCURRING OUTSIDE OF CHILE ("INCLUSO EN EL EXTERIOR") IN SUBPARA (C) AND IN SAME SUBPARA THE REFERENCE TO THE AMNESTY LAW AND DETAILED CALL FOR TRIALS FOR PAST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. FIRST IS A MATTER OF BILATERAL CONCERN WITH OTHER GOVERNMENTS, INCLUDING U.S., IN CASE OF LETELIER. SECOND (AMNESTY LAW,

ETC.) IS A MATTER FOR CHILEANS THEMSELVES TO EVENTUALLY DECIDE AND RAISING THIS HYPOTHETICAL FUTURE DEVELOPMENT NOW CAN ONLY CREATE DIFFICULTIES FOR THOSE IN CHILE WHO ARE WORKING FOR A PRAGMATIC, MODERATE, DEMOCRATIC FUTURE.

3). SUBPARA (E): SHOULD BE DROPPED ALTOGETHER. SAME LANGUAGE HAS BEEN INTRODUCED IN PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS AND EVENTUALLY DROPPED. WHILE PROBLEMS WITH WORKER RIGHTS PERSIST, THE VIOLATIONS OF "DERECHOS ECONOMICOS, SOCIALES, Y CULTURALES" HAVE NO AGREED BASIS IN FACT.

4. IN GENERAL, WE BELIEVE THE NEGATIVE POINTS CLEARLY OUTWEIGH THE POSITIVE IN CURRENT TEXT AND THAT THEY HAVE TO BE BROUGHT INTO BALANCE. USDEL SHOULD WORK IN THE WAY IT FINDS MOST APPROPRIATE TO TRY AND CORRECT THIS PROBLEM. WHILE A DETERMINED EFFORT IS NEEDED, MANY OF THESE CORRECTIONS MAY BE BEST OBTAINED THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF THIRD PARTIES, ESPECIALLY THOSE LATINS (COLOMBIA, VENEZUELA) AND WEOGS (UK, FRG) WHO ARE LIKELY TO BE MORE EVEN-HANDED.

5. DELEGATION MAY CONTINUE TO UNDERSCORE OUR INTEREST IN SUPPORTING A BALANCED RESOLUTION BUT THAT OUR ACTUAL VOTE WILL BE DIRECTLY DETERMINED BY THE CONTENT OF THE FINAL RESOLUTION AND ITS POTENTIAL CONTRIBUTION TO THE PROMOTION OF DEMOCRACY AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE.

IF MOVED, HOWEVER, WE THINK IT SHOULD READ: "EXPRESSED ITS CONCERN ABOUT THE CONTINUED INCIDENTS OF EXTREME VIOLENCE, FROM WHATEVER SOURCE, OCCURRING IN CHILE, WHICH CONTRIBUTE TO A CLIMATE OF IN-SECURITY IN CHILE, ETC." WE DO NOT SEE A "CLIMATE OF INSECURITY" CURRENTLY EXISTING IN CHILE TO "AGGRAVATE."

-- PARA 7. DEPARTMENT'S OBSERVATIONS ON THE REFERENCES TO THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION; BILATERAL AFFAIRS; AMNESTY LAW; AND ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS ARE WELL TAKEN, ALTHOUGH WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE A REFERENCE TO RESTRICTED WORKER'S RIGHTS. IN ADDITION, WE RECOMMEND REMOVAL OF THE IMPLICATION IN SUB PARA D OF PARA 7 THAT DEFENDANTS BEFORE MILITARY COURTS DO NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO A DEFENSE. CHILEAN MILITARY JUSTICE LEAVES MUCH TO BE DESIRED AND THE LONG PERIODS OF INCOMMUNICATION IS ONE OF THE MORE WORRISOME ASPECTS. HOWEVER, DEFENDANTS DO HAVE THE RIGHT TO DEFENSE ATTORNEYS AND CONSIDERABLE RIGHTS OF APPEAL. THIS PARA IGNORES THE ACTIVITIES OF HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, WHICH HAVE DEFENDED THOSE TRIED BY THE MILITARY COURTS.

USDEL IN GENEVA WILL NOT INTRODUCE OR SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE BUT WILL INSTEAD MAKE A SERIOUS EFFORT TO IMPROVE DRAFTS PREPARED BY OTHER DELEGATIONS.

3. SPAIN AND MEXICO HAVE DRAFTED AND CIRCULATED A RESOLUTION ON CHILE WHICH WE FEEL IS OVERLY CRITICAL AND

WHICH RAISES ISSUES WHICH WE JUDGE INAPPROPRIATE. US DELEGATION IN GENEVA IS CURRENTLY URGING DRAFTERS TO MAKE CHANGES IN THIS TEXT. (SUGGESTED CHANGES/IMPROVEMENTS ARE CONTAINED IN REFTEL WHICH IS BEING REPEATED TO LONDON AND BONN).

4. BECAUSE THE UK AND THE FRG HAVE AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN CHILE AND ARE INFLUENTIAL AMONG THE WEOGS, WE REQUEST THAT EMBASSIES LONDON AND BONN APPROACH HMG AND THE FRG TO ASK FOR THEIR HELP IN BRINGING THE MEXICAN/SPANISH TEXT INTO BALANCE, USING THE FOLLOWING TALKING POINTS: (AS WELL AS THOSE CONTAINED IN REFTEL).

--THE U.S. SEEKS THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR AND BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNHRC WHICH WE CAN SUPPORT.

--SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD ACCURATELY REFLECT THE CURRENT STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, TAKING INTO FULL ACCOUNT THE PROGRESS WHICH TOOK PLACE IN 1988, ESPECIALLY REGARDING THE PLEBISCITE.

--BECAUSE POLITICAL VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE FAR LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT IS A CONTINUING THREAT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, WE FEEL THAT THE UNHRC RESOLUTION SHOULD CONDEMN SUCH ACTS.

--THE RESOLUTION SHOULD ALSO REFLECT AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FINDINGS OF THE LATEST REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, FERNANDO VOLIO.

--WE FEEL THAT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE (43/158) ADOPTED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE ON NOVEMBER 30, 1988 COULD BE A GOOD STARTING POINT FOR BALANCED RESOLUTION IN GENEVA.

--THE DRAFT RESOLUTION CIRCULATED ON FEBRUARY 27 BY THE SPANISH AND MEXICAN DELEGATIONS IS, IN OUR VIEW, UNBALANCED AND CONTAINS LANGUAGE AND CONCEPTS WHICH WE FIND UNHELPFUL.

--ONLY THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR, BALANCED, RESOLUTION IN GENEVA WHICH NOTES THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE GOC AS WELL AS PERSISTING PROBLEMS WILL ENCOURAGE FURTHER PROGRESS BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN THIS IMPORTANT ELECTION YEAR.

--WE THEREFORE REQUEST THE ASSISTANCE OF YOUR GOVERNMENT IN THIS EFFORT.

E.O. 1356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: PGOV, ES
SUBJECT: RUBEN ZAMORA ON PEACE PROPOSALS: IS THERE LIFE AFTER MARCH 19?

1. ENTIRE TEXT CONFIDENTIAL.

2. SUMMARY: CONVERGENCIA DEMOCRATICA (CD) LEADER RUBEN ZAMORA REVIEWED PEACE AND ELECTORAL PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENTS WITH POLCOUNS FEBRUARY 28. HE FOUND A FEW FLAWS IN THE 2/28 FMLN RESPONSE TO DUARTE, BUT CRITICIZED DUARTE'S 2/26 OFFER AS UNREALISTIC. HE IS CONVINCED THE ELECTIONS WILL OCCUR MARCH 19. THE CD WILL NOT WITHDRAW. FMLN ELECTORAL VIOLENCE WILL HURT THE CD, AND ZAMORA APPARENTLY WANTS TO GET THE FMLN TO HOLD OFF, ARGUING THE ELECTIONS CAN STILL BE USED TO BOOST FMLN AND CD PROPOSALS. POSSIBILITIES [redacted]

INCLUDE ELECTIONS AS A REFERENDUM ON ARENA AND PEACE/WAR, AND SUPPORTING THE PDC IN THE SECOND ROUND IN RETURN FOR A NEGOTIATIONS PLAN. THE LATTER WOULD RAISE VERY STRONG CONCERNS IN THE ESAF--EXACTLY THE TENSIONS THE FMLN WOULD LIKE. LOOKING AHEAD, ZAMORA SEES MORE POLARIZATION AND LEFTWARD DRIFT IN 1990 WHOEVER WINS. END SUMMARY.

ZAMORA REVIEWED THE FMLN RESPONSE TO DUARTE'S FEBRUARY 26 PROPOSAL. HE WAS NOT VERY IMPRESSED BY THE FMLN DOCUMENT, AND SHARED OUR SURPRISE THAT THE FMLN APPEARED TO TAKE A STEP BACKWARDS BY RETURNING TO THE SEPTEMBER 15 ELECTION POSTPONEMENT. THE REMAINDER OF THE DOCUMENT WAS NOT SURPRISING, HE SAID. IT WAS IMPRACTICAL FOR THE GOES TO TALK OF A LONG-TERM UNILATERAL, UNNEGOTIATED CEASEFIRE--YOU NEED MECHANISMS TO VERIFY, TO RESOLVE DISPUTES, ETC. NOR WAS IT PRACTICAL TO THINK THAT THE FMLN WOULD GIVE UP SOMETHING FOR NOTHING. CLEARLY DUARTE'S PROPOSAL HAD BEEN COORDINATED WITH THE ESAF AND THE USG (HE REFERRED TO THE DEPARTMENT SPOKEMAN'S STATEMENT). POLCONS SAID IT WAS A SHAME THE FMLN DID NOT GO FURTHER AND ACCEPT A CEASE-FIRE AND TALKS. ZAMORA SHRUGGED.

4. ELECTIONS MARCH 19:

VIOLENCE WOULD HURT THE CD AS WELL AS THE OTHER PARTIES, AND THUS IT WAS CONTRADICTORY FOR THE FMLN TO DO IT. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE FMLN BELIEVED IT HAD GONE THE EXTRA MILE ONLY TO BE SPURNED, AND WISHED TO RETALIATE. ZAMORA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT ONE UNFORTUNATE RESULT OF THE FMLN PROPOSALS WAS TO TIE THE CD MORE CLOSELY TO THE FMLN IN THE MINDS OF THE SALVADORAN ELECTORATE; THIS WAS THE COST THE CD HAD TO PAY. (COMMENT: HARDLY A TRIBUTE TO THE POPULARITY OF THE FMLN.

5. NEW FMLN ELECTIONS GAMBIT?

THE ELECTIONS COULD BE USEFUL, ZAMORA MUSED, AS A REFERENDUM ON PEACE AND AS AN ANTI-ARENA TACTIC. ALL PARTIES EXCEPT ARENA WERE WILLING TO POSTPONE THE ELECTIONS. (ASKED IF ONE COULD NOT SAY THAT ALL EXCEPT THE FMLN WERE WILLING TO PARTICIPATE IN THE MARCH 19 ELECTIONS, ZAMORA ALLOWED AS HOW IT COULD ALSO BE SEEN THAT WAY.) ZAMORA HOPED TO SELL THE FMLN ON THIS PROPOSAL (WHICH WOULD REQUIRE THE FMLN NOT TO OPPOSE THE ELECTIONS).

6. THE OTHER POSSIBILITY WAS TO USE THE SECOND ROUND TO PUSH THE FMLN PROPOSAL, EITHER THROUGH PROPOSING A POSTPONEMENT OF THE SECOND ROUND, OR OFFERING CD

7. CONSEQUENCES OF PDC WIN:

WOULD A PDC GOVERNMENT BE MORE LIKELY TO REACH A SOLUTION TO THE WAR? ZAMORA REFLECTED AND CONCLUDED IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT FOR CHAVEZ MENA TO NEGOTIATE. IF HE WON HE WOULD FACE AN ARENA-DOMINATED ASSEMBLY AND SUPREME COURT THAT WOULD TIE THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH IN KNOTS. FURTHERMORE, THE ARENA MODERATES WOULD BE DISCREDITED BY CRISTIANI'S LOSS, AND THE PARTY WOULD SEEK REVENGE. FOR TWO YEARS FIDEL WOULD HAVE ALMOST NO POLITICAL ROOM FOR MANEUVER.

[redacted]

8. . . . ARENA WIN:

THE PROSPECTS UNDER AN ARENA VICTORY WERE NOT SANGUINE EITHER. ZAMORA BELIEVED THE ECONOMY WOULD BECOME A CRISIS FOR THE NEXT GOES BY EARLY 1990. AN ARENA GOES' TIES WITH THE U.S. WOULD BE UNDER STRESS DUE TO HUMAN RIGHTS CONCERNS. THERE WOULD BE GREATER POLARIZATION, WITH PRO-PDC LABOR (UNOC) MORE LIKELY TO SIDE WITH THE CD, AND WITH THE PDC PUSHED BY ARENA TO THE LEFT. ZAMORA ALSO PREDICTED TENSION WITHIN ARENA MIGHT WELL PRODUCE A SPLIT WITHIN A YEAR.

9. MILITARY SUCCESSION:
ZAMORA PLACED MUCH IMPORTANCE ON INTERNAL MILITARY DYNAMICS. AT ONE POINT HE STATED THE MILITARY OBVIOUSLY FULLY SUPPORTED DUARTE'S PROPOSAL (COMMENT: NOT QUITE). VIDES' REPLACEMENT WAS A KEY ISSUE. THERE WAS NO ONE WHO HAD THE POLITICAL VISION TO REPLACE HIM: BUSTILLO WAS TOO CONSERVATIVE, AND PONCE HAD THE SUPPORT OF THE TANDONA BUT NOT OTHER TANDAS.

10. COMMENT: AS USUAL, ZAMORA WAS THINKING SEVERAL MOVES AHEAD. HE IS CONCERNED THAT THE FMLN WILL GO TOO FAR IN ITS ANTI-ELECTION CAMPAIGN AND END UP HURTING THE CD. HE IS THUS TRYING TO COME UP WITH WAYS TO JUSTIFY THE FMLN'S HOLDING OFF, SUCH AS PLOTTING A SECOND ROUND ELECTORAL STRATEGY THAT WOULD JOINTLY BENEFIT THE FMLN AND CD. A PDC-CD ALLIANCE WOULD PROVOKE EXTREME CONCERN IN THE ESAF, PRODUCING EXACTLY THE KIND OF DISPUTES WITHIN DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY THAT THE FMLN WANTS TO SEE.

[redacted]

11. LOOKING BEYOND THE ELECTIONS, ZAMORA SEES TROUBLE. HE DID NOT SAY SO, BUT THAT MEANS OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE FMLN AND THE CD. IN GENERAL, HE BELIEVES THERE WILL BE MORE POLARIZATION AND GREATER TENDENCY BY CENTRIST FORCES TO MOVE LEFTWARDS, A SITUATION THE LEFT CAN EXPLOIT.

SUBJECT: Request from Oscar Reyes ~~for Assistance in~~ Video Production: Number Two

Oscar Reyes came to see me yesterday, and I again passed him the message that the Embassy could not and would not involve itself in his project. I made both points as outlined in your memo.

Reyes then "clarified" his request, and again has asked to wait for a response from the Embassy:

1) He is not interested in talking on camera with anyone from the Embassy, the State Department or the Department of Justice. ~~He only wants assistance in reaching the people he DOES want to film.~~

2) The video will be made, with or without our assistance.

3) He will travel to the U.S. in mid-March in order to make the contacts necessary for the filming. Ricardo Acuña, formerly with Channel 7 (until he became involved in the "No" television campaign), will direct the hour-long production.

4) The production will be a drama-documentary, and a reenactment of the Letelier assassination, filmed on location, will be featured. Patricio Bañados will provide the narrative.

5) Reyes has already made arrangements to meet with Eugene Propper, and will try to see Judge Parker. He would like to meet with Michael Townley, but is not sure he can arrange that. His main goal is to meet with Fernandez Larios, which he will try to arrange through FL's sister, who lives in NYC.

6) Reyes would like the same assistance which he says Ambassador Barnes gave Mónica González when she last visited the U.S. Reyes claims the Ambassador put Mónica on the phone with Fernandez Larios, but that FL refused to talk to her, given her political orientation.

7) And finally, Reyes claims this will be a serious documentary, balanced and truthful. He says that he is doing it as a journalist, and not as a member of the PDC or COPODE. (The video would sell for $5000 pesos).

PROPOSAL IS THE PRODUCT OF EIGHT YEARS OF LEARNING. AGUINADA STRESSED THAT THE FMLN NOW TAKES INTO ACCOUNT U.S.-USSR IMPROVEMENT OF RELATIONS, U.S. GEOPOLITICAL DOMINANCE, AND SANDINISTA MISTAKES. END SUMMARY.

3. THE DUARTE RESPONSE TO THE FMLN:

AGUINADA SAID THE DUARTE 2/26 OFFER WAS NOT SERIOUS.

DUARTE'S PURPOSE WAS FOR THE FMLN TO REJECT THE PROPOSAL, AND FOR ARENA TO GET INEXTRICABLY MIXED UP IN IT AS WELL. DUARTE ALSO DESIGNED THE PROPOSAL TO HELP THE AILING PDC CAMPAIGN. DUARTE HAD IGNORED WHAT THE FMLN HAD PROPOSED, EVEN AS A TOPIC OF DISCUSSION. AS HE HAD DONE IN OCTOBER 1984 (LA PALMA DIALOGUE), DUARTE EXPECTED THE OTHER SIDE TO ACT QUICKLY, WITH NO CONCERN FOR LOGISTICS. A CASE IN POINT WAS THE CEASEFIRE. A JOINT UNILATERAL CEASEFIRE COULD WORK FOR A FEW DAYS, BUT A LONGER CEASEFIRE REQUIRED MUTUALLY AGREED UPON RULES, AND PROCEDURES TO BE FOLLOWED-IF ONE SIDE THOUGHT THE OTHER HAD VIOLATED THEM. THE CHOICE OF GUATEMALA (WHICH THE FMLN FEARS FOR SECURITY REASONS) WAS FURTHER EVIDENCE OF DUARTE'S BAD FAITH. AGUINADA, WHO HAD WORKED CLOSELY WITH DUARTE IN THE UNO COALITION IN THE 1972 ELECTIONS, SIGHED AND SAID ONLY DUARTE WOULD HAVE THE GALL TO DO THINGS THIS WAY.

3. THE FMLN-POLITICAL PARTIES MEETING IN MEXICO:

THE FMLN HAD NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT THE MEETING, BUT IT STILL PROVED USEFUL. THE PARTIES' PRESENCE LENT ADDITIONAL CREDIBILITY TO THE FMLN PROPOSAL. IT WAS [redacted]

ALSO THE BEGINNING OF FMLN CONTACT WITH SOME OF THE PARTIES. FINALLY, AGUINADA SAID IT WAS HEALTHY FOR SOME OF THE COMANDANTES TO SEE THE OPPOSITION IN THE FLESH. (THE IMPLICATION WAS THAT FMLN COMMANDERS WERE OUT OF TOUCH.)

4. THE FMLN PROPOSAL:

ASKED HOW LONG THE PROPOSAL HAD BEEN DEBATED INSIDE THE FMLN, AGUINADA SIDESTEPPED AND SAID IT HAD BEEN EIGHT YEARS IN THE MAKING. THE REVOLUTION HAD GONE THROUGH A CONSTANT PROCESS OF LEARNING AND REEVALUATION. THE FMLN NOW SAW THAT THE GEOPOLITICAL SITUATION WAS DIFFERENT. IT HAD TO TAKE NOTE THAT THE U.S. AND USSR WERE RESOLVING THEIR REGIONAL DIFFERENCES. IT HAD TO ACCEPT THAT THE U.S. WAS THE DOMINANT POWER IN THE REGION, AND THAT THE PRIVATE SECTOR HAD A ROLE IN SALVADORAN SOCIETY. TOLD THIS SOUNDED LIKE WHAT THE SANDINISTAS HAD SAID 10 YEARS AGO, AGUINADA SAID THE FSLN HAD ERRED IN NOT SETTING THE RULES OF THE GAME AND STICKING TO THEM. THE FMLN COULD NOT MAKE THE MISTAKES NICARAGUA HAD MADE. IT WAS A SHAME THE U.S. DID NOT SEE THE OPPORTUNITIES IN THE FMLN PROPOSAL AND ACT UPON THEM. (AGUINADA MADE NO INQUIRIES ABOUT OUR POSITION.)

IT WAS CLEAR FROM AGUINADA'S COMMENTS THAT THE FMLN WAS UNHAPPY WITH DUARTE'S PROPOSAL, BUT UNWILLING TO ASSUME THE PRICE FOR REJECTING IT OUTRIGHT. HIS COMMENTS ON THE MEXICO MEETING SUGGEST THAT ONE OF

THE FMLN'S PROBLEMS IS THAT ITS CHIEFS LACK THE DAILY CONTACT WITH CURRENT POLITICAL LEADERS, AND CONSEQUENTLY ARE OUT OF TOUCH. HIS REFERENCE TO THE FMLN PROPOSAL'S BEING YEARS IN THE MAKING IS CORRECT IN THE SENSE THAT SINCE 1983 THERE HAS BEEN STEADILY INCREASING ATTENTION BY THE FMLN TO THE NEED FOR POLITICAL AS WELL AS MILITARY STRUGGLE, WITHIN AND WITHOUT EL SALVADOR. OF POSSIBLE INTEREST, IN VIEW OF HIS TIES TO THE PRO-MOSCOW PCES, IS THAT AGUINADA

ARA believes we should take some initiative to spur the Chileans along in their thinking. You will recall that on Feb. 9 our Embassy proposed that Chile provide us with four names for the neutral fifth member of the Commission. If we were unable to accept any of the names, we would give the Chileans a list of four within a week.

Chile has delayed responding for various reasons. ARA and the Embassy believe we should take action by providing the Chileans with our list of four names and asking for a response within one week. ARA would propose to do this on March 8 when Ambassador Gillespie is back in Santiago.

We are in a continuing process of seeking out and evaluating "names." If you agree with the game plan outlined above, we'll have a list for you to look at on March 6.

I first asked Matt Waller to get a list of names & game plan for ARA but was told they wanted us to submit our names first. As I agree

USDEL IN GENEVA WILL NOT INTRODUCE OR SPONSOR A RESOLUTION ON CHILE BUT WILL INSTEAD MAKE A SERIOUS EFFORT TO IMPROVE DRAFTS PREPARED BY OTHER DELEGATIONS.

3. SPAIN AND MEXICO HAVE DRAFTED AND CIRCULATED A RESOLUTION ON CHILE WHICH WE FEEL IS OVERLY CRITICAL AND

WHICH RAISES ISSUES WHICH WE JUDGE INAPPROPRIATE. US DELEGATION IN GENEVA IS CURRENTLY URGING DRAFTERS TO MAKE CHANGES IN THIS TEXT. (SUGGESTED CHANGES/IMPROVEMENTS ARE CONTAINED IN REFTEL WHICH IS BEING REPEATED TO LONDON AND BONN).

4. BECAUSE THE UK AND THE FRG HAVE AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN CHILE AND ARE INFLUENTIAL AMONG THE WEOGS, WE REQUEST THAT EMBASSIES LONDON AND BONN APPROACH HMG AND THE FRG TO ASK FOR THEIR HELP IN BRINGING THE MEXICAN/SPANISH TEXT INTO BALANCE, USING THE FOLLOWING TALKING POINTS: (AS WELL AS THOSE CONTAINED IN REFTEL).

--THE U.S. SEEKS THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR AND BALANCED RESOLUTION ON CHILE AT THE UNHRC WHICH WE CAN SUPPORT.

--SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD ACCURATELY REFLECT THE CURRENT STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, TAKING INTO FULL ACCOUNT THE PROGRESS WHICH TOOK PLACE IN 1988, ESPECIALLY REGARDING THE PLEBISCITE.

--BECAUSE POLITICAL VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE FAR LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT IS A CONTINUING THREAT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY IN CHILE, WE FEEL THAT THE UNHRC RESOLUTION SHOULD CONDEMN SUCH ACTS.

--THE RESOLUTION SHOULD ALSO REFLECT AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FINDINGS OF THE LATEST REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, FERNANDO VOLIO.

--WE FEEL THAT THE RESOLUTION ON CHILE (43/158) ADOPTED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE ON NOVEMBER 30, 1988 COULD BE A GOOD STARTING POINT FOR BALANCED RESOLUTION IN GENEVA.

--THE DRAFT RESOLUTION CIRCULATED ON FEBRUARY 27 BY THE SPANISH AND MEXICAN DELEGATIONS IS, IN OUR VIEW, UNBALANCED AND CONTAINS LANGUAGE AND CONCEPTS WHICH WE FIND UNHELPFUL.

--ONLY THE PASSAGE OF A FAIR, BALANCED, RESOLUTION IN GENEVA WHICH NOTES THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE GOC AS WELL AS PERSISTING PROBLEMS WILL ENCOURAGE FURTHER PROGRESS BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IN THE AREA OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN THIS IMPORTANT ELECTION YEAR.

"EXPRESSED ITS CONCERN ABOUT THE CONTINUED INCIDENTS OF EXTREME VIOLENCE, FROM WHATEVER SOURCE, OCCURRING IN CHILE, WHICH CONTRIBUTE TO A CLIMATE OF IN-SECURITY IN CHILE, ETC." WE DO NOT SEE A "CLIMATE OF INSECURITY" CURRENTLY EXISTING IN CHILE TO "AGGRAVATE."
-- PARA 7. DEPARTMENT'S OBSERVATIONS ON THE REFERENCES TO THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION; BILATERAL AFFAIRS; AMNESTY LAW; AND ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS ARE WELL TAKEN, ALTHOUGH WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE A REFERENCE TO RESTRICTED WORKER'S RIGHTS. IN ADDITION, WE RECOMMEND REMOVAL OF THE IMPLICATION IN SUB PARA D OF PARA 7 THAT DEFENDANTS BEFORE MILITARY COURTS DO NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO A DEFENSE. CHILEAN MILITARY JUSTICE LEAVES MUCH TO BE DESIRED AND THE LONG PERIODS OF INCOMMUNICATION IS ONE OF THE MORE WORRISOME ASPECTS. HOWEVER, DEFENDANTS DO HAVE THE RIGHT TO DEFENSE ATTORNEYS AND CONSIDERABLE RIGHTS OF APPEAL. THIS PARA IGNORES THE ACTIVITIES OF HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, WHICH HAVE DEFENDED THOSE TRIED BY THE MILITARY COURTS.

IF USDEL SUCCEEDS IN REMOVING THE OBJECTIONABLE ASPECTS OF PARA 7 AND IMPROVING THE TONE OF PARA 3, WE BELIEVE U.S. SHOULD JOIN IN A CONSENSUS IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION. 3. (U) ACCORDING TO TUTELA LEGAL, THE BODIES OF BETANCOURT AND DUBON WERE EXHUMED AND WERE FOUND TO HAVE INDICATIONS OF MOLESTATION, INCLUDING BRUISES ON THE BREASTS AND THIGHS. THE DOCTOR WAS REPORTEDLY SHOT TEN TIMES, SEVERAL OF THEM IN THE FACE, AND THE NURSE ELEVEN TIMES, ALSO WITH SEVERAL WOUNDS IN THE FACE. THE GRAVES OF EIGHT OTHER PERSONS WERE LOCATED, BUT THEIR BODIES WERE NOT EXHUMED.

4. [redacted] THE CDH SENT DELEGATES TO THE AREA EARLY ON FEBRUARY 27 TO DETERMINE WHAT LEGAL AUTHORITY HAD ORDERED OR WITNESSED THE EXHUMATION. THIS INDEPENDENT CORROBORATION IS NECESSARY BECAUSE TUTELA LEGAL HAS A HISTORY OF INCORRECT REPORTING ON ALLEGED ARMY KILLINGS. (IN MAY 1987, TUTELA LEGAL REPORTED THAT THE ARMY HAD TORTURED AND DECAPITATED ANTA MEMBER ANTONIO DE JESUS HERNANDEZ MARTINEZ. THE SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE UNIT EXHUMED THE REMAINS IN THE PRESENCE OF AN EMBOFF AND FOUND THERE WERE NO SIGNS OF DECAPITATION OR TORTURE.) U.S. Senator
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Coats:

Thank you very much for your recent letter following up on correspondence which I had initiated with then Senator Quayle. I very much appreciate both of your efforts in securing information concerning the human rights situation in Chile.

I would like to take this opportunity to encourage you to continue to monitor developments in Chile. It is my understanding that the vicariate for solidarity of the Catholic Archdiocese of Santiago is still being pursued by government forces to turn over confidential records. While being ready to admit the possibility that this is in and of itself a relatively minor matter, I truly hope our government will take this opportunity to once again make a point in favor of human rights.

With every best wish, I remain

Sincerely yours,

2. (U) ON FEBRUARY 28 A.M. THE GOES DECLARED A THREE-MONTH, UNILATERAL CEASE-FIRE IN SUPPORT OF PRESIDENT DUARTE'S 2/26 PEACE PLAN (REF A). THE CEASE-FIRE BEGAN AT 0001 HOURS MARCH 1, AND ENDS JUNE 1. A COMMUNIQUE FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE SAID "THIS IS THE MOMENT TO SHOW POLITICAL WILL...TO INITIATE SERIOUS CONVERSATIONS TOWARD PEACE." A SEPARATE ESAF COMMUNIQUE CALLED UPON THE FMLN TO "DESIST FROM ASSASSINATING, KIDNAPPING, OR CAUSING INJURIES AMONG THE CIVILIAN POPULATION." THE ESAF ALSO ANNOUNCED THE END OF ITS NATIONWIDE "ATLACATL CAMPAIGN," WHICH HAD REPORTEDLY CAUSED OVER 400 FMLN CASUALTIES (241 KIA, 190 WIA).

-- CRITICIZES THE ESAF'S UNILATERAL CEASE-FIRE FOR NOT "HALTING REPRESSION IN THE CITIES NOR WITHDRAWING TROOPS FROM OPERATIONS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE";

THE FMLN REITERATED THE ESAF'S "TRADITION OF DIRTY WAR," AND THE NEED TO PUNISH HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATORS IN ORDER TO HAVE THE FMLN RECOGNIZE A SINGLE ARMY, AND TO REACH A DEFINITIVE CEASE-FIRE.

4. (U) THE FMLN COMMUNIQUE CONCLUDES THAT:

-- ONCE BOTH SIDES AGREE ON DATES FOR A SAN SALVADOR MEETING, THE FMLN WILL DECREE A CEASE-FIRE OF OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS WHERE THE ESAF HAS WITHDRAWN ITS FORCES AND HALTED OPERATIONS. THE FMLN ALSO PROMISES TO SUSPEND SABOTAGE AND URBAN OPERATIONS DURING THE MEETINGS; AND AWKWARD POSITION ON AN END TO VIOLENCE. IN ADDITION, THE FMLN'S CLARIFICATION OF WHAT IT REQUIRES FOR A CEASE-FIRE, NAMELY THAT THE ESAF WITHDRAW FROM CONFLICTIVE AREAS AND THE FMLN PRESUMIBLY REMAIN IN PLACE, IS WHOLLY UNREALISTIC. IT IS DEMANDING NOT A CEASE-FIRE IN SITU, BUT A ONE-SIDED CEDING OF TERRITORY BY THE GOES, I.E. TERRITORIAL DEMARCATION AND ZONES OF CONTROL.

MEMORANDUM

March 3, 1989

TO: ARA/CEN

FROM: ARA/PPC

SUBJECT: Contact with FDR Washington Office

I'd like to schedule an early meeting with you, Pete Romero and Vittorio to work out a policy and perhaps some procedures regarding our contacts with Altschul, Gonzalez and others from the FDR group working out of Washington. The channel has been heating up with events in El Salvador:

-- We met in my office January 23 to receive a copy of the FMLN peace proposal;

-- You subsequently received Rene Roldan with Altschul and Gonzalez in your office February 7;

-- Since then, we found ourselves being telephoned by Gonzalez from the Oaxtepec meeting, whence we were also faxed up FMLN documents by Altschul et al; last Friday, 2/24, Altschul was trying to phone Vittorio from San Salvador; on Monday, 2/27, Gonzales called to arrange the meeting for Ungo held here 3/1.

The argument against continuing these contacts is obvious: they may be abused by the FDR/FMLN for their own purposes (or misinterpreted by third parties) to create the appearance that key issues are actually decided here in a superdialogue at the expense of Salvadoran sovereignty. The Baltimore Sun has already reported that our meeting with them here January 23 to receive a courtesy copy of the FMLN peace proposal was in fact a negotiating session about the content of the proposal. (The attached Memo for the Record clarifies the nature of the meeting.)

Vittorio told Gonzales subsequently that misrepresentation of the nature of our contacts would bring them to an end. She took pains to deny that she and her colleagues had ever mentioned the contacts to the press and stated they would absolutely not abuse the relationship. However, the AP ticker item also attached shows how the Ungo meeting was also described as a secret negotiating session with the FMLN in a report in El Pais (Madrid).

Gonzales called Vittorio March 3 to express dismay about the NYT report that day drawing on the Madrid story. She again underscored that her office was not the source of these stories and had elicited confirmation from their Mexico office that they too had made no comment. Gonzales also said that her office had called the Baltimore Sun to ask where the first story had come from and that they had been told the source was a senior official at the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador. Vittorio took the opportunity to lecture her again about the effect of the reports, pointing out that we were reviewing whether our contacts could continue in light of efforts to suggest the GOES is a spectator to U.S. - FMLN negotiations.

Gonzales said she understood completely and asked for another meeting on an urgent basis to convey matters that have come to their attention and that we should know about as well. He told her we would consider whether a meeting would be useful.

Clearly, the FMLN has thus far gotten more out of our meetings with the local office, or even with Ungo, than we have. The question is whether they should be continued, terminated or put on hold. In principle, I'm inclined to have PPC and/or CEN continue to take their calls and to agree to occasional meetings, for two reasons:

-- apart from timely information, these contacts can provide insight into FDR/FMLN thinking and foreshadow issues they consider important and may try to spotlight publicly. The grist available from these contacts feeds into the policy planning mill that is PPC's basic responsibility;

-- it is useful to be able to point out that we (the Department) are open to all points of view and unafraid of dialogue with even our most severe critics.

However, it could be that the costs are higher than the return. In any case, a review of the bidding would be timely for development of an agreed approach to inform to Aronson.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

On January 23, ARA/PPC Director, Luigi Einaudi was called on by a delegation of the FDR led by Francisco Altschul, Guadalupe Gonzalez, and Victor Valle in accordance with an appointment request received January 21. Also present were ARA/CEN Deputy Director Peter Romero and ARA/PPC Deputy Director Vittorio Brod.

The FDR delegation characterized their visit as a courtesy call to provide the State Department the text of a peace proposal by the FMLN which was being released the same day in Mexico and San Salvador. The document they delivered proved in fact to be identical to that published the same day by the FMLN and given the day before to Cardinal Rivera y Damas.

Substantive points made by the FDR group included: that the text had been worked as well by the FDR in consultation with the FMLN; that it reflected FMLN unanimity; that the FDR had elected not to sign it, after discussion with the FMLN commandantes, because to do so would be impolitic in view of Ungo's presidential campaign in El Salvador; and that the document represented a point of departure for negotiations with the GOES and Salvadoran political parties.

After the ARA participants read the document, we asked questions to clarify some of its provisions (references to relations between mayors and the army, to the FMLN role in getting out a pro-CD vote, to FMLN "acceptance" of electoral results, to absence of any reference to conditions for laying down arms, etc.) while pointing out that only the Government of El Salvador could react to or negotiate on the document. The FDR group recognized that the meeting was limited to delivery of a copy of a text, and noted that their doing so reflected their recognition that the USG was a key actor and should be fully informed of events.

EXECUTIVE-ASSEMBLY COMMISSION THAT IS SUPPOSED TO MEET WITH THE FMLN, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT DISCUSSIONS THIS WEEK WILL TAKE PLACE. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ELECTIONS NOW ARE NOT THE SOLUTION

THE INITIAL COMMUNIQUE, RELEASED ON MARCH 4TH, REPEATED CHARGES THAT "NATIONAL MAJORITY GROUPS, THE OLIGARCHY, THE ESAF, AND THE PDC" HAVE AFFECTED ATTITUDES SHIFTING FROM "INTRANSIGENCE TO INFLEXIBILITY" AND HAVE USED THE GUERRILLA PEACE PROPOSAL FOR "ELECTION PURPOSES." THE STATEMENT ASSERTED THAT TO HOLD THE ELECTIONS AS PLANNED, IN DEFIANCE OF THE "WIDE POPULAR CONSENSUS TO FIND A POLITICAL SOLUTION" TO THE CONFLICT, DOES NOT REPRESENT A "TRUE ALTERNATIVE TO SOLVE THE GRAVE CRISIS" IN EL SALVADOR. THE FMLN CLAIMS THAT THE PURPORTED POPULAR CONCENSUS RESULTS FROM ITS PROPOSAL TO TURN THE ELECTIONS INTO "AN INSTRUMENT TO BUILD PEACE" IF VOTING IS POSTPONED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15.

3. (U) FMLN STILL WILLING TO MEET

[redacted]

NEVERTHELESS, THE SECOND FMLN COMMUNIQUE REAFFIRMED THE FMLN'S WILLINGNESS TO MEET WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOES AND THE POLITICAL PARTIES DESPITE THE LACK OF A POSITIVE RESPONSE TO A SUGGESTION FOR DISCUSSIONS MARCH 4-5 IN GUATEMALA. THE LATEST STATEMENT PROPOSES THAT TALKS BE HELD MARCH 7-8 IN SAN SALVADOR BUT WARNS OBLIQUELY THAT THE TIME FOR NEGOTIATIONS IS "NEARING AN END."

4. (U) USG: FROM RESPECT TO INTERVENTION ON PROPOSAL

THE COMMUNIQUE ACCUSES THE USG OF INTERVENING IN THE SALVADORAN DECISION-MAKING AND ALLEGED THAT THE EMBASSY ACTIVELY PARTICIPATED IN DRAFTING THE DUARTE PROPOSAL. THE STATEMENT ASSERTED THAT THE INTENDED PURPOSE WAS TO "ISOLATE ARENA" POLITICALLY BY CASTING ARENA IN THE ROLE OF SPOILER ON THE QUESTION OF FURTHER TALKS. IT DESCRIBES THE EMBASSY'S ALLEGED ROLE AS "UNFORTUNATE," GIVEN THE FACT THAT THE INITIAL REACTION OF THE USG WAS TO CALL FOR "SERIOUS CONSIDERATION" OF THE FMLN'S PEACE PROPOSAL. THIS, THE STATEMENT CONTINUED, DEMONSTRATED RESPECT FOR "OUR SELF-DETERMINATION."

A. PREAMBULAR PARA 4: WE AGREE WITH [redacted] PROPOSED CHANGE TO DELETE SPECIFIC REFERENCE TO RESOLUTION 1988/16, SEPTEMBER 1, 1988. DELEGATION SHOULD REQUEST DELETION.

B. PREAMBULAR PARA 7: CHANGE "DEPLORING THAT" TO "CONSIDERING THAT" AS SUGGESTED IN REFTEL AND, TO ADD BALANCE, REPHRASE AS FOLLOWS: "CONSIDERING THAT, WHILE THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR HAS MADE REPEATED VISITS TO CHILE AND THE GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN IMPORTANT POSITIVE STEPS, THE JUDICIAL FRAMEWORK THAT ALLOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS NONETHELESS HAS NOT BEEN CHANGED AND SEVERAL OF THE REPEATED.....ETC."

C. OPERATIVE PARA 3: WE AGREE WITH CHANGE PROPOSED IN REFTEL A TO REPLACE "NOTES WITH SATISFACTION" FOR "TAKES NOTE OF THE DECISION."

D. OPERATIVE PARA 3: WE AGREE WITH CHANGE PROPOSED IN REFTEL A TO INSERT "CARRIED OUT IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF FREEDOM." THIS PARAGRAPH WOULD THEN READ: "NOTES WITH SATISFACTION THE DECISION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO RESPECT THE RESULT OF THE PLEBISCITE OF OCTOBER 5, 1988, ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WHICH WAS CARRIED OUT IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF FREEDOM, AS AN EXPRESSION OF POPULAR WILL AND AS AN IMPORTANT STEP TOUARD THE ACHIEVEMENT OF THE RAPID RETURN TO DEMOCRACY IN THIS COUNTRY."

E. OPERATIVE PARA 4: AGREE WITH SUGGESTION [redacted] IN REFTEL A TO PHRASE THIS PARAGRAPH

POSITIVELY: WE SUGGEST FOLLOWING LANGUAGE: "WELCOMES THE RESPONSE OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE TO THE DEMANDS OF VARIOUS POLITICAL AND SOCIAL ELEMENTS IN THE COUNTRY AND CALLS ON THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE TO WORK FOR THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF A PLURALISTIC AND REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY, BASED ON THE EXPRESSION OF POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY THROUGH FREE ELECTIONS WITHIN AN ELECTORAL PROCESS OPEN TO ALL CITIZENS; IN CONDITIONS OF EQUALITY AND OF RESPECT FOR THE PRINCIPLE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION BECAUSE OF POLITICAL VIEWS, AND WHICH IS BUILT ON THE UNRESTRICTED APPLICATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND BASIC LIBERTIES FOR ALL."

F. OPERATIVE PARA 6: WHILE WE SEE LITTLE DIFFERENCE IN THE CHANGE PROPOSED [ ] IN REFTEL A, WE HAVE NO DIFFICULTY SUPPORTING IT. PARA WOULD THEN READ: "EXPRESSES ONCE MORE ITS CONTINUED CONCERN ABOUT THE SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND BASIC LIBERTIES WHICH HAVE OCURRED IN CHILE ..." WHILE LITANY OF ABUSES LISTED IN TEXT HAS A STRONG BASIS IN FACT, RESOLUTION COULD BE IMPROVED BY ENDING THIS PARA AT "TO WHICH THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR REFERS." WHILE THIS POINT WOULD CERTAINLY IMPROVE TONE OF RESOLUTION, IT IS NOT ESSENTIAL THAT IT BE OBTAINED.

G. OPERATIVE PARA 7: SUBPARA B: POINT MADE IN REFTEL A THAT AMNESTY LAW IS MENTIONED IN THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT IS WELL-TAKEN. HOWEVER, VOLIO WAS REFERRING IN PARA 67 OF HIS REPORT ONLY TO THE CASE OF THE 10

DISAPPEARED PERSONS UNDER INVESTIGATION BY JUDGE CERDA. WE WOULD PREFER NO MENTION OF AMNESTY LAW AT ALL. IF THIS NOT POSSIBLE, IN ORDER NOT TO CLASH HEAD-ON WITH THE THORNY AMNESTY LAW PROBLEM, YET STILL REFLECT VOLIO'S FINDINGS, WE SUGGEST FALLBACK REPHRASAL AS FOLLOWS: "PERMIT JUDICIAL (CUT "ADMINISTRATIVE") INVESTIGATION OF ALL COMPLAINTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING CASES OF THOSE WHO DISAPPEARED OR WERE BURNED, AND OTHER SERIOUS OCCURRENCES, SO THAT JUSTICE CAN BE OBTAINED, AND THAT THE AMNESTY LAW DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OBSTACLE TO SEARCHING OUT THE TRUTH OF WHAT HAPPENED."

H. OPERATIVE PARA 7: SUBPARA C: SUPPORT USDEL'S SUGGESTED THAT "IN ALL CASES" BE ADDED TO "RIGHT TO A DEFENSE, ESPECIALLY BEFORE MILITARY JUSTICE."

I. OPERATIVE PARA 7: SUBPARA E: IF EUROPEANS FEEL THAT LANGUAGE ABOUT "ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND CULTURAL RIGHTS" IS MEANINGLESS," THEN IT SHOULD NOT BE IN THE RESOLUTION. USDEL SHOULD SEEK TO HAVE IT REMOVED. WE DO, HOWEVER, FEEL STRONGLY THAT A CALL FOR FULL LABOR RIGHTS SHOULD BE

OUR FINAL POSITION:

J. USDEL IS AUTHORIZED TO INFORM THE SPONSORS OF THE RESOLUTION AND OTHERS AS APPROPRIATE THAT IF RESOLUTION IS REVISED TO INCORPORATE CHANGES MENTIONED ABOVE, THE U.S. WILL JOIN CONSENSUS IN FAVOR OF IT. IF NOT, ALL OF THE AGE, MARRIED, RANCHER, RESIDENT OF MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS, ALAJUELA, I.D. NUMBER 8-061-489; AND GERARDO ALBERTO DURAN AYANELLI (SIC -- HIS MATRONYMIC IS ACTUALLY "AYANEGUI"), OF AGE, DIVORCED, TOPOGRAPHER, RESIDENT OF SAN JOSE, I.D. NUMBER 2-242-0567; HAVE COMMITTED THE CRIMES OF HOSTILE ACTS AND VIOLATION OF THE NARCOTICS LAW, IN DETRIMENT OF NATIONAL SECURITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH. ASIDE FROM THE ACCUSED, THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS HAVE INTERVENED IN THIS MATTER: ELDA ZUNIGA VALENCIANO AND RITA MARIA HERRERA DURAN, OF AGE, MARRIED, ATTORNEYS, RESIDENTS OF SAN JOSE AND CIUDAD QUESADA RESPECTIVELY, AS DEFENSE ATTORNEYS TRUSTED BY THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, AS WELL AS PRIMORAMON CHACON BARQUERO, OF AGE, MARRIED, ATTORNEY AND RESIDENT OF THIS CITY, IN THE CAPACITY OF PUBLIC DEFENDER FOR THE ACCUSED DURAN AYANELLI, AND THE (SENORITA) PROSECUTOR REPRESENTING THE PEOPLE (MINISTERIO PUBLICO).

IN CONSIDERATION OF

I.) THE FACTS PRESENTED FOR CONVICTION, IT IS CONCLUDED THAT:

1. THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL CLARKE, OWNS SEVERAL PROPERTIES IN NORTHERN COSTA RICA, ALONG THE BORDER WITH NICARAGUA, AT POCOSOL AND MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS, AS WELL AS AT MONICO DE UPALA AND THAT THESE LAST TWO HAVE LANDING STRIPS AND ACCORDING TO INVESTIGATIONS CARRIED OUT BY MEMBERS OF THE O.I.J. EXACT DATE, BUT IN EARLY 1982, THAT AT THE MONICO RANCH AND WITH THE AUTHORIZATION OF THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, THE LANDING FACILITY WAS USED FOR LOADING AND UNLOADING MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO RE-SUPPLY THE REVOLUTIONARY GROUP KNOWN IN THE POPULAR ARGOT AS "CONTRA" AND WHICH IS ENGAGED IN FIGHTING AGAINST THE SANDINISTA REGIME ESTABLISHED IN THE NEIGHBORING NATION OF NICARAGUA, AN ACTIVITY THAT WAS OBSERVED FOR A LONG TIME BY WITNESS EDWIN GONZALEZ MURILLO; SINCE THESE ACTIVITIES CONTINUED TO BE REPEATED AFTER 1982, AS WAS PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED, UNTIL 1983 AND 1984 INCLUSIVE, IN THE SAME MANNER IT WAS POSSIBLE TO ESTABLISH THAT DURING THE PERIOD BETWEEN APRIL 1982

CONFIDENTIAL

AND MAY 1983, THE LOGISTICS SECTION OF ARDE, DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY ASSOCIATION, OPERATED AT THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE'S RANCH AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS. THE LOGISTICS SECTION WAS COMMANDED BY LUIS RIVAS AND IAN KINLOCK; THE LATTER ACCUSED IN HIS EFFORTS TO COLLABORATE WITH THE GROUP KNOWN AS NICARAGUAN "CONTRA" CONTACTED PILOT MARCO ANTONIO AGUADO TOWARD THE END OF 1983, A PERSON WHO IS ALSO CONNECTED WITH THE NICARAGUAN COUNTERREVOLUTION, WHO ALSO EXPRESSED IN TESTIMONY GIVEN THAT THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE SUPPLIED FUEL FOR COUNTERREVOLUTIONARY AIRCRAFT, FUEL THAT WAS PURCHASED WITHIN COSTA RICAN TERRITORY AND WAS STORED AT HULL CLARKE'S RANCH AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS. FURTHERMORE, THE ACCUSED PROVIDED FOOD AND LODGING ON HIS PROPERTY TO NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY MILITARY PERSONNEL, AND ALSO, THE ACCUSED ALLOWED CONTRA AIRCRAFT TO LAND AT HIS LANDING FACILITY AT THE MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS RANCH WHERE SOME OF THE AIRCRAFT WERE EVEN REPAIRED. A STUDY WAS CARRIED OUT BY THE JUDICIAL POLICE, WITH REGARD TO THE AIRPLANE FUEL PURCHASED BY THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE DURING THE PERIOD BETWEEN 1983 AND 1986; IT WAS DETERMINED THAT THE AIRPLANE FUEL PURCHASED WAS MUCH GREATER THAN THE CAPACITY OF THE AIRCRAFT OWNED BY THE ACCUSED, REGISTRY TI AHR AND WHICH USES 14 GALLONS OF FUEL PER HOUR OF FLIGHT TIME, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THAT FLIGHTS MADE DURING THOSE YEARS DID NOT AMOUNT TO MORE THAN THIRTY MINUTES, SINCE TWO FLIGHTS WERE LOGGED IN 1984, TWO FLIGHTS IN 1985, SAN CARLOS, PAVAS AND LIBERIA, AND TWO FLIGHTS IN 1986, SAN CARLOS - PAVAS - LIBERIA. NONETHELESS, IT WAS DETERMINED THAT MR. JOAQUIN MORA MADRIGAL TRANSPORTED APPROXIMATELY ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED GALLONS OF GASOLINE TO HULL CLARKE'S RANCH AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS, WITH THE PURPOSE OF SUPPLYING THE CONTRA AIRCRAFT THAT LANDED THERE TO THAT EFFECT. IT WAS ALSO DETERMINED THAT ON JUNE 20, 1983, THE ACCUSED HULL, WITH CONTRA RE-SUPPLY PILOT MARCO ANTONIO AGUADO DEPARTED FROM OUR NATION IN TWO AIRCRAFT, REGISTRATION NUMBERS N666 AND PF 91 CF, ALSO ACCOMPANIED BY THE OTHER DEFENDANT, GERARDO DURAN AYANELLI, EGIDIO PRADO AND ROBERTO ESPINOZA; THE REPORTED FLIGHT PLAN FILED STATED THE DESTINATION AS MIAMI AND VICE VERSA. NONETHELESS, THE FLIGHT PLAN WAS CHANGED AND BOTH THE ACCUSED AND THEIR COMPANIONS TRAVELLED TO SAN ANDRES, COLOMBIA INDICATING THAT THEIR NEXT DESTINATION WAS COZUMEL, MEXICO, AND THE FACT IS THAT WHEN SAID ACCUSED RETURNED THEY DROPPED THE CARGO OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT THEY WERE TRANSPORTING

AT LA PENCA, NICARAGUA, TO NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY MILITARY PERSONNEL WHO WERE CAMPED THERE AND IMMEDIATELY AFTERWARD THEY PROCEEDED TO THE PAVAS AIRPORT IN SAN JOSE. IN THIS SAME MANNER IT WAS POSSIBLE TO ESTABLISH THROUGH THE INVESTIGATION THAT WAS CARRIED OUT THAT THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, ON A DATE THAT WAS NOT PINPOINTED EXACTLY, BUT SOMETIME IN 1984, CONTRACTED THE SERVICES OF FELIX GUSTAVO GUILLEN TO EXTRICATE A HELICOPTER OWNED BY ARDE WHICH WAS BEING KEPT AT THIS COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION'S CAMPS, AND TAKE IT TO HONDURAS, TO BE UTILIZED BY THE "CONTRA" BEING THAT THE PILOT, GUILLEN WENT BY THE ACCUSED HULL'S RANCH FIRST AT MUELLE AND LATER TO ANOTHER CAMP IN GUANACASTE BEFORE GOING ON TO HONDURAS. AS A SEPARATE EVENT, IT WAS POSSIBLE TO ESTABLISH THAT IN SEPTEMBER 1984, MR. JACK TERRAL WAS CALLED BY MARIO CALERO REGARDING JOINING THE NICARAGUAN DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDN). JACK TERRAL ALSO MET WITH THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE ON A DATE NOT EXACTLY SPECIFIED AT THE SHAROCK HILTON HOTEL IN HOUSTON, [redacted]

ROBERT OWEN. THESE INDIVIDUALS PLANNED TO BRING IN AMERICAN INSTRUCTORS TO THE ANTI-SANDINISTA GUERRILLAS, THIS WOULD BE DONE AT HULL'S RANCH AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS AND WOULD BE FINANCED BY THE UNITED STATES NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL; THIS IS HOW ACTUALLY ON APRIL 23, 1985, A RURAL GUARD CONTINGENT FROM SAN CARLOS, UNDER THE COMMAND OF RIGOBERTO BADILLA MONGE, PROCEEDED TO DETAIN IN A CLEARING ON A PROPERTY OWNED BY THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL CLARKE, AT POCOSOL DE SAN CARLOS, A GROUP OF INSTRUCTORS WHO WERE CARRYING HEAVY CALIBER ARMS, INCLUDING AK-15, AK-47, FAL RIFLES, ROCKET LAUNCHERS, GRENADES, M-67 AND M-61; THESE INDIVIDUALS WERE TRIED FOR THE CRIME OF [redacted]

HOSTILE ACTS, AT THE SUPERIOR COURT OF ALAJUELA AND SEVERAL OF THEM WERE CONVICTED OF THAT CRIME; IT WAS DETERMINED THAT SAID ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, PROVIDED THIS GROUP WITH FOOD AND AFTER THIS GROUP OF COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY INSTRUCTORS WERE ARRESTED, ONE OF THEM, SANTOS JULIO CENTENO CENTENO, COMMUNICATED BY TELEPHONE WITH THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL AND HE PROCEEDED TO REQUEST THAT THE AUTHORITIES RELEASE THOSE WHO HAD BEEN ARRESTED; ALSO, IT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED IN THIS DOCUMENT THAT THE ACCUSED HEREIN HULL CLARKE, IN CONJUNCTION WITH OTHER NICARAGUAN CONTRA MILITANTS PLANNED A STRATEGY TO ASSASSINATE EDEN PASTORA - LEADER OF ANOTHER NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY GROUP; AN INDIVIDUAL NAMED AMAO GALIL ALSO PARTICIPATED IN THE PLOT. THE PLAN CONSISTED OF SUMMONING PASTORA GOMEZ TO A CAMP AT LOS CHILES WHERE A GROUP OF ABOUT THIRTY NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARIES AND FIVE INSTRUCTORS WHO WOULD BE AT HULL CLARKE'S RANCH, WOULD KIDNAP HIM AND THEN TRANSPORT HIM TO CASTILLO IN NICARAGUA WHERE THEY WOULD PUBLICLY HANG HIM, THEREBY MAKING PEOPLE BELIEVE THAT THIS DEED HAD BEEN CARRIED OUT BY MEMBERS OF THE SANDINISTA ARMY. LIKEWISE IT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED THAT AUGUST 9, 1984, AN AIRCRAFT UNDER REGISTRATION 612 SM, TWIN ENGINE CESNA 310, LANDED AT A FIELD LOCATED ON A RANCH OWNED BY THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL CLARKE, AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS, THE AFOREMENTIONED AIRCRAFT WAS TRANSPORTING MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND MEDICATION FOR THE NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTION. WHEN THE PLANE ATTEMPTED TO TAKE OFF, IT CRASHED INTO A FENCE WHICH MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR IT TO CONTINUE ITS JOURNEY, A CIRCUMSTANCE THAT WAS KNOWN TO AND AUTHORIZED BY MR. HULL CLARKE. THE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

AIRCRAFT WAS LATER CLAIMED BY THE ACCUSED GERARDO DURAN AYANELLI. LIKEWISE, ACCORDING TO WHAT HAS BEEN INVESTIGATED, IT HAS BEEN DETERMINED THAT FEBRUARY 3, 1985 AN AIRCRAFT REGISTERED AS 666 PF - WHICH WAS ALSO SERVING THE NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTION - UNDER THE COMMAND OF THE ACCUSED DURAN AYANELLI, HAD AN ACCIDENT AFTER LEAVING TOBIAS BOLANOS AIRPORT EN ROUTE TO ILOPANGO AIRPORT IN SAN SALVADOR. THE AIRCRAFT SUNK IN THE OCEAN IN FRONT OF PANAMA BEACH IN GUANACASTE, THE PILOT WAS ABLE TO ESCAPE UNHARMED. THIS FLIGHT, AS HAS BEEN SAID, SERVED THE NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTION AND WAS CARRYING MILITARY SUPPLIES. ON JULY 20, 1988, A VISUAL INSPECTION OF THE ACCIDENT SITE WAS PERFORMED BY O.I.J. INVESTIGATORS AND THE ILL-FATED AIRCRAFT WAS LOCATED AT A DEPTH OF 28 FEET. IN ADDITION, IT WAS ALSO ESTABLISHED THROUGH THE INVESTIGATION CARRIED OUT BY MEMBERS OF THE O.I.J. WITHIN THE INTERNATIONAL

NETWORK, CLEARLY DEDICATED TO THE TRANSPORTATION OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND DRUGS THAT OPERATED FROM PROPERTIES OWNED BY THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS AND MONICO DE UPALA, THE OTHER INDIVIDUAL ACCUSED HEREIN, OCTAVIANO CESAR AVILES, CONTACTED A MR. GEORGE MORALES, A WELL KNOWN INTERNATIONAL NARCOTRAFFICKER, BEING THAT THE LATTER TOOK CHARGE OF FINDING HIM PILOTS WHO WERE FAMILIAR WITH CENTRAL AMERICAN LANDING STRIPS AND WHO WOULD NOT BE RECOGNIZED IN THE DRUG WORLD; IN THIS MANNER HE MADE CONTACT WITH THE ACCUSED GERARDO DURAN AYANALLI AND WITH MARCOS AGUADO, WHO WERE DULY TRAINED AT AIRPORTS IN OPALOKA AND THE BAHAMAS. THE PRECISE DATES THAT THE AFORESAID TOOK PLACE ARE NOT AVAILABLE, BUT IT WAS IN 1983. THIS WAS HOW IT CAME TO PASS, STARTING IN 1983, THAT THE ACCUSED DURAN AYANELLI PILOTED TWO AIRCRAFT, REGISTRATION NUMBERS 612 SM AND 666 PF, BY HIMSELF OR WITH MARCOS AGUADO. FLIGHTS WERE LOGGED ON [redacted]

JUNE 22, 1984, AS WELL AS 16 OTHER TRIPS WITH THE DESTINATION ON THE MAJORITY OF THESE OCCASIONS BEING EL SALVADOR. IN THE SAME MANNER, IT WAS DETERMINED THAT ON A DATE THAT IS NOT EXACTLY PINPOINTED, BUT BETWEEN 1983 AND 1984, THE ACCUSED DURAN AYANELLI AND THE CO-DEFENDANT JOHN HULL CLARKE, TRAVELLED TO MIAMI AND VISITED THE OFFICE OF CONVICTED NARCOTRAFFICKER GEORGE MORALES, TAKING THE OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS THE SALE OF DRUGS AND WEAPONS; LATER ON, IN OCTOBER OF 1984, ONE DAY FOLLOWING A TRIP TAKEN BY GEORGE MORALES AND THE ACCUSED OCTAVIANO CESAR AVILES TO THE BAHAMAS, THE ACCUSED CESAR AVILES FILLED OUT A DECLARATION IN MIAMI FOR SEVERAL MILLION DOLLARS;

FOLLOWING THAT, GEORGE MORALES AND THE ACCUSED DURAN

AYANELLI AND MARCOS AGUADO TRAVELLED TO HAITI WITH THE PURPOSE OF PICKING UP A PLANE THERE THAT HAD BEEN DONATED TO HELP SUPPORT THE NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTION AND THEN THEY WENT ON TO CENTRAL AMERICA. BASED ON THE INVESTIGATIONS THAT HAVE BEEN CARRIED OUT, IT WAS DETERMINED THAT WITHOUT PINPOINTING EXACT DATES, BUT BETWEEN 1983 AND 1985, AIRCRAFT DEDICATED TO SUPPORTING THE NICARAGUAN COUNTER-REVOLUTION, PILOTED BY MARCOS AGUADO AND GERARDO DURAN AYANELLI, LANDED AT THE AIRPORTS OWNED BY THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, ESPECIALLY THE ONE LOCATED AT MUELLE DE SAN CARLOS, CARRYING MILITARY SUPPLIES WHICH THEY UNLOADED AND AFTER REFUELING THE AIRCRAFT THE PLANES LEFT LOADED WITH DRUGS. THIS SITUATION OCCURRED DURING THE DAY AND WAS KNOWN BY THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE, BEING THAT ON ONE OPPORTUNITY FOUR HUNDRED KILOS OF COCAINE WERE TRANSPORTED TO MIAMI AND THAT GEORGE MORALES WAS PAID THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THESE TRIPS. ALSO, WITHOUT STATING THE EXACT DATE, BUT WITHIN THE PREVIOUSLY STATED TIME FRAME, BETWEEN 1983 AND 1985, THE PILOT GEORGE, ACCORDING TO GARY BETZNER, WHO ALSO WORKED FOR GEORGE MORALES, TRANSPORTED A SHIPMENT OF WEAPONS TO JOHN HULL'S RANCH AT SAN CARLOS AND LEFT FROM THERE TO FLORIDA, U.S.A., WITH ONE THOUSAND KILOS OF COCAINE WHICH WAS AT THE LANDING FACILITY AS WAS THE FUEL SUPPLY, A SITUATION WHICH WAS KNOWN TO THE ACCUSED HULL CLARKE.- (O.I.J. II.) ACCORDING TO WHAT HAS BEEN STATED, THERE ARE SUFFICIENT ELEMENTS OF CONVICTION TO ACCEPT AS PROBABLY WELL FOUNDED THE EXISTENCE OF THE DEEDS THAT ARE ATTRIBUTED TO THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL CLARKE AND GERARDO ALBERTO DURAN AYANELLI, WHICH CONSTITUTE THE CRIMES OF HOSTILE ACTS AND INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING; RECOGNIZED AND PUNISHABLE BY ARTICLES 280 OF THE PENAL CODE, BY A JAIL SENTENCE OF ONE TO SIX YEARS FOR HOSTILE ACTS, AND 372 OF THE GENERAL HEALTH LAW, WITH A JAIL SENTENCE OF SIX TO 12 YEARS FOR INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING; IT MUST BE CLARIFIED THAT IN THIS DOCUMENT, BECAUSE OF CONSTITUTIONAL RULE AND AS STATED IN ARTICLES 11 AND 12 OF THE CODE OF PENAL PROCEDURES, THE LAW CANNOT BE APPLIED

RETROACTIVELY, ESPECIALLY IF THAT LEGISLATION IS MORE DAMAGING TO THE ACCUSED. CONSEQUENTLY, IN MATTERS RELATED TO INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING WHICH BOTH DEFENDANTS ARE ACCUSED OF, GIVEN THE FACT THAT SUCH DEEDS WERE COMMITTED BEFORE THE PRO

CURRENT DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES LAW, THE CORRECT THING TO DO IS TO APPLY THE LAW THAT WAS IN EFFECT WHEN SUCH ILLICIT ACTIVITIES TOOK PLACE, IN THIS CASE, ARTICLE 372 OF THE GENERAL HEALTH LAW. GETTING INTO THE SUBSTANCE AND ANALYZING THE FACTS THAT HAVE BEEN DENOUNCED, AND THE PROOF THAT HAS BEEN PRESENTED IT IS CONCLUDED THAT IT HAS BEEN EFFECTIVELY DETERMINED HEREIN THAT THE DEFENDANTS HULL CLARKE AND DURAN AYANELLI, HAVE COMMITTED THE ILLICIT ACTIONS ATTRIBUTED TO THEM, SINCE WITH RESPECT TO THE CRIME OF

THE CASE OF HULL CLARKE; FUEL HAS BEEN MADE AVAILABLE FOR THEIR AIRCRAFT, THEY HAVE PILOTED PLANES IN THE SERVICE OF THE NICARAGUAN CONTRAS AND EVEN THROUGH THE USE OF THOSE PLANES, HAVE DROPPED IN NICARAGUAN TERRITORY (LA PENCA) MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES TO BE USED BY THE AFOREMENTIONED CONTRAS. THEY EVEN SIGNED A PACT WITH A WELL KNOWN NARCOTRAFFICKER THROUGH WHICH THEY WOULD SUPPLY WEAPONS TO THE CONTRAS AND SAID NARCOTRAFFICKER WOULD TRANSPORT HIS DRUGS TO THE UNITED STATES, WHICH MAKES THEIR ACTIVITIES EVEN WORSE; ALL OF THESE ACTIVITIES, OBVIOUSLY, WITH THE PASSING OF THE YEARS, HAVE PUT THE PEACE OF THE NATION IN DANGER, AND THE GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF COSTA RICA AND NICARAGUA, SINCE THE SANDINISTA GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN PROTESTING REPEATEDLY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF COSTA RICA ABOUT THESE CONTRA GROUPS THAT HAVE BEEN ASSISTED BY BOTH DEFENDANTS WITHIN COSTA RICAN TERRITORY AND THE INCURSIONS THAT THEY MAKE INTO NICARAGUA, INCLUDING ONE OCCASION WHICH WE CAN RECALL IN A CONFRONTATION THAT TOOK PLACE AT LAS CRUCITAS WHERE TWO OF OUR CIVIL GUARDS WERE KILLED; BECAUSE OF ALL THIS, THE UNDERSIGNED CONSIDERS THAT THE ACTIVITIES ENGAGED IN BY HULL CLARKE AND DURAN AYANELLI DESCRIBED HEREIN CONSTITUTE THE CRIME OF HOSTILE ACTS OF WHICH THEY ARE ACCUSED. WITH REGARD TO THE OTHER ILLEGAL ACTIVITY, INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING, ALSO ACCORDING TO THE PROOF THAT HAS BEEN PRESENTED, IT HAS BEEN DETERMINED THAT BOTH DEFENDANTS PARTICIPATED IN A VERY DIRECT WAY IN A NEGOTIATION OR AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO BY LEADERS OF

[redacted]

THE NICARAGUAN CONTRA WITH THE NARCOTRAFFICKER, GEORGE MORALES, BY WHICH HE WOULD FACILITATE THE SUPPLY OF WEAPONS TO THE CONTRA IN EXCHANGE FOR THEIR TRANSPORTING DRUGS TO THE UNITED STATES; TO THIS EFFECT BOTH DEFENDANTS TRAVELLED TO THE UNITED STATES AND MET WITH GEORGE MORALES, AGREEING THAT HULL CLARKE WOULD MAKE AVAILABLE THE LANDING FACILITIES ON HIS RANCHES IN THE NORTH OF THE COUNTRY AND FOR HIS PART, DURAN AYANELLI WAS DULY TRAINED AS A PILOT TO TRANSPORT THE ARMS AS WELL AS THE DRUGS. AMONG THE SHIPMENTS OF DRUGS TAKEN TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA THERE WAS ONE OF FOUR HUNDRED KILOS AND ONE OF ONE THOUSAND. THESE ACTS ARE EVIDENTLY CONFIGURATIVE WITH THE CRIME PREVIOUSLY REFERRED TO IN THIS DOCUMENT AS INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING OF WHICH BOTH DEFENDANTS ARE ACCUSED; THIS BEING THE WAY THINGS ARE AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DISPOSITIONS IN ARTICLES 286, 287, 288 AND 291, AND THOSE FOLLOWING IN THE PENAL PROCEDURES CODE, PROSECUTION IS ORDERED FOR BOTH DEFENDANTS AS PRESUMED PERPETRATORS OF THOSE CRIMES, AS WELL AS PREVENTIVE IMPRISONMENT.

THEREFORE

PROSECUTION AND PREVENTIVE IMPRISONMENT IS ORDERED FOR THE ACCUSED JOHN HULL CLARKE AND GERARDO ALBERTO DURAN AYANELLI; AS PRESUMED PERPETRATORS OF THE CRIMES OF HOSTILE ACTS AND INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRAFFICKING IN DETRIMENT TO NATIONAL SECURITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH. BE NOTIFIED.

PUBLICIZED THE EVENTS EACH NIGHT ON NATIONAL TV. JEB BUSH ELOQUENTLY PRESENTED THE INTEREST OF THE US AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN CLOSER US-NIGERIA RELATIONS, THE POSITIVE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR, AND THE VALUES OF A PARTNERSHIP IN DEVELOPING BOTH TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT TIES. PRESIDENT BABANGIDA WARMLY WELCOMED BUSH AND SENIOR MEMBERS OF M&W PUMP IN LAGOS. MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS FOLLOWED WITH HIS OWN MEETING. THE VISIT WAS THE GRANDEST CELEBRATION OF US-NIGERIA FRIENDSHIP WE HAVE SEEN IN RECENT MEMORY, AND PROMOTED GREATLY THE POTENTIALS IN CLOSER TRADE AND INVESTMENT TIES BETWEEN OUR TWO COUNTRIES. END SUMMARY.

3. JEB BUSH, SON OF PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH, AND HIS WIFE COLUMBA ARRIVED MARCH 3 TO DEDICATE THE M&W PUMP PLANT IN MAIDUGURI, A CITY IN NORTHWEST NIGERIA ONLY AN HOUR FROM THE CAMEROUN AND CHAD BORDERS. M&W'S PLANT WAS ASSISTED WITH A USD 52 MILLION EXPORT-IMPORT BANK GUARANTEE AND REPRESENTS THE HIGH POINT OF 17 YEARS OF INVOLVEMENT BY M&W IN NIGERIA. THE PLANT WILL MANUFACTURE IRRIGATION PIPES AND LATER ASSEMBLE PUMPS, OF WHICH M&W HAS ALREADY OVER 1,000 OPERATING IN NIGERIA. M&W PRESIDENT DAVID ELLER AND OTHER M&W PUMP

OFFICIALS FROM FLORIDA, MEXICO AND TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO ACCOMPANIED THE BUSHES. AMBASSADOR AND MRS. LYMAN, ALONG WITH COMMERCIAL COUNSELOR AND CONGEN KADUNA AND WIVES ACCOMPANIED PARTY THROUGHOUT. ALHAJI MOHAMMED INDIMI, CHAIRMAN OF M&W PUMP, NIGERIA (LTD.), WAS THE OFFICIAL HOST AND MADE EXTRAORDINARY ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE VISIT.

4. THE VISIT BEGAN WITH TWO DAYS IN MAIDUGURI WHERE IN ADDITION TO THE DEDICATION OF THE PLANT, THERE WERE CALLS UPON THE GOVERNOR OF BORNO STATE AND THE SHEHU OF BORNO (SECOND HIGHEST RANKING MUSLIM LEADER IN NIGERIA), VISIT TO THE CHAD BASIN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY TO SEE PUMPS IN OPERATION AND AGRICULTURE FLOURISHING THEREWITH, HORSE RACING (MAJOR SPORT IN MAIDUGURI), AND SEVERAL RECEPTIONS AND DINNERS. THE GOVERNOR OF BORNO HOSTED A DINNER AND A LUNCH FOR ABOUT SEVENTY PERSONS EACH, PLUS A LARGE COCKTAIL PARTY. GOVERNORS OF GONGOLA, NIGER, PLATEAU, AND BAUCHI WERE ALSO IN ATTENDANCE. PRESIDENT BABANGIDA WAS REPRESENTED BY MAJOR GENERAL GARBA DUBA, GOC OF THE THIRD ARMORED DIVISION AND A MEMBER OF THE ARMED FORCES RULING COUNCIL. MINISTERS OF EDUCATION AND AVIATION ALSO ATTENDED WITH THE FORMER MAKING AN ELOQUENT TOAST TO US-NIGERIA TIES.

5. NEXT STOP WAS BAUCHI FOR A CALL ON THE GOVERNOR AND

A VISIT TO GOMBE, SITE OF M&W ACTIVITY IN SUPPORT OF AGRICULTURE. THE EMIR OF GOMBE PRESIDED OVER A DURBAR, A TRADITIONAL NORTHERN NIGERIA CELEBRATION WHICH EXCEEDED ANY WE HAVE SEEN. SOME 1300 HORSEMEN, WITH ELABORATE FINERY AND TRADITIONAL COSTUME, THE HIGHEST RANKING MEMBERS OF THE EMIRATE AND NUMEROUS CIVIC GROUPS PARTICIPATED. THE CLIMAX WAS THE EMIR HIMSELF LEADING A

10. COMMENT. THE FMG SAW THIS VISIT AS A SPECIAL SIGN OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES AS WELL AS AN OPPORTUNITY TO ADVERTISE NIGERIA'S RECEPTIVITY TO PRIVATE INVESTMENT. IT WENT ALL OUT, AT ALL LEVELS. IT WAS CLEAR THAT DECISION HAD BEEN MADE TO PROVIDE VIP TREATMENT AND THE WARMEST POSSIBLE WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS. FMG PROVIDED EXTENSIVE SECURITY ALL ALONG THE WAY, WITH EXCEPTIONAL COOPERATION AMONG SECURITY, POLICE AND MILITARY SERVICES, AND CLOSE COORDINATION WITH EMBASSY RSO. THE BUSHES WERE MAGNIFICENT: WARM, INDEFATIGABLE, AND INTERESTED IN EVERY ASPECT OF NIGERIAN SOCIETY. JEB BUSH ARTICULATED ALL ALONG THE WAY THE INTEREST OF THE UNITED STATES IN FRIENDSHIP, ECONOMIC COOPERATION AND STRENGTHENING OF TIES. THE ENTIRE M&W PUMP GROUP WAS IMPRESSIVE. IT WAS A GREAT ADVERTISEMENT FOR THE VALUES TO NIGERIA OF AMERICAN PRIVATE INVESTMENT, ESPECIALLY IN THIS CASE IN PROMOTING SELF-RELIANCE IN AGRICULTURE AND AGRO-INDUSTRY. END COMMENT. LYMAN

SUBJECT: FMLN REPRESENTATIVE TELLS SAO PAULO PRESS THAT ARENA VICTORY WOULD RADICALIZE SALVADORAN POLITICAL SITUATION

1. IN AN INTERVIEW PUBLISHED BY THE FOLHA DE SAO PAULO ON MARCH 9, VISITING FMLN REPRESENTATIVE MERCEDES DEL CARMEN LETONA (IDENTIFIED AS A "COMANDANTE") PREDICTED THAT THE SALVADORAN POLITICAL SITUATION WOULD BECOME RADICALIZED SHOULD ARENA WIN THE UPCOMING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. WITH AN ARENA VICTORY, "SOME SECTORS" OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WOULD JOIN THE FMLN, EXACERBATING THE CONFLICT BETWEEN THE MILITARY, REPRESENTED BY ARENA, AND THE FMLN, ACCORDING TO LETONA. ASKED WHY THE DEMOCRATIC CONVERGENCE WAS NOT JOINING THE FMLN IN ITS BOYCOTT OF THE ELECTIONS, LETONA SAID "WE ARE ALLIES BUT WE HAVE DIFFERENT VIEWS OF THE SITUATION." LETONA DENIED THE EXISTENCE OF DIVISIONS BETWEEN "HARD LINE" AND "MODERATE" FACTIONS IN THE FMLN. FINALLY, SHE DEFENDED THE COINCIDENCE OF A FMLN

ELECTIONS TO SUPPORT ITS COUNTERINSURGENCY PLAN. THE ABOVE NECESSITATES THAT THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE REJECT THESE ELECTIONS SO A NEGOTIATED, PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE WAR CAN BE ACHIEVED.

-- AS THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE REPUDIATE THE MARCH 19 ELECTIONS, THE FMLN IS OBLIGATED TO SUPPORT THEM IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER: CALL ON SALVADORANS TO ABSTAIN OR INVALIDATE THEIR VOTE; AND DECREE A NATIONWIDE TRANSPORTATION STOPPAGE ("PARO") BEGINNING MARCH 15, AT 0001 HOURS. THE FMLN CALLS ON ALL PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION TO STRICTLY COMPLY WITH THE PARO OR ELSE THEIR VEHICLES WILL BE TARGETED.

2. [redacted] COMMENT: THE TONE OF THE FMLN COMMUNIQUE IS HARSHER AND MORE INFLEXIBLE THAN THAT OF ITS MARCH 8 COMMUNIQUE (REFTEL). THIS TIME THE FMLN SAYS NOTHING TO IMPLY ACCEPTANCE OF THE CD'S ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN. INSTEAD, IT CALLS FOR A TRANSPORTATION STOPPAGE (AS IT HAS IN PREVIOUS ELECTIONS) IN ADDITION TO CALLING UPON VOTERS TO ABSTAIN OR INVALIDATE THEIR BALLOTS. THE TRANSPORT STOPPAGE WILL TEND TO REDUCE VOTER TURNOUT AND WILL HURT THE CD'S SHOWING. THE SHIFT IN THESE COMMUNIQUES PROBABLY INDICATES THAT THERE IS [redacted]

DIVISION WITHIN THE FMLN OVER HOW TO DEAL WITH THE ELECTIONS AND THE CD'S PARTICIPATION.

ALTHOUGH GOC SPOKESMEN CLAIMED THAT THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF HAD NOT FOCUSSED ON ANY POLITICAL ISSUES, OTHER SOURCES CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT SAID THEY HAD DISCUSSED CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AND THE CONTROVERSIAL DISTRICTING LAW. PINOCHET ALSO HELD SEPARATE MEETINGS WITH THE JUSTICE AND INTERIOR MINISTERS AND THE JUNTA'S ECONOMIC ADVISORS. 2. (U) AT THE END OF A VISIT TO PUERTO MONTT ON MARCH 4, PRESIDENT PINOCHET ACKNOWLEDGED THAT MANY ARE HOPING TO SEE HIM BECOME A CANDIDATE, BUT SAID IT WAS TOO EARLY TO CONSIDER SUCH A POSSIBILITY. ASKED ABOUT THE CHANCES OF REFORMING THE CONSTITUTION, HE SAID SIMPLY THAT "NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE." THIS IS IN MARKED CONTRAST TO HIS PREVIOUS, VERY NEGATIVE COMMENTS ON THE POSSIBILITY OF REFORM. A WEEK EARLIER, INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES HAD SAID HE THOUGHT CONSTITUTION REFORM COULD TAKE PLACE BEFORE THE 1989 ELECTIONS, SPECIFICALLY THROUGH A PLEBISCITE WITHIN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS (REFTEL).

3. (U) THE HIGH LEVEL MEETINGS IN LA MONEDA AND DIEGO PORTALES ARE LAYING THE GROUNDWORK FOR PINOCHET'S ADDRESS ON MARCH 11, THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION AND THE START OF THE NEW LEGISLATIVE YEAR. INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES IS EXPECTED TO BE REPLACED IN A MAJOR CABINET SHUFFLE WHICH MAY COINCIDE WITH, OR COME SHORTLY AFTER, THE EVENT. MEDIA IS AIRING REPORTS THAT THE ENTIRE CABINET HAS RESIGNED SPARKING SPECULATIONS ABOUT MORE SWEEPING CHANGES IN THE CABINET THAN HAD UP TO NOW BEEN ANTICIPATED. AT THE SAME TIME, THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH HAS PREPARED A NEW DRAFT ELECTION DISTRICTING LAW WHICH REPORTEDLY REDUCES THE NUMBER OF SENATORS AND DEPUTIES FOR SANTIAGO AND CONCEPCION IN ORDER TO GIVE RURAL REGIONS GREATER REPRESENTATION IN THE 1990 PARLIAMENT.

PINOCHET INTENDS TO PROPOSE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT THAT WOULD ALLOW HIM TO RUN FOR PRESIDENT. SOME FEEL HE WILL "SWEETEN THE PACKAGE" BY CONCEDING TO OTHER CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS WHICH HAVE WON BROAD POPULAR SUPPORT, SUCH AS A FOUR-YEAR PRESIDENTIAL TERM, CHANGING ARTICLE 8, ENDING THE PROHIBITION AGAINST MINISTERS AND UNION LEADERS RUNNING FOR OFFICE. (NOTE: EVEN THE ULTRA-CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL ADVANCE AND UDI PARTIES NOW SPEAK FAVOURABLY ABOUT A FOUR-YEAR TERM.) OPPOSITION LEADERS RELISH THE PROSPECT OF ANOTHER CHANCE TO LICK PINOCHET IN THE ELECTORAL ARENA. ACCORDING TO PDC NATIONAL COUNSELOR ADOLFO ZALDIVAR, IT WOULD BE THE BEST WAY TO EASE PINOCHET OUT OF THE MILITARY, SINCE HE WOULD HAVE TO RESIGN FROM THE ARMY TO BECOME A CIVILIAN CANDIDATE. 1. (C) SUMMARY: PRESIDENT PINOCHET REVERSED FIELD IN HIS MARCH 11 SPEECH AND MOVED TO DEPRIVE THE OPPOSITION OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AS A CAMPAIGN ISSUE IN THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS. THE PRESIDENT ALSO ANNOUNCED SOME IMPORTANT SOCIAL INITIATIVES WHICH COULD CREATE A MORE HOSPITABLE RECEPTION FOR A PRO-GOVERNMENT PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. PINOCHET HIMSELF SEEMED TO STEP BACK FROM THE POSSIBILITY OF BECOMING A CANDIDATE. THIS FOCUSES ATTENTION ON WHETHER OR NOT HE WILL STAY ON AS ARMY

2. (U) PRESIDENT AUGUSTO PINOCHET DID NOT DISAPPOINT THOSE WHO EXPECTED SOME SURPRISES OUT OF HIS MARCH 11 SPEECH ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION AND THE BEGINNING

OF HIS FINAL YEAR IN OFFICE. ALTHOUGH THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR HAD DONE THE HONORS IN THE PAST, THIS YEAR PINOCHET HIMSELF ANNOUNCED HE WOULD DELIVER THE ADDRESS. THE PRESIDENT REPORTEDLY WROTE THE SPEECH HIMESELF AND CAREFULLY KEPT HIS OWN COUNSEL ON ITS CONTENTS. THE SETTING WAS THE MASSIVE DIEGO PORTALES GOVERNMENT BUILDING WHERE THE LEGISLATIVE JUNTA MAINTAINS ITS OFFICES. SOME THREE THOUSAND WERE ASSEMBLED IN THE BUILDING'S CEREMONIAL HALL, MOSTLY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, BUT BREAKING WITH PAST PRACTICE, THERE WAS GOOD REPRESENTATION FROM THE POLITICAL PARTIES OF THE RIGHT -- NO ONE FROM THE OPPOSITION. THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS WAS REPRESENTED BY THE DEAN, PAPAL NUNCIO GUILIO EINAUDI. (THE USUAL FORMULA FOR AVOIDING DIPLOMATIC SLIGHTS.) THE FOUR-MAN MILITARY JUNTA AND MEMBERS OF THE SURPEME COURT SHARED THE STAGE WITH PINOCHET. OUTSIDE THE BUILDING A RATHER PALTRY CROWD OF SEVERAL THOUSAND PLACARD-WAVING PINOCHET ENTHUSIASTS WAS ASSEMBLED. AIRCRAFT HAD FLOWN OVER THE CITY THAT MORNING THROWING OUT LEAFLETS SUMMONING THE FAITHFUL TO GREET THE PRESIDENT FOR THE EVENT.

3. (U) CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM: THE BIGGEST SURPRISE OF THE SPEECH WAS PINOCHET'S COMPLETE REVERSE FIELD ON THE ISSUE OF CONSTITUTIONAL

REFORM. FOR MONTHS, THE PRESIDENT HAD BEEN DECIDEDLY NEGATIVE ON ACCEPTING ANY CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION WHICH HE PERSONALLY CRAFTED TO GUARANTEE THE CONTINUANCE OF HIS REGIME'S "PROTECTED DEMOCRACY." IN THE PROCESS, HE HAS REPEATEDLY CONTRADICTED MINISTER OF INTERIOR CARLOS CACERES WHO HAS DOGGEDLY INSISTED THAT THE GOC WAS OPEN TO "PERFECTING" THE CONSTITUTION IN DIALOGUE WITH THE POLITICAL PARTIES. ONLY IN THE LAST TWO WEEKS HAS THE PRESIDENT HINTED THAT HE MIGHT HAVE EXPERIENCED A CHANGE OF HEART.

4. (U) IN THE MARCH 11 SPEECH, PRESIDENT PINOCHET USED ALMOST EXACTLY THE SAME LANGUAGE AS MINISTER CACERES. HE SAID THE 1980 CONSTITUTION WAS "A HUMAN WORK...WHICH CAN BE PERFECTED IN SOME ASPECTS, BUT WITHOUT ATTEMPTING TO ALTER THE PRINCIPLES AND VALUES WHICH INSPIRE IT." THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT HE HAS INSTRUCTED THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR, AFTER HE HAS CONSULTED WITH THE VARIOUS DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PARTIES AND INDEPENDENT GROUPS, TO INFORM HIM OF THE ADVISABILITY OF INTRODUCING MODIFICATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION. THE PRESIDENT INDICATED THAT REFORM WOULD DEPEND ON DEVELOPING THE NECESSARY CONSENSUS AMONG THESE GROUPS IN ORDER TO BRING ABOUT THE PROCESS OF REFORM BEFORE THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS.

5. (U) PINOCHET EVEN WENT SO FAR AS TO POINT OUT THOSE REFORMS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT EVENTUALLY CONSIDER, THEY INCLUDED:

COUNCIL;

-- SHORTEN THE PRESIDENT TERM, "MAINTAINING THE REST OF THE PERMANENT NORMS ON THIS SUBJECT". (COMMENT: THIS OBSCURE LANGUAGE IS READ TO MEAN THAT PINOCHET FAVORS A SHORTER TERM FOR THE PRESIDENT DUE TO BE INAUGURATED MARCH 1990, BUT AFTERWARDS THE CONSTITUTIONALLY PROVIDED EIGHT-YEAR TERM SHOULD PREVAIL. END COMMENT.)

6. (U) IN ONE FORM OR ANOTHER, ALL OF THESE ARE REFORMS STRONGLY ADVOCATED BY THE POLITICAL PARTIES OF BOTH LEFT AND RIGHT. PATRICIO AYLWIN, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE AND SPOKESMAN FOR THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY OPPOSITION ALLIANCE (COPODE), NOTED THAT PINOCHET'S LIST COINCIDED IN GREAT PART WITH THEIR OWN WITH THE IMPORTANT EXCEPTIONS OF ELIMINATING APPOINTIVE SENATORS AND GIVING THE PRESIDENT THE POWER TO REPLACE THE ARMED FORCES CHIEF.

7. (U) PRESIDENTIAL REELECTION: ANOTHER REFORM EXPECTED BY MANY BUT WHICH DID NOT APPEAR ON PINOCHET'S LIST WAS ONE TO ALLOW HIM TO RUN AGAIN FOR PRESIDENT. THERE HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD SPECULATION THAT PINOCHET WAS WEIGHING THE ADVISABILITY OF LAUNCHING SUCH A REFORM IN CONJUNCTION WITH OTHERS. ON THE CONTRARY, THE PRESIDENT SCOURNFULLY DENIED THE SUSPICIONS OF THOSE WHO BELIEVE HIS APPROACH TO REFORMS IS GOVERNED BY SOME "HIDDEN PERSONAL MOTIVE." FURTHER, HE APPEARED TO TAKE ANOTHER STEP BACK FROM CANDIDACY IN HIS VERY BRIEF DEPARTURE REMARKS TO SUPPORTERS GATHERED

OUTSIDE DIEGO PORTALES. THE PRESIDENT SEEMED TO TAKE HIMSELF OUT OF PARTISAN ACTIVITY WHEN HE

TOLD THE PLACARD-WAVING CROWD, "WE MUST DEDICATE OURSELVES TO PREPARING -- YOU, NOT ME -- TO TRIUMPH AT THE END OF THE YEAR. WE HAVE TO DEFEAT THE FAMOUS RAINBOW." (NOTE: THE RAINBOW IS THE SYMBOL FO THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY OPPOSITION ALLIANCE.)

8. (U) SOCIAL INITIATIVES: WHILE HIS EMBRACE OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM GRABBED THE HEADLINES, PRESIDENT PINOCHET ALSO ANNOUNCED SOME RATHER SWEEPING INITIATIVES IN THE SOCIAL FIELD WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN PROMISING SINCE OCTOBER, WHEN THE NEW CABINET WAS SWORN IN. WITHOUT RAISING TAXES, PINOCHET STATED THERE WOULD BE AN ADDITIONAL 25.5 MILLION DOLLARS SPENT ON PUBLIC HEALTH, 11 MILLION ON EDUCATION AND 23.6 MILLION ON HOUSING. HE ALSO UNVEILED A NEW PROGRAM FOR EXPANDED VOCATIONAL TRAINING. IN THE CATEGORY OF "SOCIAL JUSTICE" PINOCHET ANNOUNCED THAT HE WAS SENDING A DRAFT LAW FORWARD TO ELIMINATE THE TWELVE-HOUR DAY CURRENTLY PERMITTED FOR CERTAIN TYPES OF WORKERS (E.G. WAITERS, WHOSE HOURS VARY FROM THE NORMAL WORK WEEK). HE ALSO STATED THAT HE WAS ORDERING STUDIES BY CONCERNED AGENCIES WITH A VIEW TO LOWERING THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF MEMBERS FOR A LABOR GROUP TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY AND TO MAKING NATIONAL LABOR CONFEDERATIONS (CENTRALES) LEGAL.

9. (U) THE LATTER WAS WELCOMED BY MANUEL BUSTOS, PRESIDENT OF THE C.U.T., THE COUNTRY'S LARGEST NATIONAL LABOR CONFEDERATION WHICH CURRENTLY HAS NO

LEGAL STATUS. HE LAMENTED, HOWEVER, THAT PINOCHET HAS CHOSEN TO IGNORE THE ISSUE OF HIS OWN AND C.U.T. VICE PRESIDENT ARTURO MARTINEZ' INTERNAL EXILE.

10. U) CABINET CHANGES: ANOTHER SUBJECT NOT TOUCHED ON IN PINOCHET'S SPEECH WAS CHANGES IN THE CABINET. FINANCE MINISTER HERNAN BUCHI, WHOM VIRTUALLY EVERYONE EXPECTS TO STEP DOWN SOON IN ORDER TO LAUNCH HIS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDACY, AVOIDED THE PRESS AND MADE NO STATEMENTS EITHER ENTERING OR LEAVING THE DIEGO PORTALES BUILDING. MINISTER OF INTERIOR CACERES, WHO UNTIL PINOCHET EMBRACED HIS CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM INITIATIVE HAD BEEN EXPECTED

CONFIDENTIAL

TO BE DROPPED FROM THE CABINET, WAS RELAXED IN COMMENTS TO THE PRESS AFTER THE SPEECH ON PROCEEDING TO CONSULT WITH POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE COMING WEEK. HE EMPHASIZED THAT TIME IS SHORT, BUT REFUSED TO SET A DATE FOR A PLESBISCITE VOTE ON REFORMS. HE DID STATE THAT REFORMS WOULD BE PRESENTED AS A SINGLE PACKAGE. VOTERS WOULD NOT BE OFFERED A YES OR NO CHOICE ON EACH PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

11. (C) COMMENT: NOW THAT HE HAS WON PINOCHET OVER ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, CACERES' EARLY DEPARTURE FROM THE CABINET SEEMS UNLIKELY. HOWEVER, HE MAY YET STEP DOWN TO RUN FOR THE SENATE IF THE GOC MOVES AHEAD WITH A CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATION IT IS REPORTED CONSIDERING THAT WOULD WAIVE THE REQUIREMENT THAT FORMER MINISTERS AND OTHER OFFICIALS LEAVE OFFICE TWO YEARS PRIOR TO BECOMING CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES. THERE IS A FULL CABINET MEETING SCHEDULED FOR THIS AFTERNOON (MARCH 12) WHEN PINOCHET MAY MOVE ON AT LEAST SOME CABINET CHANGES. BUCHI'S DEPARTURE COULD COME AT THAT TIME.

12. (C) PINOCHET MADE ALL THE RIGHT MOVES FOR HELPING THE RIGHT IN THE DECEMBER 1989 ELECTIONS AND ENHANCING PROSPECTS FOR A SYMPATHETIC SUCCESSOR. WE ARE AMAZED THAT HE WAS WILLING TO CONSIDER REFORM OF ARTICLE 8, LONG THE PRINCIPAL WEAPON OF HIS REGIME AGAINST THE COMMUNIST PARTY. MORE SOCIAL SPENDING MAKES GOOD POLITICAL SENSE WHEN POLLS SHOW THAT VOTERS HAVE A GENERALLY NEGATIVE VIEW OF THE ECONOMY IN TERMS OF HOW THEY HAVE PERSONALLY FARED IN RECENT YEARS. AS AYLWIN OBSERVED, THERE ARE LIMITS ON HOW

CONFIDENTIAL
CONFIDENTIAL

FAR PINOCHET IS WILLING TO GO. WE NOTE THAT HE WOULD CONSIDER ADDING ONLY ONE NEW MEMBER TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL. THIS WOULD PUT CIVILIANS AND MILITARY ON A PAR; WHEREAS THE PARTIES -- RIGHT AND LEFT -- HAVE ADVOCATED A CIVILIAN MAJORITY. IT ALMOST LOOKS LIKE PINOCHET HIMSELF IS BEGINNING TO ACCEPT THE LIKELIHOOD THAT THE OPPOSITION WILL WIN IN DECEMBER. PLANNING FOR THAT EVENTUALITY, HE DOES NOT WANT AN OPPOSITION PRESIDENT TO HAVE THE POWER TO DISSOLVE THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AND IS ATTRACTED TO THE IDEA OF A MORE LIMITED PRESIDENTIAL TERM AT LEAST FOR THE TERM BEGINNING IN MARCH 1990. THE PRESIDENT MAY STILL BE THINKING IN TERMS OF RETURNING AGAIN "LIKE CINCINNATUS" TO SAVE HIS COUNTRY AFTER THE OPPOSITION THOROUGHLY MUCKS THINGS UP FOR FOUR YEARS.

13. (C) THE DAY BEFORE PINOCHET'S SPEECH, PATRICIO AYLWIN TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE JOINT CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM STUDY GROUP OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND NATIONAL RENEWAL HAS MADE CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS ON AGREED PROPOSALS. AYLWIN SAID THAT ALTHOUGH RN INSISTED THAT IT BE PORTRAYED AS A PDC/RN EFFORT THE PDC SIDE WAS ACTUALLY FULLY REPRESENTATIVE OF COPODE MEMBERS AND THUS THE PROPOSALS FINALLY APPROVED WOULD BE ENDORSED BY THE ENTIRE SEVENTEEN-PARTY ALLIANCE. THIS MECHANISM COULD THEREFORE PROVIDE IN FAIRLY SHORT ORDER THE "CONSENSUS" OF POLITICAL GROUPS PINOCHET SEEKS BEFORE GOING TO A PLEBISCITE. OF COURSE, THE CONSENSUS MAY RESULT IN A PACKAGE OF REFORMS SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT

FROM THAT SUGGESTED BY PINOCHET. RN PRESIDENT SERGIO JARPA HAS ALREADY SUGGESTED POSSIBLE ADDITIONS, AND THE PRESIDENT HAS LEFT ROOM FOR INCORPORATING SUCH SUGGESTIONS.

14. (C) WITH THE MARCH 11 SPEECH, CHANCES OF PINOCHET BECOMING A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE ARE MORE REMOTE. WE PRESUME THAT AS HE SURVEYED THE POLITICAL LANDSCAPE, PARTICULARLY IN THE MILITARY, AND LISTENED TO VARIOUS ADVISORS HE FINALLY CONCLUDED THAT HIS RUNNING AGAIN SIMPLY WOULD NOT FLY. AND EVEN IF IT DID, HE WOULD FACE ANOTHER HUMILIATING DEFEAT. THERE HAS BEEN NO LACK OF SYNCOPHANTS TO ENCOURAGE HIM TO TRY TO STAY ON. PROUD AND ARROGANT THOUGH HE MAY BE, PINOCHET IS NO FOOL AND APPEARS TO HAVE LEARNED FROM LAST YEAR'S PLEBISCITE THE DANGERS OF LISTENING TO DIEHARD LOYALISTS WHOSE ONLY POLITICAL FUTURE LIES IN THE PERPETUATION OF THE PINOCHET REGIME. ATTENTION WILL NOW FOCUS MORE SHARPLY ON THE PRESIDENT'S PLANS FOR STAYING ON AS ARMY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. LAST WEEK, AYLWIN AND PPD PRESIDENT RICARDO LAGOS EXPRESSED DEEP CONCERN TO THE AMBASSADOR ABOUT THE SPECTRE OF CHILE FOLLOWING THE PANAMANIAN MODEL WITH PINOCHET PLAYING A MALEVOLENT GENERAL NORIEGA AND CONTINUING TO RUN THE COUNTRY FROM OUTSIDE THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE.

15. (C) BY EMBRACING CACERES' INITIATIVE AND EVEN LAYING OUT SOME REFORMS HE COULD SUPPORT, PINOCHET HAS TO A CERTAIN EXTENT PREEMPTED THE ISSUE OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. THE OPPOSITION WAS ALREADY GEARING UP TO MAKE IT A MAJOR PART OF ITS ELECTION CAMPAIGN. HAD THERE BEEN NO REFORMS, IT COULD HAVE SUCCEEDED IN MAKING THE DECEMBER 1989 VOTE ESSENTIALLY A REPEAT OF THE OCTOBER 1988 PLEBISCITE ON THE PINOCHET REGIME. THE MAJOR PARTIES OF THE RIGHT, UDI AND RN, WERE WELL AWARE OF THIS POTENTIALLY DISASTROUS REPLAY AND HAD LOBBIED HARD TO TAKE THE ISSUE OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AWAY FROM THE OPPOSITION. RN WAS THE FIRST PARTY TO COME OUT WITH REFORM PROPOSALS. POLITICAL REASON NOW APPEARS TO HAVE PREVAILED. THE CACERES APPROACH WAS WON, AND PINOCHET SEEMS AMENABLE TO WORKING WITH HIS

POLITICAL ALLIES TO ENHANCE THEIR ELECTORAL PROSPECTS. THEY STILL NEED A PRESIDENT CANDIDATE, OF COURSE, BUT BUCHI MAY SHORTLY FILL THAT ROLE. IT WILL STILL NOT BE AN EASY TASK TO OVERCOME THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY COALITION'S MOMENTUM BUT THE RIGHT'S CHANCES ARE GREATLY IMPROVED IF ALL OF ITS MAJOR ELEMENTS BEGIN PULLING IN THE SAME DIRECTION. PINOCHET HIMSELF MAY FINALLY HAVE COME ON BOARD FOR WHAT HE SEES AS THE ONLY POSSIBLE WINNING POLITICAL STRATEGY. GILLESPIE

2. (U) ON MARCH 9 THE FMLN RESPONDED TO THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE-EXECUTIVE COMMISSION (REF A), NOTING THAT THE COMMISSION'S PROPOSAL DOES NOT INDICATE ANY WILLINGNESS TO POSTPONE THE ELECTIONS, MUCH LESS TO PLACE IT ON THE AGENDA FOR DISCUSSION. SINCE THE COMMISSION HAD ALREADY DECIDED TO HOLD THE ELECTIONS ON MARCH 19, THE FMLN DECLARED THAT:

-- THE COMMISSION MUST DEMONSTRATE CLEARLY AND PUBLICLY ITS ABILITY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT ON POSTPONEMENT OF ELECTIONS TO SEPTEMBER 15 AND A NEGOTIATED CEASE-FIRE, RESTRICTING THE ESAF TO ITS BARRACKS ON ELECTION DAY, REFORM THE ELECTORAL CODE, ALLOW OVERSEAS SALVADORANS TO VOTE IN THE ELECTIONS, RESTRUCTURING OF THE CCE, AND CREATION OF A ELECTORAL WATCHDOG GROUP. IT ALSO ASKED THE COMMISSION TO DECLARE ITS WILLINGNESS TO DISCUSS BRINGING TO TRIAL ESAF HUMAN RIGHTS OFFENDERS, REDUCTION OF ESAF TO ITS

-- IF THE COMMISSION IS READY TO NEGOTIATE ON THESE POINTS, THEN THE FMLN WILL IMMEDIATELY AGREE ON A DATE AND PLACE, INCLUDING OUTSIDE EL SALVADOR, TO HOLD A GOES-FMLN DIALOGUE. THE FMLN IS ALSO READY TO NEGOTIATE AND REACH A CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT WITH THE ESAF HIGH COMMAND;

-- IF THE COMMISSION IS NOT READY, THEN THE FMLN DOES NOT SEE ANY REASON TO MEET WITH THE COMMISSION BEFORE MARCH 19 AS THESE ELECTIONS WILL NOT BRING PEACE, BUT ONLY CONTINUE THE WAR BASED ON A FALSE IMAGE OF LEGITIMACY.

3. (U) ON MARCH 11 THE URBAN COMMANDO FRONT)"JUAN CASTRO" ANNOUNCED TO ALL BUS OPERATORS THAT ITS UNITS HAVE ORDERS TO ENFORCE THE TRANSPORTATION STOPPAGE ("PARO"). IT SIMILARLY DECLARED THAT GAS STATIONS WHICH DO NOT CLOSE DURING THE STRIKE ARE MILITARY TARGETS. IT ADVISED HUMANITARIAN ORGANIZATIONS LIKE THE RED AND GREEN CROSS, AND INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL PRESS TO STOCK SUFFICIENT GASOLINE. ON MARCH 12 RADIO VENCEREMOS ALSO THREATENED ELECTION

5. [redacted] COMMENT: THIS IS THE LATEST IN A SERIES OF EXCHANGES BETWEEN THE FMLN AND THE GOES ON THE ELECTIONS. THE FMLN IS TAKING AN INCREASINGLY HARD LINE REGARDING THE MARCH 19 ELECTIONS, REFLECTED BY ITS THREATS AGAINST BUS OWNERS, GASOLINE STATION OPERATORS, AND ELECTION WORKERS. PRESIDENT DUARTE'S SPEECH SEEKS TO KEEP THE FMLN ON THE DEFENSIVE BY CALLING ON THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO DEMAND THAT THE FMLN RESPECT THE ELECTIONS. IRONICALLY, DUARTE'S EFFORTS ARE SIMILAR TO THOSE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVERGENCE, WHICH IS TRYING TO PERSUADE THE FMLN TO NOT TAKE ACTIONS WHICH WOULD POTENTIALLY REDUCE SUPPORT FOR THE CD.

LATER THAN MARCH 25. HE EXPLAINED THAT THERE HAD BEEN HOPE THIS COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED THIS WEEK BUT CERTAIN DETAILS WITH THE PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS STILL NEEDED TO BE WORKED OUT. THE AMBASSADOR SAID THAT THE USG WANTS TO MOVE THE PROCESS ALONG AND HAS THEREFORE SELECTED FOUR INDIVIDUALS ANY ONE OF WHOM MIGHT HEAD THE COMMISSION, AND HANDED OVER A DIPLOMATIC NOTE CONTAINING THE NAMES PROVIDED BY REFTEL. AFTER READING IT, ERRAZURIZ SAID THAT THE GOC HAD ALSO BEEN LOOKING AT POSSIBLE CANDIDATES AND WAS CONSIDERING INDIVIDUALS OF THE SAME HIGH CALIBER AS THOSE INDICATED IN THE EMBASSY'S NOTE. THE AMBASSADOR ASKED THAT THE GOC LOOK CAREFULLY AT THE CANDIDATES NAMED AND GIVE US AN OFFICIAL REACTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. ERRAZURIZ SAID THAT THE MINISTRY WOULD MOVE QUICKLY TO CONSIDER THE CANDIDATES. IN CLOSING, AMBASSADOR GILLESPIE NOTED THAT THE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WITH WHOM HE HAD SPOKEN IN WASHINGTON DURING HIS RECENT CONSULTATIONS HAD EXPRESSED GREAT INTEREST IN THE TREATY PROCESS AND THE EFFORT TO RESOLVE THE LETELIER-MOFFITT CASE.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR'S MEETING WITH FM ERRAZURIZ

1. (CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT).

2. SUMMARY: IN A MEETING WITH THE CHILEAN FM ON MARCH 10 THE AMBASSADOR COVERED FORMATION OF INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE LETELIER-MOFFITT CASE AND PROPOSED CHILEAN LAW ON PHARMACEUTICAL PATENTS (SEE SEPTELS). MINISTER RAISED USG "OVERREACTION" TO TELEPHONE THREATS OF POISONED FRUIT SHIPMENTS, UNHRC RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, POSSIBLE NEW USG APPROACH TO LDC DEBT, AND ANTARCTICA AND SAFETY OF CHILEAN AIR FORCE F-5 AIRCRAFT. END SUMMARY.

3. IN A MARCH 10 MEETING THE AMBASSADOR, ACCOMPANIED BY POLOFF MET WITH FM HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ AND HIS CHIEF OF CABINET, ALFONSO SILVA. DURING THE MEETING ERRAZURIZ RAISED A SERIES OF ISSUES OF CONCERN TO HIM AND THE GOC.

4. BAN ON CHILEAN FRUIT EXPORTS: THE FM TERMED USG ACTION IN DELAYING AND INTERRUPTING CHILEAN FRUIT EXPORTS ON THE BASIS OF AN ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE CALL AS "EXTREMELY SERIOUS OVERREACTION" AND "DANGEROUS." HE ARGUED THAT IF A CRANK OR A TERRORIST, WITH ONE OR TWO CALLS CAN ACHIEVE THIS KIND OF REACTION, WE

ALL FACE THE PROSPECT OF FURTHER DISRUPTION, AND THE PERPETRATORS HAVE "WON." ERRAZURIZ SAID THAT WITHOUT ANY DOUBT SUCH CALLS MUST BE INVESTIGATED, ANALYZED AND REACTED TO BUT NOT ON THE BASIS OF EMOTION. HE ASKED FOR DETAILS OF THE CALLS AND THE AMBASSADOR, NOTING THAT A FULL REPORT, INCLUDING A RECORDING OF THE SECOND CALL, HAS BEEN SENT TO CHILEAN AUTHORITIES, OFFERED TO SEND ERRAZURIZ COPIES OF THE SAME INFORMATION. (THIS WAS SUBSEQUENTLY DONE.)

5. HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION ON CHILE: ERRAZURIZ SAID HE AND THE GOC ARE "ABSOLUTELY FRUSTRATED" BY THE LATEST RESOLUTION WHICH HE TERMED "DISCRIMINATORY AND POLITICALLY MOTIVATED." HE SAID THAT BEING CONDEMNED BY THE CUBANS, MEXICANS, SANDINISTAS, AND ALGERIANS, WHO HAVE NEVER BEEN HELD TO THE SAME STANDARDS IS PARTICULARLY GALLING. HE SAID THE GOC IS NOW QUESTIONING WHETHER THERE IS ANY MERIT IN CONTINUING TO COOPERATE WITH THE UNHRC IN THE FACE OF SUCH OBVIOUS PREJUDICE. HE OPINED THAT EXTREMISTS IN CHILE WOULD FIND NEW GRIST FOR THEIR ARGUMENTS THAT IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE WHAT THE GOC DOES, IT IS GOING TO BE CONDEMNED IN ANY EVENT. ERRAZURIZ SAID HE APPRECIATED USG EFFORTS TO MODERATE THE RESOLUTION AND TO MAKE CLEAR ITS DESIRE FOR AN HONEST STATEMENT. COMMENT: THE GOC ANNOUNCES AFTER EVERY UNHRC AND UNGA RESOLUTION ON CHILE THAT IT IS

REEVALUATING ITS COOPERATION WITH THE RAPPORTEUR, BUT SO FAR HAS ALWAYS FOUND IT ADVANTAGEOUS TO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE HIM. END COMMENT.

6. LDC DEBT: ERRAZURIZ SAID HE WANTED TO REGISTER HIS OWN AND HIS GOVERNMENT'S CONCERN BASED SOLELY ON NEWS REPORTS THAT THE USG MIGHT SOMEHOW CHANGE ITS POLICY ON LDC DEBT IN A MANNER THAT WOULD EFFECTIVELY REWARD THE NON-PERFORMERS AND PUNISH THOSE, LIKE CHILE, WHO HAD PLAYED THE GAME DESPITE ITS HIGH COSTS. THE AMBASSADOR NOTED THAT HIS ONLY INFORMATION ON ANY POSSIBLE NEW USG APPROACH IS ALSO FROM THE PRESS AND EMPHASIZED THAT CHILE'S EXCELLENT RECORD OF DEBT MANAGEMENT HAS BEEN CLEARLY NOTED AND APPRECIATED BY THE USG. ERRAZURIZ SAID HE HOPED THAT THERE WOULD BE REWARDS OR AT LEAST INCENTIVES IN WHATEVER NEW APPROACH THE US MIGHT PROPOSE TO ADOPT.

7. ANTARCTICA: ERRAZURIZ REFERRED TO HIS RECENT STATEMENTS REGARDING THE NEED FOR ACTION TO PROTECT THE ANTARCTIC, STATING THAT CHILE WOULD BE VERY ACTIVE IN THE UPCOMING (MAY) MEETING IN PARIS OF SIGNATORIES TO THE ANTARCTIC TREATY. IN RESPONSE TO THE AMBASSADOR'S QUESTION, THE MINISTER SAID CHILE WOULD PROPOSE SOME TYPE OF

CONTROLS ON TOURISM, TRANSPORTATION, AND SCIENTIFIC INVESTIGATION IN THE REGION. HE NOTED THAT AS ONE OF THE MAJOR GATEWAYS TO THE REGION, CHILE BELIEVES IT HAS IMPORTANT INTERESTS AT STAKE AND THAT THE GOC WOULD BE IN CONTACT WITH OTHERS TO PREPARE FOR THE PARIS MEETING. THE AMBASSADOR, NOTING THAT HE HAS RETURNED FROM ANTARCTICA ONLY RECENTLY, COMMENTED FAVORABLY ON CHILEAN ASSISTANCE TO THE USG AND TO THE GOVERNMENTS OF ARGENTINA AND PERU IN EFFORTS TO DEAL WITH TWO SHIPWRECKS AND RESULTANT CONTIMINATION.

. CHILEAN AIR FORCE F-5S: THE FM RAISED GOC CONCERNS ABOUT CONTINUING FLIGHT SAFETY PROBLEMS INVOLVING U.S. MANUFACTURERED F-5 FIGHTER AIRCRAFT. HE EXPRESSED FRUSTRA-TION OVER INABILITIES TO OBTAIN THE NECESSARY PARTS

OR EVEN THE MANUEALS TO ADDRESS THE PROBLEM. ERRAZURIZ SAID THAT THE GOC HAD BEEN UNDER STRONG PRESSURE FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN TO SELL THE F-5S TO IT, BUT DID NOT DO SO. HE SAID THAT THE USG WAS AWARE OF THAT FACT AND OUGHT TO APPRECIATE IT. HE ALSO OPINED THAT THE CHILEAN AIR FORCE IS ALMOST THE ONLY REMAINING POINT OF REAL CONTACT BETWEEN THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENTS OF THE TWO NATIONS SINCE THE NAVY HAS TURNED ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY TO THE BRITISH AND THE "ARMY KEEPS ITS OWN COUNSEL." IF THE U.S. IS INTERESTED IN GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE CHILEAN MILITARY IT SHOULD BE WILLING TO HELP THE CHILEAN AIR FORCE. GILLESPIE

Dear Senator Lieberman:

I am responding to your letter of February 14, in which you requested information about the status of the legal confrontation between Chilean military prosecutors and the Catholic Church's Vicariate of Solidarity.

As of the moment, the situation remains at a standoff. Military prosecutor Sergio Cea visited the Vicariate on February 15 to demand the medical records. He was turned down. Although Cea told a press conference that no group was above the law, he did not indicate what his next move might be. There have been no new developments since then.

Our Embassy in Santiago has remained in close touch with this situation with diligence and much concern. In the absence of Ambassador Gillespie, who had been in the United States, our Charge d'Affaires paid a highly visible public visit to the Vicariate in order to show U.S. support for the activities of this respected human rights organization.

Sincerely,

Richard Schifter

Dear Senator Kennedy:

I am in receipt of your letter of February 15, 1989 in which you express interest and concern for the pending case involving the medical records of the Vicariate of Solidarity in Chile.

The United States Government has followed this case closely since its inception. Our Ambassador to Chile, Charles Gillespie, Jr. recently met with Bishop Sergio Valech, head of the Vicariate, to discuss this case and other matters involving the human rights work of the Church. We have also raised this case with high officials of the Chilean Government. On February 3, 1989 our Embassy's Charge de Affaires, George Jones, called on Bishop Valech at Vicariate headquarters to express again the U.S. Government's support for the Vicariate's efforts to promote human rights.

Following that meeting, Mr. Jones reiterated in an interview with the press the U.S. Government's long-standing view that the Vicariate of Solidarity is a highly respected human rights organization with a well-deserved international reputation and that we would deeply regret any action which would compromise the ability of the Vicariate to perform effectively its important activities.

Support for a return to democracy and respect for human and civil rights is the cornerstone of U.S. policy toward Chile. Accordingly, we will continue to follow the Vicariate case with great interest.

If we can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesistate to contact us.

Sincerely,

BRANCH. MEANWHILE A MEMBER OF THE RN-PDC JOINT COMMISSION INDICATED IT WOULD PROBABLY BE READY TO PRESENT A JOINT PROPOSAL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AS EARLY AS NEXT WEEK. WHILE PINOCHET'S COMMITMENT TO CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM LEAVES MANY POLITICAL OBSERVERS SKEPTICAL, AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN CHILE'S BIGGEST PARTIES ON THE CENTER-LEFT AND RIGHT WOULD REDUCE HIS ABILITY TO MANIPULATE THE ISSUE. THE DISTRACTION OF THE FRUIT EXPORT CRISIS MAY GIVE CACERES A FREER HAND TO MOVE FORWARD ON THE ISSUE. END SUMMARY.

2. INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES HAS INITIATED A SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH POLITICAL PARTIES TO FOLLOW UP ON PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S INSTRUCTIONS TO GAIN AGREEMENT ON PROPOSALS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM (REFTEL). FOLLOWING THE FIRST CONVERSATION ON MARCH 14 WITH RN PRESIDENT SERGIO ONOFRE JARPA, THE FORMER INTERIOR MINISTER EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE DIALOGUE WOULD PROSPER, GIVEN THE NEW FORCES AT WORK. REFERRING TO THE RN-PDC JOINT COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, JARPA ADDED THAT HIS PARTY'S DIALOGUE WITH THE OPPOSITION HAD CONTRIBUTED TO THIS OPENING.

AYLWIN IS MEETING WITH CACERES, WHICH IS BILLED AS HIS FIRST APPOINTMENT IN LA MONEDA FOR 15 YEARS. A MINOR SPAT ERUPTED WHEN DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST LEADER RICARDO LAGOS PUBLICLY QUESTIONED AYLWIN'S ABILITY TO SPEAK FOR THE CENTER LEFT COALITION (COPODE) AS WELL AS FOR THE PDC. OTHER OPPOSITION PARTY LEADERS INCLUDING RADICAL PARTY VICE PRESIDENT RICARDO NAVARETTE AND ALMEYDA SOCIALIST LEADER LUCIANO VALLE QUICKLY OPINED THAT AYLWIN HAD INDEED CONSULTED WITH COPODE MEMBERS OVER HIS APPROACH TO THE GOC, AND THAT IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO SEPARATE HIS ROLE AS COPODE SPOKESMAN FROM THAT OF PDC PRESIDENT. ASKED IF HE COULD ENVISION THE OPPOSITION SUPPORTING A PLEBISCITE PROPOSITION ON THE REFORM ISSUE, AYLWIN SAID IT WAS POSSIBLE, PROVIDING THE GOC AND VARIOUS POLITICAL SECTORS CAME TO TERMS ON A PACKAGE.

4. (U) IN A SPEECH INAUGURATING THE THIRD LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION FOR 1989, JUNTA MEMBER GENERAL STANGE DESCRIBED CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AS THE MOST IMPORTANT CHALLENGE FACING THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH THIS YEAR. ON THE SAME DAY, MINISTER SERGIO MELNICK, DIRECTOR OF THE NATIONAL PLANNING OFFICE, EXPRESSED HIS OPINION THAT THE CONSTITUTION SHOULD BE IMPLEMENTED AS IS, WITHOUT ANY CHANGES. MEANWHILE THE RN, NATIONAL AND RADICAL DEMOCRACY PARTIES MET TO PLAN A COMMON STRATEGY ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AND CANDIDATE LISTS FOR UPCOMING CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, INDICATED THAT THE GROUP HAD REACHED AGREEMENT ON SEVERAL KEY ISSUES, INCLUDING A FORMULA FOR MODIFYING ARTICLE 8 (WHICH PROHIBITS COMMUNIST ORGANIZATIONS): CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS, POWERS OF THE CONGRESS, AND QUALIFICATIONS FOR CANDIDATES FOR THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AND THE SENATE. THE MAJOR QUESTIONS STILL TO BE RESOLVED WERE THE MAKEUP OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE MECHANISM FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. BESIDES CUMPLIDO (PDC), THE OTHER COPODE MEMBERS OF THE JOINT TECHNICAL COMMISSION ARE CARLOS ANDRADE (RADICAL PARTY), ADOLFO VELOSO (ALMEYDA SOCIALIST), JOSE ANTONIO VIERA (NUNEZ SOCIALIST), AND JUAN ENRIQUE PRIETO (HUMANIST). THE FIVE MEMBERS DESIGNATED BY RN ARE CARLOS REYMOND (RN), RICARDO RIVADENEIRA (EX RN PRESIDENT), JOSE LUIS CEA (INDEPENDENT CONSTITUTIONALIST), ENRIQUE BARROS (INDEPENDENT), AND OSCAR GODOY (INDEPENDENT). THE COMMISSION EXPECTS TO FINISH DELIBERATIONS WITHIN A WEEK, SO THAT A FINAL REPORT CAN BE APPROVED BY THE END OF MARCH.

6. (C) COMMENT: MOST OPPOSITION LEADERS REMAIN SKEPTICAL ABOUT PINOCHET'S MOTIVES AND POINT OUT HE COULD STILL PULL THE RUG OUT FROM UNDER CACERES. IN A RECENT MEETING WITH POLOFFS, LEFT SOCIALIST LEADER LUIS MAIRA CALLED PINOCHET THE MOST UNPREDICTABLE MAN IN CHILE. HOWEVER, HE RECOGNIZED THAT WINNING THE MORE FLEXIBLE MECHANISM FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AND A FOUR-YEAR PRESIDENTIAL TERM WOULD BE IMPORTANT ADVANCES WHICH COULD BENEFIT BOTH SIDES. HE OBSERVED THAT IT WAS IN THE COUNTRY'S

INTEREST TO HAVE PINOCHET WAITING FOUR YEARS FOR ANOTHER RUN AT THE PRESIDENCY, RATHER THAN PLANNING ANOTHER COUP WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF A NEW ADMINISTRATION.

7. (C) THE BIGGEST POINT OF CONTENTION AND CONFUSION IS THE LACK OF AN ELECTION DISTRICTING LAW. WHILE PINOCHET WAS STEALING THE MODERATES' THUNDER ON MARCH 11, HE WAS WORKING BEHIND THE SCENES TO GERRYMANDER THE NEW CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS. BY DELAYING THE BILL HE IS CAGILY PREVENTING RIVAL OPPOSITION LEADERS LIKE AYLWIN AND LAGOS FROM COMING TO AN ELECTORAL AGREEMENT. NEVERTHELESS MANY CENTER-LEFT POLITICIANS SEEM AWARE THEY MUST BE CAREFUL NOT TO LET PINOCHET'S LATEST INITIATIVE DIVIDE THEM. AN RN-PDC ACCORD WOULD MAKE IT HARD FOR THE PRESIDENT TO CLAIM THAT THE CHIEF PARTIES COULDN'T SEE EYE TO EYE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AND EQUALLY DIFFICULT FOR COPODE TO REJECT A PLEBISCITE ON THE BASIS THAT THE REFORM DID NOT GO FAR ENOUGH. ALTHOUGH IT IS TOO EARLY TO TELL, THE DISTRACTION OF THE FRUIT EXPORT CRISIS MAY JUST GIVE CACERES A FREER HAND TO MAKE PROGRESS ON THE ISSUE WITHOUT BEING IMPEDED BY HARD-LINERS LIKE MELNICK. END COMMENT. GILLESPIE

Dear Senator Biden:

This is in response to your inquiry concerning the pending case involving the medical records of the Vicariate of Solidarity in Chile. Your letter was on behalf of Reverend Douglas Smith of South Bend, Indiana.

The United States Government has followed this case closely since its inception. Our Ambassador to Chile, Charles Gillespie, Jr. recently met with Bishop Sergio Valech, head of the Vicariate, to discuss this case and other matters involving the human rights work of the Church. We have also raised this case with high officials of the Chilean Government. On February 3, 1989 our Embassy's Charge d' Affaires, George Jones, called on Bishop Valech at Vicariate headquarters to express again the U.S. Government's support for the Vicariate's efforts to promote human rights.

Following that meeting, Mr. Jones reiterated in an interview with the press the U.S. Government's long-standing view that the Vicariate of Solidarity is a highly respected human rights organization with a well-deserved international reputation and that we would deeply regret any action which would compromise the ability of the Vicariate to perform effectively its important activities.

Support for a return to democracy and respect for human and civil rights is the cornerstone of U.S. policy toward Chile. Accordingly, we will continue to follow the Vicariate case with great interest.

If we can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Janet G. Mullins
Assistant Secretary
Legislative Affairs

SUBJ: AYLWIN PROPOSES EXPERTS COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM TO GOC

REF: SANTIAGO 2595

1. (U) IN AN HISTORIC MEETING IN LA MONEDA ON MARCH 15, PDC PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN PROPOSED TO INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES THE FORMATION OF A BIPARTITE COMMISSION MODELLED ON THE JOINT COMMISSION CREATED BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY, TO DRAW UP A PROGRAM FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. AT THE END OF THE ENCOUNTER, WHICH HE CHARACTERIZED AS ENORMOUSLY IMPORTANT AND PRODUCTIVE, AYLWIN SAID THAT HE HAD COME WITH THE PATRIOTIC SPIRIT OF CONTRIBUTING TO A PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY AS WELL AS TO RECONCILIATION AMONG CHILEANS. "WE ARE OPEN TO THE SEARCH FOR AN ACCORD," HE EMPHASIZED.

CONFIDENTIAL

2. (U) AYLWIN REPORTEDLY EXPLAINED TO CACERES THAT THE PDC SUPPORTS THE PETITION OF CONSITUTIONAL REFORMS PRESENTED BY THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY CENTER-LEFT COALITION (COPODE) ON OCTOBER 14. IN PARTICULAR, HE FOCUSSED ON THE IMPORTANCE OF A FULLY-ELECTED CONGRESS AND THE NEED FOR PROMPT

PROMULGATION OF AN EQUITABLE ELECTORAL DISTRICTING LAW WHICH IS ESSENTIAL TO DELINEATE THE PLAYING FIELD FOR UPCOMING PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS. HE ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED LEGISLATION WHICH WOULD CHANGE THE RULES OF THE GAME ON WHO CAN RUN FOR OFFICE, QUALIFYING MINISTERS AND HEADS OF UNIONS AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS WHO ARE PRESENTLY PROHIBITED BY THE CONSTITUTION. AYLWIN SUGGESTED THAT SUCH CHANGES BE INCORPORATED INTO THE PROPOSAL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, RATHER THAN INSERTED UNDER THE GUISE OF "INTERPRETIVE" LEGISLATION.

3. (U) AFTER BEING ESCORTED BY CARABINEROS ACROSS CONSTITUTION PLAZA, AYLWIN PROCEEDED TO A FULL MEETING OF COPODE LEADERS, TO WHOM HE REPORTED ON THE CONVERSATION IN LA MONEDA. SOME RAISED COMPLAINTS THAT THE BODY AS A WHOLE WAS NOT CONSULTED PRIOR TO AYLWIN'S ACCEPTING THE APPOINTMENT WITH CACERES, WHILE OTHERS ASSERTED THAT HE HAD ACTED CORRECTLY (SEE REFTEL). A DEBATE ON THE SUBJECT WAS SCHEDULED FOR THE FOLLOWING DAY, AT WHICH TIME THE COALITION WILL ALSO HEAR REPORTS FROM THE TECHNICIANS ASSIGNED TO THE RN-PDC COMMISSION.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. (LOU) THE JOVIAL AYLWIN-CACERES HANDSHAKE RECEIVED GALA COVERAGE IN THE MORNING PRESS, IN STARK CONTRAST TO THE CRESCENDO OF DISMAL NEWS ABOUT THE RESULTS OF THE FRUIT EXPORT CRISIS. AYLWIN HAS BROKEN THE LONG HIATUS OF OPPOSITION POLITICIAN MEETINGS WITH GOC LEADERS WHICH DATES FROM THE FAILED 1984 NEGOTIATIONS WITH THEN MINISTER OF INTERIOR SERGIO ONOFRE JARPA. CACERES IS APPARENTLY CONSIDERING INVITING RIVAL OPPOSITION PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES ENRIQUE SILVA CIMMA AND EUGENIO VELASCO TO JOIN THE DIALOGUE. THIS COULD TAKE SOME OF THE HEAT OFF AYLWIN FROM THE LEFT WITHIN THE COPODE ALLIANCE. THE FACT THAT AYLWIN JUST WON A KEY VOTE IN THE PDC NATIONAL COUNCIL -- WHICH AGREED BY 20-2 TO SUPPORT WORKING TOWARD A "GRAND COALITION" GOVERNMENT OF THE SEVENTEEN OPPOSITION PARTIES RATHER THAN A "SMALL COALITION" GOVERNMENT WITH THE FIVE CENTRIST PARTIES --

SHOULD HELP HIM IN TAMING THE LIONS WITHIN COPODE.

5. (C) UDI LEADER JAIME GUZMAN, WHO IS NOW SCHEDULED TO MEET CACERES ON MARCH 17, TOLD EMBOFFS HE WOULD PUSH FOR A COPODE AGREEMENT TO FOREGO ANY FUTURE REFORMS IN EXCHANGE FOR THE CHANGES MADE BEFORE THE ELECTIONS. THE OPPOSITION WILL STRONGLY RESIST BEING BOXED INTO ANY SUCH AGREEMENT. GILLESPIE

1. (C) SUMMARY. FORMER PRESIDENT DANIEL ODUBER, SUMMONED BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE'S SPECIAL NARCOTICS COMMISSION, EXPLAINED AWAY HIS TIES WITH KNOWN NARCOTICS TRAFFICKERS AS MERE POLITICKING AND FUND-RAISING FOR THE PLN. HE PINNED COSTA RICA'S DRUG PROBLEMS ON THE USG, SPECIFICALLY THE CIA'S "TURNING A BLIND EYE" TOWARD DRUG RUNNING BY THE NICARAGUAN RESISTANCE. ODUBER CLAIMED TO HAVE FOUGHT THIS ACTIVITY, ADDING THAT HE HAD SENT NUMEROUS TRAFFICKERS TO JAIL BASED ON INFORMATION HE PROVIDED TO AUTHORITIES.

3. (U) U.S. TRAFFICKER JAMES LIONEL CASEY

THE SUMMONS FOR ODUBER TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE COMMISSION (HE SKIPPED TWO SCHEDULED APPEARANCES BEFORE SHOWING UP) WAS PROMPTED BY HIS INVOLVEMENT WITH ACCUSED AMCIT TRAFFICKER JAMES LIONEL CASEY (SAN JOSE 1248). ODUBER ADMITTED THAT HE HAD KNOWN CASEY SOCIALLY SINCE 1982 OR 1983 AND THAT HE HAD RECEIVED A 20,000 DOLLAR CAMPAIGN DONATION FROM HIM FOR THE PLN'S 1986 CAMPAIGN. HE REFUSED, HOWEVER, TO PROVIDE THE COMMISSION ANY DETAILS ON THE MATTER, CLAIMING HE HAD SAID ALL HE HAD TO SAY TO THE PLN'S ETHICS COMMITTEE. THE DEPUTIES DID NOT

PRESS FOR FURTHER DETAILS.

(THE NEXT DAY, THE PRESIDENT OF THE PLN'S ETHICS COMMITTEE, DEPUTY ANTONIO TACSAN, TOLD THE PRESS THAT ODUBER HAD INDEED GIVEN A SATISFACTORY EXPLANATION OF THE CASEY DONATION TO A CLOSED SESSION OF HIS COMMITTEE ON MARCH 1.)

4. (U) JOHN HULL AND THE CIA LINKED TO DRUG TRAFFICKING

ODUBER WENT INTO GREAT DETAIL ON THIS THEME, SAYING IT WAS IMPORTANT TO AN UNDERSTANDING OF COSTA RICA'S ROLE IN THE DRUG TRADE. IN THE EARLY 1980'S, ODUBER SAID, HE HEARD THAT "THE CENTER OF ANTI-SANDINISTA ACTIVITIES IN COSTA RICA WAS THE RANCH OF JOHN HULL IN GUANACASTE." FURTHER, ODUBER SAID, THE ANTI-FSLN EFFORT WAS CLOSELY TIED TO NARCOTICS AND THE CIA. ARMS WOULD COME IN, AND DRUGS WOULD GO OUT, ODUBER CLAIMED. THE CIA, "IN ITS DESPERATION TO OVERTHROW THE SANDINISTAS CLOSED ITS EYES TO THE NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING." EVEN U.S. CUSTOMS IN THE UNITED STATES WAS SUBORNED. THE DRUG SMUGGLING CAUSED PROBLEMS BETWEEN THE CIA AND THE DEA IN COSTA RICA, BUT THE CIA WON OUT.

THE 1984 LA PENCA BOMB ATTACK ON EDEN PASTORA SHOWED THAT "IT WAS DECIDED TO KILL PASTORA BECAUSE HE WOULDN'T PLAY BALL WITH THE CIA." ODUBER CLAIMED THAT THE "FORMER CHIEF OF THE CIA HERE, JOE FERNANDEZ, IS NOW DOING EIGHT YEARS IN JAIL (SIC) FOR THESE SHAMEFUL ACTIVITIES, AND FOR HAVING LIED

TO THE U.S. CONGRESS." IN BRIEF, THE U.S. EFFORT

SUBJECT: ODUBER ON DRUG ISSUE: ABSOLVES HIMSELF,

WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL, DESPITE THE EFFORTS OF FERNANDEZ AND OF FORMER AMBASSADOR TAMBS, "AN EXPERT IN DRUGS AND ARMS."

U.S. POLICY TOWARD NICARAGUA, HOWEVER, DID MUCH TO DAMAGE COSTA RICA, ODUBER SAID. POLICE OFFICIALS IN GUANACASTE (PROVINCE WHERE ODUBER HAS A RANCH) WERE BRIBED; PATRIOTIC COSTA RICANS WERE SMEARED AT THE BEHEST OF THE CIA AND THE AMERICAN EMBASSY TO PROTECT U.S. INTERESTS. "MUDSLINGING EXPERTS" OF THE BUSH CAMPAIGN TRIED TO BLAME THE DRUG PROBLEM ON THE PRODUCING COUNTRIES WHEN IT WAS THE "MIDDLEMEN" WHO WERE THE MOST DANGEROUS.

ODUBER, HOWEVER, SAID HE HAD DONE MUCH TO COMBAT

[redacted]

THE CURSE OF DRUG TRAFFICKING IN GUANACASTE; HE HAD PROVIDED MANY NAMES TO THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC SECURITY AND NUMEROUS CRIMINALS WERE IN JAIL BECAUSE OF WHAT HE HAD DONE. ASKED IF THE OPERATION CENTERED ON THE HULL RANCH WAS "PROTECTED" BY THE MONGE ADMINISTRATION, ODUBER REPLIED THAT IT MUST HAVE BEEN, BUT IT WAS THE DRUG COMMISSION'S JOB, NOT HIS, TO FIND OUT WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE.

5. (U) NORIEGA AND U.S. POLICY

ODUBER SAID HE HAD KNOWN NORIEGA SINCE 1968, WHEN TORRIJOS INTRODUCED THEM. THE SITUATION IN PANAMA NOW, HE SAID, WAS "MORE THE FAULT OF THE UNITED STATES THAN OF NORIEGA." AFTER ALL, ODUBER SAID, "THE CIA PAID NORIEGA 200,000 DOLLARS FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES AND THE DEA WROTE HIM A LETTER THANKING HIM FOR HIS EFFORTS IN COMBATING NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING." NORIEGA, IN BRIEF, WAS THE "SPOILED CHILD" OF THE CIA, ESPECIALLY WHEN HE BEGAN TO HELP IN THE ANTI-SANDINISTA STRUGGLE. AS FOR NORIEGA'S INVOLVEMENT IN DRUG TRAFFICKING, ODUBER SAID HE KNEW NOTHING OF IT.

6. (U) RELATIONS WITH FERNANDO MELO, ET AL.

ODUBER OBSERVED THAT ACCUSED TRAFFICKER MELO HAD LONG BEEN A PLN ACTIVIST AND FUND-RAISER. HE HAD BEEN HERE SINCE THE EARLY 1970'S, AND HAD HELPED ODUBER IN THE "ANTI-CASTRO STRUGGLES OF THAT TIME PERIOD." MELO, ACCORDING TO ODUBER, LIKED TO THROW PARTIES AND RAISE MONEY FOR "ALL THE PLN CANDIDATES THAT I CAN REMEMBER." ASKED IF HAD EVER "MADE ANY CALLS ON BEHALF OF MELO," ODUBER ADMITTED THAT HE HAD, BUT HE DID NOT RECALL TO WHOM OR FOR WHAT REASON. ODUBER SAID HE DID NOT KNOW RECENTLY-EXTRADITED TRAFFICKER ROBERTO FIONNA, BUT THAT HE HAD ACCEPTED ONE FREE MEAL IN HIS RESTAURANT -- "A MISTAKE," HE NOTED. ODUBER ALSO ADMITTED HE KNEW RICARDO UMANA (FIRED BY THE JUDICIAL POLICE FOR TIES WITH FIONNA) WHO ONCE ASKED HIM TO TALK TO SUPREME COURT JUSTICES ABOUT GETTING HIM A BETTER POSITION IN THE OIJ. ODUBER SAID HE DECLINED.

7. (U) QUESTIONS EXTRADITION FOR SUSPECTED TRAFFICKERS

ODUBER NOTED THAT MANY COUNTRIES WERE SEEKING EXTRADITION FROM COSTA RICA FOR SUSPECTED TRAFFICKERS LIKE CASEY AND FIONNA. NEVERTHELESS, ODUBER WONDERED ABOUT THE PROPRIETY OF A COUNTRY SEEKING EXTRADITION AFTER SOMEONE HAD BEEN IN COSTA RICA "FOUR OR FIVE YEARS, AS A GOOD FAITH INVESTOR, AND MANY OF THEM WITH COSTA RICAN WIVES, DOCTORS, LAWYERS AND THE LIKE; THE LEGISLATURE SHOULD TAKE A LOOK AT THIS PRACTICE OF OTHER COUNTRIES SEEKING SUCH LATE EXTRADITION."

OUTCOME WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN POSSIBLE WITHOUT THE ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT OF A NUMBER OF COUNCIL REPS, PARTICULARLY THE UK REP. TEXT OF RESOLUTION IS AT PARA 11. END SUMMARY.

2. THE SHOOT-DOWN OF IR 655 WAS AGAIN TAKEN UP BY THE COUNCIL OF THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION (ICAO) ON MARCH 13. DISCUSSION WAS CONCLUDED MARCH 17 WITH ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION CONTAINED PARA 11. IN ANTICIPATION OF DIFFICULT DISCUSSIONS IN COUNCIL, COMMANDER JOHN MORGAN (JCS) ARRIVED MARCH 8 AND BEGAN A SERIES OF BRIEFINGS TO EXPLAIN TO COUNCIL MEMBERS THE PRECISE SEQUENCE OF EVENTS WHICH RESULTED IN THE MISTAKEN IDENTIFICATION OF IR 655 AND ITS SHOOT-DOWN BY THE VINCENNES ON JULY 3, 1988. WHEN SOME COUNCIL MEMBERS PROVED RELUCTANT TO ATTEND A BRIEFING IN THE U.S. OFFICE, MORGAN WENT TO THEIRS. IN THE END, EVERY COUNCIL MEMBER PRESENT IN MONTREAL EXCEPT ONE WAS BRIEFED. THE FRENCH REP, WHO CHOSE NOT TO BE BRIEFED BY COMMANDER MORGAN, WAS REPRESENTED BY HIS MILITARY ATTACHE FROM OTTAWA. (THE NIGERIAN REP WAS ABSENT FROM MONTREAL. THE SENEGAL REP RECENTLY DIED AND HAS NOT YET BEEN REPLACED.) THE SUCCESS OF THIS EFFORT CAN BE MEASURED BY THE FACT THAT VIRTUALLY ALL COUNCIL MEMBERS, INCLUDING THE SOVIETS, SAID DURING COUNCIL DELIBERATIONS THAT THE SHOOT-DOWN WAS ACCIDENTAL, UNPREMEDITATED OR THE RESULT OF AN ERROR.

SOVIET REP) CHARACTERIZING THE SHOOT-DOWN AS SOMETHING OTHER THAN DELIBERATE. OTHER MAJOR THEMES WERE THE NEED FOR IMPROVED MILITARY/CIVILIAN COORDINATION AND ADOPTION OF A COUNCIL RESOLUTION BY CONSENSUS. ONLY THE SOVIETS, CZECHS AND CUBANS OPENLY CALLED FOR THE SHOOT-DOWN TO BE CONDEMNED. OBVIOUSLY CONCERNED, THE IRANIANS SAID THEY TOO FAVORED IMPROVED CIVIL/MILITARY COORDINATION BUT THAT THE COUNCIL WOULD NOT BE CARRYING OUT ITS DUTY TO PROTECT THE SAFETY OF CIVIL AVIATION IF IT DID NOT CONDEMN THE DESTRUCTION OF A CIVIL AIRCRAFT IN FLIGHT. IN VIEW OF THE BROAD SENTIMENT AMONG COUNCIL MEMBERS FOR A CONSENSUS RESOLUTION, THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT UNDERTOOK TO CONSULT PRIVATELY TO SEE IF A TEXT COULD BE AGREED.

4. NEGOTIATIONS BEGAN ON THE BASIS OF A TEXT INITIALLY PREPARED AT THE INITIATIVE OF THE UKREP AND AGREED BY THE U.S. AND THE WESTERN GROUP (REF B). CONSULTING PRIVATELY WITH THE U.S., USSR AND IRAN, THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT DEVELOPED A MUTUALLY AGREED TEXT EXCEPT THAT DISAGREEMENT REMAINED OVER WHETHER THE COUNCIL SHOULD REGRET THE EVENTS AND ERRORS LEADING TO THE SHOOT-DOWN OR CONDEMN THE SPECIFIC USE OF ARMED FORCE. AT THAT STAGE USDEL HAD AGREED TO THE TEXT THAT WAS EVENTUALLY ADOPTED (PARA 11, BELOW) EXCEPT THAT THE FIFTH PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH BEGAN WITH "RECALLING," AND THE FIRST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH BEGAN WITH "DEEPLY REGRETS." THE SOVIETS WERE PRESSING TO REPLACE THE FIRST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH WITH "CONDEMNS THE USE OF ARMED FORCE AGAINST CIVIL AIRCRAFT, IN PARTICULAR

THE INCIDENT WHICH RESULTED IN THE DESTRUCTION OF AN IRAN AIR AIRLINER AND THE TRAGIC LOSS OF 290 LIVES." NEGOTIATIONS BROKE DOWN ON THE MORNING OF MARCH 16, WITH THE FINAL U.S. OFFER BEING TO ACCEPT "DEPLORES" AND THE FINAL SOVIET OFFER BEING "CONDEMNS THE USE OF ARMED FORCE AGAINST CIVIL AVIATION, INCLUDING THE ACT WHICH RESULTED

FIRST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH. IT WAS SUBMITTED MINUTES BEFORE A SOVIET DRAFT RESOLUTION, GIVING THE WESTERN TEXT PRIORITY UNDER THE RULES OF PROCEDURE. THE SOVIET PROPOSAL WAS IDENTICAL TO THE WESTERN TEXT EXCEPT THAT IT CONTAINED THE SOVIET VERSION OF THE FIRST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH. THE WESTERN TEXT WAS CIRCULATED AS A DRAFT RESOLUTION; THE SOVIET TEXT, COSPONSORED BY THE CZECHS, WAS CIRCULATED AS A PROPOSED AMENDMENT. LATER IN THE DAY, SPAIN JOINED THE OTHER WESTERN STATES AS A COSPONSOR. THE MORNING OF MARCH 17 SWEDEN ANNOUNCED ITS WITHDRAWAL AS A COSPONSOR; AUSTRALIA ANNOUNCED IT WAS ADDING ITS NAME TO THE LIST.

6. THROUGHOUT THE PROCESS USDEL HAD COORDINATED CLOSELY WITH THE WESTERN GROUP AND HAD ALSO MET PRIVATELY WITH VIRTUALLY EVERY MEMBER OF COUNCIL. IT WAS APPARENT THAT THE SOVIET AMENDMENT WOULD FAIL IN AN OPEN VOTE IF WE CALLED FOR APPLICATION OF RULE 63 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE, WHICH PROVIDES THAT AT THE REQUEST OF A COUNCIL MEMBER A MEASURE MAY BE APPROVED ONLY WITH THE AGREEMENT OF A MAJORITY OF THE COUNCIL, I.E. 17 YES VOTES. ABSTENTIONS WOULD COUNT AGAINST THE AMENDMENT. A LARGE NUMBER OF COUNCIL MEMBERS URGED USDEL TO CALL FOR A SO-CALLED STATUTORY MAJORITY UNDER RULE 63 AND TO ALSO REQUEST A SECRET VOTE. IT WAS ARGUED THAT A NUMBER OF LDC REPS WOULD VOTE AGAINST THE SOVIET AMENDMENT IN A SECRET VOTE BUT ABSTAIN IN A PUBLIC VOTE. WHAT WAS MORE IMPORTANT, THE ARGUMENT RAN, WAS THAT IN CALLING FOR A SECRET VOTE USDEL WOULD WIN LDC VOTES FOR A RESOLUTION NOT CONTAINING A

CONDEMNATION OF THE ACT. FAILURE TO ADOPT ANY RESOLUTION WOULD RESULT IN CARRYING THE MATTER OVER INTO THE ICAO ASSEMBLY IN SEPTEMBER, A FORUM MUCH LESS FAVORABLE THAN THE COUNCIL.

DURING A BREAK CALLED FOR CONSULTATIONS AMONG DELEGATIONS, USDEL AGREED WITH WESTERN GROUP TO REPLACEMENT OF "REAFFIRMING" WITH "RECALLING" IN THE FIFTH PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPH AND REPLACEMENT OF "DEEPLY REGRETS" WITH "DEPLORES" IN THE FIRST OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH. USDEL DECLINED TO ACCEPT ELIMINATION OF THE WORD "ACCIDENTAL," AS WAS BEING URGED BY THE INDIAN, SAUDI ARABIAN AND PERUVIAN REPS. ADDITIONAL CONSULTATIONS CONFIRMED THE PROBABILITY THAT WHAT WAS NOW BEING CALLED THE WESTERN TEXT WOULD BE AMENDED FROM THE FLOOR IN UNPREDICTABLE WAYS UNLESS THE COSPONSORS AGREED IN ADVANCE TO "REAFFIRMING" IN THE PLACE OF "RECALLING" AND "DEEPLY DEPLORES" IN THE PLACE OF "DEEPLY REGRETS."

9. WHEN COUNCIL RESUMED THE UK REP, SPEAKING ON BEHALF OF THE COSPONSORS, SAID THAT FOLLOWING THE VOTE ON THE SOVIET AMENDMENT HE WOULD PROPOSE AMENDMENTS TO THE DRAFT RESOLUTION WHICH HE BELIEVED ON THE BASIS OF CONSULTATIONS TO BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE LARGE MAJORITY OF THE COUNCIL AS THE BASIS FOR A CONSENSUS DECISION. THE PRESIDENT THEN MOVED TO A VOTE ON THE SOVIET AMENDMENT. CZECHOSLOVAKIA, SECONDED BY THE USSR, CALLED FOR A SECRET BALLOT. USREP CALLED FOR A STATUTORY MAJORITY UNDER RULE 63. THE VOTING FOR THE SOVIET AMENDMENT WAS 6 IN FAVOR, 19 AGAINST, AND 6 ABSTENTIONS.

THE CHAIR DECLARED THE RESOLUTION AS AMENDED BY THE COSPONSORS, ADOPTED. -- The Soviet Union, Cuba, Nicaragua and Bloc countries, have continued their support for subversion on the Central American Isthmus. The principal beneficiaries of this military aid are the Salvadoran guerrillas. This assistance is entering its ninth year and shows no signs of abating.

-- By means of recently captured weapons and an extensive body of intelligence, there is no doubt that the Nicaraguans and the Cubans are engaged in a large-scale effort to equip the Salvadoran guerrillas (FMLN) with Soviet-made AKM, AK-47, Dragonov sniper rifles, hand grenades, explosives and RPG-2, 7 and 18 weapons.

-- In January, Salvadoran troops in La Union found a large cache of Soviet mortar grenades, launchers and other Soviet-made weapons.

-- AKM and AK-47 ammunition is of Cuban manufacture, stamped with "Cuban Ammunition Loading Factory 13". Some are dated as recently as 1988.

-- The Soviet manufacture of these weapons and the large amounts of such weapons and ammunition makes it obvious that with Soviet support the Nicaraguans and the Cubans are increasing their destabilization of El Salvador.

-- Contrary to what the FMLN has been saying for over nine years, they cannot sustain their violent attacks from weapons and ammunition captured from the Salvadoran military. In fact, before the introduction of Soviet-made weapons, 70% of FMLN ammunition needs came from Nicaragua and Cuba and we continued to trace the serial numbers of captured M-16s to U.S. and South Vietnamese units which were in Vietnam.

-- The change to Soviet-made weapons also reveals that the FMLN has opted to increase its dependence on Nicaragua, Cuba and the Bloc and is confident of their continuing logistical support.

-- Information from Sandinista defectors and other intelligence clearly shows Nicaraguan involvement in providing vessels to transport materiel from Nicaragua to off-shore points where the cargo is then transferred to smaller boats for delivery to FMLN units inside El Salvador. Two points of delivery include the mouth of the Lempa River and the Jucuaran coastal area.

-- There has been a significant rise in clandestine deliveries of arms and weapons to the FMLN associated with peace negotiations.

An even more dramatic increase in sea-borne deliveries occurred after the U.S. cut-off of lethal assistance to the Nicaraguan Resistance. Since 1987 deliveries have doubled.

-- Apart from weapons and ammunition, the Cubans and Nicaraguans also supply critical support to the FMLN.

-- The FMLN headquarters in Nicaragua remains the central command and control entity for the five guerrilla factions of the guerrilla movement. Guerrilla commanders routinely travel to Nicaragua to hold meetings and obtain military advice from Nicaraguan and Cuban advisors there. At times there is little attempt to conceal these meetings. On June 30, 1988 FMLN commander Joaquin Villalobos was awarded the Camilo Ortega decoration by Sandinista Minister of Defense Humberto Ortega. The award was given to Villalobos at a military ceremony in Nicaragua during which Ortega pledged continued Sandinista support to the FMLN.

-- Captured guerrillas continue to provide consistent details of advanced military training, to include demolitions, sabotage and urban operations, taken in Nicaragua, Cuba and Vietnam. Two such guerrillas captured last year detailed advanced training received in Cuba intermittently over the last five years.

-- A counter-intelligence officer from the Sandinista army who deserted last June detailed Cuban tactics and weapons training during 1986-1988 for the FMLN.

-- Cubana Airlines had been used to transport Salvadoran guerrillas to and from Nicaragua and Cuba for training. These were usually chartered flights. Extraordinary measures are undertaken by Cuban authorities to conceal the identities and weapons of the guerrillas.

-- The FMLN secure communications network was set up with the assistance of Sandinista, Cuban and Bloc experts. The FMLN uses codebooks supplied by the Sandinista government.

-- The offices and transmitters of the FMLN's Radio Venceremos are still located in Nicaragua. Sandinista support is in clear violation of their commitments under the Esquipulas II accords.

-- The Sandinistas provide several safe houses for FMLN guerrillas in Managua and elsewhere in the country.

El Salvador Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

-- The Mexican newspaper "Excelsior" published an interview with Nicaraguan President Ortega on June 24, 1987 where he publicly admitted that the Sandinistas have provided arms to the FMLN. During the Esquipulas meetings Ortega conceded that his government provides aid to the FMLN each time the U.S. increases military assistance to the Government of El Salvador.

-- An employee of the Sandinista Security Directorate (DGSE), that defected in October, disclosed that last September a Cuban advisor to the DGSE was actively recruiting Nicaraguan volunteers to pose as refugees inside El Salvador and report on U.S. and Salvadoran military personnel and facilities.

-- In a February 9, 1988 letter to the UN Secretary General (attached) Salvadoran Foreign Minister Acevedo denounced Nicaraguan support to the FMLN and provided a detailed list of this aid. It included:

-detailed locations on guerrilla training centers in Nicaragua;

-specific locations of bases and logistical depots in Nicaragua used by the FMLN;

-the personal residences of FMLN commanders and safe-houses in and around Managua;

-propaganda and support centers including the locations of Radio Venceremos offices, transmitters and transmission frequencies for Radio Venceremos; and

-a description of Sandinista government support to the family members of guerrilla commanders and guerrilla cadre.

-- Since FSLN violations were revealed in the Esquipulas negotiations and through the letter to Perez de Cuellar referred to above, the Sandinistas have become more discreet in their support to the FMLN.

-- While we acknowledge that there is no evidence that the Soviets are directly involved in the shipment of weapons to the FMLN or the provision of guerrilla training, they do provide the assistance and overall guidance to the Cubans and the Nicaraguans for this destabilization campaign.

-- As far back as one year ago, the clandestine entity referred to as "The Bureau," under the direction of Sandinista Commandante Bayardo Arce, was preparing for the delivery of 10,000 rifles then in Nicaragua to the FMLN in El Salvador. The deliveries of Soviet-made weapons in the last three months is doubtless a part of those stocks.

CENTRAL AMERICA

-- Central America is of vital importance to us, so we have a special interest in the verification proposal you are discussing with the five Central Americans.

-- Before we turn to that let me outline our thoughts about a comprehensive settlement to the crisis facing the region.

-- We are working actively with our Congress, the Central Americans and others to construct a set of proposals that will lead to lasting democracy and security for all Central Americans

-- The focus of our policy will be on political and diplomatic efforts to achieve that. A comprehensive approach is needed. Trying to resolve it piecemeal, or in stages, will only make an overall settlement more difficult to achieve.

-- Its centerpiece is Esquipulas, an integrated approach which links internal democratization to a process of national dialogue and the reintegration of insurgent forces and political opposition into national political life.

-- Any meaningful effort to achieve peace must include a genuine democratic opening in Nicaragua, as the Central Americans themselves said at Esquipulas and most recently at Tesoro Beach. Genuinely free elections in Nicaragua are essential. Assuring the right conditions for a free election is a complex undertaking. We are eager to join the Central Americans in seeing this work. Any UN verification of democratization should fit in with the other multilateral, private and USG efforts.

-- We think the security verification plan under discussion can contribute to that as well.

-- While we have some suggestions on how the verification plan can be strengthened, let me start by going back to the letter you wrote to the Central Americans when they first raised the issue in Mexico.

You elaborated some of your concerns in that letter. We share those concerns. It is critical that the verification force have an adequate mandate and sufficient staffing to be effective. That mandate must relate to the provisions of Esquipulas requiring that no national territory be used for subversion against neighboring countries. I would like to raise several of the points you raised and ask you to review the progress that has been made in addressing them.

-- Your letter stated that the UN required a clear mandate before it engaged in the process. Are you satisfied with the mandate outlined in the latest working draft?

-- Are you satisfied you will be given the resources--not just people but the appropriate authority--to fulfill your mission? Seems to us, for example, that 100 observers is insufficient to verify non-use of territory for subversion.

-- Your letter also stated that the observation force would need the cooperation of insurgent groups in the area. Have you talked to these insurgent groups? Do they approve? Some parties have suggested at least informally that the plan needs to be vetted with the insurgent groups before it goes forward. How can we assist in this process?

-- Your letter stated that peacekeeping forces can buy time but that they cannot resolve underlying political issues that give rise to conflict: that, you said, was a job for diplomacy. You added that it is difficult to imagine that the region's conflicts could be resolved if insurgent groups were not included in the peace process. Have you been able to address these concerns? The working draft makes no mention of this important aspect.

-- Your letter also suggested that the composition of the peacekeeping force was a decision for the United Nations. Have you chosen Canada, Spain and West Germany to form the observer group, or is this issue still undecided?

Let me add one thought to those you elaborated. We support the reintegration of the Nicaraguan Resistance into Nicaragua once their safety and full civil and political rights are assured. While some progress has been made, much more is needed. The process will take time and careful coordination. We must assure that our efforts and yours go forward in tandem. We should review carefully together the interrelationship of security arrangements, refugee repatriation and democratization.

We believe the OAS has important roles to play in the Central American peace process.

--It may be that the past experience of the OAS in Central American peacekeeping operations could increase the effectiveness of ONUCA.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

--In political verification, the resources of the OAS, including, obviously, the IAHRC, should enable it to play a leading role in harmonizing the requirements of democracy with those of sovereignty.

As I said, we think we can be helpful in addressing these issues. I note in your letter that you call for the participation of interested parties who are not signatory to Esquipulas. We have an interest and we are eager to participate in a constructive way.

We are prepared to send a team to New York to discuss these issues in detail at your earliest convenience. We see such discussions and our close cooperation as essential if this venture is to be successful.

Finally, and speaking personally, I would note that this is a highly contentious issue in Washington. It would be easy for your role in this to become ensnarled in a partisan debate. That would be tragic at a time we are making such effort to return to full funding for the UN and to achieve a bipartisan consensus on Central America. We must work closely together to assure that does not happen.

We are also concerned that such a delicate undertaking should not fail; you and the UN have made so much progress in the past two years that the cost of a failure for all of us would be very high.

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 2642, (B) SANTIAGO 2595

1. U) ON MARCH 20 THE GOC DESIGNATED A TECHNICAL COMMISSION TO CONSULT VARIOUS POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS AND EVALUATE THEIR PROPOSALS FOR MODIFYING THE CONSTITUTION. THE COMMISSION, WHOSE FORMATION WAS FIRST SUGGESTED TO INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES BY PDC PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN (REF A), IS COMPOSED OF FOUR ATTORNEYS: RAUL BERTELSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION OF CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES; RAFAEL VALDIVIESO, STAFF DIRECTOR OF THE COUNCIL OF STATE (CES); ARTURO MARIN, CHIEF OF CABINET OF THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR; AND HERMOGENES PEREZ DE ARCE, STAFF MEMBER OF THE JUNTA'S JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION. THE COMMISSION WILL MEET IMMEDIATELY TO DRAW UP

AN AGENDA OF DISCUSSIONS WITH TECHNICAL COMMITTEES FORMED BY DIFFERENT POLITICAL PARTIES WITH THE AIM OF CREATING THE GROUNDWORK FOR A CONSENSUS ON REFORM PROPOSALS.

2. (U) THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO FORM THE COMMISSION WAS ANNOUNCED ON MARCH 17 BY UDI

PRESIDENT JAIME GUZMAN, FOLLOWING HIS MEETING WITH CACERES IN LA MONEDA. GUZMAN RECALLED THAT THE UDI HAD PRESENTED ITS OWN LIST OF SUGGESTED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS LAST JANUAWY, BUT THAT IT WAS OPEN TO INITIATIVES TAKEN BY OTHER PARTIES ON RELATED ISSUES. JDI SOURCES INFORM US THEIR PARTY HAS NAMED A TWO-PERSON TECHNICAL COMMISSION COMPOSED OF ANDRES CHADWICK (UDI POLITICAL COMMISSIONER) AND JOVINO NOVOA (UDI VICE PRESIDENT) TO ADVISE THE GOC ON THE ISSUE AND WORK WITH OTHER PARTIES' COMMITTEES OF CONSTITUTIONAL EXPERTS.

3. (U) MEANWHILE CACERES IS CONTINUING HIS ROUND OF DIALOGUES WITH LEADERS OF ESTABLISHED POLITICAL PARTIES. HE MET WITH NATIONAL PARTY PRESIDENT PATRICIO PHILLIPS ON MONDAY, AND IS SCHEDULED TO MEET LATER IN THE WEEK WITH SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC LEADER ARTURO VENEGAS AND WITH RADICAL PARTY PRESIDENT ENRIQUE SILVA CIMMA. IN A TELEVISED INTERVIEW ON MARCH 21, CACERES SAID THE GOC WOULD CALL A PLEBISCITE TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION ONLY IF A CONSENSUS HAD BEEN REACHED. HOWEVER HE SAID ALL THOSE WITH WHOM HE HAD MET WERE WILLING TO BRING ABOUT SUCH AN ACCORD, AND EXPRESSED OPTIMISM THAT A SOLUTION

WOULD BE REACHED TO ENSURE A STABLE TRANSITION.

4. (LOU) COMMENT: THE TEAM NAMED BY CACERES INCLUDES SEVERAL HIGH-LEVEL TECHNICIANS WHO HAD A GOOD DEAL TO DO WITH WRITING AND IMPLEMENTING THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. RAFAEL VALENZUELA DIRECTED THE COUNCIL OF STATE WHEN IT PLAYED A KEY ROLE IN DRAFTING THE CONSTITUTION; ARTURO MARIN UNTIL RECENTLY HEADED THE COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES (PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS THE FERNANDEZ COMMISSION) WHICH PRODUCED MOST OF THE POLITICAL LAWS PUTTING THE CONSTITUTION INTO EFFECT. THE PROCESS OF RULE-SETTING FOR A DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION IS MOVING FASTER THAN ANYONE ON EITHER THE RIGHT OR LEFT OF THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM HAD IMAGINED EARLY IN THE YEAR. SOURCES ON THE COUNCIL OF STATE INDICATE THAT THE ELECTION DISTRICTING LAW WILL BE REVIEWED BY THE JUNTA NEXT WEEK, &AND THAT

THE REVISED VERSION APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE INCLUDES AN APPROVAL OF ELECTORAL PACTS. IF TRUE, THAT WOULD BE ANOTHER MAJOR REVERSAL OF POSITION BY THE GOC (AS ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM), AND WOULD BE WELCOMED BY ALL THE POLITICAL PARTIES, RIGHT, LEFT AND CENTER.

MEMORANDUM

March 27, 1989

TO: L/EBC - Mr. Witten

FROM: L/ARA - Matt Adler

SUBJECT: Dispute Resolution Clause in Aviation Agreement

As we discussed, the US and Chile have yet to agree on the new President for the Commission to be established under the 1914 Treaty. Thus, there is no Commission in place. Moreover, prior to our invoking the Treaty in January, there was no functioning Commission (while Chile had named two members and there was a President, the US never named its members. Neither party has ever referred a case to the Commission).

I think that you can accomplish the same goal by simply referring to the Treaty, and fudging the question of whether or not the Commission has yet been established. I don't want to say "which may be established" because I don't want the Chileans to think that we even consider the possibility that they will not cooperate with the referral of the Letelier case to the Commission under the Treaty. I suggest the following:

"No dispute under this agreement shall be submitted to an International Commission established pursuant to the Treaty for the Settlement of Disputes That May Occur Between the United States of America and Chile, which entered into force on January 16, 1916."

2. SUMMARY: WE LIKE THE IDEA OF RESTORING GSP PRIVILEGES TO CHILE AS A TANGIBLE SIGN OF U.S. INTEREST IN HELPING CHILE'S ECONOMY IN THE WAKE OF THE FRUIT CRISIS. IT CAN BE JUSTIFIED, WE BELIEVE, WITHOUT UNDERMINING THE USG POSITION THAT IT WAS WARRANTED IN THE FIRST PLACE BECAUSE OF THE GREATLY IMPROVED POLITICAL SITUATION AND MODERATELY IMPROVED LABOR CLIMATE. HOWEVER, THE KEY TO OBTAINING THE NECESSARY POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR SUCH A MOVE IN THE U.S., AND TO MAINTAINING OUR CREDIBILITY IN CHILE, WILL BE GETTING THE GOC TO RELEASE INTERNALLY EXILED LABOR LEADERS MANUEL BUSTOS AND ARTURO MARTINEZ. GSP RESTORATION MAY BE JUST THE CARROT NEEDED TO GET THEM A PARDON. END SUMMARY.

AND CONGRESSMEN/STAFFERS WILL HAVE TO BE PERSUADED THAT THE POLITICAL SITUATION AND THE LABOR SITUATION WARRANT A CHANGE IN GSP. IN CHILE, SINCE WE BASED OUR WITHDRAWAL OF GSP BENEFITS ON LACK OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED WORKERS' RIGHTS, WE COULD NOT CREDIBLY RESTORE THE BENEFITS WITHOUT SOME STEP FORWARD ON LABOR. PRESIDENT PINOCHET WILL HAVE TO BE CONVINCED THAT THE RESTORATION OF GSP IS TOO VALUABLE TO HOLD HOSTAGE TO HIS DISLIKE OF UNIFIED WORKERS' CENTRAL PRESIDENT MANUEL BUSTOS.

4. WE BELIEVE A CASE CAN BE MADE THAT THE OVERALL POLITICAL SITUATION IN CHILE HAS IMPROVED DRAMATICALLY SINCE GSP RESTRICTIONS WERE IMPOSED IN DECEMBER 1987. ALTHOUGH THE LEAD-UP TO THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE WAS LESS THAN PERFECT, THE VOTE ITSELF WAS FREE AND FAIR AND CARRIED OUT IN A PEACEFUL ATMOSPHERE. MOST IMPORTANTLY, THE RESULTS WERE HONORED. MOREOVER, IN HIS MARCH 11 ADDRESS MARKING THE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE 1980 CONSTITUTION, PINOCHET OFFERED THE PROSPECT OF FURTHER STEPS FOR BUILDING POLITICAL CONSENSUS WHEN HE ANNOUNCED THE GOC WOULD CONSIDER HOLDING A

IMPLEMENTING THIS PROMISE MINISTER OF LABOR GUILLERMO ARTHUR IS PREPARING LEGISLATION TO SUBMIT TO THE JUNTA TO LOWER THE NUMBER OF WORKERS NECESSARY TO FORM A UNION TO EIGHT VICE 25 AND TO LEGALIZE WORKER CENTRALS (NATIONAL LABOR CONFEDERATIONS). ACCORDING TO MANY SOURCES, INCLUDING MINISTER OF INTERIOR CACERES AND BUSTOS HIMSELF, PINOCHET'S DISLIKE OF BUSTOS IS AS MUCH PERSONAL AS POLITICAL, AND PERSUADING HIM TO GRANT A PARDON WILL BE DIFFICULT. HOWEVER, WE BELIEVE THAT THE PROMISE TO RESTORE GSP WILL GIVE SEVERAL INFLUENTIAL MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET, ESPECIALLY MINISTER OF FOREIGN RELATIONS ERRAZURIZ (WHO CAN SCORE ANOTHER DIPLOMATIC VICTORY), MINISTER OF INTERIOR CACERES (WHO IS WORKING TO IMPROVE THE POLITICAL CLIMATE) AND MINISTER OF FINANCE BUCHI (WHOSE SUCCESS IN RESTORING THE ECONOMY COULD BE CRUCIAL TO HIS WINNING THE PRESIDENCY) AMMUNITION TO WORK WITH. 9. WE SUGGEST YOU FIRST SOUND OUT LIKELY OPPONENTS TO LIFTING GSP RESTRICTIONS, SUCH AS THE AFL-CIO, TO FIND OUT IF THE POLITICAL AND LABOR IMPROVEMENTS, TOGETHER WITH THE RELEASE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ, WOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO SATISFY THEM. IF THE RESPONSE IS POSITIVE, WE WOULD RAISE THE ISSUE WITH MINISTER ERRAZURIZ AND OTHER CABINET OFFICIALS IF APPROPRIATE TO GAUGE THE POSSIBILITY THAT PINOCHET COULD BE PERSUADED TO RELEASE BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ IN ORDER TO GET GSP PRIVILEGES RESTORED. WE BELIEVE THAT THIS SEQUENCE IS THE MOST APPROPRIATE; WE WOULD NOT LIKE TO RAISE A POSSIBILITY WITH THE THE GOC THAT WE CANNOT DELIVER. FOR THIS SCENARIO TO HAVE ANY CHANCE OF SUCCESS, THERE CAN BE NO PUBLIC LINKAGE OF ACTION ON THE RELEGATED LABOR LEADERS' CASE AND LIFTING GSP RESTRICTIONS. GILLESPIE

SUBJECT: Update on Chile: Recent Developments and Issues of Bilateral Concern

Below is a brief rundown of recent domestic developments in Chile and matters of bilateral concern, noting areas where U.S. action is being considered or could be taken.

FRUIT CRISIS

This remains the hottest issue in Chile, and of short-term bilateral relevance to us-- it could have long term impact should the current wave of anti-Americanism not be managed carefully by the GOC and by us. At present, all Chilean fruit is moving onto the U.S. market (except melons). Fortunately, based on early indications consumers are buying it. This is being favorably reported on in the Chilean media, but overall attention to the fruit crisis continues to be very negative. Our Embassy reports that a "pro-U.S." position on the issue is that the U.S. overreacted in trying to protect consumers here. Less generous viewpoints, which at present abound, have it that the USG sabotaged the fruit in Philadelphia as part of a plot to topple Pinochet, weaken his regime and/or wreck the Chilean economy, perhaps so that the dynamic produce export sector could be either weakened or taken over by U.S. interests.

Responsible GOC officials have for the most part maintained perspective and refrained from emotional criticism of us. Most opposition leaders have also taken a responsible approach. U.S. critics, for the most part, seem to be from conservative business circles.

Damage to the Chilean economy as a result of the temporary ban on fruit is still unknown but could end up being more than a hundred million dollars. While such a loss should not, as the nervous press indicates, seriously harm Chile's long-term economic prospects or cause a wide recession in the economy, it will have negative effects which will ripple widely through society.

Clearly, it behooves the U.S. to take steps--without implying guilt-- to aid the Chilean economy to recover from this disruption and to counter the highly negative view of the U.S. which currently prevails in the Chilean media. The effective marketing of the remainder of the fruit harvest in the U.S. will be an important factor in broadening or limiting the damage done. Several concrete steps are being discussed, including:

A. The Fruit Marketing Order:

Seeking an extension of the marketing order date for Chilean grapes from the current April 20 date to May 1. Taking this action might allow more Chilean fruit to enter the U.S. market. ARA and EB are meeting with officials from USDA to encourage them to move the date back 10 days. Such an action would send a positive signal to the GOC and to the Chilean people that the USG wants to help overcome the problems created by the temporary ban. On the other hand, California growers are already pushing hard on USDA (and their Congressmen) against moving the marketing order date.

B. Reinstating GSP for Chile.

In December, 1987, President Reagan suspended Chile's GSP privileges after an extensive USG review of complaints filed with the Department of Labor by the AFL-CIO on the matter of worker rights. The GOC, for more than a year before this decision was reached, had promised to make several specific reforms in the worker rights area but failed to do so, prompting the Administration to move to suspend.

Subsequently, the GOC sent two top democratic labor leaders (Bustos and Martinez) into internal exile for their role in a general strike. This action stimulated further criticism of GOC labor practices.

There is talk within some USG circles, however (mainly USTR) of reexamining GSP for Chile with an eye to reinstatement in order to help the Chilean economy and show sympathy for the problems caused by the fruit crisis. Most recently the Chilean Ambassador told me that the Labor Minister, following up an earlier "hints" in a major Pinochet speech, has just indicated a willingness to make some concessions in the labor rights areas of collective bargaining and the structure of labor confederations.

Some key considerations involved in our approach to GSP review include:

--We need to review and assess these purported concessions on their worker right's merits. If we are not seen both here and in Chile to be taking that aspect of the GSP issue seriously, we run the risk of sending a signal to the GOC that our original decision to suspend had nothing to do with worker rights, but was taken politically.

--The AFL-CIO has recently called for economic sanctions against Chile if the two labor leaders are not released from internal exile. Even with some GOC labor concessions, Action on GSP without GSP actions to ameliorate the conditions of Bustos and Martinez will incure the AFL-CIO's strong criticism.

--Chile watchers and labor experts in Congress, including moderates from both parties, would probably react negatively unless there are meaningful worker rights concessions and/or movement on Bustos and Martinez.

--However, we could use this opportunity brought about by the fruit crisis to offer to review the GSP issue favorably in return for genuine concessions including the release of the two labor leaders. I have already started to explore this concept with the Chilean Ambassador. The AFL-CIO might accept such a tradeoff, which would accomplish some of their major objectives.

--One lesser option might be for us to offer a special, time-limited reinstatement of GSP in exchange for limited reforms. But, for us to go all the way in reinstating GSP in response to half-steps would eliminate a potential inducement we might offer a newly elected government to convince it to follow sound economic policies after it takes office.

C) A special GATT-related trade agreement with Chile.

This is another idea which was originally proposed by USTR and then shelved. It is now being reconsidered in light of fruit problem to show support for Chilean economic model. Critics, including on the Hill, saw this as a potential end-run around GSP, others were concerned about the propriety of granting a "most favored nation" status to Chile before rather than after the coming to power of an elected, democratic government. Many of the specific arguments raised for the GSP issue above also apply.

D) Financial Help from Treasury and MDBS

USG currently supports all technically sound loans to GOC in MDBs. We could now, in response to fruit based economic problems, encourage further IMF and World Bank assistance to Chile both for practical and PR reasons. The Chilean Ambassador told me that Chile has already broached the idea of a bridge loan with Brady that would help Chile deal with its tightened reserve situation, and which could be tied in some way to an industrial modernization loan from the World Bank. Brady was reportedly sympathetic but non-committal.

Treasury staff doubt that the GOC actually needs any new loans, and could get by with lesser actions such as an IMF decision to waive reserve rules -- a step which Treasury would support.

The Chilean Ambassador, with more data in hand, has asked for an appointment with Assistant Secretary DeLara of Treasury on Wednesday or Thursday--preparatory to the head of the Central Bank and perhaps the Finance Minister visiting Washington next week for further discussions during the World Bank meeting. We have urged Treasury to offer to meet with the Chileans and to seek to work constructively with them to find realistic ways to deal with perceived economic problems.

RETURN TO DEMOCRACY AND PRESERVATION OF THE MARKET ECONOMY

Before the fruit crisis broke, the following items were the most important issues involving Chile on the USG agenda. The bedrock of U.S. policy toward Chile has been support for a peaceful transition to democracy no later than March, 1990. Our goal is to encourage the creation of a stable, democratic regime friendly to basic U.S. interests which is sustained by market-oriented economic growth. This policy was carefully crafted over time and has thus far been successfully carried out. It has enjoyed broad bipartisan support in the Congress.

At present, the climate for democratic political action in Chile continues to improve. Both pro-GOC civilian political forces and the opposition to Pinochet are working hard to nominate candidates and design platforms for the December 14, 1989 presidential and congressional elections. The Government and the opposition are preparing to discuss constitutional reform ideas previously vetoed by Pinochet--including a possible plebiscite this summer on a number of amendments to the Constitution. Pincohet now appears more willing to give up the idea of remaining on as President past his legal term but the game is not over and in any event his continuation as Army chief is still a live issue. At this point, indications point to the holding of relatively free and fair elections later this year, but Chile is known for surprises and road will no be easy.

Several important issues remain undecided, however. The law governing congressional elections, including the key matters of districting, representation, and the legality of electoral pacts, has yet to be passed. Pinochet on March 11 spoke of congressional reform as a distinct possibility and appears to be taking action in that direction. Both pro-GOC and opposition forces support different reforms of the constitution and some consensus may be possible. Larger issues still loom, including the military/civilian relationship under a democratic government, relations and commitments between the democratic opposition and the far left; what if any action to take on past human rights violations, and economic policy. Some observers predict frustration for a civilian regime whose power vis a vis the military may be too weak to meet its expectations and there are serious questions as to what economic policies an opposition government elected with leftist support would follow once in power.

Human rights abuses continue, but at a far lesser level and pace than in the past. Concerns are voiced less frequently as the political debate becomes ever more open.

LETELIER CASE. Up until the fruit crisis, the major point of bilateral friction had been the 1976 Letelier/Moffitt murder case. We tried to enlist the support of the GOC and therefore create a vehicle for normalizing relations when in January of 1989 we invoked a 1914 bilateral treaty for the settlement of disputes which calls for the creation of an international commission to study the matter of GOC responsibility in the crime and file a report. This report could facilitate positive action by the new democratic government after March, 1990 and might in turn allow the U.S. to resume more mormal military relations with Chile. We therefore hoped to kill two birds with one stone. While GOC cooperation in naming the members of the Commission has been almost nil to date, at least they have not rejected participation in the treaty outright. Before the fruit crisis, we expected a relatively positive answer from the GOC, but that may now be less likely.

MILITARY RELATIONS. We have sought means of reversing the steady deterioration which has characterized military relations between Chile and the U.S. since 1976. Legislation passed that year and renewed subsequently (primarily the Kennedy amendment) prohibit the sale of military equipment to Chile and all training from the U.S. This has alienated the Chilean armed forces and driven a wedge between them and their American counterparts. Some members of the Chilean military hold patently anti-American views, while others are still pro-American or at least without a strong point of view. We are attempting to get the most out of exchanges, details, and joint exercises permitted under the constraints of existing legislation but would like to obtain changes as soon as conditions permit to allow for repairs of Chilean aircraft to provide greater safety of flight and perhaps changes in IMET regulations to allow for limited training. Following the inauguration of a democratic government in March, 1990, we hope to be able to begin overhauling our military-to-military relations, but the process of preparing the way for that step should begin now, to the extent possible. (N.B. This would also require, by law, movement on the Letelier issue).

RELATIONS WITH CONGRESS. Whatever flexibility we have in dealing with Chile is in part due to the strong bipartisan support our Chile policy enjoys in Congress. This support was carefully cultivated over the past two years, to the point where the bulk of interested members, from liberal Democrat to mainstream conservative Republican, are lined up on the side of the Administration. Congress has been quiet on Chile since the plebiscite, but stands ready as a potential resource rather than a rival to the Administration in carrying out policy objectives. With H support and coordination we need to continue our periodic briefings of key congressional staff and congressman regarding Chilean developments and US policy objectives.

Dear Senator Lieberman:

I am writing in response to your letter of February 24 referring to the internal exile of Chilean labor leader Manuel Bustos.

Mr. Bustos was sentenced on January 26, 1988, to 541 days of internal exile (not to prison as you were told) for destabilizing the public order during a general strike of October 7, 1987. The sentence was overturned by an appellate court but then confirmed by the Chilean Supreme Court in August last year. Mr. Bustos now lives in exile in the city of Parral and must report daily to the local police station.

Our Embassy in Santiago has had personal contact with Mr. Bustos during his exile and our Ambassador, Charles Gillespie, has taken numerous occasions to express our concern to the Chilean government that the sentence imposed on Mr. Bustos was a harsh infringement of the free exercise of labor rights. Though the Geneva Convention does not apply in this case and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) is a "non-binding" United Nations Resolution and not part of an agreement, we do hold Chile and other countries to the UDHR standards in judging their conduct.

The United States Government's longstanding concern for labor rights in Chile has been expressed by our December 1987 decision to withdraw privileges under the General System of preferences because of labor rights violations by the Chilean government.

Sincerely,

Richard Schifter

Dear Senator Dixon:

This is in response to your inquiry concerning the pending case involving the medical records of the Vicariate of Solidarity in Chile. Your letter was on behalf of Ms. Mary Yu of Chicago, Illinois.

The United States Government has followed this case closely since its inception. Our Ambassador to Chile, Charles Gillespie, Jr. recently met with Bishop Sergio Valech, head of the Vicariate, to discuss this case and other matters involving the human rights work of the Church. We have also raised this case with high officials of the Chilean Government. On February 3, 1989 our Embassy's Charge d' Affaires, George Jones, called on Bishop Valech at Vicariate headquarters to express again the U.S. Government's support for the Vicariate's efforts to promote human rights.

Following that meeting, Mr. Jones reiterated in an interview with the press the U.S. Government's long-standing view that the Vicariate of Solidarity is a highly respected human rights organization with a well-deserved international reputation and that we would deeply regret any action which would compromise the ability of the Vicariate to perform effectively its important activities.

Support for a return to democracy and respect for human and civil rights is the cornerstone of U.S. policy toward Chile. Accordingly, we will continue to follow the Vicariate case with great interest.

If we can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

BACKGROUND

Dr. Ramon Olivares ~~is a doctor working in the~~ Chilean Church's human rights organizations, the Viacaria de la Solidaridad. Dr. Olivares was called to assist a man said to have been an innocent bystander wounded in a robbery attempt. Olivares helped the man, who turned out not so innocent, and the government seized the opportunity to paint Olivares as a terrorist and demanded access to all the Vicaria's files.

The military prosecutor, Major Sergio Cea ordered that the files be seized by an "assault brigrade" by February 6 (initially it was to have been Jnauary 24, but an appeal was filed).

2. HA DAS PAULA DOBRIANSKY MET MARCH 8 WITH CHILEAN JUDGE RENE GARCIA VILLEGAS, IN AN APPOINTMENT REQUESTED BY AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL LATIN AMERICA COORDINATOR RONA WEITZ. HA/HR REGIONAL OFFICER FOR INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS LEON WEINTRAUB ALSO ATTENDED.

3. GARCIA BEGAN BY NOTING THAT THE OPTIMISM HE SAW OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY ABOUT CHILEAN DEVELOPMENTS WAS MISPLACED. ALTHOUGH THE PLEBISCITE WAS A SIGNIFICANT ADVANCE, THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT WAS TRYING TO MAINTAIN ITSELF BY POLICIES AND STATUTES. LAST NOVEMBER, FOR EXAMPLE, AT THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS DECLARATION, THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION DECLARED THERE HAD BEEN MORE VIOLATIONS IN CHILE AFTER THE PLEBISCITE THAN BEFORE IT.

4. IN GARCIA'S OWN ESTIMATE, THE RECORD WAS BETTER ON DISAPPEARANCES AND SECRET KILLINGS (NUMBERS WERE DOWN), BUT WORSE ON KILLINGS AS A RESULT OF "CONFRONTATIONS" WITH SECURITY FORCES. OTHER VIOLATIONS (SUCH AS TORTURE) MIGHT NOT BE QUITE SO SPECTACULAR, BUT THEY CONTINUE. ONE RECENT REFINEMENT WAS THAT BEATINGS AND

SHOCK WERE NOW MORE FREQUENTLY ADMINISTERED IN VEHICLES RATHER THAN SECRET HOUSES, MAKING IT MORE DIFFICULT TO TRACK THE PROBLEM. THE CNI HAS ALSO CONTINUALLY CHANGED ITS TORTURE CENTERS. ALL THESE ACTIVITIES, OF COURSE, ARE IN COMPLETE VIOLATION OF AGREEMENTS WITH THE ICRC, BUT AT LEAST SOME ACCESS TO PRISONERS HAS BEEN MAINTAINED. JUDGE GARCIA SAID THAT THE CNI (WHICH HE CHARACTERIZED AS A VEHICLE FOR "STATE BRUTALITY") FREQUENTLY DENIED HAVING PRISONERS IN ITS POSSESSION, BUT THAT HE WAS FRQUENTLY ABLE TO FIND OUT THROUGH THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR THAT SUCH PERSONS WERE, INDEED, IN CNI HANDS AND UNDER WHICH DECREE THEY WERE BEING DETAINED.

5. IN 15 YEARS OF THE DICTATORSHIP JUDGE GARCIA SAID THAT 7,000 WRITS OF HABEUS CORPUS HAD BEEN SERVED UPON THE GOVERNMENT BUT LESS THAN 100 CASES HAD BEEN ACTED UPON SUCCESSFULLY. WITH EXECUTIVE AGENCIES LYING TO JUDGES, AMPARO REQUESTS ARE USELESS; BUT AFTER SOME TIME, THE PERSON WHO HAD BEEN THE OBJECT OF A SEARCH IS EVENTUALLY TURNED OVER TO A MILITARY JUDGE.

6. THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT HAS CHANGED MANY CIVIL AND MILITARY JUSTICE CODES, PENAL PROCEDURES, WEAPONS CONTROL LAWS AND ANTI-TERRORISM LAWS. ALL THESE CHANGES HAVE FURTHER CONFINED THE JUDICIARY, MAKING IT MORE DIFFICULT TO INVESTIGATE CASES OF POSSIBLE INVOLVEMENT OF GOVERNMENT SECURITY FORCES. THE SCOPE OF CIVILIAN JUSTICE HAS BEEN REDUCED WHILE THAT OF MILITARY JUSTICE HAS BEEN EXPANDED, WITH THE LATTER USURPING THE FORMER IN MANY CASES. EVEN THE SUPREME COURT HAS LOST MORE AND MORE OF ITS AUTHORITY. THE SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT IN A RECENT SPEECH ON THE "JUDICIAL YEAR" (REPORTED IN SANTIAGO 2128) CRITICIZED THIS PHENOMENA, WHEREIN 80 PERCENT OF THE CASES HANDLED IN MILITARY COURTS SHOULD HAVE BEEN PROCESSED BY CIVILIAN COURTS.

7. GARCIA SPOKE OF FEARS THAT SOME ABSOLUTIST MILITARY FIGURES WANTED PINOCHET TO REMAIN AT THE HELM LEGALLY OR NOT. BUT HE ALSO KNEW THAT THERE WERE PROFESSIONALS WHO KNEW THAT THE MILITARY WAS NOT PREPARED TO REMAIN IN POWER AND SHOULD RETURN TO THE BARRACKS.

8. GARCIA REQUESTED THAT THE USG CONTINUE TO EXERCISE PRESSURE FOR THE NEXT GOVERNMENT TO CONTINUE THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRATIZATION. SPEAKING OF WHAT SUCH A NEXT GOVERNMENT MIGHT DO IN THE FACE OF CALLS FOR PROSECUTIONS OF MILITARY FIGURES, HE RECOGNIZED THAT THERE WAS A DEBATE OVER THE SCOPE OF PROSECUTIONS THAT WOULD BE DESIRABLE BEFORE ONE RISKED PROVOKING A MILITARY BACKLASH. WITHOUT EXPRESSING A PERSONAL PREFERENCE, HE MENTIONED FAVORABLY THAT MANY PREFERRED EXPOSURE, ESTABLISHING THE FACTS, AND IDENTIFYING THE CRIMES AND THOSE CULPABLE, THEN ALLOWING SOME TYPE OF AMNESTY OR PARDON TO BE INSTITUTED.

9. COMMENT: WEITZ INFORMED US BEFORE THE MEETING THAT VILLEGAS HAS RECEIVED QUITE A BIT OF NOTORIETY DUE TO HIS INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS OF TORTURE BY CHILEAN INTELLIGENCE (CNI). SHE SAID THAT JUDGE VILLEGAS HAS BEEN SANCTIONED BY THE SUPREME COURT (PLACING HIM ON HALF SALARY FOR 2 WEEKS) IN A WIDELY CRITICIZED

March 29, 1989

TO: L - Ms. Verville

FROM: L/ARA - Matthew H. Adler

SUBJECT: Letelier - Delay in Chile, Impatience on the Hill

The "grape crisis" with Chile is causing delays on implementation of the Letelier Commission. This delay is causing impatience on the Hill that may lead to reintroduction soon of the FSIA amendments.

I received a call yesterday from Nancy Soderberg on Senator Kennedy's staff. Soderberg asked for a status report on the Letelier treaty process. I told her that we gave Chile four names last month for candidates for President of the Commission, and that we were awaiting the GOC's reply. Soderberg stated that while Senator Kennedy had agreed to hold off on reintroducing his FSIA amendment in order to allow us to begin the Treaty process, he will not wait indefinitely. She said that Kennedy is likely to reintroduce the amendment before the next recess (in late April).

I then spoke with Dick Howard, office director of ARA/SC. Howard stated that the grape crisis has provoked a strong anti-US feeling in Chile, and that it would be counterproductive to press Chile at this time for a quicker response on Letelier. Noting that Chile has yet even to consent to the Treaty process (Chile's dip note saying it would cooperate on selection of commissioners reserved its general consent to the process), he said that any elements in the GOC disposed toward cooperation are likely to be drowned out by the anti-US cacophony being played out every day in the Chilean media. Asked how long the USG should fairly be expected to wait, he said he would not be adverse to instructing the Ambassador to approach the GOC in about two weeks. I reminded Howard that just as ARA is concerned about overall US-Chilean relations, L is concerned about overall FSIA policy.

There are several options available:

1. Press neither Kennedy nor Chile. Kennedy may introduce his amendment regardless of what the GOC does, and so pressing the GOC in order to mollify Kennedy may offend the Chileans without achieving our objective. We should sound Kennedy out again on his flexibility.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

CONFIDENTIAL

2. Press Chile. Chile may be using the grape crisis as an excuse, since its actions prior to the crisis hardly suggested eagerness to proceed under the Treaty. If we believe this is the case, it may be worthwhile to press them soon. A variant of this option would be to press Chile in two or three weeks.

3. Press Kennedy. Kennedy may be receptive to the unique atmosphere precipiated by the grape crisis, and might be persuaded to hold off.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT

MAR 3 0 1989

Subject: Request by Ambassador Gillespie to Meet with President Bush

Ambassador to Chile Charles A. Gillespie, Jr. will also have interagency consultations and meetings with key Congressmen from February 1-8 and 10. He has requested an appointment with President Bush to review briefly the range of political, economic, and bilateral issues pertaining to Chile.

We believe such a meeting and a statement from President Bush expressing support for a transition to an economically sound democracy in Chile will make it possible for Ambassador Gillespie to convey authoritative messages from the new Administration to both the Pinochet government and the democratic parties in Chile as the election campaign gets under way.

Chile entered a crucial period in its political history beginning with last October's plebiscite, in which a majority of voters decided against Pinochet's continuation in office. Instead, open congressional and presidential elections, the first since 1970, will be held in December of this year. While these elections should take place as scheduled, the transition from an authoritarian to a civilian democratic regime will not be easy. Chile's success or failure in returning to democracy while preserving the free market-oriented policies which have made the Chilean economy one of the fastest-growing in the region will set an important precedent for other Latin American nations. The U.S. has been outspoken in its support for a return to full democracy in Chile and for the continuation and expansion of market-oriented growth.

Dear Mr. Kozak:

It has been some time since I have had any communication with a representative of the Department of State regarding your espousal of the claims of my clients in the Letelier-Moffitt case for compensation from the Republic of Chile. I would appreciate an opportunity to meet with you or any other representative of the State Department who is responsible for this matter in order to discuss the current status of the espousal process.

While I am aware that public announcements were made regarding the invocation of the provisions of a 1916 Treaty between the United States and the Republic of Chile, I would appreciate information on the progress toward convening of the tribunal called for under the Treaty.

Yours truly,

POLITICAL GOAL OF DISRUPTING AND DISCREDITING THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. THE FMLN NONETHELESS APPEARS TO HAVE CONVINCED MUCH OF THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS CORPS THAT THE OPERATION REFLECTED GROWING GUERRILLA MILITARY AND POLITICAL STRENGTH. THE FMLN'S MILITARY FAILURE WAS DUE TO BOTH INABILITY TO MOBILIZE, DEPLOY AND COORDINATE SUFFICIENT FORCES AND TO OUTSTANDING ACTION BY THE ESAF, WHICH SUCCEEDED IN ANTICIPATING/DEFEATING THE FMLN ACTIONS. HOW THE INSURGENT LEADERSHIP INTERPRETS THIS FAILURE WILL AFFECT ITS FUTURE MILITARY STRATEGY AS WELL AS ITS POLITICAL INITIATIVES. END SUMMARY.

3. FOLLOWING ITS FAILURE TO FORCE A POSTPONEMENT OF THE MARCH 19TH PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, THE FMLN LAUNCHED ONE OF THE HEAVIEST AND MOST VARIED OFFENSIVE EFFORTS OF THE WAR DURING THE MARCH 18-19 ELECTION WEEKEND IN AN EFFORT TO DISRUPT THE ELECTIONS, REDUCE VOTER TURNOUT AND DIMINISH THE CREDIBILITY OF THE ELECTORAL PROCESS. A SECONDARY BUT RELATED OBJECTIVE WAS TO MAKE A VISIBLE IMPRESSION ON THE LARGE INTERNATIONAL PRESS CONTINGENT VISITING EL SALVADOR FOR THE ELECTIONS BY PROJECTING AN IMAGE OF FMLN [redacted]

MILITARY MIGHT AND OF GOES IMPOTENCE.

4. BETWEEN 1800 HRS FRIDAY MARCH 17 AND MIDNIGHT MARCH 19 INSURGENT FORCES CARRIED OUT AT LEAST 6 MAJOR ATTACKS AND 44 HARASSMENT ACTIONS ACROSS THE COUNTRY. FMLN OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS TOOK PLACE IN ALL BUT TWO OF EL SALVADOR'S FOURTEEN DEPARTMENTS. AT THE SAME TIME SABOTAGE AND ANTI-TRANSPORTATION OPERATIONS TOOK PLACE AT RATES NOT SEEN SINCE THE FMLN'S NATIONWIDE OFFENSIVE OF THE FALL OF 1988. CONTRARY TO FMLN EXPECTATIONS, HOWEVER, THE ELECTION WEEKEND "OFFENSIVE" WAS ANYTHING BUT A MILITARY SUCCESS AS THE ESAF TURNED MOST FMLN-INITIATED ACTIONS INTO ESAF VICTORIES. BY THE MOST RECENT COUNT, INSURGENT KIA'S OUTNUMBERED ESAF ON THE ORDER OF AT LEAST 5 TO 1 OVER THE COURSE OF THE WEEKEND, WITH OVER 100 FMLN KILLED. THIS WAS ONE OF THE COSTLIEST THREE-DAY PERIODS OF THE WAR FOR THE INSURGENTS.

5. ONLY IN ONE CASE -- SAN FRANCISCO JAVIER -- DID THE FMLN COME CLOSE TO A CLEAR TACTICAL VICTORY WHEN IT MANAGED TO GAIN TEMPORARY CONTROL OF THE TOWN IN A FIGHT THAT RESULTED IN 1 ESAF KIA/5 WIA. EVEN THERE, THEY WERE ROUTED BY ESAF REINFORCEMENTS WITHIN THE HOUR. ALL OTHER ACTIONS WERE OF MINIMAL OR NO MILITARY CONSEQUENCE AND THE ESAF DID NOT LOSE CONTROL OF ANY OTHER TOWNS OR SUFFER SIGNIFICANT CASUALTIES.

6. THE FMLN'S FAILURE WAS EVIDENCED BY WHAT DID NOT OCCUR AS WELL AS BY WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED.

ACCORDING TO INTELLIGENCE AND INSURGENT PROPAGANDA A MASSIVE "URBAN OFFENSIVE" AND A "SPECTACULAR" ATTACK AGAINST A MAJOR MILITARY/ ECONOMIC TARGET WERE TO TAKE PLACE OVER THE WEEKEND. LARGELY AS THE RESULT OF PREEMPTIVE ESAF DEFENSIVE OPERATIONS NEITHER HAPPENED. INCREASED ESAF DEPLOYMENTS IN DEFENSE OF THE CAPITAL AREA, TOGETHER WITH AN EXTREMELY PRODUCTIVE CONTACT (AT LEAST 36 INSURGENT KIA) THAT TOOK PLACE FRIDAY IN THE SAN SALVADOR VOLCANO FMLN BASE AREA APPARENTLY DERAILED THE URBAN PLAN. INSURGENT ACTIVITY IN SAN SALVADOR OVER THE WEEKEND CONSISTED OF ONLY ONE ILL-FATED ATTACK AND A MODERATE AMOUNT OF URBAN SABOTAGE. ALSO ON FRIDAY, A 6TH BRIGADE COMANDO UNIT MADE CONTACT WITH AND APPARENTLY DISPERSED A 200-300 MAN INSURGENT CONCENTRATION THAT SEEMED TO BE PLANNING A MAJOR ATTACK AGAINST ONE OR BOTH OF THE 2 ESAF BASES IN THE CITY OF USULUTAN.

7. A REVIEW OF THE WEEKEND'S ACTIONS THAT LOOKS BEYOND THE HIGH INCIDENT TOTALS AND THEIR HIGH VISIBILITY INDICATES THAT, ASIDE FROM A "SHOW OF STRENGTH," THE FMLN'S PERFORMANCE WAS NEITHER EFFECTIVE NOR SUCCCESSFUL IN MILITARY OR DOMESTIC POLITICAL TERMS. ALTHOUGH THE FMLN TRANSPORTATION STRIKE CONTRIBUTED TO A 6 PERCENT DROP IN VOTER PARTICIPATION FROM THE 1988 TOTAL (1.003 MILLION VS. 1.070 MILLION), THE FMLN FAILED TO KEEP THE TURNOUT LOW ENOUGH (ACCORDING TO SOME THE FMLN HOPED TO KEEP TURN OUT IN THE 300,000 TO 400,000 RANGE) TO CHALLENGE THE ELECTION'S CREDIBILITY WITHIN EL SALVADOR. (ALL SEVEN COMPETING PARTIES HAVE ACCEPTED THE VALIDITY OF THE ELECTION RESULTS, ALTHOUGH THE [redacted]

FMLN ALLY CONVERGENCIA DEMOCRATICA HAS CLAIMED FRAUD AND INTIMIDATION KEPT THE CD VOTE DOWN.) IN ADDITION, FROM A TACTICAL PERSPECTIVE THE FMLN MILITARY PERFORMANCE WAS VERY DISAPPOINTING. ESTIMATED CASUALTY LEVELS, LACK OF FMLN BATTLEFIELD

ACCOMPLISHMENTS, AND VARIOUS INTELLIGENCE REPORTS INDICATE THAT THIS WAS ONE OF COSTLIEST AND LEAST SUCCESFUL OPERATIONS OF THE WAR FOR THE FMLN.

8. A KEY CONTRIBUTING FACTOR TO THE FAILURE OF THE WEEKEND CAMPAIGN APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN UNREALISTIC PLANNING BY THE FMLN LEADERSHIP. BY TRYING TO LAUNCH SUCH A LARGE NUMBER OF OPERATIONS ACROSS THE COUNTRY, THE FMLN STRETCHED ITS RESOURCES TOO THIN TO DELIVER A SINGLE SERIOUS BLOW TO THE ESAF. ITS PERSONNEL RESOURCES AND COMMAND AND CONTROL CAPABILITIES SIMPLY DO NOT APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN UP TO THE TASK OF DOING SO MUCH AT ONE TIME. ADDITIONALLY, THE MASSIVE AND WIDESPREAD FORWARD STAGING OF SO MANY INSURGENT FORCES IN PREPARATION FOR OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS LEFT THEM OVERLY EXPOSED AND MORE VULNERABLE TO DETECTION AND COUNTERACTION BY THE ESAF. IT APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN A NEAR TEXTBOOK CASE OF A MILITARY FORCE OVEREXTENDING ITSELF.

9. A SECOND KEY FACTOR IN THE INSURGENTS' WEEKEND TACTICAL MISFORTUNES WHICH WAS NOT WELL ANTICIPATED BY THE FMLN CAMPAIGN PLANNERS WAS THE ESAF'S OWN EFFORTS TO COUNTER THE EXPECTED INCREASE IN GUERRILLA ACTIVITY. BY MOBILIZING MOST OF ITS RESOURCES AND REACTING QUICKLY TO INTELLIGENCE REPORTS AND TO THE ACTUAL INSURGENT ACTIONS, THE ESAF WAS ABLE TO BLUNT

AND DEFEAT THE FMLN INITIATIVES. THE ESAF'S SUCCESS OVER THE WEEKEND IS REFLECTIVE NOT ONLY OF A SUPERLATIVE SHORT-TERM EFFORT, BUT ALSO OF CONTINUED (ALBEIT OFTEN GRADUAL) ACROSS THE BOARDS PROGRESS IN IMPROVING ITS MILITARY CAPABILITIES. IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT THE ESAF WOULD HAVE BEEN ABLE TO EFFECTIVELY HANDLE AN FMLN EFFORT OF SIMILAR MAGNITUDE TWO OR THREE YEARS AGO.

10. THE FMLN'S INABILITY TO GAIN EVEN A SMALL TACTICAL MILITARY VICTORY OR TO PREVENT THE ELECTION FROM BEING SUCCESFULLY CARRIED OUT MUST DISAPPOINT THE FMLN LEADERSHIP. IN THE WAY OF CONSOLATION, HOWEVER, THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS HAS TENDED TO PORTRAY EVENTS DURING THE ELECTION WEEKEND AS A SUCCESSFUL INSURGENT OFFENSIVE, IN MILITARY AS WELL AS IN INTERNAL POLITICAL TERMS. WE EXPECT THE FMLN TO DRAW AT LEAST ONE LESSON FROM THIS--THAT THERE IS STILL ROOM TO SELL OVERSEAS THE NOTION OF INCREASING FMLN STRENGTH, AND THEREFORE AN INCREASING NEED FOR A NEGOTIATED SOLUTION. GIVEN THE RESULTS OF THE OPERATIONS IN MILITARY TERMS, AND DOMESTIC POLITICAL REACTION, THE FMLN WILL HAVE A HARD TIME SELLING THAT IDEA INSIDE EL SALVADOR.

1. (U) ON MARCH 21 LUIS MALDONADO BOGGIANI, SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT, WAS UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL (TC). AT THE SAME TIME THE TC SWORE IN TWO NEW MEMBERS: LUZ BULNES, WHO WAS NAMED BY THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL TO REPLACE THE RETIRING EUGENIO VALENZUELA; AND HERNAN CERECEDA, WHOM THE SUPREME COURT SELECTED TO REPLACE THE RETIRING JOSE MARIA EYZAGUIRRE. TWO OTHER MEMBERS WERE RECONFIRMED IN THEIR POSITIONS: ENRIQUE ORTUZAR, ALSO NAMED BY THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, WHO IS DUE TO RETIRE IN NOVEMBER; AND MANUEL JIMINEZ, WHOM THE JUNTA NAMED FOR A SECOND TERM. TWO ADDITIONAL MEMBERS -- MARCOS ABURTO (DESIGNATED BY THE SUPREME COURT) AND EDUARDO URZUA (DESIGNATED BY THE PRESIDENT) -- ARE SERVING TERMS WHICH EXPIRE IN 1993.

3. (C) COMMENT: VALENZUELA'S DEPARTURE WILL HAVE A SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE TRIBUNAL AND ON THE LEGISLATIVE PROCESS IN THE FINAL YEAR OF THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT. THE MOST INDEPENDENT OF ITS JUSTICES, EUGENIO VALENZUELA PLAYED A CRITICAL ROLE IN THE 1987 AND 1988 RULINGS WHICH CREATED THE LEGAL BASIS FOR A CLEAN, FAIR PLEBISCITE. BULNES, HIS REPLACEMENT, IS CONSIDERED A PINOCHET LOYALIST. ACCORDING TO NATIONAL ELECTION SERVICE DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA, THE SECOND NEW JUSTICE, HERNAN CERECEDA, IS AS "HARD-LINE A PINOCHET SUPPORTER AS YOU WILL FIND." CERECEDA, A RELATIVELY YOUNG JUSTICE ON THE SUPREME COURT, WAS FORMELY AN ADVISOR TO HUGO ROSENDE, THE RIGHT-WING MINISTER OF JUSTICE. GARCIA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE REMAINING JUSTICES ALSO TEND TO BE UN-CONDITIONAL IN THEIR BACKING OF GOVERNMENT VIEWS.

AL. NOW THE OTHER TWO DISSIDENT JUSTICES ARE GONE. THE TC COULD BE EXPECTED TO RUBBER-STAMP AN "INTER-PRETATIVE" LAW ADVOCATED BY THE PRESIDENT WHICH WOULD MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR MINISTERS, PROFESSIONAL AND GUILD LEADERS TO RUN FOR OFFICE -- IN APPARENT CONTRADICTION TO ARTICLE 54 OF THE CONSTITUTION. IT WILL PROBABLY NOT PLAY AS CRUCIAL A ROLE AS IT DID IN THE PAST TWO YEARS, BECAUSE THE BULK OF THE "ORGANIC" LAWS IMPLEMENTING THE CONSTITUTION HAVE ALREADY BEEN PASSED. NONETHELESS, THE PROSPECT OF SEEING ONE OF THE MOST INDEPENDENT INSTITUTIONS IN THE JUDICIARY SYSTEM CONVERTED INTO A MOUTHPIECE FOR PINOCHET IS NOT A COMFORTING ONE. END COMMENT.

1. (C) SUMMARY: THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH HAS APPROVED A DRAFT DISTRICTING BILL WHICH ALLOWS FOR LIMITED ELECTORAL PACTS PROVIDED THEY ARE NATIONAL IN CHARACTER AND IDEOLOGICALLY COMPATIBLE. THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION, NOW UNDER REVIEW BY THE JUNTA, ALSO REDUCES THE LEGISLATIVE DISTRICTS FOR THE SANTIAGO METROPOLITAN AREA, WHICH WAS ALREADY CONSIDERABLY UNDERREPRESENTED IN GOC APPORTIONMENT SCHEMES. THE DRAFT BILL HAS BEEN CRITICIZED BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS, WHO OBJECT TO ITS OBVIOUS GERRYMANDERING,

AND BY JUNTA MEMBER ADMIRAL MERINO, WHO FEELS THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ELECTORAL ALLIANCES SHOULD BE TIGHTENED. NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE (SEN) DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA INFORMED US THAT STILL ANOTHER VERSION OF THE LEGISLATION IS BEING CIRCULATED. THE APPROVAL OF POLITICAL ALLIANCES WOULD FORCE THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS TO DEFINE THEMSELVES SHORTLY ON WHETHER OR NOT THEY CAN RUN ON THE SAME SLATE WITH COMMUNISTS ASSOCIATED WITH THE BROAD PARTY OF THE SOCIALIST LEFT (PAIS). A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WHICH MIGHT BE PASSED IN JUNE EXPANDING THE SIZE OF THE CONGRESS COULD THROW THE WHOLE DISTRICTING PLAN BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARDS. END SUMMARY.

3. (U) THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION WOULD ALLOW NATION-WIDE ELECTORAL PACTS BETWEEN TWO OR MORE PARTIES WHICH HAVE AN IDEOLOGICAL AFFINITY. THESE PARTIES COULD HAVE COMMON LISTS FOR THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS PROVIDED THEY DID NOT MAKE SEPARATE AGREEMENTS WITH OTHER POLITICAL ENTITIES AT THE LOCAL LEVEL. THEY COULD SUPPORT TWO CANDIDATES PER

DISTRICT OR REGION WHO ARE MEMBERS OF THE GROUPS SUBSCRIBING TO THE PACTS, OR ELSE INDEPENDENTS WHO ARE NOT MEMBERS OF ANY OTHER POLITICAL PARTY. THE PACTS WOULD HAVE TO BE REGISTERED FORMALLY WITH THE NATIONAL ELECTORAL SERVICE.

5. (U) ON MARCH 28 SENIOR JUNTA MEMBER ADMIRAL MERINO DENIED THAT THE JUNTA WOULD RUBBER-STAMP THE LEGISLATION, AND SAID HE FELT THE REQUIREMENTS FOR POLITICAL PACTS NEEDED TO BE SPELLED OUT MORE PRECISELY. IT SHOULD NOT BE ENOUGH, FOR EXAMPLE, FOR PARTIES SIMPLY TO COALESCE ON THE BASIS THAT THEY

FAVOR A REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY. RESPONDING TO THIS CONCERN IN A SPEECH THE FOLLOWING DAY, INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT FULLY INTENDED TO RESTRICT ELECTORAL AGREEMENTS BY REQUIRING THOSE PARTIES INVOLVED TO GIVE CLEAR DEFINITIONS OF THEIR OBJECTIVES, PROPOSALS AND VALUES. WARNING THAT CHILE CANNOT AFORD TO FAIL ITS NEW INSTITUTIONAL EXPERIMENT, CACERES SAID THAT REVOLUTIONARY CONCEPTS ARE INCOMPATIBLE WITH THE EVOLUTIONARY PRACTICE OF DEMOCRACY, AND THAT UNPRINCIPLED ALLIANCES THREATEN THE STABILITY AND ECOOMIC EFFICIENCY THE SYSTEM NEEDS TO REMAIN VIABLE.

7. (C) COMMENT: THE DRAFT LEGISLATION, THE THIRD VERSION WHICH THE INTERIOR MINISTRY HAS SUBMITTED TO THE JUNTA (REF B) SINCE AUGUST 1988, IS AN ODD MIXTURE OF GERRYMANDERING AND LIBERALIZATION WHICH IS STILL FAR FROM BEING FINALIZED. SEN DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA TOLD POLOFF ON MARCH 31 THAT A FOURTH VERSION WHICH RESHUFFLES THE LEGISLATIVE DISTRICTS ONCE AGAIN IS NOW CIRCULATING. PREDICTIONS ARE DIFFICULT, HE SAID, BECAUSE THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH HAS DEVISED SO MANY DRAFTS, ALL REJECTED BY VARIOUS LEGISLATIVE COMMISSIONS OF THE JUNTA, THAT NO ONE KNOWS WHAT THE CRITERIA SHOULD BE.

ACCORDING TO A REPORT IN LA EPOCA, PINOCHET ORDERED THE LATEST REDISTRICTING TO FAVOR UDI-SPONSORED CANDIDATES IN THE SANTIAGO METROPOLITAN REGION AND THE EIGHT REGION. RATHER THAN HAVE THE INTERIOR MINISTRY WORK UP A NEW DRAFT, THE PRESIDENT SENT INSTRUCTIONS ON MARCH 31 VIA UDI GENERAL SECRETARY PABLO LONGUERA, WHO HAD PROPOSED THE CHANGES TO HIM. THIS UNUSUAL PROCEDURE THREW THE JUNTA'S JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION INTO DISARRAY. AS A RESULT THE APPROVAL OF ELECTORAL PACTS MAY BE SUBJECT TO RECONSIDERATION.

8. (C) THE APPROVAL OF ELECTORAL PACTS APPEARS TO FAVOR THE OPPOSITION, SINCE THE CENTER-LEFT COALITION (COPODE) APPEARS TO BE MORE PRONE TO HOLD TOGETHER IN THE 1989 ELECTIONS THAN IS THE RIGHT. BUT IT PUTS COPODE AND THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS IN A DILEMMA. THE INCLUSION OF THE LEFT UMBRELLA PARTY PAIS WILL BE VEHEMENTLY OPPOSED BY MANY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS, SOCIAL

DEMOCRATS, AND OTHERS WHO PERCEIVE THAT RUNNING WITH THE COMMUNIST LEFT WOULD BE POLITICAL SUICIDE. LEAVING PAIS LOOSE TO RUN ITS OWN CANDIDATES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY WOULD ALSO PUNCH HOLES IN THE 60 PERCENT PARLIAMENTARY MAJORITY THE OPPOSITION EXPECTS TO ACHIEVE. THE LIKELY ALTERNATIVE WOULD BE MOUNTING TWO OPPOSITION LISTS, ONE WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND ITS SMALLER ALLIES, THE OTHER WITH THE PPD AND PAIS. BUT RICARDO LAGOS IS RESISTING ANY SOLUTION WHICH WOULD BRAND HIS FLEDGLING MOVEMENT WITH A RESTORATION OF THE POPULAR UNITY COALITION.

9. (C) THE REDISTRICTING PROPOSALS ARE FURTHER COMPLICATED BY THE POSSIBILITY OF AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION TO CHANGE THE COMPOSITION OF THE CONGRESS. CONSTITUTIONALIST JOSE LUIS CEA, A MEMBER OF THE RN-PDC COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, TOLD POLOFFS ON MARCH 30 THAT THE JOINT COMMISSION HAS REACHED AGREEMENT ON A PACKAGE WHICH INCLUDES EXPANDING THE ELECTED SENATE FROM 26 TO 50 MEMBERS AND THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES FROM 120 TO 150. IF THIS IS APPROVED IN A PLEBISCITE WITHIN THE NEXT TWO MONTHS, IT WILL NULLIFY ANY ELECTORAL DISTRICTING LAW AND REQUIRE THE DATE FOR CANDIDATE FILING, NOW SET FOR JULY 11, TO BE MOVED BACK. ALTHOUGH CHILE'S POLITICAL TRANSITION IS MOVING ALONG, THE SITUATION IS DISTRESSINGLY UNCERTAIN FOR MANY OF THE KEY PLAYERS, PARTICULARLY THOSE WHO WANT TO RUN FOR OFFICE. GILLESPIE

The Embassy of Chile presents its compliments to the Department of State and has the honor of referring to the Notes of January 12 and March 2, 1989, transmitted via the Embassy of the United States in Santiago to the Foreign Ministry of Chile related to invocation by the United States of the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty of 1914 and naming Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of said Treaty.

In this connection, the Department's attention is invited to the penultimate paragraph of the Foreign Ministry's Note dated January 26, 1989, advising the Embassy of the United States in Santiago that the Foreign Ministry was studying the scope and applicability of the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty. That study is now sufficiently advanced to lead to the conclusion that those aspects of the Treaty are uncertain with respect to the goals pursued by the two Governments.

In view of that uncertainty, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile has arrived at the conclusion that a detailed study is necessary by representatives of both Governments of all diplomatic exchanges between the two countries and documentation relating to the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty in order to determine in an objective manner all the facts relevant to said Treaty.

For that purpose, Chile proposes that a meeting be held in the month of April, 1989, between representatives of the two Governments to address that matter.

1. (C) SUMMARY: A MEMBER OF THE JOINT COMMISSION

CONFIDENTIAL
UNCLASSIFIED

OF THE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY (RN) AND THE COALITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES FOR DEMOCRACY (COPODE) INFORMED US THAT A CONSENSUS HAD BEEN REACHED ON A SET OF PROPOSALS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. THESE INCLUDE CHANGING ARTICLE 8 TO AVOID PERSECUTING POLITICAL GROUPS FOR THEIR IDEAS; FLEXIBILIZING THE MECHANISM FOR REFORM BY ALLOWING A THREE-FIFTHS MAJORITY OF BOTH HOUSES TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION;ADDING TWO CIVILIANS TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL AND CHANGING IT INTO A PRESIDENTIAL ADVISORY BODY; EXPANDING THE NUMBER OF ELECTED SENATORS AND DEPUTIES, WHILE ELIMINATING ALL BUT ONE CATEGORY OF APPOINTED MEMBERS; AND REDUCING THE POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT. THE COMMISSION'S RECOMMENDATIONS HAVE BEEN FAVORABLY RECEIVED BY THE TECHNICAL TASK FORCE APPOINTED BY THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, AND ARE BEING REVIEWED BY COPODE AND GOVERNMENT POLICY MAKERS THIS WEEK. ARMY COMMANDER ZINCKE INFORMED THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE MILITARY IS PREPARING FOR A PLEBISCITE ON THE CONSTITUTION, AND PLANS TO DOUBLE THE NUMBER OF VOTING PLACES TO FACILITATE ACCESS TO THE POLLS. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ON MARCH 31, POLCOUNS AND POLOFF RECEIVED A READOUT FROM JOSE LUIS CEA ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS APPROVED BY THE JOINT RN/COPODE COMMISSION. CEA IS ONE OF THE EXPERTS NAMED BY THE RN TO THE COMMISSION AND ONE OF THE COUNTRY'S LEADING CONSTITUTIONAL LAWYERS.

DECLARING A GROUP UNCONSTITUTIONAL. NO ACTION COULD BE TAKEN AGAINST INDIVIDUALS WHO SIMPLY HOLD SUCH BELIEFS AS IS NOW POSSIBLE UNDER THE CURRENT LANGUAGE OF ARTICLE 8. CEA SAID THE CONSENSUS ON THE COMMISSION - AND AMONG GOC CONSTITUTIONALISTS CONSULTED - IS THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY WOULD THUS BE GIVEN A "LAST CHANCE" TO LEGALIZE ITSELF. IF THE PC (OR OTHER PARTIES) EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR THE VIOLENT OVERTHROW OF THE INSTITUTIONAL ORDER, IT WOULD BE BANNED, WITH POPULAR ACCEPTANCE OF THE MEASURE.

4. (U) AMENDMENT PROCESS: AMENDMENTS ARE TO BE APPROVED BY A THREE-FIFTHS MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES OF THE CONGRESS. THEY MAY THEN BE VETOED BY THE PRESIDENT, BUT IN SUCH AN EVENT, THERE IS TO BE AN AUTOMATIC NATIONAL REFERENDUM ON THE AMENDMENT. CEA SAID THIS PROVISION WAS THE SUBJECT OF CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION, BUT

AGREEMENT WAS NOT THAT DIFFICULT TO REACH. RN DELEGATES WERE SOMEWHAT CONCERNED THAT CERTAIN ELEMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION PROTECTING INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS SHOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT TO AMEND. HOWEVER, THE COMMISSION ALSO AGREED TO RECOMMEND THAT INTERNATIONAL TREATIES ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND OTHER ISSUES BE ELEVATED TO THE STATUS OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS. THE RN DELEGATES WERE CONVINCED THAT PROTECTION PROVIDED IN INTERNATIONAL TREATIES WOULD SUFFICE TO MEET THEIR CONCERNS.

5. (U) APPOINTIVE SENATORS: THE COMMISSION AGREED THAT ALL SEATS FOR APPOINTIVE SENATORS, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF EX-PRESIDENTS, SHOULD BE

6. (U) EXPANSION OF THE CONGRESS: THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDED THAT THE SENATE BE EXPANDED TO FIFTY SEATS. THIS WOULD PROVIDE THREE SLOTS (INSTEAD OF THE CURRENT TWO) FROM EACH OF THE THIRTEEN GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS (FOR A TOTAL OF 39) WITH ELEVEN ADDITIONAL SEATS TO BE ALLOCATED IN ACCORDANCE WITH POPULATION DISTRIBUTION. THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDED THAT THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES BE EXPANDED TO ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY SEATS.

7. (U) NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL: THE COUNCIL WOULD BE EXPANDED WITH THE ADDITION OF TWO MORE CIVILIANS, THE PRESIDENT OF THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES AND THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL. THIS WOULD ASSURE A CIVILIAN MAJORITY. IN ADDITION, THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS THAT THE NSC'S CURRENT POWERS TO REVIEW AND REVOKE ACTS OF ALL GOVERNMENT BODIES WHICH INFRINGE ON NATIONAL SECURITY BE ELIMINATED. THE COUNCIL WOULD BE AN ADVISORY BODY TO PROVIDE PRIVATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT.

FOR CONGRESSIONAL OFFICE AS WELL AS PROSCRIPTIONS AGAINST OFFICERS OF LABOR AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS BEING CANDIDATES. IT WOULD ELIMINATE REQUIRED EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND FOR DEPUTIES AND SENATORS. THE AGE LIMIT FOR SENATORS WOULD BE LOWERED TO THIRTY-FIVE (FROM FORTY).

10. (U) MISCELLANEOUS: THE COMMISSION ELIMINATES THE PRESIDENT'S POWER TO DISSOLVE THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES ONCE DURING HIS TENURE AND TO CALL NEW ELECTIONS. IT ALSO RECOMMENDS THAT NEW ELECTIONS BE OBLIGATORY IN THE EVENT OF THE PRESIDENT'S DEATH OR INCAPACITATION WITHIN NINETY DAYS. THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR WOULD SERVE AS INTERIM PRESIDENT. THE SENATE IS THUS DIVESTED OF THE RESPONSIBILITY GIVEN IT IN THE 1980 CONSTITUTION FOR NAMING A REPLACEMENT FOR THE PRESIDENT.

PLEBISCITE IN THE COMING MONTHS. THE RECOMMENDATIONS ARE BEING REVIEWED THIS WEEK.

12. (C) COMMENT: THE JOINT COMMISSION'S CONSENSUS ON

CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM IS AN IMPORTANT BREAKTHROUGH WHICH COULD HELP SET THE PARAMETERS FOR A GOC-SPONSORED PACKAGE TO MODIFY THE CONSTITUTION THROUGH A PLEBISCITE THIS JUNE. OVER THE WEEKEND INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES REAFFIRMED THE GOVERNMENT'S WILLINGNESS TO MOVE AHEAD WITH REFORMS AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE. PINOCHET MET WITH ARMY UNIT COMMANDERS, INSTRUCTING THEM ON THE ROLE THEY WOULD PLAY IN SUCH A PLEBISCITE. ARMY DEPUTY COMMANDER GENERAL ZINCKE MENTIONED TO THE AMBASSADOR ON MARCH 4 THAT THE MILITARY IS PREPARING TO CARRY OUT A PLEBISCITE, AND THAT IT PLANS TO DOUBLE THE NUMBER OF VOTING PLACES. (THE LONG LINES AT THE POLLS IN THE 1988 PLEBISCITE, WHICH RESULTED FROM THE MILITARY'S DECISION TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF POLLING PLACES FOR SECURITY REASONS, CREATED PROBLEMS IN MAINTAINING ORDER.)

13. (C) CEA WAS HEARTENED THAT THE GOC'S TECHNICAL COMMISSION ON THE CONSTITUTION HAD RESPONDED POSI-

TIVELY TO THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE RN-COPODE TASK FORCE. HOWEVER, THE POLITICIANS AND NOT THE TECHNICIANS ARE THOSE WHO WILL HAVE THE LAST WORD. WITHIN COPODE, THERE IS DISCONTENT OVER THE TASK FORCE'S COMMITMENT TO MAINTAIN THE REQUIREMENT FOR A HIGH (60 PERCENT) QUORUM WITHIN THE HOUSE AND SENATE ON PROPOSALS FOR CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION. MANY OPPOSITION LEADERS ARE ALSO INSISTING THAT THE SENATE BE FULLY ELECTED, RATHER THAN GRANT PINOCHET A SEAT FOR LIFE IN THE PARLIAMENT. HOWEVER, THE ARGUMENTS FOR COMPROMISE ARE ALSO STRONG. OPPOSITION CANDIDATES AND INDEPENDENT REFORMERS COULD WELL WIN 60 PERCENT OF THE SEATS IN THE NEXT CONGRESS. AND IT WOULD SOLVE A MAJOR HEADACHE FOR AYLWIN, IF HE IS THE

CONFIDENTIAL

NEXT PRESIDENT, TO HAVE SOME MAJOR ISSUES OF CONSTI-TUTIONAL REFORM ALREADY SOLVED BY THE TIME HE ASSUMES OFFICE.

14. (C) ON THE GOVERNMENT SIDE, HARD-LINERS SUCH AS SERGIO MELNICK, HUGO ROSENDE AND ADMIRAL MERINO HAVE OPPOSED THE IDEA OF TINKERING WITH THE CONSTI-TUTION AT THIS TIME. UDI HAS WEIGHED IN WITH CACERES WITH ITS OWN PACKAGE OF REFORMS, WHICH ARE CLOSER TO THE GOC'S ORIGINAL PROPOSALS (ADDING ONLY ONE CIVILIAN TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL; MAKING THE MECHAN-ISM FOR CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION SOMEWHAT MORE FLEXIBLE, BUT STILL REQUIRING TWO SUCCESSIVE CONGRESSES; MAINTAINING THE 9 APPOINTED SENATORS). PINOCHET AND HIS ADVISORS REALIZE THAT THE POWERS OF THE NEXT PRESIDENCY SHOULD BE REDUCED, NOW THAT IT APPEARS TO BE OUT OF THEIR REACH. GOVERNMENT POLITICAL STRATEGISTS ARE ALSO KEENLY AWARE THAT TO OVERCOME THE IMPACT OF THE 1988 PLEBISCITE DEFEAT, IT WOULD HELP THEM TO GO INTO THE 1989 ELECTIONS WITH A SOLID ELECTORAL VICTORY IN A PLEBISCITE ON REFORM. The Embassy of Chile presents its compliments to the Department of State and has the honor of referring to the Notes of January 12 and March 2, 1989, transmitted via the Embassy of the United States in Santiago to the Foreign Ministry of Chile related to invocation by the United States of the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty of 1914 and naming Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of said Treaty.

In this connection, the Department's attention is invited to the penultimate paragraph of the Foreign Ministry's Note dated January 26, 1989, advising the Embassy of the United States in Santiago that the Foreign Ministry was studying the scope and applicability of the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty. That study is now sufficiently advanced to lead to the conclusion that those aspects of the Treaty are uncertain with respect to the goals pursued by the two Governments.

In view of that uncertainty, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile has arrived at the conclusion that a detailed study is necessary by representatives of both Governments of all diplomatic exchanges between the two countries and documentation relating to the Bryan-Suárez Mujica Treaty in order to determine in an objective manner all the facts relevant to said Treaty.

For that purpose, Chile proposes that a meeting be held in the month of April, 1989, between representatives of the two Governments to address that matter.

The Embassy of Chile avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State the assurances of its distinguished consideration.

MEMORANDUM

April 6, 1989

~~TO:~~ FM : L - Ms. Mochary

~~FROM:~~ TO: L/ARA - Matthew H. Adler

SUBJECT: Letelier

Attached is the Chilean response to our invocation of the 1914 Treaty. In essence the GOC is stalling. It states that representatives of both governments should perform "a detailed study" concerning the Treaty's applicablility, and proposes that a meeting to discuss this problem be held this month.

The desk believes that we should have this meeting, but that we should not go down the road of performing study after study preliminary to invoking the Treaty. Rather, we should be prepared shortly to inform the Swiss that a president needs to be appointed.

The DCM for Embassy Santiago will be in town next week, and we will be discussing these issues. What are your views?

I support a meeting to discuss "this problem". We could lay out the treaty applicability, ask them to choose from our list and then inform them we are going to the Swiss. Have they given us the names of their arbitrators? We must put them down on Rel. e. Say we will have the mtg. but you must show your good faith by carrying out your undertaking to appoint new arbitrators.

RE: Alfredo Rojas Castaneda

Señor Ministro:

I am a lawyer practicing in the United States and firmly believe that the basic human rights of all people throughout the world must be respected. It has come to my attention that Alfredo Rojas Castaneda, a 34-year-old electronics engineer and director of the State Railways until the 1973 coup, was detained by members of DINA on the evening of March 4, 1975 as he was driving home from work. He apparently was then seen by fellow detainees in the Villa Grimaldi until the last few days of April, after which he was never seen again. I have also learned that a 1987 book, "Bomba en una calle de Palermo," revealed that between 1973 and 1976 identity cards of five Chileans were discovered in the desk of a DINA agent in Buenos Aires. One was the identity card of Alfredo Rojas. Finally, I understand that one day during the search for her son, Alfredo's mother saw his car (now with Argentinian license plates) outside the headquarters of Investigaciones.

I am extremely concerned about the fate of Alfredo Rojas Castaneda, and I respectfully request that you pursue an investigation of his disappearance. I urge you to make all facts relating to his disappearance public and reveal his whereabouts or, if he is no longer living, deliver his body.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Senator Dixon:

This is in response to your inquiry concerning the pending case involving the medical records of the Vicariate of Solidarity in Chile. Your letter was on behalf of [B6

The United States Government has followed this case closely since its inception. Our Ambassador to Chile, Charles Gillespie, Jr. recently met with Bishop Sergio Valech, head of the Vicariate, to discuss this case and other matters involving the human rights work of the Church. We have also raised this case with high officials of the Chilean Government. On February 3, 1989 our Embassy's Charge d' Affaires, George Jones, called on Bishop Valech at Vicariate headquarters to express again the U.S. Government's support for the Vicariate's efforts to promote human rights.

Following that meeting, Mr. Jones reiterated in an interview with the press the U.S. Government's long-standing view that the Vicariate of Solidarity is a highly respected human rights organization with a well-deserved international reputation and that we would deeply regret any action which would compromise the ability of the Vicariate to perform effectively its important activities.

Support for a return to democracy and respect for human and civil rights is the cornerstone of U.S. policy toward Chile. Accordingly, we will continue to follow the Vicariate case with great interest.

FRONT OF THE BUILDING. THE BUILDING WAS EMPTY AT THE TIME OF THE EXPLOSION AND THERE WERE NO INJURIES. GRAPES" AND HUNG UP.

2. THE BOMB, ESTIMATED BY CHILEAN POLICE TO HAVE BEEN ONE KILO OF AMMONIA GELATIN EXPLOSIVE, WAS POWERFUL ENOUGH TO HAVE BROKEN WINDOWS IN BUILDINGS AS FAR AS 50 YARDS FROM THE BNC AND VIRTUALLY DESTROYED AN AUTOMOBILE THAT WAS PARKED ON THE STREET IN FRONT OF THE BNC. A PRELIMINARY ANALYSIS OF EVIDENCE AT THE SCENE SUGGESTS THAT THE ACTUAL DEVICE MAY HAVE BEEN A PIPE BOMB. THE BOMB WAS PLACED ON THE DOORSTEP DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF A SECONDARY ENTRANCE TO THE BNC. A BLAST CRATER APPROXIMATELY TWO AND A HALF FEET IN DIAMETER WAS DISCOVERED AT THIS LOCATION. DAMAGE TO THE BNC BUILDING APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN COSMETIC RATHER THAN STRUCTURAL. THE DOOR AND FRAME WHERE THE BOMB WAS PLACED WERE DESTROYED, WINDOWS IN THE 3 STORIES ABOVE THE ENTRANCE WERE BROKEN, AND THERE WAS EXTENSIVE DAMAGE TO WINDOW FRAMES AND SASHES AND SOME DAMAGE TO INTERIOR WALLS ON THE FIRST AND SECOND STORIES. TOTAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING IS ROUGHLY ESTIMATED AT 5 TO 10 THOUSAND DOLLARS.

3. THE EVENING CLEAN-UP CREW AND MISSION GUARDS HAD LOCKED AND LEFT THE BUILDING ONLY 3 MINUTES BEFORE THE BLAST. THOSE REPONSIBLE FOR THE BOMBING SEEM TO HAVE BEEN FAMILIAR WITH THE ROUTINE AT THE BNC AND TIMED THE EXPLOSION TO MINIMIZE THE CHANCE OF INJURY.

4. THE MYLAR COVERED WINDOWPANES IN THE FRONT OF THE BUILDING WERE SHATTERED AND BLOWN OUT OF THEIR FRAMES, BUT REMANED MOSTLY INTACT.

5. AT 0045 HOURS ON APRIL 7 THE LOCAL POLICE RECEIVED AN ANONYMOUS CALL FROM AN INDIVIDUAL WHO STATED THAT A BOMB HAD BEEN PLACED IN FRONT OF THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AND WAS SET TO GO OFF IN 15 MINUTES. POLICE RESPONDED TO THE CHANCERY AND CONSULATE AND CHECKED THE OUTSIDE OF BOTH AREAS. THE MSG DETACHMENT WAS RECALLED AND SEARCHED THE INSIDE OF THE CHANCERY. THE MISSION LOCAL GUARD FORCE SEARCHED THE CONSULATE GROUNDS. NOTHING WAS DISCOVERED.

6. THE MISSION LOCAL GUARD FORCE REMAINS ON ALERT. POLICE HAVE BEEN CONTACTED BY THE RSO'S OFFICE AND HAVE AGREED TO TEMPORARILY ASSIGN PERSONNEL TO THE BNC AFTER CLOSING HOURS.

THE COMMUNIQUE RATIONALIZES THE LATEST ECONOMIC ATTACKS, STATING, IN A CLASSIC EXAMPLE OF MARXIST-LENINIST REVERSAL AND DISTORTION, THAT "THE FMLN WARNS ARENA THAT IT WILL NOT TOLERATE MORE REPRESSION OF THE PEOPLE. THE ACTIONS CARRIED OUT BY OUR FORCES IN THE LAST FEW HOURS, SUCH AS THE SABOTAGE OF FIRMS BELONGING TO ARENA LEADER ARMANDO CALDERON SOL; THE HARRISON FIRM; LAS CRUCES COFFEE MILL; AND OTHERS, WHICH RESULTED IN MILLIONS IN DAMAGE, AS WELL AS OUR MILITANT ACTIONS CARRIED OUT ON THE EVENING OF 4 APRIL AND THE FOLLOWING MORNING, ARE CLEAR WARNINGS TO ARENA. EVERY REPRESSIVE ACTION WILL LEAD TO AN OVERWHELMING RESPONSE FROM US. WE CALL ON THE PEOPLE NOT TO BE INTIMIDATED AND TO FIGHT REPRESSION. DECLASSIFIED CHILE CAMPAIGN

"...he is my only son...His clothes, his books, everything is waiting for his return..."

ALFREDO ROJAS CASTANEDA "DISAPPEARED" MARCH 1975

ACTIONS: *detained by members of DINA on 4 March 1975; was seen by fellow detainees in the Villa Grimaldi, a well-known torture center in Santiago; he "disappeared" from the prison at the end of April.

*his identity card was found in the desk of a security agent; authorities admitted detaining him but stated they released him. However, it is believed that Chilean authorities had a plan, called "Operation Colombo" to stage the death of Chilean opponents in supposed guerrilla encounters in Argentina.

*his car was seen at the headquarters of the police, but when his mother returned with a lawyer it was gone.

INSIGHT: *see Chile Briefing, 'Operation Colombo' pages 8-9.

ALFREDO ROJAS CASTANEDA was a 34-year-old electronics engineer and director of the State Railways until the coup in Chile in 1973, and was then detained by members of the DINA (security police) on the evening of March 4, 1975 as he was driving home from work. He was seen by fellow detainees in the Villa Grimaldi, a well-known torture centre in Santiago, until the last few days of April, when he was never seen again.

In 1987, the book "Bomba en una calle de Palermo" (Bomb in a Street in Palermo) by two investigative reporters was published. It dealt primarily with secret foreign operations by the Chilean security forces in the Southern Cone between 1973 and 1976. The book revealed that in the desk of a DINA agent in Buenos Aires, Argentina, the identity cards of five Chileans had been discovered. One of them belonged to Alfredo Rojas.

At a meeting last year, one of the authors revealed her findings to members of the Agrupacion de Familiares de Detenidos Desaparecidos (Association of Relatives of Detained Prisoners). Present was the mother of Alfredo Rojas. "When I heard his name, I felt.... as if I had been stabbed very deep inside," she said. In the early days after Sr. Rojas' arrest, his relatives asked the courts to investigate his detention. The authorities admitted that Sr. Rojas had been detained in March 1975, but insisted that he had been released only a few days later. It is still not known why the identity card of Alfredo Rojas appeared in the possession of a DINA agent in Argentina . It is believed, however, that the finding confirms suspicions that in 1975 the Chilean authorities had a plan, called "Operation Colombo" to stage the death of Chilean opponents in supposed guerrilla encounters in Argentina. The plan would have been intended to persuade public opinion that the claim by relatives of "disappeared" prisoners was false, and that the people concerned were living in secret in neighboring Argentina. During the search for her son, Sra. Rojas saw her son's car outside the headquarters of investigaciones (criminal investigation police) and although the car now had Argentinian numberplates, she recognized the distinctive hood and petrol cap her son had had fitted to the car. When she returned with her lawyer, the car was gone. Says Sra. Rojas"...I sometimes wake up thinking I hear his footsteps or that I have the feeling someone is saying "Mummy here I am."

Dear Archbishop Quinn:

I am writing in response to your February 13 letter to President Bush regarding El Salvador.

El Salvador's efforts to institute democracy, enforce respect for human rights, and redress social injustice are complicated and severely tested by the existence of a Marxist-Leninist guerrilla insurgency supported by Nicaragua, Cuba, and the Soviet Union. The five organizations that form the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation (FMLN) have been engaged in armed conflict against the Government since 1980 and are dedicated to the violent overthrow of the democratic process.

In recent years the FMLN, with an estimated 6,000 to 8,000 full-time guerrillas backed by a network of front groups consisting of part-time militia, clandestine cells, and paramilitary civilian supporters, has stepped up its program of urban bombings and assassinations of unprotected government officials. The FMLN has embarked on a campaign of threatening and assassinating mayors. Since March 1988, 10 mayors and 1 former mayor have been killed by the FMLN and over 90 of the country's 262 mayors have been forced to resign in the face of guerrilla threats. The FMLN also has increasingly relied on children for combat and support tasks in 1988. Finally, the insurgents have continued to seek to destroy the economy by attacking infrastructure and production facilities.

The armed forces total 56,000, including some 11,500 members of the three police forces, which are under the control of the Defense Ministry. As the insurgency gathered strength in the early 1980's, members of the security forces committed numerous human rights violations, including killings, disappearances, and torture. Up to 1983 members of the security forces acquiesced in the operations of several formal paramilitary groups operating as right wing death squads. Some of the paramilitary groups are believed to have contained individuals who members belonging at the same time to the police or military.

While the formal paramilitary death squads appeared to cease their operations after 1983, rightwing vigilantism has continued, albeit at a declining level. Reports in 1988 of efforts to resuscitate these formal paramilitary groups have not been substantiated.

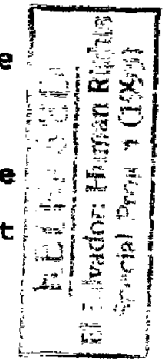
The Department of State continues to give a high priority to assisting El Salvador further consolidate its constitutional democracy. It is our policy to help the Salvadoran government and people establish a durable democracy which respects human rights and has a viable justice system. At the same time, we are also helping the Salvadorans combat the Marxist insurgency which has been seeking to overthrow the government for the last nine years.

Our firm commitment to these goals was emphasized by Vice President Quayle during his recent visit to El Salvador. The Vice President told Salvadoran political and military leaders that the United States would continue to help El Salvador provided there was continued improvement in human rights observance. Since the Vice President's trip, there have been significant developments in the San Sebastian case, in which two officers and seven enlisted men are accused of executing ten peasants. The Salvadoran military formed an honor board which found evidence of culpability by the accused. These soldiers have been dismissed from the military and remanded to the civilian courts for prosecution. We will continue to press the government of El Salvador to bring this case to a just conclusion.

Our policy in El Salvador has consistently supported efforts to reach a negotiated resolution of the conflict. We encouraged the Salvadoran government to carefully consider the election proposal the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) offered in January. The Salvadoran political parties met with the FMLN in Mexico. President Duarte responded by holding out the possibility of postponing elections and proposed that the FMLN meet with a government commission. The Salvadoran military, in support of President Duarte's proposal, announced a unilateral cease-fire from March 1 to June 1, which remains in effect. Despite the government's good faith attempt to find a peaceful solution, the FMLN refused to address the key issues of when the guerrillas would halt their attacks against civilians and elected officials and the FMLN's eventual demobilization.

Instead, the FMLN stepped-up its campaign of terrorism in an effort to disrupt the elections, to include bombings and assassinations. However, despite guerrilla intimidation against voters, death threats against voting officials, a transportation stoppage, and attacks on the power supply, over one million Salvadorans braved this intimidation to cast ballots. On June 1, El Salvador will achieve another milestone in its democratic development, when one democratically-elected president peacefully transfers power to another.

It is worth noting that despite the FMLN's rejection of the electoral process and its demonstrated commitment to terrorism as a way to achieve power, its political allies in the Democratic Convergence (CD) chose to remain in the election. Following the CD's fourth place finish, with 3.8 percent of the vote, CD presidential candidate Guillermo Ungo stated that the FMLN's campaign of violence to discredit the elections had hurt his party at the polls.



The people of El Salvador have struggled for nine years to build democracy in the face of political violence, and they deserve our support. President-elect Cristiani is currently in Washington meeting with several Senators and Congressmen. He is asking for a chance to put his team and policies into place and to begin to govern before his government is judged. We will assess the new government on its performance in further improving the observance of human rights standards. We will continue to support it if it continues the progress on democratization and human rights observance achieved by the Duarte administration.

Ambassador William Walker met with Lutheran Bishop Medardo Gomez to offer any assistance that the Bishop believes the Embassy might provide that would be useful in deterring further violence. Embassy officers are maintaining contact with church representatives in case we can be of assistance.

Bishop Gomez was the subject of anonymous death threats several times in recent years, including in September 1986 and September 1987. On the last occasion, former-Ambassador Corr arranged for the National Police to provide protection for Bishop Gomez, but the Bishop preferred not to use it. To our knowledge, none of the previous threats was followed by a related act of violence.

Our Embassy became aware of the most recent threat to Bishop Gomez when an American church worker telephoned an Embassy officer on the afternoon of December 23, 1988. The church worker said that a woman had telephoned Bishop Gomez's office at 11:30 that morning to issue the threat. Bishop Gomez later told Ambassador Walker that the church secretary who received the call said the woman sounded hysterical. He said the caller charged him with responsibility for the guerrilla attack on the armed forces headquarters that morning during which a guerrilla explosive device had severely damaged a health unit outside the military compound. The caller was not specific about the threat, saying only that the Bishop should "watch out." The Embassy officer agreed to pass the Embassy's concerns for Bishop Gomez's safety to the Salvadoran Government at the earliest possible opportunity. Embassy officials did so the same day.

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The Embassy received word early on December 28 that the Lutheran Church had been bombed. An Embassy officer visited the site that afternoon. The American church worker told him that a caretaker had heard someone enter the church prior to the explosion and that several items had been moved from their normal positions. At about 3:00 am, an explosive device detonated outside the street entrance to the office area in the rear of the church, severely damaging the offices. No one was injured. A police bomb squad arrived at the scene shortly afterwards. No one has claimed responsibility for the attack, and the identity of the perpetrators remains a mystery.

When Ambassador Walker visited the church on December 31, Bishop Gomez told him that a woman had telephoned his house about ten minutes prior to the explosion, but he was staying at another place for security reasons. Bishop Gomez assumed the woman was the same person who had threatened him. Ambassador Walker offered the Embassy's assistance and agreed to the Bishop's request that the Embassy issue a local press release condemning the bombing. At least four local newspapers subsequently published articles based on the release.

We share your concern for the safety of Bishop Gomez and all persons associated with the Salvadoran Lutheran Church. Ambassador Walker has made this clear not only in meetings with civilian, military and police leaders, but also in conversations with Bishop Gomez and with visiting U.S. Lutheran Church members. We will continue to make every effort to resolve the political differences that have immersed El Salvador in violence for so many years.

Sincerely,

Office of Central American Affairs

ALSO ON APRIL 11, A BOMB EXPLODED IN A BASEMENT BATHROOM OF THE TREASURY BUILDING, INJURING ONE WOMAN AND BREAKING WINDOWS. THE LOGO OF THE FPMR HAD BEEN PAINTED ON THE BATHROOM WALLS. A DAY EARLIER IN IQUIQUE, FIVE INDIVIDUALS ALLEGEDLY BELONGING TO THE "LAUTARO" TERRORIST GROUP WERE CAUGHT WITH INCENDIARY MATERIALS PRESUMABLY TO BURN DOWN A FISH MEAL PLANT IN ORDER TO CALL ATTENTION TO THE PLANT'S ENVIRONMENTAL DAMAGE.

3. (U) ON APRIL 12, MINISTER OF INTERIOR CACERES LINKED THE THREE TERRORIST ATTACKS AS PART OF A COORDINATED PLAN TO "IMPEDE THE PEACEFUL ADVANCE TOWARD TRUE DEMOCRACY AND POSSIBLE AGREEMENTS AND UNDERSTANDINGS BETWEEN ALL DEMOCRATIC SECTORS BROUGHT TOGETHER BY THE GOVERNMENT EXPRESSLY BY ORDER OF PRESIDENT PINOCHET." HE ALSO SAID THE COORDINATED ATTACKS WERE "PART OF A GENERAL STRATEGY TO MOUNT A PARALYZATION OF ACTIVITIES WHICH MARXIST GROUPS ARE ADVOCATING." THIS IS A REFERENCE TO THE UNIFIED WORKERS' CENTRAL (CUT) PLANS FOR AN APRIL 18 STRIKE. CACERES SAID THE IQUIQUE ATTACK WAS SIMILAR TO THE RECENT SABOTAGING OF THE FRUIT INDUSTRY, A DELIBERATE ACT DESIGNED TO "CAUSE UNEMPLOYMENT AND SERIOUS ECONOMIC LOSES TO WIDE SECTIONS OF WORKERS AND

4. (C) COMMENT: IT IS NOT CLEAR AT THIS TIME THAT THE ACTS WERE COORDINATED OR PRESAGE A WAVE OF VIOLENCE TO PROVOKE INSTABILITY. WE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT THE TALCA VIOLENCE BEGAN WHEN PLAIN-CLOTHES POLICEMEN ASKED FOR THE IDENTITY CARDS OF INDIVIDUALS THEY DEEMED -- WITH REASON, IT APPEARS -- TO BE SUSPICIOUS. BOMBINGS ARE NOT NEW IN SANTIAGO, THERE HAVE BEEN SEVERAL IN RECENT MONTHS AND ACCORDING TO AT LEAST ONE NEWS REPORT, THE FIRE AT THE FISH MEAL FACTORY WAS PROMPTED BY DISGUST AT THE AWFUL SMELL. WHAT DOES SEEM CLEAR, HOWEVER, IS THAT THE GOC

WILL SEIZE ON THESE INCIDENTS TO SCORE POINTS ON ITS OPPONENTS WHEN IT CAN. IN THIS CASE, THE PRIMARY TARGET APPEARS TO BE THE CUT, PERHAPS TO PERSUADE CHILEANS TO IGNORE THE STRIKE CALL BY PAINTING THE CUT AS VIOLENCE-PRONE AND BENT ON DAMAGING THE CHILEAN ECONOMY. GILLESPIE

3. REGARDING COMMENTS HE MADE DURING HIS MEETING WITH DAS DOBRIANSKY, JUDGE GARCIA REPEATED THAT HE UNDERSTANDS FROM THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES HAVE INCREASED BUT THE SEVERITY HAS DECLINED. HE AGREED THAT THERE HAD BEEN FEW IF ANY CHARGES OF TORTURE IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS, AND ATTRIBUTED THIS TO EITHER (1) PEOPLE ARE NOT INVITING FURTHER POLICE ATTENTION TO THEMSELVES IN WHAT WILL PROBABLY BE THE LAST YEAR OF THE PINOCHET REGIME; OR (2) TORTURE HAS ENDED BECAUSE IT NOW SERVES NO POLITICAL END (E.G., INTIMIDATION) AND CNI OFFICERS ARE TRYING TO DISTANCE THEMSELVES FROM SUCH CHARGES. WHEN ASKED ABOUT HIS REPORTED COMMENT THAT KILLINGS HAD INCREASED DURING CONFRONTATIONS, HE SAID HE MAY NOT HAVE EXPRESSED HIMSELF CLEARLY, AND AGREED THAT CONFIDENTIAL

FOLLOWING HIS RECENT TRIP TO CANADA AND THE US (REF B). HE SAID THERE HAD BEEN ONE NEWSPAPER REPORT THAT HE WOULD AGAIN BE SANCTIONED BY THE SUPREME COURT, BUT IT WAS NOT TRUE AS FAR AS HE KNEW. HE ALSO SAID THAT A SUPREME COURT JUDGE HAD EXPLICITLY STATED TO A CLOSE FAMILY FRIEND, WHO IS ALSO A FRIEND OF GARCIA'S, THAT THERE WERE NO CHARGES PENDING AGAINST HIM. GARCIA NOTED THAT HE HAD BEEN GIVEN A "3" RATING (THE LOWEST BEING 4) FOR HIS JUDICIAL WORK THIS PAST YEAR, AND THEORETICALLY COULD BE DISMISSED FROM THE BENCH IF HE WERE TO RECEIVE A "3" OR LOWER RATING IN JANUARY 1990. HE THOUGHT THIS WOULD BE VERY UNLIKELY, NO MATTER WHO WINS THE DECEMBER 1989 ELECTIONS. GARCIA NOTED THAT HE HAS NOT BEEN THREATENED, EITHER. THE ANONYMOUS THREATS AND ABUSIVE CALLS STOPPED OCTOBER 5, 1989, HE SAID.

4. GARCIA EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR HIS MEETINGS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT, FOR THE CONCERN FOR HIS WELL-BEING, AND FOR THE PHOTOGRAPH OF HIMSELF WITH DAS DOBRIANSKY. GILLESPIE

PUBLIC STATEMENTS. THE TARGET OF THIS EFFORT APPEARS TO BE THE RECENT CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS PROPOSED BY THE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY AND THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY OPPOSITION ALLIANCE (COPODE). THOSE PROPOSALS WOULD CONSIDERABLY REDUCE THE ROLE OF THE ARMED FORCES IN A FUTURE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT. COPODE SOURCES INFORM EMBASSY THAT THE REFORM PACKAGE MINISTER OF INTERIOR CARLOS CACERES IS EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE NEXT WEEK WOULD MAKE MINIMAL CHANGES IN THE 1980 CONSTITUTION AND LEAVE VIRTUALLY INTACT THE MILITARY'S PREROGATIVES. IT WILL BE DIFFICULT, HOWEVER, FOR COPODE TO ACTIVELY OPPOSE THE PACKAGE IN A NATIONAL PLEBISCITE SINCE IN ITS VIEW ALMOST ANY REFORM IS FOR THE BETTER. AS A RESULT THE OPPOSITION MAY ADOPT A POSITION OF INDIFFERENCE RATHER THAN WASTE RESOURCES ON A MAJOR "NO" CAMPAIGN. THERE ARE CLEAR ADVANTAGES FOR THE GOC TO PROCEED WITH A PLEBISCITE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM BOTH TO GLOSS OVER MEMORY OF ITS OCTOBER 1988 DEFEAT AND TO FURTHER LEGITIMIZE THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. END SUMMARY.

3. THERE WAS A MENACING GROWL OUT OF THE ARMY HIGH COMMAND THIS WEEK (REF B). IN AN UNUSUAL COMMUNIQUE, IT SERVED NOTICE TO POLITICIANS THAT THERE WERE LIMITS TO ITS PATIENCE WITH THEIR DISRESPECT TOWARD PRESIDENT PINOCHET, EXPRESSED ITS SOLIDARITY WITH HIM ("OFFENSES THAT SEEK TO IMPAIR THE IMAGE UF HIS EXCELLENCY THE PRESIDENT AND COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMY AFFECT EACH AND EVERY ARMY MEMBER"), AND REITERATED THE ARMED FORCES' ROLE AS THE

4. ISSUED BY THE ARMY OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS, THE COMMUNIQUE HAD POLITICAL OBSERVERS SCRATCHING THEIR HEADS TRYING TO FIGURE OUT WHAT "OFFENSES" STRUCK SUCH A NERVE. SPECULATION FOCUSED ON A CLODOMIRO ALMEYDA COMMENT REPORTED FROM WIRE SERVICES MARCH 28 DURING HIS VISIT TO HAVANA TO THE EFFECT THAT PINOCHET SHOULD GO INTO EXILE AFTER THE LECTIONS IN DECEMBER. AFTER HIS RETURN TO SANTIAGO, ALMEYDA CLARIFIED THAT HE HAD NOT MEANT TO IMPLY THAT ANY FUTURE GOVERNMENT SHOULD FORCE THE EX-PRESIDENT INTO EXILE, HE WAS SIMPLY SUGGESTING WHAT COULD HAPPEN AND INDEED HAS HAPPENED IN OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. THE OFFENDING STATEMENTS MAY ALSO HAVE BEEN OPPOSITION LEADERS' HARSH CRITICISM OF PINOCHET'S MARCH 30 SPEECH.

5. ALTHOUGH THERE IS NO DOUBT IN ANY ONE'S MIND THAT IT CAME FROM PINOCHET HIMSELF, INTERESTINGLY, THE ARMY COMMUNIQUE WAS NOT ENDORSED BY THE OTHER ARMED FORCES, EVEN THOUGH IT ENVOKES THE ENTIRE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT IN ITS FINAL SALLY ON THEIR JOINT ROLE AS "GUARANTORS." CARABINERO DIRECTOR GENERAL RODOLFO STANGE SUBSEQUENTLY SAID, "I APPLAUD AND UNDERSTAND THE REACTION OF THE ARMY TOWARD ITS COMMANDER IN CHIEF." NAVY COMMANDER JOSE TORIBIO MERINO COMMENTED IN PINOCHET'S DEFENSE, "NO OTHER CHIEF OF STATE HAS PERFORMED BETTER THAN THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OVER THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS."

GUZMAN AND NATIONAL RENEWAL'S SERGIO ONOFRE JARPA. HOWEVER, THEY HAVE AVOIDED ENDORSING WHAT APPEARS TO BE THE CENTRAL THESIS OF THE COMMUNIQUE -- THE CONTINUING ROLE OF THE ARMED FORCES AS THE PROTECTORS OF CHILE'S INSTITUTIONAL ORDER. IN CASE ANYONE MISSED THAT POINT, IT WAS DRIVEN HOME HARD AND UNAMBIGUOUSLY IN AN APRIL 12 EDITORIAL IN THE GOVERNMENT OWNED NEWSPAPER LA NACION. "ALL THOSE SECTORS OF THE OPPOSITION WHO WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE ACTIONS OF THE ARMED FORCES LIMITED SIMPLY TO GUARDIAN OF THE COUNTRY'S EXTERNAL SECURITY, SHOULD ACCUSTOM THEMSELVES ONCE AND FOR ALL, TO THE FACT THAT OUR INSTITUTIONS OF DEFENSE ARE THE GUARANTORS OF THE INSTITUTIONALITY, AND AS SUCH THEY HAVE A PREPONDERANT ROLE IN NATIONAL EVENTS AND PUBLIC LIFE."

7. THIS IS THE THEME PINOCHET HIT HARD IN THE SPEECH AT THE SWEARING IN CEREMONY FOR THE NEW CABINET MEMBERS (REF B), AND REITERATED IN A SPEECH THIS WEEK IN VALDIVIA. IN ASSERTING THESE PREROGATIVES OF THE ARMED FORCES, HE HAS VERY MUCH IN MIND PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS WHICH WOULD DEPRIVE THE MILITARY OF ITS OVERSIGHT POWERS AS CURRENTLY ENSHRINED IN THE 1980 CONSTITUTION. HIS SPECIFIC TARGET IS THE JOINT PROPOSALS OF THE CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY (RN) AND THE OPPOSITION CONCERTACION OF POLITICAL PARTIES FOR DEMOCRACY (COPODE) (REF C). WITH THE PRELIMINARY BLESSING OF THE RN, THE MAJOR

PARTY OF THE RIGHT, THESE REFORMS WOULD GO A LONG WAY TOWARD ELIMINATING THE ROLE OF THE ARMED FORCES IN A FUTURE CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT.

8. COPODE APPROVED THE REFORM PACKAGE OVER THE WEEKEND, AND IT IS NOW PENDING REVIEW BY RN LEADERSHIP. WE ARE NOW HEARING THAT IT IS UNLIKELY TO BE APPROVED BY THE PARTY'S POLITICAL COMMISSION DESPITE PRESIDENT JARPA'S SUPPORT FOR THE PACKAGE. RN SUPPORTERS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDACY OF HERNAN BUCHI, OF WHICH THEY ARE A GOOD NUMBER, ARE REPORTEDLY STRONGLY RESISTING THE PACKAGE BECAUSE IT GOES MUCH FURTHER THAN THEIR MAN IS WILLING TO GO IN DEFYING PRESIDENT PINOCHET. OPPOSITION LEADERS HAVE SEEN THIS AS THE REAL TEST OF WHETHER BUCHI HAS IT IN HIM TO DISTANCE HIMSELF FROM THE PINOCHET REGIME. STAKING OUT SUCH A POSITION IS VIEWED BY MOST ELECTORAL STRATEGISTS WITHIN THE RN AS ESSENTIAL FOR THEIR HAVING ANY REALISTIC CHANCE OF WINNING THE DECEMBER PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. JARPA, HIMSELF, BEGAN THE PROCESS THE NIGHT OF THE PLEBISCITE WHEN HE ACKNOWLEDGED THE "NO" WIN BEFORE THE GOC WAS READY TO ADMIT DEFEAT. IN ANALYZING THE ARMY COMMUNIQUE WHICH HE AND OTHER OPPOSITION LEADERS VIGOROUSLY DENOUNCED IN PUBLIC, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICE PRESIDENT GENARO ARRIAGADA PRIVATELY SAID HE SAW IT AS A THREAT AIMED NOT AT THE OPPOSITION, BUT THE RN. "THE MILITARY," HE TOLD POLCOUNS, "ARE LIKE HORSES, THEY CAN SMELL FEAR -- AND THEY HAVE PICKED UP THE SCENT IN HERNAN BUCHI".

A COPODE SOURCE TELLS US THEY HAVE ALREADY RECEIVED THE OUTLINES OF THAT PACKAGE. IT INCLUDES (1) REFORM OF ARTICLE 8 IN A MANNER WHICH WILL PROSCRIBE POLITICAL GROUPS WHICH UNDERTAKE ACTIONS TO PROMOTE "CLASS STRUGGLE", AS WELL AS VIOLENCE; (2) EXPANSION OF THE SENATE TO 40 (RATHER THAN 26) ELECTED SEATS, BUT WITH RETENTION OF ALL THE APPOINTED SENATORS; (3) REDUCTION OF THE PRESIDENTIAL TERM

BEGINNING IN MARCH 1990 TO FOUR YEARS; (4) ADDITION OF ONE CIVILIAN TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL; AND (5) AN ADJUSTMENT IN THE AMENDMENT PROCESS TO MAKE IT SOMEWHAT LESS DIFFICULT. WHAT THE OPPOSITION HAS CALLED A "MINIMALIST" PACKAGE, THIS IS MUCH MORE IN KEEPING WITH WHAT PINOCHET HAS SAID HE WOULD ACCEPT "WITHOUT CHANGING ONE IOTA THE SPIRIT OF THE CONSTITUTION". WITH THE TOKEN EXCEPTION OF PUTTING CIVILIANS ON A PAR WITH THE MILITARY IN THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, IT WOULD LEAVE INTACT THE INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF THE ARMED FORCES' ROLE IN CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT.

10. COMMENT: THE MUCH HERALDED OPENING TO CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM WITH PINOCHET'S SURPRISING MARCH 11 SPEECH (REF D) IS CRACKING UP TO BE A GOOD DEAL LESS THAN MANY HAD HOPED. THE REFORMS SUGGESTED DO NOT GO ANYWHERE NEAR AS FAR AS THE OPPOSITION WANTED, BUT THEY ARE IN THE DIRECTION THEY WERE ADVOCATING, AND IT WILL BE DIFFICULT TO OPPOSE THEM. SUBJECT: [redacted] Warns that Pinochet Intends to Thwart Transition to Democracy.

SUMMARY

Ambassador Gillespie reports (see attached cable) that according to [redacted] Pinochet plans to interrupt Chile's transition to democracy by somehow thwarting plans to hold the presidential and congressional elections set for December, 1989. We are analyzing the information and seeking further clarification. However, given Pinochet and the Army's oft-stated pledge to uphold the terms of the 1980 Constitution and the progress already taken toward a transition to democracy in Chile, it would be very difficult for Pinochet to carry out successfully whatever plan he may have threatened [redacted]

DISCUSSION

A Plot: On April 11, Ambassador Gillespie met with [redacted] who described a [redacted] meeting at which President Pinochet informed [redacted] that he could not turn over power to the civilian opposition as they would negate the advances of the past 15 years and ruin the country. To prevent this, Pinochet reportedly stated that he is prepared to interrupt the transition before the December, 1989 elections.

While the conversation reported above must be taken very seriously, it is also clear that Pinochet cannot easily disrupt the transition to democracy without paying a great price, probably too high even for the Army to accept.

The terms of the 1980 Constitution, which the military is sworn to uphold, prohibit Pinochet from continuing in power and he himself has announced that he will not run in the December, 1989 election. Very few civilians would support a move to keep him in power and it is not at all certain that the Army, his ultimate source of strength, would agree to extra-constitutional steps to prolong his rule. Ironically, Pinochet is effectively bound by the rules of a system he himself created. Breaking these rules would prove difficult and highly risky even for the Machiavellian Pinochet. Moreover, the plot seems inconsistent with reports that Pinochet is backing the candidacy of his ex-Finance Minister Hernan Buchi, albeit from off stage.

Ambassador Gillespie recommends and we agree that for now we should do nothing beyond prudently probing the veracity of this information and thinking about possible contingencies.

the Ambassador will both probe and reiterate our firm support for the democratic process.

Although we think Pinochet would like to hold on to power, his possibilities of doing so seem increasingly limited. We will continue to follow this issue carefully.

L/ARA contemplates preparation of papers on the following subjects in support of the potential meeting.

1. A paper on arguments open to Chile on the scope and applicability of the 1914 Treaty. We can only see two such arguments: that the treaty was not meant to cover such disputes; and, that the treaty/commission was not consummated. We have good factual and legal arguments in response.

2. A paper reviewing Chile's proposals to arbitrate the jurisdictional/sovereign immunity issues. They provided a legal memo on this subject in 1979 which we are searching for.

3. A paper reviewing the 1972-3 U.S.-Chile meetings and Chilean statements re use of the 1914 Treaty in relation to the Kennecott dispute.

4. A paper presenting a historical sketch of the Bryan treaties and the place held by the Chilean treaty.

5. A paper outlining the areas of ostensible Chilean cooperation re the Letelier case.

6. A paper setting out a hypothetical model of how the Commission would operate administratively, procedurally and financially.

7. A list of U.S. Chilean, and joint appointments to the Commission, past and present. (Our records may be incomplete).

Other materials readily available, and applicable are:

a. The Treaty
b. USG background statement on the Letelier case
c. USG background paper on its efforts to resolve the dispute
d. Copies of diplomatic correspondence associated with U.S. invocation of the Treaty.
e. Bios on present Commission members.
f. List of possible candidates to serve as the president of the Commission

TALKING POINTS

- COURTESY POINT

--I have heard good things regarding your background and experience for this important post and look forward to working with you as both of us assume our new duties.

- CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY

--The U.S. recognizes that this is a key year in Chilean history, a year of transition towards democracy.

--We will follow with great interest the political events which take place leading up to and after the December, 1989 elections.

--We recognize that a number of important issues such as constitutional reform and the rules governing the new Congress are yet to be resolved, but hope that solutions can be arrived at through dialogue and agreement between the Government and political parties representing the broad wishes of the Chilean people.

--The U.S. will continue to support the transition to full democracy in Chile without, of course, taking sides in the political debate.

- THE FRUIT CRISIS

--While we lament the substantial economic damage which was caused by the unfortunate need to momentarily halt fruit exports to the U.S., we were very pleased that the USG and the GOC were able to work together to get trade flowing again.

--We will continue to work closely with your Government both in Washington and in Santiago to try to avoid future such difficulties and to seek means of cooperating in managing this unhappy episode.

- THE CHILEAN ECONOMY

--I have heard many good things about Chile's successful, free market-based economy.

--A smoothly-functioning economy such as yours provides an excellent base on which democracy can rest and bodes well for future stability.

UNCLASSIFIED

o THE LETELIER CASE

--We had hoped that the mechanism of the 1914 Treaty would be an excellent means of working together to resolve the Letelier case, a thorny issue in bilateral relations for many years.

--For this reason, the delay we have experienced in forming the international commission called for by the treaty is most unfortunate.

--We hope that you will give the highest priority to working with us to form this commission. We will be in touch with your government on this matter again very shortly.

TALKING POINTS

o COURTESY POINT

--I know you are well qualified for this important post and look forward to working with you as we assume our new duties. Your tour here as DCM overlapped with my time as Under Secretary.

o CHILE'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY

--The U.S. recognizes that this is a key year in Chilean history, a year of transition towards democracy.

--We will follow with great interest the political events which take place leading up to and after the December, 1989 elections.

--We recognize that a number of important issues such as constitutional reform and the rules governing the new Congress are yet to be resolved, but hope that solutions can be arrived at through dialogue and agreement between the Government and political parties representing the broad wishes of the Chilean people.

--The U.S. will continue to support the transition to full democracy in Chile without, of course, taking sides in the political debate. Our only interest is a free and fair process that reflects Chile's democratic traditions.

o THE FRUIT CRISIS

--While we lament the substantial economic damage which was caused by the unfortunate need to momentarily halt fruit exports to the U.S., we were very pleased that the USG and the GOC were able to work together to get trade flowing again.

--We will continue to work closely with your Government both in Washington and in Santiago to try to avoid future such difficulties and to seek means of cooperating in managing this unhappy episode.

o THE CHILEAN ECONOMY

--I understand that Chile's successful, free market-based economy is doing well despite the fruit crisis.

--A smoothly-functioning economy such as yours provides an excellent base on which democracy can rest and bodes well for future stability.

o THE LETELIER CASE

--We had hoped that the mechanism of the 1914 Treaty would be an excellent means of working together to resolve the Letelier case, a thorny issue in bilateral relations for many years.

--For this reason, the delay we have experienced in forming the international commission called for by the treaty is unfortunate. Our objective in invoking the treaty was to put this case on a course of steady progress towards a conclusion and thus avoid its becomming again a point of bilateral friction during your election year. Your failure to procede in carrying out your obligations to name your commission members is counter-productive and could lead to renewed pressure from the Hill.

--It is imperative that you give the highest priority to talking the steps necessary to form this commission and to get it operational.

FROM: ARA - Michael G. Kozak, Acting

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Chilean Ambassador Octavio Errazuriz on May 19 at 3:00 in your office.

I. PURPOSE

- Ambassador Errazuriz arrived in the U.S. in January and presented his credentials to the President on May 11. He requested this meeting as a courtesy call but will probably use the opportunity to lament that the USG is not affording Chile improved treatment following the October, 1988 plebiscite.

- Our purpose in this meeting is to underscore our continuing support for the process of democratic transition, stress that we acted responsibly and cooperated fully with the GOC on the recent fruit crisis, and note concern for lack of progress on the Letelier murder case.

II. KEY POINTS

- Chile's Transition to Democracy.

  --As a result of the October 1988 plebiscite, in which Chilean voters rejected Pinochet's bid to remain in power for eight more years, elections will be held on December 14, 1989.

  --Pinochet is prohibited by the constitution from being a candidate but may stay as Army chief.

  --There is little doubt that Pinochet wishes to remain in power, although his prospects are remote because of constitutional limitations and lack of support within the Armed Forces for taking extra-legal steps.

--Political groups in Chile are actively seeking candidates for president and congress and drawing up political platforms.

--The 16 political parties which united against Pinochet for a "no" vote in the plebiscite may run a single candidate for president, the Christian Democrat leader Patricio Aylwin.

--Conservative, pro-GOC parties attemped to launch Pinochet's ex-Finance Minister Hernan Buchi as a candidate, but Buchi eliminated himself from the race on May 15, leaving the conservative camp in disarray.

--Legislation governing the size and configuration of electoral districts and the procedure for electing senators and deputies has not yet been promulgated but is expected soon.

--Other important considerations which must be dealt with in the near future are constitutional reform, the nature of civil-military relations, and the thorny issue of whether members of the Chilean Armed Forces should be subject to judicial proceedings for human rights abuses.

--While the transition to democracy is proceeding as scheduled, several hurdles must be cleared prior to and after the newly-elected government takes office in March, 1990 in order for democratic rule to be consolidated.

o Chile's Dynamic Economy

--Chile's economy has been a success story, performing very well in the past five years.

--Fueled by a dynamic private sector and diversified exports, the economy has grown at a rapid pace, relatively undamaged by the fruit crisis. Inflation and unemployment are low, the country enjoys a very favorable balance of trade, and scheduled interest payments on the large foreign debt have been met.

--We have encouraged all political parties in Chile to preserve the free market policies which made these gains possible, while at the same time realizing that they will be under pressure to better distribute the fruits of this prosperity.

UNCLASSIFIED

o The Fruit Crisis

--The five-day ban on Chilean fruit exports to the U.S. imposed by the FDA in March because of the discovery of several poisoned grapes resulted in serious short term losses to the Chilean economy and a wave of anti-Americanism not seen in Chile since the days of the Allende regime in the early 1970s.

--Final figures may never be clear, but cautious estimates indicate that the episode may cost the Chilean economy about US $100 million. This is far less than original GOC estimates and the economy as a while is growing at a strong rate.

--Seizing the opportunity, the GOC has requested that the USG take action to alleviate the damage suffered from the disruption.

--They sought politically significant but ultimately impossible steps such as moving back the date of the USDA marketing order on Chilean grapes, reinstating Chile's GSP privileges (suspended by President Reagan in 1987 because of worker rights problems), inspecting fruit in Chile rather than the U.S., and supporting special loans to Chile from the MDBs.

--USDA worked with the Chileans to expedite treatment of their grapes but could not change the marketing order date. Positive responses to the other Chilean requests also appear unfeasible but we are engaged in a cordial dialogue with the Chilean Ambassador, the tone of relations has improved and we are reviewing other possible steps.

--Despite our close working relationship with the GOC on the fruit crisis and fast action to reestablish the flow of Chilean fruit to market, the GOC feels that the USG should have provided more dramatic compensatory assistance.

o The Letelier Case

--The 1976 political murder of former Chilean Foreign Minister Orlando Letelier and his U.S. assistant in Washington D.C. ordered by high GOC officials who are still under indictment by a U.S. court and living in Chile has remained a source of bilateral tension for many years.

UNCLASSIFIED

--After many fruitless efforts to obtain the cooperation of the GOC in bringing justice to the case, on January 12, 1989 we invoked a 1914 bilateral treaty with Chile which calls for the establishment of an international commission to determine responsibility for the crime.

--The GOC is attempting to sidetrack and delay this effort through stalling tactics aimed at avoiding the convocation of the commission.

--Legal Advisor Sofaer met with Errazuriz on May 5 and strongly urged the GOC to take steps to get the treaty commission functioning.

--Congress is interested in the case and some members may seek to take action against the GOC if the treaty process does not produce results.

ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, POLICE USED TEAR GAS AND WATER CANNON TO DISPERSE THE DEMONSTRATORS AFTER AT LEAST ONE PERSON WAS SHOT AND WOUNDED BY UNKNOWN MEN IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES.

2. (C) ACCORDING TO VICARIA'S ACTING EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR GUSTAVO VILLALOBOS (PLEASE PROTECT), NEITHER THE VICARIA NOR THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (CHRC) PARTICIPATED IN THE DEMONSTRATION, AND WERE NOT EVEN OFFICIALLY INVITED TO DO SO, ALTHOUGH THEY WERE AWARE OF PLANS TO HOLD IT. VILLALOBOS OPINED THAT THE DEMONSTRATION WAS UNFORTUNATE IN THAT THE ISSUE OF IMPUNITY FOR REGIME VIOLATORS OF HUMAN RIGHTS WAS SO ASSOCIATED WITH THE VIOLENT LEFT.

2. SUMMARY: DESPITE WIDE-SPREAD APATHY, THE UNIFIED WORKERS' CENTRAL (CUT) IS GOING AHEAD WITH PLANS TO HOLD A NATION-WIDE, 24-HOUR STRIKE ON APRIL 18. THERE APPEARS LITTLE LIKELIHOOD THAT IT WILL BE A SUCCESS, ALTHOUGH VIOLENCE OR THE THREAT OF VIOLENCE MIGHT KEEP ENOUGH BUSES OFF THE STREETS TO CAUSE WORK DISRUPTIONS. THERE IS A GOOD POSSIBILITY THAT THE STRIKE WILL PROVE JUST THE OPPOSITE OF WHAT ITS ORGANIZERS HOPE TO ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ARTURO MARTINEZ, TO STOP GOC PRIVITAZIATION PLANS FOR STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES AND TO GET A RESPONSE FROM THE MINISTER OF LABOR TO CUT'S POST-PLEBISCITE DEMANDS TO INCREASE THE MINIMUM WAGE, IMPROVE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING REGULATIONS, ETC. AN UNSTATED OBJECTIVE, AS ACTING CUT PRESIDENT DIEGO OLIVARES TOLD LABATT AT THE END OF MARCH, IS TO PROTEST THE 17-PARTY COALITION PARTIES FOR DEMOCRACY'S (COPODE) LACK OF ATTENTION TO LABOR AND SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS. OLIVARES MAINTAINS THAT THE OPPOSITION POLITICIANS HAVE IGNORED ORGANIZED LABOR'S DEMANDS IN FORMULATING THEIR POLICY POSITIONS AND IN DISCUSSING CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES WITH THE GOC, AND HAVE NOT ACTIVELY LOBBIED FOR AN END TO THE INTERNAL EXILE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ. HE DENIED TO LABATT THAT COMMUNIST MEMBERS OF THE CUT INSTIGATED THE STRIKE, CLAIMING THERE WAS WIDESPREAD FRUSTRATION AND DISILLUSIONMENT WITH THE STATUS QUO AFTER THE OCTOBER 5, 1988 PLEBISCITE. HE NOTED, FOR EXAMPLE, THAT THE GOC APPEARED INTENT ON PRIVATIZING REMAINING STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES WHICH COULD RESULT IN THOUSANDS OF LOST JOBS, BUT COPODE MEMBERS HAVE LIMITED THEMSELVES TO STATING A NEW GOVERNMENT WOULD REVERSE THEM. THE POLITICANS HAVE BEEN EQUALLY FORMULAIC IN SUPPORTING CALLS FOR AN END TO THE INTERNAL EXILE OF BUSTOS AND CONFIDENTIAL

MARTINEZ. THE STRIKE, OLIVARES SAID, WILL SHOW THE POLITICIANS IN THE CENTER AND CENTER-LEFT, THAT ORGANIZED LABOR MUST BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY AND IS PREPARED TO DEFEND ITS OWN INTERESTS, NOT JUST THOSE OF THE POLITICIANS.

4. BUT WILL IT? IT DOES NOT SEEM LIKELY. THE NEWLY-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE MOST IMPORTANT CUT AFFILIATE, THE COPPER WORKERS' CONFEDERATION (CTC), HAS STATED HIS PERSONAL OPINION THAT THE TIMING FOR THE STRIKE IS NOT PROPITIOUS, BUT SAID CTC AFFILIATES SHOULD HONOR THE STRIKE CALL IN A MANNER EACH FOUND APPROPRIATE -- HARDLY A RINGING ENDORSEMENT. THE ACTING-PRESIDENT OF THE BANKERS UNION, ACTING CUT-PRESIDENT DIEGO OLIVARES' UNION, SAID HIS MEMBERS WOULD TAKE STRIKE ACTION IN KEEPING WITH ITS TRADITION -- WHICH MEANS AT BEST A GO-SLOW OR WORK-TO-RULE -- BUT CALLED ON THE PUBLIC TO REFRAIN FROM CONDUCTING BANK BUSINESS ON THAT DAY. BUS DRIVERS IN SANTIAGO SAID THEY WOULD HONOR THE STRIKE, BUT SINCE THEIR ONE-DAY STRIKE EARLY IN THE YEAR TO PROTEST WAGES WENT UNNOTICED BECAUSE BUS-OWNERS AND COMPANY MANAGERS FILLED IN, THEIRS IS AN EMPTY THREAT. TEXTILE WORKERS, MEMBERS OF MANUEL BUSTOS' UNION, EXPRESSED AMBIVALENCE ABOUT THE STRIKE TO LABATT, AND IT IS NOT CERTAIN THEY WILL STAY AT HOME IN LARGE NUMBERS. THE PRESIDENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC WORKERS' CENTRAL (CDT), THE CUT'S LABOR RIVAL, ALL BUT CALLED THE STRIKE A SILLY ACTION AND SAID HIS TEAM WOULD NOT PLAY.

5. ALTHOUGH THE CUT DID SUCCEED IN GETTING AN ENDORSEMENT FOR THE STRIKE FROM COPODE SPOKESMAN AND ALMOST-CERTAIN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE PATRICIO AYLWIN, IT WAS WEAK, LACKING ANY ENCOURAGEMENT FOR WORKERS TO STAY HOME. SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS ACUSO, WHOSE MASSIVE SEPTEMBER 1988 RALLY FOR THE "NO" IS CREDITED WITH BEING ONE OF THE

PIVUTAL EVENTS IN THE OPPOSITION'S PLEBISCITE VICTORY, IS STAYING ON THE SIDELINES. ITS PRESIDENT, HECTOR MOYA, NOTED TO LABATT THAT HIS ONE ABORTED POST-PLEBISCITE ATTEMPT TO STAGE AN EVENT TO FORCE CONCESSIONS FROM PINOCHET HAD CONVINCED HIM THE CHILEAN PEOPLE WANT PEACE AND QUIET DURING PINOCHET'S LAST YEAR IN OFFICE.

6. WHY INSIST ON THE STRIKE? IN DISCUSSING THE STRIKE WITH LABATT, OLIVARES AGREED THAT THERE WERE RISKS IN HOLDING THE STRIKE. PRIMARILY, THERE IS THE RISK THAT EXTREME LEFTISTS WILL CAUSE VIOLENCE, GIVING PINOCHET AN EXCUSE TO CRACK DOWN, TO DERIDE THE CUT AS A HAVEN FOR TERRORISTS, AND TO IGNORE PLEAS FROM NON-UNION SECTORS TO GIVE BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ A PARDON. THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR HAS ALREADY LINKED VIOLENT ACTS ON APRIL 10 AND 11 TO THE STRIKE (REFTEL). THERE IS ALSO THE RISK, HE AGREED, THAT THE STRIKE WILL FIZZLE, MAKING LABOR LOOK WEAK, GIVING THE IMPRESSION BUSTOS' AND MARTINEZ' FATE IS OF LITTLE INTEREST TO ANYONE AND, THAT THEREFORE, POLITICIANS CAN SAFELY CONTINUE TO IGNORE THE UNIONS. BUT HE ARGUED THAT THE CUT HAS TO DO SOMETHING. ALL PRIVATE EFFORTS TO GET BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ RELEASED HAVE FAILED, ALTHOUGH HE SAID HE AND OTHERS HAVE USED EVERY CHANNEL AVAILABLE TO THEM. HE REMINDED LABATT THAT HE HAD EVEN, AT ONE OF THE AMBASSADOR'S RECEPTIONS, APPROACHED THE RIGHTIST PRESIDENT OF UDI, JAIME GUZMAN, TO INTERCEDE FOR BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ AND BELIEVED GUZMAN HAD MADE A PITCH TO PINOCHET. HE ALSO TOLD LABATT (IN STRICTIST CONFIDENCE) THAT HE HAD PASSED THE WORD TO PINOCHET THROUGH A RELIABLE CHANNEL THAT THE STRIKE WOULD BE CALLED OFF IF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ WERE PARDONED. IT APPEARS PINOCHET IS NOT INTERESTED.
CONFIDENTIAL

7. THE PROGNOSIS. THERE IS ALMOST NO HOPE THAT THE STRIKE WILL BE TRULY EFFECTIVE. LABOR LEADERS' DEEP AND UNDERSTANDABLE FRUSTRATION WITH PINOCHET IS NOT SHARED BY THE PUBLIC, WHICH APPEARS CONTENT TO WAIT HIM OUT. WIDE-SPREAD VIOLENCE WOULD KEEP PEOPLE AT HOME AND PARALYZE PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION BUT THE COST TO THE CUT IMAGE WOULD BE DISASTROUSLY HIGH; ONLY THE EXTREME LEFT WOULD BENEFIT. THERE IS NO INDICATION, HOWEVER, THAT SEVERE VIOLENCE IS PLANNED OR ANTICIPATED. (GOC STATEMENTS ABOUT THE STRIKE HAVE NOT BEEN PROVOCATIVE; THEY HAVE MERELY NOTED THAT THE CARABINEROS WILL PRESERVE ORDER AS THEY ARE MANDATED TO DO. IT IS WORTH NOTING THAT THERE WAS NO ATTEMPT TO DISLODGE STRIKING MAINTENANCE WORKERS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE DURING THEIR RECENTLY ENDED STRIKE. ALTHOUGH THAT STRIKE WAS LEGAL, THE BARRICADING TACTIC PURSUED WAS NOT.) THERE IS EVEN A RUMOR CIRCULATING THAT THE COMMUNISTS IN THE CUT PLAN TO HAVE THEIR FOLLOWERS IGNORE THE STRIKE CALL AT THE LAST MOMENT, IN ORDER TO EMBARRASS OTHER CUT LEADERS, IN ORDER TO AVENGE THEIR DEFEAT IN THE COPPER WORKERS' UNION RECENT ELECTION (SEPTEL). IN SUM, APRIL 18 IS SHAPING UP AS JUST ANOTHER WORK DAY. GILLESPIE

REFS: (A) STATE 113006, (B) SANTIAGO 3452,
(C) SANTIAGO 3653

1. CONFIDENTIAL - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: WE BELIEVE REF A OUTLINES A REALISTIC STRATEGY TO FOLLOW TO RESTORE GSP PRIVILEGES AND OBTAIN THE RELEASE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ, ALTHOUGH WE WOULD SUGGEST SOME MINOR CHANGES. REF ACCURATELY NOTES THAT BIGGEST PROBLEM -- AND MOST UNPREDICTABLE FACTOR -- IS PINOCHET'S INTRANSIGENCE AND PERSONAL ANIMOSITY TOWARD BUSTOS. LEAKAGE IS ANOTHER PROBLEM. IF THE PLAN BECOMES KNOWN, WE EXPECT ALL PLAYERS TO RUN FOR COVER, WHICH WOULD FURTHER REDUCE CHANCES FOR EITHER GSP RESTORATION OR RELEASE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ. END SUMMARY.

THE SCENARIO

3. STEP ONE. PARA 3 OF REF A OUTLINES A REASONABLY REALISTIC PROGRESSION OF EVENTS, AND WE ARE ENCOURAGED THAT THE FIRST STEP -- GAINING AFL/CIO AGREEMENT FOR THE PLAN -- HAS BEEN TAKEN. WE HAVE SOME QUESTIONS, HOWEVER: ARE THERE OTHER ORGANIZED GROUPS WHO ALSO PUSHED FOR LIFTING CHILE'S GSP PRIVILEGES AND WHO WOULD LOBBY TO MAINTAIN THE RESTRICTION? WOULD THE AFL/CIO ACTIVELY LOBBY FOR RESTORING GSP IF NECESSARY TO COUNTER OTHER GROUPS AND TO MUTE CONGRESSIONAL OPPOSITION?

CONFIDENTIAL

4. THE SECOND AFL/CIO CONDITION, THAT THE GOC ALSO AGREE TO MEET INFORMALLY AND PRIVATELY WITH THE CUT AND CDT IS PROBLEMATIC. UNDER THE PRESENT CONDITIONS, WE CANNOT ENVISION THE GOC'S REVERSING ITSELF AND AGREEING TO MEET WITH OFFICIALS OF NON-LEGAL ENTITIES. HOWEVER, LEGALIZING THE WORKERS' CENTRALS IS ONE OF THE KEY POINTS OF THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION CHANGING THE LABOR CODE, AS OUTLINED BY MINISTER OF LABOR ARTHUR TO LABATT (REF B). (ARTHUR, BY THE WAY, HAS NOT FULFILLED HIS PROMISE TO SHARE THE DRAFT LEGISLATION WITH THE EMBASSY DESPITE PRODDING.) IF, AS ARTHUR HOPES, THE LEGISLATIVE DRAFT IS APPROVED BY THE JUNTA ON MAY 1, THE GOC WOULD HAVE REASON TO MEET WITH THE CENTRALS. WE DO NOT KNOW -- AND CANNOT KNOW UNTIL THE LEGISLATION IS PASSED -- WHETHER THE CUT AND CDT WILL ENDORSE THE CHANGES. WE POINT THIS OUT ONLY BECAUSE ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MEETING WITH THE CENTRALS MAY NOT ONLY BE A PROBLEM FOR THE GOC, BUT ALSO FOR THE CENTRALS THEMSELVES.

5. STEP TWO: TO AN EXTENT, WE HAVE ALREADY ALERTED THE GOC DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY THAT THE RELEASE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ WILL BE CRUCIAL IF GSP IS TO BE RESTORED. LABATT POINTED THIS OUT TO LABOR MINISTER ARTHUR ON MARCH 31, AND ON 17 APRIL I TOLD UNDERSECRETARY OF FOREIGN RELATIONS RAMON VALDEZ THAT IN MY VIEW THE BUSTOS-MARTINEZ CASE WOULD REMAIN AN "ACTIVE INGREDIENT" IN THE GSP ISSUE UNTIL THE LABOR LEADERS ARE FREE. I ALSO MADE THE POINT CLEARLY TO SOFOFA PRESIDENT FERNANDO AGUERO, WHO CALLED ON ME ON APRIL 10 TO PRESS FOR RESTORATION OF GSP, AND TO MEMBERS OF ASEXMA, ON APRIL 11. THESE BUSINESSMEN HAVE CHANNELS TO THE GOC AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO PASS ON THIS MESSAGE. IF IT IS AGREED TO

FOLLOW THE STRATEGY OUTLINED IN REF A, WE WOULD PROPOSE RAISING THE ISSUE MORE DIRECTLY WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ERRAZURIZ. HE KNOWS THE ISSUE, THE WASHINGTON PLAYERS AND THE POLITICAL FIELD IN CHILE. HE WOULD PROBABLY ALSO WELCOME RESTORATION OF GSP PRIVILEGES AS A DIPLOMATIC SUCCESS FOR HIMSELF. IF HE WERE TO AGREE, WE WOULD ALSO CONSIDER APPROACHING BUSINESS CONFEDERATION LEADER MANUEL FELIU, WHO CAN MAKE THE ECONOMIC ARGUMENTS DIRECTLY TO PRESIDENT PINOCHET, THEREBY ADDING WEIGHT

TO ERRAZURIZ'S POLITICAL AGREEMENTS. PINOCHET IS NOT LIKELY TO GIVE UP HIS GRUDGE AGAINST BUSTOS AND ALL ORGANIZED LABOR UNLESS HE CAN BE PERSUADED THAT IT WOULD BOOST HIS IMAGE AT HOME AND ABROAD AND THAT HE WOULD LOSE SUPPORT IN THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY IF HE DID NOT TAKE THIS STEP. I SERIOUSLY DOUBT EVEN THAT WOULD BE ENOUGH TO MOVE HIM.

6. STEP THREE: WE AGREE WITH THE AFL/CIO THAT THE CUT AND CDT SHOULD REQUEST ITS ASSISTANCE TO RESTORE CHILEAN GSP PRIVILEGES. THIS POINT MAY WELL BE THE KEY TO GAINING PINOCHET'S ACQUIESCENCE. EATING A LITTLE HUMBLE PIE IS EASIER IF YOUR ENEMY HAS TO DO THE SAME. WHILE WE BELIEVE PRESIDENT DIEGO OLIVARES

WOULD DO ALMOST ANYTHING TO END THE INTERNAL EXILE, WE ARE NOT SURE THE LEFT, PARTICULARLY THE COMMUNISTS, WILL BE CRAZY ABOUT THE DEAL. THE CDT'S REACTION IS ALSO PROBLEMATIC. HOWEVER, WE WILL NOT KNOW
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WHETHER OR NOT BUSTOS' SUPPORTERS BELIEVE THEY CAN COMMIT THEMSELVES TO THIS UNTIL WE ASK. WE WOULD SUGGEST, HOWEVER, THAT SENDING AFL/CIO EMISSARIES FROM WASHINGTON TO EXPLORE THE ISSUE WITH THE CUT AND CDT WOULD INVITE TOO MUCH UNWELCOME ATTENTION. ANY HINT OR SPECULATION THAT A GSP FOR BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ DEAL IS IN THE WORKS WILL QUEER THE WHOLE DEAL. WE WOULD PROPOSE, INSTEAD, THAT I SOUND OUT THE CHILEAN LABOR LEADERS.

7. STEP FOUR. NO PROBLEM WITH THIS PRO-FORMA TACTIC.

TIMING

---

8. WE AGREE THAT HAVING A JUNE 1 DEADLINE SHOULD SHARPEN THE FOCUS ON THE ISSUE AND FORCE QUICK DECISIONS. OBVIOUSLY, IF GSP RESTORATION IS TO SERVE ANY PURPOSE AS A COUNTER-WEIGHT, EVEN IF ONLY PSYCHOLOGICAL, TO THE FRUIT CRISIS, THE SOONER IT IS DONE THE BETTER. BEFORE WE INITIATE ANY DISCUSSIONS WITH ANY OF THE PLAYERS, HOWEVER, WE SUGGEST WE WAIT UNTIL AFTER THE APRIL 18 NATION-WIDE STRIKE CALLED FOR BY THE CUT. ITS FIRST STATED OBJECTIVE IS THE RELEASE OF BUSTOS AND MARTINEZ, AND IS THE KIND OF PUBLIC PRESSURE PINOCHET ALWAYS RESISTS. IF THE STRIKE IS SUCCESSFUL (NOT LIKELY) OR VIOLENT (POSSIBLE), PINOCHET IS NOT LIKELY TO ACCEPT ANY DEAL. (SEPTEL FOLLOWS ON STRIKE PROSPECTS.) HE MIGHT BE MORE RECEPTIVE IF THE STRIKE FIZZLES. IF THE POST-STRIKE ATMOSPHERE IS PROPITIOUS, WE WOULD LIKE TO BEGIN FOLLOWING THE STRATEGY AS SOON

BRIEFING MEMORANDUM

SECRET UNCLASSIFIED

S/S

TO: P - Mr. Kimmitt

FROM: ARA - Michael G. Kozak, Acting

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Chilean Ambassador-designate Octavio Errazuriz on April 20 at 3:00 in your office.

I. PURPOSE

- Ambassador-Designate Errazuriz requested this meeting as a courtesy call but he will probably also express his Government's concerns about the continuing impact caused by the disruption of Chilean fruit exports to the U.S.
- Our purpose in this meeting is to underscore our continuing support for the process of democratic transition, stress that we acted responsibly and cooperated fully with the GOC on the fruit crisis, and note concern for lack of progress on the Letelier murder case.
- Errazuriz has yet to present his credentials to the President but should do so shortly.

II. KEY POINTS

- Chile's Transition to Democracy.

  --As a result of the October 1988 plebiscite, in which Chilean voters rejected Pinochet's bid to remain in power for eight more years, elections will be held on December 14, 1989.

  --Pinochet is prohibited by the constitution from being a candidate, may stay on as Army chief.

  --There is little doubt that Pinochet wishes to remain in power, although his possibilities of doing so are remote because of constitutional limitations and lack of support within the Armed Forces for taking extra-legal steps.

--Political groups in Chile have for several months been involved in the process of naming candidates for president and congress and in drawing up political platforms.

--The 16 political parties which united against Pinochet for a "no" vote in the plebiscite may run a single candidate for president, the Christian Democrat leader Patricio Aylwin.

--Conservative, pro-GOC parties are attempting to launch Pinochet's ex-Finance Minister Hernan Buchi as a candidate. Support for Buchi in all conservative circles is not yet certain.

--Legislation governing the size and configuration of electoral districts and the procedure for electing senators and deputies has not yet been promulgated but is expected soon.

--Other important considerations which must be dealt with in the near future are constitutional reform, the nature of civil-military relations, and the thorny issue of whether members of the Chilean Armed Forces should be subject to judicial proceedings for human rights abuses.

--While the transition to democracy is proceeding as scheduled, several hurdles must be cleared prior to and after the newly-elected government takes office in March, 1990 in order for democratic rule to be consolidated.

o Chile's Dynamic Economy

--Chile's economy has been a success story, performing very well in the past five years.

--Fueled by a dynamic private sector and diversified exports, the economy has grown at a rapid pace. Inflation and unemployment are low, the country enjoys a very favorable balance of trade, and scheduled interest payments on the large foreign debt have been met.

--We have encouraged all political parties in Chile to preserve the free market policies which made these gains possible, while at the same time realizing that they will be under pressure to better distribute the fruits of this prosperity.

o The Fruit Crisis

--The five-day ban on Chilean fruit exports to the U.S. imposed by the FDA because of the discovery of several poisoned grapes resulted in serious losses to the Chilean economy and a wave of anti-Americanism not seen in Chile since the days of the Allende regime in the early 1970s.

--Final figures may never be clear, but cautious estimates indicate that the episode will cost the Chilean economy at least US $100 million, far less, however, than original estimates.

--The GOC has requested that the USG take action to alleviate the damage suffered from the disruption, including the difficult steps of moving back the date of the USDA marketing order on Chilean grapes, reinstating Chile's GSP privileges (suspended by President Reagan in 1987 because of worker rights problems), inspecting fruit in Chile rather than the U.S., and supporting special loans to Chile from the MDBs.

--USDA did not change the marketing order date and positive action on the other steps appears unlikely, but we are engaged in a cordial dialogue with the Chilean Ambassador and are reviewing other possible steps.

--We have urged USDA and FDA to make every feasible effort to facilitate the inspection of Chilean fruit at port of arrival. While both have reacted positively, the GOC still desires more dramatic action and US assistance.

o The Letelier Case

--The 1976 political murder of former Chilean Foreign Minister Orlando Letelier and his U.S. assistant in Washington D.C., ordered by high GOC officials who are still under indictment by a U.S. court and living in Chile, has remained a source of bilateral tension for many years.

--After many fruitless efforts to obtain the cooperation of the GOC in bringing justice to the case, on January 12, 1989 we invoked a 1914 bilateral treaty with Chile which calls for the establishment of an international commission to determine responsibility for the crime.

CLASSIFIED

--The GOC is attempting to sidetrack this effort through stalling tactics aimed at avoiding the convocation of the commission.

--Congress is interested in the case and may take action of its own against the GOC if the treaty process does not produce results.

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 3176, (B) MARCH 31 MEMCON ROE/JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA, (C) 88 SANTIAGO 9253

1. (LOU) SUMMARY: ON APRIL 11 THE JUNTA APPROVED LEGISLATION ON ELECTION DISTRICTING WHICH PERMITS ELECTORAL PACTS BETWEEN POLITICAL PARTIES, ELIMINATES RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS AND LIFTS THE PROHIBITION AGAINST MAYORS, MINISTERS, UNION AND PROFESSIONAL LEADERS RUNNING AS CANDIDATES FOR THE

n/a
UNCLASSIFIED

DISTRICTS. THE OPPOSITION STRONGLY CRITICIZED THE GOVERNMENT FOR CARVING UP THE ELECTION DISTRICTS TO FAVOR AREAS IN WHICH THE SI-VOTE PREVAILED, BUT STILL EXPECTS TO WIN THE MAJORITY OF HOUSE SEATS. PASSAGE OF THE LEGISLATION NOW PUTS ADDITIONAL PRESSURE ON THE PARTIES OF THE CENTER-LEFT COALITION (COPODE) AND THE CONSERVATIVE PARTIES WHICH HAVE INTENSIFIED THEIR RESPECTIVE NEGOTIATIONS ON JOINT SLATES OF CANDIDATES.

ELECTION SYSTEM BILL APPROVED

---

4. (U) A TOTAL VOTE COUNT WILL BE MADE FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CANDIDATE, AND FOR EACH PARTY LIST. IF THE LEADING PARTY GARNERS MORE THAN DOUBLE THE VOTE OF THE SECOND PLACE LIST, IT WINS BOTH SEATS IN THE DISTRICT. (THE MAGIC NUMBER WOULD BE 66.7 PERCENT IN CASE ONLY TWO LISTS WERE IN COMPETITION.) IF THE TOP PARTY'S VOTE COUNT IS EQUAL TO OR LESS THAN DOUBLE THAT OF THE RUNNER UP PARTY'S LIST, THEN THE LEADING CANDIDATE FROM EACH PARTY IS ELECTED. IN CASE TWO OR MORE LISTS SHOULD TIE FOR SECOND PLACE, THE INDIVIDUAL CANDIDATE WITH THE MOST VOTES WINS THE OTHER SEAT.

CARVING UP THE PIE

SUBSTANTIALLY INCREASES THE REPRESENTATION FOR RURAL AREAS. NATIONAL ELECTION SERVICE (SEN) DIRECTOR JUAN IGNACIO GARCIA INFORMED US THAT EARLIER VERSIONS GAVE SOME CONSIDERATION TO ONE-MAN, ONE-VOTE CRITERIA, TRYING TO CREATE DISTRICTS WHICH APPROXIMATED 100,000 INHABITANTS (REF B). THE LAW THAT FINALLY EMERGED HAS EXTREMELY WIDE VARIATIONS IN POPULATION SIZE. ALTHOUGH THE NATIONWIDE AVERAGE IS ONE DEPUTY FOR EACH 106,235 INHABITANTS, THE SANTIAGO METROPOLITAN REGION WILL HAVE ONE DEPUTY FOR EACH 157,000 PEOPLE, LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

WHILE THE CONSERVATIVE NINTH AND TENTH REGIONS WILL HAVE ONE FOR EACH 76,000 INHABITANTS. WITH 40 PERCENT OF THE NATIONAL ELECTORATE, SANTIAGO WILL HAVE ONLY 26 PERCENT OF THE HOUSE SEATS, WHILE THE LESS POPULATED REGIONS (WHERE PRESIDENT PINOCHET HAD THE STRONGEST SUPPORT IN OCTOBER) WILL ELECT TWICE THEIR PROPORTIONAL SHARE OF DEPUTIES.

RULES ON PACTS AND CANDIDATES

---

6. (U) IN ANOTHER CONTROVERSIAL STEP, THE LAW CITES TWO TRANSITORY ARTICLES OF THE CONSTITUTION, AND STATES THAT THE RESIDENCY AND EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS IN ARTICLES 44 AND 46 OF THE CONSTITUTION WILL NOT APPLY FOR THE FIRST PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR 1989. IN LIKE MANNER, IT DECLARES INAPPLICABLE FOR THE FIRST NATIONAL ELECTION THE RESTRICTIONS IN CONSTITUTIONAL ARTICLE 54, WHICH PROHIBITS MINISTERS OF STATE, MAYORS, GOVERNORS, SUPREME COURTS JUSTICES, OTHER PUBLIC OFFICIALS, UNION AND PROFESSIONAL LEADERS FROM RUNNING FOR OFFICE AS DEPUTY OR SENATOR.

7. (U) UNDER THE NEW RULES, PACTS CAN BE FORMED BETWEEN TWO OR MORE POLITICAL PARTIES UNDER THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS:

- MEMBER PARTIES MUST FORMALLY REGISTER THE PACT WITH THE NATIONAL ELECTIONS SERVICE BEFORE THE JULY 11 CANDIDATE FILING DEADLINE. IN DOING SO THEY MUST DECLARE THAT THEY ARE AKIN IN THEIR STATEMENTS OF

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

PRINCIPLES, AND SUBMIT THEIR CANDIDATE LISTS.

- THE PACT APPLIES TO ALL REGIONS IN WHICH ONE OF MORE CONSTITUENT PARTIES ARE LEGALLY CONSTITUTED. EACH PACT CAN PRESENT UP TO TWO CANDIDATES PER REGION OR DISTRICT, IN ALL SUCH REGIONS.

- MEMBER PARTIES CANNOT JOIN ANOTHER COALITION WITHOUT NULLIFYING THE ORIGINAL PACT.

- CANDIDATES PRESENTED IN EACH REGION MUST BE MEMBERS OF CONSTITUENT PARTIES LEGALLY CONSTITUTED THEREIN, OR ELSE INDEPENDENTS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN AFFILIATED WITH ANY POLITICAL PARTY WITHIN TWO MONTHS PRIOR TO THEIR FILING WITH THE SEN.

PUBLIC REACTIONS

---

8. (U) ASKED ABOUT THE JUNTA'S EARLIER INTENTION TO TIGHTEN UP THE RULES FOR POLITICAL PACTS BETWEEN IDEOLOGICALLY COMPATIBLE PARTIES, SENIOR JUNTA MEMBER ADMIRAL MERINO SAID THEY DECIDED TO LET IT BE, SINCE NEARLY ALL THE PARTIES STATE SIMILIAR PRINCIPLES IN THEIR FOUNDING DOCUMENTS. HE NOTED THAT THE RULES FOR CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS WERE LIBERALIZED BY LOWERING THE MINIMUM TIME OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE SPONSORING PARTY TO TWO MONTHS. HALTINGLY, HE DEFENDED THE ELIMINATION OF RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS ON CANDIDATES IN THE CONSTITUTION, SAYING SIMPLY THAT THERE WAS NO OTHER WAY TO GO.

9. (U) THE PROPOSED LAW HAS BEEN ROUNDLY CRITICIZED

FOR DISCARDING THE PROPORTIONAL ELECTION SYSTEM, FOR CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION BY FIAT, AND MOST ESPECIALLY FOR POLITICALLY BIASED APPORTIONMENT. PDC VICE PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR CALLED IT A "PERVERSE LAW", WHICH UNDOUBTEDLY MUST BE CHANGED BY THE FIRST DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS. PPD PRESIDENT RICARDO LAGOS POINTED OUT THAT THE 20 LEAST POPULATED DISTRICTS, WHOSE ONE AND A HALF MILLION VOTERS WILL ELECT 40 DEPUTIES, VOTED 47 PERCENT NO IN THE 1988 PLEBISCITE, WHEREAS ANOTHER ONE AND A HALF MILLION VOTERS WILL ELECT ONLY 14 DEPUTIES IN DISTRICTS WHERE THE NO WON BY 61 PERCENT. HE ADDED THAT "JUST THE SAME WE'LL PLAY BY THESE RULES AND WIN IN DECEMBER".

10. (U) PDC ELECTION EXPERT ERIC CAMPANA SAID THE "UNCONSTITUTIONAL" ELIMINATION OF PROHIBITIONS AGAINST GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS BEING CANDIDATES WAS DONE SIMPLY TO PERMIT MINISTRY AND OTHER GOC SPOKESMEN TO RUN FOR ELECTIONS IN THE CONGRESS. HE WORRIED THAT IF THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL APPROVED THIS PART OF THE LAW, IT COULD LEAD TO MORE UNDEMOCRATIC GOC MEASURES IN THE FUTURE. OTHER OPPOSITION LEADERS POINTED OUT THE IRONY OF THE GOVERNMENT INSISTING ON OTHERS RESPECTING THE LETTER OF A CONSTITUTION WHICH IT DID NOT UPHOLD, AND SAID THIS WOULD PAVE THE WAY FOR A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT TO MAKE DEEP-GOING REFORMS. SERGIO MOLINA, COORDINATOR OF THE FREE ELECTIONS COMMITTEE (CEL), SAID THE CEL WOULD MAKE A PRESENTATION TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL CRITICIZING THE LAW FOR ITS ILLEGAL "REINTERPRETATION" OF THE CONSTITUTION AND THE COMPLETE LACK OF RESPECT FOR PRINCIPLES OF EQUAL REPRESENTATION IN ITS DISTRICTING SYSTEM.

THE CONSTITUTION AND THE LAW

---

11. (U) THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL WILL SURELY TAKE A CLOSE LOOK AT THE MANNER IN WHICH THE PROPOSED LAW CHANGES THE APPLICATION OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL RESTRICTION ON RUNNING FOR OFFICE. GIVEN THE RECENT PRO-PINOCHET APPOINTMENTS TO THE TRIBUNAL (REF
LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

SANTIAGO 3376), THE JUSTICES MAY WELL DECIDE TO GO ALONG IN THE END. HOWEVER, THERE IS SOME POSSIBILITY THAT THE GOC COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM WILL APPROVE A REFORM PACKAGE WHICH INCLUDES EXPANDING THE NUMBER OF ELECTED SENATORS. SHOULD THAT HAPPEN, THE LAW WILL HAVE TO GO BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARDS ONCE MORE.

SHOTGUN LEGISLATION

---

12. (LOU) COMMENTS: THE LEGISLATION'S TURBULENT HISTORY REVEALS HOW DIFFICULT IT IS TO ACHIEVE CONSENSUS WITHIN THE PINOCHET REGIME. FOR OVER THREE YEARS THE ELECTIONS SYSTEM BILL WAS STALLED IN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH DUE TO AN ON-GOING DEBATE AMONG CONSERVATIVE POLITICIANS OVER THE VIRTUE OF PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION VERSUS THE MODIFIED

MAJORITY VOTE SYSTEM WHICH WAS FINALLY ADOPTED. ELECTORAL ALLIANCES WERE ANOTHER STICKY ISSUE. PINOCHET OPPOSED ACCEPTING PACTS AT EVERY TURN, UNTIL IT BECAME PAINFULLY CLEAR THAT THE PRO-GOVERNMENT PARTIES COULDN'T UNITE FOR CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS WITHOUT ALLOWING THEM.

WITH ALL THE INTERNAL CONFLICTS, THE LEGISLATION WOULD HAVE NEVER EMERGED WERE IT NOT THAT THE REGIME SIMPLY RAN OUT OF TIME TO ORGANIZE FOR THE 1989 ELECTIONS. THE RESULT WAS SUCH A MISHMASH THAT THE NEW PARLIAMENT WILL PROBABLY MAKE IT ITS FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS TO REDO THE RULES OF THE GAME.

UDI DISPOSES

14. (LOU) THE LEGISLATION ALSO REVEALS THE POWER OF THE INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC UNION (UDI) TO LOBBY FOR THE RIGHT WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT. IN HIGHLY UNORTHODOX FASHION, UDI PRESENTED A LAST MINUTE VERSION OF THE BILL WHICH RESHUFFLED THE SANTIAGO METROPOLITAN DISTRICTS IN ORDER TO MAXIMIZE ITS CHANCES TO ELECT DEPUTIES (REF A). THE JUNTA WAS RUFFLED, SINCE THE BILL WAS NOT VETTED BY THE INTERIOR MINISTRY, BUT IN THE END IT ACCEPTED. UDI'S RIVAL, NATIONAL RENEWAL (RN), WANTED A FLEXIBLE APPROACH TO PACTS, PERMITTING EACH PARTY TO CREATE ALLIANCES WITH OTHER POLITICAL ENTITIES WHICH SUITED ITS NEEDS DISTRICT BY DISTRICT. AS THE MORE BROAD-BASED PARTY ON THE RIGHT, THIS WOULD HAVE PERMITTED IT TO HAVE A STRONGER BARGAINING POSITION VIS-A-VIS UDI. BUT THE UDI PREVAILED, AND PACTS MUST BE NATION-WIDE IN CHARACTER. AS "NO" CAMPAIGN CHIEF GENARO ARRIAGADA COMMENTED, "THE RN PROPOSES, BUT UDI DISPOSES."

ADVANTAGE TO CANDIDATES FROM THE RIGHT AND THE PRO-GOVERNMENT SIDE. THE CONSERVATIVE NEWSPAPER EL MERCURIO POINTED OUT ON APRIL 16 THAT IF THE RESULTS OF THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE WERE REPEATED IN DECEMBER 1989, THE OPPOSITION COALITION (COPODE) AND THE PRO-GOVERNMENT PARTIES WOULD EACH WIN HALF OF THE SEATS IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

16. (LOU) HOWEVER,MANY VARIABLES WILL INTERVENE TO MAKE THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS A DIFFERENT KIND OF HORSE RACE. THE RN AND THE UDI, AS THE STRONGEST PARTIES ON THE RIGHT, ARE STILL NEO-PHYTES IN COMPARISON TO THE ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, EXPERIENCE AND HISTORICAL TRADITIONS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC AND SOCIALIST PARTIES, THE TWO STRONGEST ELEMENTS WITHIN THE COPODE. ANOTHER TWIST IS THAT ALL PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION SYSTEMS -- WHETHER PROPORTIONAL OR NOT -- FAVOR THE LARGEST POLITICAL PARTY OR ALLIANCE. THOSE POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS THAT GARNER THE LION'S SHARE OF THE VOTE TEND TO WIN LEGISLATIVE SEATS IN EVEN GREATER PROPORTION THAN THEIR PROPORTION OF THE VOTE. POLITICAL SCIENTISTS CALL THIS RESULT THE "MATTHEW EFFECT," AFTER THE BIBLICAL INJUNCTION THAT THOSE THAT HAVE SHALL GET, THOSE THAT DON'T, SHALL LOSE.

18. (LOU) OF COURSE, THESE CALCULATIONS ARE

MADE ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT COPODE WILL SUCCEED IN FORMING A SINGLE PARLIAMENTARY LIST. NOW THAT THE LEGISLATIVE BOUNDARIES ARE FIXED, PARTY CHIEFS ARE GOING CASE BY CASE TO TRY AND DETERMINE WHICH POLITICAL ENTITY HAS THE STRONGEST BASE OR ELSE WHICH NATIONAL STARS CAN MAKE THE BEST CAMPAIGN IN GIVEN DISTRICTS. ADJUDICATING THE CONFLICTING CLAIMS WITH AN ABUNDANCE OF CANDIDATES EAGER TO MAKE THEIR MARK IN CHILE'S FIRST CONGRESS AFTER 16 YEARS WILL BE A MONUMENTAL TASK. MOST LIKELY AT THIS POINT IS A COPODE PACT WHICH WILL EXTEND FROM THE LIBERAL ALLIANCE (PAC) ON THE RIGHT TO THE PPD ON THE LEFT. THERE MAY ALSO BE A GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT TO HAVE THE LEFT-WING PARTY PAIS RUN SEPARATE CANDIDATES IN A NUMBER OF THEIR BEST DISTRICTS UNOPPOSED BY COPODE SLATES. ON THE RIGHT, THE PARTIES ARE IDEOLOGICALLY CLOSER, BUT POLITICALLY MORE UNCOMFORTABLE ABOUT WORKING IN CONCERT. BY EARLY MAY, THE PACTS SHOULD TAKE CLEARER SHAPE. GILLESPIE

SUBJECT: FERNANDO VOLIO STEPS DOWN AS UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE

1. (U) FERNANDO VOLIO HAS RESIGNED HIS POSITION AS UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE. VOLIO TOLD REPORTERS APRIL 18 THAT HIS RESIGNATION IS DUE TO HEALTH PROBLEMS WHICH RESULTED IN CARDIAC SURGERY LAST DECEMBER. VOLIO EVIDENCED SATISFACTION IN THE RESULTS OF HIS LABORS IN CHILE, AND INDICATED HIS INTEREST IN WORKING AGAIN WITH THE UN ONCE HE REGAINS HIS HEALTH.

2. (U) VOLIO WAS CITED AS STATING THAT MORE REMAINS TO BE DONE IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, ESPECIALLY CONCERNING MILITARY JUSTICE AND CHARGES OF TORTURE. HE LAMENTED THAT DURING HIS SERVICE AS SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR "THERE WAS NEITHER STIMULUS FOR NOR RECOGNITION OF MY EFFORTS."

3. (C) VOLIO INFORMED POLOFF APRIL 21 THAT HE REGRETTED HAVING TO STEP DOWN, BUT HIS HEALTH HAD FORCED HIM TO DO SO. STILL SOUNDING WEAK, VOLIO NOTED HIS PLEASURE IN HAVING RECEIVED MESSAGES OF APPRECIATION FOR HIS WORK FROM MANY SOURCES, INCLUDING CHILEAN BISHOPS, THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY, AND THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS ASSOCIATION. VOLIO DOWNPLAYED THE COMPLAINT REPORTED ABOVE ABOUT LACK OF STIMULUS AND RECOGNITION, NOTING THAT THAT FACT IS WELL KNOWN. "I DIDN'T WORK THINKING OF THE REACTION OF THE (UN HUMAN RIGHTS) COMMISSION," SAID VOLIO. "INSTEAD, I SOUGHT RESULTS, AND I GOT THEM."

4. (C) COMMENT: THE CRUSTY VOLIO IS A MAN GENUINELY COMMITTED TO IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE AND ELSEWHERE, AND FIRM IN HIS BELIEF THAT DEMOCRACY IS THE BEST AVENUE TO ACHIEVE THAT GOAL. WITH HIS DEPARTURE CHILEAN DEMOCRATS LOSE A TRUE FRIEND.

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PREL, CI
SUBJECT: MEETING OF UNDERSECRETARY KIMMITT WITH CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ

1. CONFIDENTIAL, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ CALLED ON UNDERSECRETARY KIMMITT ON APRIL 20. THE PURPOSE OF HIS VISIT, HE STATED, WAS TO UNDERSCORE HIS DESIRE TO WORK CLOSELY WITH THE DEPARTMENT AND USG IN GENERAL TO BUILD AS CONSTRUCTIVE AS POSSIBLE A BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP.

ERRAZURIZ DESCRIBED THE CURRENT POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SITUATIONS IN CHILE, NOTING THAT THEY BODE WELL FOR A TRANSITION TO FULL DEMOCRACY BOLSTERED BY A STRONG ECONOMY. HE DESCRIBED THE RECENT FRUIT CRISIS IN A LARGELY POSITIVE LIGHT AND URGED THAT THE BILATERAL COOPERATION WHICH MARKED THIS EPISODE BE REPEATED IN OTHER AREAS. HE WELCOMED THE BRADY PLAN AND URGED THAT GOOD DEBTORS SUCH AS CHILE BE GIVEN HIGH PRIORITY FOR FUTURE BENEFITS.

3. KIMMITT SECONDED ERRAZURIZ' SENTIMENTS AND STATED THAT HE LOOKS FORWARD TO AN EXCELLENT WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM. HE URGED THAT THE USG AND GOC MAINTAIN HONEST AND FRANK DIALOGUE ON ISSUES OF MUTUAL IMPORTANCE. MR. KIMMITT UNDERSCORED THE INTEREST OF PRESIDENT BUSH AND SECRETARY BAKER IN LATIN AMERICA, NOTING THAT HE PERSONALLY WOULD BE CLOSELY INVOLVED IN SOUTH AMERICAN ISSUES. HE ALSO RAISED THE LETELIER CASE WITH ERRAZURIZ, NOTING USG DESIRE TO USE THE 1914 TREATY PROCESS AS A MEANS OF ELIMINATING A NEGATIVE ELEMENT IN BILATERAL RELATIONS THROUGH MUTUAL COOPERATION VIA THE COMMISSION CALLED FOR BY THE TREATY. ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT THE GOC IS STUDYING THE TREATY AND WILL MAINTAIN A COOPERATIVE SPIRIT WITH THE U.S. ON THE SUBJECT. END SUMMARY.

4. UNDERSECRETARY FOR POLITICAL AFFAIRS KIMMITT MET WITH CHILEAN AMBASSADOR OCTAVIO ERRAZURIZ AT THE LATTERS' REQUEST IN THE DEPARTMENT ON APRIL 20. ERRAZURIZ WAS ACCOMPANIED BY DCM INFANTE, MR. KIMMIT BY DAS MICHAEL SKOL, STEPHEN TOMCHIK OF P AND PETER DESHAZO OF ARA/SC. THE MEETING LASTED ABOUT 20 MINUTES.

5. ERRAZURIZ OPENED CONVERSATION BY INTRODUCING HIMSELF TO KIMMITT AND STATING THAT HIS OVERRIDING GOAL IS TO BUILD AN EXCELLENT WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THE USG AND THE DEPARTMENT IN PARTICULAR. HE PROVIDED KIMMITT WITH A GENERAL OVERVIEW OF THE CURRENT SITUATION IN CHILE,

STATING THAT THE OCTOBER 5 PLEBISCITE WAS A "MASSIVE" STEP TOWARD FULL DEMOCRACY, A PROCESS WHICH WILL BE COMPLETED BY THE DECEMBER, 1989 ELECTIONS. HE HOPES THAT CHILE WILL ENTER THE 21ST CENTURY AS A DEMOCRACY IN AN ADVANCED STATE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT. FOCUSING IN ON POLITICS, ERRAZURIZ CLAIMED THAT THE GOC IS GUARANTEEING THAT THE ELECTORAL PROCESS WILL BE OPEN AND CLEAN AND THAT, IN CONSULTATION WITH POLITICAL PARTIES INCLUDING THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, IS STUDYING CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE TO ALLOW FOR GREATER "FLEXIBILITY" IN THE SYSTEM.

6. SINCE THE PLEBISCITE, ERRAZURIZ OBSERVED, THERE HAS BEEN A FRESH LOOK AT CHILE FROM WITHIN THE U.S., WITH THE PERCEPTION BEING MORE POSITIVE. HE HIMSELF STATED THAT IT IS TIME FOR FURTHER NORMALIZATION OF RELATIONS, ESPECIALLY AS PERTAINING TO MILITARY AFFAIRS AND GSP. THE FRUIT CRISIS, HE CLAIMED, TAUGHT BOTH CHILE AND THE U.S. A GOOD LESSON ABOUT HOW TO WORK TOGETHER TO RESOLVE A TOUGH PROBLEM AND THIS COOPERATIVE SPIRIT SHOULD BE APPLIED TO OTHER AREAS. WHILE A "SENSE OF FRUSTRATION" STILL PERSISTS IN CHILE BECAUSE THE U.S. DID NOT RESPOND FAVORABLY TO "REASONABLE REQUESTS" FROM CHILE FOR A CHANGE IN THE MARKETING ORDER, FDA INSPECTIONS IN CHILE, AND A BRIDGE LOAN, BOTH COUNTRIES MUST WORK TO TURN THIS FRUSTRATION INTO SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE, HE SAID.

7. WHILE THE QUESTION OF THE TRANSITION FROM "DICTATORSHIP" TO DEMOCRACY IS A MAJOR CONCERN IN CHILE, OF EQUAL IMPORTANCE IS THE MATTER OF WHAT FUTURE DEMOCRACY IN CHILE WILL LOOK LIKE, ERRAZURIZ STATED. THE THREAT OF A RETURN TO POPULIST PRACTICES AND A SUBSEQUENT WEAKENING OF THE ECONOMY IS ALWAYS PRESENT, THE AMBASSADOR SAID, AND WHILE THE CREATION OF DEMOCRACY IS ALWAYS DIFFICULT IN LATIN AMERICA, THE CRITICAL ISSUE REMAINS ECONOMIC GROWTH. IN THIS SENSE, CHILE WELCOMES THE IDEAS EXPRESSED BY SECRETARY BRADY AND, AS A FERVENT ADHERENT TO THE BAKER PLAN, DESERVES PRIORITY TREATMENT UNDER ANY NEW SCHEME. CHILE IS WELL-KNOWN TO BOTH SECRETARY BAKER AND SECRETARY BRADY, ERRAZURIZ SAID, WHICH MAKES A GOOD BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP VERY POSSIBLE. HE AGAIN PLEDGED TO KEEP OPEN FRANK DIALOGUE WITH HIS "GOOD FRIENDS" AT STATE.

8. UNDERSECRETARY KIMMITT PRAISED ERRAZURIZ' WORDS AND STATED THAT THE USG LOOKS FORWARD TO A GOOD WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GOC DURING THIS CRUCIAL YEAR IN CHILEAN HISTORY. HE URGED ERRAZURIZ TO TELL CHILE'S STORY OF ECONOMIC SUCCESS AND A TRANSITION DEMOCRACY TO OTHER ELEMENTS IN THE USG AND IN CONGRESS. IN DEALING WITH THE DEPARTMENT, KIMMITT TOLD ERRAZURIZ THAT HE SHOULD FEEL FREE TO EXPRESS HIS IDEAS WITH THE UTMOST FRANKNESS AND TO BE CRITICAL WHENEVER HE WISHES. THE SECRETARY, HE STRESSED, FEELS THAT THE DEPARTMENT HAS A PARTICULAR OBLIGATION TO FOLLOW EVENTS IN LATIN AMERICA. WHILE THE SECRETARY HIMSELF IS INITIALLY FOCUSING ESPECIALLY CLOSELY ON CENTRAL AMERICA, MR. KIMMITT SAID, HE AND OTHERS IN THE DEPARTMENT WILL ALSO PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO SOUTH AMERICA.

9. SECONDING ERRAZURIZ' COMMENTS ON THE FRUIT CRISIS, KIMMITT STATED THAT HE SAW MUCH POSITIVE IN THE EPISODE, ESPECIALLY THE CAPACITY OF THE USG AND GOC TO WORK TOGETHER TO OVERCOME DIFFERENCES ON A TOUGH PROBLEM. TO THIS ERRAZURIZ REPLIED THAT HE NOW FEES LIKE A "CLOSE FRIEND" OF FDA COMMISSIONER YOUNG, WITH WHOM HE SPOKE 4 TO 5 TIMES A DAY AT THE HEIGHT OF THE CRISIS. ERRAZURIZ ALSO PRAISED THE DEPARTMENT, WHOSE OFFICIALS WORKED "ROUND THE CLOCK" TO HELP RESOLVE THE CRISIS.

10. KIMMITT ASKED ERRAZURIZ WHAT THE CHILEAN EMBASSY IS BEING TOLD ABOUT THE LETELIER CASE BY CONGRESS. ERRAZURIZ

RESPONDED BY DESCRIBING THE "POSITIVE PERCEPTION" THAT CHILE NOW ENJOYS ON THE HILL AFTER THE PLEBISCITE, WITHOUT MAKING ANY MENTION WHATSOEVER OF LETELIER. KIMMITT FOLLOWED-UP BY STATING THAT THE REASON FOR INVOKING THE 1914 TREATY WAS TO DEAL IN A CONSTRUCTIVE FASHION WITH A DIFFICULT ISSUE AND TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT THE FRAGILE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY NOT BE NEGATIVELY AFFECTED BY THE LETELIER MATTER. THE CASE, KIMMITT NOTED, IS STILL ON PEOPLE'S MINDS IN THE U.S. AND THE DEPARTMENT'S GOAL IN INVOKING THE TREATY WAS TO TURN NEGATIVE PERCEPTIONS OF THE MATTER INTO SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE BY ELICITING THE COOPERATION OF THE GOC IN THE TREATY PROCESS. ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT THE GOC IS CURRENTLY STUDYING THE TREATY QUITE CAREFULLY AND HAS RECENTLY SENT A DIPLOMATIC NOTE ASKING THE U.S. TO ENTER INTO CONSULTATION "IN A CONSTRUCTIVE SPIRIT." BY ALL MEANS, ERRAZURIZ SAID, THE GOC WANTS TO BE "POSITIVE" ON THE CASE. KIMMITT AGAIN STRESSED THE NEED TO "ACCELERATE" THE TREATY PROCESS SO THAT BOTH SIDES CAN RIGHTLY CLAIM THAT THEY ARE MAKING PROGRESS ON THE CASE.

11. MR. KIMMITT STATED HIS INTEREST IN VISITING LATIN AMERICA AND CHILE IN PARTICULAR, WHILE INVITING THE CHILEANS TO CONTINUE TO WORK CLOSELY WITH HIM HERE IN WASHINGTON. AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ SAID THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO HOLD A DINNER IN MR. KIMMITT'S HONOR.

1. (U) SUMMARY: JOSEPH DETHOMAS OF OES/NTS CALLED ON MIGUEL MEDINA, HEAD OF THE MEXICAN NATIONAL COMMISSION ON NUCLEAR SAFETY AND SAFEGUARDS (CNSNS) ON APRIL 24, 1989. AMONG THE ISSUES DISCUSSED WERE THE START-UP OF THE LAGUNA VERDE NUCLEAR POWER REACTOR, NRC-CNSNS COOPERATION, IAEA EFFORTS AT INTERNATIONAL COORDINATION IN INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR THE HANDLING OF RADIATION SOURCES AND THE TRANSBOUNDARY MOVEMENT OF RADIOACTIVE WASTE, INFORMATION ON PHYSICAL PROTECTION OF NUCLEAR FACILITIES, AND A PROPOSAL FOR A U.S.-MEXICO JOINT SUBCOMMISSION ON NUCLEAR COOPERATION. END SUMMARY.

LAGUNA VERDE POWER REACTOR COMES ON LINE

3. (U) MEDINA OPENED THE MEETING STATING THAT HE WAS WORKING FULL TIME ON THE AFTERMATH OF THE START-UP OF THE U.S.-MANUFACTURED LAGUNA VERDE POWER REACTOR. IN WHAT THE MEXICAN PRESS HAS DESCRIBED AS A SURPRISE MOVE, THE GOM COORDINATED THE REACTOR'S PRODUCTION WITH THE NATIONAL ELECTRICAL GRID ON APRIL 13. THE REACTOR IS CURRENTLY PRODUCING 40 MW ELECTRIC. THE MOVE HAS APPARENTLY GENERATED SOME HEAT ON MEDINA SINCE PRESS ACCOUNTS MAINTAIN THAT THE GOM HAD NOT INTENDED TO PUT THE REACTOR ON LINE FOR SIX MONTHS. MEDINA TOLD DETHOMAS THAT THE STARTUP WAS PROCEEDING NORMALLY WITH THE TO-BE-EXPECTED GLITCHES. THE REACTOR SCRAMMED ON APRIL 21 DUE TO A SATURATED DEMINERALIZER AND THERE HAS BEEN A VERY SLIGHT CONTAMINATION OF TWO WORKERS AT THE PLANT.

4. (LOU) MEDINA SAID HE AND THE RELEVANT GOM SUBSECRETARIES WOULD BE GOING TO LAGUNA VERDE LATER THIS WEEK TO DISCUSS THE STATUS OF THE PLANT. HE ALSO SAID THAT PRESIDENT SALINAS DID NOT INTEND TO VISIT THE PLANT IN THE NEAR FUTURE. THE EMERGENCY PLAN FOR THE REACTOR HAS NOT YET BEEN FORMALLY APPROVED BY CNSNS OR THE CIVIL DEFENSE AUTHORITIES, SO THAT THE PLANT MIGHT HAVE TO BE TEMPORARILY SHUT DOWN UNTIL IT IS FORMALLY APPROVED. MEDINA HAD NO ESTIMATE OF WHEN THE REACTOR WOULD GO TO FULL POWER.

5. (C) COMMENT: MEDINA WAS CLEARLY ANNOYED WITH THE SITUATION AT LAGUNA VERDE. IT IS NOT CLEAR WHETHER

MEDINA'S ANNOYANCE STEMS FROM A DISAGREEMENT OVER THE GOM'S STARTUP OF THE PLANT, OR ON THE RESULTING CRITICISM WITH WHICH HE MUST NOW DEAL. END COMMENT.

NRC-CNSNS COOPERATION

6. (U) MEDINA AND ABUD EXPRESSED SATISFACTION AT THE STATE OF CNSNS-NRC COOPERATION. THEY NOTED SEVERAL COURSES BEING HELD IN THE U.S. WITH STRONG GOM PARTICIPATION. MEDINA AND ABUD SAID THEY WOULD LIKE TO FINALIZE THE NRC-CNSNS INFORMATION EXCHANGE AGREEMENT, BUT THEY WERE NOT SURE WHAT STEPS REMAINED TO BE TAKEN.

NUCLEAR SAFETY IN THE IAEA

7. (U) IN REPLY TO DETHOMAS' INQUIRY, MEDINA SAID THAT THE THREE EL SALVADORANS, TO WHOM THE IAEA, USG AND GOM PROVIDED MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOLLOWING A RADIOLOGICAL ACCIDENT, WERE GOING TO SURVIVE. THE LEAST IRRADIATED INDIVIDUAL WAS RELEASED FROM THE HOSPITAL, BUT DID NOT WISH TO RETURN TO EL SALVADOR; THE MOST HEAVILY EXPOSED INDIVIDUAL STILL HAD AN ABNORMAL BLOOD COUNT AND THE PROGNOSIS FOR THE RETENTION OF HIS FEET WAS UNCLEAR; THE INTERMEDIATE EXPOSURE CASE HAS ALSO BEEN RELEASED FROM THE HOSPITAL.

8. (U) DETHOMAS NOTED INCREASING INTERNATIONAL INTEREST IN BETTER MEANS TO PREVENT SUCH ACCIDENTS WITH RADIOACTIVE SOURCES. HE ASKED MEDINA FOR HIS VIEWS ON THE IAEA EFFORT IN THIS AREA. MEDINA SAID THE GOM WOULD CONTINUE A STRONG PARTICIPATION IN THE TECHNICAL MEETINGS ON SOURCES IN VIENNA. HE CALLED DETHOMAS' ATTENTION TO THE FACTS THAT:

MEDINA ALSO INDICATED THAT THE GOM WAS UPGRADING ITS OWN DOMESTIC REGULATIONS FOLLOWING A RECENT STUDY IT HAD CONDUCTED THAT INDICATED THAT THERE WERE THREE AND ONE-HALF INCIDENTS A YEAR INVOLVING RADIOACTIVE SOURCES IN MEXICO.

9. (U) DETHOMAS ASKED IF THE GOM WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE MAY IAEA MEETING ON THE TRANDBOUNDARY OF RADIOACTIVE WASTE. MEDINA WAS UNSURE THE CNSNS WOULD SEND A REPRESENTATIVE. 11. (U) DETHOMAS REMINDED MEDINA THAT THE USG HAD SUGGESTED IN 1988 THAT THE U.S. AND GOM FORM A JOINT NUCLEAR SUBCOMMISSION UNDER THE U.S.-MEXICO S AND T AGREEMENT. THE OBJECT WOULD BE TO BETTER COORDINATE AND EXPAND U.S.-GOM INTERCHANGES ON NUCLEAR ISSUES. MAKING IT CLEAR THAT SUCH A SUBCOMMISSION WOULD NOT SUBSTITUTE FOR EXISTING NRC-CNSNS COOPERATION, DETHOMAS SAID HE HOPED THE CNSNS COULD SUPPRT FORMATION OF SUCH A GROUP. 1. SECRET, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. THIS IS AN ACTION REQUEST.

3. BELOW ARE TALKING POINTS DEPARTMENT PLANS TO USE IN VERBALLY RESPONDING TO LATEST GOC NOTE ON 1914 TREATY. LEGAL ADVISOR SOFAER/ACTING AS KOZAK PLAN TO CALL AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ INTO DEPARTMENT ON APRIL 23 OR EARLY THE FOLLOWING WEEK TO DISCUSS THESE POINTS WITH HIM. WE WILL OFFER TO MEET WITH THE GOC TO DISCUSS THE TREATY PROCESS, AS IT REQUESTS IN ITS NOTE, BUT WILL REQUEST THAT BEFORE THE MEETING TAKES PLACE, THE GOC APPOINT ITS NON-NATIONAL COMMISSION MEMBER AND RESPOND TO THE LIST OF CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT THAT WE HAVE PRESENTED THEM. AT THE SAME TIME, WE WILL ATTEMPT TO FIX A DATE FOR OUR MEETING WHICH ALLOWS THE GOC A BRIEF BUT REASONABLE PERIOD OF TIME TO TAKE THESE STEPS.

4. DEPARTMENT REQUESTS YOUR URGENT COMMENTS ON THESE TALKING POINTS, THE LOCATION AND TIMING OF THE MEETING, AND MAKEUP OF OUR DELEGATION.

5. BEGIN TALKING POINTS:

--EARLIER THIS MONTH (APRIL 5) WE RECEIVED YOUR NOTE NUMBER 035. IT STATED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY WAS STUDYING THE SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE 1914 TREATY, THAT THE MINISTRY'S STUDY TO DATE INDICATED SOME UNCERTAINTY, AND THAT AS A RESULT THE TWO GOVERNMENTS SHOULD MEET IN APRIL TO MAKE A "DETAILED STUDY...OF ALL DIPLOMATIC EXCHANGES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES AND DOCUMENTATION RELATING TO THE TREATY."

--YOUR NOTE HAS CAUSED US SOME CONCERN.

--WE BELIEVE THAT THE 1914 TREATY AND THE PROCEDURE IT ESTABLISHES OFFER OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS THE MEANS THROUGH WHICH WE CAN ADDRESS THE LETELIER CASE.

--THE LETELIER CASE MUST BE DEALT WITH IN A SATISFACTORY MANNER, AND THE 1914 TREATY PROVIDES THAT OPPORTUNITY.

--YOUR NOTE SUGGESTS UNCERTAINTY AS TO THE SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE TREATY AND PROPOSES A MEETING TO REVIEW THE HISTORICAL RECORD.

--SOME MIGHT SEE THAT AS A TACTIC FOR DELAY.

STATE 127138 1912 ARA2333

--MOREOVER, THAT SUSPICION IS ENCOURAGED BY THE FACT THAT CHILE HAS NOT TAKEN STEPS ON APPOINTMENTS THAT IT SAID IT WOULD.

--FOR INSTANCE, IN CHILE'S JANUARY 26, 1989 NOTE 1647, IT STATED THAT CHILE WOULD NAME ITS NON-NATIONAL MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

--THIS PROMISE WAS RESTATED BY FOREIGN MINISTER ERRAZURIZ TO AMBASSADOR GILLESPIE ON MARCH 10.

--CHILE HAS STILL NOT APPOINTED A NON-NATIONAL COMMISSION MEMBER.

--MOREOVER, ON FEBRUARY 9, CHILE WAS INVITED TO PRESENT US WITH A LIST OF FOUR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION BY FEBRUARY 16.

--WE RECEIVED NO RESPONSE.

--ON MARCH 10, AMBASSADOR GILLESPIE PRESENTED FOREIGN MINISTER ERRAZURIZ WITH A LIST OF FOUR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT. THE FOREIGN MINISTER INDICATED WE WOULD RECEIVE A RESPONSE QUICKLY.

--INSTEAD, WE HAVE RECEIVED A NOTE WHICH APPEARS TO QUESTION THE PROCESS.

--IF IT IS YOUR DESIRE, WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET WITH YOU TO HAVE A FULL DISCUSSION OF THE SCOPE, APPLICABILITY, AND OPERATION OF THE TREATY AS IT APPLIES TO THE LETELIER CASE.

--WE WISH TO UNDERSCORE, HOWEVER, THAT WE HAVE NO INTENTION OF GETTING INTO THE KIND OF DETAILED STUDY OF THE TREATY THAT YOUR NOTE APPEARS TO PROPOSE.

--AFTER ALL, THE SCOPE OF THE TREATY IS ULTIMATELY A MATTER FOR THE COMMISSION TO DECIDE.

--THUS, WE BELIEVE IT WOULD FACILITATE MATTERS AND DEMONSTRATE TO THOSE WHO MAY DOUBT CHILE'S INTENTIONS, IF YOU WOULD APPOINT YOUR NON-NATIONAL MEMBER AND RESPOND TO THE LIST OF CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT BEFORE OUR MEETING TAKES PLACE.

--THIS WOULD BE A DEMONSTRATION OF GOOD FAITH AND INDICATE CHILE'S WILLINGNESS TO RESOLVE THIS MATTER.

--IF CHILE CONTINUES TO DELAY, WE DO NOT RULE OUT ASKING THE SWISS PRESIDENT TO APPOINT A COMMISSION PRESIDENT AS THE TREATY PROVIDES.

--WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET IN ..... (EMBASSY SUGGESTION).. DURING THE WEEK OF ..... (EMBASSY SUGGESTION).

--OUR DELEGATION WOULD BE LED BY (EMBASSY COMMENT ON APPROPRIATE LEVEL OF DELEGATION).

--WE WANT TO EMPHASIZE AGAIN THAT OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO FIND A SATISFACTORY RESOLUTION OF THE LETELIER CASE.

--WE BELIEVE THE 1914 TREATY OFFERS THAT POSSIBILITY.

SUBJ: JUNIOR OFFICER COMMUNIQUE ON PINOCHET ROUNDLY CRITICIZED

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 3719, (B) FBIS-PY1804155689

1. (C) SUMMARY: ANOTHER COMMUNIQUE (REF A) ASSERTING A PRIMARY ROLE FOR THE ARMED FORCES IN CHILE, THIS TIME FROM THE "SELF-STYLED" JUNIOR CHILEAN ARMY OFFICER, WAS REJECTED AS FORCEFULLY BY OPPOSITION FIGURES AS HAD BEEN A SIMILAR STATEMENT ON APRIL 10 BY THE ARMY HIGH COMMAND (REF B). THE ARMY HIERARCHY ALSO DENOUNCED IT, APPARENTLY MORE BECAUSE ITS PUBLICATION VIOLATED MILITARY NORMS THAN CONFIDENTIAL

FOR ITS CONTENT. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED ON APRIL 18 BY "JUNIOR CHILEAN ARMY OFFICERS" REFERS TO THE "SMEAR CAMPAIGN AND ATTACKS" AGAINST PINOCHET WHICH PROMPTED THE ARMY HIGH COMMAND'S COMMUNIQUE

CONFIDENTIAL

CHARGING THAT AN ATTACK ON PINOCHET IS CONSIDERED AN ATTACK ON THE ARMED FORCES AS AN INSTITUTION. THE JUNIOR OFFICERS' FURTHER CRITICIZED STATEMENTS BY THE 17-MEMBER COALITION OF PARTIES FOR DEMOCRACY (COPODE) ASSERTING THAT PINOCHET, AS PRESIDENT -- NOT AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ARMY -- WAS SUBJECT TO THE SAME GIVE AND TAKE AS OTHER POLITICAL FIGURES. THE JUNIOR OFFICERS ASSERTED THAT "PINOCHET IS ONE PERSON. THE MAN WHO HAS DEVOTED HIMSELF TO THE SACRED CAUSE OF THE FATHERLAND...AND ENDURED SUCH VILE ACTIONS AS THE VIOLATION OF HIS PARENTS' GRAVE AND COWARDLY PHYSICAL ATTACKS". THE COMMUNIQUE ASSERTS THAT THE ARMED FORCES HAVE A "CLEAR AND DEFINED POSITION OF PERMANENTLY SAFEGUARDING THE SECURITY OF THE NATION BOTH INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY," AND SAYS THE OFFICERS WILL DECISIVELY STRUGGLE TO PREVENT ANOTHER MARXIST GOVERNMENT LIKE ALLENDE'S. IN A DIRECT ATTACK ON THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, THE COMMUNIQUE AVERS THAT PDC "PAVED THE WAY FOR (SALVADOR ALLENDE'S) POPULAR UNITY GOVERNMENT TO GAIN POWER"AND THE OFFICERS SAY THEY HAVE THE IMPRESSION ANOTHER ALLENDE IS JUST OVER THE HORIZON. THE COMMUNIQUE LINKS THE FREI GOVERNMENT TO THAT OF THE SOVIET UNION'S KERENSKY GOVERNMENT, WHICH GAVE WAY TO LENIN.
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

3. (U) REACTION FROM THE OPPOSITION POLITICAL PARTIES WAS PREDICTABLE. RADICAL PARTY PRESIDENT ENRIQUE SILVA CIMMA (WHO IS THE ACTING SPOKESMAN OF COPODE) CHARACTERIZED THE COMMUNIQUE AS "SEDITIOUS," AND ACTING PDC PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR NOTED THE ARMED FORCES SHOULD NOT MEDDLE IN PURELY POLITICAL AFFAIRS. PARTY FOR DEMOCRACY SECRETARY GENERAL JORGE SCHAULSOHN TERMED THE COMMUNIQUE "EXTREMELY GRAVE" AND "CONTRADICTORY TO THE ARMED FORCES' POSITION OF NOT PARTICIPATING IN POLITICAL AFFAIRS."

4. (C) THE REFERENCE TO FREI AND KERENSKY ECHOS A SIMILAR IDEA CONTAINED IN A PAID ADVERTISEMENT IN LA TERCERA'S APRIL 9 EDITION BY THE CHILEAN SOCIETY FOR THE DEFENSE OF TRADITION, THE FAMILY AND PROPERTY (TFP). THE GROUP, WHICH IS BELIEVED TO BE

COMPRISED OF YOUNG AND RADICALLY-CONSERVATIVE CATHOLICS WHO ESPOUSE THE TEACHINGS OF EXCOMMUNICATED FRENCH CARDINAL FEFEBVRE, IS RABIDLY ANTI-CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC.

5.(C) COMMENT: THE ARMY'S REJECTION OF THE COMMUNIQUE PROBABLY REFLECTS A DESIRE TO DISCOURAGE INDEPENDENT THOUGHT AND ACTION AMONG JUNIOR OFFICERS. THE STRENGTH OF THE ARMY LIES IN ITS RIGID HIERARCHICAL FORM AND EMPHASIS ON CHAIN-OF-COMMAND AUTHORITY. GILLESPIE

POWER TO MAKE EL SALVADOR "UNGOVERNABLE" FOR THE NEXT PRESIDENT. MARTINEZ BEGAN HER POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN 1968 IN THE STUDENT MOVEMENT. SHE WAS A MEDICAL STUDENT WHEN SHE LEFT SCHOOL IN 1973 TO JOIN THE ERP. IN 1975, SHE COMMANDED THE GUERRILLA FORCES OF THE EASTERN ZONE. IN MID-1976, SHE WAS CAPTURED AND IMPRISONED BY THE NATIONAL POLICE FOR HAVING ALLEGEDLY KILLED A SALVADORAN POLICEMAN. IN 1977, THE ERP SECURED HER RELEASE IN EXCHANGE FOR A KIDNAPPED INDUSTRIALIST, WHOM THE GUERRILLAS KILLED AFTER SHE WAS FREED. AFTER HER RELEASE SHE WENT INTO EXILE IN ALGERIA. SHE HAS WRITTEN A BOOK ABOUT HER PRISON EXPERIENCE. MARTINEZ HAS TRAVELLED EXTENSIVELY; SHE HAS VISITED THE US. SHE IS ABOUT 37 YEARS OLD.

4. SALVADOR RICARDO SAMAYOA LEIVA

A LAWYER AND PROFESSOR OF LAW, SAMAYOA WAS MINISTER OF EDUCATION IN THE FIRST SALVADORAN JUNTA FROM OCTOBER 1979 UNTIL JANUARY 1980. ACCORDING TO LOCAL PRESS REPORTS, HE RESIGNED BECAUSE HE OBJECTED TO THE "REPRESSIVE NATURE" OF THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT.

[redacted]

SAMAYOA SUBSEQUENTLY WENT UNDERGROUND AND JOINED THE FMLN/FDR. HE WAS RELEASED SHORTLY AFTERWARD FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM. SINCE THAT TIME HE HAS TRAVELLED WIDELY TO GATHER SUPPORT FOR THE FMLN/FDR AND HAS BEEN A PUBLIC SPOKESMAN FOR THE GROUP. IN AN APRIL 1983 PRESS CONFERENCE IN PORTUGAL, HE CONDEMNED WHAT HE CALLED US "INTERVENTIONALISM" IN CENTRAL AMERICA. BEFORE BECOMING MINISTER OF EDUCATION, SAMAYOA HAD SERVED AS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF SOCORRO JURIDICO, A LEGAL AID SOCIETY THAT HAD TIES TO THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN SALVADOR AND THAT WAS HEAVILY INVOLVED IN HANDLING CASES OF PERSONS WHOSE HUMAN RIGHTS HAD BEEN VIOLATED. DURING THE EARLY 1970S HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE FACULTY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN UNIVERSITY IN SAN SALVADOR AND A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF A UNVERSITY MAGAZINE. SAMAYOA HAS A COMMON LAW WIFE, ROSA VALIENTE. HE DOES NOT SPEAK ENGLISH.

5. ANA MERCEDES DEL CARMEN LETONA PEREZ

LETONA IS A MEMBER OF THE ERP GENERAL COMMAND AND FIRST SECRETARY OF THE SALVADORAN REVOLUTIONARY PARTY'S (PRS) POLITICAL COMMISSION. SHE IS ALSO A MEMBER OF THE PRS CENTRAL COMMITTEE. LETONA IS THE

E.O. 12356: DECL:OADR
TAGS: AMGT
SUBJ: OFFICIAL-INFORMAL

1. SECRET - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. FOLLOWING IS EMBASSY'S REACTION TO YOUR OFFICIAL-INFORMAL (STATE 127138) CONCERNING NEXT STEPS ON THE LETELIER CASE.

3. WE BELIEVE IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO KEEP IN MIND THE CONTEXT IN WHICH THE CHILEANS ARE APPROACHING THIS ISSUE. WE WOULD ALL AGREE THAT FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ HAS A VERY SHORT LEASH ON THIS DELICATE SUBJECT. HE CANNOT AFFORD TO COMPLETELY STIFF US, BUT IS COMMITTED TO PINOCHET TO KEEP IT FROM BECOMING A MAJOR ISSUE. WE MUST CRAFT OUR APPROACH SO THAT WE DO NOT SPOOK HIM INTO SKYING AWAY FROM THE COMMISSION AS UNDERTAKING A COMMITMENT WHICH HE CANNOT SELL TO HIS BOSS. FOR THAT REASON, IT SEEMS PREMATURE TO US TO MAKE THE POINT IN THIS MEETING THAT "WE HAVE NO INTENTION OF GETTING INTO THE KIND OF DETAILED STUDY OF THE TREATY THAT YOUR NOTE APPEARS TO PROPOSE." TO OUR MIND, THAT TIPS OUR HAND. RATHER WE SHOULD EMPHASIZE THE FOLLOWING POINT THAT "THE SCOPE OF THE TREATY IS ULTIMATELY A MATTER FOR THE COMMISSION TO DECIDE." INSOFAR AS POSSIBLE, IT SEEMS IN OUR INTEREST TO ENCOURAGE THE CHILEANS TO FOCUS ON THE COMMISSION ITSELF AS THE FORUM FOR REVIEWING THE HISTORICAL RECORD, AND WE SHOULD PORTRAY THE INTERIM MEETING FOR THE DISCUSSION THEY REQUEST IN THEIR APRIL 3 NOTE AS SETTING THE STAGE FOR SUCH A REVIEW.

4. AS A GENERAL COMMENT, WE FIND SOME OF THE TALKING POINTS OVERLY CONFRONTATIONAL. IT IS IMPORTANT TO BE FIRM ON THE ISSUE OF DELAY, BUT WE WONDER IF THIS COULD NOT BE COUCHED IN TERMS OF "THESE DELAYS PROMPT US TO WONDER EXACTLY WHAT YOUR ULTIMATE INTENTIONS ARE." IT MIGHT BE USEFUL TO REFER TO OCTAVIO'S RECENT STATEMENTS, AFTER SOME SQUIRMING, TO UNDERSECRETARY KIMMITT THAT THE GOC WANTS TO BE "POSITIVE" ON THE CASE AND ENTER INTO CONSULTATIONS "IN A CONSTRUCTIVE SPIRIT." (STATE 127077). WE COULD EMPHASIZE IN THAT CONTEXT THAT DRAGGING OUT DISCUSSIONS ON THE TREATY'S APPLICABILITY IS NOT "CONSTRUCTIVE" AND THEY SHOULD SHOW GOOD FAITH BY GETTING ON WITH THE BUSINESS OF SETTING UP THE COMMISSION.

5. ON TIMING, GIVEN THE AMBASSADOR'S ARRIVAL IN WASHINGTON OVER THE WEEKEND, IT WOULD BE USEFUL IF HE COULD REVIEW STRATEGY WITH YOU BEFORE WE GO TO

THE CHILEANS. HOWEVER, WE UNDERSTAND THAT THERE MAY BE CONSTRAINTS ON JUDGE SOFAER'S TIME, AND A SKULL SESSION PRIOR TO THE EVENT IS NOT ESSENTIAL.

6. ON OUR DEMARCHES, OUR PRINCIPAL CONCERN IS THAT THE CHILEANS GET THE CLEAR MESSAGE THAT THE LETELIER CASE IS RECEIVING ATTENTION AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. UNDERSECRETARY KIMMITT'S MEETING WITH OCTAVIO ERRAZURIZ SEEMED TO US A VERY USEFUL EXCHANGE. WE WONDER IF HE MIGHT BE AVAILABLE TO JOIN SOFAER IN THIS INITIAL DEMARCHE FOLLOWING UP ON THE EARLIER CONVERSATION. GIVEN THE TECHNICAL LEGAL ISSUES APT TO SURFACE IN THE NEXT EXCHANGE AND THE POSSIBILITY THAT MORE THAN ONE MEETING MAY BE NECESSARY TO AIR THE SUBJECT, WE THINK IT SHOULD TAKE PLACE IN WASHINGTON WHERE OUR OWN AND THE CHILEANS' LEGAL EXPERTISE ARE READILY AVAILABLE. THE MEETING SHOULD TAKE PLACE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER THE PRESENTATION TO ERRAZURIZ. A COUPLE OF WEEKS SHOULD GIVE THEM TIME TO ACT ON THE COMMISSION MEMBERS AND GET THEIR ACT TOGETHER TO TALK TO US. FOR THE FOLLOW-UP MEETING, AGAIN, THE HEAD OF OUR DELEGATION SHOULD BE AT AS HIGH A LEVEL AS POSSIBLE, BUT WE UNDERSTAND THE DEMANDS ON SEVENTH FLOOR PRINCIPALS' TIME, AND WOULD BE PLEASED IF MIKE SKOL COULD HEAD THE TEAM WITH ARA/SC AND DAVE COLSON AND ANY OTHER LEGAL EXPERTS NECESSARY TO PROVIDE THE TECHNICAL BACKUP. GILLESPIE

1. (C) SUMMARY: ON APRIL 26, PRESIDENT PINOCHET REQUESTED THE RESIGNATION OF HIS ENTIRE CABINET FOLLOWING THE ALLEGED RESIGNATION OF INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES. UNCONFIRMED BUT CREDIBLE REPORTS INDICATE THE CABINET CRISIS WAS PROMPTED BY PINOCHET'S REJECTION OF CACERES' PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES WORKED OUT WITH MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES. ON APRIL 27, HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THAT CACERES HAD BEEN CONFIRMED AS MINISTER OF INTERIOR AND LATER SAID ALL BUT MINISTER OF EDUCATION JUAN GUZMAN AND MINISTER OF MINES PABLO BARONA WOULD BE CONFIRMED IN THEIR POSITIONS. (PRESUMABLY BARONA RETAINS HIS OTHER PORTFOLIO, ECONOMY.) WHILE THE SITUATION REMAINS FLUID, IT IS CLEAR THAT PINOCHET HAS LOST NONE OF HIS CAPACITY FOR SURPRISE. IT APPEARS THAT THIS IS ONE INSTANCE WHEN HE WAS FORCED TO BACK DOWN IN THE FACE OF STRONG PRESSURE FROM HIS OWN SUPPORTERS.

END SUMMARY.

2. (U) UNCONFIRMED REPORTS INDICATE THAT CACERES PROPOSED A LIST OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS TO SUBMIT TO A PLEBISCITE WHICH WENT BEYOND THE MINIMAL NUMBER PINOCHET WAS PREPARED TO ACCEPT. CACERES THEN REPORTEDLY RESIGNED, AND THERE WAS WIDESPREAD SPECULATION THAT MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS HERNAN FELIPE ERRAZURIZ AND DUAL-HATTED MINISTER OF ECONOMY AND MINES PABLO BARONA FOLLOWED SUIT. PINOCHET THEN REQUESTED RESIGNATIONS FROM ALL THE CABINET MEMBERS, AS HE HAD DONE ON APRIL 3 WHEN HERNAN BUCHI RESIGNED AS MINISTER OF FINANCE.

3. (U) JOURNALISTS ATTEMPTED TO DRAW FROM BOTH CACERES AND ACTING SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE GOVERNMENT JAIME GARCIA AN ADMISSION THAT CACERES' RESIGNATION INDICATED THERE WOULD BE NO PLEBISCITE TO CONSIDER CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS, BUT THEY SAID ONLY THAT PINOCHET WOULD STUDY PROPOSALS AND DECIDE WHAT TO DO.

4. (C) A FEW POLITICAL FIGURES CONTACTED BY JOURNALISTS INDICATED THEY WERE NOT SURPRISED BY PINOCHET WAS EVER SERIOUS ABOUT CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS. THE EVENING OF APRIL 26, HERNAN BUCHI'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER, SEBASTIAN PINERA, TOLD EMBOFFS THAT PINOCHET ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

HAD "KICKED OVER THE TABLE." HE SAID FLATLY THAT BUCHI WOULD PUBLICLY SUPPORT CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE AND OPPOSE PINOCHET'S CONTINUANCE IN OFFICE (WHICH ME, LIKE MANY OTHERS, BELIEVED TO BE PINOCHET'S PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVE, WITH THE CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUE ONLY SECONDARY). HE SAID THESE STANDS MIGHT, HOWEVER, LOSE BUCHI THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTIES, AS PINERA DID NOT UNDERRATE PINOCHET'S ABILITY TO MANIPULATE AND INTIMIDATE THE RIGHT.

5. (U) BUT HOLD EVERYTHING| ON APRIL 27, THE GOVERNMENT PRESS OFFICE ANNOUNCED THAT CACERES HAD BEEN CONFIRMED AS MINISTER OF INTERIOR; A FEW MINUTES LATER, IT ANNOUNCED THAT ALL CABINET OFFICIALS HAD BEEN CONFIRMED IN THEIR POSITIONS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF JUAN GUZMAN AS MINISTER OF EDUCATION AND PABLO BARONA AS MINISTER OF MINES (BUT HE WILL RETAIN HIS ECONOMY PORTFOLIO). A CEREMONY

INSTALLING THE NEW CABINET IS REPORTEDLY PLANNED FOR THIS (APRIL 27) EVENING.

6. (C) COMMENT: THERE SEEMS LITTLE DOUBT THAT THERE WAS A CLASH BETWEEN CACERES AND PINOCHET ON APRIL 26, AND IT ALMOST CERTAINLY WAS OVER CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. PINOCHET RETAINS HIS CAPABILITY FOR SURPRISE. THIS APPEARS TO BE ONE CASE WHEN HE BACKED DOWN BEFORE VERY STRONG OPPOSITION. ELECTION OVER TO THE OPPOSITION IS VERY STRONG, ESPECIALLY IN THE PARTIES OF THE RIGHT. TO DUMP CACERES AT THIS JUNCTURE WOULD ALMOST SURELY HAVE MEANT EXACTLY THAT. THERE IS GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE THE MILITARY JUNTA ALSO SAW THIS LOGIC AND FOR ONLY THE SECOND TIME IN OUR MEMORY (THE FIRST BEING THE NIGHT OF THE PLEBISCITE) WERE UNWILLING TO

GO ALONG WITH PINOCHET (SEPTEL). GILLESPIE

SUBJ: ALMEYDA CALLS NEXT GOVERNMENT PROVISIONAL

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 3881, (B) 3719

1. (U) DURING THE APRIL 23 CELEBRATION OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY'S 56TH ANNIVERSARY WHICH WAS ORGANIZED BY THE ALMEYDA SOCIALIST FACTION (PS/A), GENERAL SECRETARY CLODOMIRO ALMEYDA DROPPED A NEW BOMBSHELL INTO THE POLITICAL DEBATE. THE FORMER FOREIGN MINISTER STATED THAT ANY FUTURE GOVERNMENT ELECTED ACCORDING TO THE "ANTIDEMOCRATIC LAWS" NOW IN FORCE WILL BE "ILLEGITIMATE." CRITICIZING THE RECENTLY APPROVED ELECTORAL SYSTEMS LAW (REF A) AND THE GOC'S PROPOSAL FOR ENDING FREE POLITICAL ADVERTISING ON TV, ALMEYDA SAID THAT ANY CONGRESS ELECTED UNDER SUCH RULES WOULD BE NECESSARILY "PROVISIONAL, SINCE ITS COMPOSITION WOULD NOT REFLECT THE POPULAR WILL."

2. (U) LEADERS OF THE CENTER-LEFT PARTIES TRIED TO SOFTEN THE INTERPRETATION OF ALMEYDA'S STATEMENTS, TAKING THEM AS A CRITICISM OF THE BINOMINAL MAJORITY SYSTEM AND THE GERRYMANDERED DISTRICTING WHICH CHARACTERIZE THE ELECTORAL LAW RECENTLY PASSED BY

UNCLASSIFIED

THE JUNTA (REF A). CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN COMMENTED THAT THE NEXT PARLIAMENT WOULD NOT BE "TRULY REPRESENTATIVE," SINCE IT WOULD ALLOW THOSE WHO WON 34 PERCENT OF THE VOTE TO ELECT THE SAME NUMBER OF REPRESENTATIVES AS THOSE WHO WON 66 PERCENT OF THE VOTE. AS FOR THE SOCIALIST LEADER'S COMMENT THAT THE NEXT CONGRESS WOULD BE AN INTERIM ONE, AYLWIN SAID THAT THE NEXT GOVERNMENT COULD REFORM THE CONSTITUTION TO REESTABLISH A PROPORTIONAL ELECTION SYSTEM, AND USE ITS CONSTITUTIONAL POWER TO DISSOLVE THE PARLIAMENT TO CALL FOR NEW ELECTIONS AT SOME POINT. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE 17-PARTY OPPOSITION COALITION SAID THAT ALMEYDA WAS SIMPLY CALLING FOR A TRANSITIONAL, FOUR-YEAR PARLIAMENT.

3. (U) POLITICAL FIGURES ON THE RIGHT TOOK ALMEYDA'S WORDS AS PROOF THAT "MARXISTS LIKE HIM" HAD NO INTENTION TO GOVERN DEMOCRATICALLY, BUT INSTEAD WOULD DESTROY REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT. UDI VICE PRESIDENT ANDRES CHADWICK POINTED OUT THAT BEFORE THE PLEBISCITE, THE OPPOSITION SAID THE RULES OF THE GAME WERE RIGGED, YET THEY PRODUCED A RESULT WHICH THEY LATER LAUDED AS EXPRESSING THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE. HE SAID THAT IF THE NEXT GOVERNMENT CALLED FOR NEW ELECTIONS, IT WOULD SIMPLY BE

4. (LOU) COMMENT: ONCE AGAIN, ALMEYDA HAS SHOWN HIS TALENT FOR DOMINATING THE HEADLINES. HIS LAST BOMBSHELL WAS DROPPED A MONTH AGO, WHEN HE REFERRED TO PINOCHET BEING EXILED AFTER THE 1989 ELECTION. POLITICAL LEADERS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE FENCE SPENT SEVERAL WEEKS DEBATING WHAT HE MEANT, AND HIS REMARKS MAY HAVE PROMPTED THE UNUSUAL ARMY HIGH COMMAND STATEMENT DEFENDING PINOCHET (REF B). RETURNING FROM CUBA, ALMEYDA SAID HE HADN'T REALLY MEANT PINOCHET SHOULD BE FORCED INTO EXILE, BUT THAT HE COULD FOLLOW THE PATTERN SET BY OTHER EX-DICTATORS AND SEEK SELF-EXILE. ALTHOUGH THE CURRENT CONTROVERSY AMOUNTS TO LITTLE MORE THAN A TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT, IT DOES CALL ATTENTION TO A PRESIDENTIAL PREROGATIVE IN THE CONSTITUTION -- THE POWER TO DISSOLVE THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES -- WHICH HAS THE

CONSERVATIVES WORRIED. DOING AWAY WITH THE POWER WAS ONE OF PINOCHET'S AIMS IN PROPOSING CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM THIS YEAR. BUT THE GOC-OPPOSITION DIALOGUE HAS PRODUCED LITTLE MOVEMENT TOWARD CONSENSUS, AND AN ACCORD ON THE PACKAGE APPEARS HIGHLY UNCERTAIN AT THIS TIME. GILLESPIE

2. I MET WITH GENERAL STANGE ON APRIL 25 TO DISCUSS NARCOTICS MATTERS (SEPTEL), AND TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE VISIT TO PROBE ON THE CURRENT POLITICAL SITUATION. I ASKED STANGE IF HE HAD ANY RESERVATIONS ABOUT THE LIKELIHOOD OF PRESIDENTIAL AND CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS IN DECEMBER. HE SAID THAT HE FULLY EXPECTS THE ELECTIONS TO TAKE PLACE. I TOLD HIM THAT RECENTLY THERE HAS BEEN MUCH TALK ABOUT A POSSIBLE PINOCHET CANDIDACY. STANGE SAID THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE IT LIKELY THAT PINOCHET WOULD PUT HIMSELF FORWARD, BECAUSE IT WOULD CREATE A VERY COMPLICATED SITUATION FOR THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF. IF HE STEPPED DOWN FROM THE PRESIDENCY AND LEFT THE ARMY, HE WOULD BE "JUST LIKE EVERYONE ELSE" AND THAT WOULD BE OUT OF CHARACTER. IT WOULD ALSO LEAVE OPEN THE QUESTION OF HOW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE RUN AND WHO WOULD RUN IT. STANGE DID NOT BELIEVE THAT ADMIRAL MERINO (MOST OFTEN NAMED AS A POSSIBLE

OF ELECTIONS AGAIN. STANGE WENT ON TO SAY, HOWEVER, THAT IN CHILE ONE CAN NEVER RULE ANYTHING OUT AND IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE PRESIDENT MIGHT TRY TO FIND A WAY TO OVERCOME THE MANY OBSTACLES AND PUT HIMSELF FORWARD AS A CANDIDATE. STANGE REITERATED THAT HE PERSONALLY DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT WILL HAPPEN. STAGE SAID THAT IN ADDITION TO THE PARTISAN ELECTIONS IN DECEMBER, HE EXPECTS THERE TO BE A PLEBISCITE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM IN THE NEXT MONTHS. HE BELIEVES THAT AGREEMENT ON THE NATURE OF SUCH REFORMS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT IS CLOSE AND HE EXPECTS THAT THERE WILL BE A PLEBISCITE BEFORE JULY. HE DISTINGUISHED CLEARLY BETWEEN THE "PROBABILITY AND THE POSSIBILITY" OF A PLEBISCITE, TELLING ME HE CHARACTERIZED THE EVENT AS A PROBABILITY.

3. I ASKED STANGE WHETHER THE ISSUE OF FREE TELEVISION TIME FOR POLITICAL CANDIDATES IS LIKELY TO REMAIN A NEURALGIC POINT. (THE EXECUTIVE SENT THE GOVERNING JUNTA A DRAFT LAW WHICH WOULD CUT OFF FREE TELEVISION TIME FOR CANDIDATES ON NOVEMBER 14. MOST POLITICAL PARTY LEADERS HAVE REACTED LOUDLY AND NEGATIVELY.) STANGE SAID THAT TELEVISION IS SO IMPORTANT IN POLITICS THAT THE MEDIUM MUST CONFIDENTIAL

BE AVAILABLE WITH FEW RESTRICTIONS. HE BELIEVES THAT THE PROBLEM WILL EVAPORATE FAIRLY QUICKLY. (STANGE'S JUNTA COMMISSION HAS THE DRAFT LAW FOR ACTION. MY IMPRESSION IS THAT HE, OR EVEN A MAJORITY OF THE JUNTA, WILL EITHER SIT ON OR POSSIBLY REJECT THE PROPOSED TELEVISION LAW.)

4. STANGE RETURNED TO THE ELECTIONS THEME, EXPRESSING CONCERN ABOUT THE DRAMATIC INCREASE IN VIOLENCE IN CHILE IN RECENT WEEKS. HE STATED FLATLY THAT IF THE TREND CONTINUES HE FEARS THE CARABINEROS WILL HAVE TO TAKE STRONG REPRESSIVE ACTION AND THAT THIS WILL HAVE NEGATIVE REPERCUSSIONS. HE SAID THAT THE VIOLENT LEFT IS MAKING A CONCERTED EFFORT TO SOW DISSENSION AMONG THE CARABINEROS AND TO INTIMIDATE THEM. THE CAMPAIGN CONSISTS OF ATTACKS DIRECTLY ON CARABINEROS, PLUS CONCERTED

LEGAL ACTIONS AGAINST INDIVIDUAL OFFICERS AND POLICEMEN. HE SAID THAT HE HAS ADOPTED A STRATEGY OF MAKING SURE THAT THE CARABINEROS OPERATE IN TEAMS, TAKE PHOTOGRAPHS OF ALL EVIDENCE AND DETAINEES, TAKE FORMAL STATEMENTS WITHIN THE SHORTEST POSSIBLE PERIOD AFTER AN ARRREST IS MADE AND THAT THERE ARE NO ACTIONS WHICH COULD BE CLASSIFIED AS TORTURE. IT IS SIMPLY A MATTER OF SELF-PRESERVATION THAT WITNESSES AND ACCUSED PERSONS BE TREATED REASONABLY SO THAT THEY CAN BE QUESTIONED BY MAGISTRATES AND THE FACTS OF INDIVIDUAL CASES BE ASCERTAINED. BUT, HE EMPHASIZED, INCREASING VIOLENCE IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM WITH POTENTIALLY SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES FOR ALL OF CHILE.

5. COMMENT: STANGE'S VIEWS ON ELECTIONS ARE CONSISTENT WITH OTHERS WE HAVE HEARD, BUT HIS CONFIDENCE IN CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM IS DEFINITELY NOT SHARED WIDELY. HIS OPINIONS ON PINOCHET'S CANDIDACY ARE BASED ON AN ASSUMPTION THAT THE PRESIDENT WOULD LEAVE THE PRESIDENCY AND THE ARMY TO RUN, AN ASSUMPTION ALSO NOT SHARED BROADLY. THERE ARE THOSE WHO BELIEVE THAT THE PRESIDENT DEFINITELY WANTS TO RUN AND IS LOOKING FOR A WAY TO ENGINEER A CANDIDACY WITHOUT LEAVING OFFICE. AS CARABINERO CHIEF, STANGE HAS A REPUTATION FOR MODERATION; HIS EMPHASIS ON VIOLENCE AND THE POSSIBLE NEED

FOR REPRESSIVE TACTICS IS DISQUIETING. [ ]

1. (C) SUMMARY: ALTHOUGH BOTH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN AND MINISTER OF INTERIOR CARLOS CACERES ARE PUBLICLY PAINTING THE CRISIS WHICH PROVOKED CACERES' RESIGNATION AS A MINOR DIFFERENCE OF OPINION BETWEEN HIM AND PRESIDENT PINOCHET, THERE IS UNIVERSAL AGREEMENT IN CHILE THAT PINOCHET WAS FORCED TO REHIRE HIM AND TO CONTINUE PLANS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE BY THE MILITARY JUNTA

MEMBERS. WE HAVE HEARD THAT MEMBERS OF THE BUSINESS CLASS MAY HAVE ALSO WEIGHED IN. MANY CHILEAN OBSERVERS PERCEIVE THE ABORTED CABINET CRISIS AS A WATERSHED EVENT, A SIGN TO PINOCHET THAT HE CANNOT STOP THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY TO SUIT HIMSELF. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ASKED BY JOURNALISTS IF HIS RESIGNATION HAD BEEN PROMPTED BY AN IMPASSE WITH PINOCHET OVER CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS, CACERES SAID, "THERE WAS AN EXCHANGE, I WOULD SAY, OF OPINIONS; AN EXCHANGE OF IDEAS, OF INITIATIVES WHICH IS THE PROPER JOB OF A CABINET AND OF A MINISTER WHO HAS A SPECIFIC TASK TO DO." APPARENTLY TO DOWNPLAY THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CONFRONTATION WITH PINOCHET, HE REMINDED HIS LISTENERS THAT THE COUNTRY WAS FOLLOWING A NEW AND UNCHARTERED PATH, AND SEEMED TO SUGGEST SOME CONTRETEMPS WERE TO BE EXPECTED.

3. (C) A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID THE DECISION TO RECONFIRM CACERES AND ALMOST ALL OTHER CABINET MEMBERS WAS MADE THE DAY FOLLOWING THE MASS RESIGNATION, AFTER PINOCHET MET EARLY WITH SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE PRESIDENCY JORGE BALLERINO AND SUB-SECRETARY OF INTERIOR GONZALO GARCIA (WHO HAD REPORTEDLY RESIGNED ALONG WITH HIS BOSS) AND FINALLY WITH CACERES, WHEN HE WAS CONFIRMED IN HIS POSITION. THE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN APPEARED TO BE TRYING TO UNDERSCORE THAT PINOCHET AND CACERES PATCHED THINGS UP BEFORE PINOCHET MET WITH JUNTA MEMBERS FOR A PREVIOUSLY SCHEDULED MEETING. HOWEVER,
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

IT IS WIDELY BELIEVED THAT THE JUNTA MEMBERS FORCED PINOCHET TO REHIRE CACERES AND, MOREOVER, TOLD HIM THAT HE MUST AGREE TO SUBMITTING CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS TO A PLEBISCITE. AT A FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR THE DCM ON APRIL 27, WHICH WAS WELL ATTENDED BY PROMINENT CHILEANS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE, THE PERCEIVED SHOWDOWN WAS TOPIC NUMBER ONE, AND MANY POLITICAL ACTORS AND OBSERVERS INTERPRETED IT AS A CLEAR SIGNAL, ESPECIALLY TO PINOCHET, THAT THE JUNTA WAS PREPARED TO PREVENT PINOCHET FROM DERAILING THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY. ALTHOUGH SOME INTERLOCUTORS OPINED THAT THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS WOULD NOT BE SIGNIFICANT, FEW SEEMED TO DOUBT THAT THE REFORMS WILL BE PRESENTED FOR A PLEBISCITE DECISION.

4. (C) COMMENT: WE AGREE THAT THE CABINET CRISIS AND PROBABLE SHOWDOWN BETWEEN THE JUNTA

AND PINOCHET HAS ALL THE EARMARKS OF A WATERSHED EVENT. THE POSITION OF CACERES, WHOSE COMMITMENT TO FOLLOWING THE CONSTITUTIONALLY MARKED PATH TOWARD ELECTIONS IN DECEMBER APPEARS DEEP, AS WELL AS POLITICALLY PRAGMATIC, HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY STRENGTHENED. IT APPEARS LIKELY THAT HIS EFFORTS TO GET AGREEMENT FROM PARTIES ON THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM WILL BEAR FRUIT, AND THAT THERE WILL. BE A PLEBISCITE TO RATIFY THEM.

5. (C) IT IS NOT KNOWN IF THE ISSUE OF PINOCHET'S RUNNING FOR PRESIDENT BY TWISTING OR AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION TO PERMIT IT

1. SUMMARY: PDC PRE-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE PATRICIO AYLWIN ADDRESSED THE US-CHILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ON APRIL 25 ABOUT THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, AND POLITICAL PROGRAMS OF THE 17 PARTY OPPOSITION GROUPING. THE ADDRESS RESTATED THE GENERALLY MODERATE PROPOSALS OF THE OPPOSITION, BUT THE MANNER OF PRESENTATION, PARTICULARLY THE IMPLICATION THAT THE OPPOSITION WAS THE ONLY LEGITIMATE DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE, REINFORCED THE NEGATIVE IMPRESSION OF AYLWIN THAT MANY BUSINESSMEN HAVE. END SUMMARY.

2. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PRE-CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN ADDRESSED A BREAKFAST MEETING OF THE US-CHILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (AMCHAM). THE AMCHAM INCLUDES NOT ONLY U.S. COMPANIES BUT VIRTUALLY ALL OF THE MAJOR CHILEAN INDUSTRIAL CORPORATIONS. IN

ACCEPTING THE INVITATION, AYLWIN KNEW THAT THIS GROUP OF INFLUENTIAL BUSINESSMEN WAS VERY SUPPORTIVE OF THE ECONOMIC POLICIES OF THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT AND THAT MANY FELT ANIMOSITY TOWARDS THE PDC. AYLWIN BROUGHT ALONG FORMER FREI MINISTER OF FINANCE AND ECONOMY AND MORE RECENTLY FREE ELECTIONS COMMITTEE COORDINATOR

SERGIO MOLINA.

3. AYLWIN STARTED OFF BY STATING THAT COMPANIES HAD DONE WELL UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT, "AND IN SOME CASES, VERY WELL." LIKE A BUSINESSMAN, AYLWIN WAS THERE TO SELL THEM A PRODUCT CALLED "DEMOCRACY". THE AMERICANS THERE GREW UP WITH THE CONCEPT OF DEMOCRACY AND REALIZED THAT ECONOMIC FREEDOM ALSO REQUIRED POLITICAL FREEDOM. IN CHILE, AYLWIN ASSERTED, THERE ARE TWO COUNTRIES, ONE WITH INCOMES OF 1-2 THOUSAND DOLLARS PER MONTH, AND THE OTHER WITH 50-100 DOLLARS. HE SAID THIS LATTER GROUP WHICH IS LIVING IN EXTREME POVERTY COMPRISES 40 PERCENT OF THE NATION'S FAMILIES. THIS GROWING DIFFERENCE MUST BE ADDRESSED. IN THE 1960'S, EVERYONE INCLUDING THE RIGHT WAS STATIST. THE WORLD HAD CHANGED AND SO HAD THE OPPOSITION'S THINKING. AYLWIN THEN WENT OVER THE OPPOSITION PROGRAM CALLING FOR A LEADING ROLE FOR PRIVATE ENTERPRISE, AN OPEN ECONOMY, AND GUARANTEES FOR PRIVATE PROPERTY. AYLWIN ALSO CITED THE NEED FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND PLEDGED TO MAINTAIN STABLE RULES FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT. CERTAIN AREAS WOULD REMAIN IN THE HANDS OF THE STATE SUCH AS CODELCO, WATER/SEWER SERVICE, AND AREAS THAT THE PRIVATE SECTOR WOULD NOT SUPPLY. "NINETY PERCENT OF THE ECONOMY SHOULD BE IN PRIVATE ' ANDS." THERE WOULD HAVE TO BE A MAJOR EFFORT TO

WIPE OUT EXTREME POVERTY, AND TO THIS END RICHER TAXPAYERS WOULD HAVE TO PAY MORE PERSONAL INCOME TAXES. AYLWIN ADDED THAT HE HAS VERY AWARE OF THE POPULIST PRESSURES FOR MORE SOCIAL SPENDING AFTER SIXTEEN YEARS OF SOCIAL SPENDING, AND WAS ALSO AWARE OF THE UNFORTUNATE EXPERIENCES IN "BROTHER LATIN COUNTRIES." ANOTHER IMPORTANT DESIRE BY THE PEOPLE WOULD BE FOR BETTER LABOR CONDITIONS - I.E. HIGHER SALARIES, STRONGER UNIONS, ABILITY TO STRIKE. THE PDC LEADER CLOSED BY POINTING OUT THAT THE WAY TO AVOID SUCH PROBLEMS WAS BY HAVING ALL SECTORS (BUSINESS, LABOR, AND POLITICIANS) WORK TOGETHER, CITING JOHN KENNEDY'S QUOTE ASK NOT WHAT YOUR COUNTRY CAN DO FOR YOU...."

4. THE Q&A PERIOD BROUGHT OUT A NUMBER OF SHARPLY WORDED QUESTIONS FOR AYLWIN:

--WHEN ASKED IF A CANDIDATE ON THE RIGHT, SUCH AS

FORMER FINANCE MINISTER BUCHI, WAS NOT ALSO A DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE, AYLWIN REPLIED HE HAD PERSONAL RESPECT FOR BUCHI, BUT FELT THAT HIS YEARS WORKING FOR THE "UNQUESTIONED DICTATOR" MADE THE FORMER FINANCE MINISTER DEPENDENT ON PINOCHET. AYLWIN WENT ON TO ADD THAT THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY WAS SUCCESSFUL ONLY BECAUSE OF ITS DEPENDENCE ON PINOCHET AND ITS CHALLENGE WAS TO PROVE IT COULD STAND ALONE.

--ON HOW TO HANDLE THE MILITARY, AYLWIN SAID HE DID NOT WANT VENGEANCE, BUT THE CHILEAN PEOPLE NEEDED TO KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT THE LETELIER CASE, THE DISAPPEARED, ETC. HE DID NOT WANT TO PUT THE MILITARY AS AN INSTITUTION ON TRIAL, BUT WAS HOPING THAT EXISTING COURT CASES COULD BE ADEQUATELY INVESTIGATED.

--WITH REGARD TO THE LEFT, HE MAINTAINED THAT THEY HAD EVOLVED, AND THAT AN AMPLE CONSENSUS COULD MOVE THE COUNTRY FORWARD.

--ON PRIVATIZATIONS, AYLWIN SAID THE OPPOSITION PROPOSED TO REVIEW THEM ON A CASE BY CASE BASIS.

WHILE HE REITERATED THAT CERTAIN AREAS SHOULD NOT BE PRIVATIZED (CODECLO, PETROLEUM PRODUCTION, WATER/SEWER), HE WAS ALSO CONCERNED ABOUT THE DECISION BY A DEFEATED GOVERNMENT TO DUMP ALL OF THESE SHARES INTO THE MARKET AT ONE TIME, DRIVING DOWN PRICES.

5. SERGIO MOLINA FIELDED THE MORE TECHNICAL ECONOMIC QUESTIONS:

--ON CHAPTER XIX FOREIGN DEBT SWAPS, MOLINA INDICATED THE OPPOSITION PREFERRED DIRECT INVESTMENT (VIA DECREE LAW 600), AND THAT THE SWAPS CREATED DEMAND FOR PROFIT REMITTANCES, WHICH BY 1991 MIGHT BE 600 MILLION DOLLARS.

--ON TAXES, MOLINA BELIEVES THAT LOOPHOLES NEED TO BE CLOSED, COLLECTION NEEDS TO BE MADE MORE EFFICIENT, INCOME TAXES (PERSONAL AND CORPORATE) ACTUALLY PAID MUST INCREASE (ALTHOUGH THE MARGINAL RATE OF 50 PERCENT WOULD REMAIN), AND DIVIDENDS ON STOCK SHOULD NOT BE TAXED.

6. IN TALKING WITH BUSINESSMEN AFTERWARDS, THE REACTION WAS GENERALLY UNFAVORABLE. ONE U.S. BANKER SAID THAT HE WAS CONCERNED ABOUT THE LACK OF DEFINITION ON HOW MUCH MONEY WAS TO BE SPENT ON SOCIAL PROGRAMS AND HOW IT WOULD BE FINANCED. A MANAGER OF A CHILEAN MANUFACTURING COMPANY SAID THE SPEECH WAS MORE "SOAK THE RICH" RHETORIC THE PDC HAD USED IN THE 1960'S AND THAT AYLWIN REALLY HAD NOT CHANGED. SEVERAL WERE INCENSED AT AYLWIN'S ASSERTION ABOUT BUCHI NOT REPRESENTING A DEMOCRATIC ALTERNATIVE. SOMEONE SARCASTICALLY REMARKED THAT THE SPEECH RAISED A MILLION DOLLARS -- FOR THE BUCHI CAMPAIGN. ON THE OTHER HAND, ONE U.S. ECONOMIC JOURNALIST COMMENTED THAT THE SPEECH WAS RATHER MODERATE.

7. COMMENT: AYLWIN'S ADDRESS REVIEWED MOST OF THE TENETS OF THE 21 POINT ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROGRAM OF THE "NO" CAMPAIGN, PLUS SOME MORE MODERATE ELEMENTS FROM THE ECONOMIC PLATFORM OF THE OPPOSITION COALITION WHICH SHOULD BE PUBLISHED SOON. COMPARED WITH RHETORIC OF TWO YEARS AGO, THE SPEECH WAS MODERATE, AND PROBABLY REACTIONARY BY STANDARDS OF THE LEFT. AT BEST, AYLWIN COULD HAVE WON FEW VOTES FROM THAT GROUP, BUT HE STIRRED UP PASSIONS BY NOT PITCHING HIS SPEECH TO THE BUSINESSMEN. MANY BUSINESSMEN RESENTED BEING LECTURED ON DEMOCRACY SINCE THEY PERCEIVE THEMSELVES AS DEMOCRATIC AND SUPPORTING A LEGITIMATE ALTERNATIVE IN BUCHI. AYLWIN ALSO USED WORDS LIKE "INCOME REDISTRIBUTION" AND "SOCIAL AGREEMENT (CONCERTACION)" WHICH CARRY FOR THE CHILEAN MEMBERS A LOT OF EMOTIONAL BAGGAGE FROM THE AGRARIAN REFORM OF THE FREI ERA AND THE ECONOMIC CHAOS OF THE ALLENDE UP ERA. THE PDC LEADER ALSO CONVEYED THE IMPRESSION THAT HE SUPPORTED THE MARKET ORIENTED APPROACH BECAUSE IT WAS THE FASHION - FOR NOW. AYLWIN PASSED THE TOUGH ECONOMIC QUESTIONS TO MOLINA, SUPPORTING A PREJUDICE THAT AYLWIN DOESN'T UNDERSTAND ECONOMICS. THIS SPEECH UNFORTUNATELY WAS A MISSED OPPORTUNITY TO GET ACROSS THE EVOLVING ECONOMIC-SOCIAL IDEAS OF THE OPPOSITION AND TO BUILD FUTURE BRIDGES OF COMMUNICATION.

8. PART OF THE PROBLEM IN COMMUNICATION IS THE FACT THAT SOME OF WHAT AYLWIN HAD TO SAY WAS CAMPAIGN RHETORIC (UNDERSTANDABLE FROM A MAN WHO IS RUNNING FOR PRESIDENT). MANY OF

BUSINESSMEN'S HEARTS MAY BE WITH BUCHI, BUT BUCHI IS AYLWIN'S LIKELY OPPONENT IN THE UPCOMING ELECTION. AYLWIN HAS AND WILL CONTINUE LAMBASTING HIM AS REPRESENTING A CONTINUATION OF THE PINOCHET REGIME, AND TO PORTRAY THE OPPOSITION AS THE PERSONIFICATION OF DEMOCRACY. AFTER FIFTEEN YEARS OF AUTHORITARIAN GOVERNMENT, THE PRIVATE SECTOR IS NOT ACCUSTOMED TO THE RHETORIC COMMON TO AN OPEN ELECTORAL CONTEST. AYLWIN MAY NOT WIN THEM OVER, BUT WITH TIME THEY WILL GROW ACCUSTOMED TO THE FACT THAT THE MUTED POLITICAL DIALOGUE OF THE PINOCHET YEARS IS FAST BECOMING A THING OF THE PAST.

2. AMBASSADOR, ACCOMPANIED BY ADCM, CALLED ON CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) PRESIDENT PATRICIO AYLWIN ON APRIL 26. ENRIQUE KRAUSS, HIS PROBABLE CAMPAIGN MANAGER, SAT IN ON THE MEETING. THAT MORNING, AYLWIN HAD ADDRESSED THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. OVERALL, HE SEEMED VERY PLEASED WITH HIS RECEPTION. HE NOTED THAT AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN WERE IN MANY WAYS MORE RECEPTIVE TO THE OPPOSITION THAN THE CHILEAN PRIVATE SECTOR. EVEN WITH THE LATTER, HOWEVER, HE FELT THAT THEY WERE MAKING INROADS IN ESTABLISHING BETTER UNDERSTANDING AND ENGENDERING SOME SUPPORT.

SPENDING HE WILL HAVE TO OPERATE UNDER AS PRESIDENT. TO HELP OFFSET POPULAR FRUSTRATIONS ON THIS SCORE, HE HOPES TO ATTRACT FUNDING FROM EUROPE FOR HEALTH SECTOR PROJECTS AND VOCATIONAL TRAINING. AYLWIN WAS ALSO INTERESTED IN EXPLORING POSSIBILITIES FOR EXPANDED U.S. ASSISTANCE. THE AMBASSADOR EDUCATED HIM A BIT ON U.S. BUDGETARY CONSTRAINTS. DRAWING ON HIS RECENT CONSULTATIONS WITH MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, HE POINTED OUT THAT ANY U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE, FOR ALL THE GOOD WILL TOWARD CHILE, MUST MEET A STRICT TEST OF BEING IN THE U.S. NATIONAL INTEREST. AYLWIN SEEMED TO APPRECIATE THE FACT THAT SIGNIFICANT U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IS UNREALISTIC, HE HOPED U.S. COULD BE HELPFUL IN INTERNATIONAL LENDING ORGANIZATIONS, AND MENTIONED SPECIFICALLY HIS INTEREST IN ATTRACTING WORLD BANK FINANCING TO COMPLETE EXPANSION OF THE PANAMERICAN HIGHWAY TO FOUR LANES DOWN TO CONCEPCION.

4. ENRIQUE KRAUSS INTERJECTED THAT HE WOULD HOPE THE U.S. COULD PLAY A HELPFUL ROLE IN RELATIONS WITH THE CHILEAN ARMED FORCES. (ADCM HAD PREVIOUSLY DISCUSSED POSSIBILITY OF IMPROVED MILITARY-TO-MILITARY RELATIONS WITH KRAUSS AND CONTRIBUTION THIS COULD BE TO STRENGTHENING CHILEAN MILITARY'S COMMITMENT TO CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT.) AYLWIN EMBRACED THE IDEA. AMBASSADOR UNDERLINED

THAT THERE WERE PROGRAMS AND EXCHANGES WHICH WOULD GREATLY IMPROVE COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN U.S. AND CHILEAN ARMED FORCES AND NOTED THAT FUNDING FOR SMALL IMET PROGRAM WAS INCLUDED IN BUDGET CURRENTLY BEING CONSIDERED IN CONGRESS. AT SAME TIME, HE POINTED OUT THAT IT WAS NOT A BAD THING THAT CHILE HAS DEVELOPED A DEGREE OF SELF SUFFICIENCY IN ITS ABILITY TO SUPPLY ITS OWN DEFENSE NEEDS. THE USG, HE SAID, HAS A CLEAR INTEREST IN SEEING FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTS IN THE REGION DEVELOP AN INDEPENDENT CAPABILITY FOR STRONG NATIONAL DEFENSE.

5. AYLWIN SAID HE WOULD HOPE TO HAVE THE NOMINATION OF THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY COALITION (COPODE) NAILED DOWN BY MID-MAY. AFTER THAT, HE IS VERY INTERESTED IN MAKING A TRIP TO WASHINGTON TO MEET WITH EXECUTIVE BRANCH, CONGRESSIONAL AND BUSINESS LEADERS. THE AMBASSADOR TOLD HIM THAT THERE WAS CONTINUING

6. ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS, ALYWIN WAS VERY PESSIMISTIC THAT THE GOC WOULD ACCEPT A PACKAGE WHICH WOULD ENJOY CONSENSUS SUPPORT FROM THE POLITICAL PARTIES. HE DID NOT DISCOUNT THE POSSIBILITY THAT PINOCHET WOULD PUT FORWARD
MINIMAL CHANGES IN A PLEBISCITE. AS IN PAST

FUTURE ROLE. HE NOTED THAT IF THE INCOMING PRESIDENT HAS ONLY A NARROW MANDATE FROM THE ELECTIONS, PINOCHET WILL BE IN A MUCH STRONGER POSITIONS TO EXERCISE INFLUENCE LIKE A CHILEAN
VERSION OF NORIEGA. IF THE NEW PRESIDENT

HE FELT PINOCHET WOULD BE IN A MUCH WEAKER

7. AYLWIN WAS OPTIMISTIC THAT THE GOC WOULD BACK DOWN ON ITS PROPOSED TELEVISION LAW WHICH ELIMINATES FREE TELEVISION TIME FOR ALL SIDES PARTICIPATING IN THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS. HE SAID THEY HAD GOOD INDICATIONS THAT THE MILITARY JUNTA WAS NOT GOING TO GO ALONG WITH THE IDEA. THE AMBASSADOR CONFIRMED THAT WAS THE CASE IN HIS SUBSEQUENT MEETING WITH JUNTA MEMBER RODOLFO STANGE (REF B).

8. COMMENT: AYLWIN LOOKED VIGOROUS AND VERY COMFORTABLE IN HIS ROLE AS FRONTRUNNER IN THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE. HE IS THINKING AHEAD TO THE ISSUES HE WOULD FACE AS PRESIDENT, AND GETTING HIS TEAM TOGETHER FOR A SMOOTH TRANSITION. HE WANTS TO BE READY WITH NEW INITIATIVES FROM DAY ONE SO THERE IS NO WASTED TIME GETTING THE ADMINISTRATION'S ACT TOGETHER. THE VISIT TO WASHINGTON CAN BE A VERY USEFUL CONTRIBUTION TO THAT PROCESS. Dear Senator Lautenberg,

Would you please note I have written to the Ministers of the Interior & the Minister of Justice in CHILE concerning the disappearance of Alfredo Rojas Castaneda who was detained on 26th March 1975.

Any information you can seek as this man's whereabouts, or indeed any of the 'disappeared' in CHILE, would be most welcome.

Thankyou for your continuing human rights efforts.

Yours sincerely

REF: SANTIGO 3881
1. (C) SUMMARY: THE NATIONAL COUNCIL (CN) OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) HAS INFORMED THE 17-PARTY CENTER-LEFT COALTION (COPODE) THAT IT WANTS TO FIELD 10 SENATORIAL CANDIDATES AND 45 DEPUTIES IN THE 1989 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS. TO AVOID THE ONUS OF RUNNING ON THE SAME SLATE WITH COMMUNIST CANDIDATES THE PDC ADVOCATES FORMING ELECTORAL PACTS IN THOSE DISTRICTS WHERE COPODE CAN EXPECT TO ELECT ONLY ONE CANDIDATE, AND PARALLEL LISTS IN THOSE DISTRICTS WHERE OPPOSITION PARTIES MIGHT ELECT BOTH

CANDIDATES. THE COPODE PARTIES ARE CLOSER TO WORKING OUT AN AGREEMENT THAT WOULD PERMIT SOME FORM OF "REGULATED COMPETITION" AMONG THEMSELVES AND WITH THE LEFTIST PAIS, WHILE STILL MAXIMIZING THEIR CHANCES TO TAKE A MAJORITY OF SEATS IN THE NEW CONGRESS. HOWEVER,MANY CONFLICTING INTERESTS AND PERSONAL AMBITIONS MUST BE ADJUDICATED, BOTH AMONG AND WITHIN EACH OF ITS MEMBER PARTIES. ON THE RIGHT, THIS TASK IS MADE MORE DIFFICULT BY CONSERVATIVE PARTIES' INEXPERIENCE WITH COALITION POLITICS AND THE GOC'S FAILURE TO DEVELOP A CONSENSUS AROUND PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES AND KEY POLITICAL ISSUES. NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY (RN) PRESIDENT SERGIO JARPA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT IF THE OPPOSITION FIELDED TWO DIFFERENT LISTS OF CANDIATES, THE RIGHT WOULD AS WELL. BOTH SIDES HAVE UNTIL MID-MAY TO GIVE SHAPE TO THEIR ELECTORAL ALLIANCES. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) ON APRIL 26 THE PDC NATIONAL COUNCIL APPROVED A REPORT FROM ITS ELECTORAL COMMISSION WHICH CALLS FOR A TWO-STEP FORMULA FOR FIELDING PARLIAMENTARY CANDIDATES. IN THOSE DISTRICTS WHERE THE OPPOSITION CAN REASONABLY EXPECT TO ELECT ONLY ONE CANDIDATE, THE PDC WOULD PARTICIPATE IN ELECTORAL PACTS WITH OTHER COPODE PARTIES. IN SOME 17 DISTRICTS AND 5 REGIONS WHERE THE NO OBTAINED NEARLY HALF OF THE VOTE IN THE 1988 PLEBISCITE, IT WOULD RUN "PARALLEL" LISTS WITH OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES SUCH AS THE BROAD PARTY OF THE SOCIALIST LEFT (PAIS). SPECIFICALLY, THE PDC PLANS TO FIELD 10 SENATORIAL CANDIDATES (OUT OF 26 TO BE ELECTED) AND 45 DEPUTY CANDIDATES (OUT OF 120).

CONFIDENTIAL

3. (U) THE PDC PROPOSAL WAS PRESENTED TO COPODE ON APRIL 27 AND BY MOST REPORTS RECEIVED A FAIRLY POSITIVE REACTION. IT WILL BE RECONSIDERED BY THE CN ON MAY 3. WITHIN ROUGHLY A WEEK, THE WHOLE ELECTORAL PACKAGE -- INCLUDING THE NUMBER OF DEPUTIES AND SENATORS, NAMES OF THE CANDIDATES AND TYPE OF ELECTORAL PACT -- MUST BE APPROVED BY A VOTE OF THE NATIONAL JUNTA, THE PARTY'S HIGHEST DECISION-MAKING BODY. IN EACH PROVINCE, LOCAL DELEGATES TO THE JUNTA ARE BEGINNING TO HOLD "PRIMARIES" TO NOMINATE THEIR CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.

4. (U) THE FORMULA DEVELPED BY THE PDC RESULTED FROM WEEKS OF NEGOTIATIONS WITH OTHER COPODE PARTIES AND METICULOUS STUDY OF THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT MAP TO BE ESTABLISHED ONCE THE NEW ELECTORAL LAW IS APPROVED BY THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL (REFTEL). FIRST THE PARTY'S ELECTORAL COMMISSION, WHICH INCLUDES EDGARDO BOENINGER, ERIC CAMPANA, CARLOS DUPRE, JORGE PIZARRO AND CLAUDIO HUEPE, LOOKED AT EACH DISTRICT AND REGION TO ANALYZE THE PECULIARITIES OF EACH AREA, THE INFLUENCE OF EACH POLITICAL PARTY THEREIN, THE STRENGTHS OF POTENIAL CANDIDATES FROM BOTH THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, AND THE RESULTS FROM PAST CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS AND THE PLEBISCITE. THE TARGETING STUDY MADE IT CLEAR THAT ONLY WITH A FLEXIBLE APPROACH TO PACTS COULD THE MODERATE OPPOSITION PARTIES MAXIMIZE THEIR CHANCES TO CONTROL THE NEXT CONGRESS.

5. (C) PARTY VETERANS ARE AWARE THAT THEIR CONSTITUENCY IS NOT TRANSFERRABLE TO ULTRA LEFTIST CANDIDATES,

BUT WOULD INSTEAD INCLINE TOWARD SUPPORTING THE CENTER-RIGHT. THE PDC HAS SAID IT CAN JOIN COMMON LISTS WITH ALMEYDA SOCIALISTS AND THE CHRISTIAN LEFT, BUT NOT WHERE PAIS PLANS TO FIELD COMMUNIST CANDIDATES

6. (C) IN ANNOUNCING THE PROPOSAL, PDC GENERAL SECRETARY GUTENBERG MARTINEZ SAID THE PARTY WANTED ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A FORMULA WHICH WOULD GIVE EACH COPODE MEMBER A SHOT AT ITS FAIR SHARE, NOT TO SEEK POLITICAL FAVORITISM. THAT REMAINS TO BE SEEN SINCE MOST OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES DOUBT THE PDC'S CAPACITY FOR MAKING GENEROUS DEALS. HOWEVER, IN PRINCIPLE, THE PPD AND OTHER MAJOR ACTORS WITHIN THE COALITION REALIZE THAT SOME VARIATION ON A SINGLE-LIST FORMULA IS NECESSARY. WHETHER THE COPODE PARTIES GO TOGETHER IN ALL DISTRICTS OR IN "PARALLEL LISTS" IN SOME, THE RESULT WILL BE A FORM OF REGULATED COMPETITION, SINCE VOTERS WILL SELECT ONE OF TWO CANDIDATES MOUNTED IN EACH DISTRICT.

8. (U) ON APRIL 26 RN PRESIDENT SERGIO JARPA ACKNOWLEDGED THAT IF THE OPPOSITION DECIDED TO FIELD SEPARATE LISTS, IT WAS PERFECTLY FEASIBLE THAT THE RIGHT WOULD AS WELL. WHILE DENYING THAT THERE WAS A "CRISIS" IN THE CENTER-RIGHT COALITION WHICH INCLUDED THE UDI, HE SAID THAT THE RN WOULD FORM AN ELECTORAL PACT WITH THE NATIONAL PARTY-PHILLIPS (PN) AND RADICAL DEMOCRACY, LEAVING JAIME GUZMAN'S UDI TO MOUNT ITS OWN CANDIDATES. AT THE SAME TIME, THE RN AND ALLIED CONSERVATIVE PARTIES WROTE THE UDI ASKING FOR CLARIFICATION ON RECENT CRITICISMS IT HAS MADE OF OTHER PARTIES ON THE RIGHT.

9. (C) THE UDI HAS PROMOTED TALKS WITH THE RN, PN AND DR SINCE APRIL 6 WITH THE AIM OF DEVELOPING A COMMON ELECTORAL SLATE. TO REFLECT ITS POLITICAL WEIGHT AND CUT ITS TEETH IN AS MANY DISTRICTS AS POSSIBLE, THE RN PLANNED TO FIELD AT LEAST 50 CANDIDATES, LEAVING THE OTHER 70 TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONG THE OTHER THREE PARTNERS. RN SOURCES SAY THAT UDI'S INTRANSIGENCE IN INSISTING ON 50 HOUSE CANDIDATES OF ITS OWN, AND JAIME GUZMAN'S IMPLIED CRITICISM OF JARPA FOR "SELLING OUT TO TOTALITARIANS" IN COPODE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, CAUSED THE TALKS TO BREAK OFF LAST WEEK.

10. (C) COMMENT: THE POLITICAL PARTIES ARE ENTERING THE LAST MILE OF NEGOTIATIONS, COMING INTO THE LAST STRETCH WHEN THEY MUST ATTEMPT TO GIVE DEFINITE SHAPE TO ELECTORAL ALLIANCES AND THE ACTUAL RUNNERS THAT WILL TAK- THEM TO THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS. NOTHING CAN BE CERTAIN, HOWEVER, BECAUSE THE ELECTORAL LAW HAS NOT YET BEEN PASSED. WITHIN EACH POTENTIAL PACT, THE MAJOR

PARTIES WILL HAVE ENORMOUS PROBLEMS ADJUDICATING THE COMPETING INTERESTS OF DIFFERENT POWER BLOCKS AND PERSONALITIES. AS PPD GENERAL SECRETARY JORGE SCHAULSOHN PUT IT, "THE PIE IS EXTREMELY SMALL, AND THERE ARE A LOT OF HUNGRY PEOPLE WHO HAVEN'T EATEN FOR YEARS." THE PPD IS FACED WITH POWER PLAYS BY THE NUNEZ SOCIALISTS, ITS MAJOR CONSTITUENT GROUP, WHICH WANTS TO GRAB THE LION'S SHARE OF ITS HOUSE AND SENATE CANDIDACIES. THE PARTY'S SENATORIAL CANDIDATE FOR SANTIAGO. (PPD PRESIDENT LAGOS LOOKS WITH DISMAY AT THE PROSPECT OF BEING OUTSHONE BY FREI ON THE TICKET).

11. (C) THE RIGHT'S HEADACHES ARE EVEN BIGGER. UDI WAS NEVER ONE TO BEND TO THE GIVE AND TAKE OF POLITICAL NEGOTIATIONS. ACCORDING TO CARLOS ZEPEDA, RN PRO-SECRETARY, THE UDI WILL MAKE TROUBLE FOR THE CENTER-RIGHT PARTY WHETHER THEY RUN TOGETHER OR NOT. THE FAILURE TO ACHIEVE A CONSENSUS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM, A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE OR OTHER KEY ISSUES MAKES IT HARDER FOR THOSE PARTIES WHICH SUPPORTED THE SI IN THE PLEBISCITE TO COME TOGETHER. THEIR COMBINED "9TABLE" OF CANDIDATES IS WEAKER. MIGUEL ANGEL PODUJE (PROBABLE UDI CANDIDATE FOR THE SENATE FROM SANTIAGO) OR MIGUEL OTERO (PROSPECTIVE RN CANDIDATE) WILL BOTH HAVE ROUGH GOING AGAINST A LAGOS-FREI TICKET. WHAT IS CLEAREST IN THE WHOLE MURKY PICTURE IS THIS: BY MAY 14, THE PACTS MUST BE READY; THAT IS THE LAST DAY

CANDIDATES CAN ABANDON PARTY LABELS AND DECLARE AS "INDEPENDENTS" IN ORDER TO PARTICIPATE IN PACTS TO MAXIMIZE THEIR CHANCES TO WIN, AS IN THE CASE OF PAIS OR UDI CANDIDATES WHO WANT TO ALIGN THEMSELVES MORE WITH THE CENTER. BOTH SIDES SAY THEY INTEND TO TAKE THAT DEADLINE SERIOUSLY. END COMMENT.

CACERES ANNOUNCED A PACKAGE OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS THAT DELIVERS ON PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S COMMITMENT OF MARCH 11 TO CHANGE SIX SPECIFIC ARTICLES, BUT DOES SO IN A FAR MORE LIMITED WAY |HAN PRO-GOVERNMENT AND OPPOSITION PARTIES HAD PROPOSED. IT APPEARS PINOCHET WAS DETERMINED

TO MAKE NO REFORMS AT ALL, DESPITE HIS COMMITMENT, AND AGREED TO LIMITED CHANGE ONLY WHEN CACERES AND TWO OTHER MINISTERS WALKED OUT. INCLUDED AS AN UNEXPECTED KICKER IN THE PACKAGE IS A PROVISION WHICH WOULD PREVENT THE NEW CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT FROM MAKING ANY OTHER AMENDMENTS, INCLUDING TO THE AMENDMENT PROCESS ITSELF, UNTIL 1994. AT LEAST SOME SECTORS OF THE OPPOSITION WILL REJECT THE GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSALS, THUS DENYING THE GOC THE CONSENSUS OF SUPPORT BY POLITICAL GROUPS THAT IT HAS INSISTED IS A PREREQUISITE FOR CALLING A NATIONAL PLEBISCITE TO APPROVE REFORMS. AS A RESULT, WHETHER THERE WILL BE A VOTE ON REFORM BEFORE THE DECEMBER ELECTIONS IS NOW VERY MUCH UP IN THE AIR. IF THERE IS NO PLEBISCITE, THE GOC AND ITS SUPPORTERS WILL GO INTO THE ELECTIONS CLAIMING IT OFFERED THE OPPOSITION A REASONABLE PACKAGE WHICH IT REJECTED. THIS MAY NOT SELL, BUT IT GIVES THE RIGHT A BETTER CHANCE AT DEFUSING CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM AS A CAMPAIGN ISSUE THAN IT HAD BEFORE. END SUMMARY.

3. FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, MINISTER OF INTERIOR CARLOS CACERES WENT ON NATIONAL TELEVISION TO ANNOUNCE NINETEEN GOVERNMENT PROPOSALS FOR REFORMING THE CONSTITUTION OF 1980. THIS IS THE SAME MINISTER CACERES WHO RESIGNED ON WEDNESDAY

THE PACKAGE OF REFORMS PINOCHET FINALLY AUTHORIZED THE NEWLY-RECONFIRMED MINISTER OF INTERIOR TO PROPOSE TO THE POLITICAL PARTIES WAS PREDICTABLY LESS THAN THE OPPOSITION WANTED, BUT IT WAS A MAJOR TURNAROUND FROM THE SITUATION OF FORTY-EIGHT HOURS BEFORE.

4. THE CACERES PROPOSALS STOP A GOOD DEAL SHORT OF THE REFORM PACKAGE NEGOTIATED BETWEEN THE MAJOR PARTY OF THE RIGHT, NATIONAL RENEWAL (RN), AND THE SEVENTEEN-PARTY COALITION OF OPPOSITION PARTIES (COPODE). CACERES, PAINFULLY AWARE THAT TIME IS SHORT FOR NATIONAL REFERENDUM TO APPROVE REFORMS BEFORE ELECTIONS IN DECEMBER, HAS ASKED THE POLITICAL PARTIES TO RESPOND WITH THEIR VIEWS ON THE PACKAGE WITHIN THE WEEK. HE SPECIFICALLY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DIRECTED HIS REQUEST TO NATIONAL RENEWAL, COPODE, AND THE INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC UNION (UDI). COPODE SPOKESMEN HAVE STATED THAT THE GROUP WILL MEET ON THE SUBJECT TUESDAY, MAY 2. RN HAS CALLED FOR A JOINT SESSION OF THEIR OWN AND THE COPODE CONSTITUTIONAL TEAMS.

5. THE CACERES PROPOSALS (NINETEEN REFORMS IN ALL) INCLUDE EVERYTHING PRESIDENT PINOCHET MENTIONED IN HIS MARCH 11 SPEECH AS WORTHY OF

CONSIDERATION FOR "PERFECTING" THE CONSTITUTION, PLUS A COUPLE OF OTHERS. THE SIX MAJOR ELEMENTS OF THE PACKAGE ARE THE FOLLOWING:

-- (1) REPEAL OF ARTICLE 8, THE MAJOR LEGAL INSTRUMENT FOR REPRESSING THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AND IN CACERES' WORDS REPLACING IT WITH "NORMS WHICH GUARANTEE POLITICAL PLURALISM." THAT, HOWEVER, IS A VERY SUBJECTIVE JUDGMENT. EVEN THE ARTICLE 8 LANGUAGE FINALLY NEGOTIATED BETWEEN COPODE AND RN WAS HOTLY DEBATED WHEN IT WAS PRESENTED TO THE PARTIES IN THE COPODE COALITION. THE COMMUNISTS THEMSELVES HAVE DENOUNCED THE CACERES PROPOSALS AS A "NEW TRAP."

-- (2) PROCESS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS. THE CONSTITUTION CURRENTLY PROVIDES THAT AFTER MARCH 1990, AMENDMENTS MAY, WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT, BE APPROVED BY A THREE/FIFTHS VOTE OF BOTH CHAMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE. HOWEVER, REFORMS OF SPECIFIED KEY SECTIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION MUST BE APPROVED BY A TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

OF TWO CONSECUTIVE CONGRESSES AND THEN EITHER APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT OR SUBMITTED TO A PLEBISCITE OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO. CACERES WOULD LOWER THE MAJORITY REQUIRED TO THREE-FIFTHS, RETAIN THE REQUIREMENT OF APPROVAL BY TWO CONSECUTIVE CONGRESSES, AND EXPAND THE SECTIONS REQUIRING THIS SPECIAL PROCEDURE TO INCLUDE THE REFORM PROCESS ITSELF AND CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND GUARANTEES. THIS MEANS THAT IF THE GOC PROPOSALS ARE ADOPTED, NO SIGNIFICANT CHANGE COULD BE MADE BY THE NEW CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT UNTIL AT LEAST 1994. NOT SURPRISINGLY, THIS HAS ALREADY BEEN INTERPRETED BY OPPOSITION SPOKESMEN AS MAKING FUTURE REFORM EVEN MORE DIFFICULT.

MAJORITY. MORE IMPORTANTLY, THE BROAD POWERS OF THE COUNCIL TO CALL OTHER AUTHORITIES TO ACCOUNT FOR THEIR ACTIONS IS TONED DOWN TO AN ADVISORY FUNCTION "TO MAKE KNOWN TO THE PRESIDENT, THE CONGRESS AND THE CONSTITUTIONAL TRIBUNAL ITS OPINION ABOUT MATTERS WHICH MAY COMPROMISE NATIONAL SECURITY." THERE IS NO PROVISION FOR RESOLVING TIES WITHIN WITHIN THE COUNCIL.

OTHER REFORMS ARE LESS TRANSCENDENTAL AMOUNTING IN SOME CASES TO CORRECTING AMBIGUITIES, AS ADVERTISED, "PERFECTING" THE LANGUAGE. PINOCHET HIMSELF DESCRIBED THEM AS "NOT OF MAJOR IMPORTANCE."

6. MAJOR OPPOSITION LEADERS HAVE BEEN UNENTHUSIASTIC PUT HAVE GENERALLY RESERVED FINAL JUDGMENT ON THE GOVERNMENT PACKAGE UNTIL THEY HAVE HAD TIME TO STUDY IT IN MORE DETAIL. COPODE SPOKESMAN PATRICIO AYLWN LIMITED HIMSELF TO SAYING THAT "THERE ARE POSITIVE THINGS AND OTHERS WHICH ARE WORRISOME... SOME POINTS DIFFER CONSIDERABLY FROM THE PROPOSALS AGREED TO BY COPODE AND THE RN." PARTY FOR DEMOCRACY PRESIDENT RICARDO LAGOS WENT FURTHER IN STATING THAT THE PROPOSALS WERE "TREMENDOUSLY INSUFFICIENT WHEN COMPARED TO THOSE AGREED TO WITH |HE RN" AND PARTICULARLY WORRIED OVER THE CONSTI-'TUTIONAL REFORM REQUIREMENTS WHICH WOULD POSTPONE MEANINGFUL CHANGES UNTIL 1995 (?) -- PRESUMABLY HE MEANT 1994 WHEN A NEW CONGRESS IS TO BE ELECTED. ON THE OTHER HAND, NATIONAL RENEWAL AND UDI LEADERS CAME OUT IN SUPPORT OF THE CACERES PROPOSALS. THE RN STATEMENT NOTED THAT "THE REFORMS PROPOSED

HIMSELF SEEMED WILLING TO ACCEPT WHEN HE GAVE NEW MOMENTUM TO THE ISSUE OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM IN HIS MARCH 11 SPEECH. APPOINTIVE SENATORS, AMOUNTING TO 25 PERCENT OF THE CHAMBER, ARE RETAINED. FURTHERMORE, THERE IS NO MENTION OF EXPANDING THE NUMBER OF SENATORS TO OFFSET HE APPOINTIVE MEMBERS. NOR IS THERE ANY MENTION OF MODIFYING CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS WHICH ASSURE THE MILITARY COMMANDERS AT LEAST FOUR YEARS OF SECURITY (EIGHT IN THE CASE OF CURRENT INCUMBENTS) IN THEIR POSITIONS WHATEVER THE DESIRES OF THE CIVILIAN PRESIDENT.

8. ONE OF THESE COMMANDERS, THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ARMY, THE PRESIDENT MADE CLEAR ON FRIDAY WILL BE AUGUSTO PINOCHET HIMSELF. AFTER SWEARING IN HIS TWO NEW CABINET MEMBERS, THE PRESIDENT ABANDONED AMBIGUITY ("I WILL STAND AT THE FOOT OF THE CANNON") AND STATED FLATLY IN A PRESS INTERVIEW THAT HE WILL STAY ON AS ARMY CINC AFTER THE NEW PRESIDENT IS INAUGURATED IN MARCH 1990. IN THE SAME INTERVIEW, PINOCHET ALSO MADE FURTHER STATEMENTS TO THE EFFECT THAT HE WAS NOT PLANNING TO BE A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. "I HAVE DONE WHAT I SAID I WOULD DO. I AM NOT SEEKING CONVOLUTED THINGS LIKE RE-ELECTION."

9. COMMENT: IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS, PINOCHET HAS GIVEN AWAY NOTHING IN THIS PACKAGE THAT HE DID NOT PUBLICLY COMMIT HIMSELF TO CONSIDER IN HIS MARCH 11 SPEECH. IT BECOMES EVEN CLEARER NOW THAT THE THUNDER AND COMMOTION OVER THE CABINET CRISIS WAS BECAUSE THE PRESIDENT HAD DECIDED TO RENEGE ON THAT COMMITMENT AND MAKE NO REFORMS AT ALL. INSOFAR AS CACERES GOT THE PRESIDENT TO BACK DOWN ON CONSTITUTIONAL

REFORM, HE SUCCEEDED ONLY IN RETURNING HIM TO HIS PREVIOUS POSITION. EVEN WITH THAT, PINOCHET'S SINCERITY IN SUPPORTING REFORM IS IN DOUBT. THE KICKER IN THE PACKAGE OF EVEN MORE DIFFICULT REFORM PROCEDURES MAKES ARRIVING AT "CONSENSUS" UNLIKELY. THE OPPOSITION MAY BRIDLE AT THE STILL RESTRICTIVE ARTICLE 8 LANGUAGE, BUT ITS CORE CONCERN IS THE REFORM PROCESS ITSELF. WHEREAS IT MAY NOT HAVE MUSTERED THE ENERGY ACTIVELY TO OPPOSE A MINIMAL PACKAGE THAT STILL MOVED IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION, WE EXPECT IT TO STRONGLY OPPOSE THE AMENDMENT PROCEDURE PROPOSED BY CACERES. POSTPONING MEANINGFUL REFORM UNTIL 1994 GIVES IT A RALLYING CRY.

10. THIS SEEMS SO OBVIOUS THAT WE CANNOT DISCOUNT THE POSSIBILITY THAT CACERES' APRIL 28 PROPOSALS ARE ONLY THE GOC'S OPENING POSITION, AND PINOCHET HAS GIVEN THE MINISTER A MANDATE TO NEGOTIATE BROADER REFORMS. WE DOUBT THAT, HOWEVER, ESPECIALLY WITH PINOCHET'S HAVING FURTHER ABJURED STAYING ON AS PRESIDENT AND FALLEN BACK TO HIS FINAL REDOUBT OF REMAINING ON AS ARMY CINC. WE SUSPECT THE

SUBJECT: UNTS' MAY DAY MARCH A BUST

1. SUMMARY:

THE FMLN LABOR FRONT UNTS HELD A MARCH AND RALLY COMMEMORATING MAY DAY BUT FEWER THAN 4000 SALVADORANS TOOK PART. SECURITY PRECAUTIONS WERE STRICT AS THE UNTS MARCHERS TROOPED THROUGH THE LARGELY DESERTED STREETS OF SAN SALVADOR TO THEIR TRADITIONAL DOWNTOWN RALLY SITE. GOES SECURITY OFFICIALS WERE DETERMINED TO PREVENT A REPETITION OF THE VIOLENCE WHICH PUNCTUATED LAST YEAR'S UNTS-ORGANIZED MAY DAY MARCH. DESPITE A CONCERTED PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE

INCOMING CRISTIANI ADMINISTRATION, UNTS' SCARE TACTICS FAILED TO GENERATE SPONTANEOUS PUBLIC SUPPORT. A FEW FOREIGNERS ONCE AGAIN MARCHED TO SHOW SOLIDARITY WITH UNTS BUT THEIR PRESENCE ADDED LITTLE LUSTER TO UNTS' POOR SHOWING. END SUMMARY

2. TIGHT SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS TO PREVENT VIOLENCE

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

FEWER THAN 4000 PERSONS PARTICIPATED IN A MARCH AND RALLY ORGANIZED BY THE FMLN LABOR FRONT UNTS MAY 1 TO COMMEMORATE INTERNATIONAL LABOR DAY. THE TURNOUT WAS LESS THAN HALF THE 1988 TOTAL AND WAS COMPARABLE TO UNTS' POOR SHOWING OF MAY 1, 1987. SOME UNTS LEADERS ARE ALLEGING THAT "THOUSANDS" STAYED AWAY BECAUSE OF THE "INTIMIDATING" PRESENCE OF GOES SECURITY FORCES. SECURITY WAS INDEED TIGHT AS HUNDREDS OF RIOT-EQUIPPED TROOPS TRAILED GROUPS OF MARCHERS FROM VARIOUS ASSEMBLY POINTS IN SAN SALVADOR TO THE PARQUE LIBERTAD, THE TRADITIONAL DOWNTOWN SITE OF MAY DAY RALLIES. THE DISPLAY OF FORCE WAS INTENDED TO PREVENT ANY REPETITION OF THE VIOLENCE WHICH HAS CHARACTERIZED PREVIOUS UNTS-ORGANIZED DEMONSTRATIONS, AS WAS THE CASE DURING LAST YEAR'S MAY DAY MARCH AND RALLY. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF VIOLENCE THIS YEAR, HOWEVER.

3. MARCHERS PAID BUT ANTI-ARENA THEMES LACKED APPEAL

UNTS HAD HOPED TO DRAW AT LEAST 25,000 PARTICIPANTS TO YESTERDAY'S ACTIVITIES AND USED A VARIETY OF MEANS TO DO SO. ACCORDING TO LOCAL PRESS REPORTS, SOME OF THE MARCHERS ADMITTED HAVING RECEIVED UP TO 30 COLONES (USDOLS SIX) FOR THEIR PARTICIPATION AND THAT OF FAMILY MEMBERS. WOMEN AND CHILDREN ACCOUNTED FOR NEARLY HALF THE MARCHERS AND MANY WERE PEASANTS TRANSPORTED TO SAN SALVADOR FROM OUTLYING AREAS. THE EXPECTED TURNOUT, HOWEVER, HINGED ON A SPONTANEOUS REACTION UNTS SOUGHT TO CREATE THROUGH A PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE IN-COMING CRISTIANI GOVERNMENT. LAST WEEK, SAN SALVADOR'S MAJOR DAILIES CARRIED A SERIES OF UNTS ADVERTISEMENTS WHICH, AMONG OTHER THINGS, ALLEGED THAT "REPRESSION, 'DEATH SQUAD' ACTIVITIES, AND VIOLENCE" HAD INCREASED SINCE CRISTIANI'S VICTORY IN THE MARCH PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST. UNTS ATTRIBUTED THIS TO "MILITANTS" OF CRISTIANI'S NATIONALIST REPUBLICAN ALLIANCE PARTY (ARENA), AND PREDICTED THAT WORSE WOULD COME FOLLOWING CRISTIANI'S JUNE 1 INAUGURATION.

4. THE USUAL CROWD AND SOME FOREIGNERS

THE SALVADORAN PUBLIC APPARENTLY WAS NOT SWAYED BY UNTS' SCARE TACTICS AND SO PARTICIPATION IN THE MARCH AND RALLY WAS LARGELY LIMITED TO THE USUAL LINE UP OF FMLN FRONT ORGANIZATIONS. SMALL GROUPS OF FOREIGNERS ONCE AGAIN JOINED IN TO SHOW THEIR SOLIDARITY WITH

ORGANIZATION THE NATIONAL UNION OF WORKERS AND PEASANTS (UNOC) DECIDED LATE LAST WEEK TO CANCEL ITS OWN PLANNED OBSERVANCES OF MAY DAY TO AVOID ANY APPEARANCE OF SOLIDARITY WITH UNTS. UNOC'S LEADERS HAVE RECENTLY UNDERTAKEN EFFORTS TO CULTIVATE A POSITIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH PRESIDENT-ELECT CRISTIANI AND WERE THEREFORE MINDFUL OF THE ANTI-ARENA THRUST IN UNTS' MAY DAY PROPAGANDA.

1. (U) SUMMARY: TO NO ONE'S SURPRISE, THE COALITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES FOR DEMOCRACY (COPODE) REJECTED AS INADEQUATE THE PROPOSAL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM WHICH WAS UNVEILED BY INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES LAST FRIDAY (REFTEL). THE 17-PARTY COALITION SAID IT WAS OPEN TO DIALOGUE, BUT INSISTED THAT ITS AGREEMENT WITH THE CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY (RN) SHOULD BE THE BASIS FOR REFORM AND THAT A FLEXIBILIZATION OF THE MEANS FOR AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION WAS A SINE QUA NON FOR AN ACCORD. MEANWHILE RN ANNOUNCED THAT THE GOC PROPOSAL CONTAINED "ENCOURAGING ELEMENTS", AND SAID THAT IT PLANNED TO MEET WITH COPODE'S TECHNICAL COMMISSION AND WITH CACERES TO TRY TO ACHIEVE THE NECESSARY CONSENSUS. SENIOR JUNTA MEMBER MERINO SAID THAT A PLEBISCITE COULD TAKE PLACE IN EARLY OR MID-AUGUST, BUT ONLY IF THE POLITICAL PARTIES CAME TO AN

2. (U) AFTER A FOUR-HOUR MEETING TO ANALYZE THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S REFORM PROPOSAL, LEADERS OF THE 17 ALLIED CENTER-LEFT PARTIES (COPODE) ANNOUNCED THEY REGRETTABLY COULD NOT GIVE THEIR CONSENT TO A PLAN THAT "FAR FROM SATISFYING THE NATIONAL DESIRE TO ADVANCE TOWARD DEMOCRACY, CONTAINS NORMS WHICH...MEAN A SERIOUS RETREAT FROM THE ACTUAL CONSTITUTIONAL TEXT." IN PARTICULAR, COPODE CLAIMS THAT THE PROPOSED PROCEDURES FOR MODIFYING THE CONSTITUTION "OBSTRUCT THE AMENDMENT PROCESS" BY REQUIRING AGREEMENT FROM TWO SUCCESSIVE CONGRESSES FOR ANY IMPORTANT CHANGE. THE COALITION REITERATED ITS INTEREST IN ARRIVING AT A CONSENSUS, AND POINTED TO ITS AGREEMENT WITH RN AS THE BASIS FOR SUCH AN ACCORD. IN A FOLLOWUP BRIEFING WITH THE PRESS, COPODE SPOKESMAN PATRICIO AYLWIN STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF CHANGING THE MAKEUP OF THE CONGRESS AND FLEXIBILIZING THE AMENDMENT PROCESS, POINTS WHICH HE MADE IN A LETTER SENT TO CACERES ON MAY 2. HE INDICATED THAT HE WOULD MEET ON MAY 3 WITH RN PRESIDENT SERGIO JARPA TO DISCUSS THE ISSUE. THE GOC IS EXPECTED TO MAKE A STATEMENT ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 3.

3. (U) IN A MEETING OF ITS TECHNICAL COMMISSION, WHICH INCLUDED ANDRES ALLAMAND, MIGUEL OTERO, RICARDO CONFIDENTIAL

RIVADENEIRA AND CARLOS REDMOND, NATIONAL RENEWAL ON APRIL 29 SAID THAT MANY OF THE GOC'S REFORM PROPOSALS COINCIDED WITH ITS OWN AND URGED BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND OPPOSITION PARTIES TO KEEP AN OPEN ATTITUDE ON THE PACKAGE. ON MAY 2 RN'S POLITICAL COMMISSION EMITTED AN EVEN MORE CAUTIOUS STATEMENT, POINTING OUT THE "ENCOURAGING ELEMENTS" IN THE GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM AND STRESSING THE NEED TO ACHIEVE CONSENSUS BEFORE CALLING A PLEBISCITE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. TOWARD THAT END, RN STATED ITS TECHNICAL COMMMISSION WOULD MEET WITH ITS COUNTERPART IN COPODE, WITH MINISTER CACERES AND OTHER POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

4. (U) MEANWHILE, UDI PRESIDENT JAIME GUZMAN SAID THE GOC'S PROPOSAL FOR 19 CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS REPRESENTED A SOLID BASIS FOR CALLING A PLEBISCITE, AND URGED OPPOSITION SECTORS NOT TO ADOPT AN INTRANSIGENT ATTITUDE. TOMAS GONZALEZ, THE LIBERAL

1. (U) ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 3 INTERIOR MINISTER CARLOS CACERES ANNOUNCED THAT DUE TO THE LACK OF CONSENSUS AND NEGATIVE RESPONSE OF THE OPPOSITION COALITION (COPODE), THE GOC WOULD NOT SEEK TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION THROUGH A PLEBISCITE. READING A LONG, FORMAL DECLARATION, CACERES DISMISSED THE COALITION'S CONTENTION THAT THE GOC PROPOSAL WAS A STEP BACKWARD, AND SAID ITS AIM WAS SIMPLY TO PERFECT THE MAGNA CARTA AND THE DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM WHICH IT

GUARANTEED. HE ACCUSED THE OPPOSITION OF ACTING INTRANSIGENTLY AND IRRESPONSIBLY TO CLOSE THE DOOR ON ANY REALISTIC CHANCE OF REFORM, AND SAID THIS WAS DUE TO THE INORDINATE INFLUENCE OF THE MARXIST LEFT IN COPODE. HE LAMENTED THE FACT THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY CHOSE TO ALIGN ITSELF WITH ELEMENTS

WHOSE ONLY GOAL WAS TO OVERTURN ESTABLISHED INSTITUTIONS AND RETURN CHILE TO THE TRAGEDY OF THE PAST.

3. U) APART FROM JARPA'S GENEROUS ASSESSMENT OF OPPOSITION BEHAVIOR, REACTIONS FOLLOWED THE USUAL PARTISAN LINES. UDI SPOKESMAN HERNAN CHADWICK AND CONSERVATIVE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SERGIO DIEZ BOTH ATTRIBUTED THE GOVERNMENT'S NEGATIVE RESPONSE TO THE SHORT SHRIFT GIVEN TO ITS OFFER BY THE OPPOSITION COALITION. PATRICIO AYLWIN AND PPD PRESIDENT RICARDO C~~ONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LAGOS CHARACTERIZED CACERES' STATEMENT AS ERRONEOUS AND UNJUST, AND ASKED WHY THE GOC COULD NOT AGREE TO THE EMINENTLY MODERATE REFORM PROPOSAL AGREED TO BY RN AND COPODE. SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC LEADER RENE ABELIUK PROFESSED TO BE EXTREMELY SKEPTICAL ABOUT THE CHANCES FOR REAL DIALOGUE FROM DAY ONE, GIVEN PINOCHET'S TEMPERAMENT AND THE EXAMPLES OF FAILED GOC-OPPOSITION TALKS IN 1983-84. AND COMMUNIST PARTY SPOKESMAN JOSE SANFUENTES SAID SIMPLY THAT "THE REFORM SHOW HAS RUN ITS COURSE."

4. (C) COMMENT: THE RISE AND SHARP FALL OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM INDICATES THAT THIS WAS SURELY THE ISSUE WHICH PRECIPITATED CACERES' RECENT CONFRONTATION WITH THE PRESIDENT. ALTHOUGH PDC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE PATRICIO AYLWIN TOOK ON CALCULATED POLITICAL RISKS BY ENTERING TALKS WITH THE INTERIOR MINISTER, NEITHER HE NOR JARPA HAS LOST MUCH SKIN OVER

THE FAILURE TO ACHIEVE THE DIFFICULT MISSION OF CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION UNDER PINOCHET. HOWEVER, CACERES HAS TAKEN A BLOW, AND MANY OBSERVERS ARE SPECULATING THAT PINOCHET IS ALREADY LOOKING FOR A NEW INTERIOR MINISTER. ANOTHER CASUALTY OF THE REFORM FIASCO MIGHT BE HERNAN BUCHI, WHO HAS NOW LOST AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW THAT THE REGIME HE HAS BEEN SO IDENTIFIED WITH COULD ACHIEVE POLITICAL CONSENSUS WITH THE OPPOSITION. GOC SOURCES INDICATE THAT PINOCHET IS VERY UNHAPPY WITH HIS FORMER BOY WONDER'S SHOW OF INDEPENDENCE.

SENSUS COULD DEVELOP ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS. BY GOING ON THE ATTACK, PINOCHET MEANS TO SAVE FACE AND COUNTER WIDESPREAD MEDIA REPORTS THAT THE JUNTA AND ARMY COMPATRIOTS FORCED HIM TO CHANGE HIS POSITION DURING THE CABINET CRISIS. THE CHANCES OF RENEWED TALKS LOOK AS DEAD AS A DOORNAIL, BUT THE OPENNESS SHOWN BY STANGE AND BUCHI SERVE TO HIGHLIGHT THE PRESIDENT'S ISOLATION. END SUMMARY.

2 (U) IN AN UNUSUAL WRITTEN STATEMENT, PRESIDENT PINOCHET STATED THAT THE MARXIST OPPOSITION WAS TRYING TO DISCREDIT HIS AUTHORITY AND DRIVE A WEDGE BETWEEN HIM AND THE ARMED FORCES. HE CARRIED THE ATTACK FURTHER IN A SPEECH TO STUDENTS THE SAME DAY, CRITICIZING THE RN SHARPLY BY NAME FOR WORKING WITH THE OPPOSITION ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. PINOCHET STATED THAT "IF RENOVACTION NACIONAL WANTS TO MAINTAIN ITS DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES 100 PERCENT, IT SHOULD NOT WORK WITH POLITICAL PARTIES THAT UNITE WITH MARXISTS."

3. (U) DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE CARABINEROS GENERAL RODOLFO STANGE, DURING A HOMAGE TO THE CARABINEROS ON THEIR SIXTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY, DECLARED THAT MORE THAN EVER CHILE NEEDED TO "UNITE AND LOOK FOR A SOLUTION TO WHAT COULD BE A CRISIS." HE ADDED THAT CONFIDENTIAL

THE THE PROBLEM OF CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM NEEDED TO BE STUDIED CALMLY AND DISPASSIONATELY, BECAUSE THE COUNTRY DESERVES TRANQUILITY AND CONSENSUS.

4. (U) VARIOUS POLITICAL PARTY LEADERS ALSO CALLED FOR A CONTINUATION OF THE SEARCH FOR CONSENSUS. THE COPODE AND THE NATIONAL RENEWAL PARTY REITERATED THEIR WILLINGNESS TO WORK WITH THEIR JOINT TECHNICAL COMMISSION FOR FUNDAMENTAL CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMS. RN ALSO SAID IT WOULD LIKE TO HAVE ANOTHER MEETING WITH INTERIOR MINISTER CACERES. FOR HIS PART, HOWEVER, CACERES STATED THAT HE THOUGHT THE NEGOTIATIONS ON REFORMS WERE "DEFINITIVELY CLOSED."

5. (U) THE HEAD OF THE CHILEAN CATHOLIC CHURCH CARDINAL FRESNO AND OTHER CHURCH LEADERS EXPRESSED THEIR DISMAY THAT CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM HAD BEEN DERAILED. FRESNO DECLARED HE WAS STILL HOPING FOR A EVENTUAL CONSENSUS AND SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND

POLITICAL PARTIES NOW HAVE A NEW OPPORTUNITY TO DEMONSTRATE THEIR WILLINGNESS TO COME TO TERMS. HOWEVER, AUXILIARY BISHOP JORGE HOURTON SAID IN HIS PERSONAL OPINION THE GOC, NOT THE OPPOSITION, HAD UNDERMINED THE TALKS, AND PROBABLY NEVER INTENDED TO COME TO AN AGREEMENT.

6. UDI LEADERS CRITICIZED THE INTRANSIGENCE OF THE OPPOSITION, BUT ADDED THAT THEY DID NOT OBJECT TO CONTINUING TO EXPLORE WAYS TO REACH AN ACCORD ON REFORMS. ECHOING PINOCHET, UDI PRESIDENT JAIME GUZMAN REFERRED TO THE COPODE AS "CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT-MARXIST" AND DECLARED THAT THEY WERE SHOWING THEIR TRUE AIM OF PROGRESSIVELY DISMANTLING NATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

TO ADD INSULT TO INJURY, RN AND THE COPODE ARE ACTING AS IF IT DOESN'T MATTER THAT THE REFORM PACKAGE WAS SCOTCHED, SINCE THEY HAVE THE VOTES TO MAKE IT HAPPEN IN THE NEXT CONGRESS.

9. (C) IN LASHING OUT, THE PRESIDENT IS TRYING TO SAVE FACE AND REMIND THE JUNTA HE IS STILL THE MAN ON THE THRONE. BUT THE RELATIVE OPEN-NESS SHOWN BY STANGE, BUCHI AND CONSERVATIVE POLITICIANS LIKE JARPA ONLY HIGHLIGHTS HIS ISOLATION AND THE GROWING SENSE THAT PINOCHET AND THE PINOCHETISTAS CONSTITUTE THE RIGHT'S MAIN LIABILITY IN THE COMING ELECTION CAMPAIGN. ON MAY 4 BUCHI'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER, SEBASTIAN PINERA, EMPHATICALLY DENIED DEFENSE MINISTER CARVAJAL'S ATTEMPT TO PROJECT A "PINOCHET-BUCHI" DUO THAT WOULD CO-GOVERN POLITICALLY, THE FORMER AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, PRESUMABLY NORIEGA-STYLE (SEPTEL). CALLING CARVAJAL SERIOUSLY OFF-BASE, PINERA NOTED THAT THE CONSTITUTION CLEARLY STATES THAT THE PRESIDENT RUNS THE GOVERNMENT AND THE ARMED FORCES SUPPORT AND DEFEND IT, PERIOD. HE ADDED THAT

Dear Mr. Roth:

I am responding to your letters to the President and Secretary Baker dated March 3 asking for suggestions on how to mobilize domestic and international support for a plebiscite in Cuba.

NR

We believe that the people of Cuba have a right to elections and we would strongly support free and fair elections -- in that country, just as we supported the 1988 plebiscite in Chile. You should be aware, however, that there are significant differences between the current Cuban situation and the state of affairs in Chile prior to the plebiscite:

-- The 1980 Chilean Constitution contained a plebiscite provision with a timetable for implementation, including a 30-day campaign period. The 1976 Cuban Constitution contains no such provisions.

The Honorable
Toby Roth,
House of Representatives.

-- Sixteen Chilean political parties formed a coalition to conduct the "No" campaign. In Cuba, the Communist Party is the only legal political party.

-- In Chile, there were approximately 40 newspapers in circulation, including two opposition dailies, and 303 radio stations, including 15 stations operated by the Catholic Church. In Cuba, all print and broadcast media are monopolized by the government.

Background Information for Vice President's Meeting

with Ambassador to Chile Charles A. Gillespie, Jr.

May 9, 1989: 3:30 p.m.

o Chile's Transition to Democracy

--As a result of the October, 1988 plebiscite, in which Chilean voters rejected Pinochet's bid to remain in power for eight more years, elections for president and congress will be held on December 14, 1989.

--Pinochet is prohibited by the constitution from being a candidate but may stay on as Army chief.

--Political groups in Chile have for several months been involved in naming candidates for president and congress and in drawing up political platforms.

--The 16 political parties which united against Pinochet in the plebiscite may run a single candidate for president, the Christian Democrat Patricio Aylwin.

--Conservative, pro-GOC parties are attempting to launch Pinochet's ex-Finance Minister, Hernan Buchi, as a candidate.

--The presidential candidates of both the center-left coalition and the conservatives will almost certainly seek to visit Washington after their nominations are clarified in order to meet with USG officials, interested Members of Congress, and others.

--Important legislation governing the size and configuration of electoral districts and the procedure for electing senators and deputies has not yet been promulgated but is expected soon.

--Other important considerations which must be dealt with soon are constitutional reform, the nature of civilian-military relations, and the thorny issue of whether members of the Chilean armed forces should be tried for past human rights abuses.

--While the transition to democracy is proceeding as scheduled, several imposing hurdles must be cleared before and after the newly-elected government takes office in March, 1990 in order for democratic rule to be consolidated.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DECL: OADR

UNCLASSIFIED

--The cornerstone of U.S. policy toward Chile is support for the process of a transition to democracy without taking sides in the political debate.

o Chile's Dynamic Economy

--Fueled by a dynamic private sector and diversified exports, the Chilean economy has grown at a rapid pace for five straight years. Inflation and unemployment are low, trade balances highly favorable, and Chile meets all interest payments on its foreign debt.

--We have encouraged all political parties in Chile to preserve the free market policies which made these gains possible.

o The Fruit Crisis

--As you know from your March 17 meeting with Chilean Foreign Minister Errazuriz, the five-day ban on Chilean fruit exports to the U.S. imposed by the FDA after the discovery in Philadelphia of two poisoned grapes resulted in serious losses to the Chilean economy and a wave of anti-Americanism not seen in Chile since the days of the marxist Allende regime.

--Final figures may never be clear, but cautious estimates indicate that the episode will cost the Chilean economy at least US 100 million.

--We have cooperated closely with the GOC to bring trade back to normal and find ways to prevent such problems in the future.

o The Letelier Case

--The 1976 political murder of former Chilean Foreign Minister Orlando Letelier and his U.S. assistant in Washington D.C. ordered by high GOC officials who are still under indictment by a U.S. court has remained a source of bilateral tension for many years.

--We are attempting to obtain the cooperation of the GOC in resolving this case through the mechanism of a 1914 bilateral treaty for the settlement of disputes, which we invoked in January.

--Progress on the Letelier case could pave the way to a normalization of military relations with the Chilean armed forces, which are now limited by legislation.

TALKING POINTS FOR THE VICE PRESIDENT'S MEETING

WITH AMBASSADOR TO CHILE CHARLES A. GILLESPIE, JR.

May 9, 1989: 3:30 p.m.

- Chile's transition to democracy appears to be going smoothly. What are your views on the future of democracy in Chile?

- What can the U.S. do to support the transition to a stable democracy in Chile?

- What role could I personally play in this process? What are your views on the utility of a Vice Presidential visit to Chile either to attend the inauguration of a democratically-elected Chilean President in March of 1990 or sometime thereafter?

- What influence do you think Chile's transition to democracy, especially a democratic system incorporating free market economic policies, might have on other countries in the hemisphere?

- I would be grateful if you would convey to Chilean leaders upon your return that both the President and myself will follow events in Chile carefully as elections approach and that we look forward to Chile once again joining the community of democratic nations.

Charles A. Gillespie, Jr.
United States Ambassador to Chile

On October 14, 1988, the United States Senate confirmed the appointment of Charles A. Gillespie, Jr., to be Ambassador of the United States of America to Chile. Ambassador Gillespie took the oath of office on November 9, 1988.

From August 1985 until September 1988, Gillespie served as Ambassador of the United States of America to the Republic of Colombia, where he headed a United States Mission comprising the Embassy in Bogota and a Consulate in Barranquilla. With a staff of over 700, the Mission is one of the largest in Latin America.

From August 1983 until he was named Ambassador to Colombia, Gillespie served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for the Caribbean and Deputy for Operations in the State Department's Bureau of Inter-American Affairs. In that position he was responsible for formulating and implementing United States policy in the Caribbean region and for execution of United States policy throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

On October 24, 1983, the President named Gillespie Ambassador and Chief of Mission in Grenada, concurrent with his other duties, and instructed him to head the United States Mission on that island as of the time United States forces landed on October 25. Ambassador Gillespie established the first United States Embassy on Grenada, which was officially inaugurated on February 7, 1984. Gillespie returned to his Washington duties in March 1984.

Ambassador Gillespie is a career Foreign Service Officer, with rank of Minister-Counselor. Since he entered the Service in 1965, he has served at Embassies in Manila, Djakarta, Brussels, Mexico City and Managua, at the United States Mission to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and at the State Department in Washington, D.C.

A native of California, Ambassador Gillespie graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles. Before joining the Foreign Service, he served as a commissioned officer in the United States Army overseas. He has done graduate work in public administration at Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Public Affairs and is a graduate of the National War College in Washington, D.C. Ambassador Gillespie is married and has two grown children.

1. DEPARTMENT WOULD APPRECIATE EMBASSY ASSISTANCE IN AN ASPECT OF ONGOING RESEARCH ON THE 1914 TREATY. EVERY YEAR THE STATE DEPARTMENT ISSUES A BOOK ENTITLED "TREATIES IN FORCE." THIS BOOK LISTS EVERY TREATY WHICH THE USG REGARDS IN FORCE. THE BOOK HAS TWO PARTS. THE FIRST PART LISTS BILATERAL TREATIES BY COUNTRY AND SUBJECT, THE SECOND LISTS MULTILATERAL AGREEMENTS BY SUBJECT MATTER.

2. ONE OF THE POTENTIAL ISSUES IN THE LETELIER DISPUTE IS WHETHER CHILE REGARDS THE 1914 TREATY AS IN FORCE. IF THE GOC HAS A COUNTERPART TO "TREATIES IN FORCE," IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO SEE WHETHER THE 1914 TREATY IS LISTED. IT WOULD ALSO BE USEFUL TO SEE WHAT OTHER DISPUTE RESOLUTION TREATIES ARE LISTED (WE HAVE DISCOVERED THAT THERE ARE A NUMBER OF TREATIES FROM THE 1920S AND 1930S BETWEEN THE USG AND LATIN STATES, INCLUDING CHILE, COVERING SUCH TOPICS AS ARBITRATION, CONCILIATION, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION).

3. IF THERE IS NO OFFICIAL COUNTERPART TO TREATIES IN FORCE, PERHAPS THERE ARE ACADEMIC/PRIVATE LISTS OF THE TREATIES TO WHICH CHILE IS A PARTY WHICH EMBASSY COULD OBTAIN. DEPARTMENT WELCOMES ANY EMBASSY IDEAS ON ADDITIONAL WAYS TO OBTAIN THIS INFORMATION. EAGLEBURGER

SUBJECT: 100 WOUNDED GUERRILLAS TO BE EVACUATED

REF: 88 SAN SALVADOR 6757

1. (U) ON MAY 5 LOCAL PRESS REPORTED THE POSSIBLE EVACUATION FROM EL SALVADOR OF SOME 100 FMLN GUERRILLAS WOUNDED IN COMBAT. ONE LOCAL DAILY REPORTED THAT THE WOUNDED GUERRILLAS' FIRST STOP MAY BE MEXICO, WITH FINAL DESTINATIONS IN CUBA OR EUROPE [redacted]

FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT. PRESIDENT DUARTE CALLED THESE EFFORTS PART OF HIS "FORGIVE AND FORGET" ("PERDON Y OLVIDO") POLICY WHICH, HE ADDED, INCLUDES FMLN COMANDANTE SHAFIK HANDAL WHO ORDERED HIS DAUGHTER'S KIDNAPPING.

2. (U) THE LAST EVACUATION OCCURRED ABOUT A YEAR AGO, WHEN 29 WOUNDED GUERRILLAS LEFT FOR MEXICO (REFTEL). THE CATHOLIC CHURCH NORMALLY NEGOTIATES

SUCH EVACUATIONS, WHILE THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC) TAKES CARE OF LOGISTICS. ON MAY 8 AUXILIARY BISHOP ROSA CHAVEZ TOLD POLOFF THAT THE LOGISTICAL DETAILS REMAIN TO BE WORKED OUT. ALTHOUGH HE SEEMED CAUTIOUSLY CONFIDENT THAT THE EVACUATION WILL OCCUR BEFORE JUNE 1, HE SAID NO SPECIFIC DATES ARE YET SET.

3. (C) COMMENT: IT HAS TAKEN OVER A YEAR OF NEGOTIATIONS BY ARCHBISHOP RIVERA DAMAS TO GET TO THIS POINT. ICRC ITSELF NEEDS SEVERAL DAYS TO MAKE THE NECESSARY LOGISTICAL ARRANGEMENTS. IN VIEW OF THEIR DISTRUST OF THE INCOMING CRISTIANI GOVERNMENT, THE ARCHBISHOP AND AUXILIARY ROSA CHAVEZ ARE LIKELY TO MAKE AN ALL-OUT EFFORT TO COMPLETE THE EVACUATION BEFORE JUNE 1. PRESIDENT DUARTE WILL MAKE A SIMILAR EFFORT AS AUTHOR OF THE "PERDON Y OLVIDO" POLICY.

CASE Letelier 1914 Treaty

R 181786Z MAY 89
FM SECSTATE WASHDC TO AMEMBASSY SANTIAGO

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ STATE 147322

E.O. 12356: DECL: OADR
TAGS: PHUM CASC PREL CI
SUBJECT: 1914 TREATY: LEGAL ADVISOR SOFAER'S MEETING WITH CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ ON MAY 5.

1. CONFIDENTIAL, ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. LEGAL ADVISOR SOFAER CALLED CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ IN TO HIS OFFICE ON APRIL 5 AND PRESENTED HIM WITH A NON-PAPER (TEXT CONTAINED IN PARA 4) RESPONDING TO THE GOC'S APRIL 5 NOTE ON THE 1914 TREATY.

--THE NON-PAPER INFORMED THE GOC THAT WE ARE WILLING TO MEET WITH IT TO DISCUSS THE SCOPE OF THE 1914 TREATY BUT THAT AS A SIGN OF GOOD FAITH IN THE PROCESS AND WILLINGNESS TO MEET ITS TREATY COMMITMENTS, THE GOC BEFOREHAND SHOULD NAME ITS NON-NATIONAL TO THE COMMISSION AND RESPOND TO OUR LIST OF CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT.

--ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED TO THE READING OF THE POINTS IN THE NON-PAPER BY STATING THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WISHES TO COOPERATE FULLY WITH US ON THE LETELIER CASE BUT FEELS THAT MATTERS SUCH AS THE SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE TREATY SHOULD BE DISCUSSED PRIOR TO THE NAMING OF COMMISSIONERS. WHAT THE GOC WANTS, HE SAID, IS A "JURIDICAL TECHNICAL" STUDY OF THE TREATY. HE URGED US NOT TO LET THE LETELIER CASE DOMINATE BILATERAL RELATIONS BUT INSTEAD TO PUT IT ON A "SEPARATE TRACK" APART FROM OTHER MATTERS.

--LEGAL ADVISOR SOFAER REPEATEDLY STRESSED THE NEED FOR THE GOC TO NAME COMMISSIONERS AS A SIGN OF GOOD FAITH IN THE PROCESS, NOTING THAT THERE ARE THOSE IN THE USG WHO WOULD ACCUSE SANTIAGO OF STALLING IF IT INSISTED ON DISCUSSING TECHNICALITIES OF THE TREATY WITHOUT TAKING THIS IMPORTANT STEP.

--ERRAZURIZ PROMISED TO RESPOND TO OUR NON-PAPER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. END SUMMARY.

3. CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ WAS CALLED INTO THE DEPARTMENT BY LEGAL ADVISOR SOFAER ON MAY 5. THE AMBASSADOR WAS ACCOMPANIED BY DCM INFANTE AND SECOND SECRETARY FERNANDEZ. DAS MICHAEL SKOL, DAVID COLSON OF L/ARA AND PETER DESHAZO OF ARA/SC ALSO ATTENDED.

4. JUDGE SOFAER OPENED THE MEETING BY READING THE NON-PAPER WHICH HE LATER PRESENTED TO AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ. THE TEXT OF THE NON PAPER IS AS FOLLOWS: BEGIN TEXT:

R

--ON APRIL 5, WE RECEIVED YOUR NOTE, NUMBER 035. IT STATED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY WAS STUDYING THE SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY OF THE 1914 TREATY, THAT THE MINISTRY'S STUDY TO DATE INDICATED SOME UNCERTAINTY, AND THAT AS A RESULT THE TWO GOVERNMENTS SHOULD MEET AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO MAKE A "DETAILED STUDY...OF ALL DIPLOMATIC EXCHANGES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES AND DOCUMENTATION RELATING TO THE TREATY."

--YOUR NOTE IS WELCOME IN THAT IT INDICATES YOU ARE GIVING OUR REQUESTS THE SERIOUS CONSIDERATION THEY DESERVE.

--WE BELIEVE THAT THE 1914 TREATY AND THE PROCEDURE IT ESTABLISHES OFFERS OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS A PROPER MEANS THROUGH WHICH WE CAN ADDRESS THE LETELIER CASE.

--YOUR NOTE OF JANUARY 26, 1989 STATES THAT CHILE WOULD SOON NAME ITS NON-NATIONAL MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION.

--THIS PROMISE WAS RESTATED BY FOREIGN MINISTER ERRAZURIZ TO AMBASSADOR GILLESPIE ON MARCH 18.

--CHILE HAS STILL NOT APPOINTED A NON-NATIONAL COMMISSION MEMBER.

--MOREOVER, ON FEBRUARY 9, CHILE WAS INVITED TO PRESENT US WITH A LIST OF FOUR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION BY FEBRUARY 16.

--WE HAVE STILL RECEIVED NO RESPONSE.

--ON MARCH 18, AMBASSADOR GILLESPIE PRESENTED FOREIGN MINISTER ERRAZURIZ WITH A LIST OF FOUR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT. THE FOREIGN MINISTER INDICATED WE WOULD RECEIVE A RESPONSE QUICKLY.

--WE REALIZE THAT RECENT EVENTS HAVE CONSPIRED TO OCCUPY THE TIME OF YOUR GOVERNMENT. WE ALSO NOTE YOUR GOVERNMENT'S DESIRE, AS YOU EXPRESSED TO UNDER SECRETARY KIMMITT, TO WORK TOGETHER WITH US TO RESOLVE THIS MATTER.

--IF IT IS YOUR DESIRE, WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET WITH YOU TO HAVE A FULL DISCUSSION OF THE SCOPE, APPLICABILITY, AND OPERATION OF THE TREATY AS IT APPLIES TO THE LETELIER CASE.

--THAT MEETING, WE BELIEVE, CAN BE MORE PRODUCTIVE AFTER YOU HAVE NAMED YOUR NON-NATIONAL COMMISSION MEMBER AND RESPONDED TO OUR LIST OF POSSIBLE CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION.

--THIS WOULD INDICATE CHILE'S WILLINGNESS TO PROCEED WITH ITS COMMITMENTS AND WOULD NOT PREJUDICE CHILE'S POSITION IN ANY RESPECT.

--WE WANT TO EMPHASIZE AGAIN THAT OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO ARRIVE AT A SATISFACTORY RESOLUTION OF THE LETELIER CASE, WITHOUT WHICH A FULLY NORMAL BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE.

--WE BELIEVE THE 1914 TREATY OFFERS THAT POSSIBILITY.

END TEXT.

5. AFTER HEARING THE POINTS IN THE NON-PAPER, ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT THE GOC'S PROPOSAL TO HAVE A DETAILED STUDY

UNCLASSIFIED

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Access. # 59-96-0723
Box 1 of 4

OF THE TREATY'S APPLICABILITY IS THE BEST WAY TO MEET THE COMMON BILATERAL GOAL OF RESOLVING THE LETELIER CASE. WHILE THE GOC HAS "UNDER CONSIDERATION" ITS OWN NOMINEES FOR ITS NON-NATIONAL COMMISSIONER AS WELL AS THE FOUR NAMES PROPOSED BY THE U.S., HE STATED THE VIEW THAT A "JURIDICAL STUDY" OF THE TREATY SHOULD TAKE PLACE PRIOR TO THE NAMING OF COMMISSIONERS. THIS STUDY SHOULD BE DONE "IN A CONSTRUCTIVE SPIRIT" WITH A FULL EXCHANGE OF VIEWS.

6. JUDGE SOFAER RESPONDED BY STATING THAT THE U.S. IS NOT UNWILLING TO MEET WITH THE GOC ON THE TREATY BUT THAT THE GOC HAS MADE PRIOR COMMITMENTS TO THE TREATY IN THE PAST AND THAT THE AGREED TRADITION AND PRACTICE HAS BEEN TO NAME MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION, EVEN IF NO BUSINESS IS BEFORE IT.

7. ERRAZURIZ DIFFERED WITH THIS POINT OF VIEW, CLAIMING THAT IT IS UNCLEAR IF THE COMMISSION WAS EVER FULLY CONSTITUTED BEFORE. SOFAER RESPONDED THAT THE TREATY IS A USEFUL VEHICLE FOR SOLVING A DIFFICULT PROBLEM AND THAT, LIKE ANY LITIGATION, IT TAKES TIME AND SHOULD BE DONE IN A CAREFUL, DELIBERATE, AND FAIR FASHION.

8. THE U.S. IS WILLING TO DISCUSS WHETHER THE TREATY IS THE CORRECT VEHICLE FOR THE CASE, HE SAID, BUT THE NAMING OF MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION IS, IN OUR EYES, A SEPARATE MATTER. THE U.S., HE STATED, "WILL READ BROADLY THE INTENTIONS OF THE GOC" IN THE MATTER OF WHETHER IT NAMES COMMISSIONERS OR NOT, ESPECIALLY SINCE IT COULD DO SO WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO OTHER ARGUMENTS IT MAY MAKE. HE URGED THE GOC TO GIVE "CAREFUL AND FAVORABLE" CONSIDERATION TO THE NAMING OF COMMISSIONERS, ALTHOUGH HE SAID THAT IT IS NOT A PRECONDITION FOR A FUTURE MEETING WITH THE CHILEANS. BOTH NATIONS SHOULD WANT THE TREATY TO WORK, HE SAID AND NEITHER SHOULD "HOLD OUT" ON THE OTHER. HE REITERATED THAT THE U.S. IS READY TO MEET WITH THE CHILEANS.

9. AMBASSADOR ERRAZURIZ PROMISED TO TRANSMIT THE U.S. VIEWPOINT TO HIS GOVERNMENT AND PLEDGED THAT THE CHILEAN POSITION IS "CONSTRUCTIVE." WHAT IS NEEDED, HE SAID, IS A "TECHNICAL-JURIDICAL" STUDY OF ALL DOCUMENTS PERTAINING TO THE TREATY. CHILE IS READY TO BE FLEXIBLE ON THE TREATY, HE SAID, AND CLAIMED TO BE PLEASED TO HEAR THAT THE U.S. WILL BE THE SAME.

10. JUDGE SOFAER ADDED THAT IF CHILE IS SEEN AS NOT FULFILLING THE "PROCEDURAL STEPS" INVOLVED IN THE TREATY, ESPECIALLY WHEN THEY DO NOT PREJUDICE OTHER GOC VIEWPOINTS, THAT WOULD CAUSE A POOR IMPRESSION WITHIN THE USG. ON THE CONTRARY, HE SAID, SHOULD CHILE MOVE TO NAME COMMISSIONERS, THE EFFECT WOULD BE POSITIVE AND WOULD HELP IMPROVE THE SITUATION.

11. ERRAZURIZ REITERATED THAT THE GOC WANTS A GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH THE USG BUT ADDED THE VIEWPOINT THAT THE LETELIER CASE SHOULD NOT BE THE FOCAL POINT OF BILATERAL RELATIONS. THE CASE HAS HARMED OVERALL RELATIONS AND COOPERATION IS NEEDED IN OTHER AREAS. OAS SKOL ADDED THAT INDEED IT WOULD BE GOOD TO "GET THE LETELIER CASE LEGALLY BEHIND US" THROUGH THE TREATY PROCESS, TO WHICH ERRAZURIZ RESPONDED THAT WHAT IS NEEDED IS TO PUT THE CASE ON AN ENTIRELY "SEPARATE TRACK" SO THAT OTHER RELATIONS ARE NOT AFFECTED. HE PROMISED TO RESPOND TO THE DEPARTMENT'S NON-PAPER AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

12. JUDGE SOFAER ENDED THE MEETING BY ONCE AGAIN REMINDING THE GOC OF ITS COMMITMENTS TO ADHERE TO THE TERMS OF THE 1914 TREATY BY NAMING COMMISSIONERS.

BRIEFING MEMO

TO: D - The

FROM: ARA - M

--Political groups in Chile are actively seeking candidates for president and congress and drawing up political platforms.

--The 16 political parties which united against Pinochet for a "no" vote in the plebiscite may run a single candidate for president, the Christian Democrat leader Patricio Aylwin.

--Conservative, pro-GOC parties attemped to launch Pinochet's ex-Finance Minister Hernan Buchi as a candidate, but Buchi eliminated himself from the race on May 15, leaving the conservative camp in disarray.

--Legislation governing the size and configuration of electoral districts and the procedure for electing senators and deputies has not yet been promulgated but is expected soon.

--Other important considerations which must be dealt with in the near future are constitutional reform, the nature of civil-military relations, and the thorny issue of whether members of the Chilean Armed Forces should be subject to judicial proceedings for human rights abuses.

--While the transition to democracy is proceeding as scheduled, several hurdles must be cleared prior to and after the newly elected government takes office in March, 1990 in order for democratic rule to be consolidated.

o Chile's Dynamic Economy

--Chile's economy has been a success story, performing very well in the past five years.

--Fueled by a dynamic private sector and diversified exports, the economy has grown at a rapid pace, relatively undamaged by the fruit crisis. Inflation and unemployment are low, the country enjoys a very favorable balance of trade, and scheduled interest payments on the large foreign debt have been met.

--We have encouraged all political parties in Chile to preserve the free market policies which made these gains possible, while at the same time realizing that they will be under pressure to better distribute the fruits of this prosperity.

o The Fruit Crisis

--The five-day ban on Chilean fruit exports to the U.S. imposed by the FDA in March because of the discovery of several poisoned grapes resulted in serious short term losses to the Chilean economy and a wave of anti-Americanism not seen in Chile since the days of the Allende regime in the early 1970s.

--Final figures may never be clear, but cautious estimates indicate that the episode may cost the Chilean economy about US $100 million. This is far less than original GOC estimates and the economy as a whole is growing at a strong rate.

--Seizing the opportunity, the GOC has requested that the USG take action to alleviate the damage suffered from the disruption.

--They sought politically significant but ultimately impossible steps such as moving back the date of the USDA marketing order on Chilean grapes, reinstating Chile's GSP privileges (suspended by President Reagan in 1987 because of worker rights problems), inspecting fruit in Chile rather than the U.S., and supporting special loans to Chile from the MDBs.

--USDA worked with the Chileans to expedite treatment of their grapes but could not change the marketing order date. Positive responses to the other Chilean requests also appear infeasible but we are engaged in a cordial dialogue with the Chilean Ambassador. The tone of relations has improved and we are reviewing other possible steps.

--Despite our close working relationship with the GOC on the fruit crisis and fast action to reestablish the flow of Chilean fruit to market, the GOC feels that the USG should have provided more dramatic compensatory assistance.

o The Letelier Case

--The 1976 political murder of former Chilean Foreign Minister Orlando Letelier and his U.S. assistant in Washington D.C. ordered by high GOC officials who are still under indictment by a U.S. court and living in Chile has remained a source of bilateral tension for many years.

--After many fruitless efforts to obtain the cooperation of the GOC in bringing justice to the case, on January 12, 1989 we invoked a 1914 bilateral treaty with Chile which calls for the establishment of an international commission to determine responsibility for the crime.

--The GOC is attempting to sidetrack and delay this effort through stalling tactics aimed at avoiding the convocation of the commission.

--Legal Advisor Sofaer met with Errazuriz on May 5 and strongly urged the GOC to take steps to get the treaty commission functioning.

--Congress is interested in the case and some members may seek to take action against the GOC if the treaty process does not produce results.

Dear Mr. DeShazo:

Thank you for your to me report earlier today on the Department's progress in evoking the Treaty for the Settlement of Disputes between the United States and the Republic of Chile. I understand that your call was in response to my earlier letter to Michael Kozak seeking information on the progress of this effort.

I would appreciate it if you, or some other official of the Department, could keep me periodically advised of the progress of this effort and any important developments as they occur and that you pass along my request that the official of the State Department conducting the negotiations over the legal disputes regarding the Treaty contact me to discuss these matters.

During our discussion I raised with you my concern that the claim currently being espoused by the Department be treated as independent of the Treaty process. You assured me that the espousal claim is outstanding and viewed as a current claim. I do not, however, understand that the Department is doing anything other than its efforts to invoke the Treaty to make it clear that the failure to honor the espousal request is a continuing affront to the sovereignty of the United States. On behalf of my clients

I urge the Department to take additional steps to clarify that the continued failure of the Chilean government to honor the espousal request is a matter of grave concern.

Subject: New Proposed Amendment to the FSIA

Congressman Berman has introduced a bill to amend the FSIA (H.R. 2163) that combines elements of the former ABA-supported bill and of Senator Kennedy's proposals of last fall. H.R. 2163 would eliminate the nexus requirement in two kinds of cases:

> "in the case of a claim based upon acts of violence in the United States intended to or actually resulting in bodily harm;"
> in cases "in which the property belongs to a foreign state or an agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of a foreign state engaged in a commercial activity in the United States and the judgment relates to a claim for which the foreign state is not immune from jurisdiction by virtue of section 1605 or section 1607 of the chapter."

It is unclear whether the amendment would continue the current respect for separate juridical entities. It is silent about retroactive effect, but given Berman's sponsorship we can assume that it is intended to permit the Letelier plaintiffs to execute that judgment. It contains no exclusion for military activities.

I assume that this bill comes as a surprise to the Front Office. As a first step, I suggest that you call your contact on Berman's staff to get as much information as possible. Then we can decide how to proceed.

Mark Johnson has left H and has been replaced by Richard Mueller. The staff-level person who had followed this, Roger Woodworth, has also left. We will therefore have to reeducate H. I will also speak with Bill Bacchus.

Berman's new bill is attached. Also attached is a cut-and-paste version of the affected provision of the FSIA as it would be revised by the Berman bill.

SUBJ: BOMB THREAT AT THE BI-NATIONAL CENTER, SANTIAGO

1. ON MAY 12, 1989, AT APPROXIMATELY 8:30 AM, THE SANTIAGO BI-NATIONAL CENTER RECEIVED A TELEPHONIC BOMB THREAT. THE CALLER A YOUNG MALE SPEAKING SPANISH IN AN EDUCATED VOICE, ASKED FOR THE CENTER'S ADMINISTRATOR. HE TOLD HER THAT A BOMB HAD BEEN PLACED IN THE CENTER AND THAT IT WOULD GO OFF IN ONE HOUR. HE CALLED AGAIN A FEW MINUTES LATER TO REMIND HER THAT THE BOM WOULD GO OFF IN 57 MINUTES AND LAUGHED BEFORE HANGING UP.

2. THE POLICE WERE CALLED AND A CHECK OF THE CENTER REVEZLED NOTHING. (COMMENT: THE CALLER'S KNOWLEDGE THAT THE CENTER HAS(AN EMPLOYEE WITH THE TITLE OF ADMINISTRATOR LEADS US TO BELIEVE THAT HE WAS PROBABLY
